The State Bar of New Mexico may incorporate, sue and be sued, may enter into contracts and acquire, hold, encumber, dispose of and deal in and with real and personal property, and promote and further the aims as set forth herein and hereinafter in these rules.

Except as otherwise provided by the rule adopted by the Supreme Court, no person shall practice law in this state or hold himself or herself out as one who may practice law in this state unless such person is an active member of the state bar, and no suspended or disbarred member shall practice law in this state or hold himself or herself out as one who may practice law in this state, while suspended or disbarred.

A person who qualifies for membership in the Young Lawyers Division because that person has not been admitted to any state bar for more than five (5) years shall not serve as an officer of the Young Lawyers Division if such service would extend more than five (5) years beyond that person's admission to any state bar. The Young Lawyers Division shall adopt bylaws applicable to its division which shall be approved by the Board of Bar Commissioners. Such bylaws shall not be inconsistent with these rules. The bylaws of the young lawyers division shall establish the process for the election of its officers and directors;

(2) a senior lawyers division. Membership in the Senior Lawyers Division shall consist of all members of the State Bar of New Mexico in good standing who are fifty-five (55) years of age or older and who have practiced law for twenty-five (25) years or more. Rule 24-101 NMRA applies to all courts of this state without exception. — The practice of law in any court is limited to duly licensed attorneys who are members of the State Bar or otherwise authorized by the Supreme Court’s rules in specific, limited circumstances. The limited exceptions that allow certain individuals without a bar license to practice law in New Mexico courts require that a proper authority must be notified in writing of their non-licensed status, the State Bar in the case of an out-of-state attorney and the judge presiding over the proceeding in the case of a clinical law student. State v. Rivera, 2012-NMSC-003, 268 P.3d 40, rev’g in part 2010-NMCA-109, 149 N.M. 406, 249 P.3d 944.

Rivera*, 2012-NMSC-003, 268 P.3d 40, rev'g in part 2010-NMCA-109, 149 N.M. 406, 249 P.3d 944.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Pursuant to a court order dated January 30, 2004, this rule is effective January 30, 2004.

24-102. Annual license fee.

A. Determination of fees. Every member of the state bar shall, prior to the first day of January of each year, pay to the executive director of the state bar an annual license fee, which fee shall be determined and fixed by the Board of Bar Commissioners prior to January of each calendar year.

B. Late penalties. Members whose dues are received after the first day of February will be assessed a late payment penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00). Active members who fail to disclose professional liability insurance coverage information after the first day of March will be assessed a late disclosure penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

C. Delinquency certification. If a member's dues and late penalty are not received before the last day of March, the Board of Bar Commissioners shall, through its executive director, certify to the Supreme Court the name of such member on a list of names of all members failing to pay their annual license fees and late penalties.

D. Suspension process for delinquency. Whenever the Board of Bar Commissioners of the State Bar shall cause to be certified to the Supreme Court that any member of the state bar has failed or refused to pay the license fee or late penalty fee immediately upon receipt of said certification from the executive director of the state bar, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a citation requiring the delinquent member to show cause before the Court, within fifteen (15) days after service of such citation, why such member should not be suspended from the right to practice in the courts of this state. Service of such citation may be personal or by first class mail. The payment of such delinquent license fee on or before the return day of such citation, and payment of accrued costs, shall be deemed sufficient showing of cause, and shall serve to dismiss the citation. Suspension orders shall be served by certified mail.

E. Reinstatement. Any member suspended under the provisions of this rule shall be required to petition the Board of Bar Examiners for reinstatement, and as a condition precedent to any granting of reinstatement pursuant to Paragraph B of Rule 15-302 NMRA shall be required to pay a reinstatement fee of:

- (1) twice that member's then license fee, plus
- (2) all fees in arrears, plus
- (3) all accrued late penalty payments.

F. Voluntary withdrawal. Any attorney in good standing may file a written notice with the Supreme Court for voluntary withdrawal as a member of the bar of this state. Upon the filing of such written notice, the Supreme Court Clerk shall issue a certificate of withdrawal terminating the petitioner's membership in the bar of this state, and the petitioner shall not thereafter be entitled to practice law in the courts of this state. No order of suspension for failure thereafter to pay the annual bar license fee will be entered against such member, and the member's withdrawal will not prejudice the member's record or standing during the period of membership in the bar of this state.

G. Waiver requests. The Board of Bar Commissioners may waive all or part of any license fee in cases of extreme individual hardship. If the Board of Bar Commissioners receives a petition for waiver for all or part of any license fee relying on a physical, mental, or emotional infirmity, impairment, incapacity, or illness as an extreme individual hardship under this rule, the Board of Bar Commissioners shall refer the matter to the Disciplinary Board for a determination under Rule 17-208 NMRA. If the Disciplinary Board decides not to initiate proceedings under Rule 17-208 NMRA, the Board of Bar Commissioners shall be notified that it may proceed to consider whether the petition for waiver should be granted on the basis of an extreme individual hardship. In cases where a petition for waiver of all or part of any license fee has been rejected by the Board of Bar Commissioners, an attorney may petition the Supreme Court for modification or reversal of the action of the board.

H. Deposit, disbursement, and audit of fees collected. All moneys collected by the executive director in accordance with the provisions of this rule shall be deposited to an account designated as State Bar of New Mexico general fund and shall be disbursed by order of the Board of Bar Commissioners in carrying out the functions, duties and powers vested in said board. ## ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective September 1, 1991, in the second sentence of the last paragraph, substituted "shall on or before March 1" for "shall submit on or before January 1 of each year a proposed budget to the Supreme Court of New Mexico. It shall likewise on or before March 1".

The 1992 amendment, effective June 1, 1992, in the second paragraph, inserted "Bar" near the beginning; made gender neutral and stylistic changes in the second paragraph and the third paragraph from the end; and added the next-to-last paragraph.

The 2001 amendment, effective April 23, 2001, in the second paragraph, substituted "fee" for "imposed herein" in the first sentence, "first class" for "registered" in the second sentence, "dismiss" for "discharge" in the third sentence and added the last sentence; in the third paragraph, inserted "pursuant to Paragraph B of Rule 15-302 NMRA" in the first sentence.

The 2006 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order 06-8300-22, effective October 24, 2006, added the second sentence providing for a one hundred dollar ($100) penalty for a late disclosure of professional liability insurance coverage.

condition; added the titles of Paragraphs A through I; in Paragraph C, deleted the former provision which provided for a prorated license fee for new admittees, a penalty for late payment of a new admittee's license fee, and certification of the name of a new admittee who has failed to pay the license fee and penalty; in Paragraph F, in the first sentence, after "may file a", deleted "petition" and added "written notice", and in the second sentence, after "Upon the filing of such", deleted "petition" and added "written notice", after "written notice", changed "the Court" to "the Supreme Court Clerk", after "the Supreme Court Clerk", deleted "may enter an order" and added "shall issue a certificate of withdrawal"; and in Paragraph G, added the second and third sentences.

Injunctive relief improper remedy. — Plaintiffs (attorneys), who were contesting the State Bar's budget due to improper categorization, failed to show that emergency injunctive relief was justified. Although State Bar members must pay their dues by January 1, no affirmative action is taken by the State Bar to secure payment until March 31; thus, there was no irreparable injury warranting an injunction. Popejoy v. New Mexico Bd. of Bar Comm'rs, 847 F. Supp. 155 (D.N.M. 1994).

[As amended, effective August 14, 2000.]

Payment of fee. With the first registration certificate in any given calendar year, the nonadmitted attorney shall pay a non-refundable fee of four hundred fifty dollars ($450) to the State Bar of New Mexico. For each subsequent registration certificate in a given calendar year, the nonadmitted attorney shall pay a fee of two hundred seventy-five dollars ($275). The fee shall be waived if

(1) the nonadmitted attorney certifies that the attorney is employed by a governmental authority and will be performing legal services on behalf of a governmental authority in the proceeding for which the attorney is registering;

(2) the attorney is employed by an agency providing legal services to indigent clients and will be performing legal services on behalf of an indigent client in the proceeding for which the attorney is registering; or

(3) the attorney will otherwise be performing legal services on behalf of an indigent client in a proceeding for which the attorney is registering and will be charging no fee for the services.

E. Use of fees. From the first fee collected in a given calendar year, the State Bar of New Mexico shall pay an amount equal to the annual disciplinary fee assessment under Rule 17-203(A) NMRA to the Disciplinary Board and an amount equal to the annual client protection assessment pursuant to Rule 17A-003 NMRA to the Client Protection Fund. From each fee collected under this rule, the State Bar of New Mexico may deduct an administrative and processing charge of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25). The balance of all such fees shall be held by the State Bar of New Mexico in a special fund to support the delivery of civil legal services to the poor. The Board of Bar Commissioners shall distribute all fees held in the special fund at least annually to nonprofit organizations providing or supporting the provision of civil legal services to the poor as recommended by the New Mexico Commission on Access to Justice and approved by the Supreme Court.

- (1) does not expressly prohibit the practice of law in such entity form; and
- (2) expressly provides that nothing in the statute shall be construed to immunize a lawyer from liability or prospectively limit a lawyer's liability for the consequences of the lawyer's own acts or omissions.

B. Retroactive effect. This rule shall be given retroactive effect.

[Approved, effective March 28, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's note. — Rule 24-107 NMRA was approved by Supreme Court Order 05-8300-08, dated March 28, 2005.

24-108. Pro bono publico service.

A. Professional Responsibility. In attempting to meet the professional responsibility established in Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct, a lawyer should aspire to render at least fifty (50) hours of pro bono publico legal services per year. The substantial majority of the fifty (50) hours of service should be provided as indicated in Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Paragraph A of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Additional services may be provided as indicated in Paragraphs B or C of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

B. Financial Contribution. Alternatively or in addition to the service provided under Paragraph A of this rule, a lawyer may fulfill this professional responsibility by:

- (1) contributing financial support to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means in New Mexico, in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) per year; or

(2) providing a combination of pro bono hours and a financial contribution as suggested in this table:

Pro Bono Hours	0	5	10	15	20	25	30	35	40	45	50+
Suggested Contribution	$500	$450	$400	$350	$300	$250	$200	$150	$100	$50	Attorney Discretion

C. Pro Bono Certification. Each lawyer of the bar shall annually certify whether the lawyer has satisfied the lawyer's professional responsibility to provide pro bono services to the poor. Each lawyer shall certify this information through a form that is made a part of the lawyer's annual membership fees statement that shall require the lawyer to report the following information:

- (1) the number of hours the lawyer dedicated to pro bono legal services, and
- (2) if the lawyer has satisfied the obligation by contribution or part contribution, the amount of that contribution.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order 08-8300-04, effective March 15, 2008.]

Committee commentary. — The provisions of Rule 24-108 NMRA of the Rules Governing the New Mexico Bar are an affirmation of the lawyer's professional responsibility, as provided in Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct and are not mandatory nor do they constitute a basis for discipline under the Rules Governing Discipline for the State Bar of New Mexico. However, the reporting requirements of Paragraph C of Rule 24-108 NMRA of the Rules Governing the New Mexico Bar are mandatory and the failure to report this information shall be treated in the same manner as failure to pay dues or comply with mandatory continuing legal education. The information provided pursuant to this rule is designed for statistical purposes only and shall be used by the State Bar of New Mexico and distributed only in statistical form. Individual attorney responses shall remain confidential.

While it is possible for a lawyer to fulfill the annual responsibility to perform pro bono services exclusively through activities described in Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Paragraph A of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct, to the extent that any hours of service remained unfulfilled, the remaining commitment can be met in the variety of ways as set forth in Paragraphs B, C and D of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Constitutional, statutory or regulatory restrictions may prohibit or impede government and public sector lawyers and judges from performing the pro bono services outlined in Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Paragraph A of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Accordingly, where those restrictions apply, government and public sector lawyers and judges may fulfill their pro bono responsibility by performing services outlined in Paragraphs B, C and D of Rule 16-601 NMRA of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Attorneys licensed in New Mexico who reside outside of New Mexico may fulfill their pro bono responsibilities in their own state or provide monetary contributions to organizations providing assistance in New Mexico.

To facilitate the goals of this rule the Supreme Court adopted an order on April 28, 2006, establishing district court pro bono committees in each judicial district. Under the Pro Bono Plan adopted by the Court, a local pro bono committee convened by the chief judge and comprised of local lawyers, judges, legal service providers and other interested participants shall establish a local pro bono plan. The time deadlines and content for local pro bono plans shall be recommended by the Supreme Court's Access to Justice Commission and established by further administrative order of the Supreme Court.

24-109. Trust accounts; special requirements for IOLTA trust accounts.

A. IOLTA eligible funds. Funds of a client or third person shall be deemed IOLTA-eligible and shall be deposited in a lawyer's or law firm's IOLTA account unless the funds can earn income for the benefit of the client or third person in excess of the costs incurred to secure and distribute such income to the client or third person. In determining whether a client's or third person's funds can earn income in excess of the costs to secure and distribute such income, the lawyer or law firm shall consider the following factors:

(1) the amount of interest or dividends that the funds are expected to earn during the period they are expected to be deposited;

(2) the cost of establishing and administering non-IOLTA accounts for the benefit of clients or third persons, including the costs of the lawyer's services, and the costs of preparing any tax reports required for interest or dividends on earned funds;

(3) the capability of financial institutions, lawyers or law firms to calculate and pay interest or dividends to individual clients or third persons; and

(4) any other circumstances that affect the ability of the client's or third-person's funds to earn interest or dividends in excess of the costs to secure such interest or dividends.

The lawyer or law firm shall review its IOLTA account at reasonable intervals to determine whether any changed circumstances require further action with respect to the funds of any client or third person.

B. Special requirements for trust accounts containing IOLTA-eligible funds. Except as provided in Subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, a lawyer or law firm shall establish and maintain in compliance with the following provisions one or more interest or dividend-bearing trust accounts for the deposit of all IOLTA-eligible funds of clients or third persons. Each such account shall be referred to as an IOLTA account.

(1) No interest or dividends from an IOLTA account shall be made available to a lawyer or law firm.

(2) An IOLTA account shall be established with any financial institution authorized by federal or state law to do business in New Mexico, the deposits of which are insured by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government. Funds in each IOLTA account shall be subject to withdrawal upon request and without delay except as permitted by law.

(3) Lawyers may maintain IOLTA accounts only in eligible financial institutions. Eligible financial institutions are those that voluntarily offer IOLTA accounts and comply with the requirements of this rule, including maintaining IOLTA accounts that pay the highest rate of interest or dividends generally available from the institution to its non-IOLTA customers when IOLTA accounts meet or exceed the same minimum balance or other account eligibility qualifications, if any. In determining the highest rate of interest or dividends generally available from the institution to its non-IOLTA customers, an eligible financial institution may consider factors, in addition to the IOLTA account balance, customarily considered by the institution when setting rates of interest or dividends for its customers, provided that such factors do not discriminate between IOLTA accounts and accounts of non-IOLTA customers, and that these factors do not include that the account is an IOLTA account. The determination of whether a financial institution is an eligible financial institution and whether it is meeting the requirements of this rule shall be made by the Center for Civic Values. The Center for Civic Values shall maintain a list of participating eligible financial institutions and shall provide a copy of the list to any lawyer upon request.

(a) An eligible financial institution may satisfy these comparability requirements by electing one of the following options:

(i) establish the IOLTA account as the comparable rate product;

(ii) pay the comparable rate on the IOLTA checking account in lieu of actually establishing the comparable highest interest rate or dividend product; or

(iii) pay an amount on funds that would otherwise qualify for the investment options noted in Subparagraph (c) of Subparagraph (3) of this paragraph equal to fifty-five percent (55%) of the federal funds targeted rate as of the first business day of the month or other IOLTA remitting period, which amount is deemed to be already net of allowable reasonable service charges or fees. This “benchmark yield amount” may be adjusted once per year by the Center for Civic Values, upon ninety (90) days’ written notice to financial institutions participating in the IOLTA program.

(b) IOLTA accounts may be established as:

(i) a business checking account with an automated investment feature, such as an overnight investment in repurchase agreements or money market funds invested solely in or fully collateralized by United States government securities, including United States Treasury obligations and obligations issued or guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof;

(ii) a checking account paying preferred interest rates, such as money market or indexed rates;

(iii) a government interest-bearing checking account such as an account used for municipal deposits;

(iv) an interest-bearing checking account such as a negotiable order of withdrawal (NOW) account, or business checking account with interest; or

(v) any other suitable interest or dividend-bearing deposit account offered by the institution to its non-IOLTA customers.

(c) A daily financial institution repurchase agreement shall be fully collateralized by United States government securities and may be established only with an eligible institution that is “well capitalized” or “adequately capitalized” as those terms are defined by applicable federal statutes and regulations. An open-end money-market fund shall be invested solely in United States government securities or repurchase agreements fully collateralized by United States government securities, shall hold itself out as a “money-market fund” as that term is defined by federal statutes and regulations under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and, at the time of investment, shall have total assets of at least two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000).

(d) Nothing in this rule shall preclude a participating financial institution from paying a higher rate of interest or dividends than described above or electing to waive any service charges or fees on IOLTA accounts.

(e) Interest and dividends shall be calculated in accordance with the participating financial institution’s standard practice for non-IOLTA customers.

(f) “Allowable reasonable service charges or fees” for IOLTA accounts are defined as per check charges, per deposit charges, a fee in lieu of minimum balances, sweep fees, FDIC insurance fees and a reasonable IOLTA account administrative fee.

(g) Allowable reasonable service charges or fees may be deducted from interest or dividends on an IOLTA account only at the rates and in accordance with the customary practices of the eligible institution for non-IOLTA customers. No fees or service charges other than allowable reasonable service charges and fees may be assessed against or deducted from the interest or dividends on an IOLTA account. Any fees and service charges other than allowable reasonable service charges and fees shall be the sole responsibility of, and may be charged to, the lawyer or law firm maintaining the IOLTA account.

(4) Lawyers or law firms depositing IOLTA-eligible funds in an IOLTA account pursuant to this paragraph shall direct the financial institution:

(a) to remit at least quarterly to the Center for Civic Values all interest or dividends, net of any allowable reasonable service charges or fees, computed on the average monthly balance in the account or otherwise computed in accordance with the institution's standard accounting practices, provided that the financial institution may elect to waive any or all such charges or fees;

(b) to transmit to the Center for Civic Values with each remittance a report showing the name of the lawyer or law firm on whose behalf the remittance is sent, the amount of remittance attributable to each IOLTA account, the time period covered by the report, the IOLTA account number for each account, the rate of interest or dividends remitted, the amount and type of service charges or fees deducted, if any, the average daily account balance of the period for which the report is made, and such other information as may be reasonably required by the Center for Civic Values;

(c) to transmit to the depositing lawyer or law firm a statement in accordance with normal procedures for reporting to depositors of the financial institution; and

(d) not to deduct any service charges or fees in excess of the interest or dividends earned during the remitting period from the principal of an IOLTA account or from interest, dividends or principal of any other IOLTA account.

(5) The lawyer or law firm may deposit the lawyer's or law firm's own funds in an IOLTA account for the sole purpose of paying service charges or fees on the account or obtaining a waiver thereof, but only in an amount necessary for that purpose.

(6) The Center for Civic Values shall hold all funds transmitted to it and shall distribute such funds periodically in accordance with a plan of distribution that shall be prepared at least annually and approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico for the following public purposes:

(a) to provide legal assistance to the poor;

(b) to provide legal education;

(c) to improve the administration of justice; and

(d) for such other programs for the benefit of the public as are specifically approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico from time to time.

(7) Every lawyer not exempt from this paragraph shall certify in compliance with Rule 17-204 NMRA that all IOLTA-eligible funds held by the lawyer for the benefit of any client or third-person are deposited in an IOLTA account.

(8) A lawyer is exempt from the requirements of this paragraph if:

(a) the lawyer is a judge, an employee of a local, state, federal or tribal government, corporate counsel, or a teacher of law, or is otherwise not engaged in the private practice of law;

(b) the nature of the lawyer's practice is such that the lawyer does not hold IOLTA-eligible funds of any client or third person;

(c) the lawyer does not have an office within the State of New Mexico or has the client's or third person's permission to hold the funds out of state; or

(d) the lawyer has applied for and obtained an exemption from the Center for Civic Values based on undue hardship for the lawyer based on geographic distance between the lawyer's principal office and the closest financial institution that is participating in the IOLTA program in accordance with criteria and procedures the Center for Civic Values shall establish.

C. Interest or dividend-producing trust accounts for the benefit of a client or third person. A lawyer or law firm may establish one or more interest or dividend-bearing trust accounts for the deposit of a client's or third person's funds that are not IOLTA-eligible, the net income from which will be paid to the client or third person.

D. Good-faith judgment. The determination of whether the funds of a client or third person are IOLTA-eligible in that they can earn income in excess of costs as provided in Paragraph F of this rule shall rest in the sound judgment of the lawyer or law firm, and no lawyer shall be charged with an ethical impropriety based on the good-faith exercise of such judgment.

E. Designation as eligible financial institution. The designation of a financial institution as an eligible financial institution by the Center for Civic Values pursuant to this rule shall not constitute a warranty, representation or guaranty by the Center for Civic Values as to the financial soundness, business practices or other attributes of the financial institution. The designation of a financial institution as eligible under this rule means only that the financial institution has agreed to meet the comparability requirements in Subparagraph (3) of Paragraph B of this rule for IOLTA accounts. Every attorney is responsible for determining whether the funds of each individual client will be insured under the laws, rules, and regulations governing the financial institution that the attorney selects for the deposit of IOLTA-eligible funds. If an attorney establishes an IOLTA account with a federally insured credit union, the attorney is responsible for determining whether each client whose funds will be deposited in the IOLTA account must be a member of the credit union for that client's funds to be federally insured. If so, the attorney shall either ensure that the client is a member of the credit union or deposit the client's IOLTA-eligible funds in another eligible financial institution where the funds will be federally insured.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-027, effective January 1, 2009; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-018, effective May 17, 2011.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-018, effective May 17, 2011, added Paragraph E to exclude any warranty, representation, or guaranty as to the financial soundness, business practice or other attributes of financial institutions designated by the Center for Civic Values and to require attorneys to determine the soundness of financial institutions selected for IOLTA-eligible funds and whether the funds are insured.

24-110. "Bridge the Gap: Transitioning into the Profession" program.

A. Applicability; deadlines; continuing legal education credit. Every new lawyer admitted to practice law in New Mexico on active status shall timely complete the requirements of the "Bridge the Gap: Transitioning into the Profession" (Bridge the Gap) program administered by the State Bar of New Mexico unless otherwise specified in this rule. For purposes of this rule, a "new lawyer" means any person admitted to practice law in New Mexico after the effective date of this rule.

(1) A new lawyer shall enroll in the Bridge the Gap program within thirty (30) days after admission to the bar. A new lawyer shall complete the Bridge the Gap program by December 31 of the first full calendar year following the date that the new lawyer is admitted to the bar, which includes but is not limited to filing with the state bar a Bridge the Gap Completion Certification executed by the assigned mentor attesting to successful completion of the Bridge the Gap program.

(2) A new lawyer who successfully completes the Bridge the Gap program shall receive credit for the first full year of minimum continuing legal education requirements. The Commission on Professionalism shall certify the new lawyer's completion of the program to the minimum continuing legal education board, and the credits shall be awarded in the compliance year when the program was completed. Any deferral or exemption granted to a new lawyer under Paragraphs D or E of this rule does not defer or exempt the new lawyer from the minimum continuing legal education requirements under Rule 18-201 NMRA.

B. Appointment and training of qualified mentors; continuing legal education credit.

(1) The Commission on Professionalism shall certify and recommend qualifying lawyers to serve as mentors in accordance with the minimum requirements of the Bridge the Gap program guidelines for appointment by the Supreme Court. The Commission shall also be responsible for providing training materials for new mentors in accordance with the Bridge the Gap program guidelines. The Supreme Court shall issue orders of appointment for all lawyers appointed as mentors, who are then authorized, but not required, to serve indefinitely as mentors in the Bridge the Gap program unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court.

(2) A lawyer who participates in the Bridge the Gap program as an appointed mentor may receive up to one (1) compliance year's worth of continuing legal education credits every other compliance year. The Supreme Court's Commission on Professionalism shall certify to the minimum continuing legal education board when a mentor has completed participation in a mentorship program with a new lawyer.

C. Administration. The State Bar of New Mexico shall be responsible for administering the Bridge the Gap program, which shall include the following:

(1) establish guidelines for the program subject to approval of the Supreme Court under Paragraph H of this rule;

(2) certify compliance and completion of the program by new lawyers;

(3) develop and approve the program's operating procedures, budget, and staffing; and

(4) submit an annual status report to the Supreme Court by March 1 of each year.

D. Deferrals.

(1) A new lawyer serving a judicial law clerkship may apply for a one (1) or two (2) year deferral from the State Bar depending on the expected termination date of the new lawyer's clerkship.

(2) A new lawyer who is not engaged in the practice of law or who is unemployed may petition the State Bar for temporary deferral of the requirements in this rule, which may be granted upon a showing of financial hardship or other good cause. A new lawyer who is denied a temporary deferral may petition the Commission on Professionalism for review. The Commission's decision is final.

(3) A new lawyer granted a deferral under this paragraph shall enroll in the Bridge the Gap program no later than thirty (30) days after expiration of the deferral period and shall complete the Bridge the Gap program requirements by December 31 of the first full calendar year following the expiration of the deferral period.

E. Exemptions. The following new lawyers are exempt from completing the Bridge the Gap program:

- (1) new lawyers on active status who do not reside in New Mexico;
- (2) new lawyers who have practiced law in another state for a minimum of two (2) years in the last five (5) years prior to admission in this state; and
- (3) new lawyers admitted under a limited license pursuant to Rule 15-301.1 NMRA or Rule 15-301.2 NMRA.

F. Cost. Participation in the Bridge the Gap program requires payment of a three hundred dollar ($300.00) administrative fee by the new lawyer to the State Bar of New Mexico. One half of the fee is due on or before March 1 of the year immediately after admission and the remainder of the fee is due by December 31 of that same year.

G. Administrative suspension of license for non-compliance. Whenever the executive director of the State Bar of New Mexico shall certify in writing to the Supreme Court that a new lawyer has failed or refused to comply with the provisions of this rule, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a citation to the new lawyer requiring the new lawyer to show cause before the Court, within fifteen (15) days after service of such citation, why the new lawyer should not be suspended from the right to practice in the courts of this state. Service of the citation may be by personal service or by first class mail postage prepaid. The new lawyer's compliance with the provisions of this rule on or before the return day of such citation shall be deemed sufficient showing of cause and shall serve to discharge the citation.

H. Bridge the Gap program curriculum and other information. The State Bar is responsible for developing and maintaining a program manual and other training materials, to be approved by the Supreme Court, necessary for the implementation and operation of the program.

I. Conflicts and confidentiality in outside mentoring.

(1) An outside mentoring relationship exists when the mentoring lawyer and new lawyer are not employed by the same law firm or agency. The mentoring lawyer is presumed not to have a lawyer-client relationship with the new lawyer's client and the new lawyer's client is not an intended beneficiary of the outside mentoring relationship between the mentoring lawyer and the new lawyer. When allowed by Rule 16-101 NMRA, the mentoring lawyer may provide or the new lawyer may seek short-term limited guidance or counsel, within an outside mentoring relationship, without expectation by either lawyer or the new lawyer's clients that a lawyer-client relationship has been formed by the mentoring lawyer with the new lawyer's clients or that representation is being provided in the matter to the new lawyer's clients by the mentoring lawyer.

(2) Where practical the new lawyer and the mentoring lawyer shall discuss new lawyer client specific issues in hypothetical terms within an outside mentoring relationship. Regardless of whether issues are discussed in hypothetical terms, the outside mentoring lawyer shall run a conflict check and shall treat all client information discussed with the new lawyer as confidential under Rules 16-106 to 16-112 NMRA. Although the outside mentoring lawyer is presumed not to have a lawyer-client relationship with the new lawyer’s client, the outside mentoring lawyer is presumed to be a representative of the new lawyer employed to assist the new lawyer in the rendition of professional legal services under Subparagraph (3) of Paragraph A of Rule 11-503 NMRA.

(3) Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph do not apply to lawyers who are outside mentors providing, or new lawyers seeking, counsel or guidance on an on-going or regular basis relating to the needs of or litigation regarding a specific client, whether within or without the context of the mentoring relationship. If the lawyers are engaged in on-going or regular guidance or counsel related to a specific client or clients such that a lawyer-client relationship exists between the new lawyer’s client and the mentoring lawyer, then the new lawyer and the mentoring lawyer must comply with the relevant New Mexico Rules of Professional Conduct.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-024, effective for all lawyers admitted to practice law in New Mexico after April 6, 2011.]
