

14-2811. Liability as a co-conspirator.¹

The defendant [also] may be found guilty of _____ [attempt to commit _____] [as charged in Count _____], as a [co-conspirator] [partner in crime] even though he himself did not do the acts constituting the [crime], [attempt] if the state proves to your satisfaction beyond a reasonable doubt that:

1. The defendant and _____ by words or acts agreed together to commit the _____ and intended to commit the _____; and

2. The defendant or _____, or both of them, [committed] [attempted to commit] the crime.

USE NOTES

1. No instruction on this subject shall be given.