WHEREAS:

- A. Under the definition of “public utility” in section 1 of the Utilities Commission Act (Act), Big White Gas Utility Ltd. (Big White) provides the services of a public utility and is therefore required to comply with the Act or the regulations, or an order, standard or rule of the Commission;
- B. Pursuant to section 23 of the Act, the British Columbia Utilities Commission (Commission) is responsible for general supervision of all public utilities and may make orders about reporting and other matters it considers necessary or advisable for the safety and convenience or service of the public, or for the proper carrying out of this Act;
- C. Public utilities are required to file annual reports pursuant to section 24 and 49 of the Act. Commission letters L-36-94 and L-14-95 specify the requirements for public utility annual reports to the Commission. Specifically, L-36-94 states that utility annual reports are required within 4 months of a public utility’s fiscal year-end;
- D. Big White’s fiscal year-end is May 31. Accordingly, its annual report for the period ending May 31, 2013 (2013 Annual Report) was anticipated on September 30, 2013. Big White did not file the 2013 Annual Report by September 30, 2013;
- E. By letter dated December 18, 2013, the Commission requested Big White file its 2013 Annual Report by December 27, 2013;

In the email, legal counsel for Big White also requested an extension to file the 2013 Annual Report by January 31, 2014. No justification for why Big White was unable to meet the September 30 deadline was provided;
- G. In reviewing the request for extension for filing the 2013 Annual Report, the Commission noted history of compliance with the requirements for filing the utility's annual reports. The table below summarizes this history since 2008:
