

CHAPTER 29

Law Enforcement

ARTICLE 1

Peace Officers in General

29-1-1. Investigation of criminal violations; commencement of prosecution; cooperation; removal.

It is hereby declared to be the duty of every sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable and every other peace officer to investigate all violations of the criminal laws of the state which are called to the attention of any such officer or of which he is aware, and it is also declared the duty of every such officer to diligently file a complaint or information, if the circumstances are such as to indicate to a reasonably prudent person that such action should be taken, and it is also declared his duty to cooperate with and assist the attorney general, district attorney or other prosecutor, if any, in all reasonable ways. Such cooperation shall include the prompt reporting of all arrests for liquor law violations at licensed liquor establishments to the department of alcoholic beverage control. Failure to perform his duty in any material way shall subject such officer to removal from office and payment of all costs of prosecution.

Plainclothes officer can intrude when he observes truck driven erratically. — This section does not preclude plainclothes officer from making intrusion into pickup truck by opening a door where officer has observed truck being driven rapidly and in an erratic manner and, reaching truck after it has stopped, has observed that occupant appeared incoherent and lacked understanding of request to roll down window. Such facts warranted the officer, as person of reasonable caution, to open the pickup door. State v. Ray, 1977-NMCA-100, 91 N.M. 67, 570 P.2d 605, cert. denied, 91 N.M. 4, 569 P.2d 413.

Liability for failure to take proper actions. — A governmental entity and its law enforcement officers may be held liable, after receiving notice, for negligently failing to take adequate action to protect a citizen from imminent danger and injury because of failure to adopt proper procedures for responding to and investigating a reported criminal act. Scheer v. Board of Cnty. Comm'rs, 1984-NMSC-079, 101 N.M. 671, 687 P.2d 728.

Liability for failure to cooperate with prosecutors. — The statutory obligations that officers cooperate with prosecutors and bring defendants before the courts are primarily designed to protect the public by ensuring that dangerous criminals are removed from society and brought to justice; accordingly, as with the duty to investigate crimes under this section, the duties of cooperating with prosecutors, diligently filing complaints, and bringing defendants before the courts inure to the benefit of private individuals, and the violation of these statutory duties may give rise to a cognizable claim under the Tort Claims Act, Sections 41-4-1 through 41-4-27 NMSA 1978. Weinstein v. City of Santa Fe ex rel. Santa Fe Police Dep't, 1996-NMSC-021, 121 N.M. 646, 916 P.2d 1313.

Liability for failure to detain intoxicated driver. — Law enforcement officers may be liable if they fail to detain an intoxicated driver, who then acts with the requisite level of intent to commit a battery while driving intoxicated. Blea v. City of Espanola, 1994-NMCA-008, 117 N.M. 217, 870 P.2d 755, cert. denied, 117 N.M. 328, 871 P.2d 984.

Immunity from liability for wrongful issuance of warrant. — Police officers and assistant district attorney were immune from liability for alleged wrongful issuance and service of a search warrant which was valid on its face in which court ordered police officers to search for child, take him into custody, keep him safely and make a return of the proceedings on the warrant. Torres v. Glasgow, 1969-NMCA-053, 80 N.M. 412, 456 P.2d 886.

Class of persons to be protected by duty to investigate. — In creating the duty to investigate, the legislature did not limit the traditional tort concept of foreseeability that would otherwise define the intended beneficiaries of the statute; all persons who are foreseeably at risk within the general population are within the class of persons to be protected by the duty to investigate. Torres v. State, 1995-NMSC-025, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386.

When any person of the public, regardless of geographic location, is foreseeably at risk of injury by a party reported to be in violation of the criminal law, officers undertaking the investigation of the crime owe that person a duty to exercise the care ordinarily exercised by prudent and qualified officers. Torres v. State, 1995-NMSC-025, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386.

Foreseeability of criminal act. — Since it is not unlikely that a murderer would flee the city in which he committed the crime and, given modern-day transportation, that this person would flee across state lines, and since the police knew or should have known that it is possible that a person who kills randomly with no motive would kill again, the harm in this case was not so removed from the conduct of the defendants that the court may say as a matter of law that the victims were unforeseeable; thus foreseeability is a question for the jury to determine by giving thought to, among other things, the time, space, and distance between the alleged failure to investigate and the deaths of the two victims. Torres v. State, 1995-NMSC-025, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386.

Sufficiency of allegations in complaint. — Allegations in a complaint that sheriff deputies failed to apprehend a drunk driver or investigate a tavern disturbance, and that this failure proximately caused personal injury to the plaintiff's family, sufficed to state a cause of action for negligent violation of a right secured under New Mexico law for which Section 41-4-12 NMSA 1978 waives sovereign immunity. California First Bank v. State Dep't of Alcoholic Beverage Control, 1990-NMSC-106, 111 N.M. 64, 801 P.2d 646.

Constables may carry firearms because they are peace officers. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-117.

Magistrate or municipal court case may not be continued where appeal filed. — A peace officer who has prosecuted a criminal case in magistrate or municipal court may not continue to prosecute the case in district court after an appeal of the magistrate or municipal court judgment has been filed in district court. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-27.

Sheriff may file complaint without consent of district attorney. — The sheriff may file a complaint against a party for game law violation without first obtaining the consent of, or consulting, the district attorney. He should, before filing any criminal charge, consult his district attorney, except perhaps in cases of emergency where the sheriff waives a warrant on hearing in order to arrest someone who is believed about to leave the country. 1939 Op. Att'y Gen. 39-3257.

When district attorney has authority to appear in court. — The district attorney as chief law enforcement officer has the authority to appear in any case filed before any justice of the peace (now magistrate court) in any county in his district when, in his opinion, the interests of the people in his district require his participation in any case filed before a justice of the peace (magistrate) in said district. 1953 Op. which the charge may be pending, escape from jail, and any time thereafter shall be found in any county, precinct or demarcation of this state, he shall be arrested and imprisoned again, until the judgment of the court may be had or the sentence fully complied with.

ANNOTATIONS

No tort liability for failure to inform out-of-state officials of escape. — In a wrongful death action arising out of the escape of state prisoners, who crossed over into Colorado and killed a resident thereof, the New Mexico State police, who were informed of the escape soon after it occurred and diligently attempted to apprehend the escapees as soon as possible, but who did not inform Colorado officials, did not breach any duty giving rise to tort liability. *Wittkowski v. (6) any citation issued pursuant to a commission authorized by this section shall be to a magistrate court of New Mexico; except that any citations issued to Indians within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation shall be cited into tribal court;

(7) the agreement or any commission issued pursuant to it shall not confer any authority on a tribal court or other tribal authority that the court or authority would not otherwise have;

(8) the authority conferred by any agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be coextensive with the exterior boundaries of the reservation; except that an officer commissioned under this section may proceed in hot pursuit of an offender beyond the exterior boundaries of the reservation, and the authority conferred in any written agreement between the chief of the New Mexico state police and the Navajo Nation may extend beyond the exterior boundaries of the Navajo reservation to and including the area enclosed by the following description:

Beginning at a point where the southern boundary line of the Navajo Nation reservation intersects the western right-of-way line of US 491, and running thence; southerly along the western right-of-way line of US 491 to the northerly city limits of Gallup; thence, easterly along the northerly city limits of Gallup to the northern side of the right of way of I-40; thence, in an easterly direction along the northerly side of the right of way of I-40 to the northerly limits of the village of Prewitt; thence, in a straight line between the northerly boundary of the village of Prewitt to the southerly boundary of Ambrosia Lake; thence in a straight line between the southerly boundary of Ambrosia

The municipalities of Cuba and Gallup and the villages of Thoreau and Prewitt are excluded from the grant of authority that may be conferred in any written agreement entered into pursuant to provisions of this section; provided, however, any written agreement may include under such grant of authority the communities of Ambrosia Lake, Hospah, Torreon, Lybrook, Nageezi, Counselors and Blanco Trading Post and those communities commonly known as the Wingate community; the Navajo Nation Blue Water ranch area of the Thoreau community; the Prewitt community, exclusive of the village of Prewitt; the Haystack community; the Desidero community; the Sand Springs community; the Rincon Marquis community; the Charley Jesus Arviso and the Castillo community; and state road 264 beginning at the point where it intersects US 491 and ending where state road 264 intersects the Arizona-New Mexico state line; and

(9) the chief of the New Mexico state police or the chief's designee and the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or the appropriate federal official shall be required to meet at least quarterly or more frequently at the call of the chief of the New Mexico state police to discuss the status of the agreement and invite other law enforcement or other officials to attend as necessary.

D. Nothing in this section impairs or affects the existing status and sovereignty of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo as established under the laws of the United States.

E. All persons who are duly commissioned federal law enforcement officers employed by the federal bureau of investigation; drug enforcement administration; bureau of alcohol, tobacco and firearms; United States secret service; United States customs service; immigration and naturalization service; United States marshals service; postal inspection service; United States probation department; and United States pretrial services agency; and other appropriate federal officers whose primary duty is law enforcement related, who are assigned in New Mexico and who are required to be designated by the county sheriff on a case-by-case basis in the county in which they are working, are recognized and authorized to act as New Mexico peace officers and have all the powers of New Mexico peace officers to enforce state laws in New Mexico, including the power to make arrests for violation of state laws. The department of public safety shall maintain a registry that lists the name and affiliated federal agency of every federal law enforcement officer recognized and authorized to act as a New Mexico peace officer pursuant to the provisions of this subsection. This subsection shall not be construed to impose liability upon or to require indemnification by the state for any act performed by a federal law enforcement officer pursuant to this subsection.

F. The provisions of Subsection E of this section regarding designation of federal law enforcement officers by a county sheriff do not apply to federal law enforcement officers who are duly commissioned officers of a police or sheriff's department for an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo in New Mexico or who are federal law enforcement officers employed by the bureau of Indian affairs.

G. Nothing in this section limits, impairs or nullifies the authority of county sheriffs to appoint pursuant to Chapter 4, Article 41 NMSA 1978 duly commissioned state or federally certified officers who are employees of a police or sheriff's department of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo in New Mexico or who are federal law enforcement officers employed by the bureau of Indian affairs as deputy sheriffs authorized to enforce New Mexico criminal and traffic law.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, added Subsection G to provide that nothing in this section limits, impairs or nullifies the authority of county sheriffs to appoint duly commissioned state or federally certified officers who are employees of a police or sheriff's department of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo in New Mexico or who are federal law enforcement officers employed by the bureau of Indian affairs as deputy sheriffs authorized to enforce New Mexico criminal and traffic law.

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, deleted "payment" following "authority" in the section heading; and deleted Paragraph C(10), which provided for payment from the law enforcement protection fund to tribes or pueblos for each commissioned peace officer in the tribe or pueblo.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, in Subsection E, in the first sentence, inserted "United States probation department; United States pretrial services agency;"; deleted "as designated by the chief of the New Mexico state police upon a recommendation by a county sheriff" preceding "who are assigned", and inserted "and who are required to be designated by the county sheriff on a case-by-case basis in the county in which they are working", added the second sentence; and added Subsection F.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "pursuant to provisions of" for "under" near the end of Paragraph (8) in Subsection C, and in Subsection E deleted "and" preceding "postal" and substituted "whose primary duty is law enforcement related, as designated by the chief of the New Mexico state police upon a recommendation by a county sheriff" for "as designated by the chief of the New Mexico state police".

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "payment" and substituted "commissioned peace officers" for "commissioning" in the section heading; added Paragraph (10) of Subsection C; and made minor stylistic changes in Paragraphs (2), (4), (8), and (9) of Subsection C and in Subsection E.

Tribal officer was properly cross-commissioned. — Where defendant, who was a non-Indian, was arrested by a Pueblo police officer on property of the Pueblo and charged in a county magistrate court with aggravated DWI; the officer was cross-commissioned as a county special deputy sheriff by the county sheriff's office; the officer signed an oath of office that was also signed by the county sheriff and carried a card issued by the county sheriff's office indicating the officer's cross-commissioning status; the officer was wearing the Pueblo police department uniform at the time of the arrest; the officer was a commissioned, full-time Pueblo tribal officer; and the officer's salary was paid by the Pueblo police department and included incremental pay financed from a grant from the bureau of Indian affairs to assist the Pueblo police department in targeting the motoring public, the officer was properly cross-commissioned and could properly arrest defendant while wearing the uniform of and receiving a salary from the Pueblo police department. State v. Sanchez, 2014-NMCA-095.

Off-reservations crimes. — State officers have the authority to enter Indian country to investigate off-reservation crimes committed in their presence by Indians, so long as the investigation does not infringe on tribal sovereignty by circumventing or contravening a governing tribal procedure. A traffic stop which included the administration of field sobriety tests, did not circumvent or contravene the Navajo Nation Code and, therefore, did not infringe on the sovereignty of the Navajo Nation. State v. Harrison, 2010-NMSC-038, 148 N.M. 500, 238 P.3d 869, aff'g 2008-NMCA-107, 144 N.M. 651, 190 P.3d 1146.

Authority of non-cross-commissioned officer. — A state police officer, who is not cross-commissioned with the bureau of Indian affairs or the tribe, may pursue an Indian onto the reservation, across jurisdictional lines, for a minor traffic offense committed outside the reservation and after determining that the officer lacks jurisdiction, the officer may continue to detain the Indian and collect evidence for use against him. State v. Harrison, 2008-NMCA-107, 144 N.M. 651, 190 P.3d 1146, aff'd, 2010-NMSC-038, 148 N.M. 500, 238 P.3d 869.

Inconsistency between written agreements. — It is inconsistent for the legislature to require a written agreement for the issuance of a cross commission under this section between state law enforcement and Indian tribal police officers and not require a written agreement for mutual aid agreements under Section 29-8-3 NMSA 1978. State v. Branham, 2004-NMCA-131, 136 N.M. 579, 102 P.3d 646.

Authority of cross-commissioned officer. — Traffic stop and detention and arrest are not illegal where Navajo tribal officer acted as a New Mexico peace officer with authority to enforce the Motor Vehicle Code on non-Indian land in the city of Gallup. State v. Martinez, 2005-NMCA-052, 137 N.M. 432, 112 P.3d 293, cert. denied, 2005-NMCERT-005, 137 N.M. 522, 113 P.3d 345.

Because Navajo tribal officer claims to have been deputized by the McKinley County sheriff, Subsection C(8) of Section 29-1-11 NMSA 1978 does not defeat his claimed authority to act as a cross-commissioned county deputy. State v. Martinez, 2005-NMCA-052, 137 N.M. 432, 112 P.3d 293, cert. denied, 2005-NMCERT-005, 137 N.M. 522, 113 P.3d 345.

Authority of non-cross-commissioned officers. — A non-cross-commissioned federal police officer has the lawful authority not only to stop a motor vehicle within an Indian reservation, but also to issue the driver a federal traffic citation based on state law. Ryder v. State, 1982-NMSC-066, 98 N.M. 316, 648 P.2d 774.

A non-cross-commissioned bureau of Indian affairs officer is empowered to stop a vehicle within the borders of an Indian reservation for a traffic law offense and, upon determining that the offender is a non-Indian, to request him to wait until a cross-commissioned BIA officer arrives. State v. Ryder, 1981-NMCA-017, 98 N.M. 453, 649 P.2d 756, aff'd, 1982-NMSC-066, 98 N.M. 316, 648 P.2d 774.

Authority of tribal police officer over non-Indian. — A tribal police officer has the authority to stop and issue a tribal citation, and arrest a non-Indian, so long as the Indian authorities promptly deliver up the non-Indian offender, rather than try and punish him themselves. State v. Ryder, 1981-NMCA-017, 98 N.M. 453, 649 P.2d 756, aff'd, 1982-NMSC-066, 98 N.M. 316, 648 P.2d 774.

Where state police officer initially stopped defendant for speeding on Mescalero reservation, because the officer did not have authority to enforce Mescalero tribal traffic ordinances, defendant's motion to suppress evidence was properly granted. State v. Branham, 2004-NMCA-131, 136 N.M. 579, 102 P.3d 646.

Citations issued to non-Indians. — Traffic citations lawfully issued by a commissioned bureau of Indian affairs officer to a non-Indian cannot legally be referred to a tribal court, but should be referred to state magistrate court. 1992 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92-07.

An officer or employee of the Arizona department of corrections who has in his custody, pursuant to Arizona law, a ward, offender or prisoner of the state of Arizona whom he is transporting from a facility in Arizona to another point in Arizona via New Mexico or to a point in New Mexico for firefighting or conservation work shall maintain custody of such ward, offender or prisoner in New Mexico. Such officer or employee may, in the event of escape of such ward, offender or prisoner in New Mexico, retake such ward, offender or prisoner in the same manner as if such officer or employee were a New Mexico police officer and such ward, offender or prisoner had been committed to his custody under New Mexico law.

The 2009 amendment, effective June 19, 2009, in Paragraph (3) of Subsection A, added "except as otherwise provided in Subsection B of this section", deleted "not less than", and added "at least"; deleted former Subparagraph (b) of Paragraph (3) of Subsection A that required not less than 30 hours of college credit and completion of an additional 30 hours of college credit; and added Paragraph B.

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, added Subparagraph A(3)(b).

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, rewrote Paragraph A(3); deleted "any" preceding "or" in two places in Paragraph A(4); substituted "pass a physical" for "successfully pass any physical" in Paragraph A(5); and in Subsection B, substituted "A" for "No", inserted "not" following "shall", and substituted "a member of the public safety advisory commission" for "any member of the department of public safety advisory commission".

Discretion to terminate officer for not passing physical. — The board (now commission) charged with management and control of the department has the discretion to terminate an officer for failure to pass the required physical examination. This is a continuing qualification and members must pass any reasonable physical examination required from time to time. Tafoya v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1970-NMSC-106, 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973.

Notice and hearing required. — While the board (now commission) may require its officers to submit to and pass any physical examination reasonably required and while the failure to pass may be the basis for a removal proceeding, this is far different from vaulting this section to a power of dismissal at the discretion of the board (now commission) without prior notice and a hearing. Tafoya v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1970-NMSC-106, 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973.

Nepotism provision controls over general statute. — The general state statute pertaining to nepotism (Section 10-1-10 NMSA 1978) is not applicable in regard to the hiring of state police personnel, but rather this section, which pertains specifically to the state police, is controlling. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-114.

When fully qualified individual not appointed as member. — One who is otherwise fully qualified cannot be appointed as a member of the New Mexico state police if his two years of residency did not occur immediately prior to the time of appointment, but such a person can be accepted by the state police as a candidate to attend the recruit training school. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-120 (opinion rendered prior to 1963 and 1967 amendments).

Prohibited relationship degrees. — It may be said that the officer and his wife stand one and the same, in relation to the collateral line relationship of the wife. This being so, the wife and her brother stand as to one another in the second degree. And continuing one degree further to the son of the aforesaid brother, being also the nephew of the herein considered officer's wife, a prohibited relationship degree exists, e.g., a third-degree separation. 1958 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170 (opinion rendered prior to 1963 and 1967 amendments).

Applicant not considered for state police. — It is not permissible for an applicant to be considered for the New Mexico state police force whose father's sister is married to an officer of said force. 1958 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170 (opinion rendered prior to 1963 and 1967 amendments).

29-2-7. Commissioned officers; application; procedure.

The New Mexico state police shall cause all applicants for the position of commissioned officer to submit a written detailed application on forms as the secretary shall prescribe, and the secretary shall cause an investigation to be made of all applicants, subsequent to their taking the examination referred to in Section 29-2-8 NMSA 1978, for the purpose of determining the moral character, general reputation and fitness of any applicant. An applicant who is found unfit as a result of the investigation shall be disqualified for employment. The secretary shall by rule prescribe the physical qualifications of applicants and shall require each applicant to submit to a physical examination by doctors as the secretary shall designate. An applicant who does not meet the physical requirements prescribed by the secretary shall be disqualified for employment. Inasmuch as laws have been enacted providing for retirement, disability and life insurance funds for members of the New Mexico state police, it is the intention of the legislature that no applicants will be appointed who are in such physical condition that the cost of such protection will thereby be increased.

Board's authority to make rules controlled by statute. — Authority of the police board to promulgate rules and regulations must be found in and is limited by statute. Such authority is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Winston v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1969-NMSC-066, 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967.

Agency's authority includes express and implied powers granted. — It is a fundamental principle of administrative law that the authority of an agency is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Wimberly v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1972-NMSC-034, 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968.

Temporary rank adjustments within scope of powers. — Where New Mexico state police board has adopted a regulation providing that "all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent," and the officers who hold these ranks are given additional salary and emoluments, but these ranks, according to the record, are considered by the board and the department to be temporary, plaintiff's adjustments in rank from captain to major and major to lieutenant colonel were not promotions as such but were temporary advancements within the framework of administration of the New Mexico state police and both chief of police and the board acted within the scope of their authority under the laws of the state of New Mexico in adjusting plaintiff's rank from lieutenant colonel to major and from major to captain. Wimberly v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1972-NMSC-034, 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968.

Regulation allowing director to shift key personnel. — The procedures of advancement and reduction in rank resulting from regulation providing that all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent enable the chief of police to shift key personnel to positions where their interest and ability are used to best advantage. Wimberly v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1972-NMSC-034, 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968.

Board can prohibit employee from running for office. — The board can constitutionally promulgate a rule prohibiting a state police employee from running for or accepting a political office. State ex rel. Harkleroad v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1985-NMSC-076, 103 N.M. 270, 705 P.2d 676.

Involuntary retirement rule is invalid. — State police board regulation providing for involuntary retirement of all police officers who had completed 30 years of service, even where such officers had not reached mandatory retirement age, exceeded statutory authority of the board and therefore was invalid. Winston v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1969-NMSC-066, 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967.

Effect of using all of sick leave. — Rule 7 of regulation promulgated by state police board filed pursuant to this section makes it clear that under no circumstances can an officer who was injured in line of duty but who has used up all of his sick leave be granted a leave of absence from the police department, and request for such leave constitutes a voluntary resignation. Budagher v. N.M. State Police Bd., 1971-NMSC-077, 82 N.M. 787, 487 P.2d 489 (decided under prior law).

No authority for rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years. — There is no delegated authority for the state police board to promulgate a rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years of service; such rule would be unreasonable, arbitrary and conflict with the former retirement by age 61 requirement of Section 29-2-6B NMSA 1978. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-72 (rendered under prior law).

29-3B-3. Eyewitness identification procedures.

A. Not later than January 1, 2020, a criminal justice entity conducting eyewitness identification procedures shall adopt and comply with written policies for using an eyewitness to make a decision about whether a suspect is the perpetrator of a crime upon viewing the suspect in person in a live lineup or showup or upon viewing a representation of the suspect in a photo lineup.

B. Each governmental entity in New Mexico that administers eyewitness identification procedures shall provide a copy of its written policies to the secretary of public safety no later than February 1, 2020 and the secretary shall make those policies available to the public.

C. A law enforcement agency shall biennially review policies adopted pursuant to this section to incorporate new scientifically supported protocols.

D. In developing and revising policies pursuant to this section, a law enforcement agency shall adopt those practices shown by reliable evidence to enhance the accuracy of identification procedures. Each governmental entity in New Mexico that administers eyewitness identification procedures shall submit its updated written policies to the secretary of public safety no later than February 1 of each odd-numbered year.

E. A law enforcement agency shall include in policies adopted pursuant to this section practices to enhance the objectivity and reliability of eyewitness identifications and to minimize the possibility of mistaken identifications, including the following:

- (1) having a blind administrator or blinded administrator perform the live lineup or photo lineup;
- (2) documenting a description of the suspect provided by the eyewitness, including a description of the circumstances under which the suspect was seen by the eyewitness, the time of day, the length of time the suspect was seen, the perceived or actual distance from the eyewitness to the suspect and the lighting conditions;
- (3) providing the eyewitness with instructions that minimize the likelihood of an inaccurate identification, including that the perpetrator may or may not be in the identification procedure and that the investigation will continue regardless of whether an identification is made;
- (4) composing the lineup so that the fillers generally resemble the eyewitness's description of the perpetrator so that the suspect does not unduly stand out from the fillers;
- (5) using at least four fillers in a live lineup and at least five fillers in a photo lineup;
- (6) ensuring, when practicable, that a photograph of the suspect used in a photo lineup is contemporary and resembles the suspect's appearance at the time of the offense;
- (7) presenting separate photo lineups and live lineups when there are multiple eyewitnesses, ensuring that the same suspect is placed in a different position for each identification procedure;
- (8) having the administrator seek and document a clear statement from the eyewitness, at the time of the identification and in the eyewitness's own words, as to the eyewitness's confidence level that the person identified is the person who committed the crime;
- (9) minimizing factors at any point in time that influence an eyewitness to identify a suspect or affect the eyewitness's confidence level in identifying a suspect, including verbal or nonverbal statements by or reactions from the administrator;
- (10) presenting lineup members one at a time;
- (11) adopting relevant practices shown to enhance the reliability of an eyewitness participating in a showup procedure, such as:

- (a) identifying the circumstances under which a showup is warranted;
 - (b) transporting the eyewitness to a neutral, non-law enforcement location where the detained suspect is being held;
 - (c) removing the suspect from the law enforcement squad car;
 - (d) removing restraints from the suspect when the suspect is being observed by the eyewitness; and
 - (e) administering the showup procedure close in time to the commission of the crime;
- (12) video recording the entirety of the photo lineup and live lineup and, where practicable, the showup procedure, unless the recording equipment is not reasonably available or the recording equipment fails and obtaining replacement equipment is not feasible; and
- (13) preserving photographic documentation of all live lineup and photo lineup members and showup suspects, as well as all descriptions provided by the eyewitness of the perpetrator.

F. All written departmental eyewitness identification policies shall be made available to the public upon request.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2019, ch. 211, § 17 made Laws 2019, ch. 211, § 12 effective July 1, 2019.

Article II, Sec. 18 provides broader due process protections than the United States constitution in the context of admission of eyewitness identification evidence. — Article II, Section 18 of the New Mexico constitution affords broader due process protection than the United States constitution in the context of admission of eyewitness identification evidence because the federal reliability standard, the Manson rule, is both scientifically and jurisprudentially unsound, and hence flawed under an interstitial review, and therefore does not satisfy due process under the New Mexico constitution. State v. Martinez, 2021-NMSC-002, overruling Patterson v. LeMaster, 2001-NMSC-013, 130 N.M. 179, 21 P.3d 1032, State v. Jacobs, 2000-NMSC-026, 129 N.M. 448, 10 P.3d 127, and State v. Baca, 1983-NMSC-049, 99 N.M. 754, 664 P.2d 360.

New standard for determining whether eyewitness identification evidence is admissible at trial. — Under New Mexico's new standard for determining whether eyewitness identification evidence is admissible at trial, if a witness makes an identification of a defendant as a result of a police identification procedure that is unnecessarily suggestive and conducive to misidentification, the identification and any subsequent identification by the same witness must be suppressed. State v. Martinez, 2021-NMSC-002, overruling Patterson v. LeMaster, 2001-NMSC-013, 130 N.M. 179, 21 P.3d 1032, State v. Jacobs, 2000-NMSC-026, 129 N.M. 448, 10 P.3d 127, and State v. Baca, 1983-NMSC-049, 99 N.M. 754, 664 P.2d 360.

Burden of proof for admitting evidence of eyewitness identifications. — Under New Mexico's approach to admitting eyewitness identifications, the initial burden falls on the accused to establish prima facie that some aspect of the identification procedure employed by the police was suggestive in nature. If the accused does not meet that burden, suppression is not required. However, if the accused demonstrates that the identification procedure contained one or more suggestive elements, the burden shifts to the state to prove by clear and convincing evidence either that (1) the procedure employed was not so suggestive as to materially taint the identification made by the eyewitness, which is to say that any departure from proper procedure could not have increased the risk of misidentification, or (2) good reason existed for the police to employ the suggestive procedure in the first instance. If the state fails to carry its responsive burden, the identification evidence and any subsequent in-court identification must be suppressed. State v. Martinez, 2021-NMSC-002, overruling Patterson v. LeMaster, 2001-NMSC-013, 130 N.M. 179, 21 P.3d 1032, State v. Jacobs, 2000-NMSC-026, 129 N.M. 448, 10 P.3d 127, and State v. Baca, 1983-NMSC-049, 99 N.M. 754, 664 P.2d 360.

New Mexico courts abandon the independent source doctrine in the context of disputed eyewitness identifications. — Pursuant to the independent source doctrine, an in-court identification which is independent of and not tainted by an out-of-court identification is admissible at trial. The independent source doctrine in the context of due process and disputed eyewitness identification evidence lacks legal justification and is contrary to existing science. New Mexico therefore abandons the doctrine in the context of disputed eyewitness identifications. State v. Martinez, 2021-NMSC-002, overruling Patterson v. LeMaster, 2001-NMSC-013, 130 N.M. 179, 21 P.3d 1032, State v. Jacobs, 2000-NMSC-026, 129 N.M. 448, 10 P.3d 127, and State v. Baca, 1983-NMSC-049, 99 N.M. 754, 664 P.2d 360.

Suppression of eyewitness identification not required where defendant failed to establish prima facie that some aspect of the identification procedure used was suggestive in nature. — Where defendant was charged with two counts of murder in the first-degree, and where, during the investigation, detectives showed an eyewitness five or six photos of different individuals, including a picture of defendant, and where the eyewitness identified defendant in one of the photographs as the person he saw at the scene of the shooting, and where, two days later, detectives assembled a photo array and requested that the eyewitness view the array which was composed of six photographs, some of which were the same photos shown to the eyewitness two days before as well as some photos that were new to him, and where the eyewitness again identified defendant in a photo as the person he saw at the scene of the shooting, the district court did not err in admitting evidence of the eyewitness's identification because defendant failed to establish prima facie that some aspect of the identification procedure used by the detectives was suggestive in nature. State v. Martinez, 2021-NMSC-002, overruling Patterson v. LeMaster, 2001-NMSC-013, 130 N.M. 179, 21 P.3d 1032, State v. Jacobs, 2000-NMSC-026, 129 N.M. 448, 10 P.3d 127, and State v. Baca, 1983-NMSC-049, 99 N.M. 754, 664 P.2d 360.

29-3B-4. Training of law enforcement officers.

The secretary of public safety shall create, administer and conduct training programs for law enforcement officers and recruits on the methods and technical aspects of the eyewitness identification practices and procedures shown by reliable evidence to enhance the accuracy of eyewitness evidence referenced in the Accurate Eyewitness Identification Act.

ANNOTATIONS

Legislative intent that patrol perform voluntarily. — Since no provision is found relating to the salaries or other compensation for services rendered, it must be concluded as the legislative intent that all members of the patrol were to perform in a voluntary and honorary capacity only. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

Power to arrest same as private citizen. — Unless called in specific instances to assist law enforcement officers, officer's power to arrest is no different than that of a private citizen. Throughout the statutes it is seen that authority to arrest, other than as a private citizen, exists only when there is a specific request from regular law enforcement officers. And it is further apparent that when called upon to assist law enforcement agencies that patrol's conduct shall be under their direction and control. The commission which is issued can, of course, have no more force than the authority given by the statutes under which that commission is issued. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6350.

Uniform unnecessary to exercise authority. — It is not necessary that mounted patrol be in uniform in order to exercise the authority which it has. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6350.

Extra-hazardous duty not performed under color of employment agreement. — A trooper or officer of the New Mexico mounted patrol, in carrying out duties as provided, is without question engaging in extra-hazardous activities. However, such extra-hazardous duty is not being performed under any color of an employment agreement. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

29-6-4.1. Training and entrance requirements of the New Mexico mounted patrol.

A. The New Mexico law enforcement academy is hereby empowered to approve a basic law enforcement training program for New Mexico mounted patrol members. The academy is authorized to promulgate the necessary rules and regulations setting program standards and record keeping requirements.

B. New Mexico mounted patrol members who began active service prior to July 1, 1983 are exempted from the basic law enforcement training requirements set forth in Subsection A of this section.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law.

Meaning of "state police". — When the statute refers to the New Mexico state police without any qualification, it grants power to any regularly appointed, active member of the state police to call upon a member of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

State police may call for law enforcement matters only. — The mounted patrol may only be called upon by the state police for matters involving law enforcement, to assist and render aid to the state police, and for other matters related to the function of the state police. The statute does not contemplate calling upon members of the mounted patrol for training purposes, and the state police may not call upon members of the mounted patrol for the purpose of giving training to the mounted patrol. But where the purpose is law enforcement, or to render assistance to the state police in a proper function of the state police, then any member of the state police is authorized to call out members of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

When no actual emergency exists, a member of the mounted patrol whose assistance is requested by the state police must be furnished the request in writing, signed by the officer making the request. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

No state insurance or compensation plan coverage. — Members of the New Mexico mounted patrol are not covered by any state insurance or compensation plan during periods of service as provided. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

If group insurance is acquired, then classification is as a unit. — For purposes of acquiring group insurance protection, a troop of the New Mexico mounted patrol was classified as a unit or group under former Section 59-18-16 NMSA 1978. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-7-6, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 255, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1993, ch. 255, § 6 repealed former 29-7-6 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1988, ch. 58, § 1, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1992 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

Where a police officer was employed by a municipal police department and attended the police academy; after two months of employment, the officer dropped out of the police academy due to traffic violations and for two years, obtained different employment; the officer then restarted a career as a police officer by re-enrolling in the police academy and obtaining a job as an officer with a municipal police department; after four months of employment with the police department and while the officer was still in the police academy, the officer arrested defendant; and after the officer arrested defendant, within twelve months of the officer's employment with the police department, the officer completed training in the police academy and received police certification, the officer was authorized to perform the duties of a police officer when the officer arrested defendant. State v. Reyes, 2009-NMCA-091, 146 N.M. 776, 215 P.3d 85, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-007, 147 N.M. 361, 223 P.3d 358.

Health inquiry not necessarily excepted from ADA. — The fact that New Mexico law makes good health a prerequisite for police officer certification does not necessarily mean that inquiring into officer's health and terminating him as a result of his response falls within the "job-related and consistent with business necessity" exception of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 USC § 12112(d)(4)(A); whether an inquiry falls within this exception is a fact-intensive question, and the existence of the New Mexico law, although it supports such a finding, is only one fact to be considered. Gonzales v. Sandoval Cnty., 2 F. Supp. 2d 1442 (D.N.M. 1998).

Forfeiture of position for failure to receive certificate of completion. — A deputy sheriff must forfeit the deputy sheriff's position if the deputy sheriff has not been awarded a certificate of completion by the director of the New Mexico law enforcement academy board attesting to the deputy sheriff's completion of an approved law enforcement training program within twelve months after beginning the deputy sheriff's employment as a deputy. 2009 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 09-01.

Decommissioning process for failure to receive certificate of completion. — The mechanical process of decommissioning a deputy sheriff, for failure to obtain a certificate under Subsection B of Section 29-7-6 NMSA 1978 or otherwise, is a matter for the reasonably exercised discretion of the sheriff. If a deputy sheriff fails to obtain a certificate, procedural due process would not require a hearing in order to terminate employment as a deputy sheriff and consequent revocation of the appointment or commission to act as such. 2009 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 09-01

A merit system ordinance does not override the forfeiture provision. — There is no indication that the legislature intended that a merit system ordinance enacted by a county pursuant to Section 4-41-5 NMSA 1978, as further authorized by Section 4-41-6 NMSA 1978, overrides the "forfeiture" provision of Subsection B of Section 29-7-6 NMSA 1978. 2009 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 09-01.

Regulations cannot be waived. — A county sheriff and a board of county commissioners do not have the authority to waive or otherwise disregard the regulations promulgated by the law enforcement academy board where a deputy sheriff fails to submit to the department of public safety training and recruiting division an application for certification and required supporting documentation within fourteen days of the deputy sheriff's employment as a deputy sheriff, as set forth in 10.29.9.18 (C) NMAC, or within thirty days of his employment, as set forth in 10.29.9.10 (B)(1) NMAC. 2009 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 09-01.

Must reach eighteenth birthday. — One who has reached his eighteenth birthday is entitled to apply for, and be admitted to, the New Mexico law enforcement academy, provided he meets the other requirements specified in the section. 1971 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 71-126.

Candidate with general discharge from military may be certified. — A candidate for admission to the law enforcement academy who received a general discharge from the military may be certified as a police officer. In order to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements, the academy should evaluate candidates who have received general discharges on an individual basis. The circumstances surrounding the discharge should be evaluated to determine if the discharge was predicated on reasons which would render the applicant ineligible for certification. In the absence of such circumstances, applicants with general discharges should not be excluded solely because they received a general discharge. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-23.

Effect of gubernatorial pardon on eligibility of convicted felon. — An unconditional gubernatorial pardon allows a person convicted of a felony to be eligible for certification by the law enforcement academy for permanent appointment as a police officer. However, if authorized by statute or regulation, a pardoned felon's character and the acts underlying the conviction may be considered in certification or licensing. 1992 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92-09.

B. The director shall establish the administrative law enforcement training program for county sheriffs, subject to review and approval by the executive committee of the sheriff's affiliate of the New Mexico association of counties.

The director shall provide annual notice to all certified telecommunicators regarding in-service training requirements. Failure to complete in-service training requirements may be grounds for suspension of a telecommunicator's certification at the director's discretion. A telecommunicator may be reinstated at the discretion of the director when the telecommunicator presents to the director evidence the telecommunicator has satisfied the in-service training requirements.

C. As used in this section, "mental impairment" includes a mental illness, developmental disability, posttraumatic stress disorder, dual diagnosis, autism, youth in crisis and traumatic brain injury.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, required training in crisis management, including interaction with persons with mental impairments training, and added a definition of "mental impairment".

29-7C-8. Reports and rosters.

A. A safety agency that operates within the state shall submit a quarterly report to the director on the status of each telecommunicator. The reporting forms and submittal dates shall be prescribed by the director.

B. The director shall maintain a roster of all certified telecommunicators.

A. The board shall refuse to issue or shall suspend or revoke a telecommunicator's certification, after consultation with his employing safety agency, if the board determines that a person has:

Mutual Aid

29-8-1. Short title.

This act [29-8-1 to 29-8-3 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Mutual Aid Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-1, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 1.

29-8-2. [Public agency defined.]

As used in the Mutual Aid Act, "public agency" includes the federal government or any department or agency thereof, an Indian tribal council, Indian pueblo council and the state or any county or municipality thereof.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-2, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 2.

29-8-3. Mutual aid agreements.

Any state, county or municipal agency having and maintaining peace officers may enter into mutual aid agreements with any public agency as defined in the Mutual Aid

Act, with respect to law enforcement, provided any such agreement shall be approved by the agency involved and the governor.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-3, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Applicability to gaming compacts with Indian tribes. — The Mutual Aid Act does not in any way pertain to gaming compacts and thus provides no statutory basis for the governor to enter into compacts and revenue-sharing agreements with Indian tribes which would permit gaming on Indian lands pursuant to the federal Indian gaming laws. State ex rel. Clark v. Johnson, 1995-NMSC-048, 120 N.M. 562, 904 P.2d 11.

By adding the limiting language that mutual aid agreements must be approved by both the agency involved and the governor of the state of New Mexico, the legislature contemplated a written agreement. State v. Branham, 2004-NMCA-131, 136 N.M. 579, 102 P.3d 646.

Inconsistency between written agreements. — It is inconsistent for the legislature to require a written agreement for the issuance of a cross commission under Section 29-1-11 NMSA 1978 between state law enforcement and Indian tribal police officers and not require a written agreement for mutual aid agreements under this section. State v. Branham, 2004-NMCA-131, 136 N.M. 579, 102 P.3d 646.

Where state police officer initially stopped defendant for speeding on Mescalero reservation, because the officer did not have authority to enforce Mescalero tribal traffic ordinances, defendant's motion to suppress evidence was properly granted. State v. Branham, 2004-NMCA-131, 136 N.M. 579, 102 P.3d 646.

Deputization of city or county officials by state agency. — The environmental improvement division (EID) (now Air Quality Bureau of Environment Department) may seek assistance from city and county law enforcement agencies to enforce asbestos disposal regulations pursuant to the Mutual Aid Act, Sections 29-8-1 to 29-8-3 NMSA 1978, but it cannot deputize city or county law enforcement officials to act as EID agents to enforce the division's asbestos disposal regulations. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-48.

ARTICLE 9

Organized Crime

29-9-1. Short title.

Sections 29-9-1 through 29-9-17 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Organized Crime Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 1; 1977, ch. 215, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1981, ch. 234, § 2 repealed Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 9, which had provided that the act shall terminate on July 1, 1981.

Statute not amenable to vagueness claim. — The Organized Crime Act [Sections 29-9-1 through 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] is not the type of statute that is amenable to a claim of unconstitutional vagueness because the vagueness doctrine is applied when a potential actor is exposed to criminal sanctions without a fair warning as to the nature of a proscribed activity, whereas the Organized Crime Act is not a penal statute; the only sanction that can come from the act is a contempt citation for failure to abide by a court order. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414.

Word "racketeering" does not need to appear in title to Laws 1977, ch. 215, which amends the Organized Crime Act; nor does the title violate N.M. Const., art. IV, § 16, although the 1977 amendment for the first time authorizes the commission to investigate racketeering, since racketeering is reasonably germane to the subject matter of organized crime. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414.

29-9-2. Definitions.

As used in the Organized Crime Act:

A. "organized crime" means the supplying for profit of illegal goods and services, including, but not limited to, gambling, loan sharking, narcotics and other forms of vice and corruption, by members of a structured and disciplined organization;

B. "public officer" means any elected or appointed officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions, serving with or without remuneration for his services; and

C. "commission" means the governor's organized crime prevention commission.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-2, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 2.

29-9-3. Commission created; membership.

A. There is created the "governor's organized crime prevention commission". The commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor with the advice and the consent of the senate. No more than four members shall belong to the same political party and at least one member shall be a member of the New Mexico bar.

B. Persons appointed to the commission shall:

(2) be selected from the various parts of the state in such manner as to provide broad geographical representation on the commission; and

(3) be given a security clearance by an appropriate agency designated by the governor to conduct a clearance investigation.

C. Members of the commission shall be appointed for staggered terms of four years each, three ending on December 31, 1975, two ending on December 31, 1976, and two ending on December 31, 1977. Thereafter, appointments shall be made for terms of four years or less so that the terms of not more than three commission members expire on December 31 of any year.

D. Members of the commission shall receive per diem and mileage as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978] and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite or allowance.

E. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term by the governor. A vacancy on the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the commission, provided the commission has at least four members.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 3; 1977, ch. 215, § 2.

29-9-4. Purpose of commission.

The purpose of the commission is to forestall, check and prevent the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico by:

A. investigating the extent to which organized crime and racketeering has or has not infiltrated and encroached into private and public affairs within New Mexico;

B. investigating those conditions, including the effectiveness of the execution and enforcement of the laws and the conduct of public officers and employees, which may lead to, or may have led to, the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico; and

C. reporting to the proper authorities and making public as authorized by this act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] the results of its investigations and recommending corrective measures and improvements.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3.1, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 3.

29-9-5. Powers and duties of commission.

A. The commission shall:

- (1) assess and evaluate the activities and problems involving organized crime within New Mexico;
- (2) develop a comprehensive plan for the suppression and control of organized crime in New Mexico and its encroachment into the state;
- (3) recommend programs to combat organized crime;
- (4) examine matters relating to law enforcement extending across the boundaries of the state into other states and consult and exchange information with officers and agencies of other states with respect to law enforcement problems of mutual concern in regard to organized crime;
- (5) make an annual report to the governor and legislature which shall include its recommendations concerning matters within its jurisdiction and authority;
- (6) keep the public informed as to the operation of organized crime and the problems of criminal law enforcement in New Mexico as they relate to organized crime by such means and to such extent as it deems appropriate;
- (7) advise and assist, upon request, the attorney general, a district attorney or any other law enforcement official in the performance of his official powers and duties;
- (8) cooperate with departments and officers of the federal government in the suppression of organized crime; and
- (9) cooperate with agencies concerned with organized crime in coordinating efforts to investigate and suppress organized crime.

B. The commission shall conduct investigations as are necessary to carry out the purpose of the commission pursuant to Section 29-9-4 NMSA 1978.

C. The commission is authorized to:

- (1) empower its staff to conduct any investigation authorized by this section and to maintain offices and hold meetings and functions at any place within New Mexico as it may deem necessary;
- (2) conduct private and public hearings and designate one or more commission members or staff members to preside over any such hearings; provided staff members shall be without vote in such hearings;
- (3) receive testimony from witnesses, request their attendance, examine them and request production of any books, records, documents or other evidence as it may deem relevant or material to an investigation. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission;

(4) administer oaths or affirmations; examine witnesses under oath or affirmation; and subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance before the commission and require them to produce before the commission any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation. No subpoena shall be issued without the adoption and acknowledgment, by resolution of five members of the commission, and further provided that a copy of said resolution with acknowledgments be attached to any and all subpoenas issued by the commission. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers, pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission. If any person subpoenaed pursuant to this section neglects or refuses to obey the command of the subpoena, any district court may, on proof by affidavit of service of the subpoena and of refusal or neglect by the person to obey the command of the subpoena, issue an order for the person to appear immediately before the court, which is authorized to proceed against the person as for a contempt of court. At any time before the return date of the subpoena, the person subpoenaed may file a petition to set aside the subpoena, modify the subpoena, or extend the return date thereon in the district court of any county in which the commission has an office or the district court of the county to which the person is subpoenaed to appear, and the court upon a showing of good cause may set aside the subpoena, modify it or extend the return date of the subpoena;

(5) petition a district court ex parte to order the attendance of witnesses before the commission and the production before the commission of any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation, where it appears that the witness resides outside the state, may imminently depart the state or may secrete himself to avoid attendance before the commission or to avoid other lawful process. A witness may challenge execution of the order by filing a motion to quash the order with the district court before the return date named in the order;

(6) any and all proceedings brought before the court pursuant to Paragraphs 4 and 5 of this section, regarding subpoenas, shall be conducted in camera and shall be kept under the seal of the court.

D. Every witness appearing before the commission may request to be examined in private. Upon such request, the witness's testimony shall be in private with no persons present other than members of the commission, members of the commission's staff and the witness. The testimony and other evidence may be disseminated to law enforcement agencies as deemed proper by the commission but the content or details of the testimony and records produced by the witness shall not be made public, except that the commission, without disclosing the name of the witness, may issue a public report summarizing information obtained from its private hearings for the purpose of informing the public and its officials of the extent to which organized crime has infiltrated New Mexico and conditions which may lead to the infiltration of organized crime.

E. The commission shall not take testimony at a public hearing unless at least four of its members are present, or unless at least two members of the commission and at least two staff members are present. The commission shall not take testimony at a private hearing unless at least one of its members is present.

F. Witnesses appearing before the commission shall receive per diem and mileage as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978] and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite or allowance.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-4, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 4; 1977, ch. 215, § 4; 1979, ch. 148, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Limitations on subpoena power. — Any exception or limitation to the express power of the commission should be strictly construed. Doe v. State ex rel. Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1992-NMSC-022, 114 N.M. 78, 835 P.2d 76.

Administrative subpoenas not subject to fourth amendment. — The commission is an investigatory rather than an accusatory body, and, therefore, its subpoenas are administrative subpoenas. Administrative subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, are not subject to the search and seizure provisions of the fourth amendment of the United States constitution. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (decided before 1979 amendment).

Requirements for lawful subpoena. — In order to obtain a subpoena, the commission must show, and the district court must decide, that the investigation is within the power of the commission, the subpoena is definite enough and the material sought is reasonably relevant to the purpose of the investigation; what is reasonably relevant depends on the nature and purpose of the investigation, and relevancy cannot be determined in the absence of a stated purpose. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (decided before 1979 amendment).

Right to challenge subpoena. — After a subpoena is issued the individual or institution upon whom it is served has an opportunity to challenge it. Since the subpoenas issued under the Organized Crime Act (Sections 29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978) ask only for voluntary compliance, and the commission is authorized to go to district court to seek enforcement, the legislature must have contemplated that the subpoenaed person would be allowed to show at that hearing why the subpoena should not be enforced. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (decided before 1979 amendment).

29-9-8. Confidentiality; impounding of exhibits.

A. Upon application of the commission, a district court may impound an exhibit marked in evidence at any public or private hearing held by the commission, and may order the exhibit to be retained by or delivered to and placed in the custody of the commission. If impounded, an exhibit shall not be taken from the custody of the commission except upon order of the district court granted after five days' notice to the commission or at the request or with the consent of the commission. Upon the removal from the custody of the commission of any impounded exhibit, it shall be returned to the person lawfully entitled to its possession.

B. The records, reports and files of the commission are not subject to the Public Records Act [Chapter 14, Article 3 NMSA 1978] or Sections 10-15-1 through 10-15-4 NMSA 1978. The records, reports and files of the commission shall not be subject to subpoena except by order of the supreme court of New Mexico.

C. Any person, except the governor or the commission, who discloses information contained in the records, reports and files of the commission or obtained in a private hearing conducted by the commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both imprisonment and fine.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 7; 1977, ch. 215, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Discovery of commission records only by supreme court order unconstitutional.

— The last sentence in Subsection B, allowing discovery of the records of the governor's organized crime prevention commission by supreme court order only, is unconstitutional, as the legislature lacks the power to prescribe and regulate practice, pleading and procedure. In re Motion for a Subpoena Duces Tecum, 1980-NMSC-010, 94 N.M. 1, 606 P.2d 539.

District courts authorized to hear duces tecum subpoena application for commission records. — The district courts are authorized and directed, upon proper application for a subpoena duces tecum under Rule 1-045 NMRA, to hear and determine whether the records, reports and files of the governor's organized crime prevention commission may be subpoenaed, and, if so, upon what conditions. In re Motion for a Subpoena Duces Tecum, 1980-NMSC-010, 94 N.M. 1, 606 P.2d 539.

29-9-9. Immunity from criminal prosecution or penalty.

A. If, in the course of any investigation or hearing conducted by the commission pursuant to the Organized Crime Act, a person refuses to answer a question or questions or produce evidence of any kind on the ground that he will thereby be exposed to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, the commission may order the person to answer the question or questions or produce the requested evidence and confer immunity as provided in this section. No order to answer or produce evidence with immunity shall be made except by resolution of a two-thirds majority of all the members of the commission and after the attorney general and the appropriate district attorney have been given at least ten days' written notice of the commission's intention to issue such order and afforded an opportunity to be heard in respect to any objections they or either of them may have to the granting of immunity. Upon application of the attorney general or the appropriate district attorney within ten days of the written notice, the commission shall defer the issuance of any order under this subsection for such period, not longer than thirty days from the date of the application, as the attorney general or district attorney may specify.

B. If, upon issuance of an order pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the person complies with such order, he shall be immune from having such responsive answer given by him or such responsive evidence produced by him, or evidence derived therefrom used to expose him to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, except that such person may be prosecuted for any perjury committed in such answer or in producing such evidence, or for contempt for failing to give an answer or produce evidence in accordance with the order of the commission; and any such answer given or evidence produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such perjury, or upon any investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such contempt.

29-9-17. Code of fair procedure.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "hearing" means any hearing in the course of an investigatory proceeding conducted before the commission at which testimony or the production of other evidence is compelled by subpoena;

(2) "public hearing" means any hearing open to the public, or any hearing, or such part thereof, as to which testimony or other evidence is made available or disseminated to the public by the commission; and

(3) "private hearing" means any hearing other than a public hearing.

B. No person may be required to appear at a hearing or to testify at a hearing unless there has been personally served upon him prior to the time when he is required to appear, a copy of the Organized Crime Act, and a general statement of the subject of the investigation. A copy of the resolution, statute, order or other provision of law authorizing the investigation shall be furnished by the commission upon request by the person summoned.

C. A witness summoned to a hearing shall have the right to be accompanied by counsel, who shall be permitted to advise the witness of his rights, subject to reasonable limitations to prevent obstruction of or interference with the orderly conduct of the hearing. Counsel for any witness who testifies at a public hearing may submit proposed questions to be asked of the witness relevant to the matters upon which the witness has been questioned, and the commission shall ask the witness such of the questions as it may deem appropriate to its inquiry.

D. A complete and accurate record shall be kept of each public hearing and a witness shall be entitled to receive a copy of his testimony at such hearing at his own expense. Where testimony which a witness has given at a private hearing becomes relevant in a criminal proceeding in which the witness is a defendant, or in any subsequent hearing in which the witness is summoned to testify, the witness shall be entitled to a copy of such testimony, at his own expense, provided a copy is available, and provided further that the furnishing of such copy will not prejudice the public safety or security.

E. A witness who testifies at any hearing shall have the right at the conclusion of his examination to file a brief sworn statement relevant to his testimony for incorporation in the record of the investigatory proceeding.

F. Any person whose name is mentioned or who is specifically identified and who believes that testimony or other evidence given at a public hearing or comment made by any member of the commission or its counsel at such a hearing tends to defame him or otherwise adversely affect his reputation shall have the right, either to appear personally before the commission and testify in his own behalf as to matters relevant to the testimony or other evidence complained of, or in the alternative at the option of the commission, to file a statement of facts under oath relating solely to matters relevant to the testimony or other evidence complained of, which statement shall be incorporated in the record of the investigatory proceeding.

G. Nothing in the Organized Crime Act shall be construed to prevent the commission from granting to witnesses appearing before it, or to persons who claim to be adversely affected by testimony or other evidence adduced before it, such further rights and privileges as it may determine.

H. Nothing in the Organized Crime Act shall be construed to affect, diminish or impair the right, under any other provision of law, rule or custom, of any member or group of members of the commission to file a statement or statements of minority views to accompany and be released with or subsequent to the report of the commission.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978" for "This act".

Article does not authorize expungement. — The Arrest Records Information Act [Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978] does not grant the courts authority to expunge or seal criminal records. Toth v. Albuquerque Police Dep't, 1997-NMCA-079, 123 N.M. 637, 944 P.2d 285.

Arrest Record Information Act may be viewed as establishing statutory exceptions to the fundamental right to inspect. It does so, however, in a rather conflicting manner, and it appears that virtually all arrest record information is subject to at least a limited or conditional disclosure. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09.

Identity of individuals arrested or charged with crime not protected. — Neither the Arrest Record Information Act [Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978] nor the Inspection of Public Records Act [Chapter 14, Article 2 NMSA 1978] authorizes a law enforcement agency to protect the identity of persons who have been arrested or charged with a crime. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

Release of timely, accurate information. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not prohibit release of timely, accurate information when a juvenile is arrested for a criminal act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

29-10-2. Purpose of act.

The legislature finds and declares that the responsible exchange of complete and accurate information among law enforcement agencies is recognized as necessary and indispensable to effective law enforcement. Individual rights, however, may be infringed if information is inaccurate, incomplete or is disseminated irresponsibly. The Arrest Record Information Act is for the purpose of protecting those rights.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-2, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Violation not limited. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not limit the violation of the act to any particular class of persons. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09).

Release of juvenile's arrest information. — A law enforcement agency is not prohibited by the Children's Code (Chapter 32A NMSA 1978), this act, or any other law from releasing to the public the names of juveniles who have been arrested for criminal acts and the charges for which they were arrested. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

29-10-3. Definition.

As used in the Arrest Record Information Act, "arrest record information" means notations of the arrest or detention or indictment or filing of information or other formal criminal charge against an individual made by a law enforcement agency.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-3, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 3; 1977, ch. 339, § 1; 1993, ch. 260, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, made a minor stylistic change in the section heading, deleted the Subsection A designation which formerly preceded "arrest record information", deleted "which resulted in a negative disposition; and" which formerly followed "law enforcement agency", and deleted former Subsection B which defined "negative disposition".

Section includes both felony and misdemeanor arrest records. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09).

Definition of "arrest record information" does not include investigative reports. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09.

29-10-4. Confidentiality of arrest records.

Arrest record information that reveals confidential sources, methods, information or individuals accused but not charged with a crime and that is maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions pertaining to any person charged with the commission of any crime is confidential and dissemination or revealing the contents of the record, except as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act or any other law, is unlawful.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-4, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 4; 1993, ch. 260, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

For crimes defined and classified, see 30-1-4 to 30-1-6 NMSA 1978.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "that reveals confidential sources, methods, information or individuals accused but not charged with a crime and that is", inserted "or any other law", and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Penalty provision repealed. — While this section still provides that violations of the Arrest Record Information Act are "unlawful," there are no longer any criminal sanctions for releasing arrest record information in violation of the provisions of the act, since 39-10-7, 1953 Comp., the penalty provision, was repealed by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 6. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09.

Limited protection of accused. — This section protects the confidentiality of information concerning the identity of a person who has been accused but not charged with a crime only if that information has been collected in connection with an investigation of, or otherwise relates to, another person who has been charged with committing a crime. However, information in other records which identifies a person accused but not charged with or arrested for a crime may be protected from public disclosure under Section 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. Finally, even if it would otherwise be protected under either statute, information about a person accused but not charged with a crime is open to public inspection if it is contained in a document listed in Section 29-10-7 NMSA 1978. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

29-10-5. Exchange of information.

A law enforcement agency may disseminate arrest record information to a federal, state or local government law enforcement agency, provided that when the arrest record information is disseminated to a law enforcement agency situated outside this state, the information shall be accompanied by a statement substantially embodying the intent set forth in Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978. Nothing in the Arrest Record Information Act prohibits direct access by the attorney general, the district attorney, the crime victims reparation commission or the courts to such information where it is deemed necessary in the performance of their functions under law. Nothing in that act prohibits direct access by a law enforcement agency to automated wanted information pertaining to a person or to stolen property information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-5, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 5; 1977, ch. 339, § 2; 1987, ch. 140, § 1.

29-10-6. Access by individuals.

A. Upon satisfactory verification of his identity, any individual may inspect, in person, through counsel or through his authorized agent, arrest record information maintained by a law enforcement agency concerning him.

B. Personnel assigned to contractual research for a state or federally approved criminal justice project shall be permitted access to arrest record information. Approval personnel shall not further disseminate such information except as statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-6, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 6; 1977, ch. 339, § 3.

29-10-7. Application.

A. Information contained in the following documents shall be available for public inspection:

(1) posters, announcements or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;

(2) original records of entry such as police blotters maintained by criminal justice agencies, compiled chronologically and required by law or long-standing custom to be made public, if the records are organized on a chronological basis;

(3) court records of public judicial proceedings;

(4) published court or administrative opinions or public judicial, administrative or legislative proceedings;

(5) records of traffic offenses and accident reports;

(6) announcements of executive clemency; and

(7) statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

B. Nothing prevents a law enforcement agency from disclosing to the public arrest record information related to the offense for which an adult individual is currently within the criminal justice system. A law enforcement agency is not prohibited from confirming prior arrest record information to members of the news media or any other person, upon specific inquiry as to whether a named individual was arrested, detained, indicted or whether an information or other formal charge was filed on a specified date, if the arrest record information disclosed is based on data enumerated by Subsection A of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-8, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4; 1993, ch. 260, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4 repealed 39-10-8, 1953 Comp., relating to the application of the Arrest Record Information Act, and enacted a new section.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, in Subsection A, in the introductory language, deleted "The provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act do not apply to criminal history record", inserted "the following documents shall be available for public inspection" and made stylistic changes; and, in Subsection B, deleted "in this act" following "Nothing" near the beginning of the first sentence and made stylistic changes.

Information to be included in police blotter. — The following information may be appropriately included by a law enforcement agency in a police blotter or original record of entry: the name, physical description, place and date of birth, address and occupation of the individual arrested; the time and place of arrest; the offense for which the individual was arrested or detained; and the name of the arresting officer. This list should be interpreted as a minimum requirement but not to the exclusion of additional information which may presently appear on the initial records of entry or police blotters being used by some law enforcement agencies. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09).

Limited privacy of accused. — Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978 protects the confidentiality of information concerning the identity of a person who has been accused but not charged with a crime only if that information has been collected in connection with an investigation of, or otherwise relates to, another person who has been charged with committing a crime. However, information in other records which identifies a person accused but not charged with or arrested for a crime may be protected from public disclosure under Section 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. Finally, even if it would otherwise be protected under either statute, information about a person accused but not charged with a crime is open to public inspection if it is contained in a document listed in this section. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

Repeal and reenactment broadened exemption. — In the repeal and reenactment of this section, the phrase "indexed chronologically" in Subsection A(2) became "compiled chronologically," thus removing the requirement that the records must be "indexed" to qualify as "original records of entry." The phrase "or long-standing custom" was added also, thereby legitimating a long-standing custom by which many law enforcement agencies had released information from police blotters and other such original records. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09.

Meaning of "within the criminal justice system". — While the statute does not specify what is meant by "within the criminal justice system," the term appears to relate to the status of an adult who has been arrested or formally charged with a criminal offense until such time as there is a final "negative disposition." 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-09.

29-10-8. Review of arrest record information; appeal.

A person who believes that arrest record information concerning him is inaccurate or incomplete is, upon satisfactory verification of his identity, entitled to review the information and obtain a copy of it for the purpose of challenge or correction. In the event a law enforcement agency refuses to correct challenged information to the satisfaction of the person to whom the inaccurate or incorrect information relates, the person is entitled to appeal to the district court to correct the information pursuant to the provisions of Section 39-3-1.1 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-9, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 5; 1998, ch. 55, § 41; 1999, ch. 265, § 43.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Section 39-3-1.1" for "Section 12-8A-1" in the last sentence.

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, inserted "; appeal" in the section heading; substituted "is" for "shall"; deleted "be" preceding "entitled"; substituted "the" for "such" twice; substituted "is" for "shall be"; substituted "appeal to" for "petition"; and inserted "pursuant to the provisions of Section 12-8A-1 NMSA 1978" at the end of the section.

B. "evidence" means that evidence relating to the commission of a sexual crime;

C. "medical and psychological treatment" includes that medical, mental or emotional treatment provided a victim of a sexual crime. D. "sexual crime" includes any act which may be alleged to be a sexual offense or an attempted sexual offense under the provisions of Sections 30-9-10 through 30-9-16 and 30-10-3 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-11-3, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 27, § 3; 1995, ch. 91, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "mental health division of the department of health" for "behavioral health services division of the health and environment department" in Subsection A; substituted "Sections 30-9-10 through 30-9-16 and 30-10-3 NMSA 1978" for "Sections 40A-9-20 through 40A-9-26 and 40A-10-3 NMSA 1953" in Subsection D; and made a minor stylistic change.

29-11-4. Fund created; administration.

Laws 1981, chs. 73 and 127 rename the corrections and criminal rehabilitation department as the corrections department. The bracketed material was not enacted by the legislature and is not part of the law.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification

29-11A-1. Short title.

Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act".

History: Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 1; 1999, ch. 19, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the DNA Identification Act, see Chapter 29, Article 16 NMSA 1978.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978" for "This act" and inserted "and Notification".

1999 amendments did not expressly apply retroactively to convictions occurring before its effective date. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

29-11A-2. Findings; purpose.

A. The legislature finds that:

- (1) sex offenders pose a significant risk of recidivism; and
- (2) the efforts of law enforcement agencies to protect their communities from sex offenders are impaired by the lack of information available concerning convicted sex offenders who live within the agencies' jurisdictions.

B. The purpose of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act is to assist law enforcement agencies' efforts to protect their communities by:

- (1) requiring sex offenders who are residents of New Mexico to register with the county sheriff of the county in which the sex offender resides;
- (2) requiring sex offenders who are residents in other states, but who are employed in New Mexico or who attend school in New Mexico, to register with the county sheriff of the county in which the sex offender works or attends school;
- (3) requiring the establishment of a central registry for sex offenders; and
- (4) providing public access to information regarding certain registered sex offenders.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 2; 1999, ch. 19, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and Notification" in Subsection B, inserted "who are residents of New Mexico" in Paragraph B(1), added Paragraphs B(2) and B(4), redesignated former Paragraph B(2) as Paragraph B(3), and made minor stylistic changes.

Constitutionality of act. — Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act does not violate either the federal or state ex post facto clause, does not violate either the federal or the state due process clause, and does not violate N.M. Const. art. IV, § 34. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Where a constitutionally permissible retroactive application of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act requirements to defendant made him subject to a probation violation if he knowingly failed to register and if he were found to have committed a felony by failing to register, this does not constitute a legislative act that changes rules of evidence or procedure in a pending case. Therefore, the legislative changes are too indirect, remote, and attenuated to be considered unconstitutional under N.M. Const. art. IV, § 34. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Retroactive application of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act does not violate the ex post facto clause of the United States or New Mexico constitutions. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act is part of New Mexico's law enforcement code and not part of the criminal code. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Legislative intent. — Legislature's intent in enacting Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act was to enact a civil, remedial, regulatory, nonpunitive law. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Notification provisions are rationally related to a legitimate governmental interest, purpose, and goal. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

The State's interest in attempting to protect society from convicted sex offenders who pose a significant risk of recidivism is both legitimate and compelling. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

Purpose and principal effect of notification provisions are to inform the public for its own safety, not to punish or stigmatize and ostracize the offender. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, 135 N.M. 223, 86 P.3d 1050.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, added terms and definitions; added Subsections A, C, E, F and J; in Paragraph (6) of Subsection I, after "Section 30-4-1 NMSA 1978", deleted "the victim is less than eighteen years of age and the offender is not a parent of the victim" and added "committed with the intent to inflict a sexual offense"; in Paragraph (7) of Subsection I, after "Section 30-4-3 NMSA 1978, when", deleted "the victim is less than eighteen years of age and the offender is not a parent of the victim" and added "committed with the intent to inflict a sexual offense"; and in Paragraph (11) of Subsection I, after "Section 30-37-3.2 NMSA 1978", added "for convictions occurring on or after July 1, 2013":

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 152, § 5 provided that the provisions of the amendments to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act enacted by Laws 2013, ch. 152 are applicable to a person who, on or after July 1, 2013, is found guilty of committing a sex offense.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, defined "sex offender" as a New Mexico resident who is convicted of a sex offense pursuant to state, federal, tribal or military law; and defined "sex offense" to mean offenses or their equivalents in any other jurisdiction, including aggravated criminal sexual penetration.

Applicability. — Laws 2007, ch. 69, § 8 provided that Laws 2007, ch. 69, § 5 was applicable to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 1995 and a person convicted of a sexual offense prior to July 1, 1995 and who, on July 1, 1995, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, added the definition of "conviction" in Subsection A; added the definition of "institution of higher education" in Subsection B; added the definition of "registration requirement" in Subsection C; deleted the requirement that a person be eighteen years of age or older in the definition of "sex offender" in Subsection D; added the reference to tribal law in Subsection D(2), (3) and (5); added Subsection D(4) to provide that a sex offender is a person who does not have an established residence in New Mexico, but stays in temporary quarters in New Mexico and who has been convicted of a sex offense; provided in Subsection B(5)(a) that employment includes any employment or vocation, whether financially compensated, volunteered or for the purpose of government or educational benefit; provided in Subsection B(5)(b) that the person is enrolled in an institution of higher education in New Mexico; deleted the former reference in Subsection B(5)(b) secondary school, trade school, professional institution or an institution of higher education; and added Subsections E(8) through (10) to provide that sex offense includes aggravated indecent exposure, enticement of child and incest respectively.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

The 2003 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective February 3, 2004, inserted "second" in Paragraphs (3) and (8) of Subsection B, and deleted "Subsection A, B or C of" preceding "Section" in Paragraph (4) of that subsection.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, deleted "employed in New Mexico or attends school in New Mexico; and" from the end of Subsection A(4), added Subsections A(4)(a) and A(4)(b), added Subsections B(6) and B(7) and redesignated former Subsections B(6) and B(7) as present Subsections B(8) and B(9), substituted "(7)" for "(5)" in present Subsection B(9).

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and Notification" in the introductory language; added "a person eighteen years of age or older" in Subsection A; in Paragraph A(1), substituted "who is a resident of New Mexico who is" for "a person" and substituted "in New Mexico" for "on or after July 1, 1995; or"; in Paragraph A(2), deleted "a person" at the beginning, and substituted "pursuant to state, federal or military law" for "on or after July 1, 1995; and"; added Paragraphs A(3), A(4), B(6), and B(7); and made minor stylistic changes.

Determination of equivalency of sex offenses. — Where defendant, who had been convicted of taking indecent liberties with children in North Carolina, moved to New Mexico; although there was no one-to-one correlation between the North Carolina offense and a single New Mexico sex offense, indecent liberties with children encompassed several sex offenses in New Mexico, the district court was required to determine if defendant's actual conduct supporting defendant's North Carolina conviction would have constituted any of the sex offenses under the New Mexico Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, Section 29-11A-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. State v. Orr, 2013-NMCA-069, 304 P.3d 449.

Equivalent offense is based on actual conduct. — An offense is "equivalent" to a New Mexico offense, for purposes of the New Mexico Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, if the defendant's actual conduct that gave rise to the out-of-state conviction would have constituted one of the enumerated offenses requiring registration pursuant to the Act. When the defendant's out-of-state conviction results from a plea agreement, courts may look to the charging documents, the defendant's written plea agreement, and the transcript of the plea hearing to determine the defendant's actual conduct and whether the conduct would have constituted one of the enumerated offenses. State v. Hall, 2013-NMSC-001, 294 P.3d 1235, rev'g 2011-NMCA-047, 149 N.M. 546, 252 P.3d 770.

Failure to prove equivalent offense. — Where defendant had been convicted in California of a misdemeanor offense of annoying or molesting a child under the age of eighteen; the state alleged that the California offense was equivalent to the New Mexico crime of sexual contact of a minor in the fourth degree because defendant's California conviction was based on defendant inappropriately touching the private parts of several boys that defendant lifted up to look into a camera's viewfinder; and the state failed to provide evidence to support the elements of the New Mexico offense by establishing the California victim's ages at the time of the offense or, other than saying that defendant touched the victims' clothed private parts, where on their bodies defendant touched the California victims, a court could not determine whether defendant's conduct violated one of the enumerated offenses in Section 29-11A-3 NMSA 1978 because the record was insufficient for a court to determine in what conduct defendant engaged that gave rise to defendant's California conviction. State v. Hall, 2013-NMSC-001, 294 P.3d 1235, rev'g 2011-NMCA-047, 149 N.M. 546, 252 P.3d 770.

Sex offense. — Defendant's conviction in California of the misdemeanor offense of annoying or molesting a child, which does not require touching or application of force, was not the equivalent of sexual contact of a minor, which requires touching or the application of force, was not a "sex offense" as that term is defined in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, and did not require defendant to register as a sex offender in New Mexico. State v. Hall, 2011-NMCA-047, 149 N.M. 546, 252 P.3d 770, cert. granted, 2011-NMCERT-005, 150 N.M. 666, 265 P.3d 717.

Determining equivalency under SORNA. — Where defendant appealed from the judgment and sentence entered upon his conditional guilty plea to one count of failure to register as a sex offender, the trial court erred in ruling that defendant's Colorado conviction, had it occurred in New Mexico, required registration pursuant to SORNA, because the statute under which defendant was convicted in Colorado is not, on its face, equivalent to a SORNA offense, and the trial court's reliance on an unsigned and unfiled presentence report was not sufficient to determine actual conduct for purposes of an equivalency analysis under SORNA. The presentence report lacked proof of authenticity and reliability and therefore constituted inadmissible evidence that the trial court erred in considering and determining defendant's actual conduct underlying his Colorado sexual assault conviction. State v. Winn, 2019-NMCA-011.

A nolo contendere plea which is a conviction in a foreign jurisdiction is a conviction in New Mexico. — Where petitioner pled nolo contendere to engaging in a sex act with a child under eighteen years old in Florida; the Florida court required petitioner to serve thirty days imprisonment, two years of community control, five years of probation, pay restitution for mental counseling of the victim, have no unsupervised contact with children under eighteen years old, surrender the petitioner's teaching credentials and register as a sex offender in Florida; Florida did not adjudicate petitioner's guilt; and Florida law defined a conviction of a sex offense for purposes of sex offender registration to be a determination of guilt as the result of a plea of nolo contendere regardless of whether adjudication is withheld, Florida's disposition of petitioner's case was a conviction for purposes of SORNA. Vives v. Verzino, 2009-NMCA-083, 146 N.M. 673, 213 P.3d 823.

"Sex offender". — A court order granting defendant an early discharge from supervised probation and dismissing the charges against him did not eradicate his convictions and his status as a sex offender under Subsection A(1). State v. Brothers, 2002-NMCA-110, 133 N.M. 36, 59 P.3d 1268, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 30, 59 P.3d 1262.

Application of multiple amendments of definition of "sex offense". — Where in 2012, defendant pled guilty to the charge of solicitation of a child by electronic communication device; in 2007, the legislature enacted two acts amending Sections 29-11A-3 and 29-11A-5 NMSA 1978 which were signed on the same day by the governor; Laws 2007, ch. 68 created the new criminal offense of child solicitation by electronic communication device; Laws 2007, ch. 69 created the new crime of aggravated criminal sexual penetration; in 2012, Section 12-1-8 NMSA 1978 provided that if, in the same legislative session, the legislature enacted two or more acts amending the same section of the New Mexico Statutes Annotated, then the last act signed by the governor is presumed to be the law and shall be compiled into the NMSA; and Laws 2007, ch. 69 was compiled into the NMSA, child solicitation by electronic communication device was not a SORNA-covered crime in 2012 when defendant pled guilty and defendant was not subject to SORNA. State v. Ho, 2014-NMCA-038, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-003.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, provided in Subsection B that sex offender shall register after being released from a municipal or county jail, or a federal, military or tribal correctional facility, or detention center and that a sex offender shall register within ten days after his arrival in New Mexico; provided in Subsection C that a non-resident sex offender who is attending a public or private school or an institution of higher education in New Mexico shall register in the county in which the school or institution of higher education is located; provided in Subsection D that a sex offender who is attending a public or private school or an institution of higher education shall register within ten days after beginning school; provided in Subsection D(4) that a sex offender who is attending an institution of higher education must give his residence

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, inserted "registration" near the end of the introductory paragraph in Subsection B and near the end of Subsection D; rewrote Subsection H, which formerly read "Following his initial registration pursuant to the provisions of this section, a sex offender shall annually renew his registration with the county sheriff prior to December 31 of each subsequent calendar year"; and substituted "fourth degree felony and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978" for "misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment for a definite term less than one year or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or both" in Subsections I and J.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, in Subsection B substituted "ten days" for "thirty days" in the first sentence and "ten days" for "forty-five days" in the second sentence; substituted "he" for "the sex offender" in Paragraph B(1); added present Subsections C, D, and H; and redesignated former Subsections C through E, F, and G as Subsections E through G, I, and J, respectively.

Statutory elements of California and New Mexico offenses were not equivalent. — Defendant's conviction in California of the misdemeanor offense of annoying or molesting a child, which does not require touching or application of force, was not the equivalent of sexual contact of a minor, which requires touching or the application of force, was not a "sex offense" as that term is defined in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, and did not require defendant to register as a sex offender in New Mexico. State v. Hall, 2011-NMCA-047, 149 N.M. 546, 252 P.3d 770, cert. granted, 2011-NMCERT-005, 150 N.M. 666, 265 P.3d 717.

Assistance of counsel. — Defense counsel has an affirmative duty to advise a defendant charged with a sex offense that a plea of guilty or no contest will almost certainly subject the defendant to the registration requirements of SORNA. Proper advice will also include a discussion regarding what SORNA registration will mean, both in terms of the specific registration and notification provisions set forth in this article, as well as the likely social consequences of being a registered sex offender. This is the minimum advice a defendant needs before deciding to waive his or her constitutional rights by entering into a plea agreement. Failure to so advise the defendant amounts to deficient performance under the Strickland test. State v. Edwards, 2007-NMCA-043, 141 N.M. 491, 157 P.3d 56, cert. quashed, 142 N.M. 436, 166 P.3d 1090.

Court cannot stay registration pending appeal. — Trial judges have neither the power nor the discretion to stay the application of the SORNA pending the outcome of an appeal. State v. Myers, 2011-NMSC-028, 150 N.M. 1, 256 P.3d 13, rev'g 2010-NMCA-007, 147 N.M. 574, 226 P.3d 673.

A trial court has discretion to stay Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act registration pending appeal. State v. Myers, 2010-NMCA-007, 147 N.M. 574, 226 P.3d 673, rev'd, 2011-NMSC-028, 150 N.M. 1, 256 P.3d 13.

Stay of registration pending appeal. — Where defendant was convicted of sexual exploitation of children by manufacturing child pornography; the diagnostic evaluation of defendant concluded that defendant is not a pedophile and that with treatment, defendant's risk of re-offending was low; defendant was required to inform the sheriff's department of defendant's current residence and work location and update the information with any changes; and the trial court released defendant pending appeal, the trial court did not abuse its discretion by staying defendant's registration as a sex offender pending the outcome of the appeal. State v. Myers, 2010-NMCA-007, 147 N.M. 574, 226 P.3d 673, rev'd, 2011-NMSC-028, 150 N.M. 1, 256 P.3d 13.

Not applicable to Native Americans. — The state does not have authority to require an Indian who was convicted of a sex offense in a court other than a New Mexico state court, is an Indian living in Indian country, and is not attending school or employed outside of Indian country, to comply with the requirements of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. State v. Atcitty, 2009-NMCA-086, 146 N.M. 781, 215 P.3d 90, cert. quashed, 2010-NMCERT-010, 149 N.M. 64, 243 P.3d 1146.

Insufficient evidence that defendant willfully failed to register. — Where the defendant was released from probation on the defendant's convictions for sex offenses in 1998; the defendant registered in 2003 after the defendant received a letter informing the defendant that the defendant was required to register; the defendant registered in 2004, but failed to register after 2004; the defendant's judgment and sentence for sex offenses, which was entered before the enactment of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, did not mention any requirement that the defendant register as a sex offender; there was no evidence that when the defendant was released from probation, the defendant was informed of a duty to register as a sex offender; when the deputy sheriff validated the defendant's sex offender registry information he did not inform the defendant that the defendant had a continuing duty to register annually; there was no evidence that when the defendant registered in 2003 and 2004, the defendant was informed that he had the duty to register annually, the evidence failed to show that the defendant willfully failed to comply with the annual registration requirements. State v. Billington, 2009-NMCA-014, 145 N.M. 526, 201 P.3d 857, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-001, 145 N.M. 655, 203 P.3d 870.

The only issue raised by an appeal of a conviction for failure to register as a sex offender is whether the defendant's failure to register was willful. State v. Burke, 2008-NMSC-052, 144 N.M. 772, 192 P.3d 767, rev'g 2007-NMCA-093, 142 N.M. 218, 164 P.3d 99.

The sheriff has discretion to adopt reasonable time, place and manner restrictions on the process of registration of sex offenders. State v. Burke, 2007-NMCA-093, 142 N.M. 218, 164 P.3d 99, rev'd, 2008-NMSC-052, 144 N.M. 772, 192 P.3d 767.

A protocol that restricted the time when sex offenders could register to the hours between 1:00 and 4:00 on Wednesday afternoon was reasonable. State v. Burke, 2007-NMCA-093, 142 N.M. 218, 164 P.3d 99, rev'd, 2008-NMSC-052, 144 N.M. 772, 192 P.3d 767.

No violation of due process. — Court's failure to advise defendant, at the time of his plea, of sex offender registration consequences under New Mexico's Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act did not violate due process of law. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, 135 N.M. 210, 86 P.3d 635.

Multiple convictions for failure to register violated double jeopardy. — Where defendant was convicted of third degree criminal sexual penetration, and was thereafter required to register as a sex offender pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, 29-11A-1 to -10 NMSA 1978, which required that he register every ninety days and also within ten days of changing his address, and where during a certain period of time defendant was evicted and required to move out of his home which resulted in defendant missing both statutory deadlines, defendant's multiple convictions for failure to register violated his right to be free from double jeopardy, because the legislature's use of "any" in Subsection P indicates that it contemplated that more than one violation may occur within a given period of non-compliance before the offender next registers, and expressly stated that those violations are part of a continuing transaction or occurrence such that defendant may only be charged with one offense. State v. Cain, 2019-NMCA-059, cert. denied.

Act does not constitute punishment. — Although the notification and registration provisions under Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act are immediate and automatic, they do not constitute punishment for a crime. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, 135 N.M. 210, 86 P.3d 635.

Registration and notification consequences are collateral. — Sex offender registration law consequences are collateral consequences of a plea and therefore not consequences that require a court, under the due process clause, to advise a defendant of the consequences of registration under Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, 135 N.M. 210, 86 P.3d 635.

Role of court. — The court does not impose Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act provisions or have discretion to modify them in accepting a plea. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, 135 N.M. 210, 86 P.3d 635.

Where defendant was charged with crimes that require, on conviction, registration under SORNA and where defendant pleaded no contest to crimes that do not require registration, district court did not have the authority to include, as a condition of defendant's probation, that defendant provide the sheriff information required under SORNA and to give the sheriff the discretion to process the information under SORNA. State v. Williams, 2006-NMCA-092, 140 N.M. 194, 141 P.3d 538.

Effect of vacated conviction. — Where petitioner positioned petitioner's truck across the roadway to block the path of the victim's car, entered the victim's car and raped the victim; petitioner was convicted of first-degree kidnapping and second-degree criminal sexual penetration; petitioner was required to register as a sex offender; the court of appeals vacated the rape conviction because petitioner's conviction for both first-degree kidnapping and rape would result in double punishment for the same conduct in violation of the double jeopardy clause; petitioner argued that petitioner was no longer required to register as a sex offender; the jury found petitioner guilty of both first-degree kidnapping and rape based on the same conduct; and the elements of first-degree kidnapping were supported by the elements of the rape conviction, petitioner was required to register as a sex offender. Montoya v. Driggers, 2014-NMSC-009.

Effect of dismissed charges. — When a deferred sentence expires and charges are dismissed, a conviction is not eradicated under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978; therefore, the defendant is still subject to the registration requirements of this section. State v. Brothers, 2002-NMCA-110, 133 N.M. 36, 59 P.3d 1268, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 30, 59 P.3d 1262.

Effect of conditional discharge. — A person granted a conditional discharge under Section 31-20-13 NMSA 1978 is not required to register as a sex offender under this section. State v. Herbstman, 1999-NMCA-014, 126 N.M. 683, 974 P.2d 177.

Effect of release from incarceration. — A registered sex offender is required to renew the offender's registration upon release from custody of the corrections department on unrelated charges if the offender returns to the offender's previous registered residence. State v. Parrish, 2013-NMCA-066, 304 P.3d 730, cert. denied, 2013-NMCERT-004.

Where defendant was a convicted sex offender and was properly registered; defendant was subsequently incarcerated in a department of corrections facility on an unrelated matter; on the day of defendant's release from the facility, defendant was given a copy of the department's notice to register form, which defendant signed and which stated that a convicted sex offender was required to register after being released from custody; and defendant returned to defendant's registered residence, defendant was required to register upon release from custody. State v. Parrish, 2013-NMCA-066, 304 P.3d 730, cert. denied, 2013-NMCERT-004.

29-11A-4.1. Procedures when a sex offender moves from New Mexico to another state.

A. If a sex offender intends to move from New Mexico to another state, no later than thirty days prior to moving to the other state, he shall:

(1) notify the county sheriff of the county he resides in that he is moving to the other state; and

(2) provide the county sheriff with a written notice that identifies the state to which the sex offender is moving.

B. Within five days of receiving a sex offender's written notice of intent to move to another state, the county sheriff shall transmit that information to the department of public safety. Within five days of receiving that information from a county sheriff, the department shall contact the state agency responsible for registering sex offenders in the state to which the sex offender is moving. The department shall provide that state agency with registration information regarding the sex offender. The department shall also obtain information regarding registration requirements for sex offenders in the state to which the sex offender is moving. The department shall provide the sex offender with written notification of the registration requirements in the state to which the sex offender is moving.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, deleted the former provision in Subsection C that the crime is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for a definite term of not less than one year or a fine of not more than $1,000, or both; and provided in Subsection C that the crime is a fourth degree felony punishable as provided in Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

The initial registration information and any new registration information subsequently obtained from a sex offender shall be forwarded by the county sheriff no later than ten working days after the information is obtained from a sex offender. If the department of public safety receives information regarding a sex offender from a governmental entity other than a county sheriff, the department shall send that information to the sheriff for the county in which the sex offender resides; and

G. The department of public safety shall adopt rules necessary to carry out the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. ANNOTATIONS 2007 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2007, ch. 68, § 2 and Laws 2007, ch. 69, § 6 enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2007, ch. 69, § 6, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2007, ch. 68, § 2 and Laws 2007, ch. 69, § 6 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2007 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

Ho*, 2014-NMCA-038, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-003.

29-11A-5.1. Public access to information regarding certain registered sex offenders; active community notification; internet web site.

A. If a sex offender is convicted of one of the following sex offenses, the county sheriff shall forward registration information obtained from the sex offender to the district attorney for the judicial district in which the sex offender resides and, if the sex offender is a resident of a municipality, the chief law enforcement officer for the municipality in which the sex offender resides:

E. The department shall establish and manage an internet web site that provides the public with registration information regarding sex offenders described in Subsection A of this section, except that the department shall not provide registration information on the internet web site regarding a sex offender who was less than eighteen years of age when the sex offender committed the sex offense for which the sex offender was convicted as a youthful offender, as provided in Section 32A-2-3 NMSA 1978, unless at the time of sentencing, the court made a finding that the sex offender is not amenable to treatment and is a danger to the community. The registration information provided to the public pursuant to this subsection shall not include a sex offender's social security number or DNA information or the identity of a sex offender's place of employment, unless the sex offender's employment requires the sex offender to have direct contact with children. The internet web site shall provide only the following registration information:

(9) read and sign a form that indicates that the sex offender has received the written notice and that a responsible court official, designated by the chief judge for that judicial district, has explained the written notice to the sex offender.

B. The corrections department, a municipal or county jail or a detention center at the time of release of a sex offender in its custody, shall provide a written notice to the sex offender of his duty to register, pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. The written notice shall inform the sex offender that he is required to:

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, provided in Subsection A(1) that the notice shall inform the sex offender that if he does not have an established address, he shall register with the sheriff of each county in which he will live or be temporarily located; added Subsections A(4) through (8) to provide that the notice shall inform the sex offender that he is required to disclose his status when he begins employment or a vocation or enrolls in an institution of higher education, provide notice of any changes in his employment, vocation or enrollment status, disclose his status as a sex offender when he enrolls at a private or public school; provide notice of any changes in his enrollment at a public or private school; disclose his status as a sex offender when he begins employment, a vocation or volunteers his services; provided in Subsection B that a municipal or county jail or detention center at the time of release of a sex offender shall provide notice to the sex offender of this duty to register; provided in Subsection B(1) that the notice shall inform the sex offender that if he will not have an established residence, he must register with the sheriff of each county in which he will live or be temporarily located; added Subsections B(4) through (8) to provide that the notice shall inform the sex offender that he is required to disclose his status when he begins employment or a vocation or enrolls in an institution of higher education, provide notice of any changes in his employment, vocation or enrollment status, disclose his status as a sex offender when he enrolls at a private or public school; provide notice of any changes in his enrollment at a public or private school; disclose his status as a sex offender when he begins employment, a vocation or volunteers his services; provided in Subsection B(9) that the sex offender shall sign a form that he has received the notice and that a responsible municipal or county jail official or detention center official has explained the notice to him; and provided in Subsection C that a municipal or county jail or a detention center shall provide notification to the sheriff of the county in which the sex offender is released and to the department.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, rewrote Subsections A and B, adding Paragraphs (1) to (4); designated the former last sentence in Subsection B as present Subsection C and redesignated former Subsection C as present Subsection D, in present Subsection C, added "and to the department of public safety" at the end; and, in Subsection D, substituted "notice" for "notification".

Applicability. — Laws 2000, ch. 8, § 9 made the provisions of this 2000 version of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act applicable to persons convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 1995 and to persons convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 1995 and who, on July 1, 1995, were incarcerated, on probation or on parole.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and Notification" in Subsections A, B, and C, and substituted "convicted" for "adjudicated guilty" in Subsection A.

Conditional discharge. — Notice requiring defendant to register as a sex offender pursuant to this section did not need to be placed in a conditional discharge order. State v. Herbstman, 1999-NMCA-014, 126 N.M. 683, 974 P.2d 177.

Jurisdiction of district court. — Under its broad grant of jurisdiction and under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978, a district court has jurisdiction to determine whether a defendant is a sex offender and to give the defendant written notice of the registration requirements under this section; however, the court is not authorized to order defendant to comply with the registration requirement, that is a statutorily mandated duty under Section 29-11A-4 NMSA 1978. State v. Brothers, 2002-NMCA-110, 133 N.M. 36, 59 P.3d 1268, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 30, 59 P.3d 1262.

Failure to advise a defendant of collateral sex offender registration requirements is per se deficient performance. — A defense attorney's failure to advise a defendant entering into a plea which requires Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act registration of that consequence is per se deficient performance under the first prong of the Strickland test. State v. Trammell, 2016-NMSC-030, rev'g 2014-NMCA-107, 336 P.3d 977.

Where defendant, who stole a truck, unaware that there was a twelve-year-old boy in the back seat, pleaded guilty to false imprisonment of a minor, which at the time was a sex offense requiring registration under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA), and where, prior to defendant's plea, defense counsel failed to advise defendant of the SORNA registration consequences of his guilty plea, defendant's attorney's performance was per se deficient, because the failure to advise a defendant of collateral SORNA registration requirements has been a well-established prerequisite to the effective assistance of counsel when arranging a plea agreement, but defendant's claim of ineffective assistance of counsel failed, because defendant failed to establish a reasonable probability that, but for defense counsel's unprofessional errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and instead gone to trial, based on defendant's testimony that had he been advised that he was pleading to a sex offense, he would have tried to negotiate a different plea agreement, the fact that defendant received some benefits by accepting the plea, and that the state had a strong case against defendant. State v. Trammell, 2016-NMSC-030, rev'g 2014-NMCA-107, 336 P.3d 977.

29-11A-8. Immunity.

Nothing in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act creates a cause of action on behalf of a person against a public employer, public employee or public agency responsible for enforcement of the provisions of that act, so long as the public employer, public employee or public agency complies with the provisions of that act.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 8; 1999, ch. 19, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and Notification".

Severability. — Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 9 provided for the severability of the act if any part or application thereof is held invalid.

29-11A-9. State preemption; saving clause.

A. The state preempts the field of sex offender registration and notification. Cities, counties, home rule municipalities and other political subdivisions of the state are prohibited from adopting or continuing in effect any ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution or statute on sex offender registration and notification and from imposing any other restrictions on sex offenders that are not included in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. The department, cities, counties, home rule municipalities and other political subdivisions of the state shall not require a sex offender to report or to register more frequently or to provide information not required by the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

B. After January 18, 2005, cities, counties, home rule municipalities and other political subdivisions of the state are prohibited from adopting or amending an ordinance, rule, regulation or resolution on sex offender registration and notification. An ordinance in effect on January 18, 2005 shall continue in force and effect until repealed; provided that the ordinance shall only continue in force and effect with regard to sex offenders who are required to register pursuant to the provisions of the ordinance but who are not required to register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. All other sex offenders shall register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 279, § 7; 2013, ch. 152, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, reiterated state preemption of the field of sex offender registration; prohibited law enforcement from requiring additional registration or from imposing other restrictions; in Subsection A, in the second sentence, after "registration and notification", added the remainder of the sentence and added the second sentence.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 152, § 5 provided that the provisions of the amendments to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act enacted by Laws 2013, ch. 152 are applicable to a person who, on or after July 1, 2013, is found guilty of committing a sex offense.

Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

More restrictive city ordinance not preempted. — The Albuquerque Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act ordinance did not conflict with state law even though the ordinance was more restrictive than state law because the ordinance required a broader class of sex offenders to register than did state law, sex offenders who are required to register under state law are not required to register under the ordinance, and the ordinance required sex offenders to provide more detailed information than did state law. ACLU v. City of Albuquerque, 2006-NMCA-078, 139 N.M. 761, 137 P.3d 1215.

29-11A-10. Severability.

If any part or application of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act is held invalid, the remainder of that act and its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 279, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, § 15 made the act effective July 1, 2005.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

ARTICLE 16

DNA Identification

29-16-1. Short title.

Chapter 29, Article 16 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "DNA Identification Act".

History: Laws 1997, ch. 105, § 1; 2003, ch. 256, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003 substituted "Chapter 29, Article 16 NMSA 1978" for "This act [29-16-1 to 29-16-13 NMSA 1978]" at the beginning of the section.

Constitutionality. — New Mexico's DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is not unconstitutional on its face, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample's subsequent use in a database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant's cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. Const., art. II, § 10. State v. Blea, 2018-NMCA-052, cert. denied.

Where defendant was convicted of multiple counts of first degree criminal sexual penetration and first degree kidnapping involving four separate victims, and where defendant claimed that New Mexico's DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is unconstitutional on its face, defendant's claim was denied, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample's subsequent use under the combined DNA index system database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant's cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. Const., art. II, § 10. State v. Blea, 2018-NMCA-052, cert. denied.

29-16-2. Purpose of act.

The purpose of the DNA Identification Act is to:

A. establish a DNA identification system for covered offenders and persons required to provide a DNA sample pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 [29-3-10 NMSA 1978] of this 2006 act;

B. facilitate the use of DNA records by local, state and federal law enforcement agencies in the:

(1) identification, detection or exclusion of persons in connection with criminal investigations; and

(2) registration of sex offenders required to register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act [Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978];

C. establish a missing persons DNA identification system consisting of the following DNA indexes:

- (1) unidentified persons;
- (2) unidentified human remains; and
- (3) relatives of, or known reference samples from, missing persons; and

D. facilitate the use of DNA records by local, state and federal law enforcement agencies and the state medical investigator in the identification and location of missing and unidentified persons or human remains.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 105, § 2; 2003, ch. 256, § 5; 2005, ch. 279, § 9; 2006, ch. 104, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2006 amendment, effective January 1, 2007, in Subsection A, added "persons required to provide a DNA sample pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of this 2006 act".

Severability. — Laws 2006, ch. 104, § 11, effective January 1, 2007, provided that if any part or application of this act is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, added Subsection B(2) to provide that a purpose of the act is to facilitate the use of DNA records in the registration of sex offenders.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 279, §14, effective July 1, 2005, provided that Laws 2005, ch. 279, §§ 1 through 13 apply to a person convicted of a sex offense on or after July 1, 2005 and a person convicted of a sex offense prior to July 1, 2005 and who, on July 1, 2005, was still incarcerated, on probation or on parole for commission of that sex offense.

Constitutionality. — New Mexico's DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is not unconstitutional on its face, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample's subsequent use in a database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant's cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. Const., art. II, § 10. State v. Blea, 2018-NMCA-052, cert. denied.

Where defendant was convicted of multiple counts of first degree criminal sexual penetration and first degree kidnapping involving four separate victims, and where defendant claimed that New Mexico's DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is unconstitutional on its face, defendant's claim was denied, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample's subsequent use under the combined DNA index system database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant's cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. Const., art. II, § 10. State v. Blea, 2018-NMCA-052, cert. denied.

Constitutionality. — New Mexico’s DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is not unconstitutional on its face, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample’s subsequent use in a database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant’s cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. Const., art. II, § 10. State v. Blea, 2018-NMCA-052, cert. denied.

Where defendant was convicted of multiple counts of first degree criminal sexual penetration and first degree kidnapping involving four separate victims, and where defendant claimed that New Mexico’s DNA Identification Act, which requires all persons arrested for certain crimes to provide a DNA sample, is unconstitutional on its face, defendant’s claim was denied, because weighing the law enforcement need to identify all persons it has arrested for committing a felony, and the sample’s subsequent use under the combined DNA index system database, against the minimally invasive means for securing the DNA sample from a defendant’s cheek weighs in favor of concluding that the search is reasonable under the fourth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the N.M. A person who discloses confidential records or information in violation of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Subsection A of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978.
