

13-912. Duty of employer as to place of work.

It was the duty of the defendant railroad to use ordinary care, under the circumstances, to furnish its employees with a safe place in which to work and to keep such place of work in a safe condition.

USE NOTES

This instruction shall be given in every case where the issue is a question of fact under the evidence.