[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 10-8300-018, effective July 4, 2010.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-022, effective December 31, 2017, in Paragraph B(2), changed "another state of states" to "another state or states".

The 2015 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 15-8300-018, effective November 1, 2015, authorized applicants who have taken the Uniform Bar Examination to apply for admission to the New Mexico bar, provided a minimum score for, and a time requirement in which to take, the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination, required applicants to have taken certain courses on New Mexico law prior to being approved for admission to the New Mexico bar, and made technical changes; in Subparagraph B(2), after "application is made", added "or at the time of application for admission by transferred Uniform Bar Examination (UBE) score"; in Subparagraph B(6), changed each occurrence of "judgement" to "judgment"; in Paragraph E, after the heading, deleted "All applicants shall be required to take and pass the written examination in accordance with Article 2 of these rules except" and added "Except", after "Rule 15-107 NMRA", added "all applicants shall be required to take and pass the bar examination in New Mexico or meet the requirements of these rules for admission by transferred Uniform Bar Examination Score."; and added new Paragraphs F and G.

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-001, effective June 1, 2015, authorized applicants to be admitted by motion without examination; and in Paragraph E, after "written examination", added "in accordance with Article 2 of these rules" and after "University of New Mexico", added the remainder of the sentence.

The 2008 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-028, effective for the February 2009 bar examination, added Subparagraph (7) of Paragraph B.

The 2005 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 05-8300-010, effective September 1, 2005, amended Subparagraph (1) of Paragraph B to reduce the age requirement from twenty-one to eighteen years of age, added a new Paragraph C providing for character and fitness standards and relettered Paragraphs C and D as Paragraphs D and E.

The 1996 amendment, effective to apply to the February 1997 bar examination, added Subparagraph B(6) and made a related stylistic change.

The 1988 amendment, effective November 14, 1988, added the second sentence in Paragraph B.

The standard of good moral character is not unconstitutionally vague and does not violate equal protection requirements. In re Application of Oppenheim, 2007-NMSC-022, 141 N.M. 596, 159 P.3d 245.

Rational connection between qualification and fitness required. — A state cannot exclude a person from the practice of law or from any other occupation in a manner or for reasons that contravene the due process or equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment. A state can require high standards of qualification, such as good moral character or proficiency in its law, before it admits an applicant to the bar, but any qualification must have a rational connection with the applicant's fitness or capacity to practice law. Schwartz v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Affidavit requirement valid. — Applicant to take the New Mexico bar examination must be shown to be a person of good moral character before he is eligible to take the bar examination, and requirement of submission of an affidavit of an attorney of this state to that effect does not deny due process or equal protection. Henington v. State Bd. of Bar Exmrs., 1956-NMSC-001, 60 N.M. 393, 291 P.2d 1108.

Good moral character prerequisite to taking examination. — The right to take an examination to practice law is a qualified right, and one who seeks permission to take such examination must be prepared to satisfy reasonable requirements as to good moral character and training. Henington v. State Bd. of Bar Exmrs., 1956-NMSC-001, 60 N.M. 393, 291 P.2d 1108.

Court final arbiter of standards for bar admission. — The legislature may enact valid laws in fixing minimum requirements for admission to the bar, but in no event maximum; and it may not require the courts to admit on standards other than as accepted or established by the courts, and any legislation which attempts to do so is an invasion of the judicial power and violative of the constitutional provisions establishing the separate branches of government and prohibiting the legislature from invading the judiciary. In re Sedillo, 1959-NMSC-095, 66 N.M. 267, 347 P.2d 162.

Powers of supreme court over admission to practice. — The supreme court has the ultimate responsibility to grant or withhold an admission to practice law. That court must independently examine and weigh the evidence and then pass upon its sufficiency. A particular case must be judged on its own merits, and an ad hoc determination in each instance must be made by the court. Nall v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1982-NMSC-051, 98 N.M. 172, 646 P.2d 1236.

Character indication of fitness. — Membership in the bar is a privilege burdened with conditions. A fair private and professional character is one of them. Compliance with that condition is essential at the moment of admission; but it is equally essential afterwards. Whenever the condition is broken the privilege is lost. To refuse admission to an unworthy applicant is not to punish him for past offenses. The examination into character, like the examination into learning, is merely a test of fitness. Schware v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1955-NMSC-081, 60 N.M. 304, 291 P.2d 607, rev'd on other grounds, 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Conduct and opinion of peers relevant to character. — Proof of his good moral character entails a consideration of two kinds of indirect evidence: first, the pattern of conduct an individual follows; and, second, a consideration of the regard his fellows and associates have for him. Schware v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1955-NMSC-081, 60 N.M. 304, 291 P.2d 607, rev'd on other grounds, 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Arrest, aliases, communist affiliation deemed not moral unfitness. — Arrests with convictions, use of aliases many years ago and communist party membership during the 1930's do not raise substantial doubts about applicant's good moral character. Therefore, denial of application is denial of due process because these circumstances do not rationally justify a finding of moral unfitness. Schware v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Burden of proof as to moral character. — The burden is on the applicant to prove good moral character. The board then has the opportunity to rebut, showing evidence of bad moral character. Nall v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1982-NMSC-051, 98 N.M. 172, 646 P.2d 1236.

Burden of proof in challenging board's findings or decision. — The applicant has the burden of showing that the board's findings are not supported by the evidence or that the decision was erroneous or unlawful. Reasonable doubts are resolved in favor of the applicant. Nall v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1982-NMSC-051, 98 N.M. 172, 646 P.2d 1236.

ABA educational requirements may not be waived. — Subsection (b)(2) (now Subparagraph (2) of Paragraph B) does not permit a case-by-case waiver of the American Bar Association educational requirements. In re Adams, 1985-NMSC-051, 102 N.M. 731, 700 P.2d 194.

Full-time practice notwithstanding nonlegal work. — Court holds applicant to the bar has been engaged in the full-time practice of law where for the previous seven years he has advised the government on questions of law involving contracts, mortgages, patents and leaseholds, inter alia, although much of the time has been spent doing work nonlawyers could do. Harty v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1970-NMSC-011, 81 N.M. 116, 464 P.2d 406 (decided under former rule).

A state can require high standards of qualification, such as good moral character or proficiency in its law, before it admits an applicant to the bar, but any qualification must have a rational connection with the applicant's fitness or capacity to practice law. Schwartz v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Good moral character prerequisite to taking examination. — Applicant to take the New Mexico bar examination must be shown to be a person of good moral character before he is eligible to take the bar examination and requirement of submission of an affidavit of an attorney of this state to that effect does not deny due process or equal protection. Henington v. State Bd. of Bar Exmrs., 1956-NMSC-001, 60 N.M. 393, 291 P.2d 1108.

Character indication of fitness. — Membership in the bar is a privilege burdened with conditions. A fair private and professional character is one of them. Compliance with that condition is essential at the moment of admission; but it is equally essential afterwards. Whenever the condition is broken the privilege is lost. To refuse admission to an unworthy applicant is not to punish him for past offenses. The examination into character, like the examination into learning, is merely a test of fitness. Schwartz v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1955-NMSC-081, 60 N.M. 304, 291 P.2d 607, rev'd on other grounds, 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Conduct and opinion of peers relevant to character. — Proof of his good moral character entails a consideration of two kinds of indirect evidence: first, the pattern of conduct an individual follows; and, second, a consideration of the regard his fellows and associates have for him. Schware v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1955-NMSC-081, 60 N.M. 304, 291 P.2d 607, rev'd on other grounds, 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Arrest, aliases, communist affiliation deemed not moral unfitness. — Arrests with convictions, use of aliases many years ago and communist party membership during the 1930's do not raise substantial doubts about applicant's good moral character. Therefore, denial of application is denial of due process because these circumstances do not rationally justify a finding of moral unfitness. Schware v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1955-NMSC-081, 60 N.M. 304, 291 P.2d 607, rev'd on other grounds, 353 U.S. 232, 77 S. Ct. 752, 1 L. Ed. 2d 796 (1957).

Withdrawals. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 15-8300-018, 15-204 NMRA, relating to bar admission rule questions, was withdrawn effective November 1, 2015. For provisions of former rule, see the 2015 NMRA on NMOneSource.com.

15-205. Grading and scoring.

A. Policies and graders. Subject to the approval of the Supreme Court, the Board of Bar Examiners may adopt grading policies as it deems appropriate provided the policies are not inconsistent with the policies applicable to grading of the UBE as coordinated by the National Conference of Bar Examiners. Graders shall be appointed by the Board of Bar Examiners for the grading of examinations.

B. Nonidentity grading. Every applicant shall be assigned an examination number at random. Grading of the MEE and MPT answers shall be strictly anonymous, and the information matching the names and code numbers of the applicants shall be kept in the custody of the secretary of the board, or such other person as is designated by the board, until all papers have been finally graded, all numerical or percentage grades for each applicant have been compiled, and each applicant has been determined by examination number to have either passed or failed the bar examination.

C. Weighting; scaling; minimum passing score. The raw scores assigned to the MEE and MPT answers by the graders shall reflect the relative quality of each answer (ranging from non-responsive to well above average). The MEE and MPT raw scores shall be combined and converted to the MBE scale to calculate written scaled scores according to the method used by the National Conference of Bar Examiners for jurisdictions that administer the UBE. The written scaled scores and the MBE scaled scores shall be combined to determine UBE total scores, with the MEE weighted thirty percent (30%), the MPT weighted twenty percent (20%), and the MBE weighted fifty percent (50%). Scaled scores shall be used to assure that the standard used to measure competence is not affected by the difficulty of the particular test or the ability of the applicants sitting for a particular examination. A total UBE score of two hundred sixty (260) shall be the minimum passing score.

D. Uniformity of grading. In order to assure maximum fairness and uniformity in grading, the Board of Bar Examiners shall prescribe standards for grading to be used by all graders. To the extent possible, all the answers to a particular question should be graded by the same grader.

E. Ethics exam. The Board of Bar Examiners shall test applicants on professional responsibility and legal ethics by separate examination. Regardless of test results on the other examination parts, applicants must receive a minimum scaled score of eighty (80) on the MPRE to be eligible for admission. A passing scaled score of eighty (80) or above achieved no more than five (5) years before filing a first application for admission in New Mexico will be accepted. The MPRE must be passed by the applicant within one (1) year after the date of notification that the applicant has passed the MEE, MPT, and MBE parts of the examination or within one (1) year after application for admission by transfer of Uniform Bar Examination score or admission on motion. For purposes of this paragraph, the date of notification shall be the date notification is mailed to the applicant by the secretary of the board.

Admission

15-301. Investigation, interviews and appeals.

A. Investigations. The board shall conduct an investigation and otherwise inquire into and determine the character, fitness, and general qualifications of every applicant for admission. In every investigation and inquiry the board may obtain information relating to the character, fitness, and general qualifications of the applicant; and may take and hear testimony, administer oaths and affirmations, and compel, by subpoena, the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents. Any member of the board may administer the oaths and affirmations. Investigations and inquiries shall be informal, but shall be thorough, with the object of ascertaining the truth. Technical rules of evidence need not be observed. Any hearing for that purpose may be held by a division of the board consisting of not less than three (3) members of the board, and the board chair, the board vice-chair, or a member of the board appointed by the board chair to preside shall serve as the division's presiding officer, who shall have power to issue subpoenas. A complete record shall be made of all hearings held under this rule, and each applicant shall be advised of the nature of any allegations or charges made which may lead to denial of licensure, and may cross-examine adverse witnesses, be represented by counsel, and present relevant evidence. Subpoenas shall be freely issued on the written request of any applicant. Failure to respond to subpoenas issued under this rule will be an act of contempt of the Supreme Court and shall forthwith be reported by the board to the Supreme Court.

B. Interviews. The board, any member of the board, or a committee of the board, shall investigate and may hold interviews as to an applicant's qualification. An interview is not a "hearing" as described in these rules; however, information gathered at an interview of the applicant shall be admissible at hearings and an applicant's truthfulness shall be considered relevant to the applicant's qualifications.

C. Hearings. The board may hold a hearing on the qualifications of any applicant. The hearing may be held by a committee consisting of not less than three members, of whom no fewer than one (1) shall be a member of the board. Members of hearing committees shall be members of the bar of this state, appointed by the chair of the board upon recommendation of the board. The chair of the board or any member of the board appointed by the chair shall chair the committee. The applicant shall be advised of the nature of the subject and purpose of the hearing and may cross-examine witnesses, be represented by counsel, and present evidence on the applicant's behalf. A record shall be made of all committee hearings. The committee chair shall have the power to issue subpoenas on behalf of the committee. Subpoenas shall be freely issued on the written request of the applicant. Failure to respond to a committee subpoena will be an act of contempt of the Supreme Court and shall be reported by the board to the Supreme Court.

D. Appeals. If after a hearing the board refuses to recommend the admission of an applicant, the board shall make written findings of fact and conclusions. The findings and conclusions of the board shall be filed with the secretary of the board and a copy sent by certified or registered mail to the applicant. Any applicant aggrieved by a decision or action of the board may within sixty (60) days after the date of mailing of the findings and conclusions to the applicant, appeal to the Supreme Court by filing a petition and brief-in-chief with the clerk of the Court specifying wherein the board has erred, and by serving copies on the secretary of the board. A docketing statement and docket fee will not be required. The record on appeal to the Supreme Court shall consist of the application and file of the board, the record of the hearing, whether by tape recording or transcript, and the findings and conclusions of the board. Within forty-five (45) days after the board has received the petition on appeal it will file a response. Oral arguments shall be made in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. The petitioner shall be responsible for making satisfactory arrangements with the secretary of the board for the record on appeal, whether by tape recording or transcript. The Supreme Court may tax the costs of appeal against the petitioner or the board, or partially against both, as it may deem equitable.

Powers of supreme court over admission to practice. — The supreme court has the ultimate responsibility to grant or withhold an admission to practice law. That court must independently examine and weigh the evidence and then pass upon its sufficiency. A particular case must be judged on its own merits, and an ad hoc determination in each instance must be made by the court. Nall v. Board of Bar Exmrs., 1982-NMSC-051, 98 N.M. 172, 646 P.2d 1236.

Educational prerequisites constitutional. — The educational qualifications required of applicants before they are permitted to practice law in this state do not violate the fourteenth amendment or N.M. Const., art. II, § 18, either in regard to the clause requiring due process of law or in providing for equal protection of the laws. Henington v. State Bd. of Bar Exmrs., 1956-NMSC-001, 60 N.M. 393, 291 P.2d 1108.

Board recommendations given great weight. — The supreme court has ultimate responsibility to grant or withhold admission to the practice of law, but, in determining whether or not an applicant should be admitted, the court will always give the most serious consideration to the recommendations of the Board of Bar Examiners and will overrule them only when unalterably convinced that they are not well founded. Lucius v. State Bd. of Bar Exmrs., 1972-NMSC-082, 84 N.M. 382, 503 P.2d 1160.

Court promulgates bar admission standards. — The legislature may enact valid laws in fixing minimum requirements for admission to the bar, but in no event maximum; and it may not require the courts to admit on standards other than as accepted or established by the courts, and any legislation which attempts to do so is an invasion of the judicial power and violative of the constitutional provisions establishing the separate branches of government and prohibiting the legislature from invading the judiciary. In re Sedillo, 1959-NMSC-095, 66 N.M. 267, 347 P.2d 162 (decided under former law).

Board minutes deemed "public records". — The minutes of the Board of Bar Examiners meet the requirements of the definition of "public records" and, as such, are required under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 to be subject to the inspection of the public. 1953-54 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 5933.
