

14-105. Explanation; exhibit admitted.<sup>1</sup>

I have admitted _____ (name of exhibit) into evidence as an exhibit [and you may examine it].<sup>2</sup>

With regard to this _____ (name of exhibit) and any other exhibits that may be admitted into evidence during the trial, you should consider it in determining the facts.

Just as with oral testimony, you may give any exhibit such weight and value as you think it deserves in helping you to decide what happened in this case.

USE NOTES

1. If requested, this instruction should be given at least once at the appropriate time. Otherwise, it may be used at the court's discretion. This instruction does not go to the jury room.

2. Use only if the exhibit is such that it can be passed to the jury.
