18. Section 13.3 is amended:

(a) by replacing subsection (1) with the following:

13.3(1) Before a registrant opens an account for a client, purchases, sells, deposits, exchanges or transfers securities for a client's account, takes any other investment action for a client, makes a recommendation or exercises discretion to take any such action, the registrant must determine, on a reasonable basis, that the action satisfies the following criteria:

(a) the action is suitable for the client, based on the following factors:

(i) the client's information collected in accordance with section 13.2 [know your client];

(ii) the registrant's assessment or understanding of the security consistent with section 13.2.1 [know your product];

(iii) the impact of the action on the client's account, including the concentration of securities within the account and the liquidity of those securities;

(iv) the potential and actual impact of costs on the client's return on investment;

(v) a reasonable range of alternative actions available to the registrant through the registered firm, at the time the determination is made;

(b) the action puts the client's interest first.

(b) by replacing subsection (2) with the following:

13.3(2) A registrant must review a client's account and the securities in the client's account to determine whether the criteria in subsection (1) are met, and take reasonable steps, within a reasonable time, after any of the following events:

(a) a registered individual is designated as responsible for the client's account;

(b) the registrant becomes aware of a change in a security in the client's account that could result in the security or account not satisfying subsection (1);

(c) the registrant becomes aware of a change in the client's information collected in accordance with subsection 13.2(2) that could result in a security or the client's account not satisfying subsection (1);

(d) the registrant reviews the client's information in accordance with subsection 13.2(4.1),

(c) by adding the following subsection:

13.3(2.1) Despite subsection (1), if a registrant receives an instruction from a client to take an action that, if taken, does not satisfy subsection (1), the registrant may carry out the client's instruction if the registrant has

- (a) informed the client of the basis for the determination that the action will not satisfy subsection (1),
- (b) recommended to the client an alternative action that satisfies subsection (1), and
- (c) received recorded confirmation of the client's instruction to proceed with the action despite the determination referred to in paragraph (a), and

(d) by replacing subsection (4) with the following:

13.3(4) This section does not apply to a registered dealer in respect of a client if it purchases or sells securities for the client only as directed by a registered adviser acting for the client.

19. The Instrument is amended by adding the following section:

Waivers

13.3.1(1) Paragraph 13.2(2)(c), subsection 13.2(4.1), and section 13.3 do not apply to a registrant in respect of a permitted client if

- (a) the client is not an individual, and
- (b) the client has requested, in writing, that the registrant not make suitability determinations for the client's account.

13.3.1(2) Paragraph 13.2(2)(c), subsection 13.2(4.1), and section 13.3 do not apply to a registrant in respect of a permitted client if

- (a) the client is an individual,
- (b) the client has requested, in writing, that the registrant not make suitability determinations for the client's account, and
- (c) the client's account is not a managed account..

20. The heading of section 13.4 is amended by replacing "Identifying and responding to conflicts of interest" with "Identifying, addressing and disclosing material conflicts of interest – registered firm".

21. Section 13.4 is replaced with the following:

Identifying, addressing and disclosing material conflicts of interest – registered firm

13.4(1) A registered firm must take reasonable steps to identify existing material conflicts of interest, and material conflicts of interest that are reasonably foreseeable,

- (a) between the firm and the client, and
- (b) between each individual acting on the firm's behalf and the client.

13.4(2) A registered firm must address all material conflicts of interest between a client and itself, including each individual acting on its behalf, in the best interest of the client.

13.4(3) A registered firm must avoid any material conflict of interest between a client and the firm, including each individual acting on its behalf, if the conflict is not, or cannot be, otherwise addressed in the best interest of the client.

13.4(4) A registered firm must disclose in writing all material conflicts of interest identified under subsection (1) to a client whose interests are affected by the conflicts of interest if a reasonable client would expect to be informed of those conflicts of interest.

13.4(5) Without limiting subsection (4), the information required to be delivered to a client under that subsection must include a description of each of the following:

- (a) the nature and extent of the conflict of interest;
- (b) the potential impact on and risk that the conflict of interest could pose to the client;
- (c) how the conflict of interest has been, or will be, addressed.

13.4(6) The disclosure required under subsection (4) must be presented in a manner that, to a reasonable person, is prominent, specific, and written in plain language.

13.4(7) A registered firm must disclose a conflict of interest to a client under subsection (4)

- (a) before opening an account for the client if the conflict has been identified at that time, or
- (b) in a timely manner, upon identification of a conflict that must be disclosed under subsection (4) that has not previously been disclosed to the client.

13.4(8) For greater certainty, a registrant does not satisfy subsection (2) or subsection 13.4.1(3) solely by providing disclosure to the client..

22. The Instrument is amended by adding the following sections:

Identifying, reporting and addressing material conflicts of interest – registered individual

13.4.1(1) A registered individual must take reasonable steps to identify existing material conflicts of interest, and material conflicts of interest that are reasonably foreseeable, between the registered individual and the client.

13.4.1(2) If a registered individual identifies a material conflict of interest under subsection (1), the registered individual must promptly report that conflict of interest to the registered individual's sponsoring firm.

13.4.1(3) A registered individual must address all material conflicts of interest between the client and the individual in the best interest of the client.

13.4.1(4) A registered individual must avoid any material conflict of interest between a client and the registered individual if the conflict is not, or cannot be, otherwise addressed in the best interest of the client.

13.4.1(5) A registered individual must not engage in any trading or advising activity in connection with a material conflict of interest identified by the registered individual under subsection (1) unless

(a) the conflict has been addressed in the best interest of the client, and

(b) the registered individual's sponsoring firm has given the registered individual its consent to proceed with the activity.

Investment fund managers

13.4.2 Sections 13.4 and 13.4.1 do not apply to an investment fund manager in respect of an investment fund that is subject to National Instrument 81-107 Independent Review Committee for Investment Funds.

23. Section 13.7 is amended:

(a) by replacing the definition of "referral arrangement" with the following:

"referral arrangement" means any arrangement in which a registrant agrees to provide or receive a referral fee to or from another person or company;, and

(b) by replacing the definition of "referral fee" with the following:

"referral fee" means any benefit provided for the referral of a client to or from a registrant.

24. Paragraph 13.8(c) is amended by replacing "registrant" with "registered firm".

25. The title of Part 13, Division 4, is amended:

(a) by replacing "Loans" with "Borrowing", and

(b) by replacing "margin" with "lending".

26. Section 13.12 is replaced with the following:

Restriction on borrowing from, or lending to, clients

13.12(1) A registrant must not lend money, extend credit or provide margin to a client unless any of the following apply:

(a) in the case of a loan, the registrant is an investment fund manager, and the money is loaned on a short-term basis to an investment fund it manages, if the loan is for the purpose of funding redemptions of the investment fund's securities or paying expenses incurred by the investment fund in the normal course of its business;

(b) in the case of a registrant that is a registered firm, the client is

(i) a registered individual sponsored by the firm,

(ii) a permitted individual, as defined in National Instrument 33-109 Registration Information, of the firm, or

(iii) a director, officer, or employee of the firm;

(c) in the case of a registrant that is a registered individual, both of the following apply:

(i) the client and the registered individual are related to each other for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada);

(ii) the registered individual has obtained the written approval of the registered individual's sponsoring firm to lend the money, extend the credit or provide the margin.

13.12(2) A registered individual must not borrow money, securities or other assets or accept a guarantee in relation to borrowed money, securities or any other assets, from a client, unless either or both of the following apply:

(a) the client is a financial institution whose business includes lending money to the public, and the loan to the registered individual is in the normal course of the financial institution's business;

(b) both of the following apply:

(i) the client and the registered individual are related to each other for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada);

(ii) the registered individual has obtained the written approval of the individual's sponsoring firm to borrow the money, securities or other assets or accept the guarantee..

27. Subsection 13.17(1) is amended by deleting "requirements".

28. Paragraph 13.17(1)(a) is replaced with the following:

(a) division 2 [conflicts of interest] of Part 13, except section 13.5 [restrictions on certain managed account transactions] and section 13.6 [disclosure when recommending related or connected securities];

29. The Instrument is amended by adding the following division:

Division 7 Misleading communications

Misleading communications

13.18(1) Registered individuals must not hold themselves out, and a registered firm must not hold itself or its registered individuals out, in a manner that could reasonably be expected to deceive or mislead any person or company as to any of the following matters:

(a) the proficiency, experience, qualifications or category of registration of the registrant;

(b) the nature of the person's relationship, or potential relationship, with the registrant;

(c) the products or services provided, or to be provided, by the registrant.

13.18(2) For greater certainty, and without limiting subsection (1), a registered individual who interacts with clients must not use any of the following:

(a) if based partly or entirely on that registered individual's sales activity or revenue generation, a title, designation, award, or recognition;

(b) a corporate officer title, unless their sponsoring firm has appointed that registered individual to that corporate office pursuant to applicable corporate law;

(c) if the individual's sponsoring firm has not approved the use by that registered individual of a title or designation, that title or designation..

30. The heading of section 14.1.1 is amended by adding “ – investment fund managers” after “Duty to provide information”.

31. Section 14.2 is amended:

(a) by adding the following subsection:

(0.1) In this section, “proprietary product” means a security of an issuer if one or more of the following apply:

(a) the issuer of the security is a connected issuer of the registered firm;

(b) the issuer of the security is a related issuer of the registered firm;

(c) the registered firm or an affiliate of the registered firm is the investment fund manager or portfolio manager of the issuer of the security.

(b) by replacing paragraph (2)(b) with the following:

(b) a general description of the products and services the registered firm will offer to the client, including

(i) a description of the restrictions on the client's ability to liquidate or resell a security, and

(ii) a statement of the investment fund management expense fees or other ongoing fees the client may incur in connection with a security or service the registered firm provides;

(c) by adding the following paragraph in subsection (2):

(b.1) a general description of any limits on the products and services the registered firm will offer to the client, including

(i) whether the firm will primarily or exclusively offer proprietary products to the client, and

(ii) whether there will be other limits on the availability of products or services;

(d) by replacing paragraph (2)(h) with the following:

(h) a general description of any benefits received, or expected to be received, by the registrant, from a person or company other than the registrant's client, in connection with the client's purchase or ownership of a security through the registrant;

(e) by replacing paragraph (2)(k) with the following:

(k) a statement that the registered firm must determine that any investment action it takes, recommends or decides on, for the client is suitable for the client and puts the client's interest first;

(f) by replacing paragraph (2)(l) with the following:

(l) the information the registered firm has collected about the client under section 13.2 [know your client];

(g) in paragraph (n) by replacing “.” with “;”, and

(h) by adding the following paragraph:

(o) a general explanation of the potential impact on a client’s investment returns from each of the fees described in subparagraph (b)(ii) and the charges described in paragraphs (f) and (g), including the effect of compounding over time.

32. Subsection 14.2.1(1) is replaced with the following subsection:

14.2.1(1) Before a registered firm accepts an instruction from a client to purchase or sell a security in an account other than a managed account, the firm must disclose to the client

(a) the charges the client will be required to pay in respect of the purchase or sale, or a reasonable estimate if the actual amount of the charges is not known to the firm at the time of disclosure,

(b) in the case of a purchase to which deferred charges apply, that the client might be required to pay a deferred sales charge on the subsequent sale of the security and the fee schedule that will apply,

(c) whether the firm will receive trailing commissions in respect of the security, and

(d) whether there are any investment fund management expense fees or other ongoing fees that the client may incur in connection with the security.
