

13-906. A railroad acts through its employees.

The defendant railroad can act only through its officers, agents and employees. Any act or omission of an officer, agent or employee, within the scope or course of [his] [her] employment with the railroad, is the act or omission of the railroad.

USE NOTES

This instruction shall be used in every case.
[As amended, effective November 1, 1991.]