If the issue is amended from domestic violence to domestic relations, the clerk shall issue a temporary domestic order at the time the summons is issued.

(2) A signed stipulated waiver of the temporary domestic order may be submitted at the time the petition is filed. If petition is accompanied by a summons and the parties have a stipulation waiving the temporary domestic order, no temporary domestic order will issue.

(3) If a party fails to have summons issued and subsequently obtains a court order, a temporary domestic order shall be issued and a notation shall be made on the court order.

(4) If a party amends the petition and issues a summons on the amended petition, a temporary domestic order shall be issued unless the party can prove that the initial temporary domestic order was served.

C. Forms. The clerk of the court shall distribute unsigned temporary domestic orders and temporary domestic order affidavits for the sole purpose of providing one (1) blank copy of each to a party. It is the attorney's responsibility to make any additional copies for the attorney's file.

(1) Forms provided by court clerk. Unless approved by the court, attorneys and parties are not allowed to use their own temporary domestic orders as the contents of the order cannot be modified or supplemented. Unless otherwise approved by the court, forms LR13-Form F1, LR13-Form F2 and LR13-Form G shall be used.

(2) Modification of temporary domestic order. The party must apply to the court, by motion and notice to the opposing party, for any change in the basic temporary domestic order. The standard temporary domestic order shall be issued at the time the petition is filed and summons is issued and any supplemental information or modifications shall be decided at a later date.

D. Income and expense affidavit. The parties shall complete an income and expense affidavit.

(1) Filing. The affidavits are not to be filed with the court; however, verification of service of the income and expense affidavit may be filed in the form of a certificate and affidavit of service. Income and expense affidavits shall not be accepted for filing unless ordered by the court.

(2) Failure to comply. Certificates as to the state of the record shall not be issued if a party fails or refuses to complete the affidavit. An attorney may direct either party to apply to the court, by motion and notice, for the relief requested.

E. Strict enforcement. The issuance of a temporary domestic order shall be strictly enforced as of the effective date of these rules.

F. Filing. At the time the petition is submitted for filing, the clerk shall be provided one (1) copy of the temporary domestic order affidavit and two (2) temporary domestic orders: one (1) signed by the judge assigned to the case and one (1) which is endorsed and returned for service on the respondent. The original temporary domestic order shall be filed with the clerk of the court. The clerk of the court shall endorse the copy of the temporary domestic order with the judge's name stamp and file stamp. This copy shall be given to the attorney.

TEMPORARY DOMESTIC ORDER

This matter comes before the court upon the filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage or upon the filing of an action pursuant to Section 40-4-3 NMSA 1978. The court finds it is in the best interests of the parties and of the public in this action to issue this order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. Neither party shall molest, intimidate, threaten, harass, injure or physically or mentally abuse the other party or any children of either party.

2. Neither party shall remove, cause to be removed or permit the removal of any minor children of the parties from this state without the written consent of the other party.

3. Neither party shall incur unreasonable or unnecessary debts hereafter. An unreasonable debt is one that is incurred during separation that does not contribute to the benefit of both spouses or their dependents. Any unreasonable or unnecessary debt incurred after the date of the filing of the petition shall be presumptively assessed against the party incurring the debt. The court specifically reserves the right to allocate the expenses and fees of this action.

4. Neither party shall cause the other party or the children of the parties to be removed from any existing insurance coverage, including but not limited to medical, hospital, dental, automobile or disability insurance, and each party shall maintain all such insurance coverage in full force and effect.

5. Neither party shall change the beneficiaries of any existing life insurance policies, and each party shall maintain the existing life insurance policies in full force and effect.

6. No party shall conceal or damage any property, real or personal, community or separate. Neither party shall dissipate, sell, remove, assign, transfer, dispose of, lend, mortgage, or encumber any property, real or personal, community or separate, except in the ordinary course of business or for the necessities of life. In the case of transactions made in the ordinary course of business, an itemized written accounting shall be made at least quarterly to the other party. In the case of dispositions made for the necessities of life, an itemized written accounting shall be made to the other party within thirty (30) days.

7. In the event the parties are living in the same residence at the time of the service of this order, the parties shall attempt to decide between themselves which party shall move from the family residence. The party moving out of the residence is not prejudiced by reason of the move in any way with respect to custody of any minor children or with respect to a claim of any interest in the family residence or the personal property in or on the premises.

8. If the parties do not determine which party will move from the residence, the court will decide the issue at a hearing on interim relief, considering among others the following factors:

- a. minor children should continue to reside in the family residence during the pendency of this case;

b. the parent who is and has been primarily caring personally for the children's basic daily needs should remain in the family residence during the pendency of this case; and

c. the spouse who maintains a principal place of business within the family residence should continue to reside in the family residence during the pendency of this case.

9. If there are minor children, the person moving from the family residence shall continue to have frequent contact and communicate with the children, in person and by telephone. If the parties cannot agree on a time-sharing arrangement during the pendency of this case, the court clinic referral order will be entered immediately. If the issue is not resolved by agreement through the court clinic, the court shall establish a time-sharing arrangement at a hearing on a motion for interim relief.

10. The person moving from the family residence may return to pick up personal belongings and effects at a reasonable time to be agreed upon. Personal belongings and effects do not include furniture unless the parties agree or the court decides the issue at a hearing on interim relief.

11. Any party receiving personal mail or packages addressed only to the other party shall not open them, but shall forward or arrange to have the mail or packages delivered promptly to the other party. Personal mail addressed to both parties may be opened by the person who receives it, but any party receiving such mail shall promptly send a copy to the other party.

12. Unless the parties agree in writing, neither party shall cancel any credit cards during pendency of this action or cause the other party to be removed from any credit card account. All charges on credit cards are subject to the limitations of Paragraph 3 of this order.

13. Each party is advised that all earned income is community property, and that income from all other sources acquired during marriage is generally community property. Likewise, each party is advised that all debt obligations, existing and recurring, are generally community obligations. Each party has a one-half interest in all community income and property and is obligated to pay one-half of all existing and recurring community debts. During the pendency of the case the income and debts are generally equally divided; provided, however, that the party who has the principal care of the children shall be allocated a greater proportion of the income during the pendency of the action. If the parties agree upon the interim division of income and payment of debts, a stipulated order on the court approved form regarding the interim division of income and expenses shall be submitted to the court for signature and filing. If the parties cannot agree, the court shall determine the division at a hearing on a motion for interim relief.

14. Within twenty (20) days of the service of this order on respondent, respondent shall complete respondent's portion of the temporary domestic order affidavit and mail it to petitioner.

15. LR13-Form F-2. Order regarding parenting instructions.

THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

STATE OF NEW MEXICO

COUNTY OF _____

No.

-DR

Respondent.

ORDER REGARDING PARENTING INSTRUCTIONS

THE PARTIES SHALL FOLLOW, OBEY AND CAREFULLY ABIDE BY EACH AND ALL OF THE PROVISIONS INITIALED BELOW:

_____ 1. Neither parent will threaten, harass, intimidate, unlawfully assault or batter or physically or mentally abuse the other parent, or a minor child. Law enforcement officers are authorized and required to enforce this provision by preparing a report of the incident, and submitting a copy of it to this court's mailing address, which is _____ or to this court's chambers at _____, New Mexico. The law enforcement officers are also authorized and encouraged to arrest any person they have probable cause to believe has committed unlawful assault (See Section 30-3-1 NMSA 1978) or battery (see Section 30-3-4 NMSA 1978) upon another. See Section 30-3-6 NMSA 1978 for authorization regarding warrantless arrests of assailants when there is probable cause to believe such person assaulted or battered another. This provision remains in full force and effect unless and until it is modified or revoked by subsequent written order of this court.

_____ 2. Neither parent nor any stepparent, fiancée, or grandparent will criticize, disparage, demean, insult or otherwise "bad-mouth" the other parent, step-parent, fiancée or grandparent to a child or in the presence of a child, nor allow or encourage anyone else, including relatives and friends, to do so. This prohibition applies even to information that is truthful and accurate.

_____ 3. Neither parent will argue or fight, verbally or physically, in the presence or hearing of a child.

_____ 4. Neither parent will align or attempt to align a child against a parent, or other relative, nor allow or encourage anyone else, including relatives and friends, to do so. This especially means that neither parent will directly or indirectly ask a child to choose between the parents, or choose to reside with one parent instead of the other, or choose one household over the other household.

_____ 5. Both parents must encourage a positive parent-child relationship between a child and both parents, and not say or do anything, including "grimace" or put on a "long face", against the child's love for the other parent when a child is about to visit the other parent or asks or talks about the other parent.

_____ 6. Neither parent will interfere with the parent-child relationship with the other parent, and neither parent will conceal a child from the other parent during the other parent's period of responsibility (time-sharing).

_____ 7. Neither parent will make plans for a child that conflicts with the other parent's period of responsibility with a child, or discuss such plans with a child or make promises about such plans with a child, unless and until both parents agree in advance to the plans. Doing so creates a serious risk that a child will count on and look forward to a planned or promised activity, only to be disappointed with and distrustful of the parent who made or promised a plan with a child and then could not carry it out.

_____ 8. If a parent asks the other parent for additional time with a child, or for an activity or plan that would conflict with the other parent's scheduled time or plans with the child, the other parent has an absolute right to say "no" and the requesting parent must accept that answer without bringing such request or negative answer of the other parent to the attention of any of the minor children.

_____ 9. Neither parent will ask a child to pass orders or instructions or uncomplimentary messages to the other parent through a child, verbally or in writing. Complimentary messages are allowed and encouraged.

_____ 10. Neither parent will ask a child to keep secrets from the other parent or ask or encourage a child to lie to the other parent about events or persons the child experienced during a visit with a parent, grandparent or relative.

_____ 11. Neither parent will ask a child to spy on the other parent or the other parent's lifestyle or household; nor ask any detailed, probing questions about the other parent or lifestyle or household of the other parent. This only puts the child in the middle, angering a parent if the question is not answered, or getting the other parent in trouble if it is answered.

_____ 12. Children have a right to receive unlimited letters, postcards, cassette tape letters and gifts from each parent; and to write unlimited letters and postcards, including tape-recorded messages and letters, and send gifts to each parent. Homemade video tapes by parents to children (and vice-versa) are allowed and encouraged. All such letters, gifts and tapes shall be provided, read or played forthwith to the children. These letters, cards and tapes must not violate other provisions of this order (see especially Paragraphs 1 through 11 above). This provision shall not be justification or excuse not to provide, read or play the message to any of the children, but the improper words or sentence can be deleted during reading or playing the message to the children. If a parent deletes words, sentences, etc., the parent should keep the original letter and deletions. Children age ten (10) or over should receive the letter, card, or recording unopened and uncensored, and may allow either parent to read or see or hear the message, even if the writing or sending parent does not want the child to do so or asks the child not to do so.

_____ 13. If the parents are not in locations requiring long-distance calls to contact the children, the children will have a right to make unlimited phone calls to the absent parent during the absent parent's normal waking hours. Also, the absent parent may make up to two 15-minute calls per week (Monday to Monday week) with the minor children, but should never force them to remain on the phone longer than the children want to. This will only cause the children to not want to receive phone calls from the absent parent. The parent having time-sharing with a child at the time of a phone call between a child and the absent parent must not listen in on both sides of the phone call, nor in any way cause a child to believe the custodial parent is intentionally listening in on the child's words or taking note of what the child said during the conversation. Also, the parent having time-sharing shall never ask, order or encourage a child not to be available to receive a phone call or not to answer the phone, or to refuse to speak with the calling parent or to hang up or terminate the call sooner than the child wants to on the child's own initiative.

_____ 14. If the parents are in locations requiring long-distance phone calls to contact a minor child of the parties, then:

A. the absent parent will have a right to make up to two 15-minute calls each week (Monday to Monday week) with each child, at the expense of the calling parent. These calls ordinarily should be made in the evening or on weekends to enable the children to be at home to receive the call, and to reduce the costs of phone calls themselves;

B. each child shall have the right to make up to two 15-minute calls per week (Monday to Monday week) to the absent parent. The first call during that week will be at the expense of the custodial parent. Unless both parents agree otherwise before the second call, the second call will be at the expense of the parent receiving the call (i.e. collect to the receiving parent with request that the receiving parent call back station-to-station to the phone number where the child will receive the call).

_____ 15. Unless there is a court order or written parenting plan providing for out-of-state time-sharing with children for more than fifteen (15) days, neither parent will remove a child from this state for more than fifteen (15) days without notifying the other parent in writing at least thirty (30) days before such removal, and must specify the purpose and destination of the trip and expected date of return. Any visitation period of the other parent that is reduced or overridden by such vacation period shall be made up in full to the other parent.

_____ 16. Each parent must notify the other parent in writing of any change of home address, mailing address, if different from home address, and all home telephone numbers no later than seven (7) calendar days from any such change, and preferably even before a change occurs. This insures that written and telephone communications between the children and absent parent can continue, and that child support payments and other written communications can be completed. This court recommends, but does not order or require, that each parent provide the parent's work telephone number to the other parent and children for use on urgent or emergency matters. Neither parent shall telephone the other parent or employer or supervisor of a parent and threaten, harass, intimidate, or mentally abuse the parent or employer or supervisor nor allow or encourage or cause anyone else, including the children or relative or friend, to do so.

_____ 17. If both parents reside within 60 miles of one another, neither parent may relocate out of state or more than 100 miles from the other parent without giving the other parent at least sixty (60) days advance written notice, and specifying therein where the planned new permanent residence will be.

_____ 18. In the event of a move or planned move as described in Paragraph 17 the parents should quickly begin discussions before the move occurs about child time-sharing or visitation. If they cannot agree on a new time-sharing plan at least thirty (30) days before the date of the move, they must engage in mediation pursuant to LR13-703. It is highly recommended that a new written parenting plan be agreed upon and signed by both parents and a district judge before the move occurs or is completed, so that the moving parent will not have to return and complete the mediation and new parenting plan.

_____ 19. Unless both parents agree otherwise in advance, the clothing, books and toys a child takes to the other parent shall be returned with the child at the conclusion of that parent's responsibility or visitation with the child - even if the original clothes, books, and toys are returned in a bag carried by the child. Preferably, the clothes should be washed before their return with the child.

_____ 20. Each child shall have a right to have a photograph of each parent and grandparent in the child's room or child's private area; such photographs shall be clearly visible to the child and not hidden in drawers or turned toward a wall.

_____ 21. Child support shall not be reduced, delayed, or cut off because of disagreements between the parents or because visitation had been reduced or cut off. (The court can handle wrongful reduction or cutting off of visitation by contempt of court or other remedy, without penalizing a child's right to be both supported emotionally and financially by both parents.)

_____ 22. Time sharing or visitation shall not be reduced or cut off because of disagreements between the parents, or because child support is not being paid in full or on time. (The court can handle wrongful reduction or cutting off of visitation by contempt of court or other remedy, without penalizing a child's right to visitation and good relationship with the other parent.)

_____ 23. Both parents and all others driving a child in a motor vehicle shall have the children securely fastened in child restraint devices, for younger children, and seatbelts and shoulder harnesses, for older children, whenever the engine of the vehicle is running, or the motor vehicle is moving. If the vehicle is a bicycle, motorscooter, motorcycle or three-wheel or four-wheel motorized all-terrain vehicle (ATV), parents and drivers of such vehicle shall have the child-passenger wear a securely fastened helmet approved by the federal Department of Transportation (DOT) or Snell Memorial Foundation whenever the engine of the vehicle is running or the bicycle or vehicle is moving.

_____ 24. Neither parent, nor their spouse, fiancée or girlfriend or boyfriend may possess, use or be under the influence of any alcoholic beverages, including hang-overs, or illegal drugs in the presence of a child.

THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

STATE OF NEW MEXICO

COUNTY OF _____

Petitioner,

v.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING INTERIM MONTHLY
INCOME AND EXPENSES STATEMENT

A. "Gross monthly income" is income from all sources except child support received from a prior spouse. For self-employed individuals, gross monthly income means gross receipts less reasonable and ordinary business expenses. Self-employed individuals should attach a separate sheet to Interim Monthly Income and Expenses Statement itemizing the business income and expenses.

B. "Deductions" are payroll deductions for taxes, social security, health insurance, union dues, retirement, and other employer-related deductions. Regular and customary savings deductions may be included.

C. "Fixed Expense" includes periodic, generally invariable expenses even though paid quarterly, semi-annually or yearly, e.g., car payments, insurance, and loan payments.

1. Residence fixed expense is mortgage or rent actually paid. If a party receives free rent, e.g., by living with parents, that party's rent is deemed zero.

2. Credit card fixed expense is listed as a fixed expense and includes only the minimum monthly payment at the time of entry of the interim order.

3. Health insurance includes medical and dental insurance which if not deducted by a payroll deduction, may be included as a fixed expense.

4. Any regular monthly payment ordered by a prior order of child support or alimony which is actually paid is a fixed expense.

5. Day care fixed expense is work-related day care and does not include baby-sitting or occasional child care.

6. An equal sum will generally be allocated each month to pay towards the attorney fees of each party.

7. Utilities are generally not fixed expenses. Telephone and cable TV are never fixed expenses. However, if the utility costs are greatly disproportionate, they may be considered fixed expenses by agreement or court order.

D. How to figure which party makes payments to the other party:

1. If the combined amount in Line 7 is a positive number :
To complete Lines 8 and 9, compute one-half of the value shown on the "Combined Column" on Line 7, "Net Spendable Income", and enter the result for each party on Line 8. To compute the amount transferred/received, subtract Line 8 from Line 7 for each party. The party who has a positive value on Line 9 pays that amount to the other party, and the same amount is entered in Paragraph 10 of the Interim Order Allocating Income and Expenses.

2. If the combined amount in Line 7 is a negative number :
To complete Line 7, adjust the allocations of income or expenses, or transfer an amount from one party to another so that the amounts under "Husband" and "Wife" in Line 7 are equal. Enter any transferred amount in Paragraph 10 of the Interim Order Allocating Income and Expenses. Do not complete Lines 8 and 9.
