

14-5005. Efforts by others than defendant to fabricate evidence.

If there is evidence that efforts to procure false or fabricated evidence were made by another person on behalf of the defendant, you may not consider this as tending to show the defendant's guilt, unless you find that the defendant authorized those efforts.

USE NOTES

No instruction on this subject shall be given.