

CHAPTER 29

Law Enforcement

ARTICLE 1

Peace Officers in General

29-1-1. Investigation of criminal violations; commencement of prosecution; cooperation; removal.

It is hereby declared to be the duty of every sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable and every other peace officer to investigate all violations of the criminal laws of the state which are called to the attention of any such officer or of which he is aware, and it is also declared the duty of every such officer to diligently file a complaint or information, if the circumstances are such as to indicate to a reasonably prudent person that such action should be taken, and it is also declared his duty to cooperate with and assist the attorney general, district attorney or other prosecutor, if any, in all reasonable ways. Such cooperation shall include the prompt reporting of all arrests for liquor law violations at licensed liquor establishments to the department of alcoholic beverage control. Failure to perform his duty in any material way shall subject such officer to removal from office and payment of all costs of prosecution.

History: Laws 1921, ch. 170, § 1; C.S. 1929, § 33-4433; 1941 Comp., § 40-101; 1953 Comp., § 31-1-1; Laws 1979, ch. 37, § 1.

Plainclothes officer can intrude when he observes truck driven erratically. — This section does not preclude plainclothes officer from making intrusion into pickup truck by opening a door where officer has observed truck being driven rapidly and in an erratic manner and, after reaching truck after it has stopped, has observed that occupant appeared incoherent and lacked understanding of request to roll down window, since such facts warranted the officer, as person of reasonable caution, in opening the pickup door. State v. Ray, 91 N.M. 67, 570 P.2d 605 (Ct. App.), cert. denied, 91 N.M. 4, 569 P.2d 413 (1977).

Sheriff may file complaint without consent of district attorney. — The sheriff may file a complaint against a party for game law violation without first obtaining the consent of or consulting the district attorney. He should, before filing any criminal charge, consult his district attorney, except perhaps in cases of emergency where the sheriff waives a warrant on hearing in order to arrest someone who is believed about to leave the country. 1939-40 Op. Att'y Gen. 39-3257.

When district attorney has authority to appear in court. — The district attorney as chief law enforcement officer has the authority to appear in any case filed before any justice of the peace (now magistrate court) in any county in his district when, in his opinion, the interests of the people in his district require his participation in any case filed before a justice of the peace (magistrate) in said district. 1953-54 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 53-5669.

Liability for failure to take proper actions. — A governmental entity and its law enforcement officers may be held liable, after receiving notice, for negligently failing to take adequate action to protect a citizen from imminent danger and injury because of failure to adopt proper procedures for responding to and investigating a reported criminal act. Schear v. Board of County Comm'rs, 101 N.M. 671, 687 P.2d 728 (1984).

The statutory obligations that officers cooperate with prosecutors and bring defendants before the courts are primarily designed to protect the public by ensuring that dangerous criminals are removed from society and brought to justice; accordingly, as with the duty to investigate crimes under this section, the duties of cooperating with prosecutors, diligently filing complaints, and bringing defendants before the courts inure to the benefit of private individuals, and the violation of these statutory duties may give rise to a cognizable claim under the Tort Claims Act, Chapter 41, Article 4 NMSA 1978. Weinstein v. City of Santa Fe ex rel. Santa Fe Police Dep't, 1996-NMSC-021, 121 N.M. 646, 916 P.2d 1313.

Liability for failure to detain intoxicated driver. — Law enforcement officers may be liable if they fail to detain an intoxicated driver, who then acts with the requisite level of intent to commit a battery while driving intoxicated. Blea v. City of Espanola, 117 N.M. 217, 870 P.2d 755 (Ct. App. 1994).

Immunity from liability for wrongful issuance of warrant. — Police officers and assistant district attorney were immune from liability for alleged wrongful issuance and service of a search warrant which was valid on its face in which court ordered police officers to search for child, take him into custody, keep him safely and make a return of the proceedings on the warrant. Torres v. Glasgow, 80 N.M. 412, 456 P.2d 886 (Ct. App. 1969).

Class of persons to be protected by duty to investigate. — In creating the duty to investigate, the legislature did not limit the traditional tort concept of foreseeability that would otherwise define the intended beneficiaries of the statute; all persons who are foreseeably at risk within the general population are within the class of persons to be protected by the duty to investigate. Torres v. State, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386 (1995).

When any person of the public, regardless of geographic location, is foreseeably at risk of injury by a party reported to be in violation of the criminal law, officers undertaking the investigation of the crime owe that person a duty to exercise the care ordinarily exercised by prudent and qualified officers. Torres v. State, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386 (1995).

Foreseeability of criminal act. — Since it is not unlikely that a murderer would flee the city in which he committed the crime and, given modern-day transportation, that this person would flee across state lines, and since the police knew or should have known that it is possible that a person who kills randomly with no motive would kill again, the harm in this case was not so removed from the conduct of the defendants that the court may say as a matter of law that the victims were unforeseeable; thus foreseeability is a question for the jury to determine by giving thought to, among other things, the time, space, and distance between the alleged failure to investigate and the deaths of the two victims. Torres v. State, 119 N.M. 609, 894 P.2d 386 (1995).

Sufficiency of allegations in complaint. — Allegations in a complaint that sheriff deputies failed to apprehend a drunk driver or investigate a tavern disturbance, and that this failure proximately caused personal injury to the plaintiff's family, sufficed to state a cause of action for negligent violation of a right secured under New Mexico law for which 41-4-12 NMSA 1978 waives sovereign immunity. California First Bank v. State, 111 N.M. 64, 801 P.2d 646 (1990).

Constables may carry firearms because they are peace officers. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-117.

Magistrate or municipal court case may not be continued where appeal filed. — A peace officer who has prosecuted a criminal case in magistrate or municipal court may not continue to prosecute the case in district court after an appeal of the magistrate or municipal court judgment has been filed in district court. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-27.

which the charge may be pending, escape from jail, and any time thereafter shall be found in any county, precinct or demarcation of this state, he shall be arrested and imprisoned again, until the judgment of the court may be had or the sentence fully complied with.

No tort liability for failure to inform out-of-state officials of escape. — In a wrongful death action arising out of the escape of state prisoners, who crossed over into Colorado and killed a resident thereof, the New Mexico State police, who were informed of the escape soon after it occurred and diligently attempted to apprehend the escapees as soon as possible, but who did not inform Colorado officials, did not breach any duty giving rise to tort liability. Wittkowski v. State, Cors. Dep't, 103 N.M. 526, 710 P.2d 93 (Ct. App. 1985), overruled on other grounds, Silva v. State, 106 N.M. 472, 745 P.2d 380 (1987).

Authority of noncross-commissioned officers. — A noncross-commissioned federal police officer has the lawful authority not only to stop a motor vehicle within an Indian reservation, but also to issue the driver a federal traffic citation based on state law. Ryder v. State, 98 N.M. 316, 648 P.2d 774 (1982).

A noncross-commissioned bureau of Indian affairs officer is empowered to stop a vehicle within the borders of an Indian reservation for a traffic law offense and, upon determining that the offender is a non-Indian, to request him to wait until a cross-commissioned BIA officer arrives. State v. Ryder, 98 N.M. 453, 649 P.2d 756 (Ct. App.), aff'd, 98 N.M. 316, 648 P.2d 774 (1982).

Authority of tribal police officer over non-Indian. — A tribal police officer has the authority to stop and issue a tribal citation, and arrest a non-Indian, so long as the Indian authorities promptly deliver up the non-Indian offender, rather than try and punish him themselves. *State v. ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For inapplicability of Criminal Offender Employment Act to law enforcement agencies, see 28-2-5 NMSA 1978.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "twenty-one years of age" for "age of majority and be not more than thirty-five years of age" in Paragraph (2) of Subsection A; deleted former Subsection B which read "Members of the New Mexico state police, including the chief, shall not be over sixty-one years of age"; redesignated former Subsection C as Subsection B; and substituted "department of public safety advisory commission" for "New Mexico state police board" at the end of Subsection B.

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, rewrote Paragraph A(3); deleted "any" preceding "or" in two places in Paragraph A(4); substituted "pass a physical" for "successfully pass any physical" in Paragraph A(5); and in Subsection B, substituted "A" for "No", inserted "not" following "shall", and substituted "a member of the public safety advisory commission" for "any member of the department of public safety advisory commission".

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, added Subparagraph A(3)(b).

When fully qualified individual not appointed as member. — One who is otherwise fully qualified cannot be appointed as a member of the New Mexico state police if his two years of residency did not occur immediately prior to the time of appointment, but such a person can be accepted by the state police as a candidate to attend the recruit training school. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-120 (opinion rendered prior to 1963 and 1967 amendments).

Discretion to terminate officer for not passing physical. — The board (now commission) charged with management and control of the department has the discretion to terminate an officer for failure to pass the required physical examination. This is a continuing qualification and members must pass any reasonable physical examination required from time to time. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Notice and hearing required. — While the board (now commission) may require its officers to submit to and pass any physical examination reasonably required and while the failure to pass may be the basis for a removal proceeding, this is far different from vaulting this section to a power of dismissal at the discretion of the board (now commission) without prior notice and a hearing. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Nepotism provision controls over general statute. — The general state statute pertaining to nepotism (10-1-10 NMSA 1978) is not applicable in regard to the hiring of state police personnel, but rather this section, which pertains specifically to the state police, is controlling. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-114 (decided prior to 1979 amendment).

Prohibited relationship degrees. — It may be said that the officer and his wife stand one and the same, in relation to the collateral line relationship of the wife. This being so, the wife and her brother stand as to one another in the second degree. And continuing one degree further to the son of the aforesaid brother, being also the nephew of the herein considered officer's wife, a prohibited relationship degree exists, e.g., a third-degree separation. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170.

Applicant not considered for state police. — It is not permissible for an applicant to be considered for the New Mexico state police force, whose father's sister is married to an officer of said force. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170.

29-2-7. Commissioned officers; application; procedure.

The New Mexico state police shall cause all applicants for the position of commissioned officer to submit a written detailed application on such forms as the board shall prescribe, and the board shall cause an investigation to be made of all applicants, subsequent to their taking the examination hereinafter referred to, for the purpose of determining the moral character, general reputation and fitness of any applicant, and any such applicant who is found unfit as a result of such investigation shall be disqualified for employment. The board shall by rule prescribe the physical qualifications of applicants and shall require each applicant to submit to a physical examination by such doctors as the board shall designate, and any applicant who does not meet the physical requirements prescribed by the board shall be disqualified for employment. Inasmuch as laws have been enacted providing for retirement, disability and life insurance funds for members of the New Mexico state police, it is the intention of the legislature that no applicants will be appointed who are in such physical condition that the cost of such protection will thereby be increased.

29-2-8. New Mexico state police; commissioned officers; examination.

The New Mexico state police shall conduct a written examination of all applicants for the position of commissioned officer, for the purpose of determining their mental qualifications and knowledge of the laws of New Mexico, and their ability to render assistance in case of accidents upon the public highways, and no applicant shall be appointed a member of the New Mexico state police other than the chief, until he shall have passed such written examination with a grade of not less than seventy-two percent.

29-2-9. Probationary period; length; permanent commission; salary.

All new appointments as members of the New Mexico state police shall be for a probationary period of two years. During such probationary period such new members may be removed or suspended at the discretion of the chief of the New Mexico state police. The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, substituted "except as provided in this section" for "and only on specific written charges filed with the commission with timely and adequate notice of the charges to the person charged and after a hearing on the charges by the commission" in the first sentence; added the present second through fifth sentences; inserted "of his own choice and at his own expense" in the sixth sentence; rewrote the ninth sentence, which formerly read: "In the event the commission recommends to the secretary that the person charged shall be removed, demoted or suspended for a period in excess of thirty days and the secretary so orders, the person may appeal from the decision of the secretary to the district court of the district in which the alleged cause or any one of the alleged causes for the proceeding arose"; substituted "commission" for "secretary" and "commission's" for "secretary's" in the next-to-last sentence; deleted "provided, however, that the chief of the New Mexico state police may suspend members of the New Mexico state police for disciplinary reasons for periods not to exceed thirty days" at the end of the present last sentence; and deleted the former last sentence, which read: "Any member holding a permanent commission thus suspended by the chief has the right to have the suspension reviewed by the commission, but no further review or appeal shall be allowed."

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, inserted "; appeal" in the section heading; added the subsection designations; in Subsection B, substituted "rules" for "regulations"; in Subsection C, deleted "so" following "person"; and rewrote Subsection D.

Physical inability to perform constitutes voluntary resignation not governed by section. — Request by officer injured in line of duty who had used all his sick leave for leave of absence which was improper under Rule 7, regulatory rule promulgated by state police board, issued pursuant to 29-2-22 NMSA 1978, and his physical inability to perform the functions of his job as a senior patrolman, constituted a voluntary resignation, not a termination governed by this section. *Budagher v. ANNOTATIONS

Board's authority to make rules controlled by statute. — Authority of the police board to promulgate rules and regulations must be found in and is limited by statute. Such authority is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Winston v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967 (1969).

Agency's authority includes express and implied powers granted. — It is a fundamental principle of administrative law that the authority of an agency is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972).

Temporary rank adjustments within scope of powers. — Where New Mexico state police board has adopted a regulation providing that "all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent," and the officers who hold these ranks are given additional salary and emoluments, but these ranks, according to the record, are considered by the board and the department to be temporary, plaintiff's adjustments in rank from captain to major and major to lieutenant colonel were not promotions as such but were temporary advancements within the framework of administration of the New Mexico state police and both chief of police and the board acted within the scope of their authority under the laws of the state of New Mexico in adjusting plaintiff's rank from lieutenant colonel to major and from major to captain. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972) (decided under former law).

Regulation allowing director to shift key personnel. — The procedures of advancement and reduction in rank resulting from regulation providing that all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent enable the chief of police to shift key personnel to positions where their interest and ability are used to best advantage. *Wimberly v. No authority for rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years. — There is no delegated authority for the state police board to promulgate a rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years of service; such rule would be unreasonable, arbitrary and conflict with the former retirement by age 61 requirement of 29-2-6B NMSA 1978. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-72.

And such rule is invalid. — State police board regulation providing for involuntary retirement of all police officers who had completed 30 years of service, even where such officers had not reached mandatory retirement age, exceeded statutory authority of the board and therefore was invalid. Winston v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967 (1969).

Effect of using all of sick leave. — Rule 7 of regulation promulgated by state police board filed pursuant to this section makes it clear that under no circumstances can an officer who was injured in line of duty but who has used up all of his sick leave be granted a leave of absence from the police department, and request for such leave constitutes a voluntary resignation. Budagher v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 82 N.M. 787, 487 P.2d 489 (1971).

Peace Officers' Survivors Supplemental Benefits

29-4A-1. Short title.

Chapter 29, Article 4A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Peace Officers' Survivors Supplemental Benefits Act".

History: Laws 1995, ch. 59, § 1; 2002, ch. 78, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, substituted "Chapter 29, Article 4A NMSA 1978" for "This act".

29-4A-2. Findings; purpose.

The legislature finds that peace officers throughout the state risk their lives daily to protect the citizens of New Mexico. The legislature further finds that when peace officers are killed in the line of duty, their immediate families can suffer grievously, both emotionally and economically. To recognize the substantial public safety benefits conferred by peace officers and in consideration of the sacrifices undertaken by these officers and their families for the citizens of New Mexico, it is the purpose of the Peace Officers' Survivors Supplemental Benefits Act [29-4A-1 NMSA 1978] to ensure that certain supplemental death benefits accrue to the spouse and surviving children, or parents if there are no surviving children or spouse, of a peace officer killed in the line of duty.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 59, § 2; 2002, ch. 78, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, inserted "or parents if there are no surviving children or spouse" in the last sentence.

29-4A-4. Fund created.

The "peace officers' survivors fund" is created in the state treasury and shall be administered by the department of public safety. The fund shall consist of all gifts, donations and bequests of money to the fund as well as any appropriations made to the fund. Earnings from investment of the fund shall be credited to the fund. Money in the fund is appropriated to the department of public safety for the purpose of paying death benefits pursuant to the Peace Officers' Survivors Supplemental Benefits Act [29-4A-1 NMSA 1978] and shall be paid out only upon warrants issued by the secretary of finance and administration pursuant to vouchers signed by the secretary of public safety. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not revert.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 59, § 4.

29-4A-5. Peace officers' survivors supplemental benefits; review committee; determination; payment.

A. There is created the "peace officers' survivors supplemental death benefits review committee". The committee shall consist of the attorney general, the chief of the New Mexico state police and the state president of the fraternal order of police or their designees.

B. The peace officers' survivors supplemental death benefits review committee shall determine whether a peace officer has been killed in the line of duty and advise the secretary of that determination. In addition to any other death benefits provided by law, the surviving spouse, children or parents shall be paid fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) as supplemental death benefits whenever a peace officer is killed in the line of duty. The benefits shall be paid from the fund.

C. The benefits shall be paid first to the surviving spouse. If there is no surviving spouse, the benefits shall be distributed in pro rata shares to all surviving children. If there are no surviving children or spouse, benefits shall be distributed to the surviving parents of the peace officer.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 59, § 5; 2002, ch. 78, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, inserted "or parents" in the second sentence of Subsection B; and added the last sentence in Subsection C.

Applicability. — Laws 2002, ch. 78, § 9, provides that the provisions of this act regarding benefits provided to the spouses, children and parents of peace officers killed in the line of duty apply to peace officers killed in the line of duty since January 1, 2001.

29-6-2. Board of directors; elections [; commissions as emergency and voluntary state police].

A. The control, management, supervision and power of internal organization is vested in a board of directors composed of not less than one member from each troop of the New Mexico mounted patrol elected by the members of the organization to serve for a term of two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The first election hereunder shall be held and conducted at such time and pursuant to such rules promulgated by the governor. Succeeding elections shall be pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the qualified and active board of directors.

B. The director of the New Mexico state police [division of the department] may, at the expense of members of the New Mexico mounted patrol, execute and deliver to each member of the mounted patrol proper pocket commissions as emergency and voluntary state police, the same to be effective only upon specific request of the New Mexico state police in each instance of service. Such commissions shall bear the written approval of the governor of New Mexico; such commissions shall automatically expire and new ones issued and delivered upon each change in the directorship of the New Mexico state police or the governorship.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1103, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 3; 1951, ch. 49, § 1; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-3; Laws 1979, ch. 327, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed language "division of the department" in Subsection B was inserted by the compiler. See 29-2-1 and 29-2-1.1 NMSA 1978. The bracketed material was not enacted by the legislature and is not a part of the law.

29-6-3. [Duties of board of directors.]

The board of directors shall be empowered to make rules and regulations for the government, control, management, supervision and internal organization of the New Mexico mounted patrol and to provide for the selection of troopers and for such officers and noncommissioned officers as may be necessary from time to time to command the various units or troops.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1105, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 5; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-5.

ANNOTATIONS

Legislative intent that patrol perform voluntarily. — Since no provision is found relating to the salaries or other compensation for services rendered, it must be concluded as the legislative intent that all members of the patrol were to perform in a voluntary and honorary capacity only. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

Power to arrest same as private citizen. — Unless called in specific instances to assist law enforcement officers, officer's power to arrest is no different than that of a private citizen. Throughout the statutes it is seen that authority to arrest, other than as a private citizen, exists only when there is a specific request from regular law enforcement officers. And it is further apparent that when called upon to assist law enforcement agencies that patrol's conduct shall be under their direction and control. The commission which is issued can, of course, have no more force than the authority given by the statutes under which that commission is issued. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6350.

Uniform unnecessary to exercise authority. — It is not necessary that mounted patrol be in uniform in order to exercise the authority which it has. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6350.

Extra-hazardous duty not performed under color of employment agreement. — A trooper or officer of the New Mexico mounted patrol, in carrying out duties as provided, is without question engaging in extra-hazardous activities. However, such extra-hazardous duty is not being performed under any color of an employment agreement. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

29-6-4.1. Training and entrance requirements of the New Mexico mounted patrol.

A. The New Mexico law enforcement academy is hereby empowered to approve a basic law enforcement training program for New Mexico mounted patrol members. The academy is authorized to promulgate the necessary rules and regulations setting program standards and record keeping requirements.

B. New Mexico mounted patrol members who began active service prior to July 1, 1983 are exempted from the basic law enforcement training requirements set forth in Subsection A of this section.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29–6–4.1, enacted by Laws 1985, ch. 83, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For law enforcement training, see Chapter 29, Article 7 NMSA 1978.

29-6-4.2. Mounted patrol; applicants; criminal history screening; denial of commission.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "criminal record" means information concerning a person's arrests, indictments or other formal criminal charges and any dispositions arising from them, including convictions, dismissals, acquittals, sentencing and correctional supervision, collected by criminal justice agencies and stored in the databases of the federal bureau of investigation, the national law enforcement telecommunications system, the department of public safety or the repositories of criminal history information of other states; and

(2) "criminal history screening" means a criminal history background investigation of an applicant for the New Mexico mounted patrol conducted by using fingerprints collected by the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency and submitted to the federal bureau of investigation.

B. The New Mexico mounted patrol shall perform a criminal history screening on all applicants for mounted patrol. If an applicant has a criminal record, his application for a commission in the mounted patrol may be denied. If an applicant has a felony conviction or a conviction for a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, his application for a commission in the mounted patrol shall be denied.

C. The chief of the New Mexico state police shall determine whether to grant a commission to an applicant who has a criminal record that did not result in conviction of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude. The chief's decision to deny an application for a commission in the mounted patrol is final and may not be appealed.

D. An applicant for the New Mexico mounted patrol shall be fingerprinted and the applicant shall provide two fingerprint cards or the equivalent electronic fingerprints to the mounted patrol to assist the mounted patrol in conducting a criminal history screening of the applicant. The applicant shall pay the cost of the criminal history screening. The mounted patrol shall not charge the applicant more than the actual cost of the nationwide criminal history screening.

History: Laws 1999, ch. 121, § 1.

29-6-5. Mounted patrol; aid to law enforcement agencies; workmen's compensation.

A. Members of the New Mexico mounted patrol may be detailed to assist and render aid in specific instances involving law enforcement or other matters when request is made for such assistance and aid by the New Mexico state police or other state or local law enforcement agencies. When acting upon such call, members shall be deemed to be the agents or deputies of the authority issuing such request, shall be possessed of the same powers and duties as such requesting authorities and shall be completely covered by the Workmen's [Workers'] Compensation Act [52-1-1 NMSA 1978] if the employer's insurance policy is endorsed to clearly show that its coverage extends to the claimant.

B. For purposes of calculating the amount of any mounted patrol member's disability or death benefits pursuant to the Workmen's [Workers'] Compensation Act, the member's average weekly wages shall be deemed to be the average weekly wages the member was receiving from any and every employer, regardless of whether the member's employment with such employer was covered in fact by the Workmen's [Workers'] Compensation Act. The degree of disability, if any, shall be determined on the basis of the member's disability in regard to such other employment.

C. If a mounted patrol member is covered by workmen's compensation coverage pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the Workmen's [Workers'] Compensation Act shall be his exclusive remedy against the mounted patrol and the supervising law enforcement agency for any injury or death proximately caused by accident arising out of and in the course of the member's duties.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1106, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 6; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-6; Laws 1961, ch. 241, § 1; 1983, ch. 247, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Meaning of "state police". — When the statute refers to the New Mexico state police without any qualification, it grants power to any regularly appointed, active member of the state police to call upon a member of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

State police may call for law enforcement matters only. — The mounted patrol may only be called upon by the state police for matters involving law enforcement, to assist and render aid to the state police, and for other matters related to the function of the state police. The statute does not contemplate calling upon members of the mounted patrol for training purposes, and the state police may not call upon members of the mounted patrol for the purpose of giving training to the mounted patrol. But where the purpose is law enforcement, or to render assistance to the state police in a proper function of the state police, then any member of the state police is authorized to call out members of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

When no actual emergency exists, a member of the mounted patrol whose assistance is requested by the state police must be furnished the request in writing, signed by the officer making the request. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

No state insurance or compensation plan coverage. — Members of the New Mexico mounted patrol are not covered by any state insurance or compensation plan during periods of service as provided. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

If group insurance is acquired, then classification is as a unit. — For purposes of acquiring group insurance protection, a troop of the New Mexico mounted patrol was classified as a unit or group under former 59-18-16 NMSA 1978. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

29-6-6. [Service upon call of governor.]

The governor shall have the power in case of insurrection, invasion, riot, breach of the peace or imminent danger to call into service the New Mexico mounted patrol or any unit or member thereof. Any and all service under such call shall be under the direction and control of the governor.

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1993, ch. 255, § 6 repeals former 29-7-6 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1988, ch. 58, § 1, and enacts the above section, effective July 1, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1990 Replacement Pamphlet.

Must reach eighteenth birthday. — One who has reached his eighteenth birthday is entitled to apply for, and be admitted to, the New Mexico law enforcement academy, provided he meets the other requirements specified in the section. 1971 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 71-126.

Candidate with general discharge from military may be certified. — A candidate for admission to the law enforcement academy who received a general discharge from the military may be certified as a police officer. In order to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements, the academy should evaluate candidates who have received general discharges on an individual basis. The circumstances surrounding the discharge should be evaluated to determine if the discharge was predicated on reasons which would render the applicant ineligible for certification. In the absence of such circumstances, applicants with general discharges should not be excluded solely because they received a general discharge. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-23.

Health inquiry not necessarily excepted from ADA. — The fact that New Mexico law makes good health a prerequisite for police officer certification does not necessarily mean that inquiring into officer's health and terminating him as a result of his response falls within the "job-related and consistent with business necessity" exception of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 USCS § 12112(d)(4)(A); whether an inquiry falls within this exception is a fact-intensive question, and the existence of the New Mexico law, although it supports such a finding, is only one fact to be considered. Gonzales v. Sandoval County, 2 F. Supp. 2d 1442 (D.N.M. 1998).

Effect of gubernatorial pardon on eligibility of convicted felon. — An unconditional gubernatorial pardon allows a person convicted of a felony to be eligible for certification by the law enforcement academy for permanent appointment as a police officer. However, if authorized by statute or regulation, a pardon felon's character and the acts underline the conviction may be considered in certification or licensing. 1992 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92-09.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-1, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 1.

29-8-2. [Public agency defined.]

As used in the Mutual Aid Act [29-8-1 NMSA 1978], "public agency" includes the federal government or any department or agency thereof, an Indian tribal council, Indian pueblo council and the state or any county or municipality thereof.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-2, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 2.

29-8-3. Mutual aid agreements.

Any state, county or municipal agency having and maintaining peace officers may enter into mutual aid agreements with any public agency as defined in the Mutual Aid Act [29-8-1 NMSA 1978], with respect to law enforcement, provided any such agreement shall be approved by the agency involved and the governor.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-3, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Deputization of city or county officials by state agency. — The environmental improvement division (EID) may seek assistance from city and county law enforcement agencies to enforce asbestos disposal regulations pursuant to the Mutual Aid Act, 29-8-1 through 29-8-3 NMSA 1978, but it cannot deputize city or county law enforcement officials to act as EID agents to enforce the division's asbestos disposal regulations. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-48.

Applicability to gaming compacts with Indian tribes. — The Mutual Aid Act does not in any way pertain to gaming compacts and thus provides no statutory basis for the governor to enter into compacts and revenue-sharing agreements with Indian tribes which would permit gaming on Indian lands pursuant to the federal Indian gaming laws. State ex rel. Clark v. Johnson, 120 N.M. 562, 904 P.2d 11 (1995).

ARTICLE 9 Organized Crime Act

29-9-1. Short title.

Sections 29-9-1 through 29-9-17 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Organized Crime Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 1; 1977, ch. 215, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1981, ch. 234, § 2, repeals Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 9, which had provided that the act shall terminate on July 1, 1981.

Statute not amenable to vagueness claim. — The Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] is not the type of statute that is amenable to a claim of unconstitutional vagueness because the vagueness doctrine is applied when a potential actor is exposed to criminal sanctions without a fair warning as to the nature of a proscribed activity, whereas the Organized Crime Act is not a penal statute: the only sanction that can come from the act is a contempt citation for failure to abide by a court order. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978).

Word "racketeering" does not need to appear in title to Laws 1977, ch. 215, which amends the Organized Crime Act; nor does the title violate N.M. Const., art. IV, § 16, although the 1977 amendment for the first time authorizes the commission to investigate racketeering, since racketeering is reasonably germane to the subject matter of organized crime. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978).

29-9-2. Definitions.

As used in the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 NMSA 1978];

(3) be given a security clearance by an appropriate agency designated by the governor to conduct a clearance investigation.

C. Members of the commission shall be appointed for staggered terms of four years each, three ending on December 31, 1975, two ending on December 31, 1976, and two ending on December 31, 1977. Thereafter, appointments shall be made for terms of four years or less so that the terms of not more than three commission members expire on December 31 of any year.

D. Members of the commission shall receive per diem and mileage as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 NMSA 1978] and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite or allowance.

E. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term by the governor. A vacancy on the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the commission, provided the commission has at least four members.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 3; 1977, ch. 215, § 2.

29-9-4. Purpose of commission.

The purpose of the commission is to forestall, check and prevent the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico by:

A. investigating the extent to which organized crime and racketeering has or has not infiltrated and encroached into private and public affairs within New Mexico;

B. investigating those conditions, including the effectiveness of the execution and enforcement of the laws and the conduct of public officers and employees, which may lead to, or may have led to, the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico; and

C. reporting to the proper authorities and making public as authorized by this act [29-9-1 NMSA 1978] the results of its investigations and recommending corrective measures and improvements.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3.1, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 3.

29-9-5. Powers and duties of commission.

(1) assess and evaluate the activities and problems involving organized crime within New Mexico;

(2) develop a comprehensive plan for the suppression and control of organized crime in New Mexico and its encroachment into the state;

(3) recommend programs to combat organized crime;

(4) examine matters relating to law enforcement extending across the boundaries of the state into other states and consult and exchange information with officers and agencies of other states with respect to law enforcement problems of mutual concern in regard to organized crime;

(5) make an annual report to the governor and legislature which shall include its recommendations concerning matters within its jurisdiction and authority;

(6) keep the public informed as to the operation of organized crime and the problems of criminal law enforcement in New Mexico as they relate to organized crime by such means and to such extent as it deems appropriate;

(7) advise and assist, upon request, the attorney general, a district attorney or any other law enforcement official in the performance of his official powers and duties;

(8) cooperate with departments and officers of the federal government in the suppression of organized crime; and

B. The commission shall conduct investigations as are necessary to carry out the purpose of the commission pursuant to Section 29-9-4 NMSA 1978.

C. The commission is authorized to:

(1) empower its staff to conduct any investigation authorized by this section and to maintain offices and hold meetings and functions at any place within New Mexico as it may deem necessary;

(2) conduct private and public hearings and designate one or more commission members or staff members to preside over any such hearings; provided staff members shall be without vote in such hearings;

(3) receive testimony from witnesses, request their attendance, examine them and request production of any books, records, documents or other evidence as it may deem relevant or material to an investigation. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission;

(4) administer oaths or affirmations; examine witnesses under oath or affirmation; and subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance before the commission and require them to produce before the commission any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation. No subpoena shall be issued without the adoption and acknowledgment, by resolution of five members of the commission, and further provided that a copy of said resolution with acknowledgments be attached to any and all subpoenas issued by the commission. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers, pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission. If any person subpoenaed pursuant to this section neglects or refuses to obey the command of the subpoena, any district court may, on proof by affidavit of service of the subpoena and of refusal or neglect by the person to obey the command of the subpoena, issue an order for the person to appear immediately before the court, which is authorized to proceed against the person as for a contempt of court. At any time before the return date of the subpoena, the person subpoenaed may file a petition to set aside the subpoena, modify the subpoena, or extend the return date thereon in the district court of any county in which the commission has an office or the district court of the county to which the person is subpoenaed to appear, and the court upon a showing of good cause may set aside the subpoena, modify it or extend the return date of the subpoena;

(5) petition a district court ex parte to order the attendance of witnesses before the commission and the production before the commission of any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation, where it appears that the witness resides outside the state, may imminently depart the state or may secrete himself to avoid attendance before the commission or to avoid other lawful process. A witness may challenge execution of the order by filing a motion to quash the order with the district court before the return date named in the order;

(6) any and all proceedings brought before the court pursuant to Paragraphs 4 and 5 of this section, regarding subpoenas, shall be conducted in camera and shall be kept under the seal of the court.

D. Every witness appearing before the commission may request to be examined in private. Upon such request, the witness's testimony shall be in private with no persons present other than members of the commission, members of the commission's staff and the witness. The testimony and other evidence may be disseminated to law enforcement agencies as deemed proper by the commission but the content or details of the testimony and records produced by the witness shall not be made public, except that the commission, without disclosing the name of the witness, may issue a public report summarizing information obtained from its private hearings for the purpose of informing the public and its officials of the extent to which organized crime has infiltrated New Mexico and conditions which may lead to the infiltration of organized crime.

E. The commission shall not take testimony at a public hearing unless at least four of its members are present, or unless at least two members of the commission and at least two staff members are present. The commission shall not take testimony at a private hearing unless at least one of its members is present.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For divisions of the corrections department, see 9-3-3 NMSA 1978.

Administrative subpoenas not subject to fourth amendment. — The commission is an investigatory rather than an accusatory body, and, therefore, its subpoenas are administrative subpoenas. Administrative subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, are not subject to the search and seizure provisions of the fourth amendment of the United States constitution. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978)(decided before 1979 amendment).

Requirements for lawful subpoena. — In order to obtain a subpoena, the commission must show, and the district court must decide, that the investigation is within the power of the commission, the subpoena is definite enough and the material sought is reasonably relevant to the purpose of the investigation; what is reasonably relevant depends on the nature and purpose of the investigation, and relevancy cannot be determined in the absence of a stated purpose. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978)(decided before 1979 amendment).

Right to challenge subpoena. — After a subpoena is issued the individual or institution upon whom it is served has an opportunity to challenge it. Since the subpoenas issued under the Organized Crime Act (29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978) ask only for voluntary compliance, and the commission is authorized to go to district court to seek enforcement, the legislature must have contemplated that the subpoenaed person would be allowed to show at that hearing why the subpoena should not be enforced. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978)(decided before 1979 amendment).

29-9-7. Construction.

Nothing contained in the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] shall be construed to supersede, repeal or limit any power, duty or function of the executive department, or any agency of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, conferred by law.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-6, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 6.

29-9-8. Confidentiality; impounding of exhibits.

A. Upon application of the commission, a district court may impound an exhibit marked in evidence at any public or private hearing held by the commission, and may order the exhibit to be retained by or delivered to and placed in the custody of the commission. If impounded, an exhibit shall not be taken from the custody of the commission except upon order of the district court granted after five days' notice to the commission or at the request or with the consent of the commission. Upon the removal from the custody of the commission of any impounded exhibit, it shall be returned to the person lawfully entitled to its possession.

B. The records, reports and files of the commission are not subject to the Public Records Act [14-3-1 NMSA 1978] or Sections 10-15-1 through 10-15-4 NMSA 1978. The records, reports and files of the commission shall not be subject to subpoena except by order of the supreme court of New Mexico.

C. Any person, except the governor or the commission, who discloses information contained in the records, reports and files of the commission or obtained in a private hearing conducted by the commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both imprisonment and fine.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 7; 1977, ch. 215, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Discovery of commission records only by supreme court order unconstitutional.

— The last sentence in Subsection B, allowing discovery of the records of the governor's organized crime prevention commission by supreme court order only, is unconstitutional, as the legislature lacks the power to prescribe and regulate practice, pleading and procedure. In re Motion for a Subpoena Duces Tecum, 94 N.M. 1, 606 P.2d 539 (1980).

Unconstitutional last sentence in Subsection B is severable; the remainder of the organized crime act remains in full force and effect. In re Motion for a Subpoena Duces Tecum, 94 N.M. 1, 606 P.2d 539 (1980).

District courts authorized to hear duces tecum subpoena application for commission records. — The district courts are authorized and directed, upon proper application for a subpoena duces tecum under Rule 1-045 NMRA, to hear and determine whether the records, reports and files of the governor's organized crime prevention commission may be subpoenaed, and, if so, upon what conditions. In re Motion for a Subpoena Duces Tecum, 94 N.M. 1, 606 P.2d 539 (1980).

29-9-9. Immunity from criminal prosecution or penalty.

A. If, in the course of any investigation or hearing conducted by the commission pursuant to the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 NMSA 1978], a person refuses to answer a question or questions or produce evidence of any kind on the ground that he will thereby be exposed to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, the commission may order the person to answer the question or questions or produce the requested evidence and confer immunity as provided in this section. No order to answer or produce evidence with immunity shall be made except by resolution of a two-thirds majority of all the members of the commission and after the attorney general and the appropriate district attorney have been given at least ten days' written notice of the commission's intention to issue such order and afforded an opportunity to be heard in respect to any objections they or either of them may have to the granting of immunity. Upon application of the attorney general or the appropriate district attorney within ten days of the written notice, the commission shall defer the issuance of any order under this subsection for such period, not longer than thirty days from the date of the application, as the attorney general or district attorney may specify.

B. If, upon issuance of an order pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the person complies with such order, he shall be immune from having such responsive answer given by him or such responsive evidence produced by him, or evidence derived therefrom used to expose him to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, except that such person may be prosecuted for any perjury committed in such answer or in producing such evidence, or for contempt for failing to give an answer or produce evidence in accordance with the order of the commission; and any such answer given or evidence produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such perjury, or upon any investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such contempt.

(3) "private hearing" means any hearing other than a public hearing.

B. No person may be required to appear at a hearing or to testify at a hearing unless there has been personally served upon him prior to the time when he is required to appear, a copy of the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 NMSA 1978], and a general statement of the subject of the investigation. A copy of the resolution, statute, order or other provision of law authorizing the investigation shall be furnished by the commission upon request by the person summoned.

C. A witness summoned to a hearing shall have the right to be accompanied by counsel, who shall be permitted to advise the witness of his rights, subject to reasonable limitations to prevent obstruction of or interference with the orderly conduct of the hearing. Counsel for any witness who testifies at a public hearing may submit proposed questions to be asked of the witness relevant to the matters upon which the witness has been questioned, and the commission shall ask the witness such of the questions as it may deem appropriate to its inquiry.

D. A complete and accurate record shall be kept of each public hearing and a witness shall be entitled to receive a copy of his testimony at such hearing at his own expense. Where testimony which a witness has given at a private hearing becomes relevant in a criminal proceeding in which the witness is a defendant, or in any subsequent hearing in which the witness is summoned to testify, the witness shall be entitled to a copy of such testimony, at his own expense, provided a copy is available, and provided further that the furnishing of such copy will not prejudice the public safety or security.

E. A witness who testifies at any hearing shall have the right at the conclusion of his examination to file a brief sworn statement relevant to his testimony for incorporation in the record of the investigatory proceeding.

F. Any person whose name is mentioned or who is specifically identified and who believes that testimony or other evidence given at a public hearing or comment made by any member of the commission or its counsel at such a hearing tends to defame him or otherwise adversely affect his reputation shall have the right, either to appear personally before the commission and testify in his own behalf as to matters relevant to the testimony or other evidence complained of, or in the alternative at the option of the commission, to file a statement of facts under oath relating solely to matters relevant to the testimony or other evidence complained of, which statement shall be incorporated in the record of the investigatory proceeding.

G. Nothing in the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] shall be construed to prevent the commission from granting to witnesses appearing before it, or to persons who claim to be adversely affected by testimony or other evidence adduced before it, such further rights and privileges as it may determine.

H. Nothing in the Organized Crime Act shall be construed to affect, diminish or impair the right, under any other provision of law, rule or custom, of any member or group of members of the commission to file a statement or statements of minority views to accompany and be released with or subsequent to the report of the commission.

Arrest Record Information Act

29-10-1. Short title.

Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Arrest Record Information Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-1, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 1; 1993, ch. 260, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For right to inspect public records, see 14-2-1 NMSA 1978.

For children's code, confidentiality of social and legal records, see 32A-2-32 and 32A-4-33 NMSA 1978.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978" for "This act".

Arrest Record Information Act may be viewed as establishing statutory exceptions to the fundamental right to inspect. It does so, however, in a rather conflicting manner, and it appears that virtually all arrest record information is subject to at least a limited or conditional disclosure. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Article does not authorize expungement. — The Arrest Records Information Act [Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978] does not grant the courts authority to expunge or seal criminal records. Toth v. Albuquerque Police Dep't, 1997-NMCA-079, 123 N.M. 637, 944 P.2d 285.

Identity of individuals arrested or charged with crime not protected. — Neither the Arrest Record Information Act [Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978] nor the Inspection of Public Records Act [Chapter 14, Article 2 NMSA 1978] authorizes a law enforcement agency to protect the identity of persons who have been arrested or charged with a crime. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

Release of timely, accurate information. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not prohibit release of timely, accurate information when a juvenile is arrested for a criminal act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

29-10-2. Purpose of act.

The legislature finds and declares that the responsible exchange of complete and accurate information among law enforcement agencies is recognized as necessary and indispensable to effective law enforcement. Individual rights, however, may be infringed if information is inaccurate, incomplete or is disseminated irresponsibly. The Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 NMSA 1978] is for the purpose of protecting those rights.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-2, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Violation not limited. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not limit the violation of the act to any particular class of persons. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Release of juvenile's arrest information. — A law enforcement agency is not prohibited by the Children's Code (Chapter 32A NMSA 1978), this act, or any other law from releasing to the public the names of juveniles who have been arrested for criminal acts and the charges for which they were arrested. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

29-10-3. Definition.

As used in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 NMSA 1978], "arrest record information" means notations of the arrest or detention or indictment or filing of information or other formal criminal charge against an individual made by a law enforcement agency.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-3, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 3; 1977, ch. 339, § 1; 1993, ch. 260, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, made a minor stylistic change in the section heading, deleted the Subsection A designation which formerly preceded "arrest record information", deleted "which resulted in a negative disposition; and" which formerly followed "law enforcement agency", and deleted former Subsection B which defined "negative disposition".

Section includes both felony and misdemeanor arrest records. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Definition of "arrest record information" does not include investigative reports. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-4. Confidentiality of arrest records.

Arrest record information that reveals confidential sources, methods, information or individuals accused but not charged with a crime and that is maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions pertaining to any person charged with the commission of any crime is confidential and dissemination or revealing the contents of the record, except as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 NMSA 1978] or any other law, is unlawful.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-4, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 4; 1993, ch. 260, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For use of police reports for commercial solicitation, see 14-2A-1 NMSA 1978.

For crimes defined and classified, see 30-1-4 to 30-1-6 NMSA 1978.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "that reveals confidential sources, methods, information or individuals accused but not charged with a crime and that is", inserted "or any other law", and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Penalty provision repealed. — While this section still provides that violations of the Arrest Record Information Act are "unlawful," there are no longer any criminal sanctions for releasing arrest record information in violation of the provisions of the act, since 39-10-7, 1953 Comp., the penalty provision, was repealed by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 6. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Limited protection of accused. — This section protects the confidentiality of information concerning the identity of a person who has been accused, but not charged, with a crime only if that information has been collected in connection with an investigation of, or otherwise relates to, another person who has been charged with committing a crime. However, information in other records which identifies a person accused but not charged with or arrested for a crime may be protected from public disclosure under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. Finally, even if it would otherwise be protected under either statute, information about a person accused but not charged with a crime is open to public inspection if it is contained in a document listed in 29-10-7 NMSA 1978. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

29-10-5. Exchange of information.

A law enforcement agency may disseminate arrest record information to a federal, state or local government law enforcement agency, provided that when the arrest record information is disseminated to a law enforcement agency situated outside this state, the information shall be accompanied by a statement substantially embodying the intent set forth in Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978. Nothing in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 NMSA 1978] prohibits direct access by the attorney general, the district attorney, the crime victims reparation commission or the courts to such information where it is deemed necessary in the performance of their functions under law. Nothing in that act prohibits direct access by a law enforcement agency to automated wanted information pertaining to a person or to stolen property information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-5, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 5; 1977, ch. 339, § 2; 1987, ch. 140, § 1.

29-10-6. Access by individuals.

A. Upon satisfactory verification of his identity, any individual may inspect, in person, through counsel or through his authorized agent, arrest record information maintained by [a] law enforcement agency concerning him.

B. Personnel assigned to contractual research for a state or federally approved criminal justice project shall be permitted access to arrest record information. Approval personnel shall not further disseminate such information except as statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-6, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 6; 1977, ch. 339, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed word in Subsection A was inserted by the compiler; it was not enacted by the legislature, and it is not part of the law.

29-10-7. Application.

A. Information contained in the following documents shall be available for public inspection:

(1) posters, announcements or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;

(2) original records of entry such as police blotters maintained by criminal justice agencies, compiled chronologically and required by law or long-standing custom to be made public, if the records are organized on a chronological basis;

(3) court records of public judicial proceedings;

(4) published court or administrative opinions or public judicial, administrative or legislative proceedings;

(5) records of traffic offenses and accident reports;

(6) announcements of executive clemency; and

(7) statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

B. Nothing prevents a law enforcement agency from disclosing to the public arrest record information related to the offense for which an adult individual is currently within the criminal justice system. A law enforcement agency is not prohibited from confirming prior arrest record information to members of the news media or any other person, upon specific inquiry as to whether a named individual was arrested, detained, indicted or whether an information or other formal charge was filed on a specified date, if the arrest record information disclosed is based on data enumerated by Subsection A of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-8, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4; 1993, ch. 260, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4, repeals 39-10-8, 1953 Comp., relating to the application of the Arrest Record Information Act, and enacts the above section.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, in Subsection A, in the introductory language, deleted "The provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act do not apply to criminal history record", inserted "the following documents shall be available for public inspection", and made stylistic changes; and, in Subsection B, deleted "in this act" following "Nothing" near the beginning of the first sentence and made stylistic changes.

Information to be included in police blotter. — The following information may be appropriately included by a law enforcement agency in a police blotter or original record of entry; the name, physical description, place and date of birth, address and occupation of the individual arrested; the time and place of arrest; the offense for which the individual was arrested or detained; and the name of the arresting officer. This list should be interpreted as a minimum requirement but not to the exclusion of additional information which may presently appear on the initial records of entry or police blotters being used by some law enforcement agencies. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Limited privacy of accused. — Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978 protects the confidentiality of information concerning the identity of a person who has been accused, but not charged, with a crime only if that information has been collected in connection with an investigation of, or otherwise relates to, another person who has been charged with committing a crime. However, information in other records which identifies a person accused but not charged with or arrested for a crime may be protected from public disclosure under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. Finally, even if it would otherwise be protected under either statute, information about a person accused but not charged with a crime is open to public inspection if it is contained in a document listed in this section. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-02.

Repeal and reenactment broadened exemption. — In the repeal and reenactment of this section, the phrase "indexed chronologically" in Subsection A(2) became "compiled chronologically," thus removing the requirement that the records must be "indexed" to qualify as "original records of entry." The phrase "or long-standing custom" was added also, thereby legitimating a long-standing custom by which many law enforcement agencies had released information from police blotters and other such original records. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Meaning of "within the criminal justice system". — While the statute does not specify what is meant by "within the criminal justice system," the term appears to relate to the status of an adult who has been arrested or formally charged with a criminal offense until such time as there is a final "negative disposition." 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-8. Review of arrest record information; appeal.

A person who believes that arrest record information concerning him is inaccurate or incomplete is, upon satisfactory verification of his identity, entitled to review the information and obtain a copy of it for the purpose of challenge or correction. In the event a law enforcement agency refuses to correct challenged information to the satisfaction of the person to whom the inaccurate or incorrect information relates, the person is entitled to appeal to the district court to correct the information pursuant to the provisions of Section 39-3-1.1 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-9, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 5; 1998, ch. 55, § 41; 1999, ch. 265, § 43.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, inserted "; appeal" in the section heading; substituted "is" for "shall"; deleted "be" preceding "entitled"; substituted "the" for "such" twice; substituted "is" for "shall be"; substituted "appeal to" for "petition"; and inserted "pursuant to the provisions of Section 12-8A-1 NMSA 1978" at the end of the section.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Section 39-3-1.1" for "Section 12-8A-1" in the last sentence.

29-11-2. Purpose.

The purpose of the Sexual Crimes Prosecution and Treatment Act [29-11-1 NMSA 1978] is to promote effective law enforcement and prosecution of sexual crimes and to provide medical and psychological assistance for victims of such crimes. Implementation of the Sexual Crimes Prosecution and Treatment Act will serve to assist existing community-based victim treatment programs, to provide interagency cooperation, training of law enforcement, criminal justice and medical personnel and to effect proper handling and testing of evidence in sexual crime offenses.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29–11–2, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 27, § 2.

29-11-3. Definitions.

As used in the Sexual Crimes Prosecution and Treatment Act [29-11-1 NMSA 1978]:

A. "administrator" means the director of the mental health division of the department of health, or such person or office as the administrator may designate to act in his stead;

B. "evidence" means that evidence relating to the commission of a sexual crime;

C. "medical and psychological treatment" includes that medical, mental or emotional treatment provided a victim of a sexual crime. In addition to the improved physical and emotional condition of a victim, the treatment should result in the improved ability of a victim to make informed and rational choices about serving as a witness in the prosecution of a suspect of a sexual crime; and

D. "sexual crime" includes any act which may be alleged to be a sexual offense or an attempted sexual offense under the provisions of Sections 30-9-10 through 30-9-16 and 30-10-3 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29–11–3, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 27, § 3; 1995, ch. 91, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "mental health division of the department of health" for "behavioral health services division of the health and environment department" in Subsection A; substituted "Sections 30-9-10 through 30-9-16 and 30-10-3 NMSA 1978" for "Sections 40A-9-20 through 40A-9-26 and 40A-10-3 NMSA 1953" in Subsection D; and made a minor stylistic change.

29-11-4. Fund created; administration.

A. There is created in the state treasury the "sexual crimes prosecution and treatment fund". Money appropriated to the fund shall be used to carry out the purposes of the Sexual Crimes Prosecution and Treatment Act [29-11-1 NMSA 1978].

B. The funds shall be administered by the administrator.

29-11-5. Sexual crimes prosecution and treatment program.

A. The administrator shall develop, with the cooperation of the criminal justice department [corrections department], the New Mexico state police, the New Mexico law enforcement academy, other authorized law enforcement agencies and existing community-based victim treatment programs, a statewide comprehensive plan to train law enforcement officers and criminal justice and medical personnel in the ability to deal with sexual crimes; to develop strategies for prevention of such crimes; to provide assistance in the assembly of evidence for the facilitation of prosecution of such crimes; and to provide medical and psychological treatment to victims of such crimes. This plan shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) education and training of law enforcement officers and criminal justice and medical personnel;

(2) collection, processing and analysis of evidence which facilitates prosecution of suspects of sexual crimes; and

(3) medical and psychological treatment of victims of such crimes.

The comprehensive plan shall be implemented throughout the state, and the administrator may contract with appropriate persons, entities, agencies or community-based programs to provide the services to be rendered pursuant to Subsection A of this section and may pay a reasonable fee for such services.

C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require criminal prosecution of a suspect of a sexual crime by the victim to whom services are rendered pursuant to the provisions of the Sexual Crimes Prosecution and Treatment Act [29-11-1 NMSA 1978].

D. Training for law enforcement officers in the proper treatment of victims of sexual crimes and collection of evidence and coordination among agencies shall be incorporated in the regular training program for recruits by the New Mexico state police; the basic course taught by the New Mexico law enforcement academy or by other authorized law enforcement agencies. Already-commissioned officers and sex-crime investigators shall receive advanced training through in-service programs.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29–11–5, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 27, § 5; 1979, ch. 202, § 50.

ANNOTATIONS

Corrections department. — The bracketed phrase "corrections department" was inserted in Subsection A by the compiler, as Laws 1980, ch. 150 renames the criminal justice department as the corrections and criminal rehabilitation department. Laws 1981, chs. 73 and 127 rename the corrections and criminal rehabilitation department as the corrections department. The bracketed material was not enacted by the legislature and is not part of the law.

29-11-6. Report.

(2) the victim of a sexual crime is entitled to apply for reimbursement for a period of one year from the date of the forensic medical exam;

(3) reimbursement is provided not later than ninety days after the administrator receives written notification of the expense incurred by the victim for the forensic medical exam; and

(4) all victims of sexual crimes, including victims with limited or no English proficiency, are provided with information at the time of the forensic medical exam regarding how to obtain reimbursement for the cost of the exam.

ARTICLE 11A

Sex Offender Registration and Notification

29-11A-1. Short title.

Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act".

History: Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 1; 1999, ch. 19, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the DNA Identification Act, see Chapter 29, Article 16 NMSA 1978.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Chapter 29, Article 11A NMSA 1978" for "This act" and inserted "and Notification".

1999 amendments did not expressly apply retroactively to convictions occurring before its effective date. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ____N.M.____, 86 P.3d 1050.

29-11A-2. Findings; purpose.

A. The legislature finds that:

(1) sex offenders pose a significant risk of recidivism; and

(2) the efforts of law enforcement agencies to protect their communities from sex offenders are impaired by the lack of information available concerning convicted sex offenders who live within the agencies' jurisdictions.

B. The purpose of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act [29-11A-1 NMSA 1978] is to assist law enforcement agencies' efforts to protect their communities by:

(1) requiring sex offenders who are residents of New Mexico to register with the county sheriff of the county in which the sex offender resides;

(2) requiring sex offenders who are residents in other states, but who are employed in New Mexico or who attend school in New Mexico, to register with the county sheriff of the county in which the sex offender works or attends school;

(3) requiring the establishment of a central registry for sex offenders; and

(4) providing public access to information regarding certain registered sex offenders.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 106, § 2; 1999, ch. 19, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and Notification" in Subsection B, inserted "who are residents of New Mexico" in Paragraph B(1), added Paragraphs B(2) and B(4), redesignated former Paragraph B(2) as Paragraph B(3), and made minor stylistic changes.

Constitutionality of Act. — Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act does not violate either the federal or state ex post facto clause, does not violate either the federal or the state due process clause, and does not violate Article IV, Section 34 of the New Mexico Constitution. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Where a constitutionally permissible retroactive application of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act requirements to defendant made him subject to a probation violation if he knowingly failed to register and if he were found to have committed a felony by failing to register, this does not constitute a legislative act that changes rules of evidence or procedure in a pending case. Therefore, the legislative changes are too indirect, remote, and attenuated to be considered unconstitutional under N.M. Const., Art. IV, Sec. 34. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Retroactive application of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act does not violate the ex post facto clause of the United States Constitution. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Retroactive application of Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act does not violate the New Mexico Constitution's ex post facto clause. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Balancing the risk of harm to citizens against the potential for harm to offenders who may be able to present evidence that they are not a likely recidivist or a current danger to society, Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act represents a legislative choice to err on the side of protecting society. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

The State's interest in attempting to protect society from convicted sex offenders who pose a significant risk of recidivism is both legitimate and compelling. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Purpose and principal effect of notification provisions are to inform the public for its own safety, not to punish or stigmatize and ostracize the offender, State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act provides no individualized risk-assessment hearing on the question of recidivism. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act is part of New Mexico's law enforcement code and not part of the criminal code. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Legislative intent. — Legislature's intent in enacting Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act was to enact a civil, remedial, regulatory, nonpunitive law. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Notification provisions pass constitutional muster because they are rationally related to a legitimate governmental interest, purpose, and goal. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Legislature carefully considered crimes that should trigger notification provisions and limited those crimes to outrageous sexual or sexually oriented conduct aimed at children and other outrageous sexual conduct accompanied by particularly heinous behavior. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act establishes irrebuttable presumption that all persons convicted of the notification triggering sex offenses pose a significant risk of recidivism, thereby classifying those people for the burden of notification, without providing for an individualized hearing to determine the individual merit of an offender's claim not to be a recidivist. State v. Druktenis, 2004-NMCA-032, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 1050.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, in Subsection B substituted "ten days" for "thirty days" in the first sentence and "ten days" for "forty-five days" in the second sentence; substituted "he" for "the sex offender" in Paragraph B(1); added present Subsections C, D, and H; and redesignated former Subsections C through E, F, and G as Subsections E through G, I, and J, respectively.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, inserted "registration" near the end of the introductory paragraph in Subsection B and near the end of Subsection D; rewrote Subsection H, which formerly read "Following his initial registration pursuant to the provisions of this section, a sex offender shall annually renew his registration with the county sheriff prior to December 31 of each subsequent calendar year"; and substituted "fourth degree felony and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978" for "misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment for a definite term less than one year or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or both" in Subsections I and J.

No violation of due process. — Court's failure to advise defendant, at the time of his plea, of sex offender registration consequences under New Mexico's Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act did not violate due process of law. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act is primarily remedial in purpose and effect. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

And does not constitute punishment. — Although the notification and registration provisions under Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act are immediate and automatic, they do not constitute punishment for a crime. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

Registration and notification consequences are collateral, not direct, consequences of a plea of guilty. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

Sex offender registration law consequences are collateral consequences of a plea and therefore not consequences that require a court, under the due process clause, to advise a defendant of the consequences of registration under Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, ___ P.3d ___.

Role of court. — The court does not impose Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act provisions or have discretion to modify them in accepting a plea. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

Sex offender registration is not a duty imposed by the court and is out of the control of the court. State v. Moore, 2004-NMCA-035, ___ N.M. ___, 86 P.3d 635.

Effect of dismissed charges. — When a deferred sentence expires and charges are dismissed, a conviction is not eradicated under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, 29-11A-1 through 29-11A-8 NMSA 1978; therefore, the defendant is still subject to the registration requirements of this section. State v. Brothers, 2002-NMCA-110, 133 N.M. 36, 59 P.3d 1268, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 30, 59 P.3d 1262 (2002).

Effect of conditional discharge. — A person granted a conditional discharge under 31-20-13 NMSA 1978 is not required to register as a sex offender under this section. State v. Herbstman, 1999-NMCA-014, 126 N.M. 683, 974 P.2d 177.

(2) provide the county sheriff with a written notice that identifies the state to which the sex offender is moving.

B. Within five days of receiving a sex offender's written notice of intent to move to another state, the county sheriff shall transmit that information to the department of public safety. Within five days of receiving that information from a county sheriff, the department shall contact the state agency responsible for registering sex offenders in the state to which the sex offender is moving. The department shall provide that state agency with registration information regarding the sex offender. The department shall also obtain information regarding registration requirements for sex offenders in the state to which the sex offender is moving. The department shall provide the sex offender with written notification of the registration requirements in the state to which the sex offender is moving.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "money" for "funds" and substituted "tribal police and county sheriff's departments" for "county police and sheriff departments".

The 1998 amendment, effective March 9, 1998, substituted "police, university police" for "and" near the middle of the section.

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, inserted "and to sustain at a reasonable level the payments available to the surviving eligible family members of a peace officer killed in the line of duty" at the end of the section.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective March 9, 1998, in Subsection C, inserted "university" near the middle and made a minor stylistic change, and added Subsection E.

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, added Subsection E and redesignated former Subsection E as Subsection F.

29-13-3. Distribution of certain insurance division collections; law enforcement protection fund created.

There is created in the state treasury the "law enforcement protection fund". Ten percent of all money received for fees, licenses, penalties and taxes from life, general casualty and title insurance business pursuant to the New Mexico Insurance Code [59A-1-1 NMSA 1978], except for money received from the health insurance premium surtax imposed by Subsection C of Section 59A-6-2 NMSA 1978, shall be paid monthly to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. On or before June 30 of each year, the state treasurer shall transfer to the general fund any balance in the law enforcement protection fund in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) that is not obligated and that is in excess of the amount certified by the division to be distributed from that fund.

History: Laws 1983, ch. 289, § 3; 1985, ch. 29, § 1; 1988, ch. 96, § 1; 1993, ch. 179, § 5; 2003, ch. 202, § 1; 2004, ch. 122, § 1.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, deleted "law enforcement protection" preceding "fund" near the end of the second sentence and rewrote the last sentence.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, substituted "monthly" for "daily" preceding "to the state treasurer".

The 2004 amendment, effective July 1, 2004, amended this section to change "department" to "division" in the catchline and to insert after "New Mexico Insurance Code" "except for money received from the health insurance premium surtax imposed by Subsection C of Section 59A-6-2 NMSA 1978".

29-13-4. Determination of needs and rate of distribution.

A. Annually on or before April 15, the division shall consider and determine the relative needs as requested by tribal, municipal and university police and county sheriff's departments for money in the fund pursuant to the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

B. The division shall determine the rate of distribution of money in the fund to each tribal, municipal and university police and county sheriff's department as follows:

(1) all municipal police and county sheriff's departments shall be rated by class pursuant to this paragraph in accordance with populations established by the most recently completed decennial census; provided that the population of any county shall not include the population of any municipality within that county that has a municipal police department. The rate of distribution to which a municipal police or county sheriff's department is entitled is the following:

CLASS	POPULATION	AMOUNT
1	0 to 20,000	$20,000
2	20,001 to 160,000	30,000
3	160,001 to 1,280,000	40,000 ;

(2) university police departments shall be entitled to a rate of distribution of seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000)[;]

(3) tribal police departments shall be entitled, unless allocations are adjusted pursuant to the provisions of Subsection C of this section, to six hundred dollars ($600) for each commissioned peace officer in the tribe. To be counted as a commissioned peace officer for the purposes of this paragraph, a commissioned peace officer shall have been assigned to duty and have worked in New Mexico for no fewer than two hundred days in the calendar year immediately prior to the date of payment. Payments shall be made for only those divisions of the tribal police departments that perform services in New Mexico. No tribal police department shall be eligible for any disbursement under the fund if commissioned peace officers cite non-Indians into the tribal court for civil or criminal citations; and

(4) municipal and university police and county sheriff's departments shall be entitled, unless allocations are adjusted pursuant to the provisions of Subsection C of this section, to six hundred dollars ($600) for each police officer or sheriff's deputy employed full time by his department who has been certified by the New Mexico law enforcement academy as a police officer or has been authorized to act as a New Mexico peace officer pursuant to the provisions of Section 29-1-11 NMSA 1978.

C. After distributions are determined in accordance with Subsection A and Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection B of this section, if the balance in the fund is insufficient to permit the total allocations provided by Paragraphs (3) and (4) of Subsection B of this section, the division shall reduce that allocation to the maximum amount permitted by available money.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-13-4, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 179, § 6; 1998, ch. 83, § 3; 2000, ch. 59, § 1; 2002, ch. 78, § 5; 2002, ch. 92, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1993, ch. 179, § 6 repeals former 29-13-4 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1988, ch. 96, § 2, and enacts the above section, effective June 18, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1990 Replacement Pamphlet.

Bracketed material. — The bracketed semicolon at the end of Paragraph B(2) was inserted by the compiler. The bracketed material was not enacted by the legislature and is not a part of the law.

The 1998 amendment, effective March 9, 1998, inserted "and university" throughout the section; made a minor stylistic change in the table in Paragraph B(1); added Paragraph B(2), redesignated former Paragraph B(2) as Paragraph B(3); substituted "as a police officer" for "pursuant to the provisions of Section 29-7-8 NMSA 1978" near the end of Paragraph B(3); and, in Subsection C, substituted "Paragraphs (1) and (2)" for "Paragraph (1)" and "(3)" for "(2)", respectively.

The 2000 amendment, effective May 17, 2000, in Subsection B(1), changed the Class 1 funding amount from $17,000 to $20,000 and, in Subsection B(3), changed the amount for each officer or deputy from $300 to $600.

2002 amendments. — Laws 2002, ch. 92, § 3 effective May 15, 2002, deleting Subsection A(2), relating to the calculation of considerations due to tribal police department under former Subsection C(10) of Section 29-1-11; and in Subsection B, adding Paragraph (3), and redesignating former Paragraph (3) as Paragraph (4). However, this section was also amended by Laws 2002, ch. 78, § 5, effective May 15, 2002, and applicable since January 1, 2001, which would have amended the section as follows:

"A. Annually on or before April 15, the division shall:

"(1) consider and determine the relative needs as requested by municipal and university police and county sheriff's departments for money in the fund pursuant to the provisions of Subsection C of this section; and

"(2) calculate the amount of consideration due a tribal police department pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph (10) of Subsection C of Section 29-1-11 NMSA 1978.

"B. As necessary during the year, the division shall transfer an amount from the law enforcement protection fund that enables the balance of the peace officers' survivors fund to be maintained at a minimum balance of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000).

"C. The division shall determine the rate of distribution of money remaining in the fund to each municipal and university police and county sheriff's department as follows:

"(1) all municipal police and county sheriff's departments shall be rated by class pursuant to this paragraph in accordance with populations established by the most recently completed decennial census; provided that the population of any county shall not include the population of any municipality within that county that has a municipal police department. The rate of distribution to which a municipal police or county sheriff's department is entitled is the following:

CLASS	POPULATION	AMOUNT
1	0 to 20,000	$20,000
2	20,001 to 160,000	30,000
3	160,001 to 1,280,000	40,000;

"(2) university police departments shall be entitled to a rate of distribution of seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000); and

"(3) municipal and university police and county sheriff's departments shall be entitled, unless allocations are adjusted pursuant to the provisions of Subsection D of this section, to six hundred dollars ($600) for each police officer or sheriff's deputy employed full time by his department who has been certified by the New Mexico law enforcement academy as a police officer or has been authorized to act as a New Mexico peace officer pursuant to the provisions of Section 29-1-11 NMSA 1978.

"D. After distributions are determined in accordance with Paragraph (2) of Subsection A, Subsection B and Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection C of this section, if the balance in the fund is insufficient to permit the total allocations provided by Paragraph (3) of Subsection C of this section, the division shall reduce that allocation to the maximum amount permitted by available money."

Because Laws 2002, ch. 78, § 5 was approved earlier on March 5, 2002, this section is set out as amended by Laws 2002, ch. 92, § 3. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

29-13-5. Determination of needs; review.

No later than May 1 of each year, the division shall notify in writing each affected municipal police, university police, tribal police and county sheriff's department of its determination of money to be distributed pursuant to the provisions of Section 29-13-4 NMSA 1978. Any affected department may appeal that determination by filing a notice of appeal with the secretary of finance and administration no later than May 15. If an appeal is filed, the secretary of finance and administration shall review the determination of the division in an informal and summary proceeding and shall certify the result of the appeal to the division no later than June 30, and the division shall adjust its determination accordingly. If no appeal is filed, the original determination of the division shall be final and binding and not subject to further review.

History: Laws 1983, ch. 289, § 5; 1988, ch. 96, § 3; 1993, ch. 179, § 7; 1998, ch. 83, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, throughout the section, substituted "division" for "local government division of the department of finance and administration" and "local government division"; substituted "tribal police and county sheriff's department" for "county police and sheriff department" and substituted "money" for "funds" in the first sentence; and substituted "filed" for "lodged" in the third and fourth sentences.

The 1998 amendment, effective March 9, 1998, substituted "police, university police" for "and" near the beginning of the section.

29-13-6. Distribution of law enforcement protection fund.

A. Annually on or before July 31, the state treasurer shall distribute from the fund the amounts certified by the division to be distributed to governmental entities. Payments shall be made to the treasurer of the appropriate governmental entity unless otherwise specified in Subsection C of this section.

B. The state treasurer is authorized to redirect a distribution to the New Mexico finance authority in an amount certified by the division, pursuant to an ordinance or a resolution passed by the municipality or county and a written agreement of the municipality or county and the New Mexico finance authority.

C. Annually on or before July 31, the state treasurer shall distribute from the money in the fund money certified by the division to be distributed to tribes. Payment shall be made to the chief financial officer of the tribe. If necessary, the fund may be decreased below the level of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to enable payment to the tribes. If insufficient money remains in the fund to fully compensate the tribes, a report shall be made to the New Mexico office of Indian affairs and to an appropriate interim committee of the legislature that reviews issues having impact on tribes by September 1 of the year of the shortfall.

History: Laws 1983, ch. 289, § 6; 1993, ch. 179, § 8; 1994, ch. 54, § 2; 1996, ch. 28, § 4; 1998, ch. 83, § 5; 2002, ch. 78, § 6; 2002, ch. 92, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, designated the existing provision as Subsection A; in the first sentence of Subsection A, deleted "law enforcement protection" preceding "fund" and substituted "division" for "local government division of the department of finance and administration"; and added Subsection B.

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, inserted present Subsection B; and redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection C, and deleted "of each year" following "July 31" in the first sentence thereof.

The 1996 amendment, effective March 4, 1996, inserted "or a resolution" following "ordinance" and "or county" following "by the municipality" in Subsection B.

The 1998 amendment, effective March 9, 1998, inserted "universities" near the end of the second sentence in Subsection A.

2002 amendments. — Laws 2002, ch. 92, § 4, effective May 15, 2002, in Subsection A substituting "governmental entities" for "municipalities, universities and counties" and adding the phrase beginning "unless otherwise specified" at the end of the second sentence; in Subsection C, substituting "money" for "excess money remaining" and deleting "after distributions pursuant to Subsection A of this section are made" following "in the fund" in the first sentence and deleting all references to pueblos in the subsection. However, this section was also amended by Laws 2002, ch. 78, § 6, effective May 15, 2002 and applicable since January 1, 2001, which would have amended the section to read as follows:

"A. Annually on or before July 31, the state treasurer shall distribute from the fund the amounts certified by the division to be distributed to municipalities, universities and counties, and the transfer shall distribute money from the law enforcement protection fund to the peace officers' survivors fund as required in Section 29-13-4 NMSA 1978. Payments shall be made to the treasurer of the appropriate governmental entity or fund.

"B. The state treasurer is authorized to redirect a distribution to the New Mexico finance authority in an amount certified by the division, pursuant to an ordinance or a resolution passed by the municipality or county and a written agreement of the municipality or county and the New Mexico finance authority.

"C. Annually on or before July 31, the state treasurer shall distribute from the excess money remaining in the fund after distributions pursuant to Subsection A of this section are made, money certified by the division to be distributed to tribes and pueblos. Payment shall be made to the chief financial officer of the tribe or pueblo. If necessary, the fund may be decreased below the level of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to enable payment to the tribes and pueblos. If insufficient money remains in the fund to fully compensate the tribes and pueblos, a report shall be made to the New Mexico office of Indian affairs and to an appropriate interim committee of the legislature that reviews issues having impact on tribes and pueblos in New Mexico by September 1 of the year of the shortfall."

Because Laws 2002, ch. 78, § 6 was approved earlier on March 5, 2002, this section is set out as amended by Laws 2002, ch. 91, § 4. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

Providers shall submit a set of fingerprints of applicants and caregivers to the department of health for a nationwide criminal history screening, and the department of public safety shall accept from the department of health such fingerprints for the purpose of conducting a nationwide criminal history screening.

B. The department of health is authorized to promulgate regulations to implement the Caregivers Criminal History Screening Act [29-17-2 NMSA 1978], including regulations establishing a three-year phased implementation based upon provider type; fingerprint submission procedures; fees; confidentiality; timeframes for an applicant's or caregiver's nationwide criminal history screening; procedures for clarifying incomplete or confusing criminal history information; provider sanctions for noncompliance; and employment procedures pending the results of the nationwide criminal history screening relating to applicants and caregivers.

C. No caregiver may be employed by a care provider unless the caregiver first has submitted to a request for a nationwide criminal history screening prior to beginning employment in accordance with procedures established by regulation by the departments of health and public safety or unless the caregiver has submitted to a nationwide criminal history screening and has been cleared within the previous twelve months.

D. The following felony convictions disqualify an applicant or caregiver from employment as a caregiver:

- (2) trafficking controlled substances;
- (3) kidnapping, false imprisonment, aggravated assault or aggravated battery;

No other results of the applicant's or caregiver's nationwide criminal history screening shall be provided to the care provider. Except as provided in Subsection F of this section, a care provider shall not employ an applicant or continue to employ a caregiver whose nationwide criminal history screening record reflects a disqualifying conviction. F. An applicant or caregiver whose nationwide criminal history record, obtained through the applicant's or caregiver's nationwide criminal history screening and other clarifying endeavors of the department of health, reflects a disqualifying conviction of a crime specified in Subsection D of this section may request from the department of health an administrative reconsideration. The care provider may, in its discretion, continue to employ such person during the pendency of the reconsideration. A care provider may employ the applicant or caregiver if the reconsideration proceeding results in a determination by the department of health that the applicant's or caregiver's nationwide criminal history record inaccurately reflects a disqualifying conviction of a crime specified in Subsection D of this section or that the employment presents no risk of harm to a care recipient or that the conviction does not directly bear upon the applicant's or caregiver's fitness for the employment.

G. The department of health is authorized to adopt regulations for the administrative reconsideration proceeding available to an applicant or caregiver whose nationwide criminal history record reflects a disqualifying conviction. The regulations shall take into account the requirements of the Criminal Offender Employment Act [28-2-1 NMSA 1978].

H. A care provider shall maintain records evidencing compliance with the requirements of this section with respect to all applicants and caregivers employed on or after May 20, 1998.

I. All criminal history records obtained pursuant to this section by the department of health are confidential. No criminal history records obtained pursuant to this section shall be used for any purpose other than determining whether an applicant or caregiver has a criminal conviction that would disqualify him from employment as a caregiver. Except on court order or with the written consent of the applicant or caregiver, criminal records obtained pursuant to this section and the information contained therein shall not be released or otherwise disclosed to any other person or agency. A person who discloses confidential records or information in violation of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Subsection A of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978.

J. The department of health shall maintain a registry of all applicants who are disqualified from employment or contractual service as caregivers. An applicant's arrest record information shall not be released except upon request of the applicant as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 NMSA 1978].

L. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section are grounds for the state agency having enforcement authority with respect to the care provider to impose appropriate administrative sanctions and penalties.
