REASONS FOR JUDGMENT

NOËL J.A.

[1] A notice of status review was issued on April 30, 2007 requesting the appellant to show cause why his appeal should not be dismissed for delay. On May 30, 2007, the appellant who is self-represented filed a written submission indicating that his appeal should not be dismissed and that he intends to bring a motion regarding the contents of the Appeal Book before September 30, 2007.

[2] Annexed as “Exhibit A” to the submission filed by the appellant is a document which outlines what the appellant describes as “the ultimate issue in this appeal” (submission, para. 2). It is apparent from a review of this document that the appeal brought by the appellant has no possible chance of success and that it should accordingly be dismissed at this stage.

[3] Judgment is issued accordingly.
