- (3) The licence shall expire in respect of a work when that work becomes part of the public domain.

- (4) The licence is non-exclusive and valid only in Canada. For any other country, it is the law of that country that applies.
- (5) The licensee shall pay $416.20 to the Société québécoise de gestion collective des droits de reproduction (COPIBEC), which may dispose of this amount as it sees fit for the general benefit of its members. COPIBEC undertakes, however, to reimburse any person who establishes ownership of the copyright in one or more of the works covered by this licence.
- (6) The copyright owner may terminate this licence by presenting a written notice to this effect to the BAnQ. The latter shall cease the uses granted in this licence no later than 30 days upon receipt of the notice. The copyright owner who terminates the licence is still entitled to the royalties described in paragraph (5).
- (7) The licensee shall clearly indicate the bibliographic reference for the work used in accordance with standard conventions: title of the work, author, publisher, place and date of publication.
- (8) The licensee must clearly state the following: [TRANSLATION] “Some works are used with permission under a non-exclusive licence issued by the Copyright Board of Canada. If you believe you hold the rights to works reproduced on this site, please contact the Société Québécoise de gestion collective des droits de reproduction (COPIBEC)”.
- (9) The coming into force of this licence is conditional on COPIBEC filing with the Board a Notice of Receipt of Payment and Undertaking in which it undertakes to comply with the conditions set out in paragraph (5).
