PROBABLE CAUSE DETERMINATION

(For use only if the defendant has been arrested without a warrant and has not been released)

Finding of Probable Cause

I find that there is a written showing of probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that the above named defendant committed it.

It is ordered that the defendant shall be released:

on personal recognizance.

on the conditions of release set forth in the release order.

only upon entry of a release order after the defendant has appeared before a judge.

Failure to Make Showing of Probable Cause

I find that probable cause has not been shown that a crime has been committed and that the above named defendant committed it. It is ordered that the defendant be released on personal recognizance.

A probable cause determination has not been made within forty-eight (48) hours of the defendant's arrest. It is ordered that the defendant be released on personal recognizance.

USE NOTES

A court should not dismiss the criminal complaint against the defendant merely because the court has found no probable cause for pretrial detention. If the court finds no probable cause, the only required action is the defendant's immediate release from custody pending further proceedings.

Unless the defendant has been released on personal recognizance, the amount of bail set and any conditions of release prescribed by a designee must also be reviewed.

This form is not necessary if the finding of probable cause is endorsed by the judge on the criminal complaint or on a statement of probable cause.

[Approved effective September 1, 1990; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-042, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-016, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2017.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-0016, effective December 31, 2017, and under "Failure to Make a Showing of Probable Cause", added the second provision.

The 2013 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-041, effective December 31, 2013, provided for the personal recognizance release of the defendant if no probable cause is found; under the heading "Failure to Make Showing of Probable Cause", deleted the former second sentence, which required that the complaint be dismissed without prejudice if no probable cause was found and added the second sentence; and added the first paragraph of the Use Note.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

Subject to Subparagraph (2) of Paragraph D below, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen (14) days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

- (1) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (2) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than one hundred miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except as provided below, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or
- (3) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (4) subjects a person to undue burden.

If a subpoena:

- (1) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (2) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (3) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

- (1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

USE NOTES

(Do not print use notes on pre-printed forms)

This form was revised in 2017 in conjunction with amendments to Rules 5-401, 6-401, 7-401, and 8-401 NMRA. These rules require the court to file written findings of the individualized facts justifying any secured bond as soon as possible, but no later than two (2) days after the conclusion of the pretrial release hearing. Judges are encouraged to enter their written findings on this order at the conclusion of the hearing. If more detailed findings are necessary, the judge should make such supplemental findings in a separate document within two days of the conclusion of the hearing.

If a surety provides bond for the defendant, Form 9-304 NMRA must also be completed. If a third party custodian is named, the third-party custodian agreement must also be completed and signed.

We, the undersigned, jointly and severally acknowledge that we and our personal representatives are bound to pay to the [State of New Mexico] [City of _____] the sum of _____ dollars ($_____).

The conditions of this bond are that the above-named defendant is to appear as required in accordance with any and all orders and directions relating to the defendant's appearance in the above-entitled matter as may be given or issued by the court or in any other district or appellate court to which the defendant may be removed or the cause transferred, including any bind-over or subsequent indictment of the defendant in the District Court for offenses arising out of the transaction or event for which this bond is given.

If the defendant appears as ordered, then this bond is to be void, but if the defendant fails to appear as required by this bond, payment of the amount of this bond shall be due forthwith. Forfeiture of this bond for any breach of its conditions may be declared by any court having cognizance of the above-entitled matter at the time of such breach; and if the bond is forfeited and if the forfeiture is not set aside, upon motion judgment may be entered against each debtor jointly and severally for the amount above stated, together with interest and costs, and execution may be issued and payment secured as provided by law.

By executing this bail bond the sureties submit to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoint the clerk of the court as their agent upon whom papers affecting their liability may be served.

IT IS AGREED AND UNDERSTOOD THAT THIS IS A CONTINUING BOND WHICH SHALL CONTINUE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THE DEFENDANT IS FOUND GUILTY OR NOT GUILTY. THE BOND GUARANTEES THE APPEARANCE OF THE DEFENDANT.

USE NOTES

If the surety is married, both spouses must sign the bond unless it is demonstrated to the court that the property is not community property. See Section 40-3-4 NMSA 1978.)

[As amended, effective May 15, 1991; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 07-8300-029, effective December 10, 2007.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2007 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 07-8300-029, effective December 10, 2007, deleted the last sentence of the first paragraph of the conditions of release providing that the defendant is not to depart from the State and requiring the defendant to surrender himself after any judgment and revised the bond to eliminate the bond from continuing on appeal after a finding of guilty or not guilty.

The 1991 amendment, effective for cases filed on or after May 15, 1991, in the capitalized paragraph, inserted "and discharged by the court" and deleted "at all times up to the final disposition of all charges including imposition of sentence and any appeal or new trial" from the end of that paragraph.

Purpose of bail bond. — A bail bond is a type of bond to obtain the release of a person from imprisonment and to secure his appearance before the court. State v. Valles, 2004-NMCA-118, 136 N.M. 429, 99 P.3d 1164.

Use of this form is required by the Supreme Court rules. State v. Valles, 2004-NMCA-118, 136 N.M. 429, 99 P.3d 1164.

Statute governs. — Because the bail bond form which the Supreme Court requires sureties to sign when posting bail for a criminal defendant and a statute conflict on when the surety's obligation under the bond terminates, the statute governs. State v. Valles, 2004-NMCA-118, 136 N.M. 429, 99 P.3d 1164.

Section 31-3-10 NMSA 1978 governs over the inconsistent terms of the form prescribed by the Supreme Court. State v. Valles, 2004-NMCA-118, 136 N.M. 429, 99 P.3d 1164.

JUDGMENT OF DEFAULT ON BOND

This matter having come before this court for a hearing,

THE COURT FINDS:

The defendant previously signed an unsecured appearance bond, agreeing to appear in court as required and promising to pay $_____ to the court for a failure to appear;

The defendant previously signed a secured appearance bond in the full amount of $_____, secured by a deposit in cash of 10% of the full amount, agreeing to appear in court as required, and promising to forfeit the cash deposit and pay the remaining 90% of the bond to the court for a failure to appear;

The defendant or the defendant's unpaid surety previously signed a secured appearance bond in the full amount of $_____, secured by the pledging of real property, agreeing that the defendant will appear in court as required, and promising to forfeit the full amount of the bond to the court for a failure to appear;

The defendant previously signed a secured appearance bond in the full amount of $_____, secured by a deposit in cash of 100% of the full amount, agreeing to appear in court as required, and promising to forfeit the full amount of the bond to the court for a failure to appear.

The defendant's surety, a licensed bail bondsman, previously signed a surety bond in the full amount of $_____, agreeing to ensure the defendant's appearance in court as required, and promising to forfeit the full amount of the bond to the court for a failure to appear;

The defendant failed to appear in the _____ Court on _____ (date) at _____ (time), as required;

This court served a Notice of Forfeiture and Hearing on the clerk of the court, forfeiting the defendant's bond more than thirty (30) days prior to this hearing;

The clerk of the court mailed to the defendant and the above named surety, if any, the Notice of Forfeiture and Hearing regarding whether a judgment of default should be entered on the forfeited bond;

The forfeited bond has not been set aside, the defendant has not been surrendered into custody, and good cause has not been shown why a judgment of default should not be entered.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that judgment in the following amount is hereby entered against the defendant and the above named surety, if any:

$_____, which is the full amount of the bond.

$_____, which is a percentage of the full amount of the bond.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the defendant has a surety, the defendant and the surety are jointly and severally liable for the payment of this judgment.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the full amount of this judgment is not paid into this court within ten (10) days after entry of this order, action may be taken to enforce this judgment against the defendant and the above named surety, if any.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if this judgment is not paid within ten (10) days, the above named surety, if any, shall not execute any new bonds until the full amount of this judgment is paid.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if this judgment is entered against a licensed bail bondsman and this judgment is not paid within ten (10) days, a copy of the judgment shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the superintendent of insurance.

GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY

Pursuant to Section 31-15-7 NMSA 1978, the following guidelines are established for determination of indigency and eligibility for public defender services.

I. APPLICATION FEE

A person shall pay a non-refundable application fee for each case in the amount set in Section 35-15-12 NMSA 1978 at the time the person applies with the public defender for representation. The interviewer will determine if the financial circumstances of the applicant are such that the fee would pose an exceptional hardship, and will recommend to the District office Administrator or Eligibility Supervisor if the fee should be waived. The interviewer will document on the application the reason for the fee waiver.

II. PRESUMPTION OF INDIGENCY

An applicant is presumed indigent if the applicant is a current recipient of state or federally administered public assistance programs for the indigent: temporary assistance for needy families (TANF), general assistance (GA), supplemental security income (SSI), social security disability income (SSDI), Veteran's disability benefits (VA) if the benefit is the sole source of income, food stamps, medicaid, public assisted housing or Department of Health, Case Management Services (DHMS). Proof of assistance must be attached to the application and no further inquiry is necessary. The document submitted as proof must clearly identify the applicant as currently receiving the qualifying benefit. Benefit cards without other supporting documents will not be accepted as proof of benefit. If the applicant is not receiving Medicaid benefits, but has dependants in the household for whom Medicaid eligibility has been determined, the applicant will be presumed indigent. Home equity, etc. is not to be taken into account if the applicant is a current recipient of one of the six programs described above.

If the interviewer is unable to complete the indigency application or believes the information to be unreliable because of communication or other problems associated with a mental or developmental disability of the applicant, indigency will be presumed. When this is the case the Mental Health/Communication section of the application should be checked. Where available, the designated attorney for mental health issues is to be immediately notified, and if that person is not available the duty attorney is to be immediately notified.

III. FINANCIAL RESOURCES

If the applicant is not presumptively indigent, the screening agent shall examine the financial resources of the applicant with consideration given to:

Net Income, Paragraph A;

Assets, Paragraph B; and

Exceptional Expenses, Paragraph C.

A. Net Income. The screening agent shall include total salary and wages for the applicant and the applicant's spouse minus deductions required by law (FICA, state and federal withholding). Child support deductions and medical insurance deductions will also be considered if already deducted from salary, but will not be recounted in the Exceptional Expenses section if counted here. Savings deductions and non-mandatory retirement deductions will be added to the net income. In order to calculate the salary of an individual, the screening agent shall use one of the two methods:

(1) if the individual is presently unemployed, the screening agent shall ask about employment during the twelve (12) months preceding the interview date and calculate the amount of money earned during such twelve (12) months. Proof of this income must be attached to the application; or

(2) if the individual is presently employed, the screening agent shall project the current income for twelve (12) months into the future. Proof of this income must be attached to the application. If the applicant is unemployed and has no income, the screening agent shall inquire as to how the applicant "gets by". Proof of income is not required but responses must be documented on the eligibility form (i.e. eats on soup line, street person, sleeps in car, etc.) and some proof of how the individual lives must be provided if available, i.e., lives with someone providing support, lives on the street (must provide some proof of assistance from homeless shelters or other street assistance providers). If the applicant gets by on "odd jobs", the income from the odd jobs must be verified. Zeros will not be accepted for income. If there is no income, an explanation is needed as to why there is no income and documentation is needed that sets forth the reason for no income.

(3) Any person that has been incarcerated for six (6) months or more is also presumed to be indigent. Proof must be provided, i.e., proof of incarceration, jail release form. An individual incarcerated in a Department of Corrections facility in any state automatically qualifies.

Net income shall include, but is not limited to social security payments, union funds, veteran's benefits, worker's compensation, unemployment benefits, regular support from any absent family member, public or private employee pensions, or income from dividends, interests, rents, estates, trusts or gifts. If the applicant lives alone but receives rent from a family member, the rent shall be considered as regular support from the applicant's family and shall be included as income.

The income of a spouse must be included in the calculation of income even though the applicant and the applicant's spouse are not living in the same household unless:

(a) the applicant and the spouse are legally separated (must provide proof of legal separation);

(b) the applicant and the spouse have not resided together within the last 12 months and the applicant can provide a notarized statement from an adult family member verifying that fact; or

(c) the spouse is an alleged victim of the applicant or complaining witness against the applicant.

B. Assets. The screening agent shall consider all assets of the applicant and the applicant's spouse that are readily convertible into cash within a reasonable period of time. Assets include all cash on hand as well as in checking and savings accounts, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit and tax refunds. Real estate other than the primary residence shall be valued at the current full valuation on the county property tax rolls less any outstanding obligations against the property. Written documentation of both the value and the outstanding obligations will be attached to the application.

C. Exceptional Expenses. The screening agent shall consider any unusual expenses of the applicant and the applicant's legal dependents that would, in all probability, prohibit the applicant from being able to secure private counsel. The following expenses are not exceptional expenses: rent, food, utilities, gas money, consumer loans and student loans. Exceptional expenses shall include, but not be limited to, costs for medical care or medical insurance, family support obligations and child care payments.

In order to be included as an exceptional expense:

(1) the cost of medical care cannot be covered by insurance;

(2) family support expense obligations must be verified by court order or a notarized statement from the person to whom the support is paid. The support must actually be paid on a regular basis; and must be verified by written documentation such as receipts or cancelled checks;

(3) child care must be paid on a regular basis. If the applicant says that child support is paid when the applicant can, the payments do not qualify as exceptional expenses.

The applicant must provide proof of the exceptional expense incurred and proof that payment is being made on a regular basis. If proof is provided, the regular monthly payment for the exceptional expense is multiplied by twelve (12) months and the calculated amount can be deducted from total income.

Other exceptional expenses shall include: payroll garnishments, internal revenue service claims, court ordered attorney fees or other court ordered payments and funeral expenses not covered by insurance.

An approved filing from a pending bankruptcy proceeding of a potential client can be considered in determining indigency.

IV. INDIGENCY FORMULA

An applicant is indigent if the applicant's available funds do not exceed one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the current federal poverty guidelines established by the United States Department of Labor.

The screening agent shall calculate the amount of available funds by adding the total for net income for the household (Column A) together with the total for assets for the household (Column B) and subtracting the total for exceptional expenses (Column C). If the available funds exceed one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the applicable federal poverty level guideline, the applicant is not indigent.

If the applicant does not know the applicant's spouse's income or assets the applicant is presumed not indigent and is not eligible for free representation unless the applicant produces the necessary information within two (2) working days after the interview.

V. APPEAL

If the applicant is found by the screening agent or the court not to be indigent, the applicant may appeal the decision to the district defender in those districts with public defender offices. If the applicant wishes to appeal the decision of the district defender, the applicant shall appeal to the district court. In those districts without public defender offices, the applicant may appeal directly to the court. If the applicant wishes to appeal a finding that the applicant is not indigent:

(1) in those districts with district public defender offices, the screening agent shall notify the public defender of the appeal;

(2) in those districts without public defender offices, the screening agent shall notify the court of the appeal.

All appeals shall be filed within ten (10) working days after the date of the decision.

VI. REIMBURSEMENT

Any applicant who is ineligible for free representation but is unable to hire private counsel may sign a contract for public defender representation on a reimbursement basis. The reimbursement cost shall cover all charges for legal fees, expert witness, and private investigation costs. Reimbursement fees shall be governed by the schedule adopted by the Public Defender Department.

First payment under a reimbursement contract shall be due thirty (30) days from the date of execution of the contract. If the applicant is incarcerated on the date of execution of the contract, the date of payment shall be thirty (30) days from the date of the applicant's release from incarceration.

If a court enters an order appointing the Public Defender Department to represent a defendant and ordering the defendant to reimburse the state for representation, the defendant shall execute a contract for reimbursement in the appropriate amount under the department's schedule. If the defendant fails to execute a reimbursement contract, the order of appointment shall be forwarded to Public Defender administration for collection along with the documentation stating the amount owing for representation. If the defendant refuses to provide information necessary to determine net income or eligibility, the reimbursement fee shall be the maximum contract rate allowable for the crimes charged under the schedule set by the department.

VII. NEW CHARGES

If an applicant has applied for public defender services within six (6) months prior to the filing of new charges or a probation violation, completion of a new eligibility determination form is not necessary, but the applicant shall be required to pay the application fee. A printout of the CDMS entry for the original application with the new referral should be placed in the new file being opened. If an applicant has applied for public defender services and been found eligible more than six (6) months prior to the filing of new charges or a probation violation, completion of a new eligibility determination form is necessary. An applicant must pay the application fee for each case for which the applicant seeks representation regardless of whether completion of a new eligibility documentation form is required, unless the fee has been waived.

GUILTY PLEA PROCEEDING

The defendant personally appearing before me, I have ascertained the following facts, noting each by initialing it.

Judge's Initial

- _____ 1. That the defendant understands the charges set forth in the [complaint] [information] [indictment].
- _____ 2. That the defendant understands the range of possible sentences for the offenses charged, including any mandatory minimum penalties, maximum possible penalties, and possible sentence enhancements as follows:_____.
- _____ 3. That the defendant understands the following constitutional rights which the defendant gives up by pleading guilty:
  - _____ (a) the right to trial by jury, if any;
  - _____ (b) the right to the assistance of an attorney at trial, and to an appointed attorney, to be furnished free of charge, if the defendant cannot afford one;
  - _____ (c) the right to confront the witnesses against him and to cross-examine them as to the truthfulness of their testimony;
  - _____ (d) the right to present evidence on his own behalf, and to have the state compel witnesses of his choosing to appear and testify;
  - _____ (e) the right to remain silent and to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
- _____ 4. That the defendant wishes to give up the constitutional rights of which the defendant has been advised.
- _____ 5. That there exists a basis in fact for believing the defendant is guilty of the offenses charged and that an independent record for such factual basis has been made.
- _____ 6. That the defendant and the prosecutor have entered into a plea agreement and that the defendant understands and consents to its terms. (Indicate "NONE" if a plea agreement has not been signed.)
- _____ 7. That the plea is voluntary and not the result of force, threats or promises other than a plea agreement.
- _____ 8. That under the circumstances, it is reasonable that the defendant plead guilty.
- _____ 9. That the defendant understands that a plea of guilty or no contest may have an effect upon the defendant's immigration or naturalization status, and that, if the defendant is represented by counsel, the defendant has been advised by counsel of the immigration consequences of the plea.
- _____ 10. (Domestic violence or felony cases only.) That the defendant understands that a plea of guilty or no contest for a crime of domestic violence or felony will affect the defendant's constitutional right to bear arms, including shipping, receiving, possessing or owning any firearm or ammunition, all of which are crimes punishable under federal law for a person convicted of domestic violence.

- _____ 11. That, if the defendant is represented by counsel and the defendant has entered a plea of guilty or no contest to a crime for which registration as a sex offender is or may be required, the defendant has been advised by counsel of the registration requirement under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act [Section 29-11A-1 NMSA 1978].

On the basis of these findings, I conclude that the defendant knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently pleads guilty to the above charges and accept such plea. A copy of this affidavit shall be made a part of the record in the above-styled case.

State*, 2014-NMSC-023, aff'g 2012-NMCA-057, 278 P.3d 569.

Where in 1997, petitioner pleaded guilty to misdemeanors; in 2009, petitioner learned that the guilty pleas rendered petitioner inadmissible to the United States; petitioner's attorney never advised petitioner about any immigration consequences of petitioner's guilty pleas; had petitioner known about the immigration consequences of petitioner's guilty pleas, petitioner would not have pleaded guilty; and petitioner sought to vacate the guilty pleas on the basis of ineffective assistance of counsel, petitioner had a viable claim for withdrawal of petitioner's 1997 guilty pleas based on ineffective assistance of counsel. Ramirez v. State, 2014-NMSC-023, aff'g 2012-NMCA-057, 278 P.3d 569.

Judicial inquiry of potential immigration consequences. — An effective judicial inquiry into a defendant's actual understanding of immigration consequences may require more than asking the defendant whether he understands the potential immigration consequences, but should inquire of the defendant and his attorney, on the record, whether the two discussed the potential immigration consequences and what defendant's actual understanding of those consequences is. State v. Favela, 2015-NMSC-005, aff'g 2013-NMCA-102, 311 P.3d 1213.

Where defense attorney failed to advise defendant, who was a Mexican national, of the specific immigration consequences of pleading guilty to aggravated battery and driving under the influence of alcohol, the New Mexico supreme court held that the advisement by the judge of the immigration consequences of the defendant's guilty plea cannot, by itself, cure the prejudice created by the defense attorney's deficient performance, and therefore defense attorney provided ineffective assistance of counsel. State v. Favela, 2015-NMSC-005, aff'g 2013-NMCA-102, 311 P.3d 1213.

4. Effect on charging document. That this agreement, unless rejected or withdrawn, serves to amend the complaint, indictment, or information to charge the offense to which the defendant pleads, without the filing of any additional pleading. If the plea is rejected or withdrawn, the original charges are automatically reinstated.

5. Waiver of defenses and appeal. Unless this plea is rejected or withdrawn, the defendant gives up any and all motions, defenses, objections or requests which the defendant has made or raised, or could assert hereafter, to the court's entry of judgment and imposition of a sentence consistent with this agreement. [ ] (check here if inapplicable)

I have read and understand the above. I have discussed the case and my constitutional rights with my lawyer. I understand that by pleading [guilty] [no contest] I will be giving up my right to a trial by jury, to confront, cross-examine and compel the attendance of witnesses and my privilege against self-incrimination.

I understand that if the court grants me probation, a suspended sentence, a deferred sentence or a conditional discharge, the terms and conditions thereof are subject to modification in the event that I violate any of the terms or conditions imposed.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 10-8300-028, effective December 3, 2010, in the part of the pleading entitled "Plea and Disposition Agreement", in the subdivision entitled "Plea", in the sentence, after "plead [guilty] [no contest]", deleted the brackets and "[guilty but mentally ill]"; in the subdivision entitled "Terms" in the first paragraph, in Paragraph 1, entitled "No agreement as to sentence", in the second sentence, deleted "maximum penalties for these charges" and added "mandatory minimum penalties, maximum possible penalties, and possible sentence enhancement", after "are", added "as follows", and at the end of the second sentence, in the parentheses after "set forth", deleted "maximum" and added "possible", in the fourth paragraph, at the end of the paragraph, added "[ ] (check here if applicable)", and in the fifth paragraph, in the second sentence, after "pleading [guilty] [no contest]", deleted the brackets and "[guilty but mentally ill]"; in the part of the form entitled "District Court Approval", in Paragraph 3, in the introductory sentence, after "pleading [guilty] [no contest]", deleted the brackets and "[guilty but mentally ill]", in Paragraph 8, after "plead [guilty] [no contest]", deleted the brackets and "[guilty but mentally ill]", and in the last unnumbered paragraph, after "pleads [guilty] [no contest]", deleted the brackets and "[guilty but mentally ill]"; and in the Use Note, in Paragraph 2, deleted the former sentence which stated "Use appropriate alternative" and added the current sentence, deleted former Paragraph 3 which provided an example of a description of maximum penalties, and renumbered former Paragraph 4 as Paragraph 3.

The 2007 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 07-8300-029, effective December 10, 2007, revised the form to include in the consequences of a plea on the defendant's immigration status and added the provisions relating to the consequences of a plea in domestic violence and sex offender cases.

The 1998 amendment, effective May 1, 1998, rewrote the form.

Plea agreements will be specifically enforced. — Where defendant entered into three plea agreements in which the state agreed that defendant would serve zero to nine years of incarceration, supervised probation, treatment program, or a combination thereof and that the sentences in each case would be served concurrently with each other; and the district court accepted the plea agreements and sentenced defendant to twenty-one years in prison, with sixteen years suspended, for an actual prison term of five year, plus five years of supervised probation, the sentence violated the terms of the plea agreements, because the suspended sentence allowed for the possibility that defendant could actually serve more than nine years in prison and defendant was entitled to specific performance of the plea agreements. State v. Gomez, 2011-NMCA-120, 267 P.3d 831.

Plea agreement provided for a specific sentence. — Where the plea agreement provided for a maximum sentence of forty years and the court accepted the plea, the plea agreement constituted a promise, not a recommendation, for a sentence within a particular range that the court was bound to enforce and the imposition of a forty-two year sentence, nine of which were suspended, violated the sentence cap in the plea agreement. State v. Miller, 2012-NMCA-051, 278 P.3d 561, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-005.

Plea agreement for a maximum sentence "at initial sentencing". — Where the plea agreement provided for a maximum sentence of forty years "at initial sentencing", the phrase "at initial sentencing" did not transform the limit on sentencing into a limit on the initial period of incarceration because the sentence could not be increased at a later date and the court's sentence of forty-two years imprisonment, nine of which were suspended, violated the plea agreement. State v. Miller, 2012-NMCA-051, 278 P.3d 561, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-005.

Strict adherence to form not required. — Failure to utilize the form set out in this rule did not invalidate a guilty plea where there were adequate indicia that the plea was knowing and voluntary. State v. Jonathan B., 1998-NMSC-003, 124 N.M. 620, 954 P.2d 52, cert. denied, 525 U.S. 865, 119 S. Ct. 155, 142 L. Ed. 2d 127 (1998).

Judicial inquiry of potential immigration consequences. — An effective judicial inquiry into a defendant's actual understanding of immigration consequences may require more than asking the defendant whether he understands the potential immigration consequences, but should inquire of the defendant and his attorney, on the record, whether the two discussed the potential immigration consequences and what defendant's actual understanding of those consequences is. State v. Favela, 2015-NMSC-005, aff'g 2013-NMCA-102, 311 P.3d 1213.

Where defense attorney failed to advise defendant, who was a Mexican national, of the specific immigration consequences of pleading guilty to aggravated battery and driving under the influence of alcohol, the New Mexico supreme court held that the advisement by the judge of the immigration consequences of the defendant's guilty plea cannot, by itself, cure the prejudice created by the defense attorney's deficient performance, and therefore defense attorney provided ineffective assistance of counsel. State v. Favela, 2015-NMSC-005, aff'g 2013-NMCA-102, 311 P.3d 1213.

PLEA AND DISPOSITION AGREEMENT

The prosecution and the defendant hereby agree to the following disposition of this case:

Plea:

The defendant agrees to plead [guilty] [no contest] to the following offenses: _____

Terms:

On the following understandings, terms, and conditions:

[1. Agreement as to sentence. That the following disposition will be made of the charges: _____]¹

[1. No agreement as to sentence. There are no agreements as to sentencing. The mandatory minimum penalties, maximum possible penalties, and possible sentence enhancements are as follows: _____

(set forth possible penalties).]

2. Dismissed or additional charges. That the prosecution will dismiss the following charges: _____

_____
The following charges are not yet filed and will not be filed against the defendant:

_____
_____ 2

3. New charges. The complaint is hereby amended to add the following charges against defendant: _____

4. Effect on charging document. That this agreement, unless rejected or withdrawn, serves to amend the complaint to charge the offense to which the defendant pleads, without the filing of any additional pleading. If the plea is rejected or withdrawn, the original charges are automatically reinstated.

5. Waiver of defenses and appeal. Unless this plea is rejected or withdrawn, that the defendant hereby gives up any and all motions, defenses, objections, or requests which the defendant has made or raised, or could assert hereafter, to the court's entry of judgment and imposition of a sentence consistent with this agreement.

6. Withdrawal permitted if agreement rejected. That, if after reviewing this agreement and any presentence report the court concludes that any of its provisions are unacceptable, the court will allow the withdrawal of the plea, and this agreement shall be null and void. If the plea is withdrawn, neither the plea nor any statements arising out of the plea proceedings shall be admissible as evidence against the defendant in any criminal proceedings.

I have read and understand the above. I have discussed the case and my constitutional rights with my lawyer. I understand that by pleading [guilty] [no contest] I will be giving up my right to a trial by jury if I am entitled to a jury,<sup>3</sup> to confront, cross-examine, and compel the attendance of witnesses, my privilege against self-incrimination, and my right to appeal my conviction. I agree to enter my plea as indicated above on the terms and conditions set forth herein. I fully understand that if, as part of this agreement, I am granted probation, a suspended sentence, or a deferred sentence by the court, the terms and conditions thereof are subject to modification in the event that I violate any of the terms or conditions imposed.

I understand that entry of this plea agreement may have an effect upon my immigration or naturalization status, as well as my legal rights and personal opportunities, and I acknowledge that, if I am represented by an attorney, my attorney has advised me of the immigration consequences of this plea agreement.

(For use only in Magistrate and Metropolitan Court.)

(Domestic violence cases only.) I understand that an entry of a plea for a crime of domestic violence will affect my constitutional right to bear arms, including shipping, receiving, possessing, or owning any firearm or ammunition, all of which are crimes punishable under federal law for a person convicted of domestic violence.

(For use only in Magistrate and Metropolitan Court.)

I understand that entry of this plea agreement may require me to register as a sex offender under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (Sections 29-11A-1 through 29-11A-10 NMSA 1978), and I acknowledge that, if I am represented by an attorney, my attorney has advised me of the requirement to register.

(Check and complete if applicable.)

Conditional plea

[ ] I understand that the plea of guilty that I have entered is conditioned upon my appeal. If I file an appeal on the issue of _____ (describe pre-trial motion upon which appeal will be based) and I win my appeal on this issue I may withdraw my plea.

USE NOTES

1. If the plea agreement is not made in exchange for a guaranteed, specific sentence, this paragraph should state as follows: "The State agrees to recommend the following sentence _____ – or agrees not to oppose the defendant's request for a particular sentence, and the defendant understands that the court is not bound to those recommendations or requests and may sentence the defendant to a more unfavorable disposition."

2. This paragraph is used if there are other pending or known criminal charges against the defendant that will be disposed of by this agreement.

3. The list of rights the defendant is giving up may exclude the right to a trial by jury in municipal court.

[Adopted, effective May 1, 1997; as amended May 15, 2003; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 07-8300-029, effective December 10, 2007; by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-048, effective December 31, 2008; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 10-8300-028, effective December 3, 2010; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-020, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2013.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-020, effective December 31, 2013, changed the form into a generic form for state, county, and city prosecutions; restated in a new sentence the former provision that charges not yet filed will not be filed; provided for the amendment of the complaint to add new charges; in the first sentence of the form, after "The", deleted "[state] [county] [city]" and added "prosecution"; in Paragraph 2, in the title, added "Dismissed or", in the first sentence, after "That", deleted "the following charges will be dismissed, or if not yet filed, shall not be brought against the defendant" and added "the prosecution will dismiss the following charges", and added the second sentence; added Paragraph 3; in the third sentence of the last unnumbered paragraph, after "my right to a trial by jury", added "if I am entitled to a jury"; and deleted the former date line next to the signature line for the judge.

The 2010 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 10-8300-028, effective December 3, 2010, in the subdivision entitled "Terms", added the paragraph headings in Paragraphs 1 through 5, and added Paragraph 1 entitled "No agreement as to sentence"; and in the Use Note, added Paragraphs 1 through 2 and renumbered former Paragraph 1 as Paragraph 3.

The 2008 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-048, effective December 31, 2008, in the first provision for use only in Magistrate or Metropolitan Court, deleted the phrase "or felony" following the phrase "domestic violence"; in the second provision for use only in Magistrate or Metropolitan Court, changed the citation to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act from "29-11A-1 NMSA" to "Sections 29-11A-1 through 29-11A-10 NMSA 1978"; and at the end of the second provision for use only in Magistrate or Metropolitan Court, deleted the phrase "For use only in on the record cases in the Metropolitan Court".

The 2007 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 07-8300-029, effective December 10, 2007, revised the provision relating to the consequences of a plea on the defendant's immigration status and added the provisions relating to the consequences of a plea in domestic violence and sex offender cases.

The 2003 amendment, effective May 15, 2003, following the fifth numbered paragraph, deleted the two statements concerning conditional pleas; substituted the present sentence concerning immigration or naturalization for the former sentence which read "I understand that a conviction may have an effect upon my immigration or naturalization status" and deleted the use note that read "plea and disposition agreements should not be used to close the original case and to open another case".

PROCEDURE

(To be printed on the reverse side of report)

1. The laboratory named on the front of this report is a laboratory authorized or certified by the scientific laboratory division of the health department to perform blood and alcohol tests. The agency has established formal procedures for receipt, handling and testing of blood samples to assure integrity of the sample, a formal procedure for conduct and report of the chemical analysis of the samples by the gas chromatographic method (_____) (specify, if other method used) and quality control procedures to validate the analyses. The quality control procedures include semi-annual proficiency testing by an independent agency. The procedures have the general acceptance and approval of the scientific community, including the medical profession, and of the courts, as a means of assuring a chemical analysis of a blood sample that accurately discloses the concentration of alcohol in the blood. The same procedures are applicable for samples other than blood if submitted for alcohol analysis. The analyst who conducts the analysis in this must meet the qualifications required by the director of this laboratory to properly conduct such analyses. The supervisor of analysts must also be qualified to conduct such analyses.

2. When a blood sample is received at the laboratory, the receiving employee examines the sample container and:

(a) determines that it is a standard container of a kit approved by the director of the laboratory;
