ANNOTATIONS

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Partial, Reasonable or Incidental Restraint.
- III. Proof of Restraint.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Cross-references. - For unfair trade practices generally, see 57-12-1 to 57-12-22 NMSA 1978.

For provision that actions of cooperative associations are not in restraint of trade, see 53-4-42 NMSA 1978.

For cooperative marketing associations not being in restraint of trade, see 76-12-18 NMSA 1978.

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, deleted the Subsection A designation from the beginning, deleted "hereby declared to be" preceding "unlawful", and deleted Subsection B, concerning controlling the quantity, price or exchange of goods in restraint of trade.

Underlying purposes behind both federal and state antitrust laws are same, to establish a public policy of first magnitude; that is, promoting the national interest in a competitive economy. United Nuclear Corp. v. General Atomic Co., 93 N.M. 105, 597 P.2d 290, cert. denied, 444 U.S. 911, 100 S. Ct. 222, 62 L. Ed. 2d 145 (1979).

State's trusts policy subject to legislature's control and modification. - The policy of the state with reference to trusts and combinations in restraint of trade as declared in 57-1-1 to 57-1-3 NMSA 1978 is within the control of the legislature and subject to modification by it. Elephant Butte Alfalfa Ass'n v. Rouault, 33 N.M. 136, 262 P. 185 (1926).

To be violative, contract's object or operation must restrict trade. - In order for a contract to be violative of the statute, it must have been one having for its object, or which would operate to restrict trade or commerce, or control the quantity, price or exchange of article in question. State v. Gurley, 25 N.M. 233, 180 P. 288 (1919).

Mere refusal to sell, in itself, does not provide basis for relief under this section. Rogers v. Consolidated Distribs., Inc., 95 N.M. 467, 623 P.2d 587 (Ct. App. 1981).

Fifteen-year noncompetition covenant in contract for sale of insurance business was not void as a restraint of trade. Bowen v. Carlsbad Ins. & Real Estate, Inc., 104 N.M. 514, 724 P.2d 223 (1986).

Conspiracy to fix prices is per se restraint of trade; this means that the reasonableness of the prices is not an issue, i.e., the "rule of reason" does not apply to per se restraints of trade. State v. Ray Bell Oil Co., 101 N.M. 368, 683 P.2d 50 (Ct. App. 1983), cert. denied, 101 N.M. 362, 683 P.2d 44, appeal dismissed, 469 U.S. 1030, 105 S. Ct. 498, 83 L. Ed. 2d 391 (1984).

Wholesalers may refuse to sell when goods used illegally. - These provisions do not make it unlawful for either a wholesaler or a group of wholesalers to refuse to sell their goods to a firm or individual intending to use them in contravention of law. 1943-44 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 4402.

Tying arrangement exists when a seller conditions a buyer's purchase of a desired product (the tying product) on the buyer's agreement to purchase an undesired product (the tied product); a requirement by a manufacturer that its dealers purchase all of the manufacturer's products is a tying arrangement often referred to as "full-line forcing," while a requirement that only a portion of the products be stocked is referred to as "representative-line forcing." Smith Mach. Corp. v. Hesston, Inc., 102 N.M. 245, 694 P.2d 501 (1985).

Tying analysis should apply even though the business relationship at issue is solely between a manufacturer and a dealer without directly involving the ultimate consumer. Smith Mach. Corp. v. Hesston, Inc., 102 N.M. 245, 694 P.2d 501 (1985).

City ordinance should regulate hotel's solicitation on railroad station grounds. - The practice of a railroad company in excluding from its station grounds solicitors for certain hotels for the benefit of other hotels should be regulated by city ordinance. 1912-13 Op. Att'y Gen. 224.

58 C.J.S. Monopolies §§ 16, 27 to 35.

II. PARTIAL, REASONABLE OR INCIDENTAL RESTRAINT.

Partial and reasonable restraints with consideration are valid. - Contracts only in partial restraint of any particular trade or employment, if founded upon a sufficient consideration, are valid and enforceable, if the restraint be confined within limits which are no larger and wider than the protection of the party with whom the contract is made may reasonably require. Nichols v. Anderson, 43 N.M. 296, 92 P.2d 781 (1939); Excelsior Laundry Co. v. Diehl, 32 N.M. 169, 252 P. 991 (1927).

Therefore some restrictive franchise provisions may be valid. - Franchise agreement prohibiting sale of competing products from a specified location was a partial and reasonable restraint of trade and did not violate this section. Yarborough v. Harkey, 67 N.M. 204, 354 P.2d 137 (1960).

Anti-competition agreement void unless incidental to general or principal transaction. - A naked agreement by one party not to engage in business in competition with another party is in contravention of public policy and therefore void, unless such agreement and restriction be incidental to some general or principal transaction. Its main object must not be to stifle competition. Nichols v. Anderson, 43 N.M. 296, 92 P.2d 781 (1939); Gross, Kelly & Co. v. Bibo, 19 N.M. 495, 145 P. 480 (1914).

Thus refraining from engaging in business valid if subsidiary. - An agreement to refrain from engaging in a certain business or profession within reasonable limits of time and place is valid if subsidiary to other legitimate purposes such as the sale or disposal of property, business or good will. Nichols v. Anderson, 43 N.M. 296, 92 P.2d 781 (1939); Thomas v. Gavin, 15 N.M. 660, 110 P. 841 (1910); Gallup Elec. Light Co. v. Pacific Imp. Co., 16 N.M. 86, 113 P. 848 (1911); Gross, Kelly & Co. v. Bibo, 19 N.M. 495, 145 P. 480 (1914); Gonzales v. Reynolds, 34 N.M. 35, 275 P. 922 (1929).

III. PROOF OF RESTRAINT.

To establish an antitrust law violation, the plaintiff must show a conspiracy or combination among two or more persons and an unreasonable restraint of trade due to this combination or conspiracy. Clough v. Adventist Health Sys., 108 N.M. 801, 780 P.2d 627 (1989).

Mere contacts and communications, or the mere opportunity to conspire, among antitrust defendants is insufficient evidence from which to infer an anticompetitive conspiracy in the context of the denial of hospital surgical privileges. Clough v. Adventist Health Sys., 108 N.M. 801, 780 P.2d 627 (1989).

Must show scheming and attempt to combine with others. - Where contract between distributor and manufacturer is alleged to violate antitrust acts as in restraint of trade, it is not enough to show that the manufacturer has schemed and labored to effect restraint of trade. It must be shown that it has contracted or combined with others to that end. W.T. Rawleigh Co. v. Jones, 39 N.M. 381, 47 P.2d 906 (1935).

Proof of per se illegal tying arrangement. - To prevail on a claim that a tying arrangement is per se illegal, a plaintiff must prove the existence of three distinct elements: (1) a scheme involving two distinct products whereby a buyer must purchase the tied product in order to obtain the tying product; (2) a seller possessing sufficient economic power in the tying product market to appreciably restrain competition in the tied product market; and (3) an arrangement affecting a not insubstantial amount of commerce. Smith Mach. Corp. v. Hesston, Inc., 102 N.M. 245, 694 P.2d 501 (1985).

Prima facie case of per se antitrust violation in tying arrangement was presented where dealer was compelled to purchase tractors in order to obtain windrowers and other equipment, where manufacturer's economic power in tying product was demonstrated by a 30% market share and where amount of commerce foreclosed ranged from $100,000 to $300,000. Smith Mach. Corp. v. Hesston, Inc., 102 N.M. 245, 694 P.2d 501 (1985).

Indictment which shows only large profit alleges no violation. - An indictment under this section or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 alleging a contract whereby another would obtain the selling agency for all broom corn produced by farmers in the vicinity, and would sell it to defendant at $150 per ton, when it was then worth $350 per ton, did not show a violation of the statute. State v. Gurley, 25 N.M. 233, 180 P. 288 (1919).

Allegations insufficient if related only to interstate sales. - Allegations of the proposed counterclaim held insufficient where, even though filed pursuant to New Mexico statutes, they related solely to purchases and sales made in interstate commerce and contained no allegations of an unlawful agreement, combination or conspiracy to restrict or monopolize trade or commerce within the state of New Mexico as required by 57-1-1 to 57-1-3 NMSA 1978. State ex rel. Pennsylvania Transformer Div. v. Electric City Supply Co., 74 N.M. 295, 393 P.2d 325 (1964).

But otherwise if both interstate and intrastate violations alleged. - Assuming, arguendo, that the New Mexico antitrust and price discrimination statutes involved apply only to intrastate commerce, plaintiffs' affidavit accompanying their opposition to the defendant's motions to dismiss averred that plaintiffs complained of unfair competition within New Mexico as well as between New Mexico and Texas distributors, and since the mere fact that plaintiffs' volume had increased would not negate the possibility of actual harm, the motions to dismiss were denied. Ingram v. Phillips Petro. Co., 252 F. Supp. 674 (D.N.M. 1966).

Issue of competition involves questions of geographic proximity and marketing practices. Where one defendant company had distributed entirely through jobbers and with the company itself absorbing any loss as a result of price reductions in the area during the period in question so that all jobbers retained the same profit margin before and after the alleged price discrimination, and furthermore, where the nearest jobber to plaintiff was too distant geographically (54 miles) to be considered in competition with him, it was held that plaintiff itself negated any possibility of establishing a competitive relationship with defendant under either the United States or New Mexico antitrust laws, and that defendant's pricing policies, different from the policies of the other defendants, were inconsistent with plaintiffs' conspiracy count which basically alleged selective price reductions to monopolize the gasoline distributors market; thus, in the absence of any basis for allegations of competition or conspiracy on the part of defendant, the claims against it were dismissed and its motion for summary judgment was granted. Ingram v. Phillips Petro. Co., 252 F. Supp. 674 (D.N.M. 1966).

Transcript must show lack of alleged violator's justification. - Where plaintiff sued board of realtors alleging a combination in restraint of trade, a combination tending to monopolize trade and that he was injured by the alleged combination, but where there was no reference in the transcript to items which tended to show or raise a factual issue as to lack of justification for the board's practices, as was required by former 21-2-1(15)(6), 1953 Comp., the trial court's summary judgment was affirmed on procedural grounds by the court of appeals. Wilson v. Albuquerque Bd. of Realtors, 82 N.M. 717, 487 P.2d 145 (Ct. App. 1971).

Preclusion based on insufficiency of evidence. - Where a plaintiff argued that preclusion should not have applied because he was not given an opportunity in the state case to pursue discovery to prove his conspiracy claims and that defendants intentionally withheld information in the state case, and where the plaintiff maintained that because the state court summary judgment was based on insufficiency of the evidence, rather than litigation of actual factual issues, preclusion did not apply, preclusion still applied; the plaintiff was afforded a full and fair opportunity to litigate his claims, there was no evidence that defendants had fraudulently withheld evidence, and the state court had considered the merits of all the claims. Clough v. Rush, 959 F.2d 182 (10th Cir. 1992).

57-1-1.1. Short title.

History: 1978 Comp., § 57-1-1.1, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 374, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Antitrust Act. - Although this section defines the Antitrust Act as 57-1-1 through 57-1-15 NMSA 1978, Laws 1987, Chapter 37 seems to add 57-1-16 and 57-1-17 NMSA 1978 to the Antitrust Act.

57-1-1.2. Definition.

As used in the Antitrust Act, "person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, partnership, association or any governmental or other legal entity with the exception of the state, except as used in Subsection B of Section 57-1-3 NMSA 1978, and the United States.

History: 1978 Comp., § 57-1-1.2, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 374, § 3; 1987, ch. 37, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, substituted "except as used in Subsection B of Section 57-1-3 NMSA 1978" for "of New Mexico" following "with the exception of the state."

All contracts and agreements in violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 shall be void, and any person threatened with injury or injured in his business or property, directly or indirectly, by a violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 may bring an action for appropriate injunctive relief, up to threefold the damages sustained and costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. If the trier of fact finds that the facts so justify, damages may be awarded in an amount less than that requested, but not less than the damages actually sustained.

B. The attorney general may bring an action under Subsection A of this section on behalf of the state, a political subdivision thereof or any public agency.

C. In any action under this section, any defendant, as a partial or complete defense against a damage claim, may, in order to avoid duplicative liability, be entitled to prove that the plaintiff purchaser or seller in the chain of manufacture, production, or distribution who paid any overcharge or received any underpayment, passed on all or any part of such overcharge or underpayment to another purchaser or seller in such chain.

D. For the purposes of this section, "business or property" includes business or nonbusiness purchases and business and nonbusiness injuries.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's note. - The cases annotated under 57-1-1 NMSA 1978 are also applicable to this section.

Transfer of counterclaim sharing factual questions with other action. - Where an antitrust counterclaim and actions already pending in another district share numerous complex factual questions, transfer of the antitrust counterclaim is necessary to prevent duplicate discovery, eliminate any possibility of conflicting pretrial rulings and conserve time and effort for the parties, the witnesses and the judiciary. In re Uranium Indus. Antitrust Litigation, 466 F. Supp. 958 (D.N.M. 1979).

Both public and private actions contemplated. - The antitrust laws of this state and nation contemplate both public and private actions against those who may have violated them. United Nuclear Corp. v. General Atomic Co., 96 N.M. 155, 629 P.2d 231 (1980), appeal dismissed, 451 U.S. 901, 101 S. Ct. 1966, 68 L. Ed. 2d 289 (1981).

Arbitration inappropriate for antitrust claims. - The public interest in the enforcement of antitrust laws makes antitrust claims inappropriate subjects for arbitration. United Nuclear Corp. v. General Atomic Co., 93 N.M. 105, 597 P.2d 290, cert. denied, 444 U.S. 911, 100 S. Ct. 222, 62 L. Ed. 2d 145 (1979).

Most effective relief is declaring contract void. - Because the New Mexico Antitrust Act does not provide for treble damages as available to federal litigants, the ability to have a contract declared void is the most effective tool provided by New Mexico law. United Nuclear Corp. v. General Atomic Co., 96 N.M. 155, 629 P.2d 231 (1980), appeal dismissed, 451 U.S. 901, 101 S. Ct. 1966, 68 L. Ed. 2d 289 (1981).

Arbitration agreements in void contract unenforced. - The Federal Arbitration Act does not require enforcement of arbitration agreements contained in contracts which are themselves void by operation of a state law which applies to contracts generally. United Nuclear Corp. v. General Atomic Co., 93 N.M. 105, 597 P.2d 290, cert. denied, 444 U.S. 911, 100 S. Ct. 222, 62 L. Ed. 2d 145 (1979).

57-1-4. Organizations exempted.

The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce. No law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade shall be held or construed to forbid the existence and operation of natural gas marketing, labor, agricultural or horticultural organizations instituted for purposes of mutual help and not having capital stock or conducted for profit to the organization or to forbid or restrain individual members of such organizations from lawfully carrying out the objects thereof; nor shall such organizations or the members thereof be held or construed to be illegal combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade under any law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade. No natural gas marketing organization exempted herein shall be organized in such a manner so as to control more than ten percent of the natural gas market. Nothing in this section shall be held or construed to justify any restraint of trade or restriction of competition except such as is incident to the protection and promotion of the interests of the members of such organizations, in view of their situation and circumstances, but such organizations and their objects and the effectuation thereof shall prima facie be presumed to be in reasonable restraint of trade or restriction of competition.

ANNOTATIONS

57-1-5. Attorney general; investigation.

A. If the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person has information or may be in possession, custody or control of any document or other tangible object relevant to a civil investigation for violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978, he may, before bringing any action, apply to the district court of Santa Fe county for approval of a civil investigative demand, demanding, in writing, such person to appear and be examined under oath, to answer written interrogatories under oath, or to produce the document or object for inspection and copying. The demand shall:

- (1) be served upon the person in the manner required for service of process in this state, or, if the person cannot be found or does not reside or maintain a principal place of business within this state, in the manner required for service of process in the state in which the person resides, maintains a principal place of business or can be found;
- (2) describe the nature of the conduct under investigation;
- (3) describe the class or classes of documents or objects with sufficient definiteness to permit them to be fairly identified, if the production of documents or objects is requested;
- (4) contain a copy of the written interrogatories, if answers to written interrogatories are sought;
- (5) prescribe a reasonable time at which the person must appear to testify, within which to answer the written interrogatories or within which the document or object must be produced;
- (6) specify a place for the taking of testimony or for production and designate a person who may be an authorized employee of the attorney general, to be custodian of the document or object; and

(7) contain a copy of Subsections B, C and D of this section.

No demand to produce a document or object for inspection and copying shall contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum issued in a civil proceeding by a district court of this state.

The district court shall approve the demand if it finds that the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person has information or may be in possession, custody or control of any document or other tangible object relevant to a civil investigation for violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 and that the demand is proper in form. A demand shall not be issued without approval of the district court.

B. If a person fails to comply with the written demand served upon him under the provisions of Subsection A of this section, the attorney general may file in the district court of the county in which the person resides or in which he maintains a principal place of business within this state or of the county of Santa Fe if the person neither resides nor has a principal place of business in this state a petition for an order to enforce the demand. Notice of hearing the petition and a copy of the petition shall be served upon the person, who may appear in opposition to the petition. If the court finds that the demand is proper in form and there is reasonable cause to believe that the person has information or may be in possession, custody or control of any document or other tangible object relevant to a civil investigation for violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978, the court shall order the person to comply with the demand, subject to any modification that the court may prescribe. Upon motion by the person and for good cause shown, the court may make any further protective order in the proceedings that justice requires.

C. Prior to the filing of an action under the provisions of the Antitrust Act for the violation under investigation, any testimony taken or material produced under this section shall be kept confidential by the attorney general unless confidentiality is waived by the person being investigated and the person who has testified, answered interrogatories or produced material, or disclosure is authorized by the court. All court records, including docket, application, petitions, motions and other papers filed under this section shall be open to inspection only to the attorney general and the person upon whom the demand for which inspection is sought has been served, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

D. Any person compelled to appear under this section and required to testify under oath may be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel. An objection may properly be made, received and entered upon the record when it is claimed that such person is entitled to refuse to answer the question on grounds of any constitutional or other legal right or privilege.

History: 1978 Comp., § 57-1-5, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 374, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Recompilations. - Laws 1979, ch. 374, § 18, recompiles former 57-1-5 NMSA 1978, relating to limitation of purchases, as 57-1-18 NMSA 1978.

Antitrust Act. - See 57-1-1.1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

Constitutionality of civil investigative demands. - Constitutional restrictions on government searches and seizures do not impose a requirement that civil investigative demands (CID) issue only upon a reasonable cause to believe that the Antitrust Act has been or is being violated. The federal Constitution requires only that for the issuance of an administrative subpoena the inquiry must be within the authority of the agency, the demand must not be too indefinite, and the information must be reasonably relevant to the purposes of the investigation; also, N.M. Const., art. II, § 10 does not require a "probability" showing that the federal constitution does not. Moreover, probable cause does not have the same meaning in the context of administrative searches as it does in the context for searches for evidence of crimes. Wilson Corp. v. State ex rel. Udall, 121 N.M. 677, 916 P.2d 1344 (Ct. App. 1996).

Requirements for enforcement of civil investigative demands. - The attorney general need not show reasonable cause to believe that the Antitrust Act has been or is being violated before a court can enforce a civil investigative demand (CID); this section is satisfied if the attorney general makes a sworn showing that: the attorney general is conducting an investigation to determine whether the Antitrust Act has been or is being violated, the information sought is relevant to the investigation, and there is reasonable cause to believe that the recipient of the CID possesses the information. If the attorney general makes the necessary showing, the person challenging the CID bears the burden of establishing some impropriety in the CID, such as the absence of proper use, the privileged nature of the information, or the unreasonable burden imposed by the CID. Wilson Corp. v. State ex rel. Udall, 121 N.M. 677, 916 P.2d 1344 (Ct. App. 1996).

Summary judgment quashing investigations improper. - A summary judgment quashing civil investigative demands (CIDs) on the ground that the attorney general's purpose in seeking them was improper was not warranted since the evidence raised genuine questions of material fact regarding the purpose of the CIDs. Brewer Oil Co. v. State ex rel. Udall, 121 N.M. 106, 908 P.2d 799 (Ct. App. 1995).

57-1-6. Criminal penalty.

A. Any person who violates Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 shall be guilty of a fourth-degree felony and, for conviction thereof, if a person other than an individual, it shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or, if an individual, imprisonment in the penitentiary for a determinate term of not less than one year nor more than five years, or by the payment of a fine not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or both such imprisonment and fine in the discretion of the court. An indictment must be found or information or complaint must be filed within three years from the time of the violation.

B. No criminal action may be brought against any person for the same violation for which such person has been convicted in a criminal proceeding for violation of the federal antitrust laws.

C. For the purposes of this section, "individual" means a person other than a corporation, business trust, partnership, association or other governmental or legal entity.

57-1-7. Civil penalty.

A. The attorney general may bring an action for civil penalties in the name of the state against any person for violation of Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978. Any individual who violates Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or, if a person other than an individual, not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

B. Any person who fails to comply with a final judgement or decree of a court of this state issued for a violation of the Antitrust Act shall be subject to a civil penalty; if an individual, the penalty shall be not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or, if a person other than an individual, the penalty shall be not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

C. No action for a civil penalty may be brought against any person for the same violation for which such person has been convicted in a criminal proceeding for violation of the federal antitrust laws.

57-1-9. Election of remedies.

The obtaining of a judgement under the Antitrust Act to assess a civil penalty against a person shall be an election of remedies to not bring a criminal prosecution against such person under the Antitrust Act. The institution of a criminal prosecution under that act against a person by filing an information or complaint or returning an indictment shall be an election of remedies not to bring suit to assess a civil penalty against such person under that act.

In order to promote the uniform administration of the Antitrust Act in New Mexico, the attorney general is to be responsible for its enforcement, but he may, on a case-by-case basis, delegate this authority to the district attorneys of the state and when this is done, the district attorneys shall have every power and duty conferred upon the attorney general by this act [57-1-1 to 57-1-3, 57-1-5 to 57-1-19 NMSA 1978].

A. A final judgment or decree in a civil or criminal proceeding determining that a person has violated Section 57-1-1 or 57-1-2 NMSA 1978 in an action brought by the state is prima facie evidence against such person in any other action against him under the provisions of Section 57-1-3 NMSA 1978 as to all matters with respect to which the judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto. This section does not affect the application of collateral estoppel or issue preclusion.

B. For the purposes of Subsection A of this section, "final judgment" or "decree" shall not include a consent judgment or decree entered before any testimony has been taken at trial in a civil proceeding or a judgment based upon a plea of nolo contendere in a criminal proceeding.

B. An action brought under the provisions of Section 57-1-3 NMSA 1978 to recover damages is barred if it is not commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or within four years after the plaintiff discovered, or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have discovered, the facts relied upon for proof of the cause of action, whichever is later. Provided, however, that a cause of action is not barred if it is commenced within one year after the conclusion of a timely action brought by the state under the provisions of Section 57-1-6, 57-1-7 or 57-1-8 NMSA 1978, based in whole or in part on any matter complained of in the action for damages, whichever is later.

A. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 57-1-3 NMSA 1978:

(1) no damages or interest on damages may be recovered under the Antitrust Act from any local government or official or employee thereof acting in an official capacity; provided, however, that in an action for a permanent injunction brought against a local government or official or employee thereof acting in an official capacity, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees may be granted to the prevailing party; and 57-3-13. Laundry service trademarks; registration.

A. Any person or firm supplying clean laundered articles which are the supplier's property, periodically exchanging clean articles for soiled for a fixed compensation, may adopt, register and use a trademark or trade name in accordance with the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978] and reproduce it as a mark of ownership on the laundered articles.

B. To qualify under this section, any person or firm using or intending to use a trademark or trade name for the purpose described in Subsection A of this section shall so notify the secretary of state. Upon the notification, which may be made at the time of application, the secretary of state or his authorized representative shall note the words "laundry service mark" on the application for initial issuance or renewal of the trademark or trade name registration.

The fee for such endorsement of the application for registration is ten dollars ($10.00) payable to the secretary of state. This fee is in addition to any other trademark or trade name filing fee, and is due at the time of initial endorsement and at each renewal of the registration.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-4-13, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 218, § 1.

57-3-14. Laundry service trademarks; penalty.

A. It is a petty misdemeanor for any person or firm, except the registrant, any person or firm having the written consent of the registrant or any person or firm having purchased the articles from the registrant, to:

(1) sell, buy, rent, give, take or otherwise traffic in any articles provided as part of a laundry service bearing a trademark or trade name registered as a laundry service mark; or

(2) obliterate or otherwise conceal or remove from any articles provided as part of a laundry service a trademark or trade name registered as a laundry service mark.

B. The registrant's acceptance of any sum of money as a deposit to secure the safekeeping and return of any articles bearing a trademark or trade name registered as a laundry service mark does not constitute a sale of the articles.

C. The use or possession by any person or firm other than the registrant, without the written consent provided in this section, of any articles bearing a trademark or trade name registered as a laundry service mark is presumptive evidence of unlawful use of, or traffic in, such articles. Any person or any member of a firm, corporation or association which has acquired the articles, by purchase or otherwise, with the registrant's written consent is not required to register the trademark or trade name again, but acquires the same rights and benefits as the vendor.

UNIFORM TRADE SECRETS

57-3A-1. Short title.

Sections 1 through 7 [57-3A-1 to 57-3A-7 NMSA 1978] of this act may be cited as the "Uniform Trade Secrets Act".

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

57-3A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Uniform Trade Secrets Act [57-3A-1 to 57-3A-7 NMSA 1978]:

A. "improper means" includes theft, bribery, misrepresentation, breach or inducement of a breach of a duty to maintain secrecy or espionage through electronic or other means;

B. "misappropriation" means:

(1) acquisition of a trade secret of another by a person who knows or has reason to know that the trade secret was acquired by improper means; or

(2) disclosure of use of a trade secret of another without express or implied consent by a person who:

(a) used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret; or

(b) at the time of disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that his knowledge of the trade secret was: 1) derived from or through a person who had utilized improper means to acquire it; 2) acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or 3) derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person seeking relief to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or

(c) before a material change of his position, knew or had reason to know that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had been acquired by accident or mistake;

C. "person" means a natural person, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision or agency or any other legal or commercial entity; and

D. "trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique or process, that:

(1) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and

(2) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 2.

57-3A-3. Injunctive relief.

A. Actual or threatened misappropriation may be enjoined. Upon application to the court, an injunction shall be terminated when the trade secret has ceased to exist but the injunction may be continued for an additional reasonable period of time in order to eliminate commercial advantage that otherwise would be derived from the misappropriation.

B. In exceptional circumstances, an injunction may condition future use upon payment of a reasonable royalty for no longer than the period of time for which use could have been prohibited. Exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to, a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation that renders a prohibitive injunction inequitable.

C. In appropriate circumstances, affirmative acts to protect a trade secret may be compelled by a court order.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 3.

57-3A-4. Damages.

A. Except to the extent that a material and prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation renders a monetary recovery inequitable, a complainant [complainant] is entitled to recover damages for misappropriation. Damages can include both the actual loss caused by misappropriation and the unjust enrichment caused by misappropriation that is not taken into account in computing actual loss. In lieu of damages measured by any other methods, the damages caused by misappropriation may be measured by imposition of liability for a reasonable royalty for a misappropriator's unauthorized disclosure or use of a trade secret.

B. If willful and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award exemplary damages in an amount not to exceed twice any award made under Subsection A of this section.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. - The bracketed word "complainant" in Subsection A was inserted by the compiler. It was not enacted by the legislature and is not a part of the law.

57-3A-5. Attorneys' fees.

A. The court of proper jurisdiction may award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party if:

- (1) a claim of misappropriation is made in bad faith;
- (2) a motion to terminate an injunction is made or resisted in bad faith; or
- (3) willful and malicious misappropriation exists.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's note. - There is no Subsection B in this section as it appears in the 1989 printed act.

57-3A-6. Preservation of secrecy.

In an action under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act [57-3A-1 to 57-3A-7 NMSA 1978], a court shall preserve the secrecy of an alleged trade secret by reasonable means, which may include granting protective orders in connection with discovery proceedings, holding in camera hearings, sealing the records of the action and ordering any person involved in the litigation not to disclose an alleged trade secret without prior court approval.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 6.

57-3A-7. Statute of limitations.

An action for misappropriation must be brought within three years after the misappropriation is discovered or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been discovered. For the purpose of this section, a continuing misappropriation constitutes a single claim.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 156, § 7.

57-3B-2. Purpose and intent of act.

The purpose of the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978] is to provide a system of state trademark registration and protection substantially consistent with the federal system of trademark registration and protection under the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended. It is the intent that the construction given the federal act should be examined as persuasive authority for interpreting and construing the Trademark Act.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 2.

Trademark Act of 1946. - The federal Trademark Act is codified as 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.

57-3B-3. Definitions.

As used in the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978]:

A. "applicant" includes the person filing an application for registration of a mark under the Trademark Act as well as the legal representatives, successors or assigns of the person;

B. "dilution" means the lessening of the capacity of the registrant's mark to identify and distinguish goods or services regardless of the presence or absence of:

(1) competition between the parties; or

(2) the likelihood of confusion, mistake or deception;

C. "mark" includes any trademark or service mark entitled to registration under the Trademark Act whether registered or not;

D. "person" and any other word or term used to designate the applicant or other party entitled to a benefit or privilege or rendered liable under the provisions of the Trademark Act, includes a juristic person as well as a natural person; "juristic person" includes a firm, partnership, corporation, union, association or other organization capable of suing and being sued in a court of law;

E. "registrant" includes the person to whom the registration of a mark under the Trademark Act is issued as well as the legal representative, successors or assigns of the person;

F. "secretary" means the secretary of state or the secretary's designee charged with the administration of the Trademark Act;

G. "service mark" means any word, name, symbol, device or any combination of these used by a person to identify and distinguish the services of one person, including a unique service, from the services of other persons and to indicate the source of the services, even if that source is unknown; provided, titles and character names used by a person and other distinctive features of radio or television programs may be registered as service marks notwithstanding that they or the programs may advertise the goods of the sponsor;

H. "trademark" means any word, name, symbol, device or any combination of these used by a person to identify and distinguish the goods of the person, including a unique product, from those manufactured or sold by others, and to indicate the source of the goods, even if that source is unknown;

I. "trade name" means any name used by a person to identify a business or vocation of the person; and

J. "use" means the bona fide use of a mark in the ordinary course of trade and not made merely to reserve a right in the mark. For the purposes of the Trademark Act, a mark is deemed to be in use:

(1) on goods when it is placed in any manner on the goods or on the containers or the displays associated with it or on the tags or labels affixed to them, or if the nature of the goods makes the placement impracticable, then on documents associated with the goods or their sale, and the goods are sold or transported in commerce in this state; and

(2) on services when it is used or displayed in the sale or advertising of services and the services are rendered in this state.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

57-3B-4. Registrability.

A. A mark by which the goods or services of any applicant for registration may be distinguished from the goods or services of others shall not be registered if it:

(1) consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive or scandalous matter;

(2) consists of or comprises matter that may disparage or falsely suggest a connection with persons living or dead, institutions, beliefs or national symbols or that may bring them into contempt or disrepute;

(3) consists of or comprises the flag, coat of arms or other insignia of the United States or of any state, municipality, foreign nation or any simulation of these;

(4) consists of or comprises the name, signature or portrait identifying a particular living individual, except by the individual's written consent;

(5) consists of a mark that:

(a) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them;

(b) when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, is primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them;

(c) is primarily merely a surname; provided, however, nothing in this subsection shall prevent the registration of a mark used by the applicant that has become distinctive of the applicant's goods or services. The secretary may accept as evidence that the mark has become distinctive as used on or in connection with the applicant's goods or services, proof of continuous use of it as a mark by the applicant in this state for the five years before the date on which the claim of distinctiveness is made; or

(d) consists of or comprises a mark that so resembles a mark registered in this state or a mark or trade name previously used by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive.

B. A mark is deemed to be abandoned when either of the following occurs:

(1) when its use has been discontinued with intent not to resume that use. Intent not to resume may be inferred from circumstances; nonuse for two consecutive years shall constitute prima facie evidence of abandonment; or

(2) when any course of conduct of the owner, including acts of omission as well as commission, causes the mark to lose its significance as a mark.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

57-3B-5. Application of registration.

A. Subject to the limitations set forth in the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978], any person who uses a mark may file in the office of the secretary on a form prescribed by the secretary an application for registration of that mark setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) the name and business address of the person applying for the registration; and if a corporation, the state of incorporation; if a partnership, the state in which the partnership is organized and the names of the general partners, as specified by the secretary;

(2) the goods or services on or in connection with which the mark is used and the mode or manner in which the mark is used on or in connection with the goods or services and the class in which the goods or services fall;

(3) the date when the mark was first used anywhere and the date when it was first used in this state by the applicant or a predecessor in interest;

(4) a written description of the mark; and

(5) a statement that the applicant is the owner of the mark, that the mark is in use and that, to the knowledge of the person verifying the application, no other person has registered, either federally or in this state, or has the right to use the mark either in the identical form of it or in the near resemblance thereto as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of the other person, to cause confusion, mistake or to deceive.

B. The secretary may also require a statement as to whether an application to register the mark or portions of it or a composite of it, has been filed by the applicant or a predecessor in interest in the United States patent and trademark office; and, if so, the applicant shall provide full particulars with respect to it including the filing date, serial number of each application, its status and, if any application was finally refused registration or has otherwise not resulted in a registration, the reason for the refusal or for not being registered.

C. The secretary may also require that a drawing of the mark or three specimens showing the mark as it is actually used accompany the application and that it complies with the requirements specified by the secretary.

D. The application shall be signed and verified by oath, affirmation or declaration subject to perjury laws by the applicant or by a member of the firm or an officer of the corporation or association applying for registration.

E. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each application.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

Federal trademark holder's rights not always superior to state holder's. - While a generalization has sometimes been made that the holder of a federal trademark registration has rights superior to the holder of a state registered trademark and superior to one who uses a trademark without any registration, this generalization is much too inclusive and is incorrect with respect to certain fact situations. In the first place, if the state registrant or nonregistrant actually was the prior user in the United States, and the federal registrant was the second to use the mark, the superior right lies with the state registrant or nonregistrant. If the state registrant or nonregistrant was the second user in the United States, but was the first user in a certain geographical area with continuous use from at least July 5, 1947, the second user has the prior right in that area. Even if the federal registrant is the prior user of the mark, the state registrant or nonregistrant can continue to use the mark unless he is using it "in commerce within the control of congress." Finally, the second user, whether a state registrant or nonregistrant, is not infringing on the federal registrant's trademark unless there is such a confusing similarity between the marks that consumer confusion, consumer mistake or consumer deception occurs. Whether there is a likelihood of confusion is a question of fact. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-106.

Federal trademarks prevail in interstate commerce. - A trademark registered under the Federal Trademark Law in cases involving interstate commerce will generally prevail over the same trademark registered under the state law. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-45 (opinion rendered under former law).

State trademarks not given exclusive right of use in state. - Trademarks registered under the state statute are not conferred any exclusive right to the use of a trademark in the state. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-45 (opinion rendered under former law).

57-3B-6. Filing of application.

A. Upon the filing of an application for registration and payment of the application fee, the secretary may cause the application to be examined for conformity with the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978].

B. The applicant shall provide any additional pertinent information requested by the secretary, including a description of a design mark and may make, or authorize the secretary in writing to make, any reasonable amendments to the application as may be requested by the secretary or deemed by the applicant to be advisable to respond to any objection or rejection of the application.

C. The secretary may require the applicant to disclaim an unregistrable component of a mark that would otherwise be registrable, and an applicant may voluntarily disclaim a component of a mark sought to be registered. No disclaimer shall prejudice or affect the applicant's or registrant's rights then existing or thereafter arising in the disclaimed matter or the applicant's or registrant's rights of registration on another application if the disclaimed matter is or becomes distinctive of the applicant's or registrant's goods or services.

D. The secretary may amend the application upon the applicant's written agreement, or the secretary may require a new application to be submitted.

E. If the applicant is found not to be entitled to registration, the secretary shall advise the applicant of the reasons for non-registration. The applicant shall have thirty days from the date of notification of non-registration from the secretary in which to reply or to amend the application for reexamination. This procedure may be repeated until the secretary makes a final refusal of registration of the mark or the applicant fails to reply or amend the application within the period specified by the secretary, in which case the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

F. The secretary shall grant priority to the applications in order of filing. In the case of any application rejected because of a prior-filed application of the same or confusingly similar mark for the same or related goods or services, the applicant may bring an action for cancellation of the registration on grounds of prior or superior rights to the mark as provided in Section 11 [57-3B-11 NMSA 1978] of the Trademark Act.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

Authority of secretary. - Under the former act, the secretary of state did not have the duty or authority to review the validity of trademarks or trade names properly tendered for filing. The former act required the registrant to determine whether a name or mark is identical or similar to an existing registration and that he has the right to use such mark or name. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-57.

57-3B-7. Certificate of registration.

A. Upon compliance by the applicant with the requirements of the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978], the secretary shall issue and deliver a certificate of registration to the applicant. The certificate of registration shall be issued under the signature of the secretary and the seal of the state, and it shall show:

- (1) the name and business address;
- (2) if a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, the state of incorporation, or if a partnership, the state in which the partnership is organized;
- (3) the date claimed for the first use of the mark anywhere;
- (4) the date claimed for the first use of the mark in New Mexico;
- (5) the class and description of goods or services on or in connection with which the mark is used; and
- (6) the registration date and the term of registration.

B. A certificate of registration issued by the secretary or a copy of the certificate of registration duly certified by the secretary shall be admissible in evidence as competent and sufficient proof of the registration of the mark in any actions or judicial proceedings in this state.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

Generally speaking, trademarks are subject to assignment or transfer except when such are identifiable as personal to an individual, exempli gratia, an artist's mark or signature. Thus, to enjoy the protection afforded under our registration laws, it would only be necessary that the fact of such assignment be made known to the specific recorder (secretary of state) by filing written and substantiated notice thereof. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-81 (opinion rendered under former law).

Failure to record notice of assignment leaves assignee unprotected. - No period of time is provided for in which the assignee of trademark right must record or otherwise give public notice of the fact of transfer, but also, that a failure to effect such notice leaves the assignee without protection of the law as would otherwise be provided. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-81 (opinion rendered under former law).

57-3B-8. Duration and renewal.

A. A registration of a mark is effective for ten years from the date of registration. An application for renewal shall be filed within six months prior to its expiration in the manner required by the secretary. The renewed registration shall be effective for ten years from the date of expiration of the original registration. The application for renewal shall be accompanied by the renewal fee. A registration of a mark may be renewed for successive periods of ten years as provided in this section.

B. All applications for renewal, whether of registrations made under the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978] or of registrations made under any act prior to the effective date of that act, shall include a verified statement that the mark has been and is still in use and include a specimen showing actual use of the mark on or in connection with the goods or services.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Laws 1997, ch. 197, § 20 makes the Trademark Act effective on July 1, 1997.

57-3B-9. Assignments; changes of name and other instruments.

A. A mark and its representation shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the mark is used, or with that part of the good will of the business connected with the use of and symbolized by the mark. A. In determining whether a mark is famous a court may consider factors such as, but not limited to:

- (1) the degree of inherent or acquired distinctiveness of the mark in this state;
- (2) the duration and extent of use of the mark in connection with the goods and services;
- (3) the duration and extent of advertising and publicity of the mark in this state;
- (4) the geographical extent of the trading area in which the mark is used;
- (5) the channels of trade for the goods or services with which the owner's mark is used;

B. The owner shall be entitled only to injunctive relief in this state in an action brought under this section, unless the subsequent user willfully intended to trade on the owner's reputation or to cause dilution of the owner's mark. If willful intent is proven, the owner shall also be entitled to the remedies set forth in the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978], subject to the discretion of the court and the principles of equity.

57-3B-16. Remedies.

Any owner of a mark registered under the Trademark Act [57-3B-1 to 57-3B-17 NMSA 1978] may proceed by suit to enjoin the manufacture, use, display or sale of any counterfeits or imitations of that mark and any court of competent jurisdiction may grant injunctions to restrain the manufacture, use, display or sale as may be deemed just and reasonable by the court. The court may require the defendants to pay to the owner all profits derived from or all damages suffered by reason of the wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale, or by both payment of all profits derived and damages suffered. The court may also order that any counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of any defendant in the case be delivered to an officer of the court or to the complainant and that the counterfeits or imitations be destroyed. The court, in its discretion, may enter judgment for an amount not to exceed three times the profits and damages and for reasonable attorney fees of the prevailing party in those cases where the court finds the other party committed the wrongful acts with knowledge or in bad faith or as otherwise the circumstances of the case may warrant. The enumeration of any right or remedy in this section shall not affect a registrant's right to prosecute under any criminal law of this state.

Prior good faith use superior to registration. - Prior registration of a trade name under New Mexico's trademark statute does not foreclose another party from acquiring the right to use that name in good faith under the common law, and the trial court's determination that the plaintiff had the exclusive right to use a contested name for his video rental stores was correct, since the plaintiff established a good faith acquisition of a trade name at common law, and his rights became superior to those of the defendant, whose prior state registration was not accompanied by prior use in the market area in question. *S & S Invs., Inc. v. In all towns and cities, where a competitive situation exists, each competitive exhibitor shall have the right to purchase, rent or acquire his or their proportionate part of any announced group, series or annual product of any producer, distributor, or owner or lessee of motion pictures; that in the event two or more competitive exhibitors desire to rent, lease or acquire their proportionate share of the product of any producer or distributor, the division or allotment shall be made by permitting each competitive exhibitor to select a picture alternately from the product of the said distributor in proportion to the number of theaters owned by them. Should one exhibitor own or operate more than one theater in a competitive situation, the theater in which each picture or production is to be played or exhibited must be specified in separate applications for contracts for each theater at the time the apportionment or allotment of the picture or product is made, and the pictures must be exhibited or played in the theater so specified.

In the event an exhibitor in a competitive situation does not elect to purchase or contract for his proportionate part of the product of a producer or distributor, the producer and/or distributor shall procure from the exhibitor a written waiver of his or their right to purchase or rent his or their proportionate share of said product, and said proportionate share shall be allotted or divided among the remaining competitive exhibitors in the competitive situation. All such appeals shall be determined by the corporation commission, with right of appeal to the district court.

After one competitive exhibitor has purchased, rented or contracted for his proportionate part of a product, it shall be unlawful for the producer and/or distributor to sell or lease the remainder of said product to the other competitive exhibitor or exhibitors, on a different playing arrangement or for a less price, for a period of six months. And all pictures sold or leased by producers and/or distributors shall be by written contract, in which the price paid or to be paid, and playing arrangement for each picture sold or leased shall be stated. If not revoked by the exhibitor or disapproved by the producer and/or distributor within the period of twenty days from the date thereof, said contract shall, for all purposes, become valid and binding on the parties thereto. In case of revocation or disapproval on the part of any of the parties, the other party shall be given telegraphic notice thereof within twenty-four hours after such revocation or disapproval, and such revocation on the part of the exhibitor shall constitute a waiver as provided in Section five [57-5-5 NMSA 1978] of this act. The action of one competitive exhibitor shall in no way affect the rights of the other competitive exhibitors in, to or regarding any product.

ARTICLE 5A MOTION PICTURE FAIR COMPETITION

57-5A-1. Short title.

This act [57-5A-1 to 57-5A-5 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Motion Picture Fair Competition Act".

History: Laws 1979, ch. 189, § 1.

57-5A-2. Purposes.

The purpose of the Motion Picture Fair Competition Act [57-5A-1 to 57-5A-5 NMSA 1978] is to establish fair and open procedures for the bidding and negotiation of motion pictures within New Mexico in order to prevent unfair and deceptive acts or practices and unreasonable restraints of trade in the business of motion picture distribution within the state, to promote fair and effective competition in that business and to benefit the movie-going public by holding down admission prices to motion picture theaters, thereby expanding the choice of motion pictures available to the public and preventing exposure of the public to objectionable or unsuitable pictures by ensuring that exhibitors have the opportunity to view a picture before committing themselves to exhibiting it.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 189, § 2.

57-5A-3. Definitions.

As used in the Motion Picture Fair Competition Act [57-5A-1 to 57-5A-5 NMSA 1978]:

A. "theater" means any establishment in which motion pictures are regularly exhibited to the public for a charge;

B. "distributor" means any person engaged in the business of distributing or supplying motion pictures to exhibitors by rental, sale or licensing;

C. "exhibitor" means any person engaged in the business of operating one or more theaters;

D. "exhibit" or "exhibition" means showing a motion picture to the public for a charge;

A "first run" is the first exhibition of a motion picture in the designated area, a "second run" is the second exhibition and "subsequent runs" are subsequent exhibitions after the second run.

57-5A-4. Blind bidding.

A. Blind bidding shall not be required of exhibitions in New Mexico. No bids shall be returnable, no negotiations for the exhibition or licensing of a motion picture shall take place and no license agreement or any of its terms shall be agreed to for the exhibition of any motion picture within the state before the motion picture has been offered for trade screening in the exchange center.

B. A distributor shall include in each invitation to bid for a motion picture for exhibition within New Mexico, if such motion picture has not already been trade screened in the exchange center, the date, time and place of the proposed trade screening of the motion picture in the exchange center.

C. A distributor shall provide reasonable and uniform notice to exhibitors within New Mexico of motion pictures he is distributing.

D. If, within fifteen days of the date of transmission of the invitation to bid, no exhibitor has notified the distributor that it will attend the proposed trade screening, then no trade screening shall be required prior to the acceptance of bids.

If bids are solicited from exhibitors for the licensing of a motion picture within New Mexico, then:

- (1) the number and length of runs for which the bid is being solicited, whether it is a first, second or subsequent run and the geographic area for each run;
- (2) the names of all exhibitors or their designated agents who are being solicited;
- (3) the date and hour the invitation to bid expires; and

(4) the location, including the address, where the bids will be opened, which shall be in the exchange center;

HOTELS

57-6-1. [Liability of hotelkeeper; limitation.]

Hotelkeepers shall be liable to their guests for loss of property brought by such guests into the hotel when such loss is caused by the theft or negligence of a hotelkeeper or his servants, not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars [($1,000)]; provided, however, that any hotelkeeper who shall provide a suitable safe in his hotel for safekeeping of any money, jewels, ornaments or other valuables belonging to his guests and shall notify them thereof by posting a printed notice conspicuously in the rooms of such hotel that such safe has been provided for said purpose, shall not be liable for the loss of any money, jewels, ornaments or other valuables by theft or otherwise which any guest who has neglected to deposit same in such safe, may sustain.

History: Laws 1921, ch. 104, § 1; C.S. 1929, § 67-101; 1941 Comp., § 51-2501; 1953 Comp., § 49-6-1.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. - The bracketed material in this section was inserted by the compiler; it was not enacted by the legislature and is not a part of the law.

This section is not unconstitutional under N.M. Const., art. II, § 18. Weiser v. Albuquerque Oil & Gasoline Co., 64 N.M. 137, 325 P.2d 720 (1958).

Section liberally construed since it ameliorates harsh common-law rule. - This section was obviously enacted to ameliorate the effect of the harsh common-law rule that an innkeeper was an insurer of the property of his guests, and is therefore to be given a liberal construction. Albuquerque Hilton Inn v. Haley, 90 N.M. 510, 565 P.2d 1027 (1977).

Former liability of innkeeper was that of insurer. - Prior to 1921, the liability of an innkeeper for the property of his guests was that of an insurer, and except for acts of God, the public enemy or the guest, he could be held for the value of rings stolen by employees. Landrum v. Harvey, 28 N.M. 243, 210 P. 104 (1922) (decided under former law).

Services offered and facilities available determine status as hotel. - Neither the physical plant nor the name by which the establishment is known controls its status as a hotel. It is the services offered and facilities available that are determinative. Weiser v. Albuquerque Oil & Gasoline Co., 64 N.M. 137, 325 P.2d 720 (1958).

Lodge offering services of "downtown" hotel subject to section. - Where lodge offered service and facilities that one might expect to find at any one of the well-known "downtown" hotels, it meets the definition of a hotel and comes under this section. Weiser v. Albuquerque Oil & Gasoline Co., 64 N.M. 137, 325 P.2d 720 (1958).

Hotelkeeper's liability limited to $1000 for property in his care. - When a guest leaves property with a hotelkeeper at the desk and a subsequent loss takes place, this section clearly and unambiguously states that the hotelkeeper's liability is limited to $1,000. Weiser v. Albuquerque Oil & Gasoline Co., 64 N.M. 137, 325 P.2d 720 (1958).

Section limits hotel's liability even when luggage delivered by airline. - This statute was not limited in its application to property brought physically into a hotel by a guest or his agent, and therefore was applied to limit the liability of a hotel for loss of a guest's luggage which had been delivered to the hotel by her airline. Albuquerque Hilton Inn v. Haley, 90 N.M. 510, 565 P.2d 1027 (1977).

Railroad conductor, renting hotel room by month, was not guest. Horner v. Harvey, 3 N.M. (Gild.) 307, 5 P. 329 (1885)(decided under former law).

57-8-4. [Conditions of issue; registration statement; bond; claims of holders; filing of claims; determination of validity; distribution of proceeds; amount of bond; new bond; registration fee.]

No trading stamp company shall distribute trading stamps in this state or shall redeem trading stamps hereafter issued therein until it has filed with the secretary of state:

A. a statement of registration accompanied by representative samples of its stamps, stamp collection books, stamp redemption catalogues and stamp distribution and redemption agreement forms currently used in this state. Each such statement shall provide the following information:

(1) the name and principal address of the company;

(2) the state of its incorporation or origin;

(3) the names and addresses of its principal officers, partners or proprietors;

- (4) the address of its principal office in this state;
- (5) the name and address of its principal officer, employee or agent therein;
- (6) the addresses of the places where its stamps are redeemable within the state;
- (7) a short form of its balance sheet, as at the end of its last fiscal year prior to such filing, certified by an independent public accountant; and
- (8) unless the principal sum of the bond hereinafter required to be filed [filed] by the company is the maximum amount hereinafter required, a statement of the gross income from its business in this state as a trading stamp company during such last fiscal year, certified by an independent public accountant; and, simultaneously therewith;

B. a bond payable to this state and duly executed by the company and a corporate surety qualified to do business therein, which is conditioned upon the performance by the company of the obligation to redeem trading stamps issued by the retailers in this state, when they are duly presented for redemption by the rightful owners and holders.

In the event the trading stamp company defaults in performing such obligation, all rightful holders of trading stamps of such company shall be entitled to make claim against said bond. Retailers in possession of trading stamps for issuance to their customers shall also be deemed rightful holders entitled to make such claim.

In the event the trading stamp company defaults in the performance of its obligation to redeem trading stamps, any rightful holder may file within three months after such default a complaint with the secretary of state. Upon the filing of any such complaint [complaint] the secretary of state shall forthwith make a determination whether there has been a default. If the secretary of state shall determine that there has been such a default he shall give notice of such determination to the trading stamp company and if such default is not corrected within 10 days he shall publish notice of such default in three consecutive publications of one or more newspapers having general circulation throughout this state and therein require that proof of all claims for redemption of the trading stamps of the company shall be filed with him, together with the trading stamps upon which the claim is based, within three months after the date of the first such publication. The secretary of state promptly after the expiration of such period shall determine the validity of all claims so filed. Thereupon the secretary of state shall be paid by the surety such amount as shall be necessary to satisfy all valid claims so filed, together with reasonable administrative costs incident to the determination and payment of said claims, not exceeding the aggregate, however, of the principal sum of the bond. The secretary of state shall promptly thereafter make an equitable distribution of the proceeds of the bond, less such reasonable administrative costs, to such claimants and shall destroy the trading stamps so surrendered.

The principal sum of the bond shall be as follows:

If the issuer has not previously done business as a trading stamp company in this state, or if the company's gross income from such business in this state during its last fiscal year was not in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000): ten thousand dollars ($10,000); if such gross income exceeded one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but was not in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000): twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000); if such gross income exceeded two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) but was not in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000): fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); if such gross income exceeded five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) but was not in excess of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000): seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); and if such gross income exceeded seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000): one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

On the effective date of each such new bond any and all liability on all bonds previously filed hereunder shall terminate and all rightful holders of trading stamps who shall prosecute their claims hereunder shall prosecute such claims solely against the new bond and only by filing proofs of claim with the secretary of state in the manner hereinbefore provided.

The statement of registration and the bond shall be filed with the secretary of state on or before the effective date of this act and annually thereafter on or before July 1 of each year. The trading stamp company shall pay a registration fee as follows: if the issuer has not previously done business as a trading stamp company in this state or if the company's gross income from such business in this state during its last fiscal year was not in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000): one hundred dollars ($100); if such gross income exceeded one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but was not in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000): two hundred and fifty dollars ($250); if such gross income exceeded two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) but was not in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000): five hundred dollars ($500); if such gross income exceeded five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000): one thousand dollars ($1,000) to the secretary of state at the time of filing such registration statement.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-9-4, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 79, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Domestic corporation issuing own stamps has no duty to file. - A domestic corporation engaged in the retail trade and which issues its own trading stamps only to its customers, and which are redeemable only by it, does not have the duty of filing with the secretary of state the information and the bond required by Subsections A and B of this section. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-126.

Duty of filing prerequisite to doing business. - It is clear from the language of the act (57-8-1 to 57-8-6 NMSA 1978) that no trading stamp company shall distribute trading stamps in this state or shall redeem trading stamps issued within this state until it has filed with the secretary of state, the registration statement required by this section. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-141.

Independent public accountant must certify short form balance sheet. - From the language of Subparagraphs 7 and 8, of Subsection A of this section, it is apparent the statute specifically provides that a short form of balance sheet of a trading stamp company has to be certified by an independent public accountant before same is turned over to the secretary of state. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-127.

Accountant's certificate not limited to comparison of statement and ledgers. - This section provides clearly that the audit has to be made by an independent accountant. Further, the certificate cannot be limited to comparison of statements with amounts shown upon the ledgers of the filing stamp company. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-127.

Approval of bond mandatory requirement. - Each trading stamp company must submit a short form of balance sheet, certified by an independent accountant after a thorough audit is made and inventories are verified. The approval of the bond is a mandatory requirement and must be done under Subsection B, of this section, which provides for giving of the bond, the kind of bond, amount of bond and approval of same as to form and maximum amount. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-127.

57-8-5. [Ceasing or suspending redemption; notice of intention.]

No trading stamp company shall cease or suspend the redemption of trading stamps in this state without filing with the secretary of state at least ninety days' prior written notice of its intention so to do and concurrently mailing a copy of such notice to each retailer within this state which has at any time theretofore within one year issued trading stamps which the company is obligated to redeem.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-9-5, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 79, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Contractual obligation to redeem extends beyond 90-day notice period. - This section is not intended to affect the contractual rights of the holders of stamps issued by either the trading stamp company or its contract retailers. The obligation to redeem remains even after the 90 days have elapsed. A failure to redeem after that period is a default and would constitute a breach of contract, at least as to those who receive stamps prior to the notice and as to those who were without actual knowledge of the intention of the trading stamp company to cease redemption and who were issued stamps by the retailer after he has received such notice. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-127.

Obligation to redeem unwritten contract with four-year limitation. - The obligation to redeem, being based on an unwritten contract between the stamp company and the rightful holder, is governed by the statute of limitations for such unwritten contracts, which is four years (see 37-1-4 NMSA 1978). 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-127.

57-8-6. [Violation of act; penalty; injunction.]

Any person violating any provision of this act [57-8-1 to 57-8-6 NMSA 1978] shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), and the district court shall have jurisdiction in equity on the complaint of the secretary of state, the attorney general or any rightful holder of stamps of the offering company to restrain the violation of any of said provisions.

Act did not withdraw authority of municipalities to regulate pawnbrokers. - Since there may be double regulation, the later state law and the prior municipal authority to regulate are reconcilable. ARTICLE 12 UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES

57-12-1. Short title.

This act may be cited as the "Unfair Practices Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-1, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross-references. - For provisions relating to unfair insurance practices, see 59-11-9 to 59-11-22 NMSA 1978.

Meaning of "this act". - The term "this act" refers to Laws 1967, Chapter 268, which is compiled as 57-12-1 to 57-12-5, 57-12-7, 57-12-8, 57-12-10 and 57-12-12 to 57-12-16 NMSA 1978.

Conflict with federal law. - In action against moving company for fraud, breach of contract, and unfair practices, the specific preclusion of punitive damages under the Carmack Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C. § 11707 created a conflict with the Unfair Trade Practices Act (57-12-1 to 57-12-21 NMSA 1978) and therefore federal law controlled. Margetson v. United Van Lines, 785 F. Supp. 917 (D.N.M. 1991).

Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act. - The Unfair Practices Act is modeled after the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act; however, numerous variations, omissions, and additions occurred in its adoption and amendment.

- Claim under the New Mexico Unfair Practices Act was preempted by the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq. Nechero v. Provident Life & Accident Ins. Co., 795 F. Supp. 374 (D.N.M. 1992).

Liberal construction. - Because the Unfair Practices Act constitutes remedial legislation, its provisions are liberally interpreted to facilitate and accomplish its purposes and intent. State ex rel. Stratton v. Gurley Motor Co., 105 N.M. 803, 737 P.2d 1180 (Ct. App. 1987).

Remedies not exclusive. - Causes of action may be maintained under both the New Mexico Unfair Trade Practices Act and the New Mexico Unfair Insurance Practices Act. New Mexico Life Ins. Guar. Ass'n v. Quinn & Co., 111 N.M. 750, 809 P.2d 1278 (1991).

Claims must be based on regular course of trade or commerce. - Claims made under the Unfair Practices Act must be based on conduct occurring in defendant's regular course of trade or commerce. Klein v. Bronstein, 39 Bankr. 20 (Bankr. D.N.M. 1984).

Failure of evidence to support claim. - Where evidence was never presented that a party knowingly made any false or misleading statement of any kind in connection with the negotiation of an oral agreement, the evidence failed to present or support an issue essential to the legal sufficiency of the asserted claim, and the trial court erred when it denied a motion for a directed verdict on an Unfair Practices Act violation claim. Stevenson v. Louis Dreyfus Corp., 112 N.M. 97, 811 P.2d 1308 (1991); Parker v. E.I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co., 121 N.M. 120, 909 P.2d 1 (Ct. App. 1995).

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-2, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 2; 1969, ch. 208, § 1; 1971, ch. 240, § 1; 1987, ch. 187, § 1; 1989, ch. 309, § 1; 1995, ch. 18, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. - The bracketed word "or" near the beginning of Subsection D was inserted by the compiler to be consistent with a similar phrase found in Subsection E; the word was not enacted by the legislature and is not part of the law.

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, added "but is not limited to" at the end of the introductory paragraph of Subsection C and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, added Subsection B and redesignated Subsections B through D as Subsections C through E.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, added "unless the purchaser is purchasing for resale" at the end of Subsection D(9).

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act. - This section is similar to §§ 1 and 2 of the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

Intentional and unintentional statements. - This article applies to all misleading or deceptive statements, whether intentionally or unintentionally made. Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

Intent to deceive not element of "unfair or deceptive trade practice" but a knowing representation is required. Richardson Ford Sales, Inc. v. Johnson, 100 N.M. 779, 676 P.2d 1344 (Ct. App. 1984).

When a debt collection agency knowingly sent letters to the plaintiff containing deceptive representations, whether or not the agency intended to deceive the plaintiff was irrelevant. Russey v. Rankin, 911 F. Supp. 1449 (D.N.M. 1995).

An attorney who, by the practice and procedure of collection he employed in his dealings with a debt collection agency, knowingly effectuated the sending of letters containing deceptive representations, and thus violated the Unfair Trade Practices Act. Russey v. Rankin, 911 F. Supp. 1449 (D.N.M. 1995).

The "knowingly made" requirement in Subsection D is met if a party was actually aware that the statement was false or misleading when made, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been aware that the statement was false or misleading. Russey v. Rankin, 911 F. Supp. 1449 (D.N.M. 1995).

Single or multiple instances. - This article makes no distinction between single or multiple instances of prohibited conduct. Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

The Unfair Trade Practices Act does not require a showing of multiple violations. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Failure to deliver contracted services. - Where a bank advertised through the mail and in the newspapers that it would provide an interest-bearing account, the advertisements were representations knowingly made by the bank in connection with the offering of a service, as a direct result of the advertising and of subsequent discussions with a bank employee, the plaintiff transferred monies into an account for the express purpose of earning such interest, and the plaintiff sued because of the bank's failure to pay interest as advertised and as was indicated to him by the bank when his funds were transferred, since the entire series of acts clearly occurred in the regular course of the bank's business, the bank's refusal to remedy the situation patently resulted in its failure to deliver the quality of services contracted for, contrary to Subsection D(17). Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

Nonunique items must be offered in amounts related to demand. - Pursuant to Subsection D(10), nonunique items or commodities must be offered in supplies to satisfy reasonably expected public demand, and of course, the test for determining the expected public demand is subjective and would depend on variable factors concerning the type of sale and the commodity involved. 1971 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 71-123.

"New demonstrator" is not deceptive. - Car dealer's statement that a vehicle was a "new demonstrator" was not intended to suggest that the vehicle was unused or "new," and therefore did not violate the Unfair Trade Practices Act. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Claim of unconscionable trade practice requires some duty of defendant. - Even if Unfair Practices Act applies to insurance companies, insured failed to present evidence to support claim that failure to explain policy to insured constituted unconscionable trade practice where insured had duty to read and familiarize himself with the policy and insurer had no duty to explain that insured was not covered while driving girlfriend's car. State Farm Fire & Cas. Co. v. Price, 101 N.M. 438, 684 P.2d 524 (Ct. App. 1984), overruled on other grounds,.

Negligent failure to obtain insurance coverage. - The claim of negligent failure to obtain insurance coverage presupposes that there was no coverage. Since the jury determined that the property was in fact covered, the claim of negligent failure to obtain coverage fails. Paiz v. State Farm Fire & Cas. Co., 118 N.M. 203, 880 P.2d 300 (1994).

Violation of act shown. - Substantial evidence existed of violations of this act, where the aggrieved party testified that the signature on a construction contract was not his own, and the jury was allowed to compare it to authentic samples of his signature, and where testimony was given that the contractor billed for material used on other construction projects, that the invoices were illegible and that other problems existed. The fact that any errors in the billings may have been unintentional does not remove the conduct from the prohibitions of this act. Page & Wirtz Constr. Co. v. Solomon, 110 N.M. 206, 794 P.2d 349 (1990).

Act not in conflict with federal law. - The Unfair Practices Act (this article) and federal legislation are not in conflict, and 15 U.S.C. § 57b (e) has not preempted the New Mexico act. Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

Federal court definitions inapplicable to terms defined in this section. - Since this section defines both "unfair or deceptive" and "unconscionable" trade practices, relying on 57-12-4 NMSA 1978 to apply federal court definitions of those terms would not be giving effect to the statute. Richardson Ford Sales, Inc. v. Johnson, 100 N.M. 779, 676 P.2d 1344 (Ct. App. 1984).

Claim preempted by federal law. - Plaintiff's action seeking to prevent defendants from selling furniture "deceptively similar" to that of the plaintiff did not involve a state claim of unfair competition, where the protection plaintiff sought was protection against copying designs and his claim was therefore preempted by federal law. Ernest Thompson Fine Furn. Maker, Inc. v. Youart, 109 N.M. 572, 787 P.2d 1255 (Ct. App. 1990).

57-12-3.1. Unauthorized use of delivery container prohibited.

A. It shall be an unlawful practice within the meaning of the Unfair Practices Act for any person to:

- (1) remove the owner's container from the owner's or a recipient's premises or parking area without the permission of the owner or recipient;
- (2) possess or use the owner's container if it has been removed from the owner's or recipient's premises or parking area without the permission of the owner or recipient;
- (3) alter, convert, destroy or tamper with the owner's container without permission of the owner or recipient; or
- (4) sell the owner's container to or purchase the owner's container from someone other than the owner without the permission of the owner.

B. As used in this section:

- (1) "bakery rack" means a metal frame that holds bakery trays or other bakery products and that is used by a bakery, distributor or retailer or its agent as a means to transport, store or carry bakery products;
- (2) "bakery tray" means a wire or plastic receptacle that holds bread, buns or other baked goods and that is used by a bakery, distributor or retailer or its agent as a means to transport, store or carry bakery products;
- (3) "container" means a bakery rack, bakery tray, dairy case, egg basket, poultry box, shopping cart or pallet;
- (4) "dairy case" means a plastic receptacle that holds sixteen quarts or more of beverage and that is used by a dairy, distributor or retailer or its agent as a means to transport, store or carry dairy products;
- (5) "pallet" means a wooden or plastic base that allows stacks of merchandise to be placed upon it and that provides a space and support beneath the stack for forklift handling;
- (6) "parking area" means a lot or other property provided by a recipient for the use of its customers to park vehicles while at the recipient's establishment;

ANNOTATIONS

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

57-12-4. Interpretation.

It is the intent of the legislature that in construing Section 3 [57-12-3 NMSA 1978] of the Unfair Practices Act the courts to the extent possible will be guided by the interpretations given by the federal trade commission and the federal courts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-4, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Federal court definitions inapplicable to terms defined in 57-12-2 NMSA 1978. - Since 57-12-2 NMSA 1978 defines both "unfair or deceptive" and "unconscionable" trade practices, relying on this section to apply federal court definitions of those terms would not be giving effect to the statute. Richardson Ford Sales, Inc. v. Johnson, 100 N.M. 779, 676 P.2d 1344 (Ct. App. 1984).

Law reviews. - For article, "Consumer Class Actions Under the New Mexico Unfair Practices Act," see 4 N.M. L. Rev. 49 (1973).

57-12-5. Chain referral sales technique; prohibited.

The use or employment of any chain referral sales technique, plan, arrangement or agreement whereby the buyer is induced to purchase merchandise or services upon the seller's representation or promise that if the buyer will furnish the seller names of other prospective buyers of like or identical merchandise that the seller will contact the named prospective buyers and the buyer will receive a reduction in the purchase price by means of a cash rebate, commission, credit toward balance due or any other consideration, is declared to be an unlawful practice within the meaning of the Unfair Practices Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-5, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

Law reviews. - For article, "Consumer Class Actions Under the New Mexico Unfair Practices Act," see 4 N.M. L. Rev. 49 (1973).

57-12-6. Misrepresentation of motor vehicles; penalty.

A. The willful misrepresentation of the age or condition of a motor vehicle by any person, including regrooving tires or performing chassis repair, without informing the purchaser of the vehicle that the regrooving or chassis repair has been performed, is an unlawful practice within the meaning of the Unfair Practices Act, unless the alleged misrepresentation is based wholly on repair of damage, the disclosure of which was not required pursuant to Subsection C of this section. The failure to provide an affidavit pursuant to Subsection B of this section when there has been repair for which disclosure is required shall constitute prima facie evidence of willful misrepresentation.

B. Except as provided in Subsections C and D of this section, a seller of a motor vehicle shall furnish at the time of sale of a motor vehicle an affidavit that:

(1) describes the vehicle; and

(2) states to the best of the seller's knowledge whether there has been an alteration or chassis repair due to wreck damage.

C. No affidavit shall be required pursuant to this section if the flat rate manual cost of the alteration or chassis repair is less than six percent of the sales price of the vehicle.

D. In the case of a private-party sale of a vehicle, an affidavit shall be furnished only upon the request of the purchasing party.

E. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection D of Section 57-12-10 NMSA 1978, the award of three times actual damages as provided for in that section shall be in lieu of any award of punitive damages based only on those facts constituting the unfair or deceptive trade practice or unconscionable trade practice.

F. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-5.1(B), enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 274, § 1, and recompiled as 1953 Comp., § 49-15-5.1 by Laws 1977, ch. 181, § 4; 1981, ch. 361, § 1; 1991, ch. 232, § 1; 1995, ch. 10, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, in Subsection A, added the language beginning with "unless the alleged misrepresentation" at the end of the first sentence and added the second sentence; added Subsections C and E; redesignated Subsection C as Subsection D and Subsection D as Subsection F; and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "Subsections C and D of this section" for "this subsection" in the introductory paragraph of Subsection B; in Subsection C, substituted the language beginning "the flat rate manual" for "the vehicle is a new vehicle and the cost of the alteration or chassis repair is less than three hundred dollars ($300)" and deleted the former second sentence, defining "new vehicle"; and deleted "to another private party" following "vehicle" and "private" following "purchasing" in Subsection D.

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

"Altered" construed. - Within the context of Subsection B, goods are "altered" if, as measured against the reasonable expectations of the consumer, the characteristics or value of the motor vehicle are affected in a meaningful way. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

"Due to wreck damage" construed. - The phrase "due to wreck damage" in Subsection B(2) modifies only "chassis repair" and not "alteration." Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Alteration found. - Evidence showing that right front fender was replaced, right door frame was straightened, holes were drilled in the door panel to pull out a dent, sheet metal in the damaged area was ground down and resurfaced with body filler, and the damaged area was repainted was sufficient to support finding that vehicle was altered within the meaning of Subsection B. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Law reviews. - For article, "Consumer Class Actions Under the New Mexico Unfair Practices Act," see 4 N.M. L. Rev. 49 (1973).

57-12-7. Exemptions.

Nothing in the Unfair Practices Act shall apply to actions or transactions permitted under laws administered by a regulatory body of the state of New Mexico or the United States.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-6, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

The language "permitted under laws administered by a regulatory body" in this section requires more than the mere existence of a regulatory body in order for the exemption to apply. At a minimum, the regulatory body must actually administer the regulatory laws with respect to the party claiming the exemption, thereby exercising at least the modicum of oversight that the exempting language indicates is required. In effect, this means the regulatory body must render permission to engage in the business of the transaction through licensing, registration or some similar manifestation of "permitting" the business activity. State ex rel. Stratton v. Gurley Motor Co., 105 N.M. 803, 737 P.2d 1180 (Ct. App. 1987).

Bank not exempted. - A national bank is not exempted from this article by this section. Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

Law reviews. - For annual survey of New Mexico insurance law, 19 N.M.L. Rev. 717 (1990).

57-12-8. Restraint of prohibited acts; remedies for violations.

A. Whenever the attorney general has reasonable belief that any person is using, has used or is about to use any method, act or practice which is declared by the Unfair Practices Act to be unlawful, and that proceedings would be in the public interest, he may bring an action in the name of the state alleging violations of the Unfair Practices Act. The action may be brought in the district court of the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business or in the district court in any county in which the person is using, has used or is about to use the practice which has been alleged to be unlawful under the Unfair Practices Act. The attorney general acting on behalf of the state of New Mexico shall not be required to post bond when seeking a temporary or permanent injunction in such action.

B. In any action filed pursuant to the Unfair Practices Act, including an action with respect to unimproved real property, the attorney general may petition the district court for temporary or permanent injunctive relief and restitution.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-7, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 7; 1970, ch. 38, § 1; 1977, ch. 181, § 1.

57-12-9. Settlements.

A. In lieu of beginning or continuing an action pursuant to the Unfair Practices Act, the attorney general may accept a written assurance of discontinuance of any practice in violation of the Unfair Practices Act from the person who has engaged in the unlawful practice. The attorney general may require an agreement by the person engaged in the unlawful practice that, by a date set by the attorney general and stated in the assurance, he will make restitution to all persons of money, property or other things received from them in any transaction related to the unlawful practice. All settlements are a matter of public record but are not admissible against any defendant in any action brought by any other person or public body against such defendant under the Unfair Practices Act and do not constitute a basis for the introduction of the assurance of discontinuance as prima facie evidence against such defendant in any action or proceeding.

B. A person need not accept restitution pursuant to an assurance. His acceptance of restitution bars recovery of any damages in any action by him or on his behalf against the same defendant on account of the same unlawful practice.

C. A violation of an assurance entered into pursuant to this section is a violation of the Unfair Practices Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-7.1, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 240, § 3; 1977, ch. 181, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

Right to indemnification. - Although it was unclear whether the terms of a settlement between the state and a homebuilder included assessment of a civil penalty or whether the builder agreed to repair the homes in exchange for the Attorney General dropping the charges, to the extent the settlement did not include civil penalties, the builder could seek indemnification against the supplier of inadequate building materials. Amrep S.W., Inc. v. Shollenbarger Wood Treating, Inc., 119 N.M. 542, 893 P.2d 438 (1995).

57-12-10. Private remedies.

A. A person likely to be damaged by an unfair or deceptive trade practice or by an unconscionable trade practice of another may be granted an injunction against it under the principles of equity and on terms that the court considers reasonable. Proof of monetary damage, loss of profits or intent to deceive or take unfair advantage of any person is not required. Relief granted for the copying of an article shall be limited as to the prevention of confusion or misunderstanding as to source.

B. Any person who suffers any loss of money or property, real or personal, as a result of any employment by another person of a method, act or practice declared unlawful by the Unfair Practices Act may bring an action to recover actual damages or the sum of one hundred dollars ($100), whichever is greater. Where the trier of fact finds that the party charged with an unfair or deceptive trade practice or an unconscionable trade practice has willfully engaged in the trade practice, the court may award up to three times actual damages or three hundred dollars ($300), whichever is greater, to the party complaining of the practice.

C. The court shall award attorneys' fees and costs to the party complaining of an unfair or deceptive trade practice or unconscionable trade practice if he prevails. The court shall award attorneys' fees and costs to the party charged with an unfair or deceptive trade practice or an unconscionable trade practice if it finds that the party complaining of such trade practice brought an action which was groundless.

D. The relief provided in this section is in addition to remedies otherwise available against the same conduct under the common law or other statutes of this state.

E. In any class action filed under this section, the court may award damages to the named plaintiffs as provided in Subsection B of this section and may award members of the class such actual damages as were suffered by each member of the class as a result of the unlawful method, act or practice.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-15-8, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 268, § 8; 1971, ch. 240, § 4; 1977, ch. 181, § 3; 1987, ch. 187, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, added the second sentence of Subsection B and rewrote Subsection C.

Unfair Practices Act. - See 57-12-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act. - This section is similar to § 3 of the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

Failure to file answer bringing partial directed verdict. - In a civil suit by the state under the Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act and the Unfair Practices Act, defendant's right to trial by jury was not infringed upon by the trial court's granting of a partial directed verdict against him on the issue of liability and the court's rejection of requested jury instructions, including requested special interrogatories to the jury, where defendant failed to file an answer to the complaint filed by the state, but only filed a document entitled "Declaration of Status", and challenged the jurisdiction of the court and the constitutionality of the Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act (now Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act, 57-13-1 et seq.). State ex rel. Stratton v. Sinks, 106 N.M. 213, 741 P.2d 435 (Ct. App. 1987).

Failure to prove "loss of money or property". - Where the aggrieved party did not produce evidence of loss of money or property as a result of a contractor's forgery of a construction contract and overbilling, recovery was limited to $300. Page & Wirtz Constr. Co. v. Solomon, 110 N.M. 206, 794 P.2d 349 (1990).

Recovery of cost of repair or diminished value. - Car buyers who claimed recovery for the cost of repairs were limited to only recovering the cost of such repairs ($840) even though the difference between the fair market value of the vehicle before and after the damage took place was $1,000, because a party may recover only the smaller of these items. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Triple damages. - The permissive language of Subsection B leads to the conclusion that it was within the legislature's contemplation that in some cases, but not all, the false or misleading statement would be made at the outset with the intent to deceive, and in such cases triple damages would not be unwarranted. Conversely, it suggests also that the legislature anticipated other situations wherein the statement would not be intentionally unfair or deceptive, but could become a false or misleading representation at some time during the life of the transaction. Ashlock v. Sunwest Bank, 107 N.M. 100, 753 P.2d 346 (1988).

Meaning of "groundless" claim. - In enacting Subsection C, the legislature intended the term "groundless" to have the same meaning as "frivolous" as used in Rule 16-301. The rule provides in applicable part that "[a] lawyer shall not bring or defend a proceeding, or assert or controvert an issue therein, unless there is a basis for doing so that is not frivolous, which includes a good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law." G.E.W. Mechanical Contractors v. Johnston Co., 115 N.M. 727, 858 P.2d 103 (Ct. App. 1993).

The simple fact that the defendant prevailed on an Unfair Practices Claim does not establish that the claim is groundless; rather, the defendant must show that there is no arguable basis in law or fact to support the cause of action and the claim is not supported by a good-faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law. Marchman v. NCNB Tex. Nat'l. Bank, 120 N.M. 74, 898 P.2d 709 (1995).

Dismissal of the plaintiffs' claims on the grounds of forum non conveniens did not reflect on the merits of the claims and could not be construed as a ruling that the claims were groundless. Marchman v. NCNB Tex. Nat'l. Bank, 120 N.M. 74, 898 P.2d 709 (1995).

Award of attorney's fees. - To be entitled to attorneys fees, it is not enough to show that the plaintiff did not prevail on such claims. The defending party must also establish that, at the time such claim was filed, the claim was initiated in bad faith or there was no credible evidence to support it. Jones v. Beavers, 116 N.M. 634, 866 P.2d 362 (Ct. App. 1993).

Appellate fees recoverable. - Subsection C does not by its own terms limit itself to fees and costs incurred at the trial court level. The award of attorney fees and costs on appeal is entirely consistent with the statutory purpose of creating a private remedy to redress wrongs resulting from unfair or deceptive trade practices. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

Treble damages and punitive damages exclusive. - Recovery of both statutory treble damages and punitive damages based upon the same conduct would be improper. In Subsection D, the legislature created a new statutory remedy in addition to those otherwise available, but did not suggest that a party would be entitled to multiple awards of damages arising out of the same conduct. Hale v. Basin Motor Co., 110 N.M. 314, 795 P.2d 1006 (1990).

In any action brought under Section 57-12-8 NMSA 1978, if the court finds that a person is willfully using or has willfully used a method, act or practice declared unlawful by the Unfair Practices Act, the attorney general, upon petition to the court, may recover, on behalf of the state of New Mexico, a civil penalty of not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

57-12-12. Civil investigative demand.

A. Whenever the attorney general has reason to believe that any person may be in possession, custody or control of an original or copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription or other tangible document or recording which he believes to be relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a probable violation of the Unfair Practices Act, he may, prior to the institution of a civil proceeding, execute in writing and cause to be served upon the person a civil investigative demand requiring such person to produce documentary material and permit the inspection and copying of the material. The demand of the attorney general shall not be a matter of public record and shall not be published by him except by order of the court.

B. Each demand shall:

- (1) state the general subject matter of the investigation;
- (2) describe the classes of documentary material to be produced with reasonable certainty;
- (3) prescribe the return date within which the documentary material is to be produced, which in no case shall be less than ten days after the date of service; and
- (4) identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying.

C. No demand shall:

- (1) contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state; or
- (2) require the disclosure of any documentary material which would be privileged, or which for any other reason would not be required by a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state;

(3) require the removal of any documentary material from the custody of the person upon whom the demand is served except in accordance with the provisions of Subsection E.

D. Service of the demand may be made by:

(1) delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be served, or if the person is not a natural person, to the statutory agent for the person or to any officer of the person to be served; or

(2) delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place of business in this state of the person to be served; or

(3) mailing by registered or certified mail a duly executed copy of the demand addressed to the person to be served at his principal place of business in this state, or, if the person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

E. Documentary material demanded pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal business hours at the principal office or place of business of the person served or may be inspected and copied at such other times and places as may be agreed upon by the person served and the attorney general.

F. No documentary material produced pursuant to a demand, or copies thereof, shall, unless otherwise ordered by the district court in the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business, or is about to [perform] or is performing the practice which is alleged to be unlawful under the Unfair Practices Act, for good cause shown, be produced for inspection or copying by anyone other than an authorized employee of the attorney general, nor shall the contents thereof be disclosed to anyone other than an authorized employee of the attorney general, or in court in an action relating to a violation of the Unfair Practices Act.

G. At any time before the return date of the demand, a petition to set aside the demand, modify the demand or extend the return date thereon may be filed in the district court in the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business, or is about to [perform] or is performing the practice which is alleged to be unlawful under the Unfair Practices Act, and the court upon a showing of good cause may set aside the demand, modify it or extend the return date of the demand.

H. After service of the investigative demand upon him, if any person neglects or refuses to comply with the demand, the attorney general may invoke the aid of the court in the enforcement of the demand. In appropriate cases the court shall issue its order requiring the person to appear and produce the documentary material required in the demand and may upon failure of the person to comply with the order punish the person for contempt.

I. This section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

57-12-21. Door-to-door sales; contracts; requirements; prohibitions.

A. In connection with any door-to-door sale, it constitutes an unfair or deceptive trade practice for any seller to:

(1) fail to furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its execution that is in the same language as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and that shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller and, in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in bold face type of a minimum size of ten points, a statement in substantially the following form:

"You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.";

(2) fail to furnish each buyer, at the time he signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned "NOTICE OF CANCELLATION", that shall be attached to the contract or receipt and easily detachable and that shall contain in ten-point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language as that used in the contract:

"NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from the above date.

If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within ten business days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale; or you may, if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within twenty days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice or send a telegram to:

_____ (name of seller)

_____ (address of seller's place of business)
not later than midnight of

_____ (date)

I hereby cancel this transaction.

_____ (buyer's signature)";

(3) fail, before furnishing copies of the notice of cancellation to the buyer, to complete both copies by entering the name of the seller, the address of the seller's place of business, the date of the transaction and the date, not earlier than the third business day following the date of the transaction, by which the buyer may give notice of cancellation;

(4) include in any door-to-door contract or receipt any confession of judgment or any waiver of any of the rights to which the buyer is entitled under this section, including specifically his right to cancel the sale in accordance with the provisions of this section;

(5) fail to inform each buyer orally, at the time he signs the contract or purchases the goods or services, of his right to cancel;

(6) misrepresent in any manner the buyer's right to cancel;

(7) fail or refuse to honor any valid notice of cancellation by a buyer and, within ten business days after the receipt of such notice, fail to:

(a) refund all payments made under the contract or sale;

(b) return in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller any goods or property traded in; and

(c) cancel and return any negotiable instrument executed by the buyer in connection with the contract or sale and take any action necessary or appropriate to terminate promptly any security interest created in the transaction;

(8) negotiate, transfer, sell or assign any notice or other evidence of indebtedness to a finance company or other third party prior to midnight of the fifth business day following the day the contract was signed or the goods or services were purchased; and

(9) fail to notify the buyer, within ten business days of receipt of his notice of cancellation, whether the seller intends to repossess or to abandon any shipped or delivered goods.

B. The cancellation period provided for in this section as applied to telephone initiated sales shall not begin until the buyer has been informed of his right to cancel and has been provided with copies of the notice of cancellation.

C. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "business day" means any calendar day except Sunday or the following business holidays: new year's day, Washington's birthday, memorial day, independence day, labor day, Columbus day, veterans' day, thanksgiving day, Christmas day, Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday and any other legal public holiday of the state of New Mexico or the United States;

(2) "consumer goods or services" means goods or services other than perishable goods or agricultural products purchased, leased or rented primarily for personal, family or household purposes, including courses of instruction or training, regardless of the purpose for which they are taken;

(3) "door-to-door sale" means a sale, lease or rental of consumer goods or services with a purchase price of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more, whether under single or multiple contracts, in which the seller or his representative personally solicits the sale, including those in response to or following an invitation by the buyer, and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of the seller. A door-to-door sale includes seller initiated telephone sales. A door-to-door sale does not include a transaction:

(a) made pursuant to prior negotiations in the course of a visit by the buyer to a retail business establishment having a fixed permanent location where the goods are exhibited or the services are offered for sale on a continuing basis;

(b) in which the consumer is accorded the right of rescission by the provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. 1635, or regulations issued pursuant thereto;

(c) in which the buyer has initiated the contract and the goods or services are needed to meet a bona fide immediate personal emergency of the buyer, and the buyer furnishes the seller with a separate dated and signed personal statement in the buyer's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the sale within three business days;

(d) in which the buyer has initiated the contract and specifically requested the seller to visit his home for the purpose of repairing or performing maintenance upon the buyer's personal property. If in the course of such a visit the seller sells the buyer the right to receive additional services or goods other than replacement parts necessarily used in performing the maintenance or in making the repairs, the sale of those additional goods or services would not fall within this exclusion;

(e) pertaining to the sale or rental of real property, to the sale of insurance or to the sale of securities or commodities by a broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission; or

(f) in which a consumer acquires the use of goods under the terms of a rental-purchase agreement made pursuant to the provisions of the Rental-Purchase Agreement Act [57-26-1 to 57-26-12 NMSA 1978], with an initial rental period of one week or less, by placing a telephone call to a lessor and by requesting that specific goods be delivered to the consumer's residence or such other place as the consumer directs and consummation of the rental-purchase agreement occurs after the goods are delivered;

(4) "place of business" means the main or permanent branch office or local address of a seller;

(5) "purchase price" means the total price paid or to be paid for the consumer goods or services, including all interest and service charges; and

(6) "seller" means any person, partnership, corporation or association engaged in the door-to-door sale of consumer goods or services.

(1) without promptly disclosing name of the sponsor and the primary purpose or purposes of the contact;

(2) in which offers or solicitations in the guise of research or a survey are made when the real intent is to sell goods or services;

(3) without disclosing, prior to commitments by customers, the cost of the goods or services, all terms, conditions, payment plans and the amount or existence of any extra charges such as shipping and handling;

(4) which are [is] received before 9:00 a.m. or after 9:00 p.m.;

ARTICLE 13

PYRAMID OR MULTILEVEL SALES

57-13-1. Short title.

Chapter 57, Article 13 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-20-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 1; 1987, ch. 100, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, substituted "Chapter 57, Article 13 NMSA 1978" for "This act" and "Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act" for "Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act."

Applicability. - Section 15, Laws 1987, ch. 100, effective June 19, 1987, provides that the act applies only to pyramid promotional schemes established, operated, advertised or promoted on or after June 19, 1987.

Constitutionality. - The Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act is not unconstitutionally vague and overbroad. State ex rel. Stratton v. Sinks, 106 N.M. 213, 741 P.2d 435 (Ct. App. 1987).

The Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act does not operate as an unconstitutional restraint of trade. State ex rel. Stratton v. Sinks, 106 N.M. 213, 741 P.2d 435 (Ct. App. 1987).

Given the potentially deceptive nature of pyramids, there is a valid state interest in their regulation, and any infringement on first amendment rights to free speech and assembly is both negligible and subordinate. State ex rel. Stratton v. Sinks, 106 N.M. 213, 741 P.2d 435 (Ct. App. 1987).

77A C.J.S. Sales § 1 et seq.

57-13-2. Definitions.

As used in the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article]:

A. "compensation" includes a payment based on a sale or distribution made to a person who either is a participant in a pyramid promotional scheme or has the right to become a participant upon payment;

B. "consideration" means the payment of cash or the purchase of goods, services or intangible property but does not include:

(1) the purchase of goods or services furnished at cost to be used in making sales and not for resale; or

(2) time and effort spent in pursuit of sales or recruiting activities; and

C. "pyramid promotional scheme" means any plan or operation by which a participant gives consideration for the opportunity to receive compensation which is derived primarily from any person's introduction of other persons into participation in the plan or operation rather than from the sale of goods, services or intangible property by the participant or other persons introduced into the plan or operation.

History: 1978 Comp., § 57-13-2, enacted by Laws 1987, ch. 100, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1987, ch. 100, § 2 repeals former 57-13-2 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 2, and enacts the above section, effective June 19, 1987. For provisions of the former section, see the 1978 original pamphlet.

57-13-3. Prohibition; defenses excluded.

A. A person shall not establish, operate, advertise or promote a pyramid promotional scheme.

B. A limitation as to the number of persons who may participate or the presence of additional conditions affecting eligibility for the opportunity to receive compensation under the plan or operation does not change the identity of the scheme as a pyramid promotional scheme nor is it a defense under this article that a participant, on giving consideration, obtains any goods, services or intangible property in addition to the right to receive compensation.

History: 1978 Comp., § 57-13-3, enacted by Laws 1987, ch. 100, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1987, ch. 100, § 3 repeals former 57-13-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 3, and enacts the above section, effective June 19, 1987. For provisions of the former section, see 1978 original pamphlet.

57-13-4. Restraint of prohibited acts; restitution; penalties.

A. Whenever the attorney general has reasonable belief that any person is using, has used or is about to use any method, act or practice which is declared by the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article] to be unlawful and that proceedings would be in the public interest, he may bring an action in the name of the state against that person to restrain, by temporary or permanent injunction, the use of such method, act or practice. The action may be brought in the district court of the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business or in the district court in the county in which the person is using, has used or is about to use the practice which has been alleged to be unlawful under the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act. The attorney general acting on behalf of the state shall not be required to post bond when seeking a temporary or permanent injunction.

B. In any action brought under Subsection A of this section, the court may, upon petition of the attorney general, require that the person engaged in the unlawful practice make restitution to all persons of money, property or other things received from them in any transaction related to the unlawful practice; and it is further provided that if the court finds that a person is willfully using or has willfully used a method, act or practice declared unlawful by the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act, the attorney general, upon petition to the court, may recover on behalf of the state a civil penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-20-4, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 4; 1987, ch. 100, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, substituted "Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act" for "Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act" in the three places that it appears in the section and made minor changes in language throughout the section.

57-13-5. Settlements.

A. In lieu of beginning or continuing an action pursuant to the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article], the attorney general may accept a written assurance of discontinuance of any practice in violation of that act from the person who has engaged in the unlawful practice. The attorney general may require an agreement by the person engaged in the unlawful practice that by a date set by the attorney general and stated in the assurance, he will make restitution to all persons of money, property or other things received from them in any transaction related to the unlawful practice. All settlements are a matter of public record.

B. A person need not accept restitution pursuant to an assurance. His acceptance of restitution bars recovery of any damages in any action by him or on his behalf against the same defendant on account of the same unlawful practice.

C. A violation of an assurance entered into pursuant to this section is a violation of the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-20-5, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 5; 1987, ch. 100, § 5.

57-13-6. Private remedies.

A. A person likely to be damaged by any method, act or practice which is declared by the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article] to be unlawful may be granted an injunction against it under the principles of equity and on terms that the court considers reasonable. Proof of monetary damage, loss of profits or intent to deceive or take unfair advantage of any person is not required.

B. Costs shall be allowed to the prevailing party unless the court otherwise directs. The court may award attorneys' fees to the prevailing party if:

(1) the party complaining of an unlawful practice has brought an action which he knew to be groundless; or

(2) the party charged with an unlawful practice has willfully engaged in the practice knowing it to be unlawful.

C. The relief provided in this section is in addition to remedies otherwise available against the same conduct under the common law or other statutes of this state.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-20-6, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 377, § 6; 1987, ch. 100, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Failure to file answer bringing partial directed verdict. - In a civil suit by the state under the Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act and the Unfair Practices Act, defendant's right to trial by jury was not infringed upon by the trial court's granting of a partial directed verdict against him on the issue of liability and the court's rejection of requested jury instructions, including requested special interrogatories to the jury, where defendant failed to file an answer to the complaint filed by the state, but only filed a document entitled "Declaration of Status", and challenged the jurisdiction of the court and the constitutionality of the Pyramid or Multilevel Sales Act. State ex rel. Stratton v. Sinks, 106 N.M. 213, 741 P.2d 435 (Ct. App. 1987).

57-13-7. Penalties.

57-13-8. Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act restitution fund.

A. All civil penalties collected under Section 57-13-4 NMSA 1978 shall be deposited in the state treasury in a fund to be designated as the "Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act restitution fund", which fund is hereby established and which shall be administered by the attorney general. All expenditures from this fund shall be paid upon petition to the attorney general to those persons adequately establishing injury in money, property or other things in a transaction related to a practice declared unlawful under the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article] and who were unknown to the court at the time judgment was rendered.

B. Excepting any amount then being considered as an expenditure pursuant to a petition under Subsection A of this section, the balance of a civil penalty collected shall be transferred to the state general fund eighteen months after collection.

57-13-9. Civil investigative demand.

A. Whenever the attorney general has reason to believe that any person may be in possession, custody or control of an original or copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription or other tangible document or recording which he believes to be relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a probable violation of the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act [this article], he may, prior to the institution of a civil proceeding, execute in writing and cause to be served upon the person a civil investigative demand requiring the person to produce documentary material and permit the inspection and copying of the material. The demand of the attorney general shall not be a matter of public record and shall not be published by him except by order of the court.

B. Each demand shall:

- (1) state the general subject matter of the investigation;
- (2) describe the classes of documentary material to be produced with reasonable certainty;
- (3) prescribe the return date within which the documentary material is to be produced, which in no case shall be less than ten days after the date of service; and
- (4) identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying.

C. No demand shall:

- (1) contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state;
- (2) require the disclosure of any documentary material which would be privileged or which for any other reason would not be required by a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state; or
- (3) require the removal of any documentary material from the custody of the person upon whom the demand is served, except in accordance with the provisions of Subsection E of this section.

D. Service of the demand may be made by:

- (1) delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be served or, if the person is not a natural person, to the statutory agent for the person or to any officer of the person to be served; or
- (2) delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place of business in this state of the person to be served; or

(3) mailing by registered or certified mail a duly executed copy of the demand addressed to the person to be served at his principal place of business in this state or, if the person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

E. Documentary material demanded pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal business hours at the principal office or place of business of the person served or may be inspected and copied at such other times and places as may be agreed upon by the person served and the attorney general.

F. No documentary material produced pursuant to a demand, or copies thereof, shall, unless otherwise ordered by the district court in the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business or the person is about to perform or is performing the practice which is alleged to be unlawful under the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act, for good cause shown, be produced for inspection or copying by anyone other than an authorized employee of the attorney general, nor shall the contents be disclosed to anyone other than an authorized employee of the attorney general or in court in an action relating to a violation of that act.

G. At any time before the return date of the demand, a petition to set aside the demand, modify the demand or extend the return date of the demand may be filed in the district court in the county in which the person resides or has his principal place of business or is about to perform or is performing the practice which is alleged to be unlawful under the Pyramid Promotional Schemes Act, and the court upon a showing of good cause may set aside the demand, modify it or extend the return date of the demand.

H. After service of the investigative demand upon him, if any person neglects or refuses to comply with the demand, the attorney general may invoke the aid of the court in the enforcement of the demand. In appropriate cases, the court shall issue its order requiring the person to appear and produce the documentary material required in the demand and may, upon failure of the person to comply with the order, punish the person for contempt.

I. This section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

ARTICLE 14 PRICE DISCRIMINATION

57-14-1. Short title.

This act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Price Discrimination Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-1, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross-references. - For restraints of trade generally, see 57-1-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

Act parallels federal act. - The Price Discrimination Act (57-14-1 to 57-14-9) adopted by the New Mexico legislature, except for its provision permitting damages, closely parallels the Robinson-Patman Act, adopted by congress as an amendment to the Clayton Anti-Trust Act, 15 U.S.C. § 13 (1976). Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

57-14-2. Definitions.

As used in the Price Discrimination Act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978]:

A. "person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, joint-stock company or business trust;

B. "price" means the net price to the buyer after deduction of all discounts, rebates or other price concessions paid or allowed by the seller;

C. "commerce" means trade within this state; and

D. "commodity" means any movable article or any commercial service sold in commerce.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-2, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 2; 1965, ch. 301, § 1.

57-14-3. Discrimination unlawful.

A. It is unlawful for any person engaged in commerce, either directly or indirectly, intentionally, for the purpose of destroying competition or eliminating a competitor, to:

(1) discriminate in price between different purchasers of commodities of like grade and quality; or

(2) discriminate in price between different sections, communities or cities in this state where the effect is to lessen competition substantially, to create a monopoly in any line of commerce or to injure, destroy or prevent competition with any person who grants or knowingly receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with customers of either.

B. This section does not prevent:

(1) allowance for differences in cost of manufacture, sale or delivery resulting from differing methods or quantities in which commodities are sold or delivered;

(2) persons engaged in selling goods, wares or merchandise in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions not in restraint of trade; or

(3) price changes in response to changing conditions affecting the market or marketability of goods.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-3, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Allowance of rebates. - Because of the similarities between the Price Discrimination Act (57-14-1 to 57-14-9) and the Robinson-Patman Act, the courts look to the federal law for assistance in interpretation and application of the state act, and rebates allowed upon the purchase of goods are permissible under the Robinson-Patman Act when there is no discrimination between buyers of the same classification and the rebates do not stifle competition or create a monopoly. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

Price differentials proper if based on valid criteria. - It is not a violation of the Price Discrimination Act (57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978) for a distributor to establish price differentials for the produce sold based on factors which are not designed or intended to eliminate competition or to create a monopoly, but which instead are based upon other valid criteria, such as cost differentials due to geographic proximity. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

No violation where price variations for purpose of equal profit. - Since the issue of competition involves questions of geographic proximity and marketing practices, where defendant company had distributed entirely through jobbers and with the company itself absorbing any loss as a result of price reductions in the area during the period in question so that all jobbers retained the same profit margin before and after the alleged price discrimination, and furthermore, where the nearest jobber to plaintiff was too distant geographically (54 miles) to be considered in competition with him, it was held that plaintiff itself negated any possibility of establishing a competitive relationship with defendant under either the United States or New Mexico antitrust laws, and that defendant's pricing policies, different from the policies of the other defendants, were inconsistent with plaintiffs' conspiracy count which basically alleged selective price reductions to monopolize the gasoline distributors market; thus, in the absence of any basis for allegations of competition or conspiracy on the part of defendant, the claims against it were dismissed and its motion for summary judgment was granted. Ingram v. Phillips Petro. Co., 252 F. Supp. 674 (D.N.M. 1966).

Offsetting depressed prices in one locality by raising them in another. - Price discrimination statutes are designed to prevent a business from destroying competition through unfair pricing practices, such as, for example, depressing prices in one locality where there is competition and offsetting the loss by raising prices in another area where there is little or no competition. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

Functional availability of rebate plan. - The notion that a rebate plan must be "functionally available", is not expressly recognized in either this section or in the federal counterpart, § 2(a) of the Robinson-Patman Act, and, although circumstances may exist in which a rebate plan or discount allowance may not be functionally available, the facts did not give rise to a basis for such finding. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

"Good faith" as a defense. - It is a defense to an action alleging price discrimination under the New Mexico Price Discrimination Act (57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978) to show that defendants acted in "good faith" and did not intend their actions to create a monopoly or to unlawfully discriminate against a competitor. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

Anti-competitive intent is question of fact for fact finder. - Whether a rebate plan was fashioned with an intention of injuring or destroying competition and whether defendants' actions tended to curtail or destroy competition are questions of fact for the fact finder. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

Averments of intrastate and interstate price discrimination avoid dismissal. - Assuming, arguendo, that the New Mexico antitrust and price discrimination statutes involved apply only to intrastate commerce, plaintiffs' affidavit accompanying their opposition to the defendant's motions to dismiss averred that plaintiffs complained of unfair competition within New Mexico as well as between New Mexico and Texas distributors, and since the mere fact that plaintiffs' volume had increased would not negate the possibility of actual harm, the motions to dismiss were denied. Ingram v. Phillips Petro. Co., 252 F. Supp. 674 (D.N.M. 1966).

57-14-4. Meeting competitive price a defense.

It is a defense to any action under this act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978] to show that the seller's lower price, payment or furnishing of services or facilities to any purchaser, was made in good faith to meet equally low prices of a competitor or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-4, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

"Good faith" as a defense. - It is a defense to an action alleging price discrimination under the New Mexico Price Discrimination Act (57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978) to show that defendants acted in "good faith" and did not intend their actions to create a monopoly or to unlawfully discriminate against a competitor. Jay Walton Enters., Inc. v. Rio Grande Oil Co., 106 N.M. 55, 738 P.2d 927 (Ct. App. 1987).

57-14-5. Commissions and brokerages unlawful.

It is unlawful for any person engaged in commerce to pay, grant, receive or accept anything of value as a commission, brokerage or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares or merchandise. It is unlawful for either party to the transaction to pay or grant anything of value as a commission, brokerage or other compensation, or any allowance or discount to the other party to the transaction or to any agent, representative or other intermediary acting for, on behalf of or subject to direct or indirect control of the other party to the transaction.

57-14-6. Customer discrimination.

It is unlawful for any person engaged in commerce:

A. to pay or contract for payment of anything of value to or for the benefit of a customer as compensation for any services or facilities furnished by or through the customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold or offered for sale unless the payment or compensation is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of the products or commodities;

B. to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale or offering for sale of the commodity purchased on terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms; or

C. knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the Price Discrimination Act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978].

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-6, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 6.

57-14-7. Cooperatives exempt.

Nothing in the Price Discrimination Act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978] prevents a cooperative association from returning to its members, producers or consumers the whole or any part of the net earnings or surplus resulting from its trading operations, in proportion to their purchases or sales from, to or through the cooperative.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-7, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 7.

57-14-8. Injunctive relief; damages.

A. Any person injured by any violation, or who will be injured from any threatened violation of the Price Discrimination Act [57-14-1 to 57-14-9 NMSA 1978] may maintain an action in the district court to enjoin the violation or threatened violation. If a violation or threatened violation is established, the court shall enjoin it and the plaintiff may recover threefold, the amount of damages sustained, costs of suit and a reasonable attorney fee.

B. Any person injured by any violation of the Price Discrimination Act may maintain an action in the district court for damages alone and the measure of damages is the same as that prescribed in Subsection A of this section.

C. In any action under this section, upon proof that he has been unlawfully discriminated against by the defendant, the plaintiff shall be presumed to have sustained damages equal to the monetary amount or equivalent of the unlawful discrimination and in addition, he may establish further damages sustained as a result of the discrimination.

D. Where a defendant's trade or industry has an established cost survey for the localities in which the offense was committed, it is competent evidence to prove the costs of the defendant in an action under the Price Discrimination Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 49-11-8, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 229, § 8; 1965, ch. 301, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Meaning of "this act". - See same catchline following 57-16-1 NMSA 1978.

This article (57-16-1 to 57-16-16 NMSA 1978) applies to manufacturers, representatives, distributors and dealers of self-propelled agricultural machines and equipment which may travel upon the public highways of New Mexico. 1974 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 74-25.

Inapplicable to prospective franchisees. - This article does not govern manufacturers' dealings with prospective franchisees, nor does it provide in explicit terms protection for that class. Key v. Chrysler Motors Corp., 121 N.M. 764, 918 P.2d 350 (1996).

Taken as a whole, this article does not afford protection to every prospective purchaser of an automobile franchise; the Act provides for standing in broad terms, but it links standing to forbidden conduct in specific terms. Key v. Chrysler Motors Corp., 121 N.M. 764, 918 P.2d 350 (1996).

Windrower is not "vehicle" or "motor vehicle". - A windrower, a piece of farm machinery used to mow, crimp and cut hay or other crops into rows to be picked up and compacted into bales, is not a "vehicle" or "motor vehicle" under Motor Vehicle Code, 66-1-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., and is similarly excluded from coverage under this article. *Smith Mach. 57-16-4. Unlawful acts; dealers.

It is unlawful for any dealer to:

A. require a retail purchaser of a new motor vehicle, as a condition of sale and delivery thereof, to purchase special features, equipment, parts or accessories not ordered or desired by the purchaser, provided such features, equipment, parts or accessories are not already installed on the new motor vehicle when received by the dealer;

B. use false, deceptive or misleading advertising in connection with his business;

57-16-5. Unlawful acts; manufacturers; distributors; representatives.

It is unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative to:

A. coerce or attempt to coerce a dealer to order or accept delivery of any motor vehicle, appliances, equipment, parts or accessories therefor or any other commodity that the motor vehicle dealer has not voluntarily ordered;

B. coerce or attempt to coerce a dealer to order or accept delivery of any motor vehicle with special features, appliances, accessories or equipment not included in the list price of the motor vehicles as publicly advertised by the manufacturer;

C. coerce or attempt to coerce a dealer to order for any person any parts, accessories, equipment, machinery, tools, appliances or any commodity whatsoever;

D. refuse to deliver, in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of dealer's order, to any motor vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual arrangement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by the manufacturer, distributor or representative, any such motor vehicles, parts or accessories as are covered by the franchise or contract specifically publicly advertised by the manufacturer, distributor or representative to be available for immediate delivery; provided, however, the failure to deliver any motor vehicle, parts or accessories shall not be considered a violation of Chapter 57, Article 16 NMSA 1978 if such failure is due to an act of God, work stoppage or delay due to a strike or labor difficulty, shortage of materials, freight embargo or other cause over which the manufacturer, distributor or representative or any agent thereof has no control;

E. coerce or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to enter into any agreement with the manufacturer, distributor or representative or to do any other act prejudicial to the dealer by threatening to cancel any franchise or any contractual agreement existing between the manufacturer, distributor or representative and the dealer; provided, however, that notice in good faith to any motor vehicle dealer of the dealer's violation of any terms or provisions of the franchise or contractual agreement shall not constitute a violation of Chapter 57, Article 16 NMSA 1978;

F. terminate or cancel the franchise or selling agreement of any dealer without due cause. Due cause shall require a material breach by a dealer, due to matters within the dealer's control, of a lawful provision of a franchise or selling agreement. As used in this subsection, "material breach" means a contract violation that is substantial and significant. In determining whether due cause exists under this subsection, the court shall take into consideration only the dealer's sales in relation to the business available to the dealer; the dealer's investment and obligations; injury to the public welfare; the adequacy of the dealer's sales and service facilities, equipment and parts; the qualifications of the management, sales and service personnel to provide the consumer with reasonably good service and care of new motor vehicles; the dealer's failure to comply with the requirements of the franchise; and the harm to the manufacturer or distributor. The nonrenewal of a franchise or selling agreement, without due cause, shall constitute an unfair termination or cancellation regardless of the terms or provisions of the franchise or selling agreement. The manufacturer, distributor or representative shall notify a motor vehicle dealer in writing by registered mail of the termination or cancellation of the franchise or selling agreement of the dealer at least sixty days before the effective date thereof, stating the specific grounds for termination or cancellation; and the manufacturer, distributor or representative shall notify a motor vehicle dealer in writing by registered mail at least sixty days before the contractual term of his franchise or selling agreement expires that the same will not be renewed, stating the specific grounds for nonrenewal in those cases where there is no intention to renew, and in no event shall the contractual term of any franchise or selling agreement expire without the written consent of the motor vehicle dealer involved prior to the expiration of at least sixty days following the written notice. During the sixty-day period, either party may in appropriate circumstances petition a court to modify the sixty-day stay or to extend it pending a final determination of proceedings on the merits. The court shall have authority to grant preliminary and final injunctive relief;

G. use false, deceptive or misleading advertising in connection with his business;

H. offer to sell or to sell any motor vehicle to any motor vehicle dealer in this or any other state of the United States at a lower actual price than the actual price offered to any other motor vehicle dealer in this state for the same model vehicle similarly equipped or to utilize any device, including, but not limited to, sales promotion plans or programs that result in such lesser actual price; provided, however, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to sales to a motor vehicle dealer for resale to any unit of the United States government, the state or any of its political subdivisions; and provided, further, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to sales to a motor vehicle dealer of any motor vehicle ultimately sold, donated or used by the dealer in a driver education program; and provided, further, that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply so long as a manufacturer, distributor or representative offers to sell or sells new motor vehicles to all motor vehicle dealers at an equal price. For the purposes of this subsection, "actual price" means the price to be paid by the dealer less any incentive paid by the manufacturer, distributor or representative, whether paid to the dealer or the ultimate purchaser of the vehicle. This provision shall not apply to sales by the manufacturer, distributor or representatives to the United States government or any agency thereof. The provisions of this subsection dealing with vehicle prices in any other state and defining actual price shall not apply to any manufacturer or distributor if all of the manufacturer's or distributor's dealers within fifty miles are given all cash or credit incentives, whether the incentives are offered by the manufacturer or distributor or a finance subsidiary of either, affecting the price or financing terms of a vehicle, which incentives are available in the neighboring state;

I. willfully discriminate, either directly or indirectly, in price between different purchasers of a commodity of like grade or quality where the effect of the discrimination may be to lessen substantially competition or tend to create a monopoly or to injure or destroy the business of a competitor;

J. offer to sell or to sell parts or accessories to any motor vehicle dealer for use in his own business for the purpose of repairing or replacing the same or a comparable part or accessory at a lower actual price than the actual price charged to any other motor vehicle dealer for similar parts or accessories for use in his own business; provided, however, in those cases where motor vehicle dealers have a franchise to operate and serve as wholesalers of parts and accessories to retail outlets or other dealers, whether or not the dealer is regularly designated as a wholesaler, nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a manufacturer, distributor or representative from selling to the motor vehicle dealer who operates and services as a wholesaler of parts and accessories such parts and accessories as may be ordered by the motor vehicle dealer for resale to retail outlets at a lower actual price than the actual price charged a motor vehicle dealer who does not operate or serve as a wholesaler of parts and accessories;

K. prevent or attempt to prevent by contract or otherwise any motor vehicle dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation of his dealership, provided the dealer at all times meets any reasonable capital standards agreed to between the dealership and the manufacturer, distributor or representative, and provided such change by the dealer does not result in a change in the executive management control of the dealership;

L. prevent or attempt to prevent by contract or otherwise any motor vehicle dealer or any officer, partner or stockholder of any motor vehicle dealer from selling or transferring any part of the interest of any of them to any other person or party; provided, however, that no dealer, officer, partner or stockholder shall have the right to sell, transfer or assign the franchise or power of management or control thereunder without the consent of the manufacturer, distributor or representative except that the manufacturer, distributor or representative shall not withhold consent to the sale, transfer or assignment of the franchise to a qualified buyer capable of being licensed in New Mexico and who meets the manufacturer's or distributor's uniformly applied requirement for appointment as a dealer. Uniform application shall not prevent the application of a separate standard of consent for sale, transfer or assignment to minority or women dealer candidates, nor require the application of an identical standard to all persons in all situations. The requirement of uniform application shall be met if the manufacturer applies the same set of standards, which takes into account business performance and experience, financial qualifications, facility requirements and other relevant characteristics; provided that, if two dealers, persons or situations are identical, given the characteristics considered in the standards, the two dealers, persons or situations shall be treated identically, except as provided in this subsection. The sole fact that the manufacturer, distributor or representative desires further penetration of the market shall not be grounds for establishing an additional franchise; provided, further, that the manufacturer, distributor or representative shall give a ninety-day written notice by registered mail to all same line-make dealers in a relevant market area of its intention to establish an additional franchise;

Q. offer to sell, lease or to sell or lease any new motor vehicle to any person, except a distributor at a lower actual price therefor than the actual price offered and charged to a motor vehicle dealer for the same model vehicle similarly equipped or to utilize any device that results in such lesser actual price;

W. fail to recognize and approve the transfer of a dealership to any person named as a successor, donee, beneficiary or devisee in any valid testamentary or trust instrument; provided that a manufacturer or distributor may impose standards or criteria used in any transfer;

X. impose capitalization requirements not necessary to assure that the dealership can meet its financial obligations; or

Y. compel a dealer through a finance subsidiary of the manufacturer or distributor to agree to unreasonable operating requirements or directly or indirectly to terminate a dealer, except as allowed by Subsection F of Section 57-16-5 NMSA 1978, through the actions of a finance subsidiary of the manufacturer or distributor. The manufacturer or distributor and the dealer are each responsible for one-half of the cost of delivering the inventory to the manufacturer or distributor.

B. If the manufacturer or its agent or authorized dealer, after a reasonable number of attempts, is unable to conform the new motor vehicle to any applicable express warranty by repairing or correcting any defect or condition which substantially impairs the use and market value of the motor vehicle to the consumer, the manufacturer shall replace the motor vehicle with a comparable motor vehicle or accept return of the vehicle from the consumer and refund to the consumer the full purchase price including all collateral charges, less a reasonable allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle. The subtraction of a reasonable allowance for use shall apply when either a replacement or refund of the new motor vehicle occurs. As used in this subsection, a reasonable allowance for use shall be that amount directly attributable to use by the consumer prior to his first report of the nonconformity to the manufacturer, agent or dealer and during any subsequent period when the vehicle is not out of service by reason of repair. (1) the same uncorrected nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents or authorized dealers within the express warranty term or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a consumer, whichever is the earlier date, but the nonconformity continues to exist; or

(2) the vehicle is in the possession of the manufacturer, its agent or authorized dealer for repair a cumulative total of thirty or more business days during such term or during such period whichever is the earlier date, exclusive of down time for routine maintenance as prescribed by the manufacturer. The term of an express warranty, such one-year period and such thirty-day period shall be extended by any period of time during which repair services are not available to the consumer because of war, invasion, strike, fire, flood or other natural disaster. In no event shall the presumption herein provided apply against a manufacturer unless the manufacturer has received prior direct written notification from or on behalf of the consumer and an opportunity to cure the defect alleged. The manufacturer shall provide written notice and instruction to the consumer, either in the warranty or a separate notice, of the obligation to file this written notification before invoking the remedies available pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Quality Assurance Act [57-16A-1 to 57-16A-9 NMSA 1978].

C. The remedies of a consumer, pursuant to the provisions of this section, are in addition to any other rights or remedies available to a consumer pursuant to applicable laws or regulations.

D. No action under this section may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction more than one year after the date the consumer made his last rental payment or more than one year after the date of the occurrence of the violation that is the subject of the suit, whichever is later.

C. No provision of Section 11 of the Rental-Purchase Agreement Act applies to any action done or omitted in good faith in conformity with some provision of that act, notwithstanding that after the action or omission has occurred the provision is amended, rescinded or determined by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid for any reason.
