February 4, 2021

Executive Summary

The Canadian Securities Administrators (the CSA or we) uses registration information to assess whether an individual or firm is or remains suitable for registration, with regards to their proficiency, integrity and solvency. While registered firms are responsible for the oversight of their registered individuals and permitted individuals¹ (collectively, Individual Registrants), registration is an important gatekeeper requirement in securities legislation.² Investor harm may arise if individuals and entities are inappropriately registered and carry on securities business. In this regard, we require accurate, complete and timely registration information to effectively carry out our regulatory functions.

We are proposing targeted changes to registration information requirements to provide greater clarity on the information to be submitted, to help individuals and firms (collectively, Regulated Persons) provide complete and accurate registration information, and to reduce the regulatory burden of doing so, while allowing the CSA to receive the information necessary to carry out its regulatory roles. These proposed targeted changes address issues identified by CSA staff and respond to concerns raised by Regulated Persons.

¹ Permitted individuals are reviewed by regulators due to their association with a registered firm but are not registered.

² As of September 30, 2020, there were more than 121,000 Individual Registrants and approximately 1,500 registered firms in Canada.

The targeted changes proposed by the CSA include the following:

- Establishing a new reporting framework for reporting activities carried on by Individual Registrants outside of their sponsoring firms (Outside Activities, previously referred to as “outside business activities”),
- Implementing a new rule that will replace the existing practice of imposing terms and conditions which restrict the client base of Individual Registrants whose Outside Activities are positions of influence (referred to as “restricted client terms and conditions”)³,
- Extending the deadline to report changes in registration information,
- Modifying or clarifying certain registration information requirements to adjust the burden of collection with the intended purpose of collecting that information, such as reporting changes to percentage ownership in ownership charts, reporting a change in the annual expiry date of insurance policies, and reporting changes in litigation status,
- Implementing a new rule to reduce multiple filings of the same information by corporate groups by allowing registered firms to delegate to an affiliated registered firm the requirement to notify the regulator of changes in certain registration information where the reporting and filing firms have the same principal regulator,
- Amending certain registration information requirements to provide greater clarity on the information asked for and reduce common errors, such as making clear that the following registration information is required to be disclosed:
 - allegations of non-compliance with standards of conduct, such as a firm’s policies and procedures, that existed at the time of resignation or termination from the firm (whether or not they were the reason for the resignation or termination),
 - non-compliance with securities laws, SRO rules or bylaws, standards of conduct (e.g., the sponsoring firm’s policies and procedures or the standards of conduct of an authority exercising jurisdiction over specific business activities or professions), and other detrimental information that existed at the time of resignation or termination (whether or not they were the reason for registration or termination),
 - criminal offences under any foreign law,
 - bankruptcy, consumer proposals and other insolvency events, regardless of how long ago they occurred, and
 - all non-securities licenses, including medical licenses,
- Clarifying that Form 33-109F7 Reinstatement of Registered Individuals and Permitted

³ The terms and conditions prohibit the registered individual from advising, or trading for, clients who they know from their position of influence.

Individuals (Reinstatement Form) may only be used if, among other requirements, the individual's registration information was up-to-date at the time the individual previously ceased to be registered or to be a permitted individual,

- Clarifying when certain forms should be used, such as which forms a permitted individual may be required to submit, to reduce the number of forms returned,
- Consolidating where information is provided on relevant securities experience in the forms and clarifying that only education and course information required for registration needs to be disclosed,
- Moving the certification to the front of each form and creating a single certification standard to underscore and clarify the standard of care expected of Regulated Persons when completing the forms,
- Updating and improving the readability of the privacy notice to provide greater clarity on how personal information is collected and used by the CSA and self-regulatory organizations (SROs), and
- Implementing a new requirement to collect the professional titles used by Individual Registrants.

The proposed targeted changes are not intended to change the nature of the registration process, the requirement to register or the assessment of suitability for registration.

At this time, we are not proposing new forms or enabling Form 33-109F6 Firm Registration (Firm Registration Form) to be submitted in the National Registration Database⁴ (NRD). Any amendments to the registration information requirements will require changes to the NRD and NRD is currently anticipated to be replaced by SEDAR+⁵ in 2023. The proposed targeted changes are intended to provide the most benefit to Regulated Persons and regulators, given the costs to make changes in NRD and considering that NRD will eventually be replaced by SEDAR+.

To seek feedback on these proposed targeted changes, we are publishing, for a 90-day comment period:

- Proposed amendments to National Instrument 33-109 Registration Information (NI 33-109), including its related forms (the Registration Forms), and changes to Companion Policy 33-109CP Registration Information (33-109CP), and
- Related proposed amendments to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (NI 31-103) and changes to Companion

Policy 31-103CP Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (31-103CP).

We refer to the proposed amendments to NI 33-109 and NI 31-103 and changes to 33-109CP and 31-103CP collectively as the Proposed Revisions.

Background

A Regulated Person submits registration information to regulators and is required to keep this information up-to-date. There are seven Registration Forms, the primary forms being Form 33-109F4 Registration of Individuals and Review of Permitted Individuals (Individual Registration Form) and the Firm Registration Form. The registration information collected includes, among other things, criminal history, financial information (such as consumer proposals, bankruptcy and other insolvency events), and lawsuits. For an individual, it also includes information about the individual's education and work experience, and their Outside Activities.

Based on this information, we consider whether a Regulated Person is able to carry out their obligations under securities legislation. High standards of fitness and business conduct, as well as a demonstrated commitment to compliance with securities laws must be met to be registered. If individuals and entities are inappropriately registered and carry on securities business, investor harm may arise. In this regard, registration protects investors from unfair, improper or fraudulent practices and fosters fair and efficient capital markets and confidence in capital markets.

The submission of registration information represents an important touchpoint between regulators and Regulated Persons. The number of registration information filings submitted in Canada in the calendar year 2019 was more than 180,000.

Areas of concern and Proposed Revisions

The Proposed Revisions may be grouped into several areas and below we discuss each area and the changes we propose to make.

(i) Outside Activities and positions of influence

Individual Registrants are currently required to disclose "any employment and business activities outside the sponsoring firm", all director and officer and other equivalent positions, and all positions of influence. The high volume of submissions we receive for these types of filings reflects the broad scope of these requirements. Over the last three years, Individual Registrants submitted on average 58,896 filings annually to us pertaining to updates on Outside Activities.

CSA staff have commonly found instances where Regulated Persons have failed to disclose, or were late in disclosing, Outside Activities. These findings raise concerns that registered firms may not be aware of and are not able to address, or address in a timely manner, the risks and conflicts from their Individual Registrants' Outside Activities.

We understand that Regulated Persons may sometimes struggle to comply with reporting Outside Activities to us. Regulated Persons have raised the following concerns to us about reporting on Outside Activities:

- Some Regulated Persons are of the view that the requirement is broad and unclear. It requires the disclosure of “any employment and business activities outside the sponsoring firm”, but this information must be provided, whether or not any such position is business-related.
- Registered firms do not find the 10-day deadline to be a sufficient amount of time for an Individual Registrant to report an Outside Activity to the firm and for the firm to review and assess if the firm should approve the Outside Activity and whether the Outside Activity is reportable.
- The disclosure requirement captures some Outside Activities that, in their view, do not raise conflicts of interest or provide information relevant to regulators to assess suitability for registration.

Regulated Persons have indicated that they would like a clearer, more consistent, and principles-based approach to reporting Outside Activities among the CSA and SROs.

In addition, restricted client terms and conditions are imposed on registrations of individuals who are in a position of influence (e.g., clergy, doctor, nurse, caregiver, professor) on a case-by-case basis when they are reported to us. These terms and conditions restrict the client base of a person who is in a position of influence (i.e., the registered individual may not deal with or advise investors who are subject to their influence). These restricted client terms and conditions are imposed to protect investors and are necessary for the sponsoring firm to adequately supervise the Outside Activity. However, Regulated Persons have raised the concern that it is unclear which Outside Activities are positions of influence, as “position of influence” is not defined. As of October 8, 2019, 354 registered individuals’ registrations had restricted client terms and conditions.

Each CSA jurisdiction has communicated their concerns with Regulated Persons’ compliance with reporting Outside Activities. Additionally, CSA Staff Notice 31-326 Outside Business Activities was published in July 2011 and subsequently incorporated into 31-103CP to provide additional guidance on Outside Activities.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Restrictions on the client base of a registered individual who is in a position of influence are imposed on a case-by-case basis by applying restricted client terms and conditions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduce in subsections 13.4.3(3) and (4) of NI 31-103, a new rule that codifies the restriction of the client base of a registered individual who is in a position of influence.

Registered firms have and will continue to have the primary responsibility for the oversight of their Individual Registrants. This includes addressing the risks of their Individual Registrants’ Outside Activities (including where the individual is in a position of influence) and the conflicts of interest that may arise. We propose updating 31-103CP to provide more guidance on our expectations relating to Regulated Persons’ obligations to supervise and monitor their Individual Registrants’ Outside Activities.

We acknowledge that many Regulated Persons find the obligation to report Outside Activities to be broad and that it creates a regulatory burden. The proposed framework for the reporting of Outside Activities is intended to narrow the Outside Activities that are reportable to us and provide clarity on the requirements. At the same time, we will continue to receive information about Outside Activities that we consider relevant for assessing suitability for registration and to provide compliance oversight of Regulated Persons using a risk-based approach.

The introduction of reportable categories of Outside Activities might require Regulated Persons to make changes to certain policies and procedures. Our intention is to provide greater clarity to Regulated Persons in this area and we expect these changes will result in a reduction of Outside Activities reported to us.

Under the Proposed Revisions, only specific Outside Activities will be reportable to us. Some Outside Activities are reportable to us whenever they are undertaken (such as activities that involve securities, financial services or positions of influence). Other Outside Activities are generally only reportable to us if the total amount of time spent by the individual on all Outside Activities (including activities that involve securities, financial and financial-related services or positions of influence) exceeds a cumulative minimum time threshold.

Uncompensated activities, such as volunteer or community work, that do not involve securities or financial services or are not a position of influence would no longer be reportable to us. In addition, some employment or business activities, such as involvement with non-active entities (e.g., personal holding companies) or acting as a landlord, may no longer be reportable if in combination with all other Outside Activities, those activities do not exceed the cumulative minimum time threshold.

The proposed new rule on positions of influence codifies the existing case-by-case practice, which is to impose restricted client terms and conditions on individuals' registrations. We also propose guidance on what a position of influence is. This new rule and guidance allow registered firms to continue to manage their Individual Registrants' Outside Activities. We expect the new rule and guidance will also provide transparency and consistency relating to the treatment of Outside Activities that are positions of influence.

Questions for comment

1. Are there other categories of Outside Activities that should be reportable to regulators? If so, please describe what categories of Outside Activities should be reportable to regulators.
2. Considering the proposed framework for reporting of Outside Activities, are there categories of Outside Activities that should not be reportable to regulators? If so, please describe what categories of Outside Activities should not be reportable to regulators.
3. Are there any challenges that Regulated Persons may face to administer the proposed reporting regime for Outside Activities? If so, please explain the challenges.

4. Is 7 years an appropriate amount of time to report on past Outside Activities that involved raising money for an entity through the issuance of securities or derivatives or promoting the sale of an entity’s securities or derivatives? Please explain your view.
5. Is 30 hours per month (based upon 7.5 hours per week for four weeks) an appropriate cumulative minimum time threshold for reporting all Outside Activities? Please explain your view.
6. Will Regulated Persons have sufficient time to report Outside Activities given the Proposed Revisions? If not, please explain the challenge in reporting Outside Activities within the proposed revised deadline.
7. Are there other positions that should be considered positions of influence? If so, please describe these positions and explain why they should be positions of influence.
8. Is “susceptibility” the appropriate term to describe the impact of the influence on the individual subject to the influence? If not, please explain why not and propose alternative language.
9. Are there any aspects of the new rule on positions of influence that you expect will be difficult to administer? If so, please describe the difficulty.

(ii) Reporting deadlines

Regulated Persons are generally required to inform regulators of changes to registration information previously provided in the Individual Registration Form and in the Firm Registration Form within 10 calendar days of the change. The exceptions are changes to citizenship and previous employment information in the Individual Registration Form and changes to business history in the Firm Registration Form, which may be reported within 30 calendar days.

Many firms have a strong desire to meet filing requirements and make use of compliance and registration staff and in-house legal counsel to meet reporting deadline requirements. Regulated Persons have informed us that providing changes in a majority of areas within 10 days is challenging, especially for larger firms with numerous Individual Registrants. If multiple changes occur within a short timeframe, Regulated Persons may be required to file multiple notices of change.

Proposed revisions

Concern	Proposed Revisions to Address Concern
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regulated Persons find reporting changes in certain registration information within 10 days challenging. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extend the reporting deadlines from 10 days to 15 days by amending Parts 3 and 4 of NI 33-109. • Extend the reporting deadline from 10 days to 30 days for changes in the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ An Individual Registrant’s current

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">and previous residential address;○ An Individual Registrant’s mailing address;○ Outside Activities;○ A registered firm’s securities registration;○ A registered firm’s auditor;○ Whether and where a registered firm holds client assets; and○ A registered firm’s conflicts of interest by amending Parts 3 and 4 of NI 33-109.

Generally, we have maintained two reporting deadlines for changes in registration information. Multiple reporting deadlines will increase complexity. We are concerned that any additional deadlines would increase the potential for a Regulated Person to identify the wrong deadline and fail to report on a timely basis. Similarly, we are concerned that longer reporting deadlines may result in more late filings, and late filings being filed even later.

We will require forms relating to a change in an individual’s status, such as becoming a permitted individual or ceasing to be a registered individual or a permitted individual, to be submitted within 10 days of the change in registration status.

Questions for comment

10. Do you see any challenges in reporting updates to registration information by the proposed deadlines? If so, please identify the registration information that this would be challenging for and explain the challenges.

(iii) Regulatory burden of certain reporting requirements

We have heard from stakeholders that some specific registration information requirements may create a disproportionate reporting burden relative to their original purpose. For example, a registered firm is required to provide a chart showing the registered firm’s structure and ownership, including the percentage ownership of the registered firm’s voting securities, and to report changes in this ownership chart. We receive numerous filings reporting small changes to percentage ownership. Many of these small changes in percentage ownership are not material.

In addition, where multiple entities of a corporate group are registered, each registered firm often notifies the regulator of the same changes to the ownership chart. We have identified other areas where affiliated registered firms often submit the same information.

Reporting the expiry date of an insurance policy is another example. Since insurance policies are generally renewed annually, registered firms are required to report this change annually, even if there has otherwise been no change in the insurance policy.

In other cases, additional guidance is required to help Regulated Persons provide the necessary information. For example, currently registered firms are required to disclose outstanding litigation, including the “current state” of the litigation. We routinely receive non-material updates (e.g., adjournments) from registered firms striving to comply with this requirement.

We have reviewed these and other similar areas, and have considered whether the requirements may be amended or clarified to reduce regulatory burden without impacting our receipt of information necessary to carry out our regulatory role.

Proposed revisions

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Regulators receive numerous filings of small changes in percentage ownership. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reduce the requirement for reporting changes in percentage ownership on an ownership chart to when the percentage ownership exceeds or falls below 10%, 20%, or 50% by adding paragraph 3.1(3)(f) of NI 33-109.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Affiliated registered firms of a corporate group notify the regulator of the same changes in certain registration information. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide a mechanism for a registered firm to delegate to another registered firm the requirement to notify the regulator of changes in certain registration information by adding subsection 3.1(2.1) of NI 33-109.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is burdensome to annually report the renewal of an insurance policy. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Remove the requirement to report a change in the expiry date of a registered firm’s insurance policy where the insurance policy has not lapsed and there have been no other changes to the insurance policy by adding subsection 3.1(3)(e) of NI 33-109.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is unclear what information on change in status of a litigation is required. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide additional guidance on changes in litigation to be reported in 33-109CP.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Of the Registration Forms, only the Firm Registration Form is required to be witnessed by a notary or lawyer. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Remove the requirement that the Firm Registration Form be witnessed.

We believe these Proposed Revisions will reduce the burden on Regulated Persons, without impacting regulators’ ability to oversee Regulated Persons.

Reporting changes in ownership charts is a high-volume area. We expect that reporting changes in percentage ownership only where a person or company’s percentage of ownership crosses certain thresholds will reduce the number of filings, while providing regulators with relevant information about the ownership of the registered firm.

Providing a mechanism for one authorized affiliate to notify the regulator of changes in certain registration information for itself and its affiliates who have the same principal regulator is intended to reduce the burden of multiple filings of the same information by different registered affiliated entities.

As many insurance policies are renewed annually, we have removed the requirement to report a change in the expiry date of a registered firm's insurance policy when the policy is merely renewed. This should reduce the burden where there is otherwise no change to the insurance policy. We continue to expect registered firms to report where there are changes to the insurance policy or coverage (other than its expiry date) and when the insurance policy has lapsed.

Questions for comment

11. Are there any other thresholds where a change in percentage ownership in the ownership chart should be reported or any thresholds where changes should not be reported? If so, please explain what other thresholds should be included or what thresholds should not be reported.
12. Do you see foresee any legal, operational or other challenges for a registered firm to delegate to another affiliated registered firm the requirement to notify the regulator of changes in certain registration information? If so, please explain the challenges.
13. Are there circumstances where a notice of change in registration information should not be delegated to an affiliate? Please describe.
14. Are there other circumstances where a notice of change in registration information may be delegated to an affiliate? Please describe.
15. In a legal action, are there changes other than documentary discovery and adjournments that could significantly affect the firm, its business or the outcome of the legal action but should not be reported for other reasons or would be captured in reporting elsewhere?

(iv) Common errors and updated certification requirements

Each Registration Form requires an attestation from the Regulated Person who is completing and submitting the form that the information provided to regulators is true and complete. However, we consistently receive Registration Forms which are incomplete and inaccurate.

Incomplete or inaccurate information, or even information that is not provided in a clear manner, increases the regulatory burden on Regulated Persons as they must spend additional time and resources to respond to our inquiries. At the same time, it hinders our ability to reach prompt and appropriate determinations on suitability for registration. CSA staff spend time and resources to resolve these issues including to determine whether inaccurate or incomplete information arises because

- the registration information requirement is unclear,
- despite the certification requirement, the Regulated Person is not carefully completing the Registration Forms,

- the Regulated Person does not understand the registration information requirements,
- the sponsoring firm, who is required to have discussed the Registration Form with the Individual Registrants, is not providing adequate support, and/or
- the Regulated Person is not being forthright.

Certain areas of the Individual Registration Form are also more likely to be filled out incorrectly.

For example, the following information has not always been disclosed:

- allegations of non-compliance with standards of conduct, such as a firm’s policies and procedures, that existed at the time of resignation or termination from the firm (whether or not they were the reason for resignation or termination);
- non-compliance with securities laws, SRO rules or bylaws, or standards of conduct (e.g., the sponsoring firm’s policies and the standards of conduct of an authority exercising jurisdiction over specific business activities or professions), and other detrimental information that existed at the time of resignation or termination (regardless of whether they were the reason for resignation or termination);
- criminal offences under foreign laws; and
- past consumer proposals, bankruptcy and other insolvency events, particularly where they are over seven years old, despite the registration information requirements not having a time limit.

In addition, we do not always receive sufficiently detailed information on an individual’s securities experience relevant to the registration category.

The CSA routinely communicates with Regulated Persons on ways to facilitate and expedite registration applications, as well as on the errors in registration information that has been provided. These communications include publishing guidance that describe common deficiencies from applications and from updates provided on changes to registration information, and holding in-person meetings with compliance staff at registered firms.

The CSA also published CSA Staff Notice 33-320 The Requirement for True and Complete Applications for Registration in July 2017 to alert stakeholders to the serious problem of false or misleading applications for registration, to caution them about the potential consequences of submitting such applications, and to provide guidance regarding the completion of the Registration Forms.

The amendments to the registration information requirements are intended to enhance the clarity of the registration information sought, which may:

- Help firms and applicants complete the Registration Forms more efficiently, and
- Reduce the number of inaccurate and incomplete forms received by regulators and reduce the additional time required by Regulated Persons and regulators to resolve these issues.

We expect that creating a single certification standard will provide clarity and consistency on regulatory expectations concerning the submission of information and the amount of diligence required by Regulated Persons.

Questions for comment

16. Do the Proposed Revisions offer sufficient clarity to the registration information requirements? If not, please explain which registration information requirement remains unclear and why.
17. Are there any circumstances where the certification standard may not be met or be applicable? If so, please describe the circumstances.

(v) Privacy notice and consent

Personal information is collected by the CSA to administer and enforce securities laws, and by the SROs to administer and enforce the rules of the SROs. This includes using the information collected to assess a Regulated Person’s suitability for registration. As regulatory organizations, we are required to abide by the provisions of applicable privacy and securities laws in the collection, use and disclosure of personal information. The privacy notices we rely on to meet these obligations should be reviewed and updated to reflect our data practices and meet the latest requirements provided by law.

Proposed revisions

Concerns	Proposed Revisions to Address Concerns
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Privacy notices should be routinely reviewed and updated and should be easy to understand. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Update the notice of use and collection of personal information in each of the Registration Forms and improve readability.

We have updated the privacy notice and made it clearer to read so that Regulated Persons can easily understand what personal information is being collected, why it is being collected, and when and how it is being collected. For example, we collect personal information at any time, not just at application, but periodically throughout the time the person is registered and at termination or resignation. Personal information may also be collected from a variety of sources.

For example, when conducting background checks for the initial application, we may review social media and request information from previous employers.

(vi) Collecting information on professional titles

Professional titles are often used to convey the functions of the person providing the service. Currently, the Individual Registration Form requires Individual Registrants to disclose the name and title of their immediate supervisor, but not the Individual Registrant’s own titles at their sponsoring firm.

Without information about the titles used by Individuals Registrants, regulators have incomplete information on what titles are being used, the services being provided under those titles, and whether the titles properly reflect the Individual Registrant’s ability and registration categories.

In addition, from reviews of applications, we have identified individuals who are not yet registered and who are using titles in social media, and in some cases, on the sponsoring firm’s website, that imply that they are registered, or are registered in a specific category, when they are not.

Proposed revisions

Concern	Proposed Revision to Address Concern

We do not anticipate the disclosure of this information to be a material burden for Individual Registrants. Receiving this information will enhance the regulator’s ability to effectively carry out its mandate.

Questions for comment

18. Do you see any challenges in reporting the title(s) used by Individual Registrants? If so, please explain.

Proposed Transition

Subject to the nature of comments we receive and the time to make the changes to NRD, as well as any applicable regulatory requirements (including Ministerial approval), we are proposing that if approved, the proposed amendments to NI 33-109 and to NI 31-103 are expected to come into force at the end of 2021 (the Proposed Effective Date).

Where after the Proposed Effective Date there is a change to the registration information that was previously reported, we expect Regulated Persons will update the registration information for that change and will review and update any other registration information that is not complete or accurate in light of the Proposed Revisions.

With respect to the proposed amendments to NI 31-103 relating to positions of influence, we anticipate that there will be a six-month transition period for registered firms. Firms will need to identify registered individuals holding positions of influence that have not previously been reported and to implement policies and procedures where they do not have such policies and procedures in place. Any existing registered individual who holds a position of influence but is not already subject to restricted client terms and conditions will be able to use the transition period to transfer their affected clients to another registered individual.

For any existing registered individual who is subject to restricted client terms and conditions relating to a position of influence, regulators will lift those restricted client terms and conditions on the date that the 6-month transition period elapses so that only the restriction relating to positions of influence applicable to all registered firms and registered individuals under NI 31-103 will apply.

Questions for comment:

19. Registered firms are required to keep accurate records, including copies of forms submitted to the regulators. Are there any circumstances where an Individual Registrant will need to request a copy of their Individual Registration Form from the regulator to update information that is not complete or accurate? If so, please describe these circumstances.
20. What are your views on the transition plan for the proposed amendments to NI 31-103 relating to positions of influence?
21. Are there any significant operational changes that you need to make in order to implement the Proposed Revisions? If so, please describe these operational changes.

Stakeholder feedback

The CSA worked together with staff of both the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) and the Mutual Fund Dealers Association (MFDA) to develop the Proposed Revisions. We encourage all Regulated Persons, including IIROC and MFDA members, to provide their comments on the Proposed Revisions. At a later date, the SROs may propose conforming amendments, where necessary, to SRO rules consistent with the Proposed Revisions.

Additionally, the Proposed Revisions have been developed with input from the following:

Line 5. Related-party debt – Refer to the ~~CICA Handbook~~ CPA Canada Handbook for the definition of “related party” for publicly accountable enterprises. The firm is required to deliver a copy of the executed subordination agreement to the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority on the earlier of a) 10 days after the date the agreement is executed or b) the date an amount subordinated by the agreement is excluded from its calculation of excess working capital on Form 31-103F1 Calculation of Excess Working Capital. The firm must notify the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority, 10 days before it repays the loan (in whole or in part), or terminates the subordination agreement. See section 12.2 of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations.

Item 10 Submission to jurisdiction and collection and use of personal information

1. Submission to jurisdiction

By submitting this form, you agree to be subject to the securities legislation or derivatives legislation or both of each jurisdiction of Canada, and to the bylaws, regulations, rules, rulings and policies (collectively referred to as “rules” in this form) of the SROs to which you have submitted this form. This includes the jurisdiction of any tribunals or any proceedings that relate to your activities as a registrant or a partner, director or officer of a registrant under that securities legislation or derivatives legislation or both or as an approved person under SRO rules.

2. Notice of collection and use of personal information

Your personal information is collected by, or on behalf of, each securities regulatory authority and SRO set out in Schedule F. Any of the securities regulatory authorities or SROs set out in Schedule F may contact government or private bodies or agencies, individuals, corporations, employers, and other organizations, in Canada and in other countries, for information about you.

This personal information is being collected under the authority of the applicable securities legislation, derivatives legislation (including commodity futures legislation) or both of the securities regulatory authorities and pursuant to the SRO rules of an SRO set out in Schedule F. The collection, use and disclosure are done in accordance with applicable freedom of information and privacy legislation.

The principal purpose of this collection by the securities regulatory authorities is to administer, enforce, carry out their duties or exercise their powers under their respective securities legislation, derivatives legislation (including commodity futures legislation) or both, and by the SROs to administer and enforce the rules of the SROs.

The information submitted by you in this form with your consent, or collected indirectly with your authorization, may be collected

- at the time of your application,

Note that certain information such as your name(s) (including aliases, trade names or some past names), your sponsoring firm, and other relevant registration information will be listed in a publicly available registry of registered individuals and, if applicable, on the Disciplined List.

Also note that certain securities regulatory authorities may provide or receive information to or from certain entities under separate provisions of their securities legislation or derivatives legislation (including commodity futures legislation) or both, and SROs may provide or receive information under the rules of the SROs. This consent and notice does not limit the authority, powers, obligations or rights conferred on any of the securities regulatory authorities by legislation or regulations in effect in their jurisdiction.

3. Consent to collect and use personal information

By submitting this form, you consent to and authorize the collection, directly and indirectly, of personal information by each securities regulatory authority and SRO and to the use of your personal information as set out above.

5. Section 2.2 is changed
 - (a) by adding “(Subsections 2.2(1) and 2.5(1))” at the end of the subheading “Types of submissions using Form 33-109F4”,
 - (b) by adding “(Sections 2.3 and 2.5)” at the end of the subheading “Submissions by Permitted Individuals”,
 - (c) by adding the following text between the subheading “Submissions by permitted individuals” and the subheading “Agent for service”:

Relevant securities industry experience (Form 33-109F2 – Item 4.3 and Schedule A; Form 33-109F4 – Item 8.4 and Schedule F)

The regulators or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority will assess whether an individual has gained relevant securities industry experience on a case-by-case basis. It may include experience acquired:

- during employment at a registered dealer, a registered adviser or an investment fund manager;
 - in related investment fields, such as investment banking, securities trading on behalf of a financial institution, securities research, portfolio management, investment advisory services or supervision of those activities;
 - in legal, accounting or consulting practices related to the securities industry;
- and

- in other professional service fields that relate to the securities industry, or in a securities-related business in a foreign jurisdiction.

The securities industry experience described should be relevant to the category applied for. Please see section 3.4 [Proficiency – initial and ongoing] of the Companion Policy to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations for more guidance on relevant securities industry experience.

Reportable activities (Form 33-109F4 – Item 10 and Schedule G; Form 33-109F7 – Item 7 and Schedule D)

Individuals must report all activities with their sponsoring firm and certain activities carried on outside of their sponsoring firm in Form 33-109F4 and Form 33-109F7. Activity changes must be reported by the individuals in Form 33-109F5.

To illustrate the analysis on whether an activity outside of the sponsoring firm is reportable in Item 10.2 [Reportable outside activities] of Form 33-109F4 or in Item 7.2 [Reportable outside activities] of Form 33-109F7, Appendix C has been included in this Companion Policy.

The regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority will take into account the reportable activities when assessing that individual's application for registration or continuing fitness for registration and the sponsoring firm's fitness for registration, including the following:

- whether the individual will have sufficient time to effectively carry out their registerable activities, including remaining current on securities law and product knowledge,
- whether the individual will be able to properly service clients,
- whether there is a risk of client confusion and if so, what the risk is and whether there are effective controls and supervision in place to address the risk,
- whether the reportable outside activity presents a material conflict of interest for the individual, and whether that material conflict of interest has been addressed in the best interest of the client,
- whether the reportable outside activity provides the individual with access to privileged, confidential or insider information relevant to their registerable activities.

Category 1 – Activities with another registered firm

Generally, we expect any activity with another registered firm to be reported, whether or not the activity at the other firm requires the individual to be registered. For example, the following roles are reportable: being an advising or dealing representative, owner, director, research analyst, compliance consultant, client relationship manager, human resources manager, or IT service provider for another registered firm.

Category 2 - Activities with an entity that receives compensation from a registered firm

If the individual is the owner (e.g., shareholder, partner), management (e.g., director or officer), or employee of an unregistered entity that receives compensation, such as sales commissions or referral fees, from a registered firm, this activity is reportable. For example, being an employee or owner of an entity that has entered into an agreement in the form set out in Schedule 'A' of MFDA Staff Notice MSN-0072 Payment of Commissions to Unregistered Corporations is reportable.

Category 3 - Other securities-related activities

Activities that involve raising money for an entity, such as structuring the security or derivative, preparing the offering document, soliciting investors, or promoting the sale of a security or derivative are reportable. The activity must be reported if it was carried out any time in the last 7 years.

Given the role of a director or officer in a corporation as the directing mind and management and the nature of partnerships and trusts, we would consider a director, officer, partner, or equivalent position (such as trustees) of an entity that, within the last 7 years, raised money through the issuance of securities or derivatives to be directly involved and thus would be reportable. For example, being the President of a mortgage investment entity that is raising money would be reportable. We would also consider being a director or officer of a reporting issuer to be reportable, such as being a director of a TSX-listed company.

An individual who works at an entity that is raising money through the issuance of securities or derivatives, but has no direct involvement in the capital raising activity, such as a computer programmer at a fintech start-up, would not be required to report, unless the activity falls within another reporting category.

Similarly, charitable or other fundraising activities that do not involve the issuance of securities or derivatives would not be reportable. For example, volunteering for an organization to seek charitable donations would not be reportable.

Category 4 – Provision of financial or financial-related services

An individual is required to report certain financial and financial-related activities, whether or not compensation is received for providing the services. An individual is also expected to report if the individual is a shareholder, partner, director, or officer of an entity that provides one of those services. This includes activities where the individual is responsible for the oversight or provides independent review or expert opinion on the management of an entity's financial assets. For example, being a member of an investment committee that oversees the management of a university's endowment funds or a charity's financial capital, or being a trustee of a family trust.

Category 5 - Positions of influence

A position of influence is defined in section 13.4.3 of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations. All positions of influence are reportable. Please see the guidance in section 13.4.3 of the Companion Policy to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations.

Category 6 - Specified activities

An individual may participate in one or more activities outside of their sponsoring firm. Where an individual is involved in multiple activities, each activity on its own may not require a significant amount of time. However, if the total amount of time required to carry out all of these activities is significant, particularly where the activity is compensated, it could interfere with the individual's ability to properly carry out registrable functions. As a result, each of these activities is required to be reported when the total amount of time spent on specified activities exceeds 30 hours per month. For example, if an individual held two part-time jobs that each requires the individual to work 20 hours per month, the individual would be required to report each position separately since the total amount of time required is 40 hours per month.

When calculating the total amount of time spent on outside activities, time spent on all reportable outside activities from each category is to be included. For example, if an individual spends 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm, but also holds a part-time job providing bookkeeping services that requires on average 15 hours per month, and provides taxi services for 20 hours per month, then both the bookkeeping position (which is reportable under Category 4) and the taxi services should be summed up. In this scenario, the total number of hours spent on outside activities per month, on average, is 35 hours (the 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm is not counted). Since the total amount of time spent on specified activities exceeds 30 hours per month, the taxi position is required to be reported under Category 6. However, if the individual did not provide bookkeeping services, then the taxi services would not be required to be reported because the total amount of time spent on specified activities is less than 30 hours per month. The bookkeeping activity is reportable under Category 4 no matter how much time it takes or what other activities the individual undertakes.

Appendix C sets out a chart to help individuals determine whether a particular activity is reportable. For example, an individual may need to determine whether a paid part-time job in a warehouse fulfilment centre that requires on average 10 hours per month should be reported. The individual spends 15 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm, has a paid part-time job as a restaurant employee for 15 hours per month, and also volunteers at a local veterinary clinic for 10 hours per month. The position with the warehouse fulfilment centre does not fall within Categories 1 to 5, but is compensated activity and would fall within the first box of Category 6. As a result, the total amount of time working at the warehouse fulfilment centre and the restaurant should be summed up (the restaurant position would fall within item (iii) of the second box of Category 6 being other activities for which the individual is compensated). The volunteer position at the local veterinary clinic does not fall under Categories 1 to 6 since it is unpaid activity and does not need to be reported. In this scenario, the total number of hours spent on outside activities per month, on average, is 25 hours (the 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm is not counted). Since the total amount of time spent on specified activities is less than 30 hours per month, neither the position with the warehouse fulfilment centre nor with the restaurant are required to be reported under Category 6.

We expect individuals to determine how much time they spend on a particular activity in any given month by taking into consideration that the time spent may vary from week to week and from month to month over a year, particularly where the activity is seasonal, such as tax services. For example, if an activity requires 60 hours for 3 months, but only 5 hours for the remaining 9 months of the year, the activity on average would only require 18.75 hours per month. If this was the only outside activity the individual participates in, it would not be reportable. However, we note that even if the activity is not reportable, we would expect firms to have policies and procedures in place to address the impact of seasonal work on the registered individual's and the firm's ability to meet their regulatory obligations.

Uncompensated activities and activities not requiring significant amounts of time

Generally, uncompensated activities that do not involve securities or financial services and are not positions of influence are not reportable and not factored in when calculating the total amount of time spent on outside activities. For example, volunteer activities, such as being a little league soccer coach or volunteering at an animal shelter, are not required to be reported as they are uncompensated. Additionally, involvement with entities with non-active operations, such as being the owner of a holding company, would likely not be reportable because time spent on this activity does not usually meet the threshold requiring more than an average of 30 hours or more per month.

Resignation and terminations (Form 33-109F4 – Item 12 and Schedule I)

Individuals must report whether they have resigned or been terminated from a position or contract and whether, at the time of their resignation or termination, there existed allegations that the individual: (i) contravened any statutes, regulations, orders of a court or regulatory body, rules or bylaws, or failed to meet standards of conduct, (ii) failed to appropriately supervise compliance with any statutes, regulations, orders of a court or regulatory body, rules, bylaws or standards of conduct, or (iii) committed a crime. Standards of conduct may be internal to the sponsoring firm, such as a sponsoring firm’s policies and procedures, or may be external to the sponsoring firm, such as the standards of conduct of an authority exercising jurisdiction over specific business activities or professions.

When providing information about resignations or terminations, individuals must disclose the day that they ceased to carry on duties for the entity or firm they resigned or were terminated from. This date may coincide with the end of the individual’s employment, partnership or agency relationship. However, this date can also occur earlier, such as when an individual is subjected to an internal firm suspension or the individual’s authority has otherwise been reduced or curtailed pending an internal review. Individuals should provide the date they ceased to carry on duties and not merely the end of an individual’s employment, partnership or agency relationship.

In addition, at the time the individual resigned or was terminated from the former sponsoring firm, all of the information previously submitted in Form 33-109F4, including Item 12, must have been up-to-date. Changes in outstanding legal actions

Registered firms are required to provide updates on the changes in legal actions reported in item 8.3 of Form 33-109F6. This includes claims, defenses, counterclaims, and amendments. In addition, we expect registered firms to inform regulators of any decisions in the legal action that could significantly affect the firm, its business or the outcome of the legal action. Reporting of documentary discovery and adjournments are not required.

 - (b) by replacing the two paragraphs following the heading with the following:

Under section 4.2 of the Rule, a registered firm must notify the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority no more than 10 days after an individual ceased to have authority to act on behalf of the registered firm, as a registered individual or permitted individual. Typically, this occurs due to the cessation of the individual’s employment, partnership or agency relationship with the registered firm. However, it also occurs when an individual is re-assigned to a different position at the registered firm that does not require registration or is no longer a permitted individual category. Section 4.2 requires that firms notify the regulator within 10 days of the date that the person ceased to have authority to act and not merely the end of an individual’s employment, partnership or agency relationship. Please refer to the definition “cessation date”. Form 33-109F1 is submitted through the NRD website to give notice of the cessation date and the reason for the cessation.

Under paragraph 4.2(1)(b) of the Rule, the information in Item 5 [Details about the cessation] of a Form 33-109F1 must be submitted unless the cessation of authority to act on behalf of the registered firm was caused by the death of the individual. A registered firm can submit the information in Item 5 either at the time of making the initial submission on NRD, if the information is available within that 10 day period, or within 30 days of the cessation date, by making an NRD submission entitled “Update / Correct Cessation Information”..

15. Section 4.1 is changed by adding “(Subsections 4.2(3) and (4))” at the end of the heading “Obligations of former sponsoring firm”.

16. Section 4.2 is changed

(a) by adding “(Section 5.1)” at the end of the heading “Obligations of new sponsoring firm”, and

(b) by adding “sponsoring” before “firm” wherever it appears, except in the following sentence “If a sponsoring firm cannot obtain it from the sponsored individual, as a last resort the sponsored individual should request it from the regulator.”.

Companion Policy 33-109CP Registration Information

PART 1 – GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This Companion Policy sets out how the Canadian Securities Administrators interpret or apply National Instrument 33-109 Registration Information (the Rule).

The registration requirement in securities legislation provides protection to investors from unfair, improper or fraudulent practices and enhances capital market integrity and efficiency. The information required under the Rule allows regulators to assess a filer's fitness for registration or for permitted individual status, with regard to their solvency, integrity and proficiency. These fitness requirements are the cornerstones of the registration requirement. In each jurisdiction of Canada the registration requirement and the Rule apply to dealers, underwriters, advisers and investment fund managers and to individuals who act on their behalf as registered or permitted individuals.

1.2 Definition of permitted individuals \(Section 1.1\)

Section 1.1 of the Rule defines a permitted individual as an individual who meets the criteria set forth in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of the definition. A permitted individual may or may not be a registered individual. For example, the chief executive officer of a registered firm is registered as the firm's ultimate designated person and is also a permitted individual. The definition of permitted individual allows the Rule to separate out the filing requirements which are applicable only to permitted individuals from those which are applicable to registered individuals.

1.3 Overview of the forms

The following forms are for firms:

- Form 33-109F3 Business Locations other than Head Office – to disclose each business location of the firm and any change of business location
- Form 33-109F6 Firm Registration – to apply for registration as a dealer, adviser or investment fund manager

The following forms are for individuals and are submitted in NRD format:

- ~~Form 33-109F1 Notice of Termination of Registered Individuals and Permitted Individuals – to notify the regulator that a registered or permitted individual has ceased to have authority to act on behalf of the firm~~ Form 33-109F1 Notice of End of Individual Registration or Permitted Individual Status – to notify the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority that a registered individual or permitted individual has ceased to have authority to act on behalf of the sponsoring firm

- Form 33-109F2 Change or Surrender of Individual Categories – to apply for registration or review in an additional category or to surrender a category
- Form 33-109F4 Registration of Individuals and Review of Permitted Individuals – to apply for registration or review as a permitted individual
- Form 33-109F7 Reinstatement of Registered Individuals and Permitted Individuals – to reinstate an individual’s registration or a permitted individual status

1.4 Notice requirements (Sections 3.1 and 4.1)

Form 33-109F5 Change of Registration Information is used by firms and individuals to notify regulators of any change to their registration information. Under sections 3.1 and 4.1 of the Rule, a registrant and a permitted individual must keep their registration information current on an ongoing basis by filing notices of change of information within the required time.

Appendix A summarizes the notice requirements, time periods and the forms under the Rule to notify regulators of a change to a firm’s or individual’s registration information.

1.5 Contact information

When a firm submits a Form 33-109F6, supporting documents or a Form 33-109F5, it can make the submission using e-mail, fax or mail. Appendix B attached to this policy sets out the contact information for the regulator in each jurisdiction of Canada and for the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) in those jurisdictions where the securities regulatory authority has delegated, assigned or authorized IIROC to perform registration functions.

PART 2 – FORMS USED BY INDIVIDUALS

2.1 National Registration Database (NRD)

The NRD is the database containing information about all registrants and permitted individuals under securities or commodity futures legislation in each jurisdiction of Canada. The requirement for firms to enrol, and to make certain submissions, on NRD are set out in National Instrument 31-102 National Registration Database. Detailed information about the NRD and the enrolment process is available in the NRD User Guide published at www.nrd-info.ca.

2.2 Form 33-109F4

Types of submissions using Form 33-109F4 (Subsections 2.2(1) and 2.5(1))

The NRD format for submitting a completed Form 33-109F4 under subsection 2.2(1) or 2.5(1) of the Rule include four distinct NRD submission types that are made in the following circumstances:

- Initial Registration, when an individual is seeking registration, or review as a permitted individual, through NRD for the first time
- Registration in an Additional Jurisdiction, when an individual is registered or is a permitted individual in a jurisdiction of Canada and is seeking registration, or review as a permitted individual, in an additional jurisdiction
- Registration with an Additional Sponsoring Firm, when an individual is registered, or is a permitted individual, on behalf of one sponsoring firm and applies for registration, or seeks review as a permitted individual, to act on behalf of an additional sponsoring firm
- Reactivation of Registration, when an individual who has an NRD record is applying for registration, reinstatement of registration or is seeking review as a permitted individual and is not eligible under subsection 2.3(2) or 2.5(2) of the Rule to submit a Form 33-109F7

Submissions by permitted individuals \(Sections 2.3 and 2.5\)

Under subsection 2.5(1) of the Rule, within 10 days of becoming a permitted individual, the individual must submit a Form 33-109F4 for review by the regulator. An individual whose registration is suspended may apply to reinstate the registration by submitting a completed Form 33-109F4 to the regulator. This is done with the Reactivation of registration submission on NRD. After making this submission the individual may not conduct activities requiring registration unless and until the regulator has approved the application. However, an application for reinstatement or review is not required if the individual meets all of the conditions for automatic reinstatement in subsection 2.3(2) or 2.5(2) of the Rule, which include submitting a completed Form 33-109F7 to the regulator as described in section 2.5 below.

Relevant securities industry experience \(Form 33-109F2 – Item 4.3 and Schedule A; Form 33-109F4 - Item 8.4 and Schedule F\)

The regulators or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority will assess whether an individual has gained relevant securities industry experience on a case-by-case basis. It may include experience acquired:

- during employment at a registered dealer, a registered adviser or an investment fund manager;
- in related investment fields, such as investment banking, securities trading on behalf of a financial institution, securities research, portfolio management, investment advisory services or supervision of those activities;
- in legal, accounting or consulting practices related to the securities industry; and
- in other professional service fields that relate to the securities industry, or in a securities-related business in a foreign jurisdiction.

The securities industry experience described should be relevant to the category applied for. Please see section 3.4 [Proficiency – initial and ongoing] of the Companion Policy to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations for more guidance on relevant securities industry experience.

Reportable activities (Form 33-109F4 – Item 10 and Schedule G; Form 33-109F7 - Item 7 and Schedule D)

Individuals must report all activities with their sponsoring firm and certain activities carried on outside of their sponsoring firm in Form 33-109F4 and Form 33-109F7. Activity changes must be reported by the individuals in Form 33-109F5.

To illustrate the analysis on whether an activity outside of the sponsoring firm is reportable in Item 10.2 [Reportable outside activities] of Form 33-109F4 or in Item 7.2 [Reportable outside activities] of Form 33-109F7, Appendix C has been included in this Companion Policy.

The regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority will take into account the reportable activities when assessing that individual’s application for registration or continuing fitness for registration and the sponsoring firm’s fitness for registration, including the following:

- whether the individual will have sufficient time to effectively carry out their registerable activities, including remaining current on securities law and product knowledge,
- whether the individual will be able to properly service clients,
- whether there is a risk of client confusion and if so, what the risk is and whether there are effective controls and supervision in place to address the risk,
- whether the reportable outside activity presents a material conflict of interest for the individual, and whether that material conflict of interest has been addressed in the best interest of the client,
- whether the reportable outside activity provides the individual with access to privileged, confidential or insider information relevant to their registerable activities.

Category 1 – Activities with another registered firm

Generally, we expect any activity with another registered firm to be reported, whether or not the activity at the other firm requires the individual to be registered. For example, the following roles are reportable: being an advising or dealing representative, owner, director, research analyst, compliance consultant, client relationship manager, human resources manager, or IT service provider for another registered firm.

Category 2 – Activities with an entity that receives compensation from a registered firm

If the individual is the owner (e.g., shareholder, partner), management (e.g., director or officer), or employee of an unregistered entity that receives compensation, such as sales commissions or referral fees, from a registered firm, this activity is reportable. For example, being an employee or owner of an entity that has entered into an agreement in the form set out in Schedule ‘A’ of MFDA Staff Notice MSN-0072 Payment of Commissions to Unregistered Corporations is reportable.

Category 3 – Other securities-related activities

Activities that involve raising money for an entity, such as structuring the security or derivative, preparing the offering document, soliciting investors, or promoting the sale of a security or derivative is reportable. The activity must be reported if it was carried out any time in the last 7 years.

Given the role of a director or officer in a corporation as the directing mind and management and the nature of partnerships and trusts, we would consider a director, officer, partner, or equivalent position (such as trustees) of an entity that, within the last 7 years, raised money through the issuance of securities or derivatives to be directly involved and thus would be reportable. For example, being the President of a mortgage investment entity that is raising money would be reportable. We would also consider being a director or officer of a reporting issuer to be reportable, such as being a director of a TSX-listed company.

An individual who works at an entity that is raising money through the issuance of securities or derivatives, but has no direct involvement in the capital raising activity, such as a computer programmer at a fintech start-up, would not be required to report, unless the activity falls within another reporting category.

Similarly, charitable or other fundraising activities that do not involve the issuance of securities or derivatives would not be reportable. For example, volunteering for an organization to seek charitable donations would not be reportable.

Category 4 – Provision of financial or financial-related services

An individual is required to report certain financial and financial-related activities whether or not compensation is received for providing the services. An individual is also expected to report if the individual is a shareholder, partner, director, or officer of an entity that provides one of those services. This includes activities where the individual is responsible for the oversight or provides independent review or expert opinion on the management of an entity's financial assets. For example, being a member of an investment committee that oversees the management of a university's endowment funds or a charity's financial capital, or being a trustee of a family trust.

Category 5 – Positions of influence

A position of influence is defined in section 13.4.3 of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations. All positions of influence are reportable. Please see the guidance in section 13.4.3 of the Companion Policy to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations.

Category 6 – Specified activities

An individual may participate in one or more activities outside of their sponsoring firm. Where an individual is involved in multiple activities, each activity on its own may not require a significant amount of time. However, if the total amount of time required to carry out all of these activities is significant, particularly where the activity is compensated, it could interfere with the individual's ability to properly carry out registrable functions. As a result, each of these activities is required to be reported when the total amount of time spent on specified activities exceeds 30 hours per month. For example, if an individual held two part-time jobs that each requires the individual to work 20 hours per month, the individual would be required to report each position separately since the total amount of time required is 40 hours per month.

When calculating the total amount of time spent on outside activities, time spent on all reportable outside activities from each category is to be included. For example, if an individual spends 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm, but also holds a part-time job providing bookkeeping services that requires on average 15 hours per month, and provides taxi services for 20 hours per month, then both the bookkeeping position (which is reportable under Category 4) and the taxi services should be summed up. In this scenario, the total number of hours spent on outside activities per month, on average, is 35 hours (the 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm is not counted). Since the total amount of time spent on specified activities exceeds 30 hours per month, the taxi position is required to be reported under Category 6. However, if the individual did not provide bookkeeping services, then the taxi services would not be required to be reported because the total amount of time spent on specified activities is less than 30 hours per month. The bookkeeping activity is reportable under Category 4 no matter how much time this activity takes or what other activities the individual undertakes.

Appendix C sets out a chart to help individuals determine whether a particular activity is reportable. For example, an individual may need to determine whether a paid part-time job in a warehouse fulfilment centre that requires on average 10 hours per month should be reported. The individual spends 15 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm, has a paid part-time job as a restaurant employee for 15 hours per month, and also volunteers at a local veterinary clinic for 10 hours per month. The position with the warehouse fulfilment centre does not fall within Categories 1 to 5, but is compensated activity and would fall within the first box of Category 6. As a result, the total amount of time working at the warehouse fulfilment centre and the restaurant should be summed up (the restaurant position would fall within item (iii) of the second box of Category 6 being other activities for which the individual is compensated). The volunteer position at the local veterinary clinic does not fall under Categories 1 to 6 since it is unpaid activity and does not need to be reported. In this scenario, the total number of hours spent on outside activities per month, on average, is 25 hours (the 20 hours per month working for the sponsoring firm is not counted). Since the total amount of time spent on specified activities is less than 30 hours per month, neither the position with the warehouse fulfilment centre nor with the restaurant are required to be reported under Category 6.

We expect individuals to determine how much time they spend on a particular activity in any given month by taking into consideration that the time spent may vary from week to week and from month to month over a year, particularly where the activity is seasonal, such as tax services. For example, if an activity requires 60 hours for 3 months, but only 5 hours for the remaining 9 months of the year, the activity on average would only require 18.75 hours per month. If this was the only outside activity the individual participates in, it would not be reportable. However, we note that even if the activity is not reportable, we would expect firms to have policies and procedures in place to address the impact of the seasonal work on the registered individual's and the firm's ability to meet their regulatory obligations.

Uncompensated activities and activities not requiring significant amounts of time

Generally, uncompensated activities that do not involve securities or financial services and are not positions of influence are not reportable and not factored in when calculating the total amount of time spent on outside activities. For example, volunteer activities, such as being a little league soccer coach or volunteering at an animal shelter, are not required to be reported as they are uncompensated. Additionally, involvement with entities with non-active operations, such as being the owner of a holding company, would likely not be reportable because time spent on this activity does not usually meet the threshold requiring more than an average of 30 hours or more per month.

Resignation and terminations (Form 33-109F4 – Item 12 and Schedule I)

Individuals must report whether they have resigned or been terminated from a position or contract and whether, at the time of their resignation or termination, there existed allegations that the individual: (i) contravened any statutes, regulations, orders of a court or regulatory body, rules or bylaws, or failed to meet standards of conduct, (ii) failed to appropriately supervise compliance with any statutes, regulations, orders of a court or regulatory body, rules, bylaws or standards of conduct, or (iii) committed a crime. Standards of conduct may be internal to the sponsoring firm, such as a sponsoring firm's policies and procedures, or may be external to the sponsoring firm, such as the standards of conduct of an authority exercising jurisdiction over specific business activities or professions.

When providing information about resignations or terminations, individuals must disclose the day that they ceased to carry on duties for the entity or firm they resigned or were terminated from. This date may coincide with the end of the individual's employment, partnership or agency relationship. However, this date can also occur earlier, such as when an individual is subjected to an internal firm suspension or the individual's authority has otherwise been reduced or curtailed pending an internal review. Individuals should provide the date they ceased to carry on duties and not merely the end of an individual's employment, partnership or agency relationship.

Agent for service (Form 33-109F4 – Item 18)

Item 18 Agent for service of Form 33-109F4 is a certification clause by the individual that he or she has completed the appointment for service required in each relevant jurisdiction. There is no distinct form under ~~NI 33-109~~ the Rule for the appointment of an agent for service for use by individuals. Please refer to the form used by the registered firm. This format is acceptable to the regulator.

2.3 Form 33-109F2 (Subsection 2.2(2), Section 2.4, Subsection 2.6(2), Subsection 4.1(4))

This form is used by individuals to apply to add or to surrender a registration category, to seek review of a change in their permitted individual category or to change any information on Schedule C of a previously submitted Form 33-109F4. If an individual has ceased to have authority to act on behalf of their sponsoring firm as a registered or permitted individual in the last jurisdiction of Canada where they were so acting, they cannot submit a Form 33-109F2. Instead, the individual's sponsoring firm submits a Form 33-109F1 to notify the regulator of the termination or cessation of authority to act on behalf of the firm.

2.4 Form 33-109F5 for individuals

When an individual submits a Form 33-109F5 to update their registration information, NRD will transmit the information to the regulator in each jurisdiction in which the individual is registered or is a permitted individual. However, only the principal regulator processes the submission to update the individual's registration information on NRD, or if necessary to deny or withdraw the submission.

Form 33-109F5 should not be used by an individual applying to add or surrender a registration category or to seek review of a change in his/her permitted individual category. In this case, Form 33-109F2 is used. It should also be noted that Form 33-109F5 is not used by an individual that is registered or is a permitted individual in a jurisdiction of Canada and is seeking registration, or review as a permitted individual, in an additional jurisdiction. In this case, a Form 33-109F4 is used and is identified on NRD as Registration in an Additional Jurisdiction. This also applies to an individual adding a sponsoring firm; Form 33-109F4 is used and is identified on NRD as Registration with an Additional Sponsoring Firm.

2.5 Form 33-109F7 for reinstatement \(Sections 2.3 and 2.5\)

When an individual leaves a sponsoring firm and joins a new registered firm, they may submit a Form 33-109F7 to have their registration or permitted individual status automatically reinstated in one or more of the same categories and jurisdictions as before, subject to all of the conditions set out in subsection 2.3(2) or 2.5(2) of the Rule. An individual who meets all of the applicable conditions will be able to transfer directly from one sponsoring firm to another and start engaging in activities requiring registration from the first day that they submit the Form 33-109F7. If certain allegations existed at the time of the individual leaving a sponsoring firm, then regardless of whether the allegations caused or contributed to the individual leaving, the individual may not use the Form 33-109F7. In addition, at the time the individual resigned or was terminated from the former sponsoring firm, all of the information previously submitted in Form 33-109F4, including Item 12, must have been up-to-date. If these conditions are not met, then the individual must apply for reinstatement by completing on NRD a Form 33-109F4 by making the NRD submission entitled "Reactivation of Registration".

2.6 Business locations (Form 33-109F4 and Form 33-109F7)

The term "business location" is defined in section 1.1 of the Rule. If the business location specified in Item 9 of Form 33-109F4 or Item 5 of NI 33-109F7 is a residence, the individual must certify in both these forms that they give their consent for the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority to enter the residence for the administration of securities legislation and derivatives legislation, including commodity futures legislation.

2.7 Ongoing fitness for registration

Every registrant must maintain their fitness for registration on an ongoing basis. Under securities legislation, the regulator has discretionary authority to suspend or revoke an individual's registration or to restrict it with terms and conditions at any time. The regulator may do this, for example, if it receives information through a notice of cessation~~termination~~ from an individual's former sponsoring firm or any other source that raises concerns about the individual's continued fitness for registration. Individuals will be given an opportunity to be heard before a decision is made to suspend or revoke registration or to impose terms and conditions.

PART 3 – FORMS USED BY FIRMS

3.1 Form 33-109F6 (Paragraph 2.1\(a\))

When a firm submits a Form 33-109F6 to apply for registration, it may pay the regulatory fees to the applicable regulators by cheque or by using the NRD function called Resubmit Fee Payment. A firm that applies in multiple jurisdictions should submit its application to the regulator in the principal jurisdiction or, if Ontario is a non-principal jurisdiction, to the regulators in the principal jurisdiction and in Ontario. For more details refer to National Policy 11204 Process for Registration in Multiple Jurisdictions.

Under section 4A.1 of Multilateral Instrument 11-102 Passport System, the principal regulator for a foreign firm is the securities regulatory authority or regulator identified in Item 2.2(b) of the firm's most recent Form 33-109F6 or Form 33-109F5 Change of Registration Information if the change noted in that form relates to Item 2.2(b) of Form 33-109F6. For firms without a head office in Canada or not already registered in a jurisdiction of Canada, Item 2.2(b) of Form 33-109F6 specifies that the principal regulator is the jurisdiction of Canada in which the firm expects to conduct most of its activities that require registration as at the end of its current financial year or conducted most of its activities that require registration as at the end of its most recently completed financial year. Firms should determine whether to base the selection on where they expect to conduct most of their activities or where they conducted most of their activities the previous year based on which they feel is most appropriate.

The factors a firm should consider in identifying the principal regulator are:

- the jurisdiction in which the firm has a business location
- when applying for dealer registration or adviser registration, the jurisdiction in which the firm expects to have most of its clients as at the end of its current financial year or the jurisdiction in which most of the firm's clients were located at the end of its most recently completed financial year

- when applying for investment fund manager registration, the jurisdiction in which the firm expects to conduct most of its investment fund manager activities as at the end of its current financial year or the jurisdiction in which most of the firm’s investment fund manager activities were conducted at the end of its most recently completed financial year
- when applying for investment fund manager registration and another category of registration, the jurisdiction in which firm expects to conduct most of the activities that require registration as at the end of its current financial year or conducted most of the activities that require registration as at the end of its most recently completed financial year based on the foregoing

Under section 4A.2 of Multilateral Instrument 11-102 Passport System, a securities regulatory authority or regulator has the discretion to change the principal regulator for the firm.

Changes in outstanding legal actions

Registered firms are required to provide updates on the changes in legal actions reported in item 8.3 of Form 33-109F6. This includes claims, defenses, counterclaims, and amendments. In addition, we expect registered firms to inform regulators of any decisions in the legal action that could significantly affect the firm, its business or the outcome of the legal action. Reporting of documentary discovery and adjournments are not required.

3.2 Form 33-109F5 \(Subsection 3.1\(6\)\)

A firm that is registered in multiple jurisdictions may submit a Form 33-109F5 to its principal regulator only to notify regulators of a change to the firm’s registration information, in accordance with subsection 3.1(6) of the Rule.

3.3 Form 33-109F3 \(Paragraph 2.1\(b\); Form 33-109F4 – Item 22\)

A firm must notify the regulator of each business location in the jurisdiction. The term “business location” is defined in section 1.1 of the Rule and may include a residence where a firm's registered individuals are based for the purpose of carrying out activities that require registration.

Firms certify in Item 22 of Form 33-109F4 that if the business location is a residence, the individual conducting business from that business location has completed a Form 33-109F4 certifying that they give their consent for the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority to enter the residence for the administration of securities legislation.

Firms submit this form through the NRD website.

3.4 Discretionary exemption for bulk transfers

Regulators will consider an application for an exemption from certain requirements in the Rule to facilitate a reorganization or combination of firms which would otherwise require a large number of submissions to change business locations and transfer individuals. The information required, and the conditions to obtain, this type of exemption application are described in the attached ~~Appendix C~~ Appendix D.

3.5 Form 33-109F1 (Section 4.2)

~~Under section 4.2 of the Rule, a registered firm must notify the regulator no more than 10 days after an individual ceased to have authority to act on behalf of the firm, as a registered or permitted individual. Typically, this occurs due to the termination of the individual's employment, partnership or agency relationship with the firm. However, it also occurs when an individual is re-assigned to a different position at the firm that does not require registration or is not a permitted individual category. Form 33-109F1 is submitted through the NRD website to give notice of the cessation date and the reason for the termination or cessation.~~

~~Under paragraph 4.2(1)(b) of the Rule, the information in Item 5 [Details about the termination] of a Form 33-109F1 must be submitted unless the cessation of authority to act on behalf of the firm was caused by the death of the individual. A firm can submit the information in Item 5 either at the time of the making the initial submission on NRD, if the information is available within that 10 day period, or within 30 days of the cessation date, by making an NRD submission entitled Update / Correct Termination Information.~~

Under section 4.2 of the Rule, a registered firm must notify the regulator or, in Québec, the securities regulatory authority no more than 10 days after an individual ceased to have authority to act on behalf of the registered firm, as a registered individual or permitted individual. Typically, this occurs due to the cessation of the individual's employment, partnership or agency relationship with the registered firm. However, it also occurs when an individual is re-assigned to a different position at the registered firm that does not require registration or is no longer a permitted individual category. Section 4.2 requires that firms notify the regulator within 10 days of the date that the person ceased to have authority to act and not merely the end of an individual's employment, partnership or agency relationship. Please refer to the definition "cessation date". Form 33-109F1 is submitted through the NRD website to give notice of the cessation date and the reason for the cessation.

Under paragraph 4.2(1)(b) of the Rule, the information in Item 5 [Details about the cessation] of a Form 33-109F1 must be submitted unless the cessation of authority to act on behalf of the registered firm was caused by the death of the individual. A registered firm can submit the information in Item 5 either at the time of making the initial submission on NRD, if the information is available within that 10 day period, or within 30 days of the cessation date, by making an NRD submission entitled "Update / Correct Cessation Information".

PART 4 – DUE DILIGENCE BY FIRMS

4.1 Obligations of former sponsoring firm (Subsections 4.2\(3\) and \(4\))

After submitting a Form 33-109F1 with regard to a former sponsored individual, a firm should promptly send the individual a copy of the completed Form 33-109F1. Under subsections 4.2(3) and (4) of the Rule, within 10 days of a request by a former sponsored individual, a firm must provide the individual with a copy of the Form 33-109F1 that was submitted, and if necessary, a further copy that includes the information in Item 5 of the Form 33-109F1, within 10 days of submitting that information.

4.2 Obligations of new sponsoring firm \(Section 5.1\)

In fulfilling its obligations under subsection 5.1(1) of the Rule, a sponsoring firm should make reasonable efforts to do all of the following:

- establish written policies and procedures to verify an individual's information prior to submitting a Form 33-109F4 or Form 33-109F7 on behalf of the individual
- document the sponsoring firm's review of an individual's information in accordance with the sponsoring firm's policies and procedures
- regularly remind registered and permitted individuals about their disclosure obligations under the Rule, such as notifying the regulator about changes to their registration information

Under subsection 5.1(2) of the Rule, within 60 days of hiring a sponsored individual, a sponsoring firm must obtain a copy of the most recent Form 33-109F1, if any, for the individual. If a sponsoring firm cannot obtain it from the sponsored individual, as a last resort the sponsored individual should request it from the regulator.

The information referred to above will assist the sponsoring firm in meeting its obligations under subsection 5.1(1) of the Rule and should inform the sponsoring firm's hiring decisions. If an individual is hired before a completed Form 33-109F1 is available and if the sponsoring firm discovers an inconsistency in the individual's disclosure to the sponsoring firm or the regulator, then the sponsoring firm should take appropriate action. All of the required information should be available within 60 days of hiring the individual, which will often fall within the individual's probation period under their employment or agency contract.

PART 5 – COMMODITY FUTURES ACT SUBMISSIONS

5.1 Ontario

In Ontario, if a person or company is required to make a submission under both the Rule and OSC Rule 33-506 (Commodity Futures Act) Registration Information with respect to the same information, the securities regulatory authority is of the view that a single filing on a form required under either rule satisfies both requirements.

5.2 Manitoba

In Manitoba, the Rule is a rule under each of the Securities Act and the Commodity Futures Act.

A single submission with respect to the same information will satisfy the requirements of both statutes.

Discretionary Exemption for Bulk Transfers of Business Locations and Individuals

(1) If a registered firm is acquiring a large number of business locations (for example, as a result of an amalgamation or asset purchase) from one or more other registered firms that are located in the same jurisdiction(s) and registered in the same categories as the acquiring firm, and if a significant number of individuals are associated on NRD with the business locations, the regulator will consider granting an exemption from any or all of the following requirements:

- (a) to submit a notice regarding the termination of each employment, partner, or agency relationship under section 4.2 of the Rule;
- (b) to submit a registration application or a reinstatement notice for each individual seeking to be a registered individual under section 2.2 or 2.3 of the Rule;
- (c) to submit a Form 33-109F4 or Form 33-109F7 for each permitted individual under section 2.5 of the Rule;
- (d) to notify the regulator of a change to the business location information in Form 33-109F3 under section 3.2 of the Rule.

(2) The exemption application should be submitted by the registered firm that will acquire control of the business locations at the closing of the transaction and should be submitted well in advance of the date (transfer date) on which the business locations will be transferred. It would typically be sufficient if a firm submits the application at least 30 days before the transfer date. An application for this type of exemption should include the following information:

- (a) the name and NRD number of the registered firm that will acquire control of the business locations;
- (b) for each registered firm that is transferring control of the business locations;
 - (i) the name and NRD number of the registered firm,
 - (ii) the address and NRD number of each business location that is being transferred from the registered firm named in (b)(i) to the registered firm named in (a),
 - (iii) the date that the business locations and individuals will be transferred to the registered firm named in (a).

(3) If the exemption is granted, as soon as practicable after the transfer date, the regulator will instruct the NRD administrator to record on NRD the transfer of the business locations, registered individuals and permitted individuals.

(4) Bulk transfers involving firms that are registered in different categories or different jurisdictions may need to take additional steps. Firms involved in such a transaction should contact their principal regulator to discuss what steps are required for the firm to be eligible for a bulk transfer exemption as described above.

(5) A firm applying for this type of exemption in more than one jurisdiction should refer to National Policy 11-203 Process for Exemption Applications in Multiple Jurisdictions for guidance on the form of application and the information required. The firm may set out the information referred to in (2) as follows:

A) Registered firm that will acquire the business locations

Name:

Firm NRD number:

B) Registered firm transferring the business locations

Name:

Firm NRD number:

Business locations that will be transferred

Address of business location:

NRD number of business location:

Address of business location:

NRD number of business location:

(Repeat for each business location as necessary)

C) Date that business locations will be transferred:

2. The Instrument is amended by adding the following section:

13.4.3 Restrictions on a registered individual who is in a position of influence

- (1) In this section, “position of influence” means a position, other than a position with a sponsoring firm, if, due to the functions of the position or the training or specialized knowledge required for the position, an individual in that position would be considered by a reasonable person to have influence over other individuals.
- (2) For greater certainty, a position of influence under subsection (1) includes the following:
 - (a) a leader in a religious or similar organization;
 - (b) a medical doctor;
 - (c) a nurse;
 - (d) a professor, instructor or teacher at a degree or diploma granting institution;

ANNEX F
PROPOSED CHANGES TO
COMPANION POLICY 31-103CP
REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS, EXEMPTIONS
AND ONGOING REGISTRANT OBLIGATIONS

1. Companion Policy 31-103CP Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations is changed by this Document.
2. Section 13.4 is changed by replacing the subheading “Individuals who have outside business activities” and the 6 paragraphs that follow the subheading with the following:

Individuals who have activities outside of the sponsoring firm

(a) Firm oversight of outside activity and reportable outside activity

The regulator will take into account and require reporting of certain outside activities of a registered individual when assessing that individual’s application for registration or continuing fitness for registration, as well as the firm’s fitness for registration. Please see the Companion Policy to National Instrument 33-109 Registration Information for more information.

Registered firms, on the other hand, are required to have policies and procedures to identify and address material conflicts of interest and risks arising from all outside activities that their registered individuals may participate in. This assessment by registrants should not be limited to only the outside activities reportable by registered firms to regulators. In particular, registered firms and registered individuals must determine whether an outside activity is a conflict of interest and determine whether the conflict of interest is material in the circumstances. Please refer to other areas in section 13.4 of this Companion Policy for more information.

(b) Conflicts and other risks arising from outside activities

Registered individuals’ activities outside of their sponsoring firm may impact a registered individual’s and a registered firm’s ability to deal fairly, honestly and in good faith with their clients and to meet their obligations as a registrant, and may give rise to risks in the following areas:

- Outside activities may create material existing or potential conflicts of interest between a registered individual and their clients, for example, because the compensation they receive for these activities, or the nature of the relationship between the individual and the outside entity, may cause some registered individuals to put their interests ahead of their clients’ interests.

- Outside activities could interfere with the registered individual's ability to properly carry out the registrable activities. For example, if the outside activity requires the registered individual to work full-time during day-time hours, this could lead to insufficient time to properly service clients or to properly carry out the registrable activities, including remaining current on securities law and product knowledge.
- Outside activities could lead to client confusion, particularly where the outside activity relates to financial services (such as financial and estate planning, tax preparation, insurance, mortgage brokerage). The client may view the outside activity as part of the registered firm's activities. This may occur where the same premises, email address, business cards, mailing address, or telephone numbers are used. The outside business activity could expose the registered firm to complaints and litigation.
- When a registered individual in a position of influence deals with or advises clients or potential clients who may be susceptible to that influence, investor protection concerns arise. For example, the registered individual may use the position of influence to cause another individual to become a client or the other individual may be persuaded to purchase a security based upon their opinion of the registered individual and not upon the merits of the security or the other individual's investment needs and objectives. Such registrants must comply with additional requirements set out in section 13.4.3 [Restrictions on a registered individual who is in a position of influence].
- The outside activity may be prohibited by law or regulation. For example, section 4.1 prohibits a registered individual from acting for another registered firm in certain circumstances and section 11.8 prohibits tied selling.
- Where a registered individual has outside activities, the individual may improperly use information obtained from the registered firm in the outside activity. Clients may have only provided confidential information for the purposes of dealing with the registered individual at the registered firm and not for use in the outside activity. If this information is privileged, confidential or insider information, the registered individual's use of this information in the outside activities may impact the registered firm's ability to comply with securities laws.
- Outside activities may reveal registrable activities being carried on by the registered individual outside of their firm or with other unregistered persons. They may also reveal non-compliance with securities laws or otherwise objectionable conduct.

In order to be able to assess the conflicts and other risks, we expect registered firms to establish a reporting mechanism that requires their registered individuals to report their outside activities. Before approving any outside activities, registered firms are required to consider existing or potential material conflicts of interest and other risks that arise from outside activities. If the firm cannot properly address a material conflict of interest in the best interest of the client and manage the risks in accordance with prudent business practices, it should not permit the outside activity.

In addition, registered individuals are required to promptly report to their sponsoring firm any material conflict which arises between a registered individual and their client in accordance with subsection 13.4.1(2). The registered individual must avoid carrying out the outside activities if controls are not enough to address the conflict in the best interest of clients and must not engage in the outside activity until the registered firm has given its approval for the outside activity.

(c) Monitoring and supervising individuals' outside activities

A registered firm is responsible for monitoring and supervising their registered individuals. This includes the activities outside of their sponsoring firm that the registered individuals participate in.

Monitoring and supervising registered individuals' outside activities helps registered firms meet their regulatory obligations, including:

- compliance with the requirement to operate an effective compliance system under section 11.1 [Compliance system and training],
- the conflicts of interest provisions set out in section 13.4 [Identifying, addressing and disclosing material conflicts of interest – registered firm], and
- the restrictions on clients set out in section 13.4.3 [Restrictions on a registered individual who is in a position of influence].

When the regulator reviews how a registered firm monitors and supervises their registered individuals' outside activities, we expect firms to:

- have appropriate policies and procedures to identify material conflicts of interest arising from outside activities and address these conflicts of interest in the best interest of clients, and that include a broad definition of “outside activities”.
- require registered individuals to disclose to their firm and require the firm to review and approve all outside activities prior to the activities commencing.
- have policies and procedures to determine that outside activities do not:
 - involve activities that are inconsistent with securities legislation, IIROC requirements or MFDA requirements, as applicable, and
 - interfere with the registered individual's ability to perform their regulatory obligations and to update their knowledge and training to keep pace with new securities, services and developments in the industry that are relevant to their business.

- provide training or education on outside activities, including the need to report on changes in outside activities and the restrictions on a registered individual who is in a position of influence as to the clients the registered individual can deal with or advise.
- require registered individuals to disclose to any new sponsoring firm, and requiring that new sponsoring firm to review and approve, all outside activities prior to the registered individual joining the new sponsoring firm.
- assess whether the registered firm has the necessary information and is able to properly supervise and monitor the outside activities.
- maintain records documenting its supervision of its individuals' outside activities and storing these records so that they are available for review by regulators.
- take appropriate supervisory actions when the registered firm identifies non-compliance with their policies on outside activities, such as no or late reporting of an outside activity.
- identify existing and reasonably foreseeable material conflicts of interest and taking appropriate steps to address such conflicts in the best interest of clients.
- permit only outside activities that do not impair the ability to provide adequate client service, including, where necessary, having an alternate representative available for the client.
- make a determination that the outside activity is consistent with the registrant's duty to deal fairly, honestly and in good faith with its clients.
- implement risk management, including proper separation of the outside activity and the registerable activity.
- assess the exposure of the registered firm to complaints and litigation arising from the outside activities.
- assess whether the registered firm's knowledge of their registered individual's lifestyle is commensurate with its knowledge of the registered individual's activities and staying alert to other indicators of possible fraudulent activity. For example, if information comes to the registered firm's knowledge (including through a client complaint) that a registered individual's lifestyle is not commensurate with the registered individual's compensation by the firm, we would expect the registered firm to make further inquiries to assess the situation.

Failure to fulfil these responsibilities may be taken into consideration in assessing the firm's continued fitness for registration.

Registered firms should consider the following additional practices in relation to the monitoring and supervision of their registered individuals' outside activities:

- using standard forms and/or questionnaires to collect and assess their registered individuals' outside activities.
- having an intake method for registered individuals to disclose these outside activities to the firm.
- providing guidelines that describe what an outside activity is and the types of outside activities that are restricted or prohibited by securities laws or by the registered firm.
- having active involvement of the appropriate staff of the registered firm in the oversight of outside activities.
- performing internet searches or branch reviews to identify non-disclosed outside activities.
- having their registered individuals provide annual certifications for attesting compliance with policies relating to outside activities.
- providing monthly or quarterly reminders to their registered individuals to report changes to their outside activities.
- disclosing outside activities to clients using a standard form that is tailored for each outside activity.
- obtaining acknowledgement from clients of the registered individual's outside activities.
- obtaining written confirmation from clients that they do not have a relationship with the registered individual in their position of influence.

Because the nature of outside activities as well as the individual's registered activities may evolve over time, the registered firm is responsible to monitor and supervise outside activities in such a way that material conflicts are continually addressed in the best interest of clients and the risks are managed in accordance with prudent business practices.

3. The Companion Policy is changed by adding the following section after section 13.4:

13.4.3 Individuals in a position of influence

When considering the approval of a registered individual's outside activity, registered firms are expected to understand the nature of the activity and determine if the activity puts the registered individual in a position of influence. Additional regulatory requirements apply where the activity of a registered individual is a position of influence. These requirements do not apply where the individual is solely a permitted individual (i.e., the individual is not registered).

Under section 13.4.3, certain specific roles are considered positions of influence. For example, a leader in a religious organization or other similar organization is a person who provides leadership or guidance on the faith in a recognized capacity in the organizational structure of the faith, such as a priest, deacon, rabbi, cantor or imam. It may be a position appointed by the faith's organization or selected by the congregation. It does not include any person who is responsible for only clerical or administrative duties.

An assessment of other positions is required. Registered firms could consider the following non-exhaustive factors to determine whether the outside activity puts the registered individual in a position of influence:

- the degree of influence that the registered individual has through that position due to the functions of the position or the training or specialized knowledge required for the position,
- the degree to which a person may be confused as to whether the registered individual is acting in the capacity as a registrant or in another capacity, and
- the degree of susceptibility another person has to the registered individual in that position due to the other person's reliance on or perception of the registered individual's specialized knowledge, expertise, or role.

If both the degree of influence by the registered individual in the position of influence and the confusion or susceptibility of a person subject to that influence are considered significant, a registered firm is expected to consider the outside activity to be a position of influence.

For example, an individual who is a primary care physician would be viewed as being in a position of influence. The physician has specialized medical knowledge and training that patients would not have. Patients see the physician when they are unwell, are reliant on the physician for their health, and may view the physician favourably based on the medical treatment they received, which may make them susceptible to influence. In this scenario, the physician would not be permitted to trade or advise in securities with current or ongoing patients of the physician.

However, an assessment of other health care roles is required to determine if it is a position of influence. For example, dentists, optometrists, and technical workers at a medical facility, such as X-ray technicians and data health management coordinators, are not considered to be positions of influence because the degree of susceptibility is not significant.

A caregiver in an assisted living facility may be a position of influence. The caregiver's primary role is to provide care to residents in the assisted living facility, which includes making care decisions. The residents and their family members would be reliant on the caregiver for the quality of care received and would not easily be able to change facilities.

Below are other examples of activities that registered firms may consider as positions of influence due to the influence they carry in their specialized role, coupled with the susceptibility of the persons who receive the services:

- A correctional officer working in the criminal justice system
- A youth mentor in an organized program
- Social workers who serve a vulnerable client base (e.g., substance abuse programs, mental health care)
- An immigration consultant

An example of an activity that may not be a position of influence is an instructor for a hobby or recreational course, such as learning to paint or dance. While the instructor of a hobby or recreational course may grade students' work, the instructor does not have influence because the course is being taken for recreational or hobby purposes. The students are also not susceptible since they do not rely on the grades for future education and employment opportunities.

Elected officials, such as school trustees, would also not be considered positions of influence. While they may be influential, generally, they serve a broad base of people and may not use their position unilaterally. Therefore, the degree of susceptibility of their constituents does not rise to the level present in the examples above and in the expressly identified positions set out in paragraphs 13.4.3(1)(a) to (f) of the definition of position of influence.

Similarly, a landlord would not be considered to be in a position of influence. While the landlord has power over their tenant in relation to the tenant's ability to continue to rent the accommodation, we would not view the degree of power of the landlord and the degree of susceptibility of the tenant to meet the level of a position of influence.

Individuals who are an executor or trustee of an estate or hold a power of attorney over another person would not, in our view, be in a position of influence. In these cases, the individual has been appointed to act on behalf of an estate or another person. Their influence is limited only to that estate or person and they have a fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of the estate or person. However, there is an inherent conflict of interest for a registrant to have full control or authority over the financial affairs of a client. In our experience, this is almost always a material conflict of interest. SRO rules only permit an individual to act as an executor, trustee, or power of attorney in certain circumstances. Registrants that are members of an SRO must comply with their SRO requirements. Where the individual is not subject to SRO rules, we expect registered firms to have policies and procedures in place such that these conflicts are identified and are either avoided or otherwise addressed in the client's best interest.

A registered firm is expected to have appropriate policies and procedures in place

- to identify all registered individuals who are in a position of influence,
- to provide reasonable assurance that the registered individual does not trade or advise in securities with clients who are subject to that influence, and
- to report the position of influence as a reportable activity to regulators.

Where a registered firm has assessed that a position is not a position of influence, we expect registered firms to have documented their assessment at the time the assessment is made and have this documentation available to regulators upon request. Additionally, the conflicts of interest requirements set out in section 13.4 and 13.4.1 continue to apply to these activities. Only the requirements in section 13.4.3 would not apply.

4. These changes become effective on •.

Annex G Local Matters

1. Introduction

The Canadian Securities Administrators (the CSA) is proposing targeted changes to registration information requirements to provide greater clarity on the information to be submitted, to help individuals and firms (collectively, Regulated Persons) provide complete and accurate registration information, and to reduce the regulatory burden of doing so, while allowing the CSA to receive the information necessary to carry out its regulatory roles. These proposed targeted changes address issues identified by CSA staff and respond to concerns raised by Regulated Persons.

The CSA is publishing for comment (the CSA Notice and Request for Comment):

- Proposed amendments to National Instrument 33-109 Registration Information (NI 33-109), including its related forms (NI 33-109 Forms), and changes to Companion Policy 33-109CP Registration Information (33-109CP), and
- Related proposed amendment to National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (NI 31-103) and changes to Companion Policy 31-103CP Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (31-103CP).

We refer to the proposed amendments to NI 33-109 and NI 31-103 and changes to 33-109CP and 31-103CP collectively as the Proposed Revisions.

Please refer to the CSA Notice and Request for Comment for a discussion of the substance and purpose of Proposed Revisions.

2. Manitoba-only amendments

In Manitoba, the Commodity Futures Act (Manitoba) (the CFA) regulates all commodity futures contracts and commodity futures options trading on commodity exchanges. The CFA, among other matters, provides for the registration of persons and companies who trade in or advise on commodity futures contracts or commodity futures options.

The publication of the Proposed Revisions and amendments to the Companion Policies are also being enacted as Rules and Policies under the CFA. Feedback on these changes to the Rules and Policies under the CFA are open to the same 90-day comment period set out in the CSA Notice and Request for Comment, commencing February 4, 2021.

3. Authority for Proposed Revisions and Manitoba Amendments

Rule-making authority for the Proposed Revisions is found in section 1 of the Commodity Futures Rule-Making Procedure Regulation 180/99 to the CFA (Manitoba).
