MEMORANDUM OPINION

VIGIL, Judge.

Defendant, an inmate in the Lea County jail, attempts to appeal, pro se, the Warden's final decision that he was guilty of a drug offense, and his placement in administrative segregation. [Informal Docketing Statement, Ct. App. file--blue clip] He has attempted to appeal directly to our Court. Our notice proposed to dismiss this appeal, reasoning that we are without jurisdiction because the required avenue from such a Warden's decision is an appeal or habeas petition to district court. Defendant has not responded to our notice and the time for doing so is long past.

Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
