Discretion to terminate officer for not passing physical. - The board charged with management and control of the department has the discretion to terminate an officer for failure to pass the required physical examination. This is a continuing qualification and members must pass any reasonable physical examination required from time to time. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Notice and hearing required. - While the board may require its officers to submit to and pass any physical examination reasonably required and while the failure to pass may be the basis for a removal proceeding, this is far different from vaulting this section to a power of dismissal at the discretion of the board without prior notice and a hearing. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Prohibited relationship degrees. - It may be said that the officer and his wife stand one and the same, in relation to the collateral line relationship of the wife. This being so, the wife and her brother stand as to one another in the second degree. And continuing one degree further to the son of the aforesaid brother, being also the nephew of the herein considered officer's wife, a prohibited relationship degree exists, e.g., a third-degree separation. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170.

Applicant not considered for state police. - It is not permissible for an applicant to be considered for the New Mexico state police force, whose father's sister is married to an officer of said force. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-170.

The New Mexico state police shall cause all applicants for the position of commissioned officer to submit a written detailed application on such forms as the board shall prescribe, and the board shall cause an investigation to be made of all applicants, subsequent to their taking the examination hereinafter referred to, for the purpose of determining the moral character, general reputation and fitness of any applicant, and any such applicant who is found unfit as a result of such investigation shall be disqualified for employment. The board shall by rule prescribe the physical qualifications of applicants and shall require each applicant to submit to a physical examination by such doctors as the board shall designate, and any applicant who does not meet the physical requirements prescribed by the board shall be disqualified for employment. Inasmuch as laws have been enacted providing for retirement, disability and life insurance funds for members of the New Mexico state police, it is the intention of the legislature that no applicants will be appointed who are in such physical condition that the cost of such protection will thereby be increased.

All new appointments as members of the New Mexico state police shall be for a probationary period of two years. During such probationary period such new members may be removed or suspended at the discretion of the chief of the New Mexico state police. At the end of two years of satisfactory service and upon recommendation of the chief and with concurrence of the New Mexico state police board, the appointee may receive a permanent commission as a member of the New Mexico state police. However, the probationary period may be extended beyond a two-year period upon the recommendation of the chief with the concurrence of the board.

§ 29-2-10. Promotions.

All promotions in the New Mexico state police to the rank of sergeant shall be made after written examinations; provided, however, that on such examination for the rank of sergeant, the record of the party seeking promotion as a member of the New Mexico state police and his length of service shall be given a weight of forty percent in such examination. All promotions above the rank of sergeant shall be made by the chief after concurrence and approval by the New Mexico state police board. The ranks of sergeant, lieutenant and captain shall be permanent unless established as an exempt rank by the chief with the concurrence of the board. All promotions above the rank of captain are by executive appointment of the chief with concurrence of the board and such persons shall serve at the pleasure of the chief with the concurrence of the board.

§ 29-2-11. Disciplinary proceedings.

No officer of the New Mexico state police holding a permanent commission shall be removed from office, demoted or suspended except for incompetence, neglect of duty, violation of a published rule of conduct, malfeasance in office or conduct unbecoming an officer, except as provided in this section. The secretary may suspend an officer for disciplinary reasons for not more than thirty days in accordance with New Mexico state police regulation. Any officer holding a permanent commission who is suspended by the secretary has the right to have the suspension reviewed by the commission, but without further review or appeal. In the event the officer is to be removed from office, demoted or suspended for a period of more than thirty days, specific written charges shall be filed with the commission. Timely and adequate notice of the charges to the person charged shall be provided and a prompt hearing on the charges shall be held by the commission. The person so charged has the right to be represented by counsel of his own choice and at his own expense at the hearings. A complete record of the hearing shall be made and, upon request, a copy of it shall be furnished to the person charged. The person may require that the hearing be public. In the event the commission finds that the person charged shall be removed, demoted or suspended for a period in excess of thirty days, the person may appeal from the decision of the commission to the district court of Santa Fe county. The appeal shall be filed within twenty days after the decision of the commission is rendered, and the court shall determine promptly whether there is substantial evidence to support the commission's action and dispose of the appeal accordingly. The determination shall be made on the basis of the record except that, for cause shown, the court shall permit either the secretary or the person charged to introduce new evidence.

The 1987 amendment, effective July 1, 1987, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, substituted "except as provided in this section" for "and only on specific written charges filed with the commission with timely and adequate notice of the charges to the person charged and after a hearing on the charges by the commission" in the first sentence; added the present second through fifth sentences; inserted "of his own choice and at his own expense" in the sixth sentence; rewrote the ninth sentence, which formerly read: "In the event the commission recommends to the secretary that the person charged shall be removed, demoted or suspended for a period in excess of thirty days and the secretary so orders, the person may appeal from the decision of the secretary to the district court of the district in which the alleged cause or any one of the alleged causes for the proceeding arose"; substituted "commission" for "secretary" and "commission's" for "secretary's" in the next-to-last sentence; deleted "provided, however, that the chief of the New Mexico state police may suspend members of the New Mexico state police for disciplinary reasons for periods not to exceed thirty days" at the end of the present last sentence; and deleted the former last sentence, which read: "Any member holding a permanent commission thus suspended by the chief has the right to have the suspension reviewed by the commission, but no further review or appeal shall be allowed."

Incompetence includes physical inability to perform. - Incompetence includes physical inability to perform, which inclusion fits in with the pattern and purpose of the statutory plan. A termination or removal for physical unfitness is no less final than one for another form of incompetence. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Physical inability to perform constitutes voluntary resignation not governed by section. - Request by officer injured in line of duty who had used all his sick leave for leave of absence which was improper under Rule 7, regulatory rule promulgated by state police board, issued pursuant to 29-2-22 NMSA 1978, and his physical inability to perform the functions of his job as a senior patrolman, constituted a voluntary resignation, not a termination governed by this section. Budagher v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 82 N.M. 787, 487 P.2d 489 (1971).

Officer must first pursue administrative remedy. - Police officer who was wrongfully dismissed and who claimed salary and other benefits must first pursue them administratively. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Transcript expense may be incurred by board. - Such expense as is necessary may be incurred to enable the board to make a factual determination in a disciplinary proceeding. It would be absurd to vest disciplinary power in the board and then hamstring such proceedings by refusing to pay the necessary expenses thereof. For this reason, if in their discretion the board feels a copy of the transcript is necessary, such expenditure is permissible. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-212.

No moneys expended for transcript expense in appeal. - If a transcript is necessary for the board to weigh disciplinary action, the transcript expense would be expendable in the same fashion as the board might incur a different type of expense for the same purpose. On the other hand, if the expense of the transcript is to be incurred wholly or partially to assist in the appeal of a judgment rendered personally against a state policeman, then and in that event such moneys cannot be expended either from the budgeted line item of "professional services" or from any other public moneys appropriated to the department. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-212.

Board is required to meet statutory procedures when it desires to terminate office, and if this is not done consequently the severance from service is short of statutory right. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

Where doubts as to right to procedural safeguards. - Any doubt as to the right to procedural safeguards should be resolved in the officer's favor unless the right to remove at will or pleasure is clearly expressed. Tafoya v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 81 N.M. 710, 472 P.2d 973 (1970).

No hearing required when reduction in rank. - The procedures of advancement, not a promotion, and reduction in rank resulting from regulation providing that all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent enable the chief to shift key personnel to positions where their interest and ability are used to best advantage, without the necessity of a hearing by New Mexico state police board. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972) (decided under former law).

§ 29-2-13. Uniforms and badges; uniform allowance to be set by secretary.

A suitable and distinctive uniform shall be prescribed by the secretary. The secretary shall provide and issue to each commissioned officer a uniform and an appropriate badge which shall contain in plain legible letters the words "New Mexico state police". The prescribed uniform and badge shall be worn at all times when on duty, except when by direction of the chief or the governor, any member of the New Mexico state police is assigned to special duties. Uniform allowance and subsistence pay shall be established by the secretary and allowed in addition to a commissioned officer's salary and paid on a monthly basis to each commissioned officer of the division. The uniform allowance and subsistence pay shall be expended only for the purposes allowed and any portion of the uniform allowance or subsistence pay not so spent in each fiscal year shall revert to the general fund.

History: 1941 Comp., § 40-213, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 147, § 13; 1953 Comp., § 39-2-13; Laws 1976, ch. 8, § 1; 1977, ch. 257, § 29; 1979, ch. 202, § 24; 1989, ch. 204, § 24.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, substituted "secretary" for "board" in the catchline and "secretary" for "New Mexico state police board" in the first sentence, deleted the former second and third sentences relating to establishment and expenditure of uniform allowance, substituted all of the language of the present second sentence preceding "which" for "The board shall also provide and issue to each member an appropriate badge and uniform", and added the last two sentences.

Effective dates. - Laws 1976, ch. 8, § 2, makes the act effective on July 1, 1976.

Legislative intent to repeal $10.00 allowance. - The intention of the legislature to effect repeal of the $10.00 per month clause of this section is clearly manifested through its enactment of the 1951 appropriation act authorizing a $20.00 allowance. 1951-52 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 5389 (opinion rendered under former law).

But allows each officer to purchase own uniform. - This section indicates the legislative intention to allow each officer to purchase his own uniforms, since the phraseology cannot be said to even imply that the purchase of uniforms is to be made by the department pursuant to the State Purchasing Agent Act. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-134 (rendered prior to 1989 amendment).

§ 29-2-14. Unauthorized wearing of uniform or badge; unauthorized marking of motor vehicle; penalty.

A. Unauthorized wearing of uniform or badge consists of the wearing or requiring the wearing, without authorization by the New Mexico state police board, of a uniform or badge or both whose material, color or design, or any combination of them, is such that the wearer appears to be a member of the New Mexico state police.

B. Unauthorized marking of motor vehicle consists of the marking, using, possessing or owning or requiring the marking or using, without authorization by the board, of a motor vehicle whose insignia, color or equipment, or any combination of them, is such that the motor vehicle appears to be a New Mexico state police motor vehicle.

C. Whoever commits unauthorized wearing of uniform or badge or unauthorized marking of motor vehicle is guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

§ 29-2-16. State police school; compensation.

A. Before entering upon his duties, every appointee to the New Mexico state police shall be required to attend for a period of at least ninety days a school of instruction approved by the New Mexico state police board. A uniform course of instruction shall be given all trainees governing the operation, maintenance and temporary roadside repair of motor vehicles, the laws of the state which the appointee may be called on to enforce and other instruction as the New Mexico state police board may require. Attendance at the school or other course of instruction as may be prescribed renders the person attending subject to the control of the New Mexico state police during attendance.

B. The board may, within the budgetary means of the New Mexico state police, allow subsistence and compensation for trainees attending the school of instruction at the New Mexico state police headquarters or elsewhere. The compensation allowed for each trainee, excluding room and board for a thirty-day period, shall be in the amount set by the legislature in the general appropriations act.

§ 29-2-18. State police chief and other members; powers and duties.

The chief and other members of the New Mexico state police, who, when duly commissioned and sworn under the provisions of Sections 29-2-1 through 29-2-29 NMSA 1978, shall have the following powers and shall perform the following duties:

A. they shall be conservators of the peace within the state, with full power to apprehend, arrest and bring before the proper court all law violators within the state;

B. they shall be ex officio deputies and agents of all the officers and departments of the taxation and revenue department and of the officers and departments within the state charged with the registration of motor vehicles, the issuance of licenses to operators of motor vehicles, and of the officers and departments of the state charged with the regulation and control of motor vehicles operated upon the public highways for hire in the transportation of either passengers or property;

C. they shall be charged with the enforcement of all laws of New Mexico regulating the use of highways; and

D. upon request of any officer or agency of the state, charged with the duty of enforcing any law of the state, made to the New Mexico state police board, one or more members of the New Mexico state police may be temporarily designated specifically to enforce the provisions of such law.

May arrest persons charged with violating state gambling laws. 1943-44 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 4616.

As well as for possession of marijuana. - Defendant's car was stopped during a general roadblock and defendant opened his car trunk and then his suitcase at the police officer's request. The officer found marijuana residue in the suitcase and defendant was then placed under arrest for possession of marijuana and the contraband was seized. This stop and seizure was not unlawfully accomplished and the court of appeals was in error in reversing the conviction of defendant for marijuana possession. State v. Bloom, 90 N.M. 192, 561 P.2d 465 (1977).

But during course of arrest may not use excessive force. - Plaintiff charged defendant police officer with unlawfully, willfully and maliciously assaulting him when the defendant threw plaintiff onto the pavement while removing him from a bar for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, causing breaks to plaintiff's leg. Police officers are entitled to use only reasonable force, not excessive force in performing their duties. Mead v. O'Connor, 66 N.M. 170, 344 P.2d 478 (1959).

B. The chief shall serve at the pleasure of the New Mexico state police board.

C. The seniority and retirement rating of the chief shall be continuous as for any other member.

Effective dates. - Laws 1981, ch. 185, contains no effective date provision, but was enacted at the session which adjourned on March 21, 1981. See N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23.

§ 29-2-20. Districts.

§ 29-2-21. Details.

The governor of New Mexico may from time to time detail all or any part of the New Mexico state police to such part of the state as in his judgment may be necessary to bring about proper law enforcement in the state to handle disturbances or to investigate specific law violations.

History: 1941 Comp., § 40-220, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 147, § 20; 1953 Comp., § 39-2-20; Laws 1977, ch. 257, § 36; 1979, ch. 202, § 30.

§ 29-2-22. Rule-making power; rules to establish standards of conduct.

The New Mexico state police board shall have authority to make and promulgate rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Sections 29-2-1 through 29-2-29 NMSA 1978. The New Mexico state police board shall establish by rules, from time to time, standards of conduct for members of the New Mexico state police and a copy thereof shall be delivered to each such member and displayed at each station of the department. Such rules shall be filed pursuant to the State Rules Act [14-3-24, 14-3-25, 14-4-1 to 14-4-9 NMSA 1978].

History: 1941 Comp., § 40-221, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 147, § 21; 1953, ch. 80, § 5; 1953 Comp., § 39-2-21; Laws 1977, ch. 257, § 37; 1978, ch. 82, § 5; 1979, ch. 202, § 31.

Board's authority to make rules controlled by statute. - Authority of the police board to promulgate rules and regulations must be found in and is limited by statute. Such authority is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Winston v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967 (1969).

Agency's authority includes express and implied powers granted. - It is a fundamental principle of administrative law that the authority of an agency is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes, also, all powers that may fairly be implied therefrom. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972).

Temporary rank adjustments within scope of powers. - Where New Mexico state police board has adopted a regulation providing that "all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent," and the officers who hold these ranks are given additional salary and emoluments, but these ranks, according to the record, are considered by the board and the department to be temporary, plaintiff's adjustments in rank from captain to major and major to lieutenant colonel were not promotions as such but were temporary advancements within the framework of administration of the New Mexico state police and both chief of police and the board acted within the scope of their authority under the laws of the state of New Mexico in adjusting plaintiff's rank from lieutenant colonel to major and from major to captain. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972) (decided under former law).

As well as regulation allowing director to shift key personnel. - The procedures of advancement and reduction in rank resulting from regulation providing that all ranks above captain will be appointments and not permanent enable the chief of police to shift key personnel to positions where their interest and ability are used to best advantage. Wimberly v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 83 N.M. 757, 497 P.2d 968 (1972) (decided under former law).

Board can prohibit employee from running for office. - The board can constitutionally promulgate a rule prohibiting a state police employee from running for or accepting a political office. State ex rel. Harkleroad v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 103 N.M. 270, 705 P.2d 676 (1985).

No authority for rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years. - There is no delegated authority for the state police board to promulgate a rule requiring mandatory retirement after 30 years of service; such rule would be unreasonable, arbitrary and conflict with the retirement by age 61 requirement of 29-2-6 B NMSA 1978. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-72.

And such rule is invalid. - State police board regulation providing for involuntary retirement of all police officers who had completed 30 years of service, even where such officers had not reached mandatory retirement age, exceeded statutory authority of the board and therefore was invalid. Winston v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 80 N.M. 310, 454 P.2d 967 (1969).

Effect of using all of sick leave. - Rule 7 of regulation promulgated by state police board filed pursuant to this section makes it clear that under no circumstances can an officer who was injured in line of duty but who has used up all of his sick leave be granted a leave of absence from the police department, and request for such leave constitutes a voluntary resignation. Budagher v. New Mexico State Police Bd., 82 N.M. 787, 487 P.2d 489 (1971).

A. It shall be the duty of the New Mexico state police to install and maintain complete systems for the identification of criminals, including the fingerprint system and the modus operandi system. The New Mexico state police shall obtain from whatever source procurable, and shall file and preserve for record, such plates, photographs, outline pictures, fingerprints, measurements, descriptions, modus operandi statements and such other information about, concerning and relating to any and all persons who have been or who shall hereafter be convicted of a felony or who shall attempt to commit a felony within this state, or who are well-known and habitual criminals, or who have been convicted of any of the following felonies or misdemeanors: illegally carrying, concealing or possessing a pistol or any other dangerous weapon; buying or receiving stolen property; unlawful entry of a building; escaping or aiding an escape from prison; making or possessing a fraudulent or forged check or draft; petit larceny; and unlawfully possessing or distributing habit-forming narcotic drugs.

The New Mexico state police may also obtain like information concerning persons who have been convicted of violating any of the military, naval or criminal laws of the United States, or who have been convicted of a crime in any other state, country, district or province, which, if committed within this state, would be a felony.

Such commissions shall bear the written approval of the governor of New Mexico; such commissions shall automatically expire and new ones issued and delivered upon each change in the directorship [chiefship] of the New Mexico state police or the governorship.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1103, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 3; 1951, ch. 49, § 1; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-3; Laws 1979, ch. 327, § 1.

Chief of the New Mexico state police. - Laws 1979, ch. 202, § 14, amends 29-2-3 NMSA 1978, and changes the name of the director of the New Mexico state police to chief of the state police.

§ 29-6-3. [Duties of board of directors.]

The board of directors shall be empowered to make rules and regulations for the government, control, management, supervision and internal organization of the New Mexico mounted patrol and to provide for the selection of troopers and for such officers and noncommissioned officers as may be necessary from time to time to command the various units or troops.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1104, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 4; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-4.

§ 29-6-4. [Duties of mounted patrol.]

It shall be the duty of the New Mexico mounted patrol and the members thereof to assist in the enforcement of law by cooperating with all law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies of the state of New Mexico when requested by them and under their direction and control; to act as an official bodyguard to the governor of this state or to distinguished visitors upon the call of the governor.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1105, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 5; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-5.

Legislative intent that patrol perform voluntarily. - Since no provision is found relating to the salaries or other compensation for services rendered, it must be concluded as the legislative intent that all members of the patrol were to perform in a voluntary and honorary capacity only. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

Generally, power to arrest same as private citizen. - Unless called in specific instances to assist law enforcement officers, officer's power to arrest is no different than that of a private citizen. Throughout the statutes it is seen that authority to arrest, other than as a private citizen, exists only when there is a specific request from regular law enforcement officers. And it is further apparent that when called upon to assist law enforcement agencies that patrol's conduct shall be under their direction and control. The commission which is issued can, of course, have no more force than the authority given by the statutes under which that commission is issued. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6350.

Uniform unnecessary to exercise authority. - It is not necessary that mounted patrol be in uniform in order to exercise the authority which it has. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6350.

Extra-hazardous duty not performed under color of employment agreement. - A trooper or officer of the New Mexico mounted patrol, in carrying out duties as provided, is without question engaging in extra-hazardous activities. However, such extra-hazardous duty is not being performed under any color of an employment agreement. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

§ 29-6-4.1. Training and entrance requirements of the New Mexico mounted patrol.

A. The New Mexico law enforcement academy is hereby empowered to approve a basic law enforcement training program for New Mexico mounted patrol members. The academy is authorized to promulgate the necessary rules and regulations setting program standards and record keeping requirements.

B. New Mexico mounted patrol members who began active service prior to July 1, 1983 are exempted from the basic law enforcement training requirements set forth in Subsection A of this section.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-6-4.1, enacted by Laws 1985, ch. 83, § 1.

Cross-references. - As to law enforcement training, see Article 7 of this chapter.

Effective dates. - Laws 1985, ch. 83 contains no effective date provision, but pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, is effective on June 14, 1985.

§ 29-6-5. Mounted patrol; aid to law enforcement agencies; workmen's compensation.

A. Members of the New Mexico mounted patrol may be detailed to assist and render aid in specific instances involving law enforcement or other matters when request is made for such assistance and aid by the New Mexico state police or other state or local law enforcement agencies. When acting upon such call, members shall be deemed to be the agents or deputies of the authority issuing such request, shall be possessed of the same powers and duties as such requesting authorities and shall be completely covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act [Article 1 of Chapter 52] if the employer's insurance policy is endorsed to clearly show that its coverage extends to the claimant.

B. For purposes of calculating the amount of any mounted patrol member's disability or death benefits pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Act, the member's average weekly wages shall be deemed to be the average weekly wages the member was receiving from any and every employer, regardless of whether the member's employment with such employer was covered in fact by the Workmen's Compensation Act. The degree of disability, if any, shall be determined on the basis of the member's disability in regard to such other employment.

C. If a mounted patrol member is covered by workmen's compensation coverage pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the Workmen's Compensation Act shall be his exclusive remedy against the mounted patrol and the supervising law enforcement agency for any injury or death proximately caused by accident arising out of and in the course of the member's duties.

History: 1941 Comp., § 66-1106, enacted by Laws 1941, ch. 149, § 6; 1953 Comp., § 9-11-6; Laws 1961, ch. 241, § 1; 1983, ch. 247, § 1.

The 1983 amendment added the catchline, designated the formerly undesignated provisions as Subsection A and added Subsections B and C.

Effective dates. - Laws 1983, ch. 247, contains no effective date provision, but was enacted at the session which adjourned on March 19, 1983. See N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23.

Meaning of "state police". - When the statute refers to the New Mexico state police without any qualification, it grants power to any regularly appointed, active member of the state police to call upon a member of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

State police may call for law enforcement matters only. - The mounted patrol may only be called upon by the state police for matters involving law enforcement, to assist and render aid to the state police, and for other matters related to the function of the state police. The statute does not contemplate calling upon members of the mounted patrol for training purposes, and the state police may not call upon members of the mounted patrol for the purpose of giving training to the mounted patrol. But where the purpose is law enforcement, or to render assistance to the state police in a proper function of the state police, then any member of the state police is authorized to call out members of the mounted patrol for assistance. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

When no actual emergency exists, a member of the mounted patrol whose assistance is requested by the state police must be furnished the request in writing, signed by the officer making the request. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-239.

No state insurance or compensation plan coverage. - Members of the New Mexico mounted patrol are not covered by any state insurance or compensation plan during periods of service as provided. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

If group insurance is acquired, then classification is as a unit. - For purposes of acquiring group insurance protection, a troop of the New Mexico mounted patrol is classified as a unit or group under 59-18-16 NMSA 1978, 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

§ 29-6-6. [Service upon call of governor.]

The governor shall have the power in case of insurrection, invasion, riot, breach of the peace or imminent danger to call into service the New Mexico mounted patrol or any unit or member thereof. Any and all service under such call shall be under the direction and control of the governor.

In order to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements, the academy should evaluate candidates who have received general discharges on an individual basis. The circumstances surrounding the discharge should be evaluated to determine if the discharge was predicated on reasons which would render the applicant ineligible for certification. In the absence of such circumstances, applicants with general discharges should not be excluded solely because they received a general discharge. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-23.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-7-8, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 202, § 48; 1981, ch. 114, § 9; 1988, ch. 58, § 4; 1989, ch. 194, § 1.

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1979, ch. 202, § 48, repealed former 29-7-8 NMSA 1978, relating to prerequisites for permanent appointment as a police officer, and enacted a new 29-7-9 NMSA 1978.

The 1988 amendment, effective July 1, 1988, made a minor stylistic change in the introductory paragraph in Subsection A; substituted "holds a valid New Mexico driver's license" for "has not been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude" in Subsection A(3); in Subsection A(4), deleted "emotional or mental" preceding "condition" and added the language at the end of the subsection following "a police officer"; added Subsection A(5) and redesignated former Subsections A(5) and A(6) as present Subsections A(6) and A(7); and made minor stylistic changes.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, added Subsection C.

Emergency clauses. - Laws 1981, ch. 114, § 14, makes the act effective immediately. Approved April 3, 1981.

Undersheriffs must comply with this section's certification requirements. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-09.

Inspectors of the motor transportation division of the New Mexico department of transportation are required to attend a New Mexico law enforcement academy approved course and receive certification from the academy. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-25.

Officers of livestock board. - The livestock board in its capacity of enforcing the law is a "law enforcement agency" and its officers are "police officers" for purposes of § 29-7-7, and livestock inspectors have 12 months after employment in which to receive their certification from the law enforcement academy or forfeit their positions. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-34 (rendered prior to 1988 amendment of 29-7-7F NMSA 1978).

Wildlife law enforcement officers can be required to hold New Mexico and United States citizenship. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-30.

Candidate who received general discharge from military. - A candidate for admission to the Law Enforcement Academy who received a general discharge from the military may be certified as a police officer. In order to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements, the academy should evaluate candidates who have received general discharges on an individual basis. The circumstances surrounding the discharge should be evaluated to determine if the discharge was predicated on reasons which would render the applicant ineligible for certification. In the absence of such circumstances, applicants with general discharges should not be excluded solely because they received a general discharge. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-23.

§ 29-7-10. Certification by waiver.

A. The director shall, with the approval of the board, waive the basic law enforcement training program and certify applicants who are employed as full-time police officers and who furnish evidence of satisfactory completion of a basic law enforcement training program which is comparable to or exceeds the standards of the programs of the academy.

B. All individuals allowed a waiver under this section must meet the requirements set out in the Law Enforcement Training Act [29-7-1 to 29-7-11 NMSA 1978], and this section shall not be construed to exempt them from such requirements in any manner.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-6-12, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 247, § 4; 1977, ch. 257, § 54; 1979, ch. 104, § 1; 1979, ch. 202, § 49; 1981, ch. 107, § 1; 1981, ch. 114, § 10.

Laws 1981, ch. 114, § 14, makes the act effective immediately. Approved April 3, 1981.

Authority of director to consider qualifications of instructors. - In exercising his authority to certify by waiver, the director should take into account the qualifications of instructors to determine if another basic law enforcement training program is comparable to the academy program. In that context, the director and the board are authorized to review and consider the qualifications of instructors at facilities not otherwise under the control of the law enforcement academy board. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-10.

History: 1978 Comp., § 29-7-11, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 58, § 5.

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1988, ch. 58, § 5 repeals former 29-7-11 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 114, § 11, relating to annual need determinations for budget purposes, and enacts the above section, effective July 1, 1988. For provisions of former section, see 1984 Replacement Pamphlet.

Appropriations. - Laws 1988, ch. 58, § 6, effective July 1, 1988, appropriates $1,000,000 from the general fund to the law enforcement training center fund created by 29-7-11 NMSA 1978 for expenditure in the seventy-seventh fiscal year.

The chief of the training and education bureau [director of New Mexico law enforcement academy] shall waive the above training requirements for all police radio dispatchers who are serving full time on the effective date of the Police Radio Dispatcher Training Act and shall award each such police radio dispatcher a certificate.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-7-2, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 153, § 2.

§ 29-8-3. Mutual aid agreements.

Any state, county or municipal agency having and maintaining peace officers may enter into mutual aid agreements with any public agency as defined in the Mutual Aid Act [29-8-1 to 29-8-3 NMSA 1978], with respect to law enforcement, provided any such agreement shall be approved by the agency involved and the governor.

Article 9

Organized Crime Act

§ 29-9-1. Short title.

Sections 29-9-1 through 29-9-17 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Organized Crime Act."

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 1; 1977, ch. 215, § 1.

Compiler's notes. - Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 9 provided that the act shall terminate on July 1, 1981.

Laws 1981, ch. 234, § 2, repeals Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 9.

Laws 1981, ch. 234, contains no effective date provision, but was enacted at the session which adjourned on March 21, 1981. See N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23.

Statute not amenable to vagueness claim. - The Organized Crime Act is not the type of statute that is amenable to a claim of unconstitutional vagueness because the vagueness doctrine is applied when a potential actor is exposed to criminal sanctions without a fair warning as to the nature of a proscribed activity, whereas the Organized Crime Act is not a penal statute: the only sanction that can come from the act is a contempt citation for failure to abide by a court order. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978).

Word "racketeering" does not need to appear in title to Laws 1977, ch. 215, which amends the Organized Crime Act; nor does the title violate N.M. Const., art. IV, § 16, although the 1977 amendment for the first time authorizes the commission to investigate racketeering, since racketeering is reasonably germane to the subject matter of organized crime. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978).

Law reviews. - For article, "Survey of New Mexico Law, 1979-80: Administrative Law," see 11 N.M.L. Rev. 1 (1981).

§ 29-9-2. Definitions.

As used in the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978];

A. "organized crime" means the supplying for profit of illegal goods and services, including, but not limited to, gambling, loan sharking, narcotics and other forms of vice and corruption, by members of a structured and disciplined organization;

B. "public officer" means any elected or appointed officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions, serving with or without remuneration for his services; and

C. "commission" means the governor's organized crime prevention commission.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-2, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 2.

§ 29-9-3. Commission created; membership.

A. There is created the "governor's organized crime prevention commission." The commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor with the advice and the consent of the senate. No more than four members shall belong to the same political party and at least one member shall be a member of the New Mexico bar.

B. Persons appointed to the commission shall:

(1) be of unquestioned integrity and of high standing and influence within the state by virtue of their demonstrated capacity for leadership;

(2) be selected from the various parts of the state in such manner as to provide broad geographical representation on the commission; and

(3) be given a security clearance by an appropriate agency designated by the governor to conduct a clearance investigation.

C. Members of the commission shall be appointed for staggered terms of four years each, three ending on December 31, 1975, two ending on December 31, 1976, and two ending on December 31, 1977. Thereafter, appointments shall be made for terms of four years or less so that the terms of not more than three commission members expire on December 31 of any year.

D. Members of the commission shall receive per diem and mileage as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978] and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite or allowance.

E. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term by the governor. A vacancy on the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the commission, provided the commission has at least four members.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 3; 1977, ch. 215, § 2.

§ 29-9-4. Purpose of commission.

The purpose of the commission is to forestall, check and prevent the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico by:

A. investigating the extent to which organized crime and racketeering has or has not infiltrated and encroached into private and public affairs within New Mexico;

B. investigating those conditions, including the effectiveness of the execution and enforcement of the laws and the conduct of public officers and employees, which may lead to, or may have led to, the infiltration and encroachment of organized crime into public and private affairs within New Mexico; and

C. reporting to the proper authorities and making public as authorized by this act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] the results of its investigations and recommending corrective measures and improvements.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-3.1, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 215, § 3.

§ 29-9-5. Powers and duties of commission.

- (1) assess and evaluate the activities and problems involving organized crime within New Mexico;
- (2) develop a comprehensive plan for the suppression and control of organized crime in New Mexico and its encroachment into the state;
- (3) recommend programs to combat organized crime;
- (4) examine matters relating to law enforcement extending across the boundaries of the state into other states and consult and exchange information with officers and agencies of other states with respect to law enforcement problems of mutual concern in regard to organized crime;
- (5) make an annual report to the governor and legislature which shall include its recommendations concerning matters within its jurisdiction and authority;
- (6) keep the public informed as to the operation of organized crime and the problems of criminal law enforcement in New Mexico as they relate to organized crime by such means and to such extent as it deems appropriate;
- (7) advise and assist, upon request, the attorney general, a district attorney or any other law enforcement official in the performance of his official powers and duties;
- (8) cooperate with departments and officers of the federal government in the suppression of organized crime; and
- (9) cooperate with agencies concerned with organized crime in coordinating efforts to investigate and suppress organized crime.

B. The commission shall conduct investigations as are necessary to carry out the purpose of the commission pursuant to Section 29-9-4 NMSA 1978.

- (1) empower its staff to conduct any investigation authorized by this section and to maintain offices and hold meetings and functions at any place within New Mexico as it may deem necessary;
- (2) conduct private and public hearings and designate one or more commission members or staff members to preside over any such hearings; provided staff members shall be without vote in such hearings;
- (3) receive testimony from witnesses, request their attendance, examine them and request production of any books, records, documents or other evidence as it may deem relevant or material to an investigation. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission;

(4) administer oaths or affirmations; examine witnesses under oath or affirmation; and subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance before the commission and require them to produce before the commission any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation. No subpoena shall be issued without the adoption and acknowledgment, by resolution of five members of the commission, and further provided that a copy of said resolution with acknowledgments be attached to any and all subpoenas issued by the commission. The commission may designate any of its members or members of its staff to exercise any such powers, pursuant to regulations adopted by the commission. If any person subpoenaed pursuant to this section neglects or refuses to obey the command of the subpoena, any district court may, on proof by affidavit of service of the subpoena and of refusal or neglect by the person to obey the command of the subpoena, issue an order for the person to appear immediately before the court, which is authorized to proceed against the person as for a contempt of court. At any time before the return date of the subpoena, the person subpoenaed may file a petition to set aside the subpoena, modify the subpoena, or extend the return date thereon in the district court of any county in which the commission has an office or the district court of the county to which the person is subpoenaed to appear, and the court upon a showing of good cause may set aside the subpoena, modify it or extend the return date of the subpoena;

(5) petition a district court ex parte to order the attendance of witnesses before the commission and the production before the commission of any books, records, documents or other evidence relevant or material to an investigation, where it appears that the witness resides outside the state, may imminently depart the state or may secrete himself to avoid attendance before the commission or to avoid other lawful process. A witness may challenge execution of the order by filing a motion to quash the order with the district court before the return date named in the order;

(6) any and all proceedings brought before the court pursuant to Paragraphs 4 and 5 of this section, regarding subpoenas, shall be conducted in camera and shall be kept under the seal of the court.

D. Every witness appearing before the commission may request to be examined in private. Upon such request, the witness's testimony shall be in private with no persons present other than members of the commission, members of the commission's staff and the witness. The testimony and other evidence may be disseminated to law enforcement agencies as deemed proper by the commission but the content or details of the testimony and records produced by the witness shall not be made public, except that the commission, without disclosing the name of the witness, may issue a public report summarizing information obtained from its private hearings for the purpose of informing the public and its officials of the extent to which organized crime has infiltrated

New Mexico and conditions which may lead to the infiltration of organized crime.

E. The commission shall not take testimony at a public hearing unless at least four of its members are present, or unless at least two members of the commission and at least two staff members are present. The commission shall not take testimony at a private hearing unless at least one of its members is present.

F. Witnesses appearing before the commission shall receive per diem and mileage as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978] and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite or allowance.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-4, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 4; 1977, ch. 215, § 4; 1979, ch. 148, § 1.

Cross-references. - As to administrative attachment to the criminal justice department, see 9-3-11 NMSA 1978.

Emergency clauses. - Laws 1979, ch. 148, § 2, makes the act effective immediately. Approved March 28, 1979.

Administrative subpoenas not subject to fourth amendment. - The commission is an investigatory rather than an accusatory body, and therefore its subpoenas are administrative subpoenas. Administrative subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, are not subject to the search and seizure provisions of the fourth amendment of the United States constitution. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978) (decided before 1979 amendment).

Requirements for lawful subpoena. - In order to obtain a subpoena, the commission must show, and the district court must decide, that the investigation is within the power of the commission, the subpoena is definite enough and the material sought is reasonably relevant to the purpose of the investigation; what is reasonably relevant depends on the nature and purpose of the investigation, and relevancy cannot be determined in the absence of a stated purpose. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978) (decided before 1979 amendment).

Right to challenge subpoena. - After a subpoena is issued the individual or institution upon whom it is served has an opportunity to challenge it. Since the subpoenas issued under the Organized Crime Act (29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978) ask only for voluntary compliance, and the commission is authorized to go to district court to seek enforcement, the legislature must have contemplated that the subpoenaed person would be allowed to show at that hearing why the subpoena should not be enforced. In re Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Comm'n, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (1978) (decided before 1979 amendment).

§ 29-9-6. Repealed.

Repeals. - Laws 1989, ch. 204, § 26 repeals 29-9-6 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 5, relating to employees, effective July 1, 1989. For provisions of former section, see 1984 Replacement Pamphlet.

§ 29-9-7. Construction.

Nothing contained in the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978] shall be construed to supersede, repeal or limit any power, duty or function of the executive department, or any agency of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, conferred by law.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-9-6, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 225, § 6.

§ 29-9-8. Confidentiality; impounding of exhibits.

A. Upon application of the commission, a district court may impound an exhibit marked in evidence at any public or private hearing held by the commission, and may order the exhibit to be retained by or delivered to and placed in the custody of the commission. If impounded, an exhibit shall not be taken from the custody of the commission except upon order of the district court granted after five days' notice to the commission or at the request or with the consent of the commission. Upon the removal from the custody of the commission of any impounded exhibit, it shall be returned to the person lawfully entitled to its possession.

B. The records, reports and files of the commission are not subject to the Public Records Act [14-3-1 to 14-3-16, 14-3-18 NMSA 1978] or Sections 10-15-1 through 10-15-4 NMSA 1978. The records, reports and files of the commission shall not be subject to subpoena except by order of the supreme court of New Mexico.

C. If, in the course of any investigation or hearing conducted by the commission pursuant to the Organized Crime Act [29-9-1 to 29-9-17 NMSA 1978], a person refuses to answer a question or questions or produce evidence of any kind on the ground that he will thereby be exposed to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, the commission may order the person to answer the question or questions or produce the requested evidence and confer immunity as provided in this section. No order to answer or produce evidence with immunity shall be made except by resolution of a two-thirds majority of all the members of the commission and after the attorney general and the appropriate district attorney have been given at least ten days' written notice of the commission's intention to issue such order and afforded an opportunity to be heard in respect to any objections they or either of them may have to the granting of immunity. Upon application of the attorney general or the appropriate district attorney within ten days of the written notice, the commission shall defer the issuance of any order under this subsection for such period, not longer than thirty days from the date of the application, as the attorney general or district attorney may specify.

B. If, upon issuance of an order pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the person complies with such order, he shall be immune from having such responsive answer given by him or such responsive evidence produced by him, or evidence derived therefrom used to expose him to criminal prosecution or penalty or forfeiture, except that such person may be prosecuted for any perjury committed in such answer or in producing such evidence, or for contempt for failing to give an answer or produce evidence in accordance with the order of the commission; and any such answer given or evidence produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such perjury, or upon any investigation, proceeding or trial against him for such contempt.

A copy of the resolution, statute, order or other provision of law authorizing the investigation shall be furnished by the commission upon request by the person summoned.

C. A witness summoned to a hearing shall have the right to be accompanied by counsel, who shall be permitted to advise the witness of his rights, subject to reasonable limitations to prevent obstruction of or interference with the orderly conduct of the hearing. Counsel for any witness who testifies at a public hearing may submit proposed questions to be asked of the witness relevant to the matters upon which the witness has been questioned, and the commission shall ask the witness such of the questions as it may deem appropriate to its inquiry.

D. A complete and accurate record shall be kept of each public hearing and a witness shall be entitled to receive a copy of his testimony at such hearing at his own expense. H. Article 10

Arrest Record Information Act

§ 29-10-1. Short title.

This act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Arrest Record Information Act."

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-1, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 1.

Cross-references. - For right to inspect public records, see 14-2-1 NMSA 1978. For children's code, inspection of social and legal records, see 32-1-44 NMSA 1978.

Generally. - The Arrest Record Information Act may be viewed as establishing statutory exceptions to the fundamental right to inspect. It does so, however, in a rather conflicting manner, and it appears that virtually all arrest record information is subject to at least a limited or conditional disclosure. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Release of timely, accurate information. - The Arrest Record Information Act does not prohibit release of timely, accurate information when a juvenile is arrested for a criminal act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

§ 29-10-2. Purpose of act.

The legislature finds and declares that the responsible exchange of complete and accurate information among law enforcement agencies is recognized as necessary and indispensable to effective law enforcement. Individual rights, however, may be infringed if information is inaccurate, incomplete or is disseminated irresponsibly. The Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] is for the purpose of protecting those rights.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-2, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 2.

Violation not limited. - The Arrest Record Information Act does not limit the violation of the act to any particular class of persons. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9). See notes to 29-10-3 NMSA 1978.

Release of juvenile's arrest information. - A law enforcement agency is not prohibited by the Children's Code, this act, or any other law, from releasing to the public the names of juveniles who have been arrested for criminal acts and the charges for which they were arrested. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-29.

§ 29-10-3. Definitions.

As used in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978]:

A. "arrest record information" means notations of the arrest or detention, or indictment or filing of information or other formal criminal charge against an individual made by a law enforcement agency which resulted in a negative disposition; and

B. "negative disposition" means that:

(1) criminal proceedings have been concluded and the defendant was found not guilty;

(2) a prosecutor has elected not to refer a matter for prosecution; or

(3) criminal proceedings have been indefinitely postponed, and includes but is not limited to acquittal, case continued without finding, charge dismissed, charge dismissed due to insanity or mental incompetence, charge still pending due to insanity or mental incompetence, nolle prosequi, deceased, deferred disposition, pardoned, extradition proceedings have been concluded and mistrial-defendant discharged.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-3, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 3; 1977, ch. 339, § 1.

Section A includes both felony and misdemeanor arrest records. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Definition of "arrest record information" does not include investigative reports. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Application of statute. - The Arrest Record Information Act does not come into play until after the filing of a "formal criminal charge" or the "arrest" of an individual, followed by a "negative disposition" of the charges. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Only those notations of an arrest or detention or formal criminal charge filed by a law enforcement agency which result in dispositions which are included in Subsection B(1), (2) or (3) are subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Disclosure proper where no negative disposition results. - The records of an adult charged with an offense which does not result in a "negative disposition" would be disclosable, as those records would not constitute "arrest record information" as defined by this section. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

What legislature intended by term "negative disposition" is a disposition which is either not favorable to the state, favorable to the individual charged or inconclusive. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

§ 29-10-4. Confidentiality of arrest records.

The arrest record information maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions pertaining to any person charged with the commission of any crime shall be confidential and dissemination or the revealing the contents thereof, except as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978], is unlawful.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-4, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 4.

Cross-references. - For crimes defined and classified, see 30-1-4 to 30-1-6 NMSA 1978.

Penalty provision repealed. - While this section still provides that violations of the Arrest Record Information Act are "unlawful," there are no longer any criminal sanctions for releasing arrest record information in violation of the provisions of the act, since 39-10-7, 1953 Comp., the penalty provision, was repealed by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 6. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Am. Jur. 2d, A.L.R. and C.J.S. references. - 66 Am. Jur. 2d Records and Recording Laws § 27.
6A C.J.S. Arrest § 62.

§ 29-10-5. Exchange of information.

A law enforcement agency may disseminate arrest record information to a federal, state or local government law enforcement agency, provided that when the arrest record information is disseminated to a law enforcement agency situated outside this state, the information shall be accompanied by a statement substantially embodying the intent set forth in Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978. Nothing in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] prohibits direct access by the attorney general, the district attorney, the crime victims reparation commission or the courts to such information where it is deemed necessary in the performance of their functions under law. Nothing in that act prohibits direct access by a law enforcement agency to automated wanted information pertaining to a person or to stolen property information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-5, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 5; 1977, ch. 339, § 2; 1987, ch. 140, § 1.

The 1987 amendment, effective June 19, 1987, near the end of the first sentence substituted "29-10-4 NMSA 1978" for "29-10-4 NMSA 1978 of the Arrest Record Information Act," towards the middle of the second sentence inserted "the crime victims reparation commission" following "the district attorney," in the last sentence substituted "that act" for "the Arrest Record Information Act" and made minor language changes throughout the section.

§ 29-10-6. Access by individuals.

A. Upon satisfactory verification of his identity, any individual may inspect, in person, through counsel or through his authorized agent, arrest record information maintained by [a] law enforcement agency concerning him.

B. Personnel assigned to contractual research for a state or federally approved criminal justice project shall be permitted access to arrest record information. Approval personnel shall not further disseminate such information except as statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-6, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 6; 1977, ch. 339, § 3.

§ 29-10-7. Application.

A. The provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] do not apply to criminal history record information contained in:

(1) posters, announcements or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;

(2) original records of entry such as police blotters maintained by criminal justice agencies, compiled chronologically and required by law or long-standing custom to be made public, if such records are organized on a chronological basis;

(3) court records of public judicial proceedings;

(4) published court or administrative opinions or public judicial, administrative or legislative proceedings;

(5) records of traffic offenses and accident reports;

(6) announcements of executive clemency; and

(7) statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

B. Nothing in this act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] prevents a law enforcement agency from disclosing to the public arrest record information related to the offense for which an adult individual is currently within the criminal justice system. Nor is a law enforcement agency prohibited from confirming prior arrest record information to members of the news media or any other person, upon specific inquiry as to whether a named individual was arrested, detained, indicted or whether an information or other formal charge was filed, on a specified date, if the arrest record information disclosed is based on data enumerated by Subsection A of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-8, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4.

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4, repeals 39-10-8, 1953 Comp., relating to the application of the Arrest Record Information Act, and enacts the above section.

Information to be included in police blotter. - The following information may be appropriately included by a law enforcement agency in a police blotter or original record of entry; the name, physical description, place and date of birth, address and occupation of the individual arrested; the time and place of arrest; the offense for which the individual was arrested or detained; and the name of the arresting officer. This list should be interpreted as a minimum requirement but not to the exclusion of additional information which may presently appear on the initial records of entry or police blotters being used by some law enforcement agencies. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Repeal and reenactment broadened exemption. - In the repeal and reenactment of this section, the phrase "indexed chronologically" in Subsection A(2) became "compiled chronologically," thus removing the requirement that the records must be "indexed" to qualify as "original records of entry." The phrase "or long-standing custom" was added also, thereby legitimating a long-standing custom by which many law enforcement agencies had released information from police blotters and other such original records. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Meaning of "within the criminal justice system". - While the statute does not specify what is meant by "within the criminal justice system," the term appears to relate to the status of an adult who has been arrested or formally charged with a criminal offense until such time as there is a final "negative disposition." 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

§ 29-10-8. Review of arrest record information.

A person who believes that arrest record information concerning him is inaccurate or incomplete shall, upon satisfactory verification of his identity, be entitled to review such information and obtain a copy of it for the purpose of challenge or correction. In the event a law enforcement agency refuses to correct challenged information to the satisfaction of the person to whom the inaccurate or incorrect information relates, the person shall be entitled to petition the district court to correct such information.
