Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts of insurance companies or any agent thereof from premiums and any consideration received by a property bondsman, as that person is defined in Section 59A-51-2 NMSA 1978, as security or surety for a bail bond in connection with a judicial proceeding.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.12, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 17; 1988, ch. 74, § 1.

7-9-25. Exemption; gross receipts tax; dividends and interest.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts received as interest on money loaned or deposited, receipts received as dividends or interest from stocks, bonds or securities or receipts from the sale of stocks, bonds or securities.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.13, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

Pawnbroker's receipts from sales of pawned chattel were not exempt or deductible from gross receipts tax as the recoupment of principal, interest, and handling charges attendant to the initial loan transaction. Wing Pawn Shop v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1991-NMCA-024, 111 N.M. 735, 809 P.2d 649 (decided on facts existing prior to enactment of Pawnbrokers Act, Section 56-12-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.)

7-9-26. Exemption; gross receipts and compensating tax; fuel.

Exempted from the gross receipts and compensating tax are the receipts from selling and the use of gasoline, special fuel or alternative fuel on which the tax imposed by Section 7-13-3, 7-16A-3 or 7-16B-4 NMSA 1978 has been paid and not refunded.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.14, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 19; 1971, ch. 176, § 1; 1980, ch. 105, § 2; 1981, ch. 175, § 1; 1983, ch. 225, § 1; 1993, ch. 31, § 7; 1995, ch. 16, § 12; 2023, ch. 85, § 12.

7-9-29. Exemption; gross receipts tax; certain organizations; exceptions.

A. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts of organizations that demonstrate to the department that they have been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered, except for receipts of a hospital licensed by the department of health.

B. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts from carrying on chamber of commerce, visitor bureau and convention bureau functions of organizations that demonstrate to the department that they have been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(6) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered.

C. This section does not apply to:

(1) receipts derived from an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered;

(2) receipts of a prime contractor that are derived from operating a facility in New Mexico designated as a national laboratory by an act of congress; or

(3) receipts of a prime contractor that are derived from operating a research facility in New Mexico that is owned by the state.

2019 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2019, ch. 44, § 1 and Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 33, both effective July 1, 2019, enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 33, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2019, ch. 44, § 1 and Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 33 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2019 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The nature of the difference between the amendments is that Laws 2019, ch. 44, § 1, excluded national laboratory contractors and contractors running state-owned research facilities from the gross receipts tax exemption for nonprofit organizations, and made certain technical amendments, and Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 33, excluded hospitals from the gross receipts tax exemption.

Laws 2019, ch. 44, § 1, effective July 1, 2019, excluded national laboratory contractors and contractors running state-owned research facilities from the gross receipts tax exemption for nonprofit organizations, and made certain technical amendments; in the section heading, added "exceptions"; after "Internal Revenue Code of", deleted "1954" and added "1986" throughout; and in Subsection C, added Paragraphs C(2) and C(3).

Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 33, effective July 1, 2019, excluded hospitals from the gross receipts tax exemption; and in Subsection A, after "renumbered", added "except for receipts of a hospital licensed by the department of health".

The 1990 amendment, effective July 1, 1990, substituted "department" for "division" in Subsections A and B.

7-9-33. Exemption; gross receipts tax; products subject to Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act.

A. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts from the sale of products the severance of which is subject to the tax imposed by the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 31 NMSA 1978] except that receipts from the sale of products other than for subsequent resale in the ordinary course of business, for consumption outside the state, or for use as an ingredient or component part of a manufactured product are subject to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act as well as to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act.

B. No gross receipts tax or compensating tax pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act shall apply to storing crude oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbons, individually or any combination, or to the use of such products for fuel in the operation of a "production unit" as defined by the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.21, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 26; 1975, ch. 133, § 1; 1984, ch. 2, § 3; 1989, ch. 115, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, substituted "products" for "persons" in the catchline; rewrote Subsection A; and in Subsection B deleted "any person for the privilege of" following "apply to", and deleted "thereof" following "combination".

7-9-34. Exemption; gross receipts tax; refiners and persons subject to Natural Gas Processors Tax Act.

A. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts from the sale or processing of products the processing of which is subject to the privilege tax imposed by the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 33 NMSA 1978] except that receipts from the sale of products other than for subsequent resale in the ordinary course of business, for consumption outside the state, or for use as an ingredient or component part of a manufactured product are subject to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act as well as to the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act.

B. No gross receipts tax or compensating tax pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act shall apply to receipts from storing or using crude oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbons, individually or any combination, when stored or used in New Mexico by a "processor", as defined by the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act, or by a person engaged in the business of refining oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbons who stores or uses the crude oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbons in the regular course of his refining business.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.22, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 27; 1970, ch. 13, § 1; 1975, ch. 133, § 2; 1984, ch. 2, § 4; 1989, ch. 115, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For meaning of "processor", see 7-33-2 NMSA 1978.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, rewrote Subsection A; and in Subsection B substituted "receipts from storing" for "any person for the privilege of storing", and deleted "thereof" following "combination".

Company not entitled to exemption when selling natural gas to refinery. — A gas company is neither a user of natural gas nor in the business of refining natural gas when it sells natural gas to a refinery, and, thus, it is not entitled to the exemption

7-9-35. Exemption; gross receipts tax; natural resources subject to Resources Excise Tax Act.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts from the sale or processing of natural resources the severance or processing of which are subject to the taxes imposed by the Resources Excise Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 25 NMSA 1978] except as otherwise provided in Section 7-25-8 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.23, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 28; 1984, ch. 2, § 5; 1989, ch. 115, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, substituted "natural resources" for "persons" in the catchline, and substituted the present provisions for "When a privilege tax is imposed for the privilege of severing or processing natural resources by the Resources Excise Tax Act, the provisions of the Resources Excise Tax Act shall apply for the privilege of engaging in business stated and in that act, and no gross receipts pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act shall apply to or create a tax liability for such privilege, except as is provided in Section 7-25-8 NMSA 1978. A taxpayer subject to the Resources Excise Tax Act is also subject to the compensating tax pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and any other taxes imposed by any tax act which is applicable to the taxpayer pursuant to the NMSA 1978."

Amendment to be prospectively applied. — The amendment of this section by Laws 1984, ch. 2, § 5 is to be only prospectively applied from and after the date the legislation was signed into law, February 11, 1984. Phelps Dodge Corp. v. Revenue Div., Dep't of Taxation & Revenue, 1985-NMCA-055, 103 N.M. 20, 702 P.2d 10.

Construction and severing work. — Where both severing and construction work occur at the same time on the same job, the classification of "construction" is not justified and receipts from severing are exempt from gross receipts tax. J.W. Jones Const. Co., v. Revenue Div., Dep't of Taxation & Revenue, 1979-NMCA-144, 94 N.M. 39, 607 P.2d 126 (Ct. App. 1979).

Construction work incidental to "severing" exempt. — The exemption provided by this section applies since "severing" was taking place as the development work was performed and none of taxpayer's work was preliminary to or preparatory for "severing"; therefore, receipts from development work, which includes construction, are exempted from the gross receipts tax and taxable under the service tax (resources excise tax) when such construction work was incidental to the "severing." Patten v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-051, 86 N.M. 355, 524 P.2d 527.

Taxation of lumber business activities. — "Road maintenance" and "hauling" are an integral and indispensable part of a taxpayer's activity of severing timber and delivering it to a lumber mill and as such are exempt from the Gross Receipts Tax Act, Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978, by the provisions of this section, while being taxable under the Resources Excise Tax Act, Chapter 7, Article 25 NMSA 1978. Carter & Sons, Inc. v. New Mexico Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-025, 92 N.M. 591, 592 P.2d 191.

No compensation tax on property purchased outside state, used in state mine operations. — Compensating tax may not be assessed based on property purchased outside of New Mexico but used in New Mexico in the mine operations of a taxpayer in severing uranium ore. In re Ranchers-Tufco Limestone Project Joint Venture, 1983-NMCA-126, 100 N.M. 632, 674 P.2d 522, cert. denied, 100 N.M. 505, 672 P.2d 1136 (decided prior to 1984 amendment).

7-9-38. Exemption; compensating tax; use of electricity in the production, conversion and transmission of electricity.

Exempted from the compensating tax is electricity used in the production and transmission of electricity, including transmission using voltage source conversion technology.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.26, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 31; 2012, ch. 12, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2012 amendment, effective July 1, 2012, exempted electricity used in the transmission of electricity using voltage source conversion technology and after "transmission of electricity", added the remainder of the sentence.

7-9-38.1. Exemption; gross receipts tax; interstate telecommunications services.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts from the sale or provision of interstate telecommunications services subject to the Interstate Telecommunications Gross Receipts Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9C NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 12 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 12; 1993, ch. 31, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted the "to the extent that receipts from such services are" following "services" and "tax under" following "subject to".

7-9-38.2. Exemption; gross receipts tax; sale of certain telecommunications services.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts of a home service provider from providing mobile telecommunications services to persons whose place of primary use is outside New Mexico, regardless of where the mobile telecommunications services originate, terminate or pass through. For the purposes of this section, "home service provider", "mobile telecommunications services" and "place of primary use" have the meanings given in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act.

History: Laws 2002, ch. 18, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

7-9-39. Exemption; gross receipts tax; fees from social organizations.

A. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts from dues and registration fees of nonprofit social, fraternal, political, trade, labor or professional organizations and business leagues.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "dues" means amounts that a member of an organization pays at recurring intervals to retain membership in an organization where such amounts are used for the general maintenance and upkeep of the organization; and

(2) "registration fees" means amounts paid by persons to attend a specific event sponsored by an organization to defray the cost of the event.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.27, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 32; 1977, ch. 141, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The following cases were decided under the prior version of this section which exempted nonprofit business organizations.

It is not necessary for all members to engage in business in order for a group to constitute a business organization. AAA v. Bureau of Revenue, 1975-NMSC-058, 88 N.M. 462, 541 P.2d 967.

Nonprofit business organization exempt. — The supreme court has decided that a nonprofit business organization, the receipts of which are from dues and registration fees of its members, is exempt from the payment of a gross receipts tax. Twining Coop. Domestic Water & Sewer Ass'n v. Bureau of Revenue, 1976-NMCA-052, 89 N.M. 345, 552 P.2d 476, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 7, 558 P.2d 619.

The American Automobile Association is a "business organization" in the common understanding of that term. It is a group of people that has a more or less constant membership, a body of officers, a purpose and a set of regulations, and engages in a commercial activity, even though it is a nonprofit activity and the receipts involved in AAA's activities are from dues and registration fees. AAA v. Bureau of Revenue, 1975-NMSC-058, 88 N.M. 462, 541 P.2d 967.

A "nonprofit" corporation means a corporation which distributes no part of the income or profit to its members, directors or officers. AAA v. Bureau of Revenue, 1975-NMSC-012, 87 N.M. 330, 533 P.2d 103, rev'd on other grounds, 1975-NMSC-058, 88 N.M. 462, 541 P.2d 967.

7-9-40. Exemption; gross receipts tax; purses and jockey remuneration at New Mexico racetracks; receipts from gross amounts wagered.

A. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts of horsemen, jockeys and trainers from race purses at New Mexico horse racetracks subject to the jurisdiction of the state racing commission.

B. Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts of a racetrack from the commissions and other amounts authorized by Section 60-1-10 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to be retained by a racetrack conducting horse races under the authority of a license from the state racing commission.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-12.28, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 60, § 2; 1971, ch. 145, § 1; 1985, ch. 137, § 1; 1989, ch. 260, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — Laws 2007, ch. 39, § 34 repealed 60-1-10 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 2007.

Cross references. — For the state racing commission, see 60-1A-3 NMSA 1978.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, deleted "admissions and" following "receipts from" in the section heading; and in Subsection B restructured former Paragraph (2) so as to constitute the language beginning with "the commissions", deleted former Paragraph (1) which read "admissions to the racetrack on any racing day", and deleted former Paragraph (3) which read "the tax imposed by Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of Section 60-1-15 NMSA 1978".

Enactment of exemption shows no intent as to prior treatment. — Since the reporting periods for the receipts of a horse owner and a horse trainer are prior to the enactment of this section, no exemption under it is available. The fact that an exemption was subsequently enacted does not show a legislative intent that the receipts were not subject to the gross receipts tax prior to enactment of the exemption. Till v. Jones, 1972-NMCA-046, 83 N.M. 743, 497 P.2d 745, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 740, 497 P.2d 742.

7-9-41. Exemption; gross receipts tax; religious activities.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts of a minister of a religious organization, which organization has been granted an exemption from federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or renumbered, from religious services provided by the minister to an individual recipient of the service.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2008, ch. 11, § 1, amended Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29, to provide that if the requirements of Subsection A of Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29 were not fulfilled, the effective date of this section would be July 1, 2010, provided that prior to January 1, 2010, the economic development department certify to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Dona Ana county had commenced, including the land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction. On February 16, 2010, the New Mexico compilation commission received a letter from the economic development department dated February 12, 2010, notifying the compilation commission that while Union Pacific had made the land acquisition, construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county had not commenced as required by Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29. Therefore, Section 7-9-41.2 NMSA 1978 failed to become effective and was deleted by the compiler. For provisions of former section, see the 2013 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-41.3. Exemption; receipts from sales by disabled street vendors.

A. Exempt from payment of the gross receipts tax are receipts from the sale of goods by a disabled street vendor.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "disabled" means to be blind or permanently disabled with medical improvement not expected pursuant to 42 USCA 421 for purposes of the federal Social Security Act or to have a permanent total disability pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Act [Chapter 52, Article 1 NMSA 1978]; and

(2) "street vendor" means a person licensed by a local government to sell items of tangible personal property by newly setting up a sales site daily or selling the items from a moveable cart, tray, blanket or other device.

7-9-41.4. Exemption; officiating at New Mexico activities association-sanctioned school events.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are the receipts from refereeing, umpiring, scoring or other officiating at school events sanctioned by the New Mexico activities association.

History: Laws 2009, ch. 62, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2009, ch. 62 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 19, 2009, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9-41.5. Exemption; nonprofit hospitals from local option gross receipts taxes.

A. Exempted from any local option gross receipts tax, but not the state gross receipts tax, are receipts of a nonprofit hospital licensed by the department of health.

B. As used in this section, "nonprofit hospital" means a hospital that has been granted exemption from federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 34.

7-9-41.6. Exemption; gross receipts; certain health care providers from certain federal payments.

Exempted from the gross receipts tax are receipts of health care providers, other than hospitals licensed by the department of health, from payments by:

A. the United States department of health and human services from the federal public health and social services emergency fund to providers eligible to receive the payments pursuant to the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act; and

B. the medical assistance division of the human services department [health care authority department] from funds appropriated to New Mexico pursuant to the federal American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 for the state medicaid program to provide additional support for home and community-based services.

History: Laws 2020 (1st S.S.), ch. 4, § 3; 2023, ch. 85, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2023, ch. 205, § 16 provided that references to the human services department shall be deemed to be references to the health care authority department.

Cross references. — For federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, see Pub.L. 116–136.

The 2023 amendment, effective April 1, 2023, included payments from the federal American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 in a gross receipts tax exemption for certain health care providers; in the section heading, added "certain", and deleted "Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act"; and added Subsection B.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.), ch. 4, § 4, effective June 29, 2020, provided:

A. Notwithstanding Sections 7-1-67 and 7-1-69 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a taxpayer for:

(1) tax liabilities pursuant to the Income Tax Act or the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due April 15, 2020 through July 15, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid payments is made in full on or before April 15, 2021;

(2) tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021;

(3) gross receipts tax, local option gross receipts tax or compensating tax liabilities for failure to pay any of those taxes that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021; and

(4) tax liabilities assessed between September 3, 2019 and January 3, 2020 as the result of a managed audit performed in accordance with a managed audit agreement pursuant to Section 7-1-11.1 NMSA 1978; provided that payment for those liabilities is made pursuant to terms of the managed audit agreement on or before December 31, 2020.

B. Notwithstanding Sections 7-38-49 and 7-38-50 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a property owner for unpaid property taxes that became due April 10, 2020 pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978; provided that:

- (1) the unpaid property taxes did not become delinquent because of an intent to defraud by the property owner;
- (2) payment for the unpaid property taxes is made in full on or before May 10, 2021;
and
- (3) the subject property does not have property taxes that became delinquent pursuant to Section 7-38-46 NMSA 1978 prior to May 10, 2020.

7-9-42. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1984, ch. 2, § 11, repealed 7-9-42 NMSA 1978, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 67, § 2, relating to the exemption of the receipts from the leasing or licensing of theatrical and television films and tapes from the gross receipts and compensating tax, effective February 11, 1984. For present provisions relating to exemption of receipts from leasing and licensing theatrical and television films and tapes, see 7-9-76.2 NMSA 1978.

7-9-43. Nontaxable transaction certificates and other evidence required to entitle persons to deductions.

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, a person may establish entitlement to a deduction from gross receipts allowed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act by obtaining a properly executed nontaxable transaction certificate from the purchaser. Nontaxable transaction certificates shall contain the information and be in a form prescribed by the department. The department by regulation may deem to be nontaxable transaction certificates documents issued by other states or the multistate tax commission to taxpayers not required to be registered in New Mexico. Only buyers or lessees who have a registration number or have applied for a registration number and have not been refused one under Subsection C of Section 7-1-12 NMSA 1978 shall execute nontaxable transaction certificates issued by the department. If the seller or lessor has been given an identification number for tax purposes by the department, the seller or lessor shall disclose that identification number to the buyer or lessee prior to or upon acceptance of a nontaxable transaction certificate.

B. Except as provided in Subsection C of this section, a person who does not comply with Subsection A of this section may establish entitlement to a deduction from gross receipts by presenting alternative evidence that demonstrates the facts necessary to support entitlement to the deduction, but the burden of proof is on that person. Alternative evidence includes:

- (1) invoices or contracts that identify the nature of the transaction;

(2) documentation as to the purchaser's use or disposition of the property or service;

(3) a statement from the purchaser indicating that the purchaser sold or intends to resell the property or service purchased from the seller, either by itself or in combination with other property or services, in the ordinary course of business. The statement from the purchaser shall include:

(a) the seller's name;

(b) the date of the invoice or date of the transaction;

(c) the invoice number or a copy of the invoice;

(d) a copy of the purchase order, if available;

(e) the amount of purchase; and

(f) a description of the property or service purchased or leased; or

(4) any other evidence that demonstrates the facts necessary to establish entitlement to the deduction.

C. Subsection B of this section does not apply to sellers of electricity or fuels that are parties to an agreement with the department pursuant to Section 7-1-21.1 NMSA 1978 regarding the deduction pursuant to Subsection B of Section 7-9-46 NMSA 1978.

D. When a person accepts in good faith a properly executed nontaxable transaction certificate from the purchaser, the properly executed nontaxable transaction certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the proceeds from the transaction are deductible from the person's gross receipts.

E. To exercise the privilege of executing appropriate nontaxable transaction certificates, a buyer or lessee shall apply to the department for permission to execute nontaxable transaction certificates, except with respect to documents issued by other states or the multistate tax commission that the department has deemed to be nontaxable transaction certificates.

F. If a person has accepted in good faith a properly executed nontaxable transaction certificate, but the purchaser has not employed the property or service purchased in the nontaxable manner or has provided materially false or inaccurate information on the nontaxable transaction certificate, the purchaser shall be liable for an amount equal to any tax, penalty and interest that the seller would have been required to pay if the seller had not complied with Subsection A of this section.

G. Any person who knowingly or willfully provides false or inaccurate information on a nontaxable transaction certificate or as alternative evidence provided in support of a claim for a deduction may be subject to prosecution under Sections 7-1-72 and 7-1-73 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-13, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 47, § 13; 1969, ch. 144, § 33; 1973, ch. 219, § 1; 1983, ch. 220, § 7; 1990, ch. 41, § 6; 1991, ch. 9, § 29; 1992, ch. 39, § 3; 1993, ch. 31, § 9; 1994, ch. 94, § 1; 1994, ch. 98, § 1; 1997, ch. 72, § 1; 1998, ch. 89, § 3; 2001, ch. 332, § 1; 2003, ch. 330, § 1; 2005, ch. 12, § 1; 2011, ch. 148, § 1; 2018, ch. 56, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective March 2, 2018, provided for alternative evidence other than a nontaxable transaction certificate to entitle persons to a deduction from gross receipts tax, which may include invoices or contracts that identify the nature of the transaction, documentation as to the purchaser's use or disposition of the property or service, a statement from the purchaser indicating that the purchaser sold or intends to resell the property or service purchased from the seller, either by itself or in combination with other property or services, in the ordinary course of business, or other evidence that demonstrates the facts necessary to establish entitlement to the deduction; in Subsection A, deleted "All nontaxable transaction certificates of the appropriate series executed by buyers or lessees should be in the possession of the seller or lessor for nontaxable transactions at the time the return is due for receipts from the transaction. If the seller or lessor is not in possession of the required nontaxable transaction certificates within sixty days from the date that the notice requiring possession of these nontaxable transaction certificates is given the seller or lessor by the department, deductions claimed by the seller or lessor that require delivery of these nontaxable transaction certificates shall be disallowed except as provided in Subsection E of this section. The" and added "Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, a person may establish entitlement to a deduction from gross receipts allowed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act by obtaining a properly executed nontaxable transaction certificate from the purchaser"; added new Subsections B and C; added new subsection designation "D"; in Subsection D, after "When", deleted "the seller or lessor" and added "a person", after "accepts", added "in good faith", after "a", added "properly executed", after the first occurrence of "nontaxable transaction certificate", deleted "within the required time and in good faith that the buyer or lessee will employ the property or service transferred in a nontaxable manner" and added "from the purchaser", and after "deductible from the", deleted "seller's or lessor's" and added "person's"; deleted former Subsections B and C and redesignated former Subsection D as Subsection E; in Subsection E, after "nontaxable transaction certificates.", deleted the remainder of the subsection; and deleted former Subsection E and added Subsections F and G.

The 2011 amendment, effective April 7, 2011, added Subsection E to permit the secretary to accept evidence other than a nontaxable transaction certificate to support a deduction from gross receipts for the sale of tangible personal property or licenses.

The 2005 amendment, effective March 15, 2005, deleted Subsection D, eliminating the requirement that a new series of nontaxable transaction certificates be issued for twelve-year periods. Former Subsection E is now Subsection D.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, in Subsection D substituted "January 1, 2005" for "January 1, 1992" three times, substituted "December 31, 2004" for "December 31, 1991" following "transactions after" at the end of the first sentence, substituted "2005" for "1992" following "calendar year" at the end of the second sentence, and inserted "except the nontaxable transaction certificates issued by the department for the period January 1, 1992 to December 31, 2001 may be executed by buyers or lessees for transactions occurring prior to December 31, 2004" following "that twelve-year period" at the end of the third sentence; in Subsection E, inserted "or to have a non-filed period" following "delinquent taxpayer" near the beginning of the second sentence, inserted "has filed returns for all non-filed periods and" following "until the person" near the middle of the second sentence, inserted "or to have a non-filed period" following "delinquent taxpayer" near the middle of the third sentence, inserted "has filed returns for all non-filed periods and" following "until the person" near the end of the third sentence, deleted "annually" following "report to the department" near the middle of the fifth sentence, and deleted "annually" following "report to the department" near the middle of the sixth sentence.

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, in Subsection D, converted the former "ten-year period" to a "twelve-year period" throughout the subsection.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, in the section heading, deleted "farmers' and ranchers' statements" following "certificates" and added "Fee - Renewal" at the end; added "Subject to the provisions of Subsection D of this section" at the beginning of Subsection A; and added Subsection D.

Execution of certificate. — This section makes clear that only the buyer, who has or had applied for a registration number, may execute a nontaxable transaction certificate. House of Carpets, Inc., v. Bureau of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-034, 84 N.M. 747, 507 P.2d 1078.

Liability for payment of tax. — Where a nontaxable transaction certificate has been properly delivered to a seller of service for resale, only the reseller of the service is liable for payment of the gross receipts tax. House of Carpets, Inc., v. Bureau of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-034, 84 N.M. 747, 507 P.2d 1078.

Taxable transaction not transformed by "nontaxable transaction certificate". — Issuance of a "nontaxable transaction certificate" does not operate to transform an otherwise taxable transaction into a nontaxable transaction. Gas Co. v. O'Cheskey, 1980-NMCA-085, 94 N.M. 630, 614 P.2d 547.

Commissioner (now department) has authority to issue regulations interpreting and exemplifying statutes concerning the possession of nontaxable transaction certificates and he also has such authority as may be fairly implied from the statutory authorization. Rainbo Baking Co. v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1972-NMCA-139, 84 N.M. 303, 502 P.2d 406.

Words "properly executed" are used in this section in the sense of completing - filling out and signing - the nontaxable transaction certificates. Leaco Rural Tel. Coop., Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-076, 86 N.M. 629, 526 P.2d 426.

Taxpayer not liable if certificates incorrectly issued. — Although receipts from transactions involving telephone service to schools, churches, police departments, fire departments and the like were not properly deductible in the first instance because the transactions were not sales of tangible personal property, nevertheless, when the telephone company accepted the nontaxable transaction certificates in compliance with this section, the deductions authorized thereby applied and protected the company from tax liability on receipts from those transactions, regardless of the propriety or impropriety of the certificates' issuance. Leaco Rural Tel. Coop., Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-076, 86 N.M. 629, 526 P.2d 426.

Taxpayer did not accept nontaxable transaction certificate in good faith and therefore was not entitled to safe harbor protection. — Where taxpayer, a private prison corporation, accepted a nontaxable transaction certificate (NTTC) executed by Tarrant county (county) for taxpayer's housing of federal prisoners at the Tarrant county detention center and then filed for a tax refund for gross receipts tax paid between 2010 and 2012, and where the administrative hearing officer for the New Mexico taxation and revenue department concluded that taxpayer, as the seller, did not in good faith accept the NTTC, executed by the county as the buyer, and therefore taxpayer was not entitled to the deduction from gross receipts it received for housing federal prisoners, the administrative hearing officer did not err in its decision, because the tax deduction under 7-9-47 NMSA 1978, was predicated on the county reselling a license to use the detention center to the U.S. marshall's service in the ordinary course of the county's business, and there was no evidence that the county was reselling licenses in the ordinary course of its business, and taxpayer was fully aware when it accepted the NTTC that there was no resale of services because the marshall's service was paying taxpayer directly. Taxpayer was therefore not entitled to safe harbor protection from the payment of gross receipts tax. CCA of Tennessee v. NM Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2024-NMSC-013, rev'g A-1-CA-37548, mem. op. (N.M. Ct. App. Jan. 21, 2021) (nonprecedential).

Reliance on certificates improper following change in law. — This section protects a taxpayer when the purchaser who provided the nontaxable transaction certificates (NTTC) has failed to live up to the promise that the actual transaction was nontaxable.

However, it does not protect taxpayers from changes in the law that render formerly nontaxable transactions taxable. Indeed, a taxpayer has an affirmative duty to keep informed about changes in the tax law affecting liability and cannot escape tax liability for transactions based on NTTCs issued before a change in the law rendered the NTTCs invalid for those transactions. Arco Materials, Inc. v. State Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1994-NMCA-062, 118 N.M. 12, 878 P.2d 330, rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Blaze Constr. Co. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1994-NMSC-110, 118 N.M. 647, 884 P.2d 803, cert. denied, 514 U.S. 1016, 115 S. Ct. 1359, 131 L. Ed. 2d 216 (1995).

Certificate inapplicable to in-state ambulance receipts. — A nontaxable transaction certificate accepted by a taxpayer who will make initial use of the product or service outside of this state does not apply to receipts from the taxpayer's in-state ambulance service. McKinley Ambulance Serv. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-026, 92 N.M. 599, 592 P.2d 515.

7-9-43.1. Nontaxable transaction certificates not required by liquor wholesalers.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978, a liquor wholesaler licensed as a wholesaler by the superintendent of regulation and licensing pursuant to the Liquor Control Act [60-3A-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.] is not required to obtain a nontaxable transaction certificate from a person issued a retailer's, dispenser's, restaurant, public service or governmental license by the superintendent of regulation and licensing pursuant to the Liquor Control Act for the purpose of taking deductions under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act.

History: Laws 1981, ch. 333, § 1; 1992, ch. 39, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, substituted "as a wholesaler by the superintendent of regulation and licensing pursuant to the Liquor Control Act" for "by the department of alcoholic beverage control", and substituted all of the present language beginning with "person" for "liquor retailer licensed by the department of alcoholic beverage control for the purpose of taking deductions under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act".

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2018, ch. 56, § 2 repealed 7-9-44 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 34, relating to suspension of the right to use a nontaxable transaction certificate, effective March 2, 2018. For provisions of former section, see the 2017 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-45. Deductions.

A. Receipts may only be deducted once from gross receipts or governmental gross receipts when computing the gross receipts tax or governmental gross receipts tax due.

B. The same receipts shall not be both exempt from the gross receipts tax and deducted from gross receipts.

C. The same receipts shall not be both exempt from the governmental gross receipts tax and deducted from governmental gross receipts.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-45, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 35; 1970, ch. 77, § 1; 1970, ch. 78, § 1; 1971, ch. 217, § 1; 1972, ch. 39, § 1; 1977, ch. 288, § 1; 1979, ch. 338, § 2; 1984, ch. 129, § 1; 1989, ch. 262, § 5; 1994, ch. 45, § 3; 1995, ch. 70, § 5; 1999, ch. 231, § 2; 2017 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2017, clarified that certain receipts may only be deducted once from gross receipts or governmental gross receipts when computing the gross receipts tax or governmental gross receipts tax due; in Subsection A, deleted "In computing the gross receipts tax or governmental gross receipts tax due, only those receipts specified in Sections 7-9-46 through 7-9-76.2, 7-9-77.1, 7-9-83, 7-9-85 through 7-9-87 and 7-9-89 NMSA 1978 may be deducted. Receipts, whether specified once or several times in those sections, may be deducted only once from gross receipts or governmental gross" and after "Receipts", added "may only be deducted once from gross receipts or governmental gross receipts when computing the gross receipts tax or governmental gross receipts tax due"; in Subsection B, added "The same", after the first occurrence of "receipts", deleted "that are exempted from the gross receipts tax may" and added "shall", after "not be", added "both exempt from the gross receipts tax and", and deleted the last sentence, which provided "Receipts that are deducted from gross receipts may not be exempted from the gross receipts tax."; and in Subsection C, added "The same", after the first occurrence of "receipts", deleted "that are exempted from the governmental gross receipts tax", after "shall not be", added "both exempt from the governmental gross receipts tax and", and deleted the last sentence, which provided "Receipts that are deducted from governmental gross receipts shall not be exempted from the governmental gross receipts tax.".

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, in Subsection A, substituted "Sections 7-9-46 through 7-9-76.2, 7-9-77.1, 7-9-83, 7-9-85 through 7-9-87 and 7-9-89 NMSA 1978 may be deducted" for "Sections 7-9-46 through 7-9-76.2, and 7-9-83, through 7-9-85

NMSA 1978 may be deducted" in the first sentence, and substituted "several times in those sections" for "several times in Sections 7-9-46 through 7-9-76.2 and 7-9-83 through 7-9-85 NMSA 1978" in the second sentence.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "and 7-9-83 through 7-9-85" for "7-9-83 and 7-9-84" in the first and second sentences of Subsection A.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, designated the previously undesignated first two sentences as Subsection A and the previously undesignated last sentence as Subsection B; in Subsection A, inserted "or governmental gross receipts tax" in the first sentence and "7-9-83 and 7-9-84" in both sentences, and added "or governmental gross receipts" at the end of the second sentence; and added Subsection C.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, added the third and fourth sentences.

Deductions or exemptions from a tax must be strictly construed in favor of the taxing authority, must be clearly and unambiguously expressed in the statute, and must be clearly established by the taxpayer claiming the right thereto. Chavez v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-116, 82 N.M. 97, 476 P.2d 67.

Tax statute must also be given fair, unbiased and reasonable construction, without favor or prejudice to either the taxpayer or the state, to the end that the legislative intent is effectuated and the public interests to be subserved thereby are furthered. Chavez v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-116, 82 N.M. 97, 476 P.2d 67.

Deductions narrowly but reasonably construed. — If a tax is clearly applicable, except for a statutory exemption, exception or deduction therefrom, the provision for the exemption, exception or deduction must be narrowly but reasonably construed. Chavez v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-116, 82 N.M. 97, 476 P.2d 67.

7-9-46. Deduction; gross receipts; governmental gross receipts; sales to manufacturers and manufacturing service providers.

A. Receipts from selling tangible personal property may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to a person engaged in the business of manufacturing who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer must incorporate the tangible personal property as an ingredient or component part of the product that the buyer is in the business of manufacturing.

B. Receipts from selling a manufacturing consumable to a manufacturer or a manufacturing service provider may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the buyer delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978; provided that if the seller is a utility company, an agreement with the department pursuant to Section 7-1-21.1 NMSA 1978 and a nontaxable transaction certificate shall be required.

C. Receipts from selling or leasing qualified equipment may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to, or the lease is entered into with, a person engaged in the business of manufacturing or a manufacturing service provider who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978; provided that a manufacturer or manufacturing service provider delivering a nontaxable transaction certificate or alternative evidence with respect to the qualified equipment shall not claim an investment credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act [Chapter 7, Article 9A NMSA 1978] for that same equipment.

D. The purpose of the deductions provided in this section is to encourage manufacturing businesses to locate in New Mexico and to reduce the tax burden, including reducing pyramiding, on the tangible personal property that is consumed in the manufacturing process and that is purchased by manufacturing businesses in New Mexico.

E. The department shall annually report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee the aggregate amount of deductions taken pursuant to this section, the number of taxpayers claiming each of the deductions and any other information that is necessary to determine that the deductions are performing the purposes for which they are enacted.

F. A taxpayer deducting gross receipts pursuant to this section shall report the amount deducted separately for each deduction provided in this section and attribute the amount of the deduction to the appropriate authorization provided in this section in a manner required by the department that facilitates the evaluation by the legislature of the benefit to the state of these deductions.

G. As used in this section:

(1) "manufacturing consumable" means tangible personal property, other than qualified equipment or an ingredient or component part of a manufactured product, that is incorporated into, destroyed, depleted or transformed in the process of manufacturing a product, including electricity, fuels, water, manufacturing aids and supplies, chemicals, gases and other tangibles used to manufacture a product;

(2) "manufacturing operation" means a plant operated by a manufacturer or manufacturing service provider that employs personnel to perform production tasks to produce goods, in conjunction with machinery and equipment; and

(3) "qualified equipment" means machinery, equipment and tools, including component, repair, replacement and spare parts thereof, that are used directly in the manufacturing process of a manufacturing operation. "Qualified equipment" includes computer hardware and software used directly in the manufacturing process of a manufacturing operation but excludes any motor vehicle that is required to be registered in this state pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Code [66-1-1 NMSA 1978].

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2023, ch. 85, § 27 repealed Laws 2021, ch. 65, § 13, effective July 1, 2023.

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, clarified when alternative evidence may be used to support the deduction for gross receipts tax for manufacturers and manufacturing service providers; in Subsection A, after "nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "The buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate"; in subsection B, added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978; provided that if the seller is a utility company, an agreement with the department pursuant to Section 7-1-21.1 NMSA 1978 and a nontaxable transaction certificate shall be required"; and in Subsection C, after "nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after the next occurrence of "nontaxable transaction certificate", added "or alternative evidence".

The 2021 amendment, effective January 1, 2022, added manufacturing service providers to a gross receipts tax deduction for manufacturers, and defined "manufacturing consumable", as used in this section; in the section heading, deleted "tax", and added "and manufacturing service providers"; in Subsection B, after "Receipts from selling", deleted "tangible personal property that is", preceding "consumable", added "manufacturing", and after "consumable", deleted "and used in such a way that it is consumed in the manufacturing process of a product, provided that the tangible personal property is not a tool or equipment used to create the manufactured product, to a person engaged in the business of manufacturing that product and who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller" and added "to a manufacturer or a manufacturing service provider", after "may be deducted", deleted "in the following percentages", and deleted former Paragraphs B(1) through B(5) and added "if the buyer delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller"; added a new Subsection C and redesignated former Subsections C through F as Subsection D through G, respectively; and in Subsection G, in the introductory clause, after "As used in", deleted "Subsection B of", in Paragraph G(1), added "manufacturing", after "personal property", added "other than qualified equipment or an ingredient or component part of a manufactured product", after "gases", deleted "repair parts, spares", and deleted former Paragraph F(2) and added Paragraphs G(2) and G(3).

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, provided a definition of "consumable" for purposes of the deduction of receipts from sales to manufacturers; in Subsection B, in the introductory sentence, after "tangible personal property that is", added "a consumable and"; and added Subsection F.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 160, § 14 provided that Laws 2013, ch. 160, § 9 applies to gross receipts received on or after July 1, 2013.

The 2012 amendment, effective January 1, 2013, provided a deduction for receipts from selling tangible personal property that is consumed in the manufacturing process of a product and added Paragraphs B, C, D and E.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading; inserted "or from governmental gross receipts" in the first sentence; and substituted "that" for "which" in the second sentence.

Entitlement to manufacturing deduction not found. — A biotechnology company whose expertise was in the diagnosis of genetic disorders that could be detected through the appearance of chromosomes, and who produced tangible objects that were provided to its customers, such as a written report of its experts' diagnosis and a laminated karyotype, which consisted of photographs of chromosomes that were numbered and pasted onto a piece of laminated cardboard, did not establish its entitlement to a manufacturing deduction, since the company could not identify any out-of-state purchases that would be subject to the compensating tax of products incorporated into its reports or laminated karyotypes. The department, whose assessment is assumed correct, had identified as subject to the compensating tax such items as microscopes, sinks, and furniture, which undoubtedly were not incorporated into the documents or laminated karyotypes. Vivigen, Inc. v. Minzner, 1994-NMCA-027, 117 N.M. 224, 870 P.2d 1382.

7-9-46.1. Deduction; gross receipts; governmental gross receipts; sales of services to manufacturers.

A. Receipts from selling professional services may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to a person engaged in the business of manufacturing who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The professional services shall be related to the product that the buyer is in the business of manufacturing.

B. The purpose of the deductions provided in this section is to encourage manufacturing businesses to locate in New Mexico and to reduce the tax burden, including reducing pyramiding, on the professional services that are purchased by manufacturing businesses in New Mexico.

C. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

D. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. The department shall compile and present the report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the cost of the deduction and whether the deduction is performing the purpose for which it was created.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "accounting services" means the systematic and comprehensive recording of financial transactions pertaining to a business entity and the process of summarizing, analyzing and reporting these transactions to oversight agencies or tax collection entities, including certified public auditing, attest services and preparing financial statements, bookkeeping, tax return preparation, advice and consulting and, where applicable, representing taxpayers before tax collection agencies. "Accounting services" does not include, except as provided with respect to financial management services, investment advice, wealth management advice or consulting or any tax return preparation, advice, counseling or representation for individuals, regardless of whether those individuals are owners of pass-through entities, such as partnerships, limited liability companies or S corporations;

(2) "architectural services" means services related to the art and science of designing and building structures for human habitation or use and includes planning, providing preliminary studies, designs, specifications and working drawings and providing for general administration of construction contracts;

(3) "engineering services" means consultation, the production of a creative work, investigation, evaluation, planning and design, the performance of studies and reviewing planning documents when performed by, or under the supervision of, a licensed engineer, including the design, development and testing of mechanical, electrical, hydraulic, chemical, pneumatic or thermal machinery or equipment, industrial or commercial work systems or processes and military equipment. "Engineering services" does not include medical or medical laboratory services, any engineering performed in connection with a construction service or the design and installation of computer or computer network infrastructure;

(4) "information technology services" means separately stated services for installing and maintaining a business's computers and computer network, including performing computer network design; installing, repairing, maintaining or restoring computer networks, hardware or software; and performing custom software programming or making custom modifications to existing software programming. "Information technology services" does not include:

(a) software maintenance and update agreements, unless made in conjunction with custom programming;

(b) computers, servers, chilling equipment and pre-programmed software;

(c) data processing services or the processing or storage of information to compile and produce records of transactions for retrieval or use, including data entry, data retrieval, data searches and information compilation; or

(d) access to telecommunications or internet;

(5) "legal services" means services performed by a licensed attorney or under the supervision of a licensed attorney for a client, regardless of the attorney's form of business entity or whether the services are prepaid, including legal representation before courts or administrative agencies; drafting legal documents, such as contracts or patent applications; legal research; advising and counseling; arbitration; mediation; and notary public and other ancillary legal services performed for a client in conjunction with and under the supervision of a licensed attorney. "Legal services" does not include lobbying or government relations services, title insurance agent services, licensing or selling legal software or legal document templates, insurance investigation services or any legal representation involving financial crimes or tax evasion in New Mexico; and

(6) "professional services" means accounting services, architectural services, engineering services, information technology services and legal services.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2022, ch. 47, § 17 made Laws 2022, ch. 47, § 14 effective July 1, 2022.

7-9-47. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts tax; sale of tangible personal property or licenses for resale.

Receipts from selling tangible personal property or licenses may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer must resell the tangible personal property or license either by itself or in combination with other tangible personal property or licenses in the ordinary course of business.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.2, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 37; 1992, ch. 39, § 6; 1992, ch. 100, § 5; 1994, ch. 45, § 4; 2021, ch. 65, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; and after "certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, inserted "or licenses" in the section heading and in both sentences, and "or license" in the second sentence.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading; and inserted "or from governmental gross receipts" in the first sentence.

Ordinary course of business. — Where taxpayer, whose typical business practices included owning, operating, leasing, and controlling generating plants and facilities for the generation, transmission and distribution of electricity to the public at retail, purchased turbines and related equipment to be used in the construction of a generating plant that would be conveyed to a municipality as an industrial revenue bond project, the sale of the turbines and related equipment was not in the taxpayer's ordinary course of business because the taxpayer had not previously purchased turbines and related equipment and did not plan to do so in the future, the taxpayer had not previously constructed generating plants, and there was no evidence that the transaction at issue was typical or customary within the taxpayer's industry. Pub. Serv. Co. of N.M. v. NM Taxation & Revenue Dept., 2007-NMCA-050, 141 N.M. 520, 157 P.3d 85.

The phrase "ordinary course of business" contemplates some evidence that a transaction is customary, normal, or regular within the company's own business or within the relevant industry at large. Pub. Serv. Co. of N.M. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dept., 2007-NMCA-050, 141 N.M. 520, 157 P.3d 85.

Legislature possesses great freedom of classification in taxation field. — In the field of taxation, more than in other fields, the legislature possesses the greatest freedom in classification, and to attack such a classification as a violation of U.S. Const., amend. XIV places the burden on the one attacking to negative every conceivable basis which might support the classification and unless the classification is clearly arbitrary and capricious or void for uncertainty, the appellate court cannot substitute its views in selecting and classifying for those of the legislature. N.M.

Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317 (Ct. App. 1971).

Scope of authority. — Commissioner (now secretary) has authority to issue regulations interpreting and exemplifying statutes concerning the possession of nontaxable transaction certificates and he also has such authority as may be fairly implied from the statutory authorization. This authority, however, does not extend to imposing a time requirement which would abridge or modify the deduction authorized by the legislature. Rainbo Baking Co. v. Comm'r of Revenue, 1972-NMCA-139, 84 N.M. 303, 502 P.2d 406.

Certificate required. — Since there was no evidence that contractors provided "nontaxable transaction certificates" to their vendors when they purchased property to be used in fulfilling their government contracts, the technical requirements of this section were not met. United States v. New Mexico, 581 F.2d 803 (10th Cir. 1978), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Form of certificate. — A seller's failure to possess a non-taxable transaction certificate in the form prescribed by the department and to procedurally present the form in a timely and proper manner provided a valid basis for denying the deductions claimed. A "blanket exemption certificate," issued by the buyer and relied upon by the seller, failed to meet this section's requirements. Proficient Food Co. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1988-NMCA-042, 107 N.M. 392, 758 P.2d 806, cert. denied, 107 N.M. 308, 756 P.2d 1203.

Reimbursement for services not sale. — Reimbursements for materials and supplies consumed in performing services under certain government contracts were merely reimbursements for those services and did not involve a sale by the contractors of tangible personal property to the United States nor qualify for a deduction under this section. United States v. New Mexico, 581 F.2d 803 (10th Cir. 1978), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

7-9-48. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts; sale of a service for resale.

Receipts from selling a service for resale may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer must resell the service in the ordinary course of business and the resale must be subject to the gross receipts tax or governmental gross receipts tax.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.3, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 38; 1992, ch. 100, § 6; 2000, ch. 84, § 2; 2021, ch. 65, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; and after "certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, in the second sentence, substituted "resell the service" for "separately state the value of the service purchased in his charge for the service on its subsequent sale, and the subsequent sale must be" and inserted "the resale must be" preceding "subject to the gross receipts tax".

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section catchline; inserted "or from governmental gross receipts" in the first sentence, while adding "to the seller" at the end of that sentence; and added "or governmental gross receipts tax" at the end of the second sentence.

7-9-49. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of tangible personal property and licenses for leasing.

A. Except as otherwise provided by Subsection B of this section, receipts from selling tangible personal property and licenses may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer shall be engaged in a business that derives a substantial portion of its receipts from leasing or selling tangible personal property or licenses of the type sold. The buyer may not utilize the tangible personal property or license in any manner other than holding it for lease or sale or leasing or selling it either by itself or in combination with other tangible personal property or licenses in the ordinary course of business.

B. The deduction provided by this section shall not apply to receipts from selling:

- (1) furniture or appliances, the receipts from the rental or lease of which are deductible under Subsection C of Section 7-9-53 NMSA 1978;
- (2) coin-operated machines; or
- (3) manufactured homes.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.4, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 39; 1972, ch. 80, § 1; 1975, ch. 160, § 1; 1979, ch. 338, § 3; 1983, ch. 220, § 9; 1989, ch. 115, § 4; 1991, ch. 203, § 3; 1992, ch. 39, § 7; 2021, ch. 65, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; and in Subsection A, after "certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "and licenses" in the section catchline and in the first sentence of Subsection A, substituted "that" for "which" and inserted "or licenses" in the second sentence, and inserted "or license" and "or licenses" in the last sentence.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted "manufactured" for "mobile" in Paragraph (3) in Subsection B and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection A.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, designated the formerly undesignated provisions as Subsection A; in Subsection A substituted all of the language of the first sentence preceding "may" for "Receipts from selling tangible personal property other than furniture or appliances, the receipts from the rental or lease of which are deductible under Subsection C of Section 7-9-53 NMSA 1978, other than coin-operated machines and other than mobile homes", and substituted "sold" for "leased" at the end of the second sentence; and added Subsection B.

7-9-50. Deduction; gross receipts tax; lease for subsequent lease.

A. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection B of this section, receipts from leasing tangible personal property or licenses may be deducted from gross receipts if the lease is made to a lessee who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the lessor or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The lessee may not use the tangible personal property or license in any manner other than for subsequent lease in the ordinary course of business.

B. The deduction provided by this section does not apply to receipts from leasing:

- (1) furniture or appliances, the receipts from the rental or lease of which are deductible under Subsection C of Section 7-9-53 NMSA 1978;
- (2) coin-operated machines; or
- (3) manufactured homes.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.5, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 40; 1972, ch. 80, § 2; 1975, ch. 160, § 2; 1979, ch. 338, § 4; 1983, ch. 220, § 10; 1991, ch. 203, § 4; 1992, ch. 39, § 8; 2021, ch. 65, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; and in Subsection A, after "certificate to the lessor", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "lessee", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, in Subsection A, inserted "or licenses" in the first sentence and inserted "or license" in the second sentence.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, designated the formerly undesignated provision as Subsection A; rewrote the first sentence of Subsection A which read "receipts from leasing tangible personal property other than furniture or appliances, the receipts from the rental or lease of which are deductible under Subsection C of Section 7-9-53 NMSA 1978, other than coin-operated machines and other than mobile homes may be deducted from gross receipts if the lease is made to a lessee who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the lessor"; and added Subsection B.

7-9-51. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of construction material to persons engaged in the construction business.

A. Receipts from selling construction material may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person engaged in the construction business who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978.

B. The buyer must incorporate the construction material as:

(1) an ingredient or component part of a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon its completion or upon the completion of the overall construction project of which it is a part;

(2) an ingredient or component part of a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon the sale in the ordinary course of business of the real property upon which it was constructed; or

(3) an ingredient or component part of a construction project that is located on the tribal territory of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; in Subsection A, after "certificate to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978"; and in Subsection B, after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 2000 amendment, effective March 7, 2000, added Subsection B(3).

"Engaged in the construction business." — Since taxpayer constructed a hotel in this state, and taxpayer held a contractor's license and held itself out to the public as a contractor, there was sufficient evidence to conclude that taxpayer was "engaged in the construction business." Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

Proper issuance of nontaxable transaction certificate. — The deduction from gross receipts pursuant to this section and 7-9-52 NMSA 1978 is not conditioned upon proper issuance of the nontaxable transaction certificates (NTTC) by the buyer. The determination of whether a NTTC has been properly issued is a matter between the department and the buyer. Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

Message to seller that seller is entitled to deductions. — The timely delivery of a nontaxable transaction certificate (NTTC) from the buyer to the seller conveys a message to the seller that the use of the NTTC's is such that the seller is entitled to deductions under this section or 7-9-52 NMSA 1978 when taxpayer issued NTTC's to the subcontractors; taxpayer, in essence, represented to the subcontractors that the use of the NTTC's was such that the subcontractors were entitled to deductions from the gross receipts tax. Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

7-9-51.1. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1995, ch. 50, § 6, repealed 7-9-51.1 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 31, § 14, relating to gross receipts tax deductions for railway bed materials, effective July 1, 2003. For provisions of former section, see the 2002 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-52. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of construction services and construction-related services to persons engaged in the construction business.

A. Receipts from selling a construction service or a construction-related service may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person engaged in the construction business who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the person performing the construction service or a construction-related service or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978.

B. The buyer shall have the construction services or construction-related services directly contracted for or billed to:

(1) a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon its completion or upon the completion of the overall construction project of which it is a part;

(2) a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon the sale in the ordinary course of business of the real property upon which it was constructed; or

(3) a construction project that is located on the tribal territory of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.7, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 42; 2000, ch. 84, § 4; 2000, ch. 98, § 2; 2012, ch. 5, § 5; 2020, ch. 80, § 5; 2021, ch. 65, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; in Subsection A, after "construction-related service", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and in Subsection B, after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

The 2020 amendment, effective May 20, 2020, removed a provision defining "construction-related service"; and deleted former Subsection C.

The 2012 amendment, effective January 1, 2013, provided a deduction for receipts from selling construction-related services; in the title, added "and construction-related services"; in Subsection A, after "selling a construction service", added "or a construction-related service" and after "performing the construction service", added "or a construction-related service"; in Subsection B, after "construction services", deleted "performed upon" and added the remainder of the sentence; and added Subsection C.

Language of this section is definite and unambiguous. Miller v. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-005, 93 N.M. 252, 599 P.2d 1049, cert. denied, 92 N.M. 532, 591 P.2d 286.

"Engaged in the construction business". — Since taxpayer constructed a hotel in this state, and taxpayer held a contractor's license and held itself out to the public as a contractor, there is sufficient evidence to conclude that taxpayer was "engaged in the construction business." Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

Construction services exempt from tax. — A decision of the commissioner of the bureau of revenue (now secretary of the taxation and revenue department) denying the exemption of the sale of construction services from the gross receipts tax is contrary to the law of this state providing an exemption for construction services. Miller v. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-005, 93 N.M. 252, 599 P.2d 1049, cert. denied, 92 N.M. 532, 591 P.2d 286.

Proper issuance of nontaxable transaction certificate. — The deduction from gross receipts pursuant to Section 7-9-51 NMSA 1978 and this section is not conditioned upon proper issuance of the nontaxable transaction certificates (NTTC) by the buyer. The determination of whether a NTTC has been properly issued is a matter between the department and the buyer. Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

Message to seller that seller is entitled to deductions. — The timely delivery of a nontaxable transaction certificate (NTTC) from the buyer to the seller conveys a message to the seller that the use of the NTTC's is such that the seller is entitled to deductions under Section 7-9-51 NMSA 1978 or this section when taxpayer issued NTTC's to the subcontractors; taxpayer, in essence, represented to the subcontractors that the use of the NTTC's was such that the subcontractors were entitled to deductions from the gross receipts tax. Continental Inn of Albuquerque, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-030, 113 N.M. 588, 829 P.2d 946.

7-9-52.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; lease of construction equipment to persons engaged in the construction business.

A. Receipts from leasing construction equipment may be deducted from gross receipts if the construction equipment is leased to a person engaged in the construction business who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the person leasing the construction equipment or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978.

B. The lessee shall only use the construction equipment at the construction location of:

(1) a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon its completion or upon the completion of the overall construction project of which it is a part;

(2) a construction project that is subject to the gross receipts tax upon the sale in the ordinary course of business of the real property upon which it was constructed; or

(3) a construction project that is located on the tribal territory of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo.

C. As used in this section, "construction equipment" means equipment used on a construction project, including trash containers, portable toilets, scaffolding and temporary fencing.

History: Laws 2012, ch. 5, § 6; 2021, ch. 65, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; in Subsection A, after "construction equipment", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and in Subsection B, after "lessee", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate".

7-9-53. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale or lease of real property and lease of manufactured homes.

A. Receipts from the sale or lease of real property and from the lease of a manufactured home as provided in Subsection B of this section, other than receipts from the sale or lease of oil, natural gas or mineral interests exempted by Section 7-9-32 NMSA 1978, may be deducted from gross receipts. However, that portion of the receipts from the sale of real property which is attributable to improvements constructed on the real property by the seller in the ordinary course of his construction business may not be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts from the rental of a manufactured home for a period of at least one month may be deducted from gross receipts. Receipts received by hotels, motels, rooming houses, campgrounds, guest ranches, trailer parks or similar facilities, except receipts received by trailer parks from the rental of a space for a manufactured home or recreational vehicle for a period of at least one month, from lodgers, guests, roomers or occupants are not receipts from leasing real property for the purposes of this section.

C. Receipts attributable to the inclusion of furniture or appliances furnished as part of a leased or rented dwelling house, manufactured home or apartment by the landlord or lessor may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.8, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 43; 1972, ch. 80, § 3; 1973, ch. 205, § 1; 1975, ch. 160, § 3; 1979, ch. 338, § 5; 1983, ch. 220, § 11; 1991, ch. 203, § 5; 1998, ch. 94, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For deduction of real estate commissions from gross receipts tax, see 7-9-66.1 NMSA 1978.

The 1998 amendment, effective April 1, 1998, inserted "or recreational vehicle" near the middle of the second sentence in Subsection B.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted "manufactured" for "mobile" in the section heading and throughout the section.

Contract for correctional services not a lease. — Where a contract for correctional services provided that the contractor was paid based on the number of inmates housed and that the contractor had the right to fill up unoccupied space with inmates from other jurisdictions, the contract was not a lease for real property. Corrections Corp. of Am. v. State of N.M., 2007-NMCA-148, 142 N.M. 779, 170 P.3d 1017.

Receipts attributable to improvements. — Real estate developer was not entitled to deduction for receipts from the sale of real estate attributable to improvements made on the land since those improvements were completed prior to the effective date of this section but sale was not made until after effective date, as the plain language of this section shows a legislative intent not to allow a deduction on receipts from sale of real property attributable to such improvements. Doña Ana Dev. Corp. v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-018, 84 N.M. 641, 506 P.2d 798.

Monies not received from lease of real property. — The receipts, which this section declares not to be "receipts from leasing real property," are clearly intended to mean the monies or rentals normally received by operators of hotels, motels, etc., when being operated as such in their customary and ordinary manner, from the lodgers, guests, roomers and occupants thereof. Chavez v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-116, 82 N.M. 97, 476 P.2d 67.

"Lease" not "license". — An arrangement between the owner of several properties used as bingo halls and the non-profit organizations who operated the bingo games was a lease and not a license where the organizations were required to pay rent, they were granted exclusive possession of certain facilities on the premises and the use of the facilities at certain times, and the owner could not revoke the agreement at will; although the arrangement was not a typical lease, restrictions in the Bingo and Raffle

Act [repealed] accounted for the type of arrangement created and to deny that this was a lease would have made it impossible for bingo operators to enter arrangements that would qualify as leases. Quantum Corp. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1998-NMCA-050, 125 N.M. 49, 956 P.2d 848.

"License" not "lease". — The buy-down contract payments were reimbursements to the taxpayer for her sales loss incurred as a result of engaging in the discount promotions and where the shelf-display contract receipts were taxable pursuant to this section because those contracts bore a much greater resemblance to a license than to the creation and conveyance of an interest in real property that would have constituted a lease. Grogan v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2003-NMCA-033, 133 N.M. 354, 62 P.3d 1236, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 413, 63 P.3d 516.

Yearly lease of motel. — Since taxpayers leased motel to a railway on an annual basis at a fixed rental, having no relationship to whether the railway company let the rooms to lodgers, guests or roomers, the rental received by the taxpayer was not income received from lodgers, guests or roomers, but was income by way of rental received from the lessee railway for the entire premises, and was deductible from gross receipts. Chavez v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-116, 82 N.M. 97, 476 P.2d 67.

Receipts from license agreements not deductible. — Agreements between the taxpayer and several other companies providing for the use of space in the taxpayer's department stores for the purpose of retailing certain items, which agreements expressly negated the intention to create a lease, constituted licenses, the money from selling which was not deductible from the gross receipts tax under this section. *S.S. 7-9-54. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts tax; sales to governmental agencies.

A. Receipts from selling tangible personal property, or from selling licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public, to the United States or to New Mexico or a governmental unit, subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts. Unless contrary to federal law, the deduction provided by this subsection does not apply to:

- (1) receipts from selling metalliferous mineral ore;
- (2) receipts from selling tangible personal property that is or will be incorporated into a metropolitan redevelopment project created under the Metropolitan Redevelopment Code;

(3) receipts from selling construction material, excluding tangible personal property, whether removable or non-removable, that is or would be classified for depreciation purposes as three-year property, five-year property, seven-year property or ten-year property, including indirect costs related to the asset basis, by Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered; or

(4) that portion of the receipts from performing a "service" that reflects the value of tangible personal property utilized or produced in performance of such service.

B. Receipts from selling tangible personal property, or from selling licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public, for any purpose to an Indian tribe, nation or pueblo or a governmental unit, subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof for use on Indian reservations or pueblo grants may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts.

C. When a seller, in good faith, deducts receipts for tangible personal property or licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public sold to the state or a governmental unit, subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof, after receiving written assurances from the buyer's representative that the property sold is not construction material, the department shall not assert in a later assessment or audit of the seller that the receipts are not deductible pursuant to Paragraph (3) of Subsection A of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.9, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 44; 1976, ch. 25, § 2; 1985, ch. 225, § 4; 1989, ch. 115, § 5; 1992, ch. 100, § 7; 1993, ch. 31, § 11; 1995, ch. 50, § 3; 2000, ch. 84, § 5; 2000, ch. 98, § 3; 2001, ch. 343, § 5; 2003, ch. 272, § 6; 2003, ch. 330, § 2; 2018, ch. 58, § 1; 2023, ch. 85, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, added to a deduction for gross receipts tax for licenses to use digital goods sold to a governmental entity when subsequently loaning those digital goods to the public; in Subsection A, in the introductory paragraph, after "tangible personal property", added "or from selling licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public"; in Subsection B, after "tangible personal property", added "or from selling licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public"; and in Subsection C, after "tangible personal property", added "or licenses to use digital goods for the purpose of loaning those digital goods to the public".

The 2018 amendment, effective March 2, 2018, clarified the meaning of construction material as used in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act; and in Paragraph A(3), after "construction material," added the remainder of the paragraph.

2003 Amendments. — Laws 2003, ch. 330, § 2, effective June 20, 2003, deleted "as defined in Subsection K of Section 7-9-3 NMSA 1978" near the middle of Paragraph

A(4); in Subsection C substituted "shall not assert" for "is precluded from asserting" following "material, the department" near the middle and inserted "of the seller" following "assessment or audit" near the end.

Laws 2003, ch. 272, § 6, effective July 1, 2003, in Subsection A, deleted "or" preceding "subdivision, agency"; and in Paragraph A(4), substituted "Subsection M" for "Subsection K".

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "construction material" for "tangible personal property that will become an ingredient or component part of a construction project" in Paragraph A(3); and added Subsection C.

The 2000 amendment, effective March 7, 2000, inserted "for any purpose" following "personal property" in Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, inserted "tax" following "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading, deleted "nonfissionable" preceding "metalliferous" in Paragraph C(1), and made a minor stylistic change.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted "or any agency or instrumentality thereof" following "United States" and substituted "any governmental unit or subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality" for "any political subdivision" in Subsection A, and deleted "the governing body of" following "personal property to" and substituted "nation or pueblo or any governmental subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof" for "or Indian pueblo" in Subsection B.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading; added "or from governmental gross receipts" at the end of Subsections A and B; substituted "that" for "which" in Subsection C(2); and substituted "that" for "which" in Subsection C(4), while deleting "is not deductible" at the end of that subsection.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, designated the formerly undesignated first sentence as Subsection A, while substituting therein "as provided otherwise in Subsection C of this section" for "for receipts from selling nonfissionable metalliferous mineral ore and except for receipts from selling tangible personal property which is or will be incorporated into a metropolitan redevelopment project created under the Metropolitan Redevelopment Code; designated the formerly undesignated second sentence as Subsection B, while substituting all of the language thereof preceding "to" for "Receipts from selling tangible personal property other than nonfissionable metalliferous mineral ore"; added the introductory paragraph of Subsection C and Subsections C(1) through C(3); and designated the formerly undesignated third sentence as Subsection C(4).

Effect on government's contract costs does not invalidate tax. — That the gross receipts tax may increase cost on a contract to the government does not validate the tax on the grounds that a state may not directly tax the federal government where its legal incidence falls elsewhere. United States v. New Mexico, 581 F.2d 803 (10th Cir. 1978), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Suppliers of personal property for federal agents entitled to deduction. — If contractors are procurement agents for the federal government, their suppliers of tangible personal property would be entitled to a tax deduction. United States v. New Mexico, 624 F.2d 111 (10th Cir. 1980), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Tax proper unless purchasing contractors agents of United States. — Since contracts do not authorize the contractors to act as agents of the United States in purchasing supplies and materials, an application of the gross receipts tax to the contractual transactions for materials and supplies is not unconstitutional. United States v. New Mexico, 581 F.2d 803 (10th Cir. 1978), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Construction project includes wide variety of activities. — This section was intended to make sales of construction materials to governmental entities taxable when the materials were to be incorporated into construction projects. Contrary to taxpayer's argument that Regulation GR 51:16 (now 3.2.1.11 NMAC) establishes a definite test for determining whether an endeavor is a "construction project," this regulation merely states nonexclusive guidelines for determining whether materials constitute a component part of a construction project. Thus, construction projects include the wide variety of activities listed in 7-9-3C NMSA 1978. Arco Materials, Inc. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1994-NMCA-062, 118 N.M. 12, 878 P.2d 330, rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Blaze Constr. Co. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1994-NMSC-110, 118 N.M. 647, 884 P.2d 803, cert. denied, 514 U.S. 1016, 115 S. Ct. 1359, 131 L. Ed. 2d 216 (1995).

Direct passage of title to government insufficient to establish agency. — That title to tangible personal property passes directly from the vendor to the federal government is insufficient in itself to establish an agency relationship. United States v. New Mexico, 455 F. Supp. 993 (D.N.M. 1978), aff'd in part, rev'd in part on other grounds, 624 F.2d 111 (10th Cir. 1980), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Contract and circumstances establish agency relationship. — In determining whether contractors are procurement agents of the federal government, the surrounding facts and contract provisions must be analyzed, and specific words naming the contractors as agents are not required so long as it is clear from the contracts and the factual circumstances that the relationship is one of agency. United States v. New Mexico, 455 F. Supp. 993 (D.N.M. 1978), aff'd in part, rev'd in part on other grounds, 624 F.2d 111 (10th Cir. 1980), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Determining whether contractor was a federal agent. — Facts that contracts were management contracts, in existence for nearly 30 years and conducted in government-owned facilities with government-owned funds for the purpose of carrying out significant energy research and development administration statutory responsibilities, were important in determining whether contractor was an agent of the federal government. United States v. New Mexico, 455 F. Supp. 993 (D.N.M. 1978), aff'd in part, rev'd in part on other grounds, 624 F.2d 111 (10th Cir. 1980), aff'd, 455 U.S. 720, 102 S. Ct. 1373, 71 L. Ed. 2d 580 (1982).

Tax may not be imposed on non-Indian for purchase price of materials for tribal housing project. — The state, through its bureau of revenue (now taxation and revenue department) and the commissioner of revenue (now secretary of the taxation and revenue department), may not impose upon a non-Indian construction company its gross receipts tax for the purchase price of materials used in connection with a tribal housing project on the Mescalero Apache reservation. Mescalero Apache Tribe v. O'Cheskey, 439 F. Supp. 1063 (D.N.M. 1977), aff'd, 625 F.2d 967 (10th Cir. 1980), cert. denied, 450 U.S. 959, 101 S. Ct. 1417, 67 L. Ed. 2d 383 (1981), reh'g denied, 455 U.S. 929, 102 S. Ct. 1296, 71 L. Ed. 2d 474 (1982).

Telephone service. — Decision that a telephone company was not entitled to a deduction under this section for receipts collected for intrastate toll charges and local phone calls from certain government organizations and organizations which had been granted federal income tax exemptions would be held, since there was a reasonable basis for differentiating between electricity (declared to be tangible personalty at 7-9-3J NMSA 1978) and telephone communications where the evidence showed that more was involved in the telephone business than the selling of electricity. Leaco Rural Tel. Coop., Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-076, 86 N.M. 629, 526 P.2d 426.

7-9-54.1. Deduction; gross receipts from sale of aerospace services to certain organizations.

A. Receipts from performing or selling an aerospace service for resale may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a buyer who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer shall separately state the value of the aerospace service purchased in the buyer's charge for the aerospace service on its subsequent sale to an organization or, if the buyer is an organization, on the organization's subsequent sale to the United States, and the subsequent sale shall be in the ordinary course of business of selling aerospace services to an organization or to the United States.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "aerospace services" means research and development services sold to or for resale to an organization for resale by the organization to the United States air force; and

(2) "organization" means an organization described in Subsection A of Section 7-9-29 NMSA 1978 other than a prime contractor operating facilities in New Mexico designated as a national laboratory by act of congress.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 40, § 1; 1993, ch. 310, § 1; 1994, ch. 45, § 5; 1995, ch. 183, § 1; 2021, ch. 65, § 21.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For Spaceport Development Act, see 58-31-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate, removed a table containing gross receipts tax deduction amounts, and reorganized the section; deleted former Subsection A and redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection A; in Subsection A, after "performing or selling", deleted "on or after October 1, 1995", after "certificate", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate"; and deleted former Subsection C and added a new Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, rewrote Subsection A, inserted "if the buyer is an organization, on the organization's subsequent sale" in Subsection B, and substituted "or for resale to an organization" for "the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof" in Subsection C.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "sold to or for resale to" for "performed or sold by" in Subparagraph A(1)(a) and inserted "performing or" in the first sentence in Subsection B.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

7-9-54.2. Gross receipts; deduction; spaceport operation; space operations; launching, operating and recovering space vehicles or payloads; payload services; operationally responsive space program services.

A. Receipts from launching, operating or recovering space vehicles or payloads in New Mexico may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts from preparing a payload in New Mexico are deductible from gross receipts.

C. Receipts from operating a spaceport in New Mexico are deductible from gross receipts.

D. Receipts from the provision of research, development, testing and evaluation services for the United States air force operationally responsive space program may be deducted from gross receipts.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "operationally responsive space program" means a program authorized pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2273a;

(2) "payload" means a system, subsystem or other mechanical structure or material to be conveyed into space that is designed, constructed or intended to perform a function in space;

(3) "space" means any location beyond altitudes of sixty thousand feet above the earth's mean sea level;

(4) "space operations" means the process of commanding and controlling payloads in space; and

(5) "spaceport" means an installation and related facilities used for the launching, landing, operating, recovering, servicing and monitoring of vehicles capable of entering or returning from space.

F. Receipts from the sale of tangible personal property that will become an ingredient or component part of a construction project or from performing construction services may not be deducted under this section.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 183, § 2; 1997, ch. 73, § 1; 2001, ch. 18, § 1; 2003, ch. 62, § 3; 2007, ch. 172, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added Subsection D and Paragraph (1) of Subsection E.

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, deleted "For the period from July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2006" at the beginning of Subsections A to C and rewrote Paragraph D(1).

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "space operations; launching, operating and recovering space vehicles or payloads" for "launching and recovery of space launch vehicles" in the section heading; added the time periods in which receipts may be deducted from gross receipts in Subsections A, B and C; substituted "launching, operating or recovering space vehicles" for "launching or recovering space launch vehicles" in Subsection A; deleted "for launching" following "payload" in Subsection C; in Paragraph D(1), replaced the former definition of "payload" which read "includes systems, subsystems and mechanical structures required to perform or conduct research and development on or to conduct operations of space functions, such as reconnaissance, communications, navigation and target simulations, but does not include weapons"; added Paragraph D(3) and renumbered the following subsection; and substituted "operating, recovering" for "recovery" in present Paragraph D(4).

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, in Subsection A, substituted "launching or recovering space launch vehicles or payloads" for "operating a spaceport"; in Subsection B, inserted "preparing a payload for" preceding "launching" and deleted "or recovering space launch vehicles or payloads from a spaceport" following "launching"; in Subsection C, substituted "operating" for "preparing a payload for launching at"; designated former Subsection D as Paragraph D(3) and rewrote that paragraph and added Paragraphs D(1) and D(2).

7-9-54.3. Deduction; gross receipts tax; wind and solar generation equipment; energy storage equipment; sales to governments.

A. Prior to July 1, 2034, receipts from selling wind generation equipment or solar generation equipment to a government for the purpose of installing a wind or solar electric generation facility may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Prior to July 1, 2034, receipts from selling energy storage equipment or related equipment to a government for the purpose of installing an energy storage facility may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. As used in this section:

(1) "energy storage equipment" means equipment that is installed for the purpose of storing electric energy in an energy storage facility that uses mechanical, chemical, thermal, kinetic or other processes to store energy for release at a later time to integrate energy supply associated with renewable generation across the electric grid;

(2) "government" means the United States or the state or a governmental unit or a subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality of the federal government or the state;

(3) "related equipment" means transformers, power conversion equipment, circuit breakers and switching and metering equipment used to connect:

(a) a wind or solar electric generation plant to the electric grid; or

(b) an energy storage facility to the electric grid or to a wind or solar electric generation plant;

(4) "solar generation equipment" means solar thermal energy collection, concentration and heat transfer and conversion equipment; solar tracking hardware and software; photovoltaic panels and inverters; support structures; turbines and associated electrical generating equipment used to generate electricity from solar thermal energy; and related equipment; and

(5) "wind generation equipment" means wind generation turbines, blades, nacelles, rotors and supporting structures used to generate electricity from wind and related equipment.

History: Laws 2002, ch. 37, § 8; 2010, ch. 77, § 2; 2010, ch. 78, § 2; 2024, ch. 67, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2024 amendment, effective July 1, 2024, provided a sunset of July 1, 2034 for the gross receipts tax deduction on the sale of wind generation equipment and solar generation equipment to a government, and included in the provisions of the section a gross receipts tax deduction for the sale of energy storage equipment to a government; in the section heading, after "generation equipment", added "energy storage equipment"; in Subsection A, added "Prior to July 1, 2034"; in Subsection B, deleted "The deduction allowed pursuant to this section shall not be claimed for receipts from an expenditure for which a taxpayer claims a credit pursuant to Section 7-2-18.25, 7-2A-25 or 7-9G-2 NMSA 1978" and added "Prior to July 1, 2034, receipts from selling energy storage equipment or related equipment to a government for the purpose of installing an energy storage facility may be deducted from gross receipts"; and in Subsection C, added new Paragraph C(1) and redesignated former Paragraphs C(1) through C(4) as Paragraphs C(2) through C(5), respectively, in Paragraph C(3), after "transformers", added "power conversion equipment", and added Subparagraph C(3)(b).

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in the catchline, after "wind", deleted "energy" and added "and solar" and after "sales to", deleted "government agencies" and added "governments"; in Subsection A, after "selling wind generation", deleted "nacelles, rotors or related equipment to the United States or New Mexico or any governmental unit or subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof, if such equipment is installed on a supporting structure" and added "equipment or solar generation equipment to a government for the purpose of installing a wind or solar electric generation facility"; and added Subsections B and C.

7-9-54.4. Deduction; compensating tax; space-related test articles.

A. The value of space-related test articles used in New Mexico exclusively for research or testing, placing on public display after research or testing or storage for future research, testing or public display may be deducted in computing compensating tax due. This subsection does not apply to any other use of a space-related test article.

B. The value of equipment and materials used in New Mexico for research or testing, or for supporting the research or testing of, space-related test articles or for storage of such equipment or materials for research or testing, or supporting the research and testing of, space-related test articles may be deducted in computing compensating tax due. This subsection does not apply to any other use of such equipment and materials.

C. As used in this section, a "space-related test article" is a material or device intended to be used primarily in research or testing to determine properties and qualities of the material or properties, qualities or functioning of a device or technology when the principal use of the material, device or technology is intended to be in space or as part of, or associated with, a space vehicle.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-54.4, enacted by Laws 2003, ch. 62, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2003, ch. 62, § 5 made Laws 2003, ch. 62, § 4 effective July 1, 2003.

7-9-54.5. Deduction; compensating tax; test articles.

A. The value of test articles upon which research or testing is conducted in New Mexico pursuant to a contract with the United States department of defense may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due.

B. As used in this section, "test article" means a material or device upon which research or testing is conducted to determine the properties and qualities of the material or the properties, qualities or functioning of the device or a technology used with the device.

C. The deduction provided by this section does not apply to the value of property purchased by a prime contractor operating a facility designated as a national laboratory by an act of congress.

History: Laws 2004, ch. 16, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clause. — Laws 2004, ch. 16, § 4 contained an emergency clause and was approved February 27, 2004.

7-9-55. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts tax; transaction in interstate commerce.

A. Receipts from transactions in interstate commerce may be deducted from gross receipts to the extent that the imposition of the gross receipts tax would be unlawful under the United States constitution.

B. Receipts from transactions in interstate commerce may be deducted from governmental gross receipts.

C. Receipts from transmitting messages or conversations by radio other than from one point in this state to another point in this state and receipts from the sale of radio or television broadcast time when the advertising message is supplied by or on behalf of a national or regional seller or advertiser not having its principal place of business in or being incorporated under the laws of this state, may be deducted from gross receipts. Commissions of advertising agencies from performing services in this state may not be deducted from gross receipts under this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.10, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 45; Laws 1986, ch. 20, § 65; Laws 1986, ch. 52, § 2; 1993, ch. 31, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1988, ch. 19, § 5, effective July 1, 1988, repealed Laws 1986, ch. 20, § 129 and Laws 1986, ch. 52, § 5, which amended versions of this section which were to take effect July 1, 1988.

Laws 1988, ch. 19, § 2 repealed and reenacted 7-9-55 NMSA 1978 as amended by Laws 1986, ch. 20, § 65 and Laws 1986, ch. 52, § 2, effective July 1, 1990; however, Laws 1990, ch. 27, § 2A repealed Laws 1988, ch. 19, § 2, effective May 16, 1990.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "governmental gross receipts tax" in the section heading; inserted the subsection designations A and C; and added Subsection B.

Constitutionality. — The New Mexico gross receipts tax did not violate the commerce clause of the United States constitution, as applied to a California corporation which owned and operated a food and restaurant supply business with a warehouse located in Texas, and which sold food and other restaurant supplies to restaurants for use in New Mexico by obtaining orders for deliveries by telephoning the restaurants and taking down the orders over the phone, then delivering the goods in its own trucks from its warehouse in Texas to the restaurants in New Mexico. Proficient Food Co. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1988-NMCA-042, 107 N.M. 392, 758 P.2d 806, cert. denied, 107 N.M. 308, 756 P.2d 1203.

All interstate commerce is not per se immune from taxation. Spillers v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-097, 82 N.M. 41, 475 P.2d 41, cert. denied, 82 N.M. 81, 475 P.2d 778.

Scope of deduction. — This section permits deduction from gross receipts to the extent that the imposition of gross receipts tax would be unlawful under the United States constitution. If imposition of the tax upon the particular gross receipts is constitutionally lawful then such receipts are not deductible hereunder. Spillers v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-097, 82 N.M. 41, 475 P.2d 41, cert. denied, 82 N.M. 81, 475 P.2d 778.

Federal law does not preempt tax assessed on receipts from transportation of railroad crew members within the state. — Where plaintiff contracted with union pacific railroad and burlington northern Santa Fe railroad to transport railroad employees to and from railroad trains both within New Mexico and from New Mexico to another state, and where the New Mexico taxation and revenue department (department), after an audit, assessed plaintiff for gross receipts on the revenues from plaintiff's service between locations within New Mexico, and where plaintiff filed a complaint for tax refund claiming that federal law preempts the department from imposing gross receipts tax on the transportation of passengers traveling in interstate commerce by motor carrier, the district court did not err in granting the department's motion for summary judgment, because Congress, in passing 49 U.S.C. §14505, intended to address passengers of a motor carrier who were traveling as passengers in interstate commerce, and plaintiff's transportation of railroad crew members is not part of ticketed travel between states and thus the railroad crew members were not passengers traveling in interstate commerce traveling by motor carrier. Renzenberger, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2018-NMCA-010, cert. denied.

Immunity from undue burdens. — To attain immunity a showing must be made of multiple taxation or the lack of a local taxable incident. Such showing is essential to classify the tax as one unduly burdensome to interstate commerce. Spillers v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-097, 82 N.M. 41, 475 P.2d 41, cert. denied, 82 N.M. 81, 475 P.2d 778.

Multiple taxation. — If compensation received under advertising contracts is not protected by the commerce clause, then multiple taxation of the receipts would not bring them within such protection. N.M. Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317.

Classification pursuant to constitutional mandate not violative of equal protection. — Granting a deduction, whether in accordance with statute or administrative regulations, of gross receipts which are not taxable by the state under the commerce clause, and denying such deduction with respect to receipts which are subject to state taxation, although the receipts in each instance are produced by comparable activities, is a reasonable and proper basis for classification. N.M. Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317.

Equal protection. — Imposition of tax upon receipts derived by newspaper from advertising, while receipts of radio and television broadcasters are not taxed, does not constitute arbitrary and discriminatory treatment or classification in violation of the equal protection clauses of the federal and state constitutions. N.M. Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317.

Educational materials. — Tax levied on gross receipts from out-of-state sales of tangible personal property in the nature of reproducible educational materials is an impermissible burden on commerce. Evco v. Jones, 409 U.S. 91, 93 S. Ct. 349, 34 L. Ed. 2d 325 (1972).

Interstate telegraph messages. — Employee who transmitted telegraph messages both interstate and intrastate is allowed to deduct receipts derived from interstate messages from gross receipts under this section. Ealey v. Bureau of Revenue, 1976-NMSC-010, 89 N.M. 160, 548 P.2d 440.

Access charges and telephone carriers. — Since the access charge is for the service of transmitting the telephone signal between the inter-local access and transport areas carrier's switching center and the local phone customer, such taxation of access charge receipts is barred by this section. GTE Sw., Inc. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-024, 113 N.M. 610, 830 P.2d 162, cert. denied, 113 N.M. 605, 830 P.2d 157.

Ancillary services and telephone carriers. — Gross receipts tax imposed on receipts for ancillary services performed for interstate carriers is proper even though these services are related to the provision of interstate telephone service; the receipts are not receipts from transmitting messages or conversations by telephone. GTE Sw., Inc. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1992-NMCA-024, 113 N.M. 610, 830 P.2d 162, cert. denied, 113 N.M. 605, 830 P.2d 157.

Newspaper advertising. — Assessment of gross receipts tax against receipts of taxpayer derived from out-of-state advertising published in its newspaper was not violative of the commerce clause. N.M. Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317.

Commissions for booking transportation services. — Imposition of gross receipts tax upon commissions paid to a resident agent of an interstate carrier of household goods for initiating or booking interstate transportation of such goods does not violate the federal constitution, and consequently such receipts are not properly deductible. Spillers v. Commissioner of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-097, 82 N.M. 41, 475 P.2d 41, cert. denied, 82 N.M. 81, 475 P.2d 778.

Burden on taxpayer. — Even if multiple taxation could be treated as invoking the protection of the commerce clause, the taxpayer, nevertheless, would have the burden of establishing his right to immunity from taxation. N.M. Newspapers, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1971-NMCA-022, 82 N.M. 436, 483 P.2d 317.

7-9-56. Deduction; gross receipts tax; intrastate transportation and services in interstate commerce.

A. Receipts from transporting persons or property from one point to another in this state may be deducted from gross receipts when such persons or property, including any special or extra service reasonably necessary in connection therewith, is being transported in interstate or foreign commerce under a single contract.

B. Receipts from handling, storage, drayage or packing of property or any other accessorial services on property, which property has moved or will move in interstate or foreign commerce, when such services are performed by a local agent for a carrier or by a carrier and when such services are performed under a single contract in relation to transportation services, may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. Receipts from providing telephone or telegraph services in this state that will be used by other persons in providing telephone or telegraph services to the final user may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-56, enacted by Laws 1994, ch. 112, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1994, ch. 112, § 2 repealed 7-9-56 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1994, ch. 112, § 1, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 2001.

To deduct receipts under Subsection A, taxpayer is required to show three items: (1) the receipts must be from transporting persons from one point to another in this state, (2) the transportation must have been in interstate commerce and (3) the transportation must have been under a single contract. McKinley Ambulance Serv. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-026, 92 N.M. 599, 592 P.2d 515.

Intrastate transportation receipts not deductible. — Transportation into one state from another is the indispensable test of interstate commerce. That there is both intrastate and interstate transportation under a single contract does not authorize a deduction under Subsection A for receipts attributable to the intrastate transportation. McKinley Ambulance Serv. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-026, 92 N.M. 599, 592 P.2d 515.

7-9-56.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; internet services.

On and after July 1, 1998, receipts from providing leased telephone lines, telecommunications services, internet services, internet access services or computer programming that will be used by other persons in providing internet access and related services to the final user may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who is subject to the gross receipts tax or the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax.

History: Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 1; 2000, ch. 84, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, substituted "On and after July 1, 1998" for "During the period July 1, 1998, through June 30, 2000" at the beginning of the section.

7-9-56.2. Deduction; gross receipts tax; hosting world wide web sites.

Receipts from hosting world wide web sites may be deducted from gross receipts. For purposes of this section, "hosting" means storing information on computers attached to the internet.

History: Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 7 made Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 2 effective July 1, 1998.

7-9-56.3. Deduction; gross receipts; trade-support company in a border zone.

A. The receipts of a trade-support company may be deducted from gross receipts if:

(1) the trade-support company first locates in New Mexico within twenty miles of a port of entry on New Mexico's border with Mexico on or after July 1, 2003 but before July 1, 2013 or on or after January 1, 2016 but before January 1, 2021;

(2) the receipts are received by the company within a five-year period beginning on the date the trade-support company locates in New Mexico and the receipts are derived from its business activities and operations at its border zone location; and

(3) the trade-support company employs at least two employees in New Mexico.

B. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

C. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction created pursuant to this section that shall include the number of taxpayers approved by the department to receive the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions approved and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. Beginning in 2016 and every four years thereafter that the deduction is in effect, the department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deduction.

D. As used in this section:

(1) "dependent" means "dependent" as defined in 26 U.S.C. 152(a), as that section may be amended or renumbered;

(2) "employee" means an individual, other than an individual who:

(a) is a dependent of the employer;

(b) if the employer is an estate or trust, is a grantor, beneficiary or fiduciary of the estate or trust or is a dependent of a grantor, beneficiary or fiduciary of the estate or trust;

(c) if the employer is a corporation, is a dependent of an individual who owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation; or

(d) if the employer is an entity other than a corporation, estate or trust, is a dependent of an individual who owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent of the capital and profits interests in the entity;

(3) "port of entry" means an international port of entry in New Mexico at which customs services are provided by United States customs and border protection; and

(4) "trade-support company" means a customs brokerage firm or a freight forwarder.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 232, § 1; 2007, ch. 172, § 6; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 8; 2021, ch. 65, § 22.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, defined "dependent" and revised the definition of "employee", as used in this section; and in Subsection D, added new Paragraph D(1) and redesignated former Paragraphs D(1) through D(3) as Paragraphs D(2) through D(4), and in Paragraph D(2), deleted former Subparagraphs D(2)(a) through D(2)(c) and added new Subparagraphs D(2)(a) through D(2)(d).

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, restored, for a five-year period, the gross receipts tax deduction for trade-support companies that locate in New Mexico within twenty miles of a port of entry on New Mexico's border with Mexico, and required an annual report from the taxation and revenue department regarding the effectiveness of the tax deduction; in Subsection A, Paragraph (1), after "July 1, 2013", added "or on or after January 1, 2016 but before January 1, 2021"; and added new Subsections B and C, and redesignated the succeeding subsection accordingly.

The 2007 amendment, effective April 2, 2007, in Subsection A, extended the time frame from July 1, 2008 to July 1, 2013 and revised the definition of "port of entry" to be an international port of entry at which custom services are provided by United States customs and border protection.

7-9-57. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of certain services to an out-of-state buyer.

A. Receipts from performing a service may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale of the service is made to an out-of-state buyer who delivers to the seller either an appropriate nontaxable transaction certificate or other evidence acceptable to the secretary unless the buyer of the service or any of the buyer's employees or agents makes initial use of the product of the service in New Mexico or takes delivery of the product of the service in New Mexico.

B. Receipts from performing a service that initially qualified for the deduction provided in this section but that no longer meets the criteria set forth in Subsection A of this section shall be deductible for the period prior to the disqualification.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.12, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 47; 1973, ch. 132, § 1; 1977, ch. 86, § 1; 1983, ch. 220, § 12; 1988, ch. 118, § 1; 1989, ch. 262, § 6; 1998, ch. 89, § 4; 2000, ch. 84, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 31, § 13A, effective July 1, 1993, repealed Laws 1989, ch. 262, § 7, which provided for the repeal and reenactment of 7-9-57 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 1993.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, substituted "an out-of-state buyer" for "a buyer" in Subsection A.

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, substituted "for export" for "to an out-of-state buyer" in the section heading; rewrote Subsection A; deleted former Subsections B and C; and redesignated Subsection D as Subsection B.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, in Subsection C substituted all of the present language of the introductory paragraph following "buyer of the service" for ", any of his employees or any person in privity with him", and deleted former Paragraph (3) which read: "concurrent with the performance of the service, has a regular place of work in New Mexico or spends more than brief and occasional periods of time in New Mexico and: (a) has any communication in New Mexico related in any way to the subject matter, performance or administration of the service with the person performing the service; or (b) himself performs work in New Mexico related to the subject matter of the service".

Initial use. — The flying of an airplane to a customer's out-of-state location for inspection and acceptance of airplane painting service does not constitute initial use in New Mexico. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't v. Dean Baldwin Painting, Inc., 2007-NMCA-153, 143 N.M. 189, 174 P.3d 525.

Services not deductible. — Taxpayer, whose services performed for a buyer involved deconstruction of ammunition, ordnance, and other energetic material, was not entitled to a deduction on the basis that the services did not result in a product. TPL, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2000-NMCA-083, 129 N.M. 539, 10 P.3d 863, rev'd, 2003-NMSC-007, 133 N.M. 447, 64 P.3d 474.

Services deductible. — When the corporation contracted with an out-of-state provider for the corporation to destroy munitions, it was entitled to the gross receipts deduction, and the hearing officer could not properly determine that use or delivery took place within the state without some affirmative evidence in the record to support that conclusion. TPL, Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2003-NMSC-007, 133 N.M. 447, 64 P.3d 474, rev'g, 2000-NMCA-083, 129 N.M. 539, 10 P.3d 863.

"Initial use" following repair. — Mechanic was not entitled to a deduction with respect to repairs made on a truck brought into New Mexico for such repairs and then driven back to Texas for use exclusively as a delivery truck within that state, because the return of the truck to Texas constituted an "initial use" after repair in New Mexico. Reed v. Jones, 1970-NMCA-050, 81 N.M. 481, 468 P.2d 882.

7-9-57.1. Repealed.

History: Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 3; repealed by Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 14 repealed 7-9-57.1 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1998, ch. 92, § 3, relating to deduction, gross receipts tax, sales through world wide web sites, effective July 1, 2020. For provisions of former section, see the 2019 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-57.2. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of software development services.

A. To stimulate new business development, the receipts of an eligible software development company from the sale of software development services that are performed in a qualified area may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "eligible software development company" means a taxpayer who is not a successor in business of another taxpayer and whose primary business in New Mexico is established after the effective date of this section, is providing software development services and who had no business location in New Mexico other than in a qualified area during the period for which a deduction under this section is sought;

(2) "qualified area" means the state of New Mexico except for an incorporated municipality with a population of more than fifty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census; and

(3) "software development services" means custom software design and development and web site design and development but does not include software implementation or support services.

History: Laws 2002, ch. 10, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2002, ch. 10, § 2 made Laws 2002, ch. 10, § 1 effective July 1, 2002.

7-9-58. Deduction; gross receipts tax; feed; fertilizers.

A. Receipts from selling feed for livestock, including the baling wire or twine used to contain the feed, fish raised for human consumption, poultry or animals raised for their hides or pelts and from selling seeds, roots, bulbs, plants, soil conditioners, fertilizers, insecticides, germicides, insects used to control populations of other insects, fungicides or weedicides or water for irrigation purposes may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who states in writing that he is regularly engaged in the business of farming, ranching or raising animals for their hides or pelts.

B. Receipts of auctioneers from selling livestock or other agricultural products at auction may also be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.13, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 48; 1977, ch. 231, § 1; 1983, ch. 220, § 13; 1991, ch. 9, § 30; 1991, ch. 203, § 6; 1992, ch. 48, § 3; 2002, ch. 29, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, in Subsection A inserted "including the baling wire or twine used to contain the feed" near the beginning, and made three minor stylistic changes.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, added the subsection designations and inserted "and from selling" near the beginning of Subsection A.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, inserted "germicides" in the first sentence.

7-9-58.1. Credit; gross receipts tax; sale of dyed special fuel used for agricultural purposes.

A. Prior to July 1, 2029, a taxpayer who sells special fuel dyed in accordance with federal regulations may claim a tax credit against gross receipts taxes due in an amount equal to the amount of any gross receipts tax due on the receipt for sale; provided that:

(1) the taxpayer did not pass the amount of gross receipts tax on to the person purchasing the special fuel; and

(2) the special fuel is sold to a person who states in writing in a manner that the department may require that the person will use the special fuel primarily for agricultural purposes and the gross receipts tax was not passed on to the person.

B. A taxpayer may claim the tax credit for the taxable period in which the special fuel is sold. To receive the credit, the taxpayer shall apply to the department on forms and in a manner prescribed by the department. The maximum aggregate amount of tax credits that may be allowed in a fiscal year is ten million dollars ($10,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received. Applications received after the aggregate amount has been met shall not be approved.

C. That portion of the tax credit claimed by a taxpayer that exceeds the taxpayer's gross receipts tax liability in the taxable period in which the credit is claimed shall not be refunded to the taxpayer but may be carried forward for thirty-six consecutive taxable periods.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 43 made Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 15 effective July 1, 2024.

7-9-59. Deduction; gross receipts tax; warehousing, threshing, harvesting, growing, cultivating and processing agricultural products; testing or transporting milk.

A. Receipts from warehousing grain or other agricultural products may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts from threshing, cleaning, growing, cultivating or harvesting agricultural products, including the ginning of cotton, may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. Receipts from testing or transporting milk for the producer or nonprofit marketing association from the farm to a milk processing or dairy product manufacturing plant may be deducted from gross receipts.

D. Receipts from processing for growers, producers or nonprofit marketing associations of agricultural products raised for food and fiber, including livestock, may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.14, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 49; 1970, ch. 27, § 1; 2000, ch. 26, § 1; 2000, ch. 87, § 1; 2019, ch. 49, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, clarified the language allowing a gross receipts tax deduction for receipts from testing or transporting milk; in the section heading, added "testing or transporting milk"; in Subsection B, after "ginning of cotton", added "may be deducted from gross receipts"; in Subsection C, added "Receipts from", after "testing", deleted "and" and added "or", and after "manufacturing plant", deleted "or" and added "may be deducted from gross receipts"; and in Subsection D, added "Receipts from".

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, inserted the provision that receipts from testing and transporting milk from the farm to the plant may be deducted from the gross receipts.

Duplicate laws. — Laws 2000, ch. 26, § 1 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 2000, ch. 87, § 1. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9-60. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts tax; sales to certain organizations.

A. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection B of this section, receipts from selling tangible personal property to 501(c)(3) organizations may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to an organization that delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer shall employ the tangible personal property in the conduct of functions described in Section 501(c)(3) and shall not employ the tangible personal property in the conduct of an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or renumbered.

B. The deduction provided by this section does not apply to receipts from selling construction material, excluding tangible personal property, whether removable or non-removable, that is or would be classified for depreciation purposes as three-year property, five-year property, seven-year property or ten-year property, including indirect costs related to the asset basis, by Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered, or from selling metalliferous mineral ore; except that receipts from selling construction material or from selling metalliferous mineral ore to a 501(c)(3) organization that is organized for the purpose of providing homeownership opportunities to low-income families may be deducted from gross receipts. Receipts may be deducted under this subsection only if the buyer delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978. The buyer shall use the property in the conduct of functions described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall not employ the tangible personal property in the conduct of an unrelated trade or business, as defined in Section 513 of that code.

C. For the purposes of this section, "501(c)(3) organization" means an organization that has been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or renumbered.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.15; Laws 1970, ch. 12, § 4; 1992, ch. 100, § 8; 1995, ch. 50, § 4; 2001, ch. 343, § 6; 2007, ch. 45, § 12; 2018, ch. 58, § 2; 2021, ch. 65, § 23.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1970, ch. 12, § 4 repealed former 7-9-60 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 50.

Cross references. — For Sections 501(c)(3) and 513 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C. §§ 501(c)(3) and 513, respectively.

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that a taxpayer may provide the taxation and revenue department alternative evidence to claim a gross receipts tax deduction in lieu of providing a non-taxable transaction certificate; in Subsection A, after

"to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978", and after "buyer", deleted "delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate"; and in Subsection B, after "to the seller", added "or provides alternative evidence pursuant to Section 7-9-43 NMSA 1978".

The 2018 amendment, effective March 2, 2018, clarified the meaning of construction material as used in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act; and in Subsection B, after the first occurrence of "construction material", added "excluding tangible personal property, whether removable or non-removable, that is or would be classified for depreciation purposes as three-year property, five-year property, seven-year property or ten-year property, including indirect costs related to the asset basis, by Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, in Subsection A, changed "organizations" to "501(c)(3) organizations" and deleted the former qualification that organizations had to have been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or renumbered; in Subsection B, added the exception that receipts from selling to a 501(c)(3) organization that is organized for the purpose of providing homeownership opportunities to low-income families may be deducted from gross receipts if the buyer delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate and the buyer uses the property in the conduct of functions described in Section 501(c)(3); and added Subsection C.

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "construction material" for "tangible personal property that will become an ingredient or component part of a construction project" in Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, added "tax" following "governmental growth receipts" in the section heading; designated the existing provisions as Subsection A and added Subsection B; and, in Subsection A, added the exception at the beginning, deleted "other than metalliferous mineral ore" following "personal property" near the beginning of the first sentence, substituted "shall" for "must" in two places in the second sentence, and deleted the former third sentence which read "Receipts from selling tangible personal property that will become an ingredient or component part of a construction project are not receipts from selling tangible personal property for purposes of this section".

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading; inserted "or from governmental gross receipts" near the end of the first sentence; and twice substituted "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" for "Internal Revenue Code of 1954".

Telephone services not tangible personalty. — Decision that a telephone company was not entitled to a deduction under this section for receipts collected for intrastate toll charges and local phone calls from certain government organizations and organizations which had been granted federal income tax exemptions would be upheld, since there was a reasonable basis for differentiating between electricity (declared to be tangible personalty at Section 7-9-3J NMSA 1978) and telephone communications where the evidence showed that more was involved in the telephone business than the selling of electricity. Leaco Rural Tel. Coop., Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-076, 86 N.M. 629, 526 P.2d 426.

7-9-61. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1981, ch. 37, § 97, repealed 7-9-61 NMSA 1978, relating to the deduction from the gross receipts tax of the sale of tangible personal property to banks and financial corporations, effective January 1, 1982.

7-9-61.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; certain receipts.

Receipts from charges made in connection with the origination, making or assumption of a loan or from charges made for handling loan payments may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-61.1, enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 37, § 52.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1981, ch. 37, § 99 made Laws 1981, ch. 37, § 52 effective January 1, 1982.

"Charges made for handling loan payments". — The phrase "charges made for handling loan payments", as used in this section, does not encompass charges made by taxpayers for their escrow services in connection with installment payments on real estate contracts. The legislature intended to allow the deduction from gross receipts only for typical loan transactions involving both a traditional lender and borrower. Any processing or collection charges typically made by either independent escrow agents, or banks acting as escrow agents, are not properly deductible from gross receipts. Security Escrow Corp. v. State Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1988-NMCA-068, 107 N.M. 540, 760 P.2d 1306.

7-9-61.2. Deduction; receipts from sales to state-chartered credit unions.

Receipts from selling tangible personal property to credit unions chartered under the provisions of the Credit Union Act [Chapter 58, Article 11 NMSA 1978] are deductible to the same extent that receipts from the sale of tangible personal property to federal credit unions may be deducted pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-9-54 NMSA 1978.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000, ch. 48, § 2 made Laws 2000, ch. 48, § 1 effective July 1, 2000.

7-9-62. Deduction; gross receipts tax; agricultural implements; aircraft manufacturers; vehicles that are not required to be registered; aircraft parts and maintenance services; reporting requirements.

A. Except for receipts deductible under Subsection B of this section, fifty percent of the receipts from selling agricultural implements, farm tractors, aircraft or vehicles that are not required to be registered under the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] may be deducted from gross receipts; provided that, with respect to agricultural implements, the sale is made to a person who states in writing that the person is regularly engaged in the business of farming or ranching. Any deduction allowed under Section 7-9-71 NMSA 1978 must be taken before the deduction allowed by this subsection is computed.

B. Receipts of an aircraft manufacturer or affiliate from selling aircraft or from selling aircraft flight support, pilot training or maintenance training services may be deducted from gross receipts. Any deduction allowed under Section 7-9-71 NMSA 1978 must be taken before the deduction allowed by this subsection is computed.

C. Receipts from selling aircraft parts or maintenance services for aircraft or aircraft parts may be deducted from gross receipts. Any deduction allowed under Section 7-9-71 NMSA 1978 must be taken before the deduction allowed by this subsection is computed.

D. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

E. The department shall compile an annual report on the deductions provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers approved by the department to receive the deductions, the aggregate amount of deductions approved and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deductions. Beginning in 2019 and every five years thereafter that the deductions are in effect, the department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deductions.

F. As used in this section:

(1) "affiliate" means a business entity that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the aircraft manufacturer;

(2) "agricultural implement" means a tool, utensil or instrument that is depreciable for federal income tax purposes and that is:

(a) designed to irrigate agricultural crops above ground or below ground at the place where the crop is grown; or

(b) designed primarily for use with a source of motive power, such as a tractor, in planting, growing, cultivating, harvesting or processing agricultural crops at the place where the crop is grown; in raising poultry or livestock; or in obtaining or processing food or fiber, such as eggs, milk, wool or mohair, from living poultry or livestock at the place where the poultry or livestock are kept for this purpose;

(3) "aircraft manufacturer" means a business entity that in the ordinary course of business designs and builds private or commercial aircraft certified by the federal aviation administration;

(4) "business entity" means a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership or real estate investment trust, but does not mean an individual or a joint venture;

(5) "control" means equity ownership in a business entity that:

(a) represents at least fifty percent of the total voting power of that business entity; and

(b) has a value equal to at least fifty percent of the total equity of that business entity; and

(6) "flight support" means providing navigation data, charts, weather information, online maintenance records and other aircraft or flight-related information and the software needed to access the information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.17, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 52; 1975, ch. 159, § 1; 1998, ch. 89, § 5; 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 4, § 1; 2007, ch. 172, § 7; 2014, ch. 19, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, provided for a deduction from gross receipts for selling aircraft parts or maintenance services; in the catchline, after

"registered", added "aircraft parts and maintenance services; reporting requirements"; in Subsection B, in the first sentence, after "selling aircraft", deleted "or aircraft parts or from selling services performed on aircraft or aircraft components"; added Subsections C, D and E; and in Subsection F, Paragraph (2), after "instrument that is" added "depreciable for federal income tax purposes and that is" and deleted Subparagraph (c) which read "and depreciable for federal income tax purposes".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, included receipts from the sale of aircraft parts and services and added Paragraphs (1), Subparagraph (a) of Paragraph (2) and Paragraphs (3) through (6) of Subsection C.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, inserted "Except for receipts deductible under Subsection B of this section" at the beginning of Subsection A, added a new Subsection B, and redesignated the former Subsection B as Subsection C.

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, designated the existing material as Subsection A, added the proviso at the end of the first sentence and substituted "7-9-71 NMSA 1978" for "72-16A-14.28 NMSA 1978" in the second sentence; and added Subsection B.

Lease-purchase transaction. — Lease agreement providing that upon full payment of rentals lessee would become owner of equipment in question constituted a sale with reservation of security interest, for which seller-secured party was to pay gross receipts tax at the rate specified for transactions covering vehicles not registered under the Motor Vehicle Code. Rust Tractor Co. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1970-NMCA-107, 82 N.M. 82, 475 P.2d 779, cert. denied, 82 N.M. 81, 475 P.2d 778.

7-9-62.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; aircraft sales and services; reporting requirements.

A. Receipts from the sale of or from maintaining, refurbishing, remodeling or otherwise modifying a commercial or military carrier over ten thousand pounds gross landing weight may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

C. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers approved by the department to receive the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions approved and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. Beginning in 2019 and every five years thereafter that the deduction is in effect, the department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deduction.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 4, § 2; 2005, ch. 104, § 24; 2014, ch. 8, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, provided a deduction from gross receipts for sales of commercial and military carriers; required taxpayers to separately report the amount of the deduction; required the taxation and revenue department to compile annual reports; in the catchline, after "aircraft" added "sales and", and after "services", added "; reporting requirements"; in Subsection A, after "Receipts", added "from the sale of or"; and added Subsections B and C.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, provided a credit for receipts from maintaining refurbishing, remodeling or otherwise modifying a commercial or military carrier over ten thousand pounds gross landing weight.

7-9-63. Deduction; gross receipts tax; publication sales.

Receipts from publishing newspapers or magazines, except from selling advertising space, may be deducted from gross receipts.

Receipts from selling magazines at retail may not be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.18, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 53.

ANNOTATIONS

Royalties from advertising. — Since taxpayer's receipts were a royalty paid to it from advertising revenues and not receipts from publishing the magazine, there would be no deduction under this section. N.M. Sheriffs & Police Ass'n v. Bureau of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-130, 85 N.M. 565, 514 P.2d 616.

No double taxation shown. — Since, aside from the tax paid on the taxpayer association's royalty receipts from advertising revenue, the only other tax involved was the tax asserted to have been paid by the publisher on his receipts, there was no factual basis for a claim of double taxation. *N.M. 7-9-65. Deduction; gross receipts tax; chemicals and reagents.

Receipts from selling chemicals or reagents to any mining, milling or oil company for use in processing ores or oil in a mill, smelter or refinery or in acidizing oil wells, and receipts from selling chemicals or reagents in lots in excess of eighteen tons to any hard-rock mining or milling company for use in any combination of extracting, leaching, milling, smelting, refining or processing ore at a mine site, may be deducted from gross receipts. Receipts from selling explosives, blasting powder or dynamite may not be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.21, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 56; 2019, ch. 172, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the criteria for a gross receipts tax deduction on certain receipts from selling chemicals or reagents; and after "eighteen tons", added "to any hard-rock mining or milling company for use in any combination of extracting, leaching, milling, smelting, refining or processing ore at a mine site".

Words used in this section are not ambiguous, and the issue of legislative intent does not arise. Runco Acidizing & Fracturing Co. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-145, 87 N.M. 146, 530 P.2d 410.

Aggregation of deliveries not authorized. — Since no single delivery or single day's delivery of chemicals or reagents to a well ever amounted to 18 tons or more, although the amount specified in a purchase order might aggregate that much, taxpayer was not entitled to a deduction under this section, since the wording of taxpayer's purchase orders and contract, supported inference that a purchase order was not a transfer for consideration and therefore not a sale. Runco Acidizing & Fracturing Co. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-145, 87 N.M. 146, 530 P.2d 410.

Statute is inapplicable to receipts from the sale and use of natural gas. — Where taxpayer, an electric power company, appealed from an administrative hearing officer's (AHO) decision and order denying its protest of New Mexico taxation and revenue department's denial of taxpayer's request for a tax refund based on its belief that its purchases of natural gas qualified for a deduction, the AHO did not err in denying taxpayer's protest because had the legislature intended to provide a deduction for receipts from the sale or use of natural gas, it could have specified the inclusion of natural gas within the statutory language establishing the deduction, as in the enactment of other legislation applicable to natural gas. Tucson Elec. Power Co. v. N.M. Taxation and Revenue Dep't, 2020-NMCA-011.

7-9-66. Deduction; gross receipts tax; commissions.

A. Receipts derived from commissions on sales of tangible personal property which are not subject to the gross receipts tax may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts of the owner of a dealer store derived from commissions received for performing the service of selling from the owner's dealer store a principal's tangible personal property may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. As used in this section, "dealer store" means a merchandise facility open to the public that is owned and operated by a person who contracts with a principal to act as an agent for the sale from that facility of merchandise owned by the principal.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.22, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 57; 1999, ch. 169, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added Subsections B and C.

7-9-66.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; certain real estate transactions.

A. Receipts from real estate commissions on that portion of the transaction subject to gross receipts tax pursuant to Subsection A of Section 7-9-53 NMSA 1978 may be deducted from gross receipts if the person claiming the deduction submits to the department evidence that the secretary finds substantiates the deduction.

B. For the purposes of this section, "commissions on that portion of the transaction subject to gross receipts tax" means that portion of the commission that bears the same relationship to the total commission as the amount of the transaction subject to gross receipts tax does to the total purchase price.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-76.2, enacted by Laws 1984, ch. 129, § 2; 1990, ch. 41, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — This section was enacted as 7-9-76.2 NMSA 1978 by Laws 1984, ch. 129, § 2, but was redesignated as 7-9-66.1 NMSA 1978, as another 7-9-76.2 NMSA 1978 had previously been enacted by Laws 1984, ch. 2, § 6.

The 1990 amendment, effective July 1, 1990, substituted "department evidence that the secretary" for "division evidence which the director" in Subsection A and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection B.

7-9-67. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts tax; refunds; uncollectible debts.

A. Refunds and allowances made to buyers or amounts written off the books as an uncollectible debt by a person reporting gross receipts tax on an accrual basis may be deducted from gross receipts. If debts reported uncollectible are subsequently collected, such receipts shall be included in gross receipts in the month of collection.

B. Refunds and allowances made to buyers or amounts written off the books as an uncollectible debt by a person reporting governmental gross receipts tax on an accrual basis may be deducted from governmental gross receipts. If debts reported uncollectible are subsequently collected, such receipts shall be included in governmental gross receipts in the month of collection.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.23, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 58; 1994, ch. 45, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, inserted "governmental gross receipts tax" in the section heading, designated the previously undesignated language as Subsection A and added Subsection B.

7-9-68. Deduction; gross receipts tax; warranty obligations.

Receipts of a dealer from furnishing goods or services to the purchaser of tangible personal property to fulfill a warranty obligation of the manufacturer of the property may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.25, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 60.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 68 made Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 60 effective July 1, 1969.

7-9-69. Deduction; gross receipts tax; administrative and accounting services.

A. Receipts of a business entity for administrative, managerial, accounting and customer services performed by it for an affiliate upon a nonprofit or cost basis and receipts of a business entity from an affiliate for the joint use or sharing of office machines and facilities upon a nonprofit or cost basis may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "affiliate" means a business entity that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by or is under common control with another business entity;

(2) "business entity" means a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership or real estate investment trust, but does not mean an individual or a joint venture; and

(3) "control" means equity ownership in a business entity that:

(a) represents at least fifty percent of the total voting power of that business entity; or

(b) has a value equal to at least fifty percent of the total equity of that business entity.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.26, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 61; 1990, ch. 43, § 1; 1993, ch. 149, § 1; 1998, ch. 112, § 1; 2002, ch. 21, § 1; 2015, ch. 38, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, removed a restriction in the definition of "control" in the gross receipts tax deduction for administrative and accounting services; and in Paragraph (3)(a) of Subsection B, after the semicolon, deleted "and" and added "or".

The 2002 amendment, effective July 1, 2002, throughout the section deleted references to corporations or limited partnerships and substituted "business entity"; added Paragraph B(2) defining "business entity"; added the paragraph and subparagraph designations under Subsection B; and made minor stylistic changes in four places within Subsection B.

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, in Subsection A, inserted "or an affiliate" following "corporation" near the beginning, inserted "customer" preceding "services" and substituted "the corporation or an affiliate" for "an affiliated corporation", twice; in Subsection B, substituted "'an affiliate'" for "'affiliated corporation'" and inserted "or a limited partnership" and "or limited partnership" in the first sentence, and substituted "or of an interest in a limited partnership that" for "which" in the second sentence; and inserted "or limited partnership" at the end of Paragraphs B(1) and (2).

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "fifty percent" for "eighty percent" in Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection B.

The 1990 amendment, effective July 1, 1990, designated the former section as Subsection A, inserted "managerial" and substituted "an affiliated" and "an affiliated corporation" for "a wholly-owned subsidiary" in Subsection A, and added Subsection B.

Scope of deduction. — This section is purely exclusionary and limited to machines of a general administrative nature, and heavy construction equipment exchanged by taxpayers in no way qualifies for this exemption. Co-Con, Inc. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1974-NMCA-134, 87 N.M. 118, 529 P.2d 1239, cert. denied, 87 N.M. 111, 529 P.2d 1232.

7-9-70. Deduction; gross receipts tax; rental or lease of vehicles used in interstate commerce.

Receipts from the rental or leasing of vehicles used in the transportation of passengers or property for hire in interstate commerce under the regulations or authorization of any agency of the United States may be deducted.

Effective dates. — Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 68 made Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 62 effective July 1, 1969.

7-9-71. Deduction; gross receipts tax; trade-in allowance.

That portion of the receipts of a seller that is represented by a trade-in of tangible personal property of the same type being sold, except for the receipts represented by a trade-in of a manufactured home, may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.28, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 63; 1979, ch. 338, § 6; 1991, ch. 203, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted "manufactured" for "mobile".

7-9-72. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 30, § 28 repealed 7-9-72 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1992, ch. 100, § 9, relating deductions for special fuel receipts, effective June 18, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1992 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-73. Deduction; gross receipts tax; governmental gross receipts; sale of prosthetic devices.

Receipts from selling prosthetic devices may be deducted from gross receipts or from governmental gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who is licensed to practice medicine, osteopathic medicine, dentistry, podiatry, optometry, chiropractic or professional nursing and who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller. The buyer delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate must deliver the prosthetic device incidental to the performance of a service and must include the value of the prosthetic device in his charge for the service.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.30, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 78, § 2; 1992, ch. 100, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "governmental gross receipts" in the section heading, and inserted "or from governmental gross receipts" in the first sentence while therein substituting "osteopathic medicine" for "osteopathy".

7-9-73.1. Deduction; gross receipts; governmental gross receipts; hospitals.

A. Sixty percent of the receipts of hospitals licensed by the department of health may be deducted from gross receipts; provided that this deduction may be applied only to the taxable gross receipts remaining after all other appropriate deductions have been taken.

B. Sixty percent of the receipts of a hospital licensed by the department of health may be deducted from governmental gross receipts.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 8, § 3; 1993, ch. 56, § 1; 1995, ch. 50, § 5; 2019, ch. 270, § 35.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, increased the deduction from gross receipts for hospitals licensed by the department of health, and provided a governmental gross receipts tax deduction for hospitals licensed by the department of health; in the section heading, added "governmental gross receipts"; in Subsection A, changed "Fifty" to "Sixty"; and added Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, added the proviso at the end.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted "tax" following "receipts" and "general" preceding "hospitals" in the section heading and rewrote this section which read "Fifty percent of the receipts of general hospitals may be deducted from gross receipts."

7-9-73.2. Deduction; gross receipts tax and governmental gross receipts tax; prescription drugs; oxygen; cannabis.

A. Receipts from the sale of prescription drugs and oxygen and oxygen services provided by a licensed medicare durable medical equipment provider and cannabis products that are sold in accordance with the Lynn and Erin Compassionate Use Act [Chapter 26, Article 2B NMSA 1978] may be deducted from gross receipts and governmental gross receipts.

B. For the purposes of this section, "prescription drugs" means insulin and substances that are:

(1) dispensed by or under the supervision of a licensed pharmacist or by a physician or other person authorized under state law to do so;

(2) prescribed for a specified person by a person authorized under state law to prescribe the substance; and

(3) subject to the restrictions on sale contained in Subparagraph 1 of Subsection (b) of 21 USCA 353.

History: Laws 1998, ch. 95, § 2; Laws 1998, ch. 99, § 4; 2003, ch. 272, § 7; 2007, ch. 361, § 3; 2021 (1st S.S.), ch. 4, § 53.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective June 29, 2021, provided a deduction from gross receipts for the sale of certain cannabis products; and in Subsection A, after "equipment provider", added "and cannabis products that are sold in accordance with the Lynn and Erin Compassionate Use Act".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, permitted a deduction for receipts from the sale of oxygen and oxygen services provided by a licensed medicare durable medical equipment provider.

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, added the Subsection A designation and added Subsection B.

Medical marijuana deduction from gross receipts. — Where taxpayer, a licensed producer authorized to dispense medical marijuana to qualified patients consistent with the Compassionate Use Act, §§ 26-2B-1 through 26-2B-7 (2007, as amended through 2021) NMSA 1978, sought refunds of gross receipts taxes that it paid in association with sales of medical marijuana from 2011-2016, and where those claims were denied by the administrative hearing officer on the grounds that the medical marijuana it dispenses to qualified patients does not constitute a "prescription drug" for purposes of the statutory deduction set forth in this section, the hearing officer erred in denying taxpayer's request for gross receipt tax refunds, because medical marijuana dispensed pursuant to the Compassionate Use Act meets the criteria set forth in Subsection B of this section; taxpayer is a licensed producer under the Compassionate Use Act and is undisputedly authorized under state law to dispense medical marijuana, the use of the marijuana at issue in this case was authorized by and for specific persons in accordance with state law, and medical marijuana is subject to restrictions for sale insofar as the Compassionate Use Act provides for access only after the patient has been duly diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition and has received written certification from a licensed practitioner that, in the practitioner's professional opinion, the potential health benefits of medical marijuana would likely outweigh the health risks to the patient. Sacred Garden, Inc. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMCA-038, cert. granted.

7-9-73.3. Deduction; gross receipts tax and governmental gross receipts tax; durable medical equipment; medical supplies.

A. Prior to July 1, 2030, receipts from the sale or rental of durable medical equipment and medical supplies may be deducted from gross receipts and governmental gross receipts.

B. The purpose of the deduction provided in this section is to help protect jobs and retain businesses in New Mexico that sell or rent durable medical equipment and medical supplies.

C. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

D. The deduction provided in this section shall be taken only by a taxpayer participating in the New Mexico medicaid program whose gross receipts are no less than ninety percent derived from the sale or rental of durable medical equipment, medical supplies or infusion therapy services, including the medications used in infusion therapy services.

E. Acceptance of a deduction provided by this section is authorization by the taxpayer receiving the deduction for the department to reveal information to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee necessary to analyze the effectiveness and cost of the deduction and whether the deduction is performing the purpose for which it was created.

F. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers approved by the department to receive the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions approved and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. The department shall present the report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deduction and whether the deduction is performing the purpose for which it was created.

G. As used in this section:

(1) "durable medical equipment" means a medical assistive device or other equipment that:

(a) can withstand repeated use;

(b) is primarily and customarily used to serve a medical purpose and is not useful to an individual in the absence of an illness, injury or other medical necessity, including improved functioning of a body part;

(c) is appropriate for use at home exclusively by the eligible recipient for whom the durable medical equipment is prescribed; and

(d) is prescribed by a physician or other person licensed by the state to prescribe durable medical equipment;

(2) "infusion therapy services" means the administration of prescribed medication through a needle or catheter;

(3) "medical supplies" means items for a course of medical treatment, including nutritional products, that are:

(a) necessary for an ongoing course of medical treatment;

(b) disposable and cannot be reused; and

(c) prescribed by a physician or other person licensed by the state to prescribe medical supplies; and

(4) "prescribe" means to authorize the use of an item or substance for a course of medical treatment.

History: Laws 2014, ch. 26, § 1; 2020, ch. 18, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, extended the sunset date for a gross receipts tax and governmental gross receipts tax deduction for durable medical equipment and medical supplies, and changed the reporting requirement for the taxation and revenue department regarding the effectiveness and cost of the deduction from being presented every five years to every year; in Subsection A, added "Prior to July 1, 2030", and after the first occurrence of "receipts", deleted "from transactions occurring prior to July 1, 2020 that are"; and in Subsection F, after "the effectiveness of the deduction.", deleted "Beginning in 2019 and every five years thereafter", after "shall", deleted "compile and", and after "present the", deleted "annual reports" and added "report".

7-9-73.4. Deduction; gross receipts tax; environmental modifications for medicaid recipients.

A. Prior to July 1, 2034, receipts of an eligible provider for environmental modifications reimbursed by the medical assistance division may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "eligible provider" means a provider who meets requirements of the medical assistance division to provide environmental modifications pursuant to a waiver granted by the federal department of health and human services to provide home and community-based services to recipients;

(2) "environmental modifications" include the purchasing and installing of equipment or making physical adaptations to a recipient's residence that are necessary to ensure the health, welfare and safety of the recipient or enhance the recipient's access to the home environment and increase the recipient's ability to act independently;

(3) "medicaid" means the medical assistance program established pursuant to Title 19 of the federal Social Security Act and regulations issued pursuant to that act;

(4) "medical assistance division" means the medical assistance division of the health care authority department; and

(5) "recipient" means a person whom the medical assistance division has determined to be eligible to receive medicaid-related services and who meets the financial and medical level of care criteria to receive medical assistance division services through one of the division's waiver programs granted by the federal department of health and human services.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 43 made Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 12 effective July 1, 2024.

7-9-74. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of property used in the manufacture of jewelry.

Receipts from selling tangible personal property may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who states in writing that he will use the property so purchased in manufacturing jewelry. The buyer must incorporate the tangible personal property as an ingredient or component part of the jewelry that he is in the business of manufacturing. The deduction allowed a seller under this section shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) during any twelve-month period attributable to purchases by a single purchaser.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.31, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 217, § 2; 1975, ch. 322, § 1; 1994, ch. 94, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective April 1, 1994, deleted the former third sentence which read, "The deduction allowed a seller under this section shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) during any twelve month period attributable to purchases by a single purchaser".

7-9-75. Deduction; gross receipts tax; sale of certain services performed directly on product manufactured.

Receipts from selling the service of combining or processing components or materials may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made to a person engaged in the business of manufacturing who delivers a nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller. The buyer delivering the nontaxable transaction certificate must have the service performed directly upon tangible personal property which he is in the business of manufacturing or upon ingredients or component parts thereof.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1972, ch. 39 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 18, 1972, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9-76. Deduction; gross receipts tax; travel agents' commissions paid by certain entities.

Receipts of travel agents derived from commissions paid by maritime transportation companies and interstate airlines, railroads and passenger buses for booking, referral, reservation or ticket services may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-14.33, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 288, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1977, ch. 288, § 3 made Laws 1977, ch. 288, § 2 effective July 1, 1977.

7-9-76.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; certain manufactured homes.

Receipts from the resale of a manufactured home may be deducted from gross receipts if the sale is made of a manufactured home that was subject to the gross receipts, compensating or motor vehicle excise tax upon its initial sale or use in New Mexico. The seller shall retain and furnish proof satisfactory to the department that a gross receipts, compensating or motor vehicle excise tax was paid upon the initial sale or use in New Mexico of a manufactured home, and in the absence of such proof, it is presumed that the tax was not paid. Proof that a New Mexico certificate of title was issued for a manufactured home in 1972 or a prior year or proof that a manufactured home for which a New Mexico certificate of title has been issued was manufactured in 1967 or a prior year is proof that a motor vehicle excise tax was paid on the initial sale or use in New Mexico of that manufactured home.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-76.1, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 338, § 7; 1980, ch. 103, § 1; 1990, ch. 41, § 9; 1991, ch. 203, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted "manufactured" for "mobile" in the section heading and throughout the section.

The 1990 amendment, effective July 1, 1990, substituted "department" for "director" and made a minor stylistic change in the second sentence.

7-9-76.2. Deduction; gross receipts tax; films and tapes.

Receipts from the leasing or licensing of theatrical and television films and tapes to a person engaged in the business of providing public or commercial entertainment from which gross receipts are derived may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-76.2, enacted by Laws 1984, ch. 2, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1984, ch. 2, § 14 contained an emergency clause and was approved February 11, 1984.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1984, ch. 129, § 2, also enacted a 7-9-76.2 NMSA 1978, but that section, which related to a deduction of real estate commissions from the gross receipts tax, was redesignated as 7-9-66.1 NMSA 1978.

7-9-77. Deductions; compensating tax.

A. Fifty percent of the value of agricultural implements, farm tractors, aircraft not exempted under Section 7-9-30 NMSA 1978 or vehicles that are not required to be registered under the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] may be deducted from the value in computing the compensating tax due; provided that, with respect to use of agricultural implements, the person using the property is regularly engaged in the business of farming or ranching. Any deduction allowed under Subsection B of this section is to be taken before the deduction allowed by this subsection is computed. As used in this subsection, "agricultural implement" means a tool, utensil or instrument that is:

(1) designed primarily for use with a source of motive power, such as a tractor, in planting, growing, cultivating, harvesting or processing agricultural produce at the place where the produce is grown; in raising poultry or livestock; or in obtaining or processing food or fiber, such as eggs, milk, wool or mohair, from living poultry or livestock at the place where the poultry or livestock are kept for this purpose; and

(2) depreciable for federal income tax purposes.

B. That portion of the value of tangible personal property on which an allowance was granted to the buyer for a trade-in of tangible personal property of the same type that was bought may be deducted from the value in computing the compensating tax due.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-15, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 47, § 15; 1969, ch. 144, § 64; 1975, ch. 159, § 2; 1988, ch. 148, § 2; 1998, ch. 89, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, in Subsection A, added the proviso at the end of the first sentence, added the last sentence and added Paragraphs A(1) and (2).

"Vehicle" construed. — To be a "vehicle" within the meaning of Subsection A, a machine must be capable of being utilized as a means of carrying people or other property over the highways. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Revenue Div., 1981-NMCA-042, 96 N.M. 117, 628 P.2d 687, cert. denied, 96 N.M. 116, 628 P.2d 686.

Neither dragline nor continuous miner within scope of section. — Because neither a dragline nor a continuous miner can be classified as a vehicle under Section 66-1-4B NMSA 1978 (now Section 66-1-4.11 NMSA 1978), neither is in the category of "vehicles not required to be registered" within the meaning of this section. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Revenue Div., 1981-NMCA-042, 96 N.M. 117, 628 P.2d 687, cert. denied, 96 N.M. 116, 628 P.2d 686; Pittsburgh & Midway Coal Mining Co. v. Revenue Div., 1983-NMCA-019, 99 N.M. 545, 660 P.2d 1027, appeal dismissed, 464 U.S. 923, 104 S. Ct. 323, 78 L. Ed. 2d 296 (1983).

7-9-77.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; certain medical and health care services.

A. Receipts of a health care practitioner or an association of health care practitioners from payments by the United States government, or any agency thereof, or from a medicare administrative contractor for medical and other health services provided by a health care practitioner to medicare beneficiaries pursuant to the provisions of Title 18 of the federal Social Security Act may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts of a hospice or nursing home from payments by the United States government, or any agency thereof, or from a medicare administrative contractor for medical and other health and palliative services provided by the hospice or nursing home to medicare beneficiaries pursuant to the provisions of Title 18 of the federal Social Security Act may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. Receipts of a health care practitioner or an association of health care practitioners from payments by a third-party administrator of the federal TRICARE program for medical and other health services provided by physicians and osteopathic physicians to covered beneficiaries may be deducted from gross receipts.

D. Receipts of a health care practitioner or an association of health care practitioners from payments by or on behalf of the Indian health service of the United States department of health and human services for medical and other health services provided by physicians and osteopathic physicians to covered beneficiaries may be deducted from gross receipts.

E. Receipts of a clinical laboratory from payments by the United States government, or any agency thereof, or from a medicare administrative contractor for medical services provided by the clinical laboratory to medicare beneficiaries pursuant to the provisions of Title 18 of the federal Social Security Act may be deducted from gross receipts.

F. Receipts of a home health agency from payments by the United States government, or any agency thereof, or from a medicare administrative contractor for medical, other health and palliative services provided by the home health agency to medicare beneficiaries pursuant to the provisions of Title 18 of the federal Social Security Act may be deducted from gross receipts.

G. Prior to July 1, 2032, receipts of a dialysis facility from payments by the United States government, or any agency thereof, or from a medicare administrative contractor for medical and other health services provided by the dialysis facility to medicare beneficiaries pursuant to the provisions of Title 18 of the federal Social Security Act may be deducted from gross receipts.

H. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department. A taxpayer who has receipts that are deductible pursuant to this section and Section 7-9-93 NMSA 1978 shall deduct the receipts under this section prior to calculating the receipts that may be deducted pursuant to Section 7-9-93 NMSA 1978.

I. The department shall compile an annual report on the deductions created pursuant to this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed each deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deductions. The department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deductions and whether the deductions are providing a benefit to the state.

J. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "association of health care practitioners" means a corporation, unincorporated business entity or other legal entity organized by, owned by or employing one or more health care practitioners; provided that the entity is not:

(a) an organization granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered; or

Cross references. — For the provisions of Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, see 42 U.S.C. § 1395 et seq.

2022 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2022, ch. 43, § 1 and Laws 2022, ch. 49, § 1, both effective July 1, 2022, enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2022, ch. 49, § 1 as the last act signed by the governor is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2022, ch. 43, § 1 and Laws 2022, ch. 49, § 1 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2022 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The nature of the difference between the amendments is that Laws 2022, ch. 43, § 1, provided that receipts from payments of a medicare administrative contractor are eligible for a gross receipts tax deduction for certain medical and health care services, and Laws 2022, ch. 49, § 1, extended a gross receipts tax deduction for dialysis facilities, and revised the definition of "dialysis facility".

Laws 2022, ch. 49, § 1, effective July 1, 2022, extended a gross receipts tax deduction for dialysis facilities, and revised the definition of "dialysis facility"; in Subsection F, deleted "Prior to July 1, 2024, receipts" and added "Prior to July 1, 2032, receipts"; and in Subsection I, Paragraph I(3), deleted "an end-stage renal disease facility as defined pursuant to 42 C.F.R. 405.2102" and added "a facility that provides outpatient maintenance dialysis services or home dialysis training and support services, including a facility considered by the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services to be an independent or hospital-based facility that includes a self-care dialysis unit that furnishes only self-dialysis services".

Laws 2022, ch. 43, § 1, effective July 1, 2022, provided that receipts from payments of a medicare administrative contractor are eligible for a gross receipts tax deduction for certain medical and health care services; in Subsection A, after "any agency thereof", added "or from a medicare administrative contractor", after "for", deleted "provision of", after "other health services", added "provided", and after "by a health care practitioner", deleted "or of medical or other health and palliative services by hospices or nursing homes"; added a new Subsection B and redesignated former Subsections B through I as Subsections C through J, respectively; in Subsections E, F, and G, after "or any agency thereof", added "or from a medicare administrative contractor"; in Subsection I, after "number of taxpayers", deleted "approved by the department to receive" and added "that claimed", and after "aggregate amount of deductions", deleted "approved" and added "claimed"; and in Subsection J, added a new Paragraph J(7) and redesignated former Paragraphs (7) and (8) as Paragraphs J(8) and J(9), respectively.

2021 Amendments. — Laws 2021, ch. 65, § 24, effective July 1, 2021, provided that associations of health care practitioners are eligible to claim certain gross receipts tax deductions, and defined "association of health care practitioners" for purposes of this section; in Subsection A, after "Receipts of a health care practitioner", added "or an association of health care practitioners"; in Subsection B, after "Receipts of a health care practitioner", added "or an association of health care practitioners"; in Subsection C, after "Receipts of a health care practitioner", added "or an association of health care practitioners"; and in Subsection I, added a new Paragraph I(1) and redesignated former Paragraphs I(1) through I(7) as Paragraphs I(2) through I(8), respectively.

Laws 2021, ch. 54, § 1, effective June 18, 2021, removed osteopathic physicians licensed pursuant to the Osteopathic Medicine Act from the definition of "health care practitioner", and added osteopathic physicians licensed pursuant to the Medical Practice Act to the definition of "health care practitioner"; and in Subsection I, Subparagraph I(3)(m), after "pursuant to the", deleted "Osteopathic Medicine" and added "Medical Practice".

The 2016 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective November 1, 2016, clarified the type of health care provider that may take certain gross receipts tax deductions for medical and health care services; in Subsection A, after "Receipts", added "of a health care practitioner", after "health services by", deleted "medical doctors, osteopathic physicians, doctors of oriental medicine, athletic trainers, chiropractic physicians, counselor and therapist practitioners, dentists, massage therapists, naprapaths, nurses, nutritionists, dietitians, occupational therapists, optometrists, pharmacists, physical therapists, psychologists, radiologic technologists, respiratory care practitioners, audiologists, speech-language pathologists, social workers and podiatrists" and added "a health care practitioner", and after "or of medical", added "or"; in Subsection B, after "Receipts", added "of a health care practitioner"; in Subsection C, after "Receipts", added "of a health care practitioner"; in Subsection D, after "Receipts", added "of a clinical laboratory"; in Subsection E, after "Receipts", added "of a home health agency"; in Subsection F, after "receipts", added "of a dialysis facility", after "services provided by a", deleted "a" and added "the", after "deducted from gross receipts", deleted "according to the following schedule:" and deleted Paragraphs F(1) through F(3), relating to deductions from gross receipts; in Subsection G, after the first sentence, added the second sentence; in Subsection H, after "evaluate the effectiveness of the deductions.", deleted "Beginning in 2020 and every five years thereafter that this section is in effect"; in Subsection I, deleted Paragraphs I(1) and I(2) and redesignated former Paragraph I(3) as Paragraph I(1); deleted Paragraphs I(4) and I(5) and redesignated former Paragraph I(6) as Paragraph I(2), deleted Paragraph I(7), added new Paragraph I(3) and redesignated former Paragraphs I(8) and I(9) as Paragraph I(4) and I(5), respectively, deleted Paragraphs I(10) through I(13) and redesignated former Paragraph I(14) as Paragraph I(6), deleted Paragraphs I(15) through I(26) and redesignated former Paragraph I(27) as Paragraph I(7).

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, provided a deduction from gross receipts of payments for services rendered by dialysis facilities; added Subsections F, G and H; and in Subsection I, added Paragraph (6).

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, eliminated the schedules of deductible receipts for the years 2003 through 2005; expanded the list of health care providers who may deduct receipts from the United States government and its agencies; added Subsection C; and added Paragraphs (1), (2), (4) through (6), (9), (11), (12), (14), (15), and (17) through (25) of Subsection F.

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, added Subsection C to provide a deduction for certain payments by the United States for medical services provided by a clinical laboratory; added Subsection D to provide a deduction for certain payments by the United States for medical, other health and palliative services provided to a home health agency; required that "hospice" be certified to provide medicare services; and in Subsection E, defined "clinical laboratory", "home health agency" and "nursing home".

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, in Subsection A, substituted "osteopathic physicians and podiatrists" for "osteopaths"; redesignated former Subsection B as C and added present Subsection B; in Subsection C, rewrote Paragraph C(2) and added Paragraphs C(3) and (4).

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, deleted former Subsections A & B, concerning deductions from gross receipts from specific dates, and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly; in present Subsection A, deleted "on or after July 1, 2000" following "Receipts" and inserted "or of medical, other health and palliative services by a hospice"; and in present Subsection B, added Paragraph (1) and designated the remaining section text as Paragraph (2).

7-9-77.2. Deductions; gross receipts; child care assistance through a licensed child care assistance program; pre-kindergarten services by for-profit pre-kindergarten providers.

A. Receipts from the sale of child care assistance services by a taxpayer pursuant to a contract or grant with the early childhood education and care department to provide such services through a licensed child care assistance program may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Receipts of for-profit pre-kindergarten providers for the sale of pre-kindergarten services pursuant to the Pre-Kindergarten Act [Chapter 32A, Article 23 NMSA 1978] may be deducted from gross receipts.

C. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

D. The department shall compile an annual report on the deductions provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed each deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deductions. The department shall present the report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the cost of the deductions.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "child care assistance" means "child care assistance" or "early childhood care assistance", as those terms are defined in the Early Childhood Care Accountability Act [32A-23C-1 to 32A-23C-5 NMSA 1978]; and

(2) "licensed child care assistance program" means "licensed child care program", "licensed early childhood care program" or "licensed exempt child care program", as those terms are defined in the Early Childhood Care Accountability Act.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 43 made Laws 2024, ch. 67, § 13 effective July 1, 2024.

7-9-78. Deductions; compensating tax; use of tangible personal property for leasing.

A. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection B of this section, the value of tangible personal property may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due if the person using the tangible personal property:

(1) is engaged in a business which derives a substantial portion of its receipts from leasing or selling tangible personal property of the type leased;

(2) does not use the tangible personal property in any manner other than holding it for lease or sale or leasing or selling it either by itself or in combination with other tangible personal property in the ordinary course of business; and

(3) does not use the tangible personal property in a manner incidental to the performance of a service.

B. The deduction provided by this section shall not apply to the value of:

(1) furniture or appliances furnished as part of a leased or rented dwelling house or apartment by the landlord or lessor;

(2) coin-operated machines; or

(3) manufactured homes.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-15.1, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 144, § 65; 1973, ch. 245, § 1; 1975, ch. 160, § 4; 1979, ch. 338, § 8; 1981, ch. 184, § 3; 1984, ch. 2, § 7; 1991, ch. 203, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, inserted the subsection designation A at the beginning of the section and redesignated former Subsections A to C as Paragraphs (1) to (3) of Subsection A; rewrote the introductory paragraph of Subsection A which read "The value of tangible personal property other than furniture or appliances furnished as part of a leased or rented dwelling house or apartment by the landlord or lessor, other than coin-operated machines and other than mobile homes may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due if the person using the tangible personal property" and added Subsection B.

Determining character of transaction. — The characterization of a transaction as a lease may be determined by looking to the intentions of the parties as evidenced by their actions with respect to the leased property. Music Serv. Co. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1975-NMCA-114, 88 N.M. 432, 540 P.2d 1321.

Lease and bailment distinguished. — Since taxpayer, which was in the business of providing coin-operated, amusement and vending equipment for use by business establishments for the pleasure or amusement of their patrons, utilized two types of agreements, one of which was a lease under which payment was made to taxpayer by a flat fee, whereas in the other type of agreement payment was made by a division of the proceeds from the machines under an oral agreement based on a document called "Agreement for Joint Operation of Amusement Devices," it was held that the taxpayer knew the difference between a lease agreement and a bailment for the mutual benefit of itself and a business establishment, supporting the inference that the relationship between taxpayer and establishment was not a lease. Music Serv. Co. v. Bureau of Revenue, 1975-NMCA-114, 88 N.M. 432, 540 P.2d 1321.

Laundry transactions are leaseings. — Since the taxpayer's coin-operated laundry business is used for a consideration by persons other than the owner, the transactions are "leasings" as defined in Section 7-9-3J NMSA 1978, and the taxpayer is entitled to a deduction from compensating tax liability for the value of the washers and dryers. Strebeck Props., Inc. v. New Mexico Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-035, 93 N.M. 262, 599 P.2d 1059.

Construction of temporary provision. — Temporary provision enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 144, § 66, providing for exemption from higher tax rate for certain contracts "entered into prior to the passage of this act," necessarily referred to contracts entered into prior to July 1, 1969, the date on which, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, the bill became law, and an attempt by the commissioner (now the secretary of the taxation and revenue department) to set by regulation an earlier cutoff date (the date on which the bill was signed by the governor) was invalid. R.H. Fulton, Inc. v. N.M. Bureau of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-133, 85 N.M. 583, 514 P.2d 1079.

Exemption not waived. — Failure to register pursuant to the terms of a regulation promulgated under a temporary exemption provision which was invalid because it set a cutoff date contrary to that provided by the legislature was not a waiver by the taxpayer of his rights under the statute. R.H. Fulton, Inc. v. N.M. Bureau of Revenue, 1973-NMCA-133, 85 N.M. 583, 514 P.2d 1079.

Constitutionality of former temporary exemption. — Former 72-16-5D, 1953 Comp., which exempted lump-sum or unit-price contracts entered into prior to the effective date of the act, which by their terms would not permit a price increase in the event of imposition of additional tax, from the operation of the gross receipts tax, did not amount to an arbitrary or unreasonable distinction violative of principles of equal protection and uniform taxation. Gruschus v. Bureau of Revenue, 1965-NMSC-013, 74 N.M. 775, 399 P.2d 105 (decided under prior law).

7-9-78.1. Deduction; compensating tax; uranium enrichment plant equipment.

The value of equipment and replacement parts for that equipment may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due if the person uses the equipment and replacement parts to enrich uranium in a uranium enrichment plant.

History: Laws 1999, ch. 231, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

7-9-79. Credit; compensating tax.

A. If, on property or services bought outside this state, a gross receipts, sales, compensating or similar tax has been levied by another state or political subdivision thereof on the transaction by which the person using the property or services in New Mexico acquired the property or a compensating, use or similar tax has been levied by another state on the use of the property subsequent to its acquisition by the person using the property or services in New Mexico and such tax has been paid, the amount of such tax paid may be credited against any compensating tax due this state on the same property. The credit allowed pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed the compensating tax due on the property or services used in New Mexico.

B. When the receipts from the sale of real property constructed by a person in the ordinary course of the person's construction business are subject to the gross receipts tax, the amount of compensating tax previously paid by the person on materials that became an ingredient or component part of the construction project and on construction services performed upon the construction project may be credited against the gross receipts tax due on the sale.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-16, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 47, § 16; 1973, ch. 342, § 1; 1991, ch. 203, § 10; 2021, ch. 65, § 25.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, amended the existing credit for compensating taxes paid in another state to include services; and in Subsection A, after the first, second, and fifth occurrence of "property", added "or services", and added the last sentence of the subsection.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, inserted "or a compensating, use or similar tax has been levied by another state on the use of the property subsequent to its acquisition by the person using the property in New Mexico" in Subsection A.

7-9-79.1. Credit; gross receipts tax; services.

If on services performed outside the state a gross receipts sales or similar tax has been levied by another state or a political subdivision thereof and such tax has been paid, the amount of the tax paid may be credited against any gross receipts tax due this state on the receipts after July 1, 1989 from the sale in New Mexico of the product of the services performed outside this state. The amount of credit shall not exceed an amount equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 7-9-4 NMSA 1978 multiplied by the amount subject to tax by both New Mexico and the other state or political subdivision of that state.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9-79.1, enacted by Laws 1989, ch. 262, § 8; 1994, ch. 45, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, added the second sentence and substituted "after July 1, 1989" for "during the period July 1, 1989 through June 30, 1993" in the first sentence.

7-9-79.2. Gross receipts tax; compensating tax; biodiesel blending facility tax credit.

A. A taxpayer who is a rack operator as defined in the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 16A NMSA 1978] and who installs biodiesel blending equipment in property owned by the taxpayer for the purpose of establishing or expanding a facility to produce blended biodiesel fuel is eligible to claim a credit against gross receipts tax or compensating tax. The credit shall be an amount equal to thirty percent of the purchase cost of the equipment plus thirty percent of the cost of installing that equipment. The credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "biodiesel blending facility tax credit".

B. The biodiesel blending facility tax credit shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) with respect to equipment installed at any one facility.

C. Upon application from a taxpayer wishing to claim the biodiesel blending facility tax credit, the energy, minerals and natural resources department shall determine if the equipment for which the tax credit will be claimed meets the requirements of this section and if purchase and installation costs reported by the taxpayer are legitimate. Upon these determinations being made in favor of the taxpayer, the energy, minerals and natural resources department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility containing this information and an estimate of the amount of the biodiesel blending facility tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible.

D. To claim the biodiesel blending facility tax credit, the taxpayer shall provide to the taxation and revenue department the certificate of eligibility from the energy, minerals and natural resources department. Upon receipt of the certificate, the taxation and revenue department shall approve the claim for the credit if the total cumulative amount of approved claims for the credit for all taxpayers for the calendar year does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000). The department shall maintain a record of the cumulative amount of claims for the credit that have been approved and when it determines that this cumulative amount has reached one million dollars ($1,000,000), it shall cease approving any additional claims for the biodiesel blending facility tax credit.

E. If a taxpayer who has received the biodiesel blending facility tax credit ceases biodiesel blending without completing at least one hundred eighty days of availability of the facility within the first three hundred sixty-five days after the issuance of the certificate of eligibility from the energy, minerals and natural resources department, any amount of approved credit not applied against the taxpayer's gross receipts tax or compensating tax liability shall be extinguished. The taxpayer must amend the taxpayer's return, self-assess the tax owed and return any biodiesel blending facility tax credit received within four hundred twenty-five days of the date of issuance of the certificate of eligibility.

F. The tax credit provided by this section may only be applied against the taxpayer's gross receipts tax liability or compensating tax liability. If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability in the reporting period for which it is granted, the credit may be carried forward for four years from the date of the certificate of eligibility.

G. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "biodiesel" means renewable, biodegradable, monoalkyl ester combustible liquid fuel that is derived from agricultural plant oils or animal fats and that meets American society for testing and materials D 6751 standard specification for biodiesel B100 blend stock for distillate fuels;

(2) "biodiesel blending equipment" means equipment necessary for the process of blending biodiesel with diesel fuel to produce blended biodiesel fuel;

(3) "blended biodiesel fuel" means a diesel fuel that contains at least two percent biodiesel; and

(4) "diesel fuel" means any diesel-engine fuel used for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle."

7-9-88.1. Credit; gross receipts tax; tax paid to certain tribes.

A. If on a taxable transaction taking place on tribal land a qualifying gross receipts, sales or similar tax has been levied by the tribe, the amount of the tribe's tax may be credited against gross receipts tax due this state or its political subdivisions pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and a local option gross receipts tax on the same transaction. The amount of the credit shall be equal to the lesser of seventy-five percent of the tax imposed by the tribe on the receipts from the transaction or seventy-five percent of the revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the receipts from the same transaction. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the amount of credit taken and allowed shall be applied proportionately against the amount of the gross receipts tax and local option gross receipts taxes and against the amount of distribution of those taxes pursuant to Section 7-1-6.1 NMSA 1978.

B. A qualifying gross receipts, sales or similar tax levied by the tribe shall be limited to a tax that:

- (1) is substantially similar to the gross receipts tax imposed by the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act;
- (2) does not unlawfully discriminate among persons or transactions based on membership in the tribe;
- (3) provides a credit against the tribe's tax equal to the lesser of twenty-five percent of the tax imposed by the tribe on the receipts from the transactions or twenty-five percent of the tax revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of the local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the receipts from the same transactions; and
- (4) is subject to a cooperative agreement between the tribe and the secretary entered into pursuant to Section 9-11-12.1 NMSA 1978 and in effect at the time of the taxable transaction.

C. For purposes of the tax credit allowed by this section:

- (1) "pueblo" means the Pueblo of Acoma, Cochiti, Isleta, Jemez, Laguna, Nambe, Picuris, Pojoaque, Sandia, San Felipe, San Ildefonso, San Juan, Santa Ana, Santa Clara, Santo Domingo, Taos, Tesuque, Zia or Zuni or the nineteen New Mexico pueblos acting collectively;
- (2) "tribal land" means all land that is owned by a tribe located within the exterior boundaries of a tribe's reservation or grant and all land held by the United States in trust for that tribe; and
- (3) "tribe" means a pueblo, the Jicarilla Apache Nation or the Mescalero Apache Tribe.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For definition of local option gross receipts tax, see 7-1-3 NMSA 1978.

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, removed a provision that required that a gross receipts or similar tax levied by a tribe be at a rate not greater than the total of the gross receipts tax rate and local option gross receipts tax rate; and in Subsection B, deleted former Paragraph B(3) and redesignated Paragraphs B(4) and B(5) as Paragraphs B(3) and B(4), respectively.

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, substituted "tribes" for "pueblos" in the section heading; deleted "any" following "be credited against" in Subsection A; rewrote Subsection C; and substituted "tribal" or "tribe's" for "pueblo" throughout the section.

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "certain pueblos" for "Santa Ana pueblo, Laguna pueblo or Nambe pueblo" in the section heading; substituted "pueblo land" for "Santa Ana pueblo land, Laguna pueblo land or Nambe pueblo land" near the beginning of Subsection A and rewrote Subsection C, which formerly defined each of the pueblo lands separately.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, inserted "or Nambe pueblo" in the section heading, inserted "or Nambe pueblo land" in Subsection A, assigned designations (1) and (2) to existing Subsection C text, and added Subsection C(3).

7-9-88.2. Credit; gross receipts tax; tax paid to Navajo Nation on receipts from selling coal.

A. If on receipts from selling coal severed from Navajo Nation land a qualifying gross receipts, sales, business activity or similar tax has been levied by the Navajo Nation, the amount of the Navajo Nation tax paid and not refunded may be credited against any gross receipts tax due this state or its political subdivisions pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and any local option gross receipts tax on the same receipts. The amount of the credit shall be equal to:

(1) for the period from July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002, the lesser of thirty-seven and one-half percent of the tax imposed by the Navajo Nation on the receipts or thirty-seven and one-half percent of the revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the same receipts; and

(2) after June 30, 2002, the lesser of seventy-five percent of the tax imposed by the Navajo Nation on the receipts or seventy-five percent of the revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the same receipts.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the amount of credit taken and allowed shall be applied proportionately against the amounts of the distributions made pursuant to Section 7-1-6.1 NMSA 1978 of the gross receipts tax and local option gross receipts taxes imposed on those receipts.

C. A qualifying gross receipts, sales, business activity or similar tax levied by the Navajo Nation shall be limited to a tax that:

(1) is substantially similar to the gross receipts tax imposed by the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act;

(2) does not unlawfully discriminate among persons or transactions based on membership in the Navajo Nation;

(3) is levied on the receipts from selling coal at a rate not greater than the total of the gross receipts tax rate and local option gross receipts tax rates imposed by this state and its political subdivisions located within the exterior boundaries of the Navajo Nation;

(4) provides a credit against the Navajo Nation tax equal to:

(a) for the period from July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002, the lesser of twelve and one-half percent of the tax imposed by the Navajo Nation on the receipts from selling coal severed from Navajo Nation land or twelve and one-half percent of the tax revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of the local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the same receipts; and

(b) after June 30, 2002, the lesser of twenty-five percent of the tax imposed by the Navajo Nation on the receipts from selling coal severed from Navajo Nation land or twenty-five percent of the tax revenue produced by the sum of the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and the total of the rates of the local option gross receipts taxes imposed on the same receipts;

(5) is not used to calculate an intergovernmental coal severance tax credit with respect to the same receipts or time period; and

(6) is subject to a cooperative agreement between the Navajo Nation and the secretary entered into pursuant to Section 9-11-12.2 NMSA 1978 and in effect at the time of the taxable transaction.

D. For purposes of the tax credit allowed by this section, "Navajo Nation land" means all land in New Mexico that, on March 1, 2001, was located within the exterior boundaries of the Navajo Nation reservation or within a dependent community of the Navajo Nation or was land held by the United States in trust for the Navajo Nation.

7-9-90. Deductions; gross receipts tax; sales of uranium hexafluoride and enrichment of uranium.

A. Receipts from selling uranium hexafluoride and from providing the service of enriching uranium may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. The department shall annually report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee aggregate amounts of deductions taken pursuant to this section, the number of taxpayers claiming the deduction and any other information that is necessary to determine that the deduction is performing a purpose that is beneficial to the state.

C. A taxpayer deducting gross receipts pursuant to this section shall report the amount deducted separately and attribute the amount of the deduction to the authorization provided in this section in a manner required by the department that facilitates the evaluation by the legislature for the benefit to the state of this deduction.

History: Laws 1999, ch. 231, § 3; 2012, ch. 13, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For deduction of value of equipment and its replacement parts from compensating tax, see 7-9-78.1 NMSA 1978.

The 2012 amendment, effective May 16, 2012, provided for a deduction of receipts from sales of uranium hexafluoride; required reports to determine whether the deduction is beneficial to the state; in the title, after "sales of", deleted "enriched", and after "uranium", added "hexafluoride"; in Subsection A, after "Receipts from selling", deleted "enriched", and after "uranium", added "hexafluoride"; and added Subsections B and C.

7-9-91. Deduction; compensating tax; contributions of inventory to certain organizations and governmental agencies.

A. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection D of this section, the value of tangible personal property that is removed from inventory and contributed to organizations that have been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due, provided that the contribution is deductible for federal income tax purposes by the person from whose inventory the property was withdrawn or, if the person from whose inventory the property was withdrawn is a pass-through entity as that term is defined in Section 7-3-2 NMSA 1978, the contribution is deductible by the owner or owners of the pass-through entity.

B. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection D of this section, the value of tangible personal property that is removed from inventory and contributed to the United States or New Mexico or any governmental unit or subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due.

C. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection D of this section, the value of tangible personal property that is removed from inventory and contributed to an Indian tribe, nation or pueblo or any governmental subdivision, agency, department or instrumentality thereof for use on that Indian reservation or pueblo grant may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due.

D. Unless contrary to federal law, the deduction provided by this section does not apply to:

- (1) a contribution of metalliferous mineral ore;
- (2) a contribution of tangible personal property that is or will be incorporated into a metropolitan redevelopment project created under the Metropolitan Redevelopment Code [Chapter 3, Article 60A NMSA 1978];
- (3) a contribution of tangible personal property that will become an ingredient or component part of a construction project; or

(4) a contribution of tangible personal property utilized or produced in the performance of a service.

E. For purposes of this section:

(1) "inventory" means tangible personal property held for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business; and

(2) "contributed" or "contribution" means a transfer of ownership without consideration. Public acknowledgment of the contribution does not constitute consideration for the purpose of this section.

7-9-92. Deduction; gross receipts; sale of food at retail food store.

A. Receipts from the sale of food by a retail food store that are not exempt from gross receipts taxation and are not deductible pursuant to another provision of the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act may be deducted from gross receipts. The deduction provided by this section shall be separately stated by the taxpayer.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "food" means any food or food product for home consumption that meets the definition of food in 7 USCA 2012(k)(1) for purposes of the federal supplemental nutrition assistance program; and

(2) "retail food store" means an establishment that sells food for home preparation and consumption and that meets the definition of retail food store in 7 USCA 2012(o)(1) for purposes of the federal supplemental nutrition assistance program, whether or not the establishment participates in the supplemental nutrition assistance program.

History: Laws 2004, ch. 116, § 5; 2021, ch. 65, § 26.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that the existing gross receipts tax deduction for receipts from the sale of food for home consumption is available for food sold by a retail food store and not at a retail food store, and revised the definitions of "food" and "retail food store" for purposes of this section; in Subsection A, after "the sale of food", deleted "at" and added "by"; and in Subsection B, Paragraph B(1), after "7 USCA", changed "2012(g)(1) to "2012(k)(1), and after "federal", deleted "food stamp" and added "supplemental nutrition assistance", and in Paragraph B(2), after "7 USCA", changed "2012(k)(1)" to "2012(o)(1)", and changed each occurrences of "food stamp" to "supplemental nutrition assistance".

7-9-93. Deduction; gross receipts; certain receipts for services provided by health care practitioner or association of health care practitioners.

A. Receipts of a health care practitioner or an association of health care practitioners for commercial contract services or medicare part C services paid by a managed care organization or health care insurer may be deducted from gross receipts if the services are within the scope of practice of the health care practitioner providing the service. Receipts from fee-for-service payments by a health care insurer may not be deducted from gross receipts.

B. Prior to July 1, 2028, receipts from a copayment or deductible paid by an insured or enrollee to a health care practitioner or an association of health care practitioners for commercial contract services pursuant to the terms of the insured's health insurance plan or enrollee's managed care health plan may be deducted from gross receipts if the services are within the scope of practice of the health care practitioner providing the service.

C. The deductions provided by this section shall be applied only to gross receipts remaining after all other allowable deductions available under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act have been taken.

D. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

E. The department shall compile an annual report on the deductions provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed the deductions, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deductions. The department shall present the report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the cost of the deductions.

F. As used in this section:

(1) "association of health care practitioners" means a corporation, unincorporated business entity or other legal entity organized by, owned by or employing one or more health care practitioners; provided that the entity is not:

(1) "association of licensed medical doctors or osteopathic physicians" means a corporation, unincorporated business entity or other legal entity organized by, owned by or employing one or more licensed medical doctors or osteopathic physicians; provided that the entity is not:

(a) an organization granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered; or

(b) a health maintenance organization, hospital, hospice, nursing home or an entity that is solely an outpatient facility or intermediate care facility licensed pursuant to the Public Health Act [Chapter 24, Article 1 NMSA 1978];

(2) "qualified health care services" means medical care services provided by a licensed medical doctor or licensed osteopathic physician while on call to a hospital; and

(3) "value of unpaid qualified health care services" means the amount that is charged for qualified health care services, not to exceed one hundred thirty percent of the reimbursement rate for the services under the medicaid program administered by the human services department [health care authority department], that remains unpaid one year after the date of billing and that the licensed medical doctor or licensed osteopathic physician has reason to believe will not be paid because:

(a) at the time the services were provided, the person receiving the services had no health insurance or had health insurance that did not cover the services provided;

(b) at the time the services were provided, the person receiving the services was not eligible for medicaid; and

(c) the charges are not reimbursable under a program established pursuant to the Indigent Hospital and County Health Care Act [Chapter 27, Article 5 NMSA 1978].

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2023, ch. 205, § 16 provided that references to the human services department shall be deemed to be references to the health care authority department.

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, provided that associations of licensed medical doctors or osteopathic physicians are eligible to claim certain gross receipts tax deductions, and defined "association of licensed medical doctors or osteopathic physicians", as used in this section; in Subsection A, after "licensed osteopathic physician", added "or association of licensed medical doctors or osteopathic physicians", and after "taxes due in", deleted "the following amounts", deleted former Paragraphs A(1) and A(2), and deleted former paragraph designation "(3)" and the language "on and after July 1, 2009, one hundred percent of" and added "an amount equal to"; and in Subsection B, added new Paragraph B(1) and redesignated former Paragraphs B(1) and B(2) as Paragraphs B(2) and B(3), respectively.

7-9-96.3. Technology readiness gross receipts tax credit.

A. Prior to July 1, 2027, a taxpayer that is a national laboratory that provides technology readiness assistance to a business that is registered to do business in New Mexico and has licensed a technology from the national laboratory or is a participant in a cooperative research and development agreement with the national laboratory may claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's gross receipts tax liability imposed pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act, excluding any local option gross receipts tax liability. The tax credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "technology readiness gross receipts tax credit".

B. The purpose of the technology readiness gross receipts tax credit is to help businesses in New Mexico achieve technology maturation of the businesses' technologies developed at New Mexico national laboratories and increase economic development in the state.

C. The amount of a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit shall equal the amount of qualified expenditures incurred by a national laboratory to provide technology readiness assistance to a business, not to exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in a fiscal year per business; provided that the annual aggregate amount of credits allowed per national laboratory per fiscal year shall be limited to one million dollars ($1,000,000).

D. A taxpayer may claim a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit for the taxable period in which the taxpayer provides technology assistance pursuant to this section. That portion of a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable period in which the credit is claimed may be carried forward to succeeding taxable periods.

E. To receive a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit, a taxpayer shall apply to the department on forms and in the manner required by the department. The application shall include the following:

(1) certification from each business that received technology readiness assistance that:

(a) the assistance was made in good faith to help the business demonstrate the feasibility of real-world application of the business's technology; and

(b) the assistance was not otherwise available to the business at a reasonable cost through private industry;

(2) evidence that the business that received the technology readiness assistance is registered to do business in New Mexico; and

(3) evidence that the business's technology is a licensed technology from the national laboratory or the business is a participant in a cooperative research and development agreement with the national laboratory.

F. In addition to the requirements in Subsection E of this section, a national laboratory shall:

(1) create forms for technology readiness assistance requests and completion of technology maturation;

(2) establish a technology readiness assistance program that will assist businesses to reach technology maturation;

(3) consult with the secretary of economic development to seek advice on improvements in the operation of the technology readiness assistance program; and

(4) establish a methodology to use state educational institutions that have demonstrated the capability to provide technology readiness assistance.

G. A taxpayer shall not claim both a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit and a credit pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act [Chapter 7, Article 9E NMSA 1978] for assistance provided to the same business in the same taxable period.

H. If more than one national laboratory provides technology readiness assistance to a business, the national laboratories shall not claim a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit until coordination is developed between the national laboratories providing the assistance that generates a joint operational plan to ensure that:

(1) the assistance provided by each national laboratory suits the business's needs and challenges; and

(2) the combined claims for a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit will not exceed the limitations provided in Subsection C of this section.

I. A national laboratory that claims a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit shall submit an annual report in writing to the department, the economic development department and an appropriate legislative interim committee. If more than one national laboratory claims a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit, those laboratories shall jointly submit an annual report. The annual report shall summarize activities related to and the results of the technology readiness assistance programs created by the national laboratories and shall include:

(1) a description of each business's technology that has received technology readiness assistance, including progress toward technology maturation and whether, and to what extent, the business is still doing business in New Mexico;

(2) results of surveys of businesses to which technology readiness assistance is provided;

(3) the total amount of the technology readiness gross receipts tax credits received in the previous fiscal year; and

- (4) an economic impact study performed by an uninterested third party.

J. At any time after receipt of an annual report required pursuant to this section, the department or the economic development department may provide written instructions to a national laboratory identifying future improvements in the national laboratory's technology readiness assistance program for which it receives a technology readiness gross receipts tax credit.

K. As used in this section:

(1) "cooperative research and development agreement" means any agreement between a national laboratory and a non-federal party under which the laboratory provides personnel, services, facilities, equipment, intellectual property or other resources and a non-federal party provides funds, personnel, services, facilities, equipment, intellectual property or other resources toward the conduct of specified research or development efforts that are consistent with the missions of the laboratory;

(2) "national laboratory" means a prime contractor designated as a national laboratory by act of congress that is operating a facility in New Mexico;

(3) "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure by a national laboratory in providing technology readiness assistance and is limited to the following:

(a) employee salaries, wages, benefits and employer payroll taxes;

(b) administrative costs related directly to the provision of technology readiness assistance;

(c) in-state travel expenses, including per diem and mileage at the internal revenue service standard rate; and

(d) supplies and services of contractors that are related to the provision of technology readiness assistance;

(4) "state educational institution" means a state educational institution named in Article 12, Section 11 of the constitution of New Mexico;

(5) "technology maturation" means technology that has been developed to a stage that results in a prototype or demonstration of the feasibility of real-world application of the technology; and

(6) "technology readiness assistance" means assistance provided to a business by a national laboratory with the intent to help the business's technology achieve technology maturation.

History: Laws 2020, ch. 22, § 1; 2022, ch. 45, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2022, ch. 45, § 3(B) repealed Laws 2020, ch. 22, § 3 that would have repealed 7-9-96.3 NMSA 1978 effective July 1, 2024.

The 2022 amendment, effective July 1, 2022, extended the technology readiness gross receipts tax credit, and replaced the current funding structure with a standard tax credit capped at $1,000,000 per national laboratory per year; in the section heading, deleted "technology readiness gross receipts tax credit fund"; in Subsection A, deleted "For taxable periods beginning July 1, 2020 and prior to July 1, 2023" and added "Prior to July 1, 2027"; deleted former Subsection C and redesignated former Subsections D through L as Subsections C through K, respectively; in Subsection C, after the subsection designation, deleted "Subject to the availability of funds in the technology readiness gross receipts tax credit fund", after "shall be limited", deleted "as follows", deleted former Paragraphs (1) and (2), former paragraph designation "(3)" and the language "beginning on July 1, 2022 and prior to July 1, 2023" and added "to"; and in Subsection F, after "requirements in Subsection", changed "F" to "E".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2022, ch. 45, § 2 provided that money in the technology readiness gross receipts tax credit fund shall be transferred to the general fund.

7-9-97. Deduction; gross receipts tax; receipts from certain purchases by or on behalf of the state.

Receipts from the sale of property or services purchased by or on behalf of the state from funds obtained from the forfeiture of financial assurance pursuant to the New Mexico Mining Act [Chapter 69, Article 36 NMSA 1978] or the forfeiture of financial responsibility pursuant to the Water Quality Act [Chapter 74, Article 6 NMSA 1978] may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 169, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 169 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 17, 2005, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-9-98. Deduction; compensating tax; biomass-related equipment; biomass materials.

A. The value of a biomass boiler, gasifier, furnace, turbine-generator, storage facility, feedstock processing or drying equipment, feedstock trailer or interconnection transformer may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due.

B. The value of biomass materials used for processing into biopower, biofuels or biobased products may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due.

C. As used in this section:

(1) "biobased products" means products created from plant- or crop-based resources such as agricultural crops and crop residues, forestry, pastures and rangelands that are normally made from petroleum

(2) "biofuels" means biomass converted to liquid or gaseous fuels such as ethanol, methanol, methane and hydrogen;

(3) "biomass material" means organic material that is available on a renewable or recurring basis, including:

(a) forest-related materials, including mill residues, logging residues, forest thinnings, slash, brush, low commercial value materials or undesirable species, salt cedar and other phreatophyte or woody vegetation removed from river basins or watersheds and woody material harvested for the purpose of forest fire fuel reduction or forest health and watershed improvement;

(b) agricultural-related materials, including orchard trees, vineyard, grain or crop residues, including straws and stover, aquatic plants and agricultural processed co-products and waste products, including fats, oils, greases, whey and lactose;

(c) animal waste, including manure and slaughterhouse and other processing waste;

(d) solid woody waste materials, including landscape or right-of-way tree trimmings, range land maintenance residues, waste pallets, crates and manufacturing, construction and demolition wood wastes, excluding pressure-treated, chemically treated or painted wood wastes and wood contaminated with plastic;

(e) crops and trees planted for the purpose of being used to produce energy;

(f) landfill gas, wastewater treatment gas and biosolids, including organic waste byproducts generated during the wastewater treatment process; and

(g) segregated municipal solid waste, excluding tires and medical and hazardous waste; and

(4) "biopower" means biomass converted to produce electrical and thermal energy.

7-9-110. Deleted.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2008, ch. 11, § 1, amended Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29, to provide that if the requirements of Subsection A of Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29 were not fulfilled, the effective date of this section would be July 1, 2010, provided that prior to January 1, 2010, the economic development department certify to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county had commenced, including the land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction. On February 16, 2010, the New Mexico compilation commission received a letter from the economic development department dated February 12, 2010, notifying the compilation commission that while Union Pacific had made the land acquisition, construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county had not commenced as required by Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 29. Therefore, Section 7-9-110 NMSA 1978 failed to become effective and was deleted by the compiler. For provisions of former section, see the 2010 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9-110.1. Deduction; gross receipts tax; locomotive engine fuel.

Receipts from the sale of fuel to a common carrier to be loaded or used in a locomotive engine may be deducted from gross receipts. For the purposes of this section, "locomotive engine" means a wheeled vehicle consisting of a self-propelled engine that is used to draw trains along railway tracks.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 60, § 1 and Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 5 made the effective date of Laws 2011, ch. 61, §§ 1, 2 and 3 July 1, 2013, provided that prior to July 1, 2012, the economic development department certifies to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county has commenced, including land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction and directed the taxation and revenue department to notify the New Mexico compilation commission and the director of the legislative council service prior to July 1, 2013 as to whether the certification from the economic development department has been received.

Pursuant to the provisions of Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 5, on March 7, 2012, the economic development department certified to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county had commenced, including land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction, and directed the taxation and revenue department to notify the New Mexico compilation commission and the director of the legislative council service prior to July 1, 2013, that the certification was received. Therefore, Laws 2011, ch. 61, §§ 1, 2 and 3 become effective July 1, 2013.

Duplicate laws. — Laws 2011, ch. 60, § 1 and Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 1 enacted identical new sections. The section was set out as enacted by Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 1. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9-110.2. Deduction; compensating tax; locomotive engine fuel.

The value of fuel to be loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine may be deducted in computing the compensating tax due. For the purposes of this section, "locomotive engine" means a wheeled vehicle consisting of a self-propelled engine that is used to draw trains along railway tracks.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 60, § 2 and Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 5 made the effective date of Laws 2011, ch. 61, §§ 1, 2 and 3 July 1, 2013, provided that prior to July 1, 2012, the economic development department certifies to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county has commenced, including land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction and directed the taxation and revenue department to notify the New Mexico compilation commission and the director of the legislative council service prior to July 1, 2013 as to whether the certification from the economic development department has been received.

Pursuant to the provisions of Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 5, on March 7, 2012, the economic development department certified to the taxation and revenue department that construction of a railroad locomotive refueling facility project in Doña Ana county had commenced, including land acquisition, acquisition of all necessary permits and commencement of actual construction, and directed the taxation and revenue department to notify the New Mexico compilation commission and the director of the legislative council service prior to July 1, 2013, that the certification was received. Therefore, Laws 2011, ch. 61, §§ 1, 2 and 3 become effective July 1, 2013.

Duplicate laws. — Laws 2011, ch. 60, § 2 and Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 2 enacted identical new sections. The section was set out as enacted by Laws 2011, ch. 61, § 2. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9-110.3. Purpose and requirements of locomotive fuel deduction.

A. The purpose of the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts and from compensating tax is to encourage the construction, renovation, maintenance and operation of railroad locomotive refueling facilities and other railroad capital investments in New Mexico.

B. To be eligible for the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from compensating tax, the fuel shall be used or loaded by a common carrier that:

(1) after July 1, 2011, made a capital investment of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or more in new construction or renovations at the railroad locomotive refueling facility in which the fuel is loaded or used; or

(2) on or after July 1, 2012, made a capital investment of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) or more in new railroad infrastructure improvements, including railroad facilities, track, signals and supporting railroad network, located in New Mexico; provided that the new railroad infrastructure improvements are not required by a regulatory agency to correct problems, such as regular or preventive maintenance, specifically identified by that agency as requiring necessary corrective action.

C. To be eligible for the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts, a common carrier shall deliver an appropriate nontaxable transaction certificate to the seller and the sale shall be made to a common carrier that:

(1) after July 1, 2011, made a capital investment of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or more in new construction or renovations at the railroad locomotive refueling facility in which the fuel is sold; or

(2) on or after July 1, 2012, made a capital investment of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) or more in new railroad infrastructure improvements, including railroad facilities, track, signals and supporting railroad network, located in New Mexico; provided that the new railroad infrastructure improvements are not required by a regulatory agency to correct problems, such as regular or preventative maintenance, specifically identified by that agency as requiring necessary corrective action.

D. The economic development department shall promulgate rules for the issuance of a certificate of eligibility for the purposes of claiming a deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts or compensating tax. A common carrier may request a certificate of eligibility from the economic development department to provide to the taxation and revenue department to establish eligibility for a nontaxable transaction certificate for the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts. The taxation and revenue department shall issue nontaxable transaction certificates to a common carrier upon the presentation of a certificate of eligibility obtained from the economic development department pursuant to this subsection.

E. The economic development department shall keep a record of temporary and permanent jobs from all railroad activity where a capital investment is made by a common carrier that claims a deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts or from compensating tax. The economic development department and the taxation and revenue department shall estimate the amount of state revenue that is attributable to all railroad activity where a capital investment is made by a common carrier that claims a deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts or from compensating tax.

F. The economic development department and the taxation and revenue department shall compile an annual report with the number of taxpayers who claim the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts and from compensating tax, the number of jobs created as a result of that deduction, the amount of that deduction approved, the net revenue to the state as a result of that deduction and any other information required by the legislature to aid in evaluating the effectiveness of that deduction. A taxpayer who claims a deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts or from compensating tax shall provide the economic development department and the taxation and revenue department with the information required to compile that report. The economic development department and the taxation and revenue department shall present that report before the legislative interim revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee by November of each year. Notwithstanding any other section of law to the contrary, the economic development department and the taxation and revenue department may disclose the number of applicants for the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts and from compensating tax, the amount of the deduction approved, the number of employees of the taxpayer and any other information required by the legislature or the taxation and revenue department to aid in evaluating the effectiveness of that deduction.

G. An appropriate legislative committee shall review the effectiveness of the deduction for each taxpayer who claims the deduction on fuel loaded or used by a common carrier in a locomotive engine from gross receipts and from compensating tax every six years beginning in 2019.

7-9-115. Deduction; gross receipts tax; goods and services for the department of defense related to directed energy and satellites.

A. Prior to January 1, 2031, receipts from the sale by a qualified contractor of qualified research and development services and qualified directed energy and satellite-related inputs may be deducted from gross receipts when sold pursuant to a contract with the United States department of defense.

B. The purposes of the deduction allowed in this section are to promote new and sophisticated technology, enhance the viability of directed energy and satellite projects, attract new projects and employers to New Mexico and increase high-technology employment opportunities in New Mexico.

C. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

D. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. Beginning in 2017 and each year thereafter that the deduction is in effect, the department and the economic development department shall present the annual report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deduction and whether the deduction is performing the purpose for which it was created.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "directed energy" means a system, including related services, that enables the use of the frequency spectrum, including radio waves, light and x-rays;

(2) "inputs" means systems, subsystems, components, prototypes and demonstrators or products and services involving optics, photonics, electronics, advanced materials, nanoelectromechanical and microelectromechanical systems, fabrication materials and test evaluation and computer control systems related to directed energy or satellites;

(3) "qualified contractor" means a person other than an organization designated as a national laboratory by act of congress or an operator of national laboratory facilities in New Mexico; provided that the operator may be a qualified contractor with respect to the operator's receipts not connected with operating the national laboratory;

(4) "qualified directed energy and satellite-related inputs" means inputs supplied to the department of defense pursuant to a contract with that department entered into on or after January 1, 2016;

(5) "qualified research and development services" means research and development services related to directed energy or satellites provided to the department of defense pursuant to a contract with that department entered into on or after January 1, 2016; and

(6) "satellite" means composite systems assembled and packaged for use in space, including launch vehicles and related products and services.

History: Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 9; 2019, ch. 186, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, extended the gross receipts tax deduction for certain receipts derived from the sale of goods and services to the United States department of defense related to qualified directed energy and satellite-related inputs; and in Subsection A, after "January 1", changed "2021" to "2031".

7-9-116. Deduction; gross receipts tax; retail sales by certain businesses.

A. Prior to July 1, 2025, receipts from the sale at retail of the following types of tangible personal property may be deducted if the sales price of the property is less than five hundred dollars ($500) and:

(1) the sale occurs during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m. on the first Saturday after Thanksgiving and ending at midnight on the same Saturday;

(2) the sale is for:

(a) an article of clothing or footwear designed to be worn on or about the human body;

(b) accessories, including jewelry, handbags, book bags, backpacks, luggage, wallets, watches and similar items worn or carried on or about the human body, without regard to whether worn on the body in a manner characteristic of clothing;

(c) sporting goods and camping equipment;

(d) tools used for home improvement, gardening and automotive maintenance and repair;

(e) books, journals, paper, writing instruments, art supplies, greeting cards and postcards;

(f) works of art, including any painting, drawing, print, photograph, sculpture, pottery or ceramics, carving, textile, basketry, artifact, natural specimen, rare book, authors' papers, objects of historical or technical interest or other article of intrinsic cultural value;

(g) floral arrangements and indoor plants;

(h) cosmetics and personal grooming items;

(i) musical instruments;

(j) cookware and small home appliances for residential use;

(k) bedding, towels and bath accessories;

(l) furniture;

(m) a toy or game that is a physical item, product or object clearly intended and designed to be used by children or families in play;

(n) a video game or video game console and any associated accessories for the video game console; or

(o) home electronics such as computers, phones, tablets, stereo equipment and related electronics accessories; and

(3) the sale is made by a seller that carries on a trade or business in New Mexico, maintains its primary place of business in New Mexico, as determined by the department, and employed no more than ten employees at any one time during the previous fiscal year.

B. Receipts for sales made by a business that operates under a franchise agreement may not be deducted pursuant to this section.

C. The purpose of the deduction provided by this section is to increase sales at small local businesses.

D. A taxpayer allowed a deduction pursuant to this section shall report the amount of the deduction separately in a manner required by the department.

E. The department shall compile an annual report on the deduction provided by this section that shall include the number of taxpayers that claimed the deduction, the aggregate amount of deductions claimed and any other information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the deduction. The department shall present the annual report to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the effectiveness and cost of the deduction and whether the deduction is performing the purpose for which it was created.

History: Laws 2018, ch. 46, § 1; 2020, ch. 29, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective May 20, 2020, in Subsection A, changed "July 1, 2020", to "July 1, 2025".

7-9-117. Deduction; gross receipts; governmental gross receipts; marketplace seller.

A. A marketplace seller may deduct receipts for sales, leases and licenses of tangible personal property, sales of licenses and sales of services or licenses for use of real property that are facilitated by a marketplace provider from gross receipts and governmental gross receipts; provided that the marketplace seller obtains documentation from the marketplace provider indicating that the marketplace provider is registered with the department and has remitted or will remit the taxes due on the gross receipts from those transactions.

B. The deduction provided by this section shall not apply if the marketplace provider is determined not to owe the tax due to the marketplace provider's reliance on information provided by the seller as determined pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-9-5 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 2019, ch.270, § 36; 2020, ch. 80, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, expanded the marketplace sellers gross receipts tax deduction to include both gross receipts tax and governmental gross receipts tax; in the section heading, added "governmental gross receipts"; and in Subsection A, after "marketplace provider", added "from gross receipts and governmental gross receipts".

7-9-118. Deduction; gross receipts; food or beverage establishments.

A. Beginning March 1, 2021 and prior to July 1, 2021, receipts of a food or beverage establishment from the sale of prepared food or non-packaged beverages that are served or picked up at the food or beverage establishment by or delivered to customers for immediate consumption may be deducted from gross receipts.

B. The deduction provided by this section shall be applied only to gross receipts remaining after all other allowable deductions available under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act have been taken and shall be separately stated by the taxpayer.

C. As used in this section:

(1) "craft distiller" means an establishment owned or managed by person issued a craft distiller's license pursuant to Section 60-6A-6.1 NMSA 1978 that is in good standing;

(2) "dispenser" means an establishment that is held out to the public as a place where alcoholic beverages are prepared and served for on-premises consumption to the general public in consideration of payment and that has the facilities and employees necessary for preparing and serving alcoholic beverages; provided that the 7-9-121. Credit; gross receipts tax; legal services for wildfire compensation recovery.

A. A taxpayer who sells legal services to and at the request of a person eligible to receive compensation pursuant to the federal Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon Fire Assistance Act may claim a tax credit against gross receipts taxes due in an amount equal to the amount of gross receipts tax due on the receipt for the sale; provided that:

- (1) the legal services are directly related to recovering the compensation;
- (2) the taxpayer did not pass the amount of gross receipts tax on to the person eligible to receive the federal compensation; and

(3) the legal services were sold to a person who states in writing in a manner that the department may require that the person is eligible to receive the federal compensation, the services were directly related to recovering the compensation and the gross receipts tax was not passed on to the person.

B. A taxpayer may claim the tax credit for the taxable period in which the legal services are provided. To receive the credit, the taxpayer shall apply to the department on forms and in a manner prescribed by the department. The maximum aggregate amount of tax credits that may be allowed in a fiscal year is five million dollars ($5,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received. Applications received after the aggregate amount has been met shall not be approved.

C. That portion of the tax credit claimed by a taxpayer that exceeds the taxpayer's gross receipts tax liability in the taxable period in which the credit is claimed shall not be refunded to the taxpayer but may be carried forward for thirty-six consecutive taxable periods.

D. As used in this section, "legal services" means services performed by a licensed attorney for a client, regardless of the attorney's form of business entity or whether the services are prepaid, including legal representation before courts or administrative agencies; drafting legal documents, such as contracts or patent applications; legal research; advising and counseling; arbitration; mediation; and notary public and other ancillary legal services performed for a client in conjunction with a licensed attorney. "Legal services" does not include lobbying or government relations services, title insurance agent services, licensing or selling legal software or legal document templates, insurance investigation services or any legal representation involving financial crimes or tax evasion in New Mexico.

7-9A-2.1. Legislative oversight.

The interim revenue stabilization and tax policy committee during the 2005 interim shall conduct a review of the use of the investment credit and the effectiveness of the credit in meeting the state's economic development and tax policy objectives. Following the study, the committee shall determine whether changes are necessary in the Investment Credit Act and report its findings and recommendations to the second session of the forty-seventh legislature.

History: Laws 2001, ch. 57, § 2 and Laws 2001, ch. 337, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Duplicate laws. — Laws 2001, ch. 57, § 2 and Laws 2001, ch. 337, § 2, both effective June 15, 2001, enacted identical sections.

7-9A-3. Definitions.

As used in the Investment Credit Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "equipment" means an essential machine, mechanism or tool, or a component or fitting thereof, used directly and exclusively in a manufacturing operation and subject to depreciation for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code by the taxpayer carrying on the manufacturing operation. "Equipment" does not include any vehicle that leaves the site of the manufacturing operation for purposes of transporting persons or property or any property for which the taxpayer claims the credit pursuant to Section 7-9-79 NMSA 1978;

C. "manufacturing" means combining or processing components or materials, including recyclable materials, to increase their value for sale in the ordinary course of business, including genetic testing and production, but not including:

- (1) construction;
- (2) farming;
- (3) power generation, except for electricity generation at a facility other than one for which both location approval and a certificate of convenience and necessity are required prior to commencing construction or operation of the facility, pursuant to the Public Utility Act [Chapter 62, Articles 1 to 6 and 8 to 13 NMSA 1978] and the Electric Utility Industry Restructuring Act of 1999 [repealed]; or
- (4) processing natural resources, including hydrocarbons;

D. "manufacturing operation" means a plant, including a genetic testing and production facility, employing personnel to perform production tasks, in conjunction with equipment not previously existing at the site, to produce goods;

E. "recyclable materials" means materials that would otherwise become solid waste if not recycled and that can be collected, separated or processed and placed in use in the form of raw materials or products; and

F. "taxpayer" means a person liable for payment of any tax, a person responsible for withholding and payment over or for collection and payment over of any tax or a person to whom an assessment has been made, if the assessment remains unabated or the amount thereof has not been paid.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 3; 1983, ch. 206, § 2; 1986, ch. 20, § 69; 1990, ch. 3, § 1; 1991, ch. 159, § 2; 1991, ch. 162, § 2; 2001, ch. 284, § 4; 2002, ch. 37, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2003, ch. 336, § 9 repealed the Electric Utility Industry Restructuring Act of 1999, effective June 20, 2003.

Cross references. — For the Internal Revenue Code, see 26 U.S.C.S. § 1 et seq.

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, substituted Subsection C(3) for former provisions, which detailed population and net taxable value requirements for electricity generation facilities in class B counties to be excepted from the exclusion in Subsection C.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, inserted "other than electricity generation facilities in any class B county with" in Paragraph C(3); and added Paragraphs C(3)(a) to (f).

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, deleted "'director' or 'division'" following "'department'" in Subsection A; in the introductory paragraph of Subsection C, inserted "including recyclable materials" and substituted "including genetic testing and production, but not including" for "but does not include"; inserted "including a genetic testing and production facility" in Subsection D; added Subsection E; and redesignated former Subsection E as Subsection F. Laws 1991, ch. 159, § 2 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 162, § 2. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

The 1990 amendment, effective January 1, 1991, in Subsection B, rewrote the first sentence which read: "'equipment' means an essential machine, or tool, used directly and exclusively in a manufacturing process, and subject to depreciation for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code" and added the language beginning "or any property" at the end of the second sentence.

7-9A-4. Administration of the act.

The department is charged with the administration of the Investment Credit Act.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 4; 1991, ch. 159, § 3; 1991, ch. 162, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, substituted "department" for "division". Laws 1991, ch. 159, § 3 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 162, § 3. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9A-5. Investment credit; amount; claimant.

A. The investment credit provided for in the Investment Credit Act may be claimed by a taxpayer carrying on a manufacturing operation in New Mexico in an amount equal to:

(1) the product of the sum of the compensating tax rate and, beginning July 1, 2021, any municipal or county compensating tax rate multiplied by the value of the qualified equipment; or

(2) if the sale is subject to the gross receipts tax, the product of the sum of the gross receipts tax rate and, beginning July 1, 2021, any municipal or county local option gross receipts tax rates multiplied by the seller's gross receipts from the sale of the qualified equipment.

B. If the purchase or the introduction into New Mexico of the qualified equipment is not subject to the gross receipts tax or compensating tax, the rate to determine the amount of the credit shall be equal to a rate of five and one-eighth percent.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 5; 1983, ch. 206, § 3; 1990, ch. 3, § 2; 1991, ch. 159, § 4; 1991, ch. 162, § 4; 2020, ch. 80, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1991, ch. 159, § 8 and Laws 1991, ch. 162, § 8, effective June 14, 1991, repealed 7-9A-5 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 3, which was to become effective on January 1, 1994.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, included a calculation for the investment credit if the sale of qualified equipment for which the credit is allowed is subject to the gross receipts tax and if the qualified equipment is not subject to the gross receipts tax or the compensating tax; in Subsection A, in the introductory clause, after "Investment Credit Act", deleted "is an" and added "may be claimed by a taxpayer carrying on a manufacturing operation in New Mexico in an", after "amount equal to", deleted "the percent of", in Paragraph A(1), after the first occurrence of "the", added "product of the sum of the", after "compensating tax rate", deleted "provided for in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act applied to" and added "and, beginning July 1, 2021, any municipal or county compensating tax rate multiplied by", and after "qualified equipment", deleted "and may be claimed by the taxpayer carrying on a manufacturing operation in New Mexico", and added Paragraph A(2); and added Subsection B.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, deleted former Subsections B and C, relating to limitations on claims for investment credit, and made a related stylistic change. Laws 1991, ch. 159, § 4 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 162, § 4. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9A-6. Qualified equipment.

Equipment not previously used in New Mexico and not previously approved for a credit under the Investment Credit Act that is owned by the taxpayer or owned by the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof or the state or a political subdivision thereof and leased or subleased to the taxpayer is qualified equipment if it is in New Mexico and is incorporated or to be incorporated within one year into a manufacturing operation.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 6; 1983, ch. 206, § 4; 1990, ch. 3, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For definition of "equipment", see 7-9A-3B NMSA 1978.

The 1990 amendment, effective January 1, 1991, rewrote this section which read: "Equipment not previously used in New Mexico which is owned and used by a taxpayer in a manufacturing process in New Mexico is qualified equipment if it is incorporated into a manufacturing operation and if the taxpayer does not claim the credit pursuant to Section 7-9-79 NMSA 1978."

7-9A-7. Value of qualified equipment.

Prior to July 1, 2030, the value of qualified equipment shall be the adjusted basis established for the equipment under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 7; 1983, ch. 206, § 5; 1990, ch. 3, § 5; 1991, ch. 159, § 5; 1991, ch. 162, § 5; 2001, ch. 57, § 3; 2001, ch. 337, § 3; 2009, ch. 147, § 2; 2020, ch. 80, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C.S. § 1 et seq.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1999, ch. 36, § 1 amended Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 10, as amended by Laws 1992, ch. 17, § 1, Laws 1992, ch. 104, § 1, and Laws 1997, ch. 62, § 3, to change the effective date of Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 6 from January 1, 2000 to January 1, 2004.

Laws 2001, ch. 57, § 7 and Laws 2001, ch. 337, § 7 repealed Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 6, which would have been effective January 1, 2004 as provided by Laws 1999, ch. 36, § 1, effective June 15, 2001.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, extended the date for valuing qualified equipment as the adjusted basis established for the equipment under the Internal Revenue Code, and removed the two million dollar limit on the value of equipment; after "July 1", deleted "2020" and added "2030"; and deleted former Subsection B.

The 2009 amendment, effective June 19, 2009, in Subsections A and B, changed "July 1, 2011" to "July 1, 2020".

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, inserted the Subsection A designation; added "Prior to July 1, 2011" to Subsection A; and added Subsection B.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, rewrote this section which read "The value of qualified equipment shall be the purchase price of the equipment unless the equipment is introduced into New Mexico and has been owned for more than one year prior to its introduction into New Mexico by the taxpayer applying for the credit, in which case the value shall be the reasonable value of the equipment at the time of its introduction into New Mexico."

The 1990 amendment, effective January 1, 1991, deleted "provided that no taxpayer shall for any taxable year claim a value of qualified equipment greater than two million dollars ($2,000,000)" at the end of the section.

7-9A-7.1. Employment requirements.

A. Prior to July 1, 2030, to be eligible to claim a credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act, the taxpayer shall employ the equivalent of one full-time employee who has not been counted to meet this employment requirement for any prior claim in addition to the number of full-time employees employed on the day one year prior to the day on which the taxpayer applies for the credit for every:

(1) seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000), or portion of that amount, in value of qualified equipment claimed by the taxpayer in a taxable year in the same claim, up to a value of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000); and

(2) one million dollars ($1,000,000), or portion of that amount, in value of qualified equipment over thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) claimed by the taxpayer in a taxable year in the same claim.

B. The department may require evidence showing compliance with this section. The department may find that an additional employee meets the requirements of this section, although employed earlier than one year prior to the day on which the taxpayer applies for the credit, if the employee was only being trained prior to that date or the employee's employment was necessitated by the use of the qualified equipment.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9A-7.1, as enacted by Laws 1983, ch. 206, § 6; 1990, ch. 3, § 7; 1991, ch. 159, § 6; 1991, ch. 162, § 6; 2001, ch. 57, § 4; 2001, ch. 337, § 4; 2003, ch. 402, § 1; 2009, ch. 147, § 3; 2020, ch. 80, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1999, ch. 36, § 1 amended Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 10, as amended by Laws 1992, ch. 17, § 1, Laws 1992, ch. 104, § 1, and Laws 1997, ch. 62, § 3, to change the effective date of Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 8 from January 1, 2000 to January 1, 2004.

Laws 2001, ch. 57, § 7 and Laws 2001, ch. 337, § 7 repealed Laws 1990, ch. 3, § 8, which would have been effective January 1, 2004 as provided by Laws 1999, ch. 36, § 1, effective June 15, 2001.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, changed the employment requirement amounts and extended the amounts until July 1, 2030; in Subsection A, in the introductory clause, after "July 1", deleted "2020" and added "2030", in Paragraph A(1), deleted "five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000)" and added "seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000)"; and deleted former Subsection B and redesignated former Subsection C as Subsection B.

Applicability. — Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 16 provided that the provisions of Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 9 apply to qualified equipment purchased or introduced to the state on and after July 1, 2020.

The 2009 amendment, effective June 19, 2009, in Subsections A and B, changed "July 1, 2011" to "July 1, 2020".

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, deleted former Paragraph A(1), concerning qualified equipment, and redesignated the subsequent paragraphs accordingly; and deleted "over two million dollars ($2,000,000)" following "of qualified equipment" near the middle of present Subsection A(1).

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, inserted "Prior to July 1, 2011" to Subsection A; added current Subsection B; and redesignated former Subsection B as C.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed analysis is impracticable.

7-9A-8. Claiming the credit for certain taxes.

A. A taxpayer shall apply for approval for a credit within one year following the end of the calendar year in which the qualified equipment for the manufacturing operation is purchased or introduced into New Mexico.

B. A taxpayer having applied for and been granted approval for a credit by the department pursuant to the Investment Credit Act may claim an amount of available credit against the taxpayer's tax liabilities; provided that the credit shall be claimed against the taxpayer's tax liabilities pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978], the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act [Chapter 7, Article 19D NMSA 1978] and the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act [Chapter 7, Article 20E NMSA 1978] before being claimed against the taxpayer's tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 3 NMSA 1978]; provided further that no taxpayer may claim, except as provided in Subsection C of this section, an amount of available credit for any reporting period that exceeds eighty-five percent of the sum of the taxpayer's tax liabilities for that reporting period. Any amount of available credit not claimed against the taxpayer's tax liabilities for a reporting period may be claimed in subsequent reporting periods.

C. A taxpayer may apply by September 30 of the current calendar year for a refund of the unclaimed balance of the available credit up to a maximum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) if on January 1 of the current calendar year:

(1) the taxpayer's available credit is less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); and

(2) the sum of the taxpayer's tax liabilities for the previous calendar year was less than thirty-five percent of the taxpayer's available credit but more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

D. As used in this section, "tax liabilities" means any tax liability a taxpayer incurs pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act, the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act, the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act or the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 8; 1983, ch. 206, § 7; 1988, ch. 123, § 1; 1990, ch. 3, § 9; 1997, ch. 62, § 1; 2000, ch. 45, § 1; 2020, ch. 80, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For withholding tax, see 7-3-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

For gross receipts tax, see 7-9-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, provided that the investment credit will be claimed against a taxpayer's state and local tax liabilities; in Subsection B, after "available credit against the taxpayer's", deleted "compensating tax, gross receipts tax or withholding tax due to the state of New Mexico" and added "tax liabilities", after "provided that", added "the credit shall be claimed against the taxpayer's tax liabilities pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act, the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act and the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act before being claimed against the taxpayer's tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act; provided further that", after "sum of the taxpayer's", deleted "gross receipts tax, compensating tax and withholding", after the next occurrence of "tax", deleted "due" and added "liabilities", after "not claimed against the taxpayer's", deleted "gross receipts tax, compensating tax or withholding", and after the next occurrence of "tax", deleted "due" and added "liabilities"; in Subsection C, Paragraph C(2), after "sum of the taxpayer's", deleted "gross receipts tax, compensating tax and withholding", and after the next occurrence of "tax", deleted "due" and added "liabilities"; and added Subsection D.

The 2000 amendment, effective May 17, 2000, inserted "except as provided in Subsection C of this section" in the first sentence of Subsection B and added Subsection C.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, redesignated the second sentence in Subsection A as the first sentence of Subsection B and rewrote the remainder of Subsection B.

The 1990 amendment, effective January 1, 1991, in the first sentence in Subsection A, substituted "following the end of the calendar year" for "after" and added "into New Mexico" at the end and rewrote Subsection B which read "A taxpayer having applied for and been granted approval for an investment credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act may claim a refund in an amount equal to the investment credit upon evidence satisfactory to the secretary of taxation and revenue that the taxpayer has paid an element of the price denominated a gross receipts tax on the qualified equipment for which a claim for refund is made."

No offset for prior years investment credits. — A taxpayer was not entitled to an offset in the amount it owed for compensating taxes for investment credits it had made in previous years, because it had not claimed the credits within the one-year statute of limitations period. Although the taxpayer argued that it was entitled to an offset under the doctrine of equitable recoupment, a taxpayer is not entitled to seek a credit after the statute-of-limitations period has expired unless the state is imposing a tax on the same taxable event on a ground that is inconsistent with the original payment by the taxpayer. Vivigen, Inc. v. Minzner, 1994-NMCA-027, 117 N.M. 224, 870 P.2d 1382.

7-9A-9. Credit claim forms.

The department shall provide credit claim forms. A credit claim shall accompany any return to which the taxpayer wishes to apply an approved credit, and the claim shall specify the amount of credit intended to apply to each return.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 347, § 9; 1991, ch. 159, § 7; 1991, ch. 162, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, substituted "department" for "division" in the first sentence and "shall" for "must" in two places in the second sentence. Laws 1991, ch. 159, § 7 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 162, § 7. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-9A-10. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1981, ch. 177, § 1, repealed 7-9A-10 NMSA 1978, relating to the inapplicability of the Investment Credit Act for equipment introduced or purchased after January 1, 1982, effective June 19, 1981.

7-9A-11. Transition provisions.

A. The provisions of this section apply on the date that changes to the provisions in the Investment Credit Act become effective limiting the amount of qualified equipment that may be claimed and increasing the employment requirements with respect to qualified equipment.

B. The amount of any available credit unclaimed on the effective date of the changes described in Subsection A of this section may be claimed, until exhausted, in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-9A-8 NMSA 1978 immediately prior to the effective date of the changes described in Subsection A of this section.

C. After the effective date described in Subsection A of this section, the department shall approve claims submitted prior to that effective date but not approved by that effective date if the claim meets the requirements of the Investment Credit Act in effect immediately prior to that effective date. The claimant may claim the amount of any available credit so approved in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-9A-8 NMSA 1978 immediately prior to the effective date of the event described in Subsection A of this section.

D. After the effective date of the changes described in Subsection A of this section, a claimant may submit and the department shall approve claims submitted on or after that effective date if the claim is with respect to qualified equipment located in the state prior to that effective date that otherwise meets the requirements of the Investment Credit Act in effect immediately prior to that effective date. The claimant may claim the amount of any available credit so approved in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-9A-8 NMSA 1978 immediately prior to the effective date of the changes described in Subsection A of this section.

E. After the effective date of the changes described in Subsection A of this section, the department may approve claims submitted on or after that effective date with respect to equipment not located in the state until after that effective date only in accordance with the provisions of the Investment Credit Act in effect after that effective date.

ARTICLE 9C

Interstate Telecommunications Gross Receipts Tax

7-9C-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 9C NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Interstate Telecommunications Gross Receipts Tax Act".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 1 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 1; 1993, ch. 30, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Chapter 7, Article 9C NMSA 1978" for "Sections 1 through 11 of this act".

7-9C-2. Definitions.

As used in the Interstate Telecommunications Gross Receipts Tax Act:

A. "charges for mobile telecommunications services" has the meaning given in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act;

B. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

C. "engaging in interstate telecommunications business" means carrying on or causing to be carried on the business of providing interstate telecommunications service;

D. "home service provider" has the meaning given in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act;

E. "interstate telecommunications gross receipts" means the total amount of money or the value of other consideration received from providing:

(1) interstate telecommunications services, other than mobile telecommunications services, that either originate or terminate in New Mexico and are charged to a telephone number or account in New Mexico, regardless of where the bill for such services is actually delivered; and

(2) mobile telecommunications services that originate in one state and terminate in any location outside that state, whether within or outside the United States, to a customer with a place of primary use in New Mexico. "Interstate telecommunications gross receipts" excludes mobile telecommunications services provided to a customer with a place of primary use outside of New Mexico, cash discounts allowed and taken and interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax payable for the reporting period. Also excluded from "interstate telecommunications gross receipts" are any gross receipts or sales taxes imposed by any Indian nation, tribe or pueblo; provided that the tax is approved, if approval is required by federal law or regulation, by the secretary of the interior of the United States; and provided further that the gross receipts or sales tax imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo provides a reciprocal exclusion for gross receipts, sales or gross receipts-based excise taxes imposed by the state or its political subdivisions;

F. "interstate telecommunications service" means the service of originating or receiving in New Mexico interstate and international telephone and telegraph service, including but not limited to the transmission of voice, messages and data by way of electronic or similar means between or among points by wire, cable, fiber-optic, laser, microwave, radio, satellite or similar facilities;

G. "mobile telecommunications services" has the meaning given in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act;

H. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, syndicate or other entity; the United States or any agency or instrumentality of the United States; or the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision of the state;

I. "place of primary use" has the meaning given in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act;

J. "private communications service" means a dedicated service for a single customer that entitles the customer to exclusive or priority use of a communications channel or group of channels between a location within New Mexico and one or more specified locations outside New Mexico; and

K. "wide-area telephone service" means a telephone service that entitles the subscriber, upon payment of a flat rate charge dependent on the total duration of all such calls and the geographic area selected by the subscriber, to either make or receive a large volume of telephonic communications to or from persons located in specified geographical areas.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 2 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 2; 1993, ch. 30, § 16; 2002, ch. 18, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act, see 4 U.S.C.S. § 116 et seq.

The 2002 amendment, effective August 1, 2002, added Subsections A, D, G, and I and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly; in Paragraph E(1) added "other than mobile telecommunication services" and at the end substituted "and" for "but excludes"; and added the first phrase of Paragraph E(2) ending with "outside of New Mexico".

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "limited liability company" in Subsection E.

7-9C-3. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination as interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax.

A. For the privilege of engaging in interstate telecommunications business, an excise tax equal to four and one-fourth percent of interstate telecommunications gross receipts is imposed upon any person engaging in interstate telecommunications business in New Mexico.

B. The tax imposed by this section shall be referred to as the "interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 3 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Duplicate laws. — Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 3 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 3 enacted identical versions of this section, effective July 1, 1992.

7-9C-4. Presumption of taxability.

A. To prevent evasion of the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax and to aid in its administration, it is presumed that all receipts of a person engaging in interstate telecommunications business are subject to the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax.

B. If receipts from nontaxable charges for mobile telecommunications services are aggregated with and not separately stated from taxable charges for mobile telecommunications services, then the charges for nontaxable mobile telecommunications services shall be subject to interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax unless the home service provider can reasonably identify nontaxable charges in its books and records that are kept in the regular course of business.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 4 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 4; 2002, ch. 18, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2002 amendment, effective August 1, 2002, added the Subsection A designation; and added Subsection B.

7-9C-5. Date payment due.

The interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax is to be paid to the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

7-9C-6. Deduction; certain telephone services.

Receipts from the provision of wide-area telephone service and private communications service in this state may be deducted from interstate telecommunications gross receipts.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 6 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 6; 1993, ch. 30, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Deduction" for "Exemption" in the section heading; and rewrote this section, which read "Exempted from the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax are receipts from the provision of wide-area telephone service and private communications service."

7-9C-7. Deduction; sale of a service for resale.

A. Receipts from providing an interstate telecommunications service in this state that will be used by other persons in providing telephone or telegraph services to the final user may be deducted from interstate telecommunications gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who is subject to the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax or to the gross receipts tax or the compensating tax.

B. Receipts during the period July 1, 1998 through June 30, 2000 from providing leased telephone lines, telecommunications services, internet access services or computer programming that will be used by other persons in providing internet access and related services to the final user may be deducted from interstate telecommunications gross receipts if the sale is made to a person who is subject to the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax, the gross receipts tax or the compensating tax.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 50, § 7 and Laws 1992, ch. 67, § 7; 1998, ch. 92, § 6.

ARTICLE 9E

Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit

7-9E-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 9E NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act".

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 1; 2007, ch. 172, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, changed the statutory reference to the act.

7-9E-2. Purpose of act.

It is the purpose of the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act to bring the technology and expertise of the national laboratories to small businesses in New Mexico to promote economic development in the state, with an emphasis on rural areas.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective on July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9E-3. Definitions.

As used in the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act:

A. "contractor":

(1) means a person that:

(a) has the capability to provide small business assistance; and

(b) may enter into a contract with a national laboratory to provide small business assistance; and

(2) includes:

(a) a gas, water or electric utility owned or operated by a county, municipality or other political subdivision of the state;

(b) a national, federal, state, Indian or other governmental unit or subdivision, or an agency, department or instrumentality of any of the foregoing; or

(c) an organization that: 1) demonstrates to the department that the organization has been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that section may be amended or renumbered; and 2) has a place of business in New Mexico;

B. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or an employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

C. "national laboratory" means a prime contractor designated as a national laboratory by act of congress that is operating a facility in New Mexico;

D. "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure by a national laboratory in providing small business assistance, limited to the following expenditures incurred in providing the assistance:

(1) employee salaries, wages, fringe benefits and employer payroll taxes;

(2) administrative costs related directly to the provision of small business assistance, the total of which is limited to forty-nine percent of employee salaries, wages, fringe benefits and employer payroll taxes;

(3) in-state travel expenses, including per diem and mileage at the internal revenue service standard rates; and

(4) supplies and services of contractors related to the provision of small business assistance;

E. "rural area" means an area of the state outside of the exterior boundaries of a class A county that has a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for any property tax year of more than seven billion dollars ($7,000,000,000);

F. "small business" means a business in New Mexico that conforms to the definition of small business found in the federal Small Business Act; and

G. "small business assistance" means assistance rendered by a national laboratory related to the transfer of technology, including software, manufacturing, mining, oil and gas, environmental, agricultural, information and solar and other alternative energy source technologies. "Small business assistance" includes nontechnical assistance related to expanding the New Mexico base of suppliers, including training and mentoring individual small businesses; assistance in developing business systems to meet audit, reporting and quality assurance requirements; and other supplier development initiatives for individual small businesses.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 3; 2007, ch. 172, § 15; 2019, ch. 64, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Small Business Act, Public Law 85-536, see 15 U.S.C.S. § 631 et seq.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the definition of "contractor" as used in the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act to include certain tax-exempt organizations having a place of business in New Mexico; and in Subsection A, added Subparagraph A(2)(c).

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, revises the definitions of "contractor", "qualified expenditures" and "rural area" to include areas outside the exterior boundaries of a class A county.

7-9E-4. Administration of act.

The department shall administer the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act pursuant to the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective on July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9E-5. Eligibility requirements.

A national laboratory is eligible for a tax credit in an amount equal to qualified expenditures if:

A. the small business assistance is rendered to a small business located in New Mexico;

B. the small business assistance is completed;

C. the small business certifies to the national laboratory that the small business assistance provided is not otherwise available to the small business at a reasonable cost through private industry;

D. the national laboratory provides written notice to each small business to which the laboratory or a contractor of the laboratory is providing small business assistance that the small business is entitled to license intangible property developed from the small business assistance or can obtain ownership of tangible or intangible property developed from the small business assistance;

E. the national laboratory requires small businesses to which it is providing small business assistance to acknowledge only after the small business assistance is completed that the small business assistance has been rendered; and

F. the national laboratory provides forms for small business requests and for completion of small business assistance that are in accordance with the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act and other applicable state and federal laws.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 5; 2007, ch. 172, § 16; 2019, ch. 64, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, required a national laboratory to provide written notice to a small business receiving assistance of the business's entitlement to license intangible property developed from the small business assistance or to obtain ownership of the tangible or intangible property developed from the small business assistance; and in Subsection D, after "small business to which", added "the laboratory or a contractor of the laboratory", after "providing small business assistance", deleted "of the option", after the next occurrence of "small business", deleted "has to obtain ownership of or" and added "is entitled to", after "license", deleted "to tangible or", and after "developed from the small business assistance", added "or can obtain ownership of tangible or intangible property developed from the small business assistance".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added Subsections D through F.

7-9E-6. Administration by the national laboratory.

To qualify for tax credits pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act, a national laboratory shall:

A. establish a small business assistance program;

B. establish a revolving fund with initial funding from a source other than tax credits. Money from the revolving fund shall be used to pay for qualified expenditures, and the fund shall be replenished with an amount equal to the tax credits taken pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act;

C. consult with the secretary of economic development to seek advice on improvements in the operation of the small business assistance program; and

D. establish a methodology to utilize contractors who have demonstrated the capability to provide small business assistance.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective on July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9E-7. Tax credits; amounts.

A tax credit provided pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act shall be in an amount equal to the qualified expenditure incurred by the national laboratory to provide small business assistance to a specific small business, not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each small business for which small business assistance is rendered in a calendar year or forty thousand dollars ($40,000) if the small business assistance was provided to a small business located in a rural area.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 7; 2007, ch. 172, § 17; 2019, ch. 64, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, increased the maximum tax credit amounts for assisting a small business from ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for assisting businesses in urban areas and from twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for assisting businesses in rural areas; and after "not to exceed", deleted "ten thousand dollars ($10,000)" and added "twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)", after "for each small business", deleted "located outside of a rural area", after "rendered in a calendar year or", deleted "twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)" and added "forty thousand dollars ($40,000)".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, increased the maximum credit from $5,000 to $10,000 for assistance to a specific small business outside a rural area and from $10,000 to $20,000 for assistance to a small business located in a rural area.

7-9E-8. Claiming the tax credit; limitation.

A. A national laboratory eligible for the tax credit pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act may claim the amount of each tax credit by crediting that amount against gross receipts taxes otherwise due pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978]. The tax credit shall be taken on each monthly gross receipts tax return filed by the laboratory against gross receipts taxes due the state and shall not impact any local government tax distribution. In no event shall the tax credits taken by an individual national laboratory exceed two million four hundred thousand dollars ($2,400,000) in a given calendar year.

B. Tax credits claimed pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act by all national laboratories in the aggregate for qualified expenditures for a specific small business not located in a rural area shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

C. Tax credits claimed pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act by all national laboratories in the aggregate for qualified expenditures for a specific small business located in a rural area shall not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000).

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 8; 2007, ch. 172, § 18; 2019, ch. 64, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, increased the maximum tax credit amounts for assisting a small business from ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for assisting businesses in urban areas and from twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for assisting businesses in rural areas; in Subsection B, after "shall not exceed", deleted "ten thousand dollars ($10,000)" and added "twenty thousand dollars" ("($20,000)"); and in Subsection C, after "shall not exceed", deleted "twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)" and added "forty thousand dollars ($40,000)".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, increased the maximum credit by an individual national laboratory from $1,800,000 to $2,400,000 in a calendar year and added Subsections B and C.

7-9E-9. Termination of the revolving fund.

Should the revolving fund established pursuant to Section 6 [7-9E-6 NMSA 1978] of the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act cease to be used for the purposes stated in that act, any amounts remaining in the revolving fund, excluding initial funding from nontax credit sources, shall be paid over to the department as additional gross receipts taxes due. Such payment of additional gross receipts taxes due shall be made in the second month following the month a determination is made that the revolving fund ceases to be used for the purposes stated in that act.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 20 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective on July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9E-10. Coordination between national laboratories.

If more than one national laboratory is eligible for a tax credit pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act, a national laboratory shall not file a tax credit claim pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act until:

A. coordination is developed between the national laboratories providing small business assistance pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act that generates a joint small business assistance operational plan and a plan to ensure that the small business assistance provided by a national laboratory suits the small business's needs and challenges; and

B. a written copy of each plan formed pursuant to this section is provided to the department.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 30 made Laws 2007, ch. 172, § 19 effective July 1, 2007.

7-9E-11. Reporting.

A. By October 15 of each year, a national laboratory that has claimed a tax credit pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act for the previous calendar year shall submit an annual report in writing to the department, the economic development department and an appropriate legislative interim committee.

B. If more than one national laboratory claims a tax credit pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act for the previous calendar year, those laboratories shall jointly submit an annual report to the department, the economic development department and an appropriate legislative interim committee no later than October 15 following the calendar year in which the small business assistance was provided.

C. An annual report shall summarize activities related to and the results of the small business assistance programs that were provided by one or more national laboratories and shall include:

(1) a summary of the program results and the number of small businesses assisted in each county;

(2) a description of the projects involving multiple small businesses;

(3) results of surveys of small businesses to which small business assistance is provided;

(4) the total amount of the tax credits claimed pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act for the year on which the report is based; and

(5) an economic impact study of jobs created, jobs retained, cost savings and increased sales generated by small businesses for which small business assistance is provided.

D. At any time after receipt of an annual report required pursuant to this section from one or more national laboratories eligible for tax credits authorized pursuant to the Laboratory Partnership with Small Business Tax Credit Act, the department or the economic development department may provide written instructions to a national laboratory identifying future improvements in the laboratory's small business assistance program for which it receives that tax credit.

Chapter 7, Article 9F NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act".

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 1; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, changed the title of the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act to the "Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act", and changed the statutory reference from "This act" to "Chapter 7, Article 9F NMSA 1978".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 10 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 22 provided that a taxpayer that becomes eligible for a research and development small business tax credit prior to January 1, 2016 but has not claimed the credit prior to January 1, 2016 may claim the credit in accordance with the provisions of the Research and Development Small Business Tax Credit Act in effect immediately prior to January 1, 2016. The taxation and revenue department shall approve claims submitted but not approved prior to January 1, 2016 if the claim meets the requirements of the Research and Development Small Business Tax Credit Act in effect immediately prior to January 1, 2016. Claiming the research and development small business tax credit pursuant to this section with respect to a reporting period renders the taxpayer ineligible to claim a credit for the same reporting period pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act.

Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 23 provided that on and after January 1, 2016, references in law to the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act shall be deemed to be references to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act.

7-9F-2. Purpose of act.

It is the purpose of the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act to provide a favorable tax climate for technology-based businesses engaging in research, development and experimentation and to promote increased employment and higher wages in those fields in New Mexico.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 2; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, added "and Research and Development" after "Technology Jobs".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 11 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

7-9F-3. Definitions.

As used in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act:

A. "affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly owns or controls, is owned or controlled by or is under common ownership or control with another person through ownership of voting securities or other ownership interests representing a majority of the total voting power of the entity;

B. "annual payroll expense" means the wages paid or payable to employees in the state by the taxpayer in the taxable year for which the taxpayer applies for an additional credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act;

C. "base payroll expense" means the wages paid or payable by the taxpayer in the taxable year prior to the taxable year for which the taxpayer applies for an additional credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act, adjusted for any increase from the preceding taxable year in the consumer price index for the United States for all items as published by the United States department of labor in the taxable year for which the additional credit is claimed. In a taxable year during which a taxpayer has been part of a business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization, the taxpayer's base payroll expense shall include the payroll expense of all entities included in the reorganization for all positions that are included in the business entity resulting from the reorganization;

D. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

E. "facility" means a factory, mill, plant, refinery, warehouse, dairy, feedlot, building or complex of buildings located within the state, including the land on which it is located and all machinery, equipment and other real and tangible personal property located at or within it and used in connection with its operation;

F. "local option gross receipts tax" means a tax authorized to be imposed by a county or municipality upon a taxpayer's gross receipts, as that term is defined in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978], and required to be collected by the department at the same time and in the same manner as the gross receipts tax;

G. "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure or an allocated portion of an expenditure by a taxpayer in connection with qualified research at a qualified facility, including expenditures for depletable land and rent paid or incurred for land, improvements, the allowable amount paid or incurred to operate or maintain a facility, buildings, equipment, computer software, computer software upgrades, consultants and contractors performing work in New Mexico, payroll, technical books and manuals and test materials, but not including any expenditure on property that is owned by a municipality or county in connection with an industrial revenue bond project, property for which the taxpayer has received any credit pursuant to the Investment Credit Act, property that was owned by the taxpayer or an affiliate before July 3, 2000 or research and development expenditures reimbursed by a person who is not an affiliate of the taxpayer. If a "qualified expenditure" is an allocation of an expenditure, the cost accounting methodology used for the allocation of the expenditure shall be the same cost accounting methodology used by the taxpayer in its other business activities;

H. "qualified facility" means a facility in New Mexico at which qualified research is conducted other than a facility operated by a taxpayer for the United States or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof;

I. "qualified research" means research:

(1) that is undertaken for the purpose of discovering information:

(a) that is technological in nature; and

(b) the application of which is intended to be useful in the development of a new or improved business component of the taxpayer; and

(2) substantially all of the activities of which constitute elements of a process of experimentation related to a new or improved function, performance, reliability or quality, but not related to style, taste or cosmetic or seasonal design factors;

J. "qualified research and development small business" means a taxpayer that:

(1) employed no more than fifty employees as determined by the number of employees for which the taxpayer was liable for unemployment insurance coverage in the taxable year for which an additional credit is claimed;

(2) had total qualified expenditures of no more than five million dollars ($5,000,000) in the taxable year for which an additional credit is claimed; and

(3) did not have more than fifty percent of its voting securities or other equity interest with the right to designate or elect the board of directors or other governing body of the business owned directly or indirectly by another business;

K. "rural area" means any area of the state other than the state fairgrounds, an incorporated municipality with a population of thirty thousand or more according to the most recent federal decennial census and any area within three miles of the external boundaries of an incorporated municipality with a population of thirty thousand or more according to the most recent federal decennial census;

L. "taxpayer" means any of the following persons, other than a federal, state or other governmental unit or subdivision or an agency, department, institution or instrumentality thereof:

(1) a person liable for payment of any tax;

(2) a person responsible for withholding and payment or collection and payment of any tax;

(3) a person to whom an assessment has been made if the assessment remains unabated or the assessed amount has not been paid; or

(4) for purposes of the additional credit against the taxpayer's income tax pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act and to the extent of their respective interest in that entity, the shareholders, members, partners or other owners of:

(a) a small business corporation that has elected to be treated as an S corporation for federal income tax purposes; or

(b) an entity treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes; and

M. "wages" means remuneration for services performed by an employee in New Mexico for an employer.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 3; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 12; 2019, ch. 270, § 38; 2019, ch. 274, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 38 and Laws 2019, ch. 274, § 12, both effective July 1, 2019, enacted almost identical amendments to this section, except that Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 38, in Subsection F, changed "the taxpayer's" to "a taxpayer's". Laws 2019, ch. 274, § 12 as the last act signed by the governor is set out above and incorporates both amendments. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2019 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the definition of "local option gross receipts tax" as used in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act; and in Subsection F, deleted "'local option gross receipts tax' includes the taxes imposed pursuant to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act, County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, Local Hospital Gross Receipts Tax Act, County Correctional Facility Gross Receipts Tax Act and such other acts as maybe enacted authorizing counties or municipalities to impose taxes on gross receipts, which taxes are to be collected by the department in the same time and in the same manner as it collects the gross receipts tax".

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, amended and added certain definitions in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act; in the introductory sentence, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development"; in Subsection B, after "paid or payable", added "to employees in the state", after "taxpayer", deleted "for the one year period ending on the day" and added "in the taxable year for which", after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development"; in Subsection C, after "payable by the taxpayer", deleted "for the one year period ending on the day one year prior to the day" and added "in the taxable year prior to the taxable year for which", after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development", after "any increase", added "from the preceding taxable year", and after "department of labor", deleted "since that day" and added the remainder of the subsection; in Subsection E, after "land on which", deleted "the facility" and added "it", after "located at or within", deleted "the facility" and added "it", after "connection with", deleted "the" and added "its", and after "operation", deleted "of the facility"; added a new Subsection F and redesignated former Subsections F, G and H as Subsections G, H and I, respectively; in Subsection G, after "credit pursuant to the", deleted "Capital Equipment Tax Credit Act or the", after "an affiliate before", deleted "the effective date of the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act" and added "July 3, 2000", and after "If", deleted "an" and added "a qualified"; added a new Subsection J and redesignated former Subsections I, J and K as Subsections K, L and M, respectively; in Subsection K, after "any area of the state other than", deleted "a class A county, a class B county that has a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for any property tax year of more than three billion dollars ($3,000,000,000), the municipality of Rio Rancho and the area within three miles of the exterior boundaries of a class A county" and added the remainder of the subsection; in Paragraph (4) of Subsection L, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development"; and in Subsection M, after "remuneration", deleted "in cash or other form", and after "an employee", added "in New Mexico".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 12 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

Time to apply for tax credit. — Because the provisions of this section, Sections 7-9F-6 and 7-9F-12 NMSA 1978 indicate a legislative concentration on annual reporting and annual payroll expense, these sections indicate no intention to provide a taxpayer an open-ended time to apply for a tax credit. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

"Cost accounting methodology" construed. — A "cost accounting method" as used in the definition of "qualified expenditure" NMSA 1978, § 7-9F-3(G), is a method for capturing a company's total cost of production by assessing the variable costs at each step in production. Process Equip. & Serv. Co. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue, 2023-NMCA-060.

7-9F-4. Administration of act.

The department shall administer the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act pursuant to the Tax Administration Act.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 4; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, added "and Research and Development" after "Technology Jobs".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 13 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

7-9F-5. Basic credit; additional credit; amounts; claimant.

A. The basic credit provided for in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act is an amount equal to five percent of the amount of qualified expenditures made by a taxpayer conducting qualified research at a qualified facility.

B. The additional credit provided for in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act is an amount equal to five percent of the amount of qualified expenditures made by a taxpayer conducting qualified research at a qualified facility.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 5; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, amended language to reflect the new title of the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act and increased the basic and additional tax credits provided for in the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act from four percent to five percent of the amount of qualified expenditures; in Subsection A, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development", and after "an amount equal to", deleted "four" and added "five"; in Subsection B, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development", and after "an amount equal to", deleted "four" and added "five".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 14 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

7-9F-6. Eligibility requirements.

A. A taxpayer conducting qualified research at a qualified facility and making qualified expenditures is eligible to claim the basic credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act.

B. A taxpayer conducting qualified research at a qualified facility and making qualified expenditures is eligible to claim the additional credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act if:

(1) the taxpayer increases the taxpayer's annual payroll expense at the qualified facility by at least seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) over the base payroll expense of the taxpayer;

(2) the increase in Paragraph (1) of this subsection has not previously been used to meet the requirements of this subsection; and

(3) there is at least a seventy-five-thousand-dollar ($75,000) increase in the taxpayer's annual payroll expense for every one million dollars ($1,000,000) in qualified expenditures claimed by the taxpayer in a taxable year in the same claim.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 6; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, amended language to reflect the new title of the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act; in Subsection A, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development"; and in the introductory sentence of Subsection B, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 15 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 22 provided that a taxpayer that becomes eligible for a research and development small business tax credit prior to January 1, 2016 but has not claimed the credit prior to January 1, 2016 may claim the credit in accordance with the provisions of the Research and Development Small Business Tax Credit Act in effect immediately prior to January 1, 2016. The taxation and revenue department shall approve claims submitted but not approved prior to January 1, 2016 if the claim meets the requirements of the Research and Development Small Business Tax Credit Act in effect immediately prior to January 1, 2016. Claiming the research and development small business tax credit pursuant to this section with respect to a reporting period renders the taxpayer ineligible to claim a credit for the same reporting period pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act.

Time to apply for tax credit. — Because the provisions of this section, Sections 7-9F-3 and 7-9F-12 NMSA 1978 indicate a legislative concentration on annual reporting and annual payroll expense, these sections indicate no intention to provide a taxpayer an open-ended time to apply for a tax credit. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

"Cost accounting methodology" construed. — A "cost accounting method" as used in the definition of "qualified expenditure" NMSA 1978, § 7-9F-3(G), is a method for capturing a company's total cost of production by assessing the variable costs at each step in production. Process Equip. & Serv. Co. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue, 2023-NMCA-060.

Taxpayer met the requirements for a tax credit based on qualified expenditures. — Where taxpayer, a designer and manufacturer of products used in the oil and gas industry, protested the taxation and revenue department's (department) denial of taxpayer's request for a state tax credit for the 2014 and 2016 tax years under the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act (act), NMSA 1978, §§ 7-9F-1 through 7-9F-13, and where, following an independent administrative hearing, the hearing officer concluded that taxpayer met the requirements for a tax credit under the act for both years, and where, on appeal, the department claimed that taxpayer did not satisfy the statutory requirements for entitlement to the credit because taxpayer failed to use a cost accounting methodology to allocate wages, and failed to use the same cost accounting methodology in its other business activities, the hearing officer did not err in concluding that taxpayer used a cost accounting method, based on witness testimony that the method taxpayer used was designed to record and analyze taxpayer's labor costs incident to the research and development projects it was engaged in, and to that extent, it constituted a cost accounting method, and there was substantial evidence to support the hearing officer's finding that taxpayer used the same cost accounting method in its other business activities based on witness testimony that taxpayer used the same method when deciding whether a project will proceed or not. Process Equip. & Serv. Co. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue, 2023-NMCA-060.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 24, repealed 7-9F-7 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 7, relating to qualified expenditures, effective January 1, 2016. For provisions of former section, see the 2014 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-9F-8. Rural areas.

The amount of the basic and additional credit for which a taxpayer is otherwise eligible shall be doubled if the qualified expenditures were incurred with respect to a qualified facility in a rural area.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9F-9. Claiming the basic credit.

A. A taxpayer may apply for approval of a credit within one year following the end of the reporting period in which the qualified expenditure was made.

B. A taxpayer having applied for and been granted approval for a basic credit by the department pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act may claim the amount of the approved basic credit against the taxpayer's compensating tax, withholding tax or gross receipts tax, excluding local option gross receipts tax, due to the state of New Mexico; provided that no taxpayer may claim an amount of approved basic credit for a reporting period in which the basic credit is being claimed that exceeds the sum of the taxpayer's compensating tax, withholding tax and gross receipts tax, excluding local option gross receipts tax, due for that reporting period.

C. Any amount of approved basic credit not claimed against the taxpayer's compensating tax, withholding tax or gross receipts tax, excluding local option gross receipts tax, due may be claimed in subsequent reporting periods for a period of up to three years from the date of the original claim.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 9; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, amended the provisions for claiming the basic credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act; in the catchline, added "basic", and after "credit", deleted "for certain taxes"; in Subsection A, after "the end of the", deleted "calendar year" and added "reporting period"; in Subsection B, after "Technology Jobs", added "and Research and Development", after "compensating tax," added "withholding tax", after the first occurrence of "gross receipts tax," deleted "or withholding tax" and added "excluding local option gross receipts tax", after "approved basic credit for", deleted "any" and added "a"; after "reporting period", added "in which the basic credit is being claimed", after "sum of the taxpayer's", added "compensating tax, withholding tax and", after the second occurrence of "gross receipts tax," deleted "compensating tax and withholding tax" and added "excluding local option gross receipts tax"; deleted Subsection C, relating to claiming the tax credit against the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax due to the state of New Mexico, and redesignated former Subsection D as Subsection C; and in Subsection C, after "against the taxpayer's", added "compensating tax, withholding tax or", after the first occurrence of "gross receipts tax", deleted "compensating tax or withholding tax" and added "excluding local option gross receipts tax", after "due", deleted "and any amount of approved additional credit not claimed against the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax due for a reporting period", and after "subsequent reporting periods", deleted "provided that a husband and wife who file separate returns for a taxable year in which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the additional credit that would have been allowed them on a joint return" and added "for a period of up to three years from the date of the original claim".

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 16 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

Specific period for application. — The Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act [Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act] does not allow a taxpayer to apply for a tax credit during any other period than specified in this section. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

Legislature intended a one-year limitation period in enacting Subsection A of this section. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

Mandatory period to apply for credit. — The one-year prescribed period contained in Subsection A of this section to apply for a tax credit is mandatory. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

No authority to grant extension. — The Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act [Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act] contains no provision granting the department the authority to grant an extension of the one-year period. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

The use of "may" in Subsection A of this section does not require the conclusion that the department must, or has the discretion to, permit filing beyond the one-year mentioned in this section. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

Taxpayer was not denied substantive due process because the hearing officer found that the failure of taxpayer to file the application on time under this section was because of the negligence of their former employees and not because of their malfeasance and criminal conduct. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

7-9F-9.1. Claiming the additional credit.

A. A taxpayer may apply for approval of an additional credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act within one year following the end of the taxable year in which the qualified expenditure was made.

B. A taxpayer that has applied for and been granted approval for an additional credit by the department pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act may claim the amount of the approved additional credit against the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax liability. Except as provided in Subsection C of this section, no taxpayer may claim an amount of approved additional credit for a taxable year in which the additional credit is being claimed that exceeds the amount of the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax due for that taxable year.

C. If a taxpayer is a qualified research and development small business and the amount of approved additional credit for the taxable year in which the additional credit is being claimed exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability or corporate income tax liability, the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer pursuant to Paragraphs (1) through (3) of this subsection. If the taxpayer's total qualified expenditures for the taxable year for which the claim is made is:

(1) less than three million dollars ($3,000,000), the excess additional credit shall be refunded to the taxpayer;

(2) greater than or equal to three million dollars ($3,000,000) and less than four million dollars ($4,000,000), two-thirds of the excess additional credit shall be refunded to the taxpayer; and

(3) greater than or equal to four million dollars ($4,000,000) and less than or equal to five million dollars ($5,000,000), one-third of the excess additional credit shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

D. Any amount of approved additional credit not claimed against the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax due for a taxable year or refunded to the taxpayer may be claimed in subsequent reporting periods for a period of up to three years from the date of the original claim.

E. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the additional credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-9F-9.1, enacted by Laws 2015 (1st S.S.) ch. 2, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2 § 26 makes Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 17 effective January 1, 2016.

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 17 apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015 and apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

7-9F-10. Credit claim forms.

The department shall provide credit claim forms. A credit claim shall accompany any return in which the taxpayer wishes to apply for an approved basic or additional credit, and the claim shall specify the amount and type of credit intended to apply to each return.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9F-11. Recapture.

If the taxpayer or a successor in business of the taxpayer ceases operations in New Mexico for at least one hundred eighty consecutive days within a two-year period after the taxpayer has claimed a basic credit or an additional credit at a facility with respect to which the taxpayer has claimed the basic credit or the additional credit, the department shall grant no further basic credit or additional credit to the taxpayer with respect to that facility. In addition, any amount of approved basic credit not claimed against the taxpayer's gross receipts tax, compensating tax or withholding tax and any amount of approved additional credit not claimed against the taxpayer's income tax or corporate income tax shall be extinguished, and within thirty days after the one hundred eightieth day of the cessation of operations, the taxpayer shall pay the amount of any gross receipts tax, compensating tax or withholding tax for which an approved basic credit was taken and any income tax or corporate income tax against which an approved additional credit was taken. For purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall not be deemed to have ceased operations during reasonable periods for maintenance or retooling or for the repair or replacement of facilities damaged or destroyed or during the continuance of labor disputes.

History: Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9F-12. Department report.

In October 2003 and each year thereafter, the department shall report to the legislative finance committee and the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee on the fiscal and economic impacts of the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act [Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act] using the most recently available data for the two prior fiscal years. The report shall include the number of taxpayers who have received basic credits or additional credits under the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act [Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act], the amounts of the basic credits and additional credits, the geographic locations of the qualified facilities and the payroll increases of taxpayers related to additional credits, subject to the confidentiality provisions of Section 7-1-8 NMSA 1978.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 10 changed the name of the Technology Jobs Tax Credit Act to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act, effective January 1, 2016.

Effective dates. — Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 22 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective July 3, 2000, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Time to apply for tax credit. — Because the provisions in this section, Sections 7-9F-3 and 7-9F-6 NMSA 1978, indicate a legislative concentration on annual reporting and annual payroll expense, these sections indicate no intention to provide a taxpayer an open-ended time to apply for a tax credit. Team Specialty Prods., Inc v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-020, 137 N.M. 50, 107 P.3d 4.

7-9F-13. Taxpayer reporting requirement.

A taxpayer claiming a credit pursuant to the Technology Jobs and Research and Development Tax Credit Act shall file reports with the department. The reports shall be submitted on or before June 30 of the year following a calendar year in which the taxpayer claims a basic or additional credit and by June 30 of each of the two succeeding years. The reports shall contain information describing the taxpayer's business operations in New Mexico that is sufficient for the department to enforce the recapture provision pursuant to Section 7-9F-11 NMSA 1978. If a taxpayer fails to submit a required report, the amount of any basic or additional credit claimed for that year shall be subject to the recapture provision.

History: Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2 § 26 makes Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 18 effective January 1, 2016.

Applicability. — Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 25 provided that Laws 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 18 apply to taxpayers that make a qualified expenditure beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

ARTICLE 9G Other Tax Credits

7-9G-1. High-wage jobs tax credit; qualifying high-wage jobs.

A. A taxpayer that is an eligible employer may apply for, and the department may allow, a tax credit for each new high-wage job. The credit provided in this section may be referred to as the "high-wage jobs tax credit".

B. The purpose of the high-wage jobs tax credit is to provide an incentive for urban and rural businesses to create and fill new high-wage jobs in New Mexico.

C. The high-wage jobs tax credit may be claimed and allowed in an amount equal to eight and one-half percent of the wages distributed to an eligible employee in a new high-wage job but shall not exceed twelve thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($12,750) per job per qualifying period. The high-wage jobs tax credit may be claimed by an eligible employer for each new high-wage job performed for the year in which the new high-wage job is created and for consecutive qualifying periods.

D. To receive a high-wage jobs tax credit, a taxpayer shall file an application for approval of the credit with the department once per calendar year on forms and in the manner prescribed by the department. The annual application shall contain the certification required by Subsection K of this section and shall contain all qualifying periods that closed during the calendar year for which the application is made. Any qualifying period that did not close in the calendar year for which the application is made shall be denied by the department. The application for a calendar year shall be filed no later than December 31 of the following calendar year. If a taxpayer fails to file the annual application within the time limits provided in this section, the application shall be denied by the department. The department shall make a determination on the application within one hundred eighty days of the date on which the application was filed.

E. A new high-wage job shall not be eligible for a credit pursuant to this section for the initial qualifying period unless the eligible employer's total number of employees with threshold jobs on the last day of the initial qualifying period at the location at which the job is performed or based is at least one more than the number of threshold jobs on the day prior to the date the new high-wage job was created. A new high-wage job shall not be eligible for a credit pursuant to this section for a consecutive qualifying period unless the total number of threshold jobs at a location at which the job is performed or based on the last day of that qualifying period is greater than or equal to the number of threshold jobs at that same location on the last day of the initial qualifying period for the new high-wage job.

F. If a consecutive qualifying period for a new high-wage job does not meet the wage, occupancy and residency requirements, then the qualifying period is ineligible.

G. Except as provided in Subsection H of this section, a new high-wage job shall not be eligible for a credit pursuant to this section if:

(1) the new high-wage job is created due to a business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization;

(2) the eligible employee was terminated from employment in New Mexico by another employer involved in the business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization with the taxpayer; and

(3) the new high-wage job is performed by:

(a) the person who performed the job or its functional equivalent prior to the business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization; or

(b) a person replacing the person who performed the job or its functional equivalent prior to a business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization.

H. A new high-wage job that was created by another employer and for which an application for the high-wage jobs tax credit was received and is under review by the department prior to the time of the business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization shall remain eligible for the high-wage jobs tax credit for the balance of the consecutive qualifying periods. The new employer that results from a business merger or acquisition or other change in business organization may only claim the high-wage jobs tax credit for the balance of the consecutive qualifying periods for which the new high-wage job is otherwise eligible.

I. A new high-wage job shall not be eligible for a credit pursuant to this section if the job is created due to an eligible employer entering into a contract or becoming a subcontractor to a contract with a governmental entity that replaces one or more entities performing functionally equivalent services for the governmental entity unless the job is a new high-wage job that was not being performed by an employee of the replaced entity.

J. A new high-wage job shall not be eligible for a credit pursuant to this section if the eligible employer has more than one business location in New Mexico from which it conducts business and the requirements of Subsection E of this section are satisfied solely by moving the job from one business location of the eligible employer in New Mexico to another business location of the eligible employer in New Mexico.

K. With respect to each annual application for a high-wage jobs tax credit, the employer shall certify and include:

(1) the amount of wages paid to each eligible employee in a new high-wage job during the qualifying period;

(2) the number of weeks each position was occupied during the qualifying period;

(3) whether the new high-wage job was in a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more or with a population of less than sixty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census and whether the job was in the unincorporated area of a county;

(4) which qualifying period the application pertains to for each eligible employee;

(5) the total number of employees employed by the employer at the job location on the day prior to the qualifying period and on the last day of the qualifying period;

(6) the total number of threshold jobs performed or based at the eligible employer's location on the day prior to the qualifying period and on the last day of the qualifying period;

(7) for an eligible employer that has more than one business location in New Mexico from which it conducts business, the total number of threshold jobs performed or based at each business location of the eligible employer in New Mexico on the day prior to the qualifying period and on the last day of the qualifying period;

(8) whether the eligible employer is receiving or is eligible to receive development training program assistance pursuant to Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978;

(9) whether the eligible employer has ceased business operations at any of its business locations in New Mexico; and

(10) whether the application is precluded by Subsection O of this section.

L. Any person who willfully submits a false, incorrect or fraudulent certification required pursuant to Subsection K of this section shall be subject to all applicable penalties under the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978], except that the amount on which the penalty is based shall be the total amount of credit requested on the application for approval.

M. Except as provided in Subsection N of this section, an approved high-wage jobs tax credit shall be claimed against the taxpayer's modified combined tax liability and shall be filed with the return due immediately following the date of the credit approval. If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's modified combined tax liability, the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

N. If the taxpayer ceases business operations in New Mexico while an application for credit approval is pending or after an application for credit has been approved for any qualifying period for a new high-wage job, the department shall not grant an additional high-wage jobs tax credit to that taxpayer except as provided in Subsection O of this section and shall extinguish any amount of credit approved for that taxpayer that has not already been claimed against the taxpayer's modified combined tax liability.

O. A taxpayer that has received a high-wage jobs tax credit shall not submit a new application for the credit for a minimum of two calendar years from the closing date of the last qualifying period for which the taxpayer received the credit if the taxpayer lost eligibility to claim the credit from a previous application pursuant to Subsection N of this section.

P. The economic development department and the taxation and revenue department shall report to the appropriate interim legislative committee each year the cost of the high-wage jobs tax credit to the state and its impact on company recruitment and job creation.

Q. As used in this section:

(1) "benefits" means all remuneration for work performed that is provided to an employee in whole or in part by the employer, other than wages, including the employer's contributions to insurance programs, health care, medical, dental and vision plans, life insurance, employer contributions to pensions, such as a 401(k), and employer-provided services, such as child care, offered by an employer to the employee;

(2) "consecutive qualifying period" means each of the three qualifying periods successively following the qualifying period in which the new high-wage job was created;

(3) "department" means the taxation and revenue department;

(4) "dependent" means "dependent" as defined in 26 U.S.C. 152(a), as that section may be amended or renumbered;

(5) "domicile" means the sole place where an individual has a true, fixed, permanent home. It is the place where the individual has a voluntary, fixed habitation of self and family with the intention of making a permanent home;

(6) "eligible employee" means an individual who is employed in New Mexico by an eligible employer and who is a resident of New Mexico; "eligible employee" does not include an individual who:

(a) is a dependent of the employer;

(b) if the employer is an estate or trust, is a grantor, beneficiary or fiduciary of the estate or trust or is a dependent of a grantor, beneficiary or fiduciary of the estate or trust;

(c) if the employer is a corporation, is a dependent of an individual who owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation; or

(d) if the employer is an entity other than a corporation, estate or trust, is a dependent of an individual who owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent of the capital and profits interests in the entity;

(7) "eligible employer" means an employer that, during the applicable qualifying period, would be eligible for development training program assistance under the fiscal year 2019 policies defining development training program eligibility developed by the industrial training board in accordance with Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978;

(8) "modified combined tax liability" means the total liability for the reporting period for the gross receipts tax imposed by Section 7-9-4 NMSA 1978 together with any tax collected at the same time and in the same manner as the gross receipts tax, such as the compensating tax, the withholding tax, the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax, the surcharges imposed by Section 63-9D-5 NMSA 1978 and the surcharge imposed by Section 63-9F-11 NMSA 1978, minus the amount of any credit other than the high-wage jobs tax credit applied against any or all of these taxes or surcharges; but "modified combined tax liability" excludes all amounts collected with respect to local option gross receipts taxes;

(9) "new high-wage job" means a new job created in New Mexico by an eligible employer on or after July 1, 2004 and prior to July 1, 2026 that is occupied for at least forty-four weeks of a qualifying period by an eligible employee who is paid wages calculated for the qualifying period to be at least:

(a) for a new high-wage job created prior to July 1, 2015: 1) forty thousand dollars ($40,000) if the job is performed or based in or within ten miles of the external boundaries of a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or in a class H county; and 2) twenty-eight thousand dollars ($28,000) if the job is performed or based in a municipality with a population of less than sixty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census or in the unincorporated area, that is not within ten miles of the external boundaries of a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more, of a county other than a class H county; and

(b) for a new high-wage job created on or after July 1, 2015: 1) sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) if the job is performed or based in or within ten miles of the external boundaries of a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or in a class H county; and 2) forty thousand dollars ($40,000) if the job is performed or based in a municipality with a population of less than sixty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census or in the unincorporated area, that is not within ten miles of the external boundaries of a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more, of a county other than a class H county;

(10) "new job" means a job that is occupied by an employee who has not been employed in New Mexico by the eligible employer in the three years prior to the date of hire;

(11) "qualifying period" means the period of twelve months beginning on the day an eligible employee begins working in a new high-wage job or the period of twelve months beginning on the anniversary of the day an eligible employee began working in a new high-wage job;

(12) "resident" means a natural person whose domicile is in New Mexico at the time of hire or within one hundred eighty days of the date of hire;

(13) "threshold job" means a job that is occupied for at least forty-four weeks of a calendar year by an eligible employee and that meets the wage requirements for a "new high-wage job"; and

(14) "wages" means all compensation paid by an eligible employer to an eligible employee through the employer's payroll system, including those wages that the employee elects to defer or redirect or the employee's contribution to a 401(k) or cafeteria plan program, but "wages" does not include benefits or the employer's share of payroll taxes, social security or medicare contributions, federal or state unemployment insurance contributions or workers' compensation.

Applicability. — Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 3, § 8 provided that Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 3, § 6 applies to applications for a high-wage jobs tax credit for a new high-wage economic-based job filed with the taxation and revenue department on or after January 1, 2017.

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, clarified the application of the high-wage jobs tax credit; defined "benefits" and "wages"; added Subsection B; in Subsection C, after "twelve thousand dollars ($12,000)", added "per job per qualifying period"; in Subsection D, in the first sentence, after "for the three", deleted "following" and added "consecutive" and added the second sentence; in Subsection E, after "prior to the date the", added "new high-wage economic-based"; added Subsections F through H; in Paragraph (3) of Subsection I, after "a population of", deleted "forty" and added "sixty" and after "of less than", deleted "forty" and added "sixty"; in Subsection M, deleted former Paragraph (1), which defined "benefits" to mean an employee benefit plan defined in the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act; added Paragraph (1) of Subsection M; in Paragraph (2) of Subsection M, after "who is employed", added "in New Mexico"; in Subparagraph (a) of Paragraph (3) of Subsection M, after "fifty percent of its sale", added "of goods or services produced in New Mexico" and after "outside New Mexico during the", deleted "most recent twelve months of the employer's modified combined tax liability reporting periods ending prior to claiming a high-wage jobs tax credit" and added "applicable qualifying period"; in Subparagraph (b) of Paragraph (3) of Subsection M, after "is", added "certified by the economic development department to be"; in Paragraph (5) of Subsection M, after "means a", added "new", after "job created", added "in New Mexico", and after "July 1", deleted "2015" and added

"2020"; in Subparagraph (a) of Paragraph (5) of Subsection M, at the beginning of the sentence, added "for a new high-wage economic-based job created prior to July 1, 2015; 1)", after "performed or based in", added "or within ten miles of the external boundaries of", after "population of", deleted "forty" and added "sixty", after "decennial census", added "or in a class H county", after "population of not less than", deleted "forty" and added "sixty", after "unincorporated area", added "that is not within ten miles of the external boundaries of a municipality with a population of sixty thousand or more", and after "of a county", added "other than a class H county" and added Subparagraph (b) of Paragraph (5) of Subsection M, and in Paragraph (7) of Subsection M, after "means", deleted "wages as defined in Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of U.S.C. Section 51(c)" and added the remainder of the sentence.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 160, § 14 provided that Laws 2013, ch. 160, § 10 applies to credit claims received on or after June 14, 2013 and to reporting periods beginning on or after that date.

The 2008 amendment, effective May 14, 2008, added Subsection H and in Paragraph (5) of Subsection I, extended the deadline to create new high-wage economic-based jobs to July 1, 2015.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added "High-wage jobs" to the heading of this section.

"New job" defined. — The term "new high-wage economic-based job" is defined under the high-wage jobs tax credit as "a new job created in New Mexico by an eligible employer that is occupied for at least forty-eight weeks of a qualifying period by an eligible employee." A "new job," for purposes of § 7-9G-1(M)(5) NMSA 1978, is brought into being by the creation of a new position that did not previously exist. Par Five Servs., LLC v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't and Mosaic Potash Carlsbad Inc. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMCA-025.

Methodologies for determining whether taxpayers have created a "new job" are within the taxation and revenue department's authority. — The taxation and revenue department (department) has the authority to devise means and methods to evaluate whether a taxpayer is entitled to a credit because such powers arise from the statutory language by fair and necessary implication, and therefore it is within the department's authority to employ two different methodologies known as the "replacement analysis" and the "career path promotion analysis" to determine whether taxpayers have created a "new job" for purposes of the high-wage jobs tax credit. Par Five Servs., LLC v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't and Mosaic Potash Carlsbad Inc. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMCA-025.

The department's use of the "replacement analysis" for determining whether taxpayers have created a new job is not unreasonable. — In consolidated appeals, where administrative hearing officers upheld the taxation and revenue department's (department) denial of high-wage jobs tax credits for employees on the basis that the hiring of these employees did not create "new jobs," because the hired employees merely filled vacancies left by employees who had previously held the same job positions, the department's methodology, known as the "replacement analysis," to determine whether taxpayers have created a "new job" for purposes of the high-wage jobs tax credit or whether a taxpayer merely filled a vacant preexisting position is reasonable, because the replacement analysis is consistent with the legislative purpose of the high-wage jobs tax credit in that it guards against potential abuse while simultaneously serving as an aid to determine whether a job position is truly "new". Par Five Servs., LLC v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't and Mosaic Potash Carlsbad Inc. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMCA-025.

The department's use of the "career path promotion analysis" for determining whether taxpayers have created a "new job" is not unreasonable. — Where the taxation and revenue department (department) appealed an administrative hearing officer's reversal of the department's denial of the high-wage jobs tax credit under the "career path promotion" analysis, which the department utilizes when an existing employee is promoted to a different position, in order to determine whether a "new job" has been created, the hearing officer erred in overturning the department's denial, because the department's use of the "career path promotion analysis" is reasonable; the "career path promotion analysis" aims to ascertain whether a claimed "new job" is actually a new position and to prevent employers from abusing the statutory scheme to generate tax credit awards not contemplated by the legislature. Par Five Servs., LLC v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't and Mosaic Potash Carlsbad Inc. v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMCA-025.

Disputing the denial of an application for a high-wage jobs tax credit. — Where taxpayer submitted an application for a high-wage jobs tax credit, which was denied by the Department of Taxation and Revenue (Department), and where taxpayer did not file a written protest to the department's denial of its credit application, pursuant to 7-1-24 NMSA 1978, but rather filed an application for refund pursuant to 7-1-26 NMSA 1978, based on its original credit application, which was also denied by the department, and where taxpayer filed a written protest to the denial of its refund application, and where, following multiple hearings before the administrative hearing officer, the department filed a motion for summary judgment, and where the administrative hearing officer granted the department's motion, concluding that the only available remedy for a denial of an application for a tax credit was to file a protest within ninety days of the denial pursuant to 7-1-24 NMSA 1978, and that taxpayer's failure to file such a protest rendered the department's denial indisputable, the administrative hearing officer erred in granting the department's motion for summary judgment and denying taxpayer's protest, because neither the applicable statutes nor the department's own guidance suggest that a taxpayer's sole remedy to dispute the denial of a high-wage jobs tax credit is through the protest procedures provided in 7-1-24 NMSA 1978. The plain language of both 7-1-24 and 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 indicates that the two statutes exist as alternatives and a taxpayer may dispute a denial of a tax credit under either statute. *Elite Well v. ARTICLE 9I

Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act

7-9I-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 9I NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act".

History: Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 17; 2010, ch. 17, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, deleted "Sections 17 through 22 of this act" and added "Chapter 7, Article 9I NMSA 1978".

7-9I-2. Definitions.

As used in the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act:

A. "affordable housing project" means land acquisition, construction, building acquisition, remodeling, improvement, rehabilitation, conversion or weatherization for residential housing that is approved by the authority and that includes single-family housing or multifamily housing;

B. "authority" means the New Mexico mortgage finance authority;

C. "department" means the taxation and revenue department;

D. "modified combined tax liability" means the total liability for the reporting period for the gross receipts tax imposed by Section 7-9-4 NMSA 1978 together with any tax collected at the same time and in the same manner as the gross receipts tax, such as the compensating tax, the withholding tax, the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax, the surcharges imposed by Section 63-9D-5 NMSA 1978 and the surcharge imposed by Section 63-9F-11 NMSA 1978, minus the amount of any credit other than the affordable housing tax credit applied against any or all of these taxes or surcharges; but "modified combined tax liability" excludes all amounts collected with respect to local option gross receipts taxes and governmental gross receipts taxes; and

E. "person" means an individual, tribal government, housing authority, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, syndicate, association or nonprofit organization.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 18; 2010, ch. 17, § 2; 2015, ch. 17, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, removed "county" and "municipality" from the definition of "person" as used in the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act; and in Subsection E, after "individual", deleted "county, municipality".

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A, after "authority and that includes", deleted "only" and after "multifamily housing", deleted "located in a county with a population of less than one hundred thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census".

7-9I-3. Investment vouchers; issuance; transfer.

A. The authority may issue an investment voucher to a person who has made an investment of land, buildings, materials, cash or services for an affordable housing project approved by the authority or for a trust fund administered by the authority. The value of the voucher shall equal fifty percent of the amount of cash invested or the fair market value of the land, buildings, materials or services invested by that person. The authority may approve an investment voucher for any affordable housing project in accordance with Subsection B of this section and in accordance with rules adopted by the authority. An investment voucher that is approved for an affordable housing project shall equal fifty percent of the amount of cash invested or the fair market value of land, buildings, materials or services invested in that affordable housing project by a person upon issuance of that investment voucher.

B. During the calendar year:

(1) beginning on January 1, 2006, the authority may issue or approve investment vouchers in an amount that shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in aggregate value;

(2) beginning on January 1, 2007, the authority may issue or approve investment vouchers in an amount that shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in aggregate value; and

(3) beginning on January 1, 2008 and during each subsequent calendar year, the authority may issue or approve investment vouchers for each calendar year in an amount that shall not exceed an aggregate value of a base rate of one dollar eighty-five cents ($1.85) adjusted annually to account for inflation, multiplied by the state population during the calendar year as determined by the United States census bureau.

C. Any limitation on the issuance or approval of investment vouchers for a calendar year pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall not apply to an investment voucher issued by the authority during that calendar year that was approved by the authority during a previous calendar year.

D. At the beginning of each calendar year that begins on or after January 1, 2009, the department shall make an adjustment for inflation pursuant to Paragraph (3) of Subsection B of this section by multiplying the base rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the consumer price index for the previous calendar year and the denominator of which is the same index for the 2007 calendar year prior to the calendar year for which a maximum aggregate value is determined for the issuance of investment vouchers pursuant to Paragraph (3) of Subsection B of this section.

E. An investment voucher issued by the authority shall be numbered for identification and may be sold, exchanged or otherwise transferred once in whole or in part to one or more persons. The parties to such a transaction shall notify the department and the authority of the sale, exchange or transfer within ten days of the sale, exchange or transfer.

F. The authority shall adopt rules for the approval, issuance and administration of investment vouchers pursuant to this section.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 19; 2010, ch. 17, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A, in the first sentence after "investment of land, buildings", added "materials"; in the second sentence, after "fair market value of the land", deleted "building or service" and added "buildings, materials or services"; and in the fourth sentence after "value of land, buildings", added "materials".

7-9I-4. Affordable housing project completion notice.

The authority shall certify to the department approval of an affordable housing project for which an investment voucher is issued pursuant to the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act within twenty days of issuance of that voucher.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 29 made Laws 2005, ch. 104, § 20 effective July 1, 2005.

7-9I-5. Affordable housing tax credit.

A. The tax credit provided in this section may be referred to as the "affordable housing tax credit". Except as otherwise provided by the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act, a holder of an investment voucher that submits the investment voucher to the department may apply for, and the department may allow, a tax credit in an amount not to exceed the value of the investment voucher during the tax year in which the authority certifies to the department:

(1) completion of a service for which an investment voucher has been issued pursuant to the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act; or

(2) approval by the authority or completion of an affordable housing project for which a land, building or cash donation has been made and for which an investment voucher has been issued pursuant to the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Act.

B. A holder of an investment voucher may apply all or a portion of the affordable housing tax credit against the holder's modified combined tax liability, personal income tax liability or corporate income tax liability. Any balance of the affordable housing tax credit claimed may be carried forward for up to five years from the calendar year during which the authority certifies to the department approval of the affordable housing project for which the investment voucher used to claim the affordable housing tax credit is issued. No amount of the affordable housing tax credit may be applied against a local option gross receipts tax imposed by a municipality or county or against the government gross receipts tax.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7-1-8 NMSA 1978, the department may disclose to a person the balance of the affordable housing tax credit remaining with respect to any investment voucher submitted by that person.

ARTICLE 9J

Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act

7-9J-1. Short title.

Sections 11 through 18 of this act [7-9J-1 to 7-9J-8 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act".

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-2. Definitions.

As used in the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act:

A. "alternative energy product" means an alternative energy vehicle, fuel cell system, renewable energy system or any component of an alternative energy vehicle, fuel cell system or renewable energy system; components for integrated gasification combined cycle coal facilities and equipment related to the sequestration of carbon from integrated gasification combined cycle plants; or, beginning in taxable year 2011 and ending in taxable year 2019, a product extracted from or secreted by a single cell photosynthetic organism;

B. "alternative energy vehicle" means a motor vehicle manufactured by an original equipment manufacturer that fully warrants and certifies that the motor vehicle meets the federal motor vehicle safety standards and is designed to be propelled in whole or in part by electricity; "alternative energy vehicle" includes a gasoline-electric hybrid motor vehicle exempt from the motor vehicle excise tax pursuant to Subsection G of Section 7-14-6 NMSA 1978;

C. "component" means a part, assembly of parts, material, ingredient or supply that is incorporated directly into an end product;

D. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or an employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

E. "fuel cell system" means a system that converts hydrogen, natural gas or waste gas to electricity without combustion, including:

(1) a fuel cell or a system used to generate or reform hydrogen for use in a fuel cell; or

(2) a system used to generate or reform hydrogen for use in a fuel cell, including:

(a) electrolyzers that use renewable energy; and

(b) reformers that use natural gas as the feedstock;

F. "manufacturing" means combining or processing components or materials to increase their value for sale in the ordinary course of business, but "manufacturing" does not include construction, farming, power generation or processing natural resources;

G. "manufacturing equipment" means an essential machine, mechanism or tool or a component of an essential machine, mechanism or tool used directly and exclusively in a taxpayer's manufacturing operation and that is subject to depreciation pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by the taxpayer carrying on the manufacturing; provided that "manufacturing equipment" does not include a vehicle that leaves the site of a manufacturing operation for the purpose of transporting persons or property, including property for which the taxpayer claims a credit pursuant to Section 7-9-79 NMSA 1978;

H. "manufacturing operation" means a plant employing personnel to perform production tasks, in conjunction with manufacturing equipment not previously existing at the site, to produce alternative energy products;

I. "modified combined tax liability" means the total liability for the reporting period for the gross receipts tax imposed by Section 7-9-4 NMSA 1978 together with any tax collected at the same time and in the same manner as that gross receipts tax, such as the compensating tax, the withholding tax, the interstate telecommunications gross receipts tax, the surcharge imposed by Section 63-9D-5 NMSA 1978 and the surcharge imposed by Section 63-9F-11 NMSA 1978, minus the amount of any credit other than the alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit applied against any or all of those taxes or surcharges; provided that "modified combined tax liability" excludes all amounts collected with respect to local option gross receipts taxes;

J. "pass-through entity" means a business association other than:

(1) a sole proprietorship;

(2) an estate or trust;

(3) a corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other entity that is not a sole proprietorship taxed as a corporation for federal income tax purposes for the taxable year; or

(4) a partnership that is organized as an investment partnership in which the partner's income is derived solely from interest, dividends and sales of securities;

K. "qualified expenditure" means an expenditure for the purchase of manufacturing equipment made after July 1, 2006 by a taxpayer approved by the department;

L. "renewable energy" means energy from solar heat, solar light, wind, geothermal energy, landfill gas or biomass either singly or in combination that produces low or zero emissions and has substantial long-term production potential;

M. "renewable energy system" means a system using only renewable energy to produce hydrogen or to generate electricity, including related cogeneration systems that create mechanical energy or that produce heat or steam for space or water heating and agricultural or small industrial processes and includes a:

- (1) photovoltaic energy system;
- (2) solar-thermal energy system;
- (3) biomass energy system;
- (4) wind energy system;
- (5) hydrogen production system; or
- (6) battery cell energy system; and

N. "taxpayer" means a person, including a shareholder, member, partner or other owner of a pass-through entity, that is liable for payment of a tax or to whom an assessment has been made if the assessment remains unabated or the amount thereof has not been paid.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 12; 2011, ch. 108, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C. § 1.

The 2011 amendment, effective June 17, 2011, included products of single cell photosynthetic organisms as eligible alternative energy products for taxable years 2011 through 2019.

7-9J-3. Administration.

The department shall administer the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act pursuant to the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-4. Alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit.

A. A tax credit to be known as the "alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit" may be claimed by a taxpayer in an amount:

- (1) for which the taxpayer has been granted approval by the department pursuant to the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act; and
- (2) not to exceed five percent of the taxpayer's qualified expenditures.

B. The alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit may only be deducted from the taxpayer's modified combined tax liability. Any portion of the alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit that remains unused at the end of the taxpayer's reporting period may be carried forward for five years.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-5. Eligibility requirements; employment.

To be eligible to claim a credit pursuant to the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act, the taxpayer shall employ a number of full-time employees equal to one full-time employee in addition to the number of full-time employees employed one year prior to the day on which the taxpayer applies for the credit for every:

- A. five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), or a portion of that amount, of qualified expenditures claimed by the taxpayer in a taxable year in the same claim, up to a value of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000); and
- B. one million dollars ($1,000,000), or a portion of that amount, in value of qualified expenditures over thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) claimed by the taxpayer in a taxable year in the same claim.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-6. Approval of credit; issuance and denial; application; deadlines.

A. The department shall issue or deny approval for an alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit in response to a taxpayer's application for approval for the credit. The department shall issue approval for a credit claimed by a taxpayer who satisfies the requirements of the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act.

B. The department may require a taxpayer who claims an alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit to produce evidence of the taxpayer's compliance with the Alternative Energy Product Manufacturers Tax Credit Act.

C. A taxpayer may apply for approval of an alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit on or before the last day of the year following the end of the calendar year in which the qualified expenditure is made. The department shall not issue approval for the alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit if the taxpayer applies for approval after the last day of the year following the end of the calendar year in which the qualified expenditure is made.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-7. Recapture.

If the taxpayer or a successor in the business of the taxpayer ceases operations at a facility in New Mexico for at least one hundred eighty consecutive days within a two-year period after the taxpayer has claimed an alternative energy product manufacturers tax credit, the department shall not grant additional alternative energy product manufacturers tax credits with respect to that facility. Any amount of the approved credit with respect to that facility that is not claimed against the taxpayer's modified combined tax liability shall be extinguished, and within thirty days after the one hundred eightieth day of cessation of operations, the taxpayer shall pay the modified income tax liability against which an approved credit was taken. For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall not be deemed to have ceased operations during reasonable periods for maintenance or retooling, for the repair or replacement of facilities damaged or destroyed or during labor disputes.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-9J-8. Credit claim forms.

The department shall provide credit claim forms and instructions. A credit claim form shall accompany any return in which the taxpayer claims a credit, and the claim shall specify the amount of credit intended to apply to each return.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 204, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 204 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

ARTICLE 10

Gross Receipts Tax Registration

7-10-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 10 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Gross Receipts Tax Registration Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-30, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 26, § 1; 1995, ch. 70, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "Chapter 7, Article 10 NMSA 1978" for "This act" in this section.

7-10-2. Purpose of act.

The purpose of the Gross Receipts Tax Registration Act is to ensure that all persons doing business with the state, whether leasing property employed in New Mexico, performing services in New Mexico or selling property in New Mexico, are registered with the department for payment of the gross receipts tax.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-31, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 26, § 2; 1995, ch. 70, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "ensure" for "insure" and "department" for "bureau" in this section.

7-10-3. Definitions.

As used in the Gross Receipts Tax Registration Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate or other entity; and

C. "state" means any state agency, department or office that has authority to contract in the name of the state or to make payments from state funds.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-32, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 26, § 3; 1977, ch. 249, § 51; 1986, ch. 20, § 70; 1995, ch. 70, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, deleted "'bureau' or" at the beginning of Subsection A.

7-10-4. Persons doing business with the state; registration to pay the gross receipts tax required.

Any person leasing or selling property to the state or performing services for the state, as those terms are used in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act, shall be registered with the department to pay the gross receipts tax unless that person has no business location, employees or property in New Mexico and does not conduct business in New Mexico through agents or contractors.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-33, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 26, § 4; 1995, ch. 70, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "shall" for "must" and "department" for "bureau", and added the language beginning "unless that person".

7-10-5. Penalty for noncompliance.

If any person required to register under the provisions of Section 7-10-4 NMSA 1978 is not registered to pay the gross receipts tax, the state shall withhold payment of the amount due until the person has presented evidence of registration with the department to pay the gross receipts tax.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-34, enacted by Laws 1970, ch. 26, § 5; 1995, ch. 70, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "required to register under the provisions of Section 7-10-4 NMSA 1978" for "who leases or sells property to or performs services for the state", and "department" for "bureau".

ARTICLE 11

Railroad Car Company Tax

7-11-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 11 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Railroad Car Company Tax Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-11-1, enacted by Laws 1982, ch. 18, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1982, ch. 18, § 17, repealed former 7-11-1 NMSA 1978, relating to definitions, and enacted a new section. For present provisions relating to definitions, see 7-11-2 NMSA 1978.

7-11-2. Definitions.

As used in the Railroad Car Company Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

7-12-2. Definitions.

As used in the Cigarette Tax Act:

A. "cigarette" means:

(1) any roll of tobacco or any substitute for tobacco wrapped in paper or in any substance not containing tobacco;

(2) any roll of tobacco that is wrapped in any substance containing tobacco, other than one hundred percent natural leaf tobacco, which, because of its appearance, the type of tobacco used in the filler, its packaging and labeling, or its marketing and advertising, is likely to be offered to, or purchased by, consumers as a cigarette, as described in Paragraph (1) of this subsection;

(3) bidis and kreteks; or

(4) any other roll of tobacco that is defined as a "cigarette" in Subsection D of Section 6-4-12 NMSA 1978;

B. "close of business" means that time when a business ceases to operate for the remainder of the day or 12:00 a.m., if the business is open and conducting business at 12:00 a.m.;

C. "contraband cigarettes" means cigarette packages with counterfeit stamps, counterfeit cigarettes, cigarettes that have false or fraudulent manufacturing labels, cigarettes not sold in packages of five, ten, twenty or twenty-five, cigarette packages without the tax, tax-credit or tax-exempt stamps required by the Cigarette Tax Act and cigarettes produced by a manufacturer or in a brand family not included in the directory;

D. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee;

E. "directory" means a listing of tobacco product manufacturers and brand families that is developed, maintained and published by the attorney general under the Tobacco Escrow Fund Act [6-4-14 to 6-4-24 NMSA 1978];

F. "distributor" means a person licensed pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act to sell or distribute cigarettes in New Mexico. "Distributor" does not include:

(1) a retailer;

(2) a cigarette manufacturer, export warehouse proprietor or importer with a valid permit pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 5713, if that person sells cigarettes in New Mexico only to distributors that hold valid licenses under the laws of a state or sells to an export warehouse proprietor or to another manufacturer; or

(3) a common or contract carrier transporting cigarettes pursuant to a bill of lading or freight bill, or a person who ships cigarettes through the state by a common or contract carrier pursuant to a bill of lading or freight bill;

G. "license" means a license granted pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act that authorizes the holder to conduct business as a manufacturer or distributor of cigarettes;

H. "manufacturer" means a person that manufactures, fabricates, assembles, processes or labels a cigarette or that imports from outside the United States, directly or indirectly, a finished cigarette for sale or distribution in the United States;

I. "master settlement agreement" means the settlement agreement and related documents entered into on November 23, 1998 by the state and leading United States tobacco product manufacturers;

J. "package" means an individual pack, box or other container; "package" does not include a container that itself contains other containers, such as a carton of cigarettes;

K. "qualifying tribal cigarette tax" means an excise, privilege or similar tax at a minimum rate of:

(1) three and seventy-five hundredths cents ($.0375) per cigarette if the cigarettes are packaged in lots of twenty or twenty-five;

(2) seven and one-half cents ($.075) per cigarette if the cigarettes are packaged in lots of ten; or

(3) fifteen cents ($.15) per cigarette if the cigarettes are packaged in lots of five;

L. "retailer" means a person, whether located within or outside of New Mexico, that sells cigarettes at retail to a consumer in New Mexico and the sale is not for resale;

M. "stamp" means an adhesive label issued and authorized by the department to be affixed to cigarette packages for excise tax purposes and upon which is printed a serial number and the words "State of New Mexico" and "tobacco tax";

N. "tax stamp" means a stamp that has a specific cigarette tax value pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act;

O. "tax-credit stamp" means a stamp that indicates the cigarette package bearing the stamp is to be or has been sold by a retailer located on land of a tribe that has imposed a qualifying tribal cigarette tax;

P. "tax-exempt stamp" means a stamp that indicates a tax-exempt status pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act;

Q. "tribal member" means a person who is recognized by the governing body of an Indian tribe to be an enrolled member of that Indian tribe;

R. "tribe" means a federally recognized Indian nation, tribe or pueblo located wholly or partially in New Mexico, including:

(1) a political subdivision, agency or department of a tribe;

(2) an incorporated or unincorporated enterprise of a tribe, one or more tribes or a political subdivision of a tribe; or

(3) a corporation considered to be an Indian or a tribe by the federal government or the state; and

S. "tribe's land" means the reservation, pueblo grant or trust land of a tribe and property held by the United States in trust jointly for the nineteen New Mexico Indian pueblos pursuant to Public Law 95-232.

History: Laws 1943, ch. 95, § 1; 1941 Comp. Supp., § 76-1602; Laws 1947, ch. 111, § 1; 1949, ch. 180, § 2; 1953 Comp., § 72-14-2; Laws 1955, ch. 263, § 1; 1961, ch. 244, § 1; 1962 (S.S.), ch. 5, § 1; 1968, ch. 50, § 2; reenacted as 1953 Comp., § 72-14-3 by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 3; 1984, ch. 52, § 1; 1985, ch. 25, §§ 1, 2, 5; 1986, ch. 13, § 2; 1993, ch. 30, § 19; 1993, ch. 358, § 2; 1995, ch. 70, § 13; 2003, ch. 341, § 2; 2007, ch. 182, § 2; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 3; 2019, ch. 270, § 39.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the excise tax rate on cigarettes and provided a reduction of the tax rate for certain cigarettes; in the section heading, deleted "rates" and added "reduction of rate for certain cigarettes"; in Subsection A, after "an excise tax at", deleted "the following rates" and added "a rate of ten cents ($.10)", and deleted Paragraphs A(1) through A(3); and added Subsections C and D.

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A(1), changed the tax rate from four and fifty-five hundredths cents ($.0455) to eight and three-tenths cents ($.083); in Subsection A(2), changed the tax rate from nine and ten-hundredths cents ($.091) to sixteen and six-tenths cents ($.166); and Subsection A(3), changed the tax rate from eighteen and twenty-hundredths cents ($.182) to thirty-three and two-tenths cents ($.332).

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, added Subsections (1) to (3) to provide new rates for cigarette packages in lots of 10 or 5.

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, in Subsection A, substituted the present tax rate for "one and five hundredths cents".

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "this section" for "the Cigarette Tax Act" in Subsection B.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, substituted "one and five hundredths cents ($.0105)" for "seventy-five one-hundredths of one cent ($.0075)" in Subsection A.

7-12-3.1. Cigarette inventory tax; imposition of tax; date payment of tax due.

A. A tax that may be identified as the "cigarette inventory tax" is imposed on a distributor that has in its possession tax-exempt stamps, tax-credit stamps or tax stamps, not affixed to packages of cigarettes, at the close of business on the day prior to the date on which an increase in the cigarette tax imposed by Section 7-12-3 NMSA 1978 is effective.

B. The cigarette inventory tax due from the distributor is calculated by multiplying the number of tax stamps not affixed to packages of cigarettes in the distributor's possession by the increase in the excise tax. Tax-exempt stamps and tax-credit stamps are not included in the calculation to determine the amount of cigarette inventory tax to be paid by a distributor.

C. The cigarette inventory tax is to be paid to the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the increase in the cigarette tax is effective.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12-3.1, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 13, § 3; 1995, ch. 70, § 14; 2006, ch. 91, § 2; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 4; 2019, ch. 270, § 40.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, provided that the cigarette inventory tax due from a distributor is calculated by multiplying the number of tax stamps not affixed to packages of cigarettes in the distributor's possession by the increase in the excise tax; in Subsection A, after "tax-credit stamps or tax stamps", deleted "whether or"; and in Subsection B, after "number of tax stamps", added "not affixed to packages of cigarettes".

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, after "possession of tax-exempt stamps", added "tax-credit stamps" and after "affixed to packages of cigarettes", deleted "on" and added "at the close of business on the day prior to"; and in Subsection B, in the second sentence, after "Tax-exempt stamps", added "and tax-credit stamps".

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, in Subsection A, deleted the provision that the tax is measured by the quantity of cigarette stamps in the possession of a person who is required to affix stamps and provided that the tax is imposed on a distributor; in Subsection A, deleted the provision that the taxable event is the existence of an inventory of stamp; added a new Subsection B to provide for the calculation of the tax; and in Subsection C (formerly Subsection B), provided that the tax is to be paid in the month following the month the increase in the tax is effective.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "department" for "division" in Subsection B.

7-12-3.2. Cigarette inventories.

A. At the close of business on the day prior to any date on which the cigarette tax imposed by Section 7-12-3 NMSA 1978 is increased, each distributor shall take inventory of tax-exempt stamps, tax-credit stamps and tax stamps on hand, including stamps affixed to packages of cigarettes.

B. Each distributor shall report the total number of tax-exempt stamps, tax-credit stamps and tax stamps in inventory at the close of business on the day prior to the date on which the cigarette tax increases and pay the cigarette inventory tax due.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12-3.2, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 13, § 4; 2006, ch. 91, § 3; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A, at the beginning of the sentence, deleted "On" and added "At the close of business on the day prior to" and after "inventory of tax-exempt stamps", added "tax-credit stamps"; and in Subsection B, after "number of tax-exempt stamps", added "tax-credit stamps" and after "tax stamps in inventory", deleted "on" and added "at the close of business on the day prior to".

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, in Subsection A, provided that the distributor shall take an inventory of tax-exempt stamps and tax stamps; and in Subsection B, provided that the distributor shall report the number of tax-exempt stamps and tax stamps.

7-12-4. Exemption.

A. Exempted from the cigarette tax are sales of cigarettes:

(1) to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof or the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision thereof;

(2) to a tribe, or to a tribal member licensed by the governing body of a tribe for use or sale on that tribe's land, if the tribe has in place a qualifying tribal cigarette tax; and

(3) sales that the state is prohibited from taxing by a provision of the United States constitution or the constitution of the state of New Mexico.

B. As used in this section, the term "agency or instrumentality" does not include persons who are agents or instrumentalities of the United States for a particular purpose or only when acting in a particular capacity or corporate agencies or instrumentalities.

History: Laws 1943, ch. 95, § 13; 1941 Comp. Supp., § 76-1613; reenacted as 1953 Comp., § 72-14-4 by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 4; 1992, ch. 37, § 1; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A(2), at the beginning of the sentence, deleted "the governing body" and added "a tribe"; after "a tribe, or to", deleted "any enrolled" and added "a"; after "licensed by the governing body of", deleted "any Indian nation" and added "a"; after "governing body of a tribe", deleted "or pueblo"; after "for use or sale on that", deleted "reservation or pueblo grant" and added the remainder of the sentence.

The 1992 amendment, effective May 20, 1992, added the subsection designations; in Subsection A, added the paragraph designations, added "to the governing body or to any enrolled tribal member licensed by the governing body of any Indian nation, tribe or pueblo for use or sale on that reservation or pueblo grant; and" at the beginning of Paragraph (2), added "sales" at the beginning of Paragraph (3), and made a stylistic change; and, in Subsection B, substituted "As used in this section" for "As used herein".

7-12-4.1. Cigarette tax; tribal sales; tax-credit stamps.

A. A distributor shall obtain from the department tax-credit stamps to affix to packages of cigarettes sold to a tribe or a tribal member licensed or otherwise approved by a tribe to sell cigarettes under the authority of the tribe on that tribe's land; provided that the tribe has certified to the department that the tribe has in effect a qualifying tribal cigarette tax.

B. Cigarettes sold by a tribe or tribal member bearing a tax-credit stamp shall be sold for use or sale on that tribe's land or on the land of another tribe or for use but not for resale in the state or at a location off any tribe's land.

History: Laws 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 28 made the provisions of Laws 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 7 effective July 1, 2010.

7-12-5. Affixing stamps.

A. Except as provided in Section 7-12-6 NMSA 1978, all cigarettes shall be placed in packages or containers to which a stamp shall be affixed. Only a distributor with a valid license issued pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act may purchase or obtain unaffixed tax-exempt stamps, tax-credit stamps or tax stamps. A distributor shall not sell or provide unaffixed stamps to another distributor, manufacturer, export warehouse proprietor or importer with a valid permit pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 5713 or any other person.

B. Stamps shall be affixed by the distributor to each package of cigarettes to be sold or distributed in New Mexico within thirty days of receipt of those packages.

C. A distributor shall apply stamps only to packages of cigarettes that the distributor has received directly from another distributor or from a manufacturer or importer of cigarettes that possesses a valid and current permit pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 5713.

D. A distributor shall not affix a stamp to a package of cigarettes of a manufacturer or a brand family that is not included in the directory or sell, offer or possess for sale cigarettes of a manufacturer or brand family that is not included in the directory.

E. Packages shall contain cigarettes in lots of five, ten, twenty or twenty-five.

F. Unless the requirements of this section are waived pursuant to Section 7-12-6 NMSA 1978, a tax stamp shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes subject to the cigarette tax, a tax-credit stamp shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes subject to a qualifying tribal cigarette tax, and a tax-exempt stamp shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes not subject to the cigarette tax pursuant to Section 7-12-4 NMSA 1978.

G. A tax-exempt stamp or tax-credit stamp is not an excise tax stamp for purposes of determining units sold pursuant to Section 6-4-12 NMSA 1978.

H. Stamps shall be affixed inside the boundaries of New Mexico, unless the department has granted a license allowing a person to affix stamps outside New Mexico.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For cigarette tax, see 7-12-3 NMSA 1978.

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A, in the second sentence, after "unaffixed tax-exempt stamps", added "tax-credit stamps"; in Subsection F, after "cigarettes subject to the cigarette tax", added "a tax-credit stamp shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes subject to a qualifying tribal cigarette tax"; and in Subsection G, after "tax-exempt stamp", added "or tax-credit stamp".

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, in Subsection B, changed "ten days" to "thirty days"; in Subsection C, after "has received directly from" added "another distributor or from"; and added Subsection D.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, revised Subsection D to add lots of "five" and "ten".

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, in Subsection A, provided an exception to affixing stamps, provides that only a distributor with a valid license may acquire unaffixed tax-exempt stamps and prohibits a distributor from selling unaffixed stamps; added Subsection B to provide for the affixation of stamps; added Subsection C to provide that stamps may be affixed only to packages of cigarettes that have been received from a manufacturer or importer; in Subsection D (formerly Subsection B), deleted the provision that packages that are not in multiples of five cigarettes shall have a stamp of the next higher multiple of five cigarettes; in Subsection D (formerly Subsection B), provided that packages shall contain cigarettes in lots of twenty or twenty-five; in Subsection E (formerly Subsection C), deleted the provision that the stamp shall be affixed by any person who sells cigarettes manufactured by that person or who receives on consignment or buys unstamped cigarettes; in Subsection E (formerly Subsection C), provided that the stamp shall be affixed to packages subject to the cigarette tax and tax-exempt stamps shall be affixed to packages not subject to the cigarette tax; and added Subsection F to provide that a tax-exempt stamp is not an excise tax stamp.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, deleted "license fee" from the section heading and in Subsection D, deleted the provisions for a license fee.

7-12-6. Waiver of requirement that stamps be affixed.

The requirement imposed in Section 7-12-5 NMSA 1978 that stamps be affixed to packages or containers of cigarettes is waived if the cigarettes are:

A. distributed by a manufacturer pursuant to federal regulations and are exempt from tax pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 5704; and

B. not subsequently imported into New Mexico.

Supp., § 76-1606; 1953 Comp., § 72-14-6; Laws 1955, ch. 263, § 2; 1957, ch. 166, § 1; 1962 (S.S.), ch. 14, § 1; 1970, ch. 70, § 4; reenacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 6; 1984, chs. 51, 63; 1995, ch. 70, § 15; 2006, ch. 91, § 5; 2009, ch. 197, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, added Subsection B.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, provided a waiver if the cigarettes are distributed by a manufacturer pursuant to federal regulations and are exempt from tax pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 5704; deleted former Subsection A, which provided a waiver for sales of cigarettes on railroad passenger trains; and deleted former Subsection B, which provided a waiver for distribution of free samples.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 15, 1995, substituted "department" for "bureau" in the second sentences of Subsections A and B.

7-12-7. Sale of stamps; prices.

A. Only the department shall sell stamps. Stamps may be sold by the department only to a distributor.

B. Stamps shall display a serial number. Stamps bearing the same serial number shall not be sold to more than one distributor. The department shall keep records of the serial numbers of the stamps provided to each distributor.

C. A stamp shall be affixed to a package of cigarettes in such a manner as to clearly display the serial number at the point of sale.

D. Tax stamps shall be sold at their face value with the following discounts:

(1) forty-six hundredths percent less than the face value of the first thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) of stamps purchased in one calendar month;

(2) thirty-six hundredths percent less than the face value of the second thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) of stamps purchased in one calendar month; and

(3) twenty-two hundredths percent less than the face value of stamps purchased in excess of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in one calendar month.

E. Tax-credit stamps shall be provided only to distributors and shall be provided free of charge; provided that the distributor is in full compliance with the reporting requirements of the Cigarette Tax Act and rules adopted pursuant to that act.

F. If the face value of tax stamps sold in a single sale is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), the discount provided for in this section shall not be allowed.

G. Payment for tax stamps shall be made on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the sale of stamps by the department is made.

H. Tax-exempt stamps shall be provided only to distributors and shall be free of charge; provided that the distributor is in full compliance with the reporting requirements of the Cigarette Tax Act and rules adopted pursuant to that act.

Supp., § 76-1605; Laws 1947, ch. 84, § 3; 1949, ch. 180, § 5; 1953 Comp., § 72-14-5; Laws 1963, ch. 106, § 1; 1968, ch. 50, § 3; 1970, ch. 70, § 3; reenacted as 1953 Comp., § 72-14-7 by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 7; 1988, ch. 95, § 5; 2006, ch. 89, § 3; 2006, ch. 91, § 6; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 9; 2019, ch. 270, § 41.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the discount amounts on cigarette tax stamps; in Subsection D, Paragraph D(1), deleted "fifty-five" and added "forty-six"; in Paragraph D(2), deleted "forty-four" and added "thirty-six", and in Paragraph D(3), deleted "twenty-seven" and added "twenty-two".

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection D(1), changed the discount from one percent to fifty-five hundredths percent; in Subsection D(2), changed the discount from eight-tenths percent to forty-four hundredths percent; in Subsection D(3), changed the discount from one-half percent to twenty-seven hundredths percent; and added Subsection E.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, limited the sale of stamps by the department to distributors in Subsection A; added Subsection B to require a unique serial number on each stamp; added Subsection C to provide that stamps shall be affixed to display the serial numbers; changed the percentages in Subsection D from "four" to "one" in Paragraph (1), from "three" to "eight-tenths" in Paragraph (2), and from "two" to "one-half" in Paragraph (3); and added a new Subsection G providing stamps are provided to the distributors free of charge.

7-12-8. Redemption of stamps.

The department shall redeem unused or destroyed stamps at the price paid by the buyer, provided acceptable proof of such destruction is provided the department. It is presumed that the stamps presented for redemption were the last stamps bought in the month in which the sale of the stamps was made. If the month in which the sale was made is unknown, the amount to be paid by the department upon redemption shall be computed as if the stamps presented for redemption were the last stamps bought in the average monthly number of stamps bought during the preceding calendar year.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 18, effective May 17, 2006, repealed 7-12-9 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 9, relating to the license for cigarette sales. For provisions of former section, see the 2005 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com. For current comparable provisions relating to the sale and resale of cigarettes in this state, see 7-12-9.1 to 7-12-9.4 NMSA 1978.

7-12-9.1. Licensing; general licensing provisions.

A. A person shall not engage in the manufacture or distribution of cigarettes in New Mexico without a license issued by the department.

B. The department shall issue or renew a license for a term not to exceed one year.

C. The department may charge a license fee of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for each manufacturer's or distributor's license issued or renewed.

D. An application for a license or renewal of a license shall be submitted on a form determined by the department and shall include:

(1) the name and address of the applicant and:

(a) if the applicant is a firm, partnership or association, the name and address of each of its members; or

(b) if the applicant is a corporation, the name and address of each of its officers;

(2) the address of the applicant's principal place of business and every location where the applicant's business is conducted; and

(3) any other information the department may require.

E. The department may issue a distributor's license and a manufacturer's license to the same person.

F. Persons licensed as manufacturers or distributors may sell stamped cigarettes at retail.

G. A license may not be granted, maintained or renewed if one or more of the following conditions applies to an applicant:

(1) the applicant is a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978 only with respect to the cigarette tax or the gross receipts tax or has unfiled tax returns due with respect to the cigarette tax or the gross receipts tax;

(2) the applicant has had a manufacturer's or distributor's license revoked by the department or any other state within the past two years;

(3) the applicant is convicted of a crime related to contraband cigarettes, stolen cigarettes or counterfeit stamps;

(4) the applicant is a manufacturer but not a participating manufacturer as defined in Section II(jj) of the master settlement agreement and the applicant is not in compliance with the provisions of Section 6-4-13 NMSA 1978 or the Tobacco Escrow Fund Act [6-4-14 through 6-4-24 NMSA 1978]; or

(5) the applicant is a manufacturer and imports cigarettes into the United States that are in violation of 19 U.S.C. 1681a or manufactures cigarettes that do not comply with the Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act.

H. In addition to a civil or criminal penalty provided by law, upon a finding that a licensee has violated a provision of the Cigarette Tax Act or the Tobacco Escrow Fund Act or a rule adopted pursuant to either act, the department may revoke or suspend the license or licenses of the licensee.

I. As used in this section, "applicant" includes a person or persons owning, directly or indirectly, in the aggregate, more than ten percent of the ownership interest in the business holding or applying for a license pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 7; 2009, ch. 197, § 15; 2023, ch. 85, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, provided that certain licenses shall not be issued or renewed if the licensee is a delinquent taxpayer for certain taxes; and in Subsection G, Paragraph G(1), after "the applicant", deleted "owes five hundred dollars ($500) or more in delinquent cigarette taxes" and added "is a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978 only with respect to the cigarette tax or the gross receipts tax or has unfiled tax returns due with respect to the cigarette tax or the gross receipts tax".

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, in Subsection B, after "shall issue", added "or renew"; and in Subsection H, after "Cigarette Tax Act", added "or the Tobacco Escrow Fund Act".

7-12-9.2. Distributor's license.

A. A person shall not distribute stamped packages of cigarettes for resale or sell stamped packages of cigarettes at wholesale without first obtaining a distributor's license from the department.

B. A person licensed to distribute cigarettes is authorized to:

(1) receive unstamped packages of cigarettes from a manufacturer or a distributor;

(2) purchase tax stamps and receive tax-exempt stamps and tax-credit stamps from the department;

(3) affix tax stamps, tax-credit stamps or tax-exempt stamps to unstamped packages of cigarettes;

(4) sell stamped packages of cigarettes to a retailer for resale or to a distributor; and

(5) sell unstamped packages of cigarettes to a person licensed to distribute cigarettes outside of New Mexico or to a distributor.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 8; 2009, ch. 197, § 15; 2010 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 (2nd S. S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection B(2), after "tax-exempt stamps", added "tax-credit stamps"; and in Subsection B(3), after "affix tax stamps", added "tax-credit stamps".

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, in Paragraphs (1), (4) and (5) of Subsection B, at the end of the sentence, added "or to a distributor".

7-12-9.3. Manufacturer's license.

A. A person shall not manufacture cigarettes in New Mexico unless licensed by the department.

B. A person licensed to manufacture cigarettes in New Mexico is authorized to:

- (1) manufacture, produce and package cigarettes;
- (2) receive imported cigarettes;
- (3) sell unstamped cigarettes to a distributor, another manufacturer or an export warehouse proprietor; and
- (4) sell unstamped cigarettes outside of New Mexico.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 9.

7-12-9.4. Retail sale of cigarettes.

A retailer of cigarettes shall:

- A. only obtain cigarettes for resale from a distributor;
- B. only obtain stamped cigarettes;
- C. not sell cigarettes at wholesale or for resale unless the retailer is also a distributor; and
- D. comply with the provisions of the Cigarette Tax Act or any law or rule that applies to retailers of cigarettes.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2006, ch. 91 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 2006, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 18, effective May 17, 2006, repealed 7-12-10 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 10, relating to retention of invoices and records. For provisions of former section, see the 2005 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com. For current comparable provisions, see 7-12-10.1 NMSA 1978.

7-12-10.1. Retention of invoices and records; inspection by department.

A. A manufacturer, distributor or retailer shall maintain copies of invoices for each of its facilities for every transaction involving a cigarette sale, purchase, transfer, receipt or consignment, except that a retailer need not retain copies of invoices for sales of cigarettes to consumers. An invoice shall show:

(1) the names and addresses of all persons involved in the transaction, including the seller, purchaser, consignor and consignee. If a transaction involves an additional facility of the same manufacturer, distributor or retailer, the invoice shall also show the address of the additional facility;

(2) the date;

(3) the price; and

(4) the quantity of each brand of cigarettes involved in each transaction.

B. Records required to be maintained pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall be preserved on the premises described in the license in a manner that ensures permanency and accessibility for inspection at reasonable hours by the department.

C. The records required to be maintained pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall be retained for a period of three years from the end of the year in which the transaction occurred, unless otherwise required by law to be retained for a longer period of time.

D. The department and the secretary of the United States department of the treasury, or a designee, may inspect the reports and records required pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act along with any stock of cigarettes in the possession of the manufacturer, distributor or retailer. The department, at its sole discretion, may share those records and reports with law enforcement officials of the federal government, other states and international authorities.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 11; 2009, ch. 197, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, in Subsection A, after "distributor", added "or retailer" and after "receipt or consignment", added "except that".

7-12-11. Export sellers; physical segregation of cigarettes to be exported.

A. A distributor selling and shipping cigarettes outside New Mexico may maintain unstamped packages of cigarettes on the distributor's premises if the unstamped packages to be shipped outside the state are kept in a separate part of the distributor's place of business, physically segregated from packages of cigarettes to be sold inside New Mexico and clearly identified as packages of cigarettes for shipment outside the state. If packages of cigarettes to be sold outside New Mexico are intermingled with packages of cigarettes to be sold inside New Mexico, they shall be stamped and treated for purposes of the Cigarette Tax Act as packages of cigarettes to be sold inside New Mexico.

B. Unstamped packages of cigarettes shall not be transferred by a distributor to another facility of the distributor's or to another person within New Mexico.

C. A person doing business as both a distributor and a retailer or both a distributor and a manufacturer shall maintain separate areas for stamped and unstamped packages of cigarettes.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-14-11, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 11; 2006, ch. 91, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 11, repealed 72-14-11, 1953 Comp., relating to revenue stamps, and enacted a new section.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, in Subsection A, provided that a distributor may maintain unstamped packages on the distributor's premises; added Subsection B to prohibit the transfer of unstamped packages to other facilities; and added Subsection C to provide that a person doing business as both a retailer and a distributor or a distributor and manufacturer shall maintain separate areas for stamped and unstamped packages.

7-12-12. Shipment of unstamped cigarettes in New Mexico.

A. A person that ships unstamped packages of cigarettes into New Mexico other than to a distributor shall first file a notice of the shipment with the department.

B. A person that transports unstamped packages of cigarettes into or within New Mexico shall carry, in the transporting vehicle, invoices or equivalent documents applicable to all cigarettes in the shipment. The invoices or documents shall show:

- (1) the name and address of the consignor or seller;
- (2) the name and address of the consignee or purchaser; and
- (3) the quantity of each brand of cigarettes transported.

C. The provisions of Subsections A and B of this section shall not apply to a common or contract carrier transporting cigarettes through New Mexico to another location pursuant to a proper bill of lading or freight bill that states the quantity, source and destination of the cigarettes.

D. The department may, by regulation, require and prescribe the contents of reports to be filed with the department by persons transporting unstamped packages of cigarettes in New Mexico.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-14-12, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 12; 1988, ch. 95, § 9; 2006, ch. 91, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 12, repealed former 72-14-12, 1953 Comp., relating to the redemption of stamps, and enacted a new section.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, added Subparagraph A to require a person shipping unstamped packages to file a notice of the shipment; added Subsection B to require a person who transports unstamped packages to carry invoices applicable to the cigarettes; and added Subsection C to provide that Subsections A and B do not apply to a common or contract carrier transporting cigarettes through New Mexico to another location.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 18, effective May 17, 2006, repealed 7-12-13 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 77, § 10, relating to penalties for violation of the Cigarette Tax Act. For provisions of former section, see the 2005 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com. For the current comparable provisions, see 7-12-13.1 and 7-12-13.2 NMSA 1978.

7-12-13.1. Civil penalties.

A. Whoever knowingly fails, neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of the Cigarette Tax Act shall be liable for, in addition to any other penalty provided in that act:

- (1) for a first offense, a penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000);
- (2) for a second offense, a penalty of not less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) and no more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500); and
- (3) for a third or subsequent offense, a penalty of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

B. Whoever fails to pay a tax imposed pursuant to the Cigarette Tax Act at the time the tax is due shall, in addition to any other penalty provided in that act, be liable for a penalty of five hundred percent of the tax due but unpaid.

C. Contraband cigarettes in New Mexico and the equipment used to manufacture, package or stamp them are subject to seizure, forfeiture and destruction by the department, its revenue officers or its agents or by other state or local peace officers.

D. Counterfeit stamps for use in New Mexico in the possession of any person and the equipment used to produce them are subject to seizure by the department, its revenue officers or its agents or by other state or local peace officers.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 91, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2006, ch. 91 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 2006, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-12-13.2. Criminal offenses; criminal penalties; seizure and destruction of evidence.

A. Whoever violates a provision of the Cigarette Tax Act or a rule adopted pursuant to that act is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced in accordance with the provisions of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978.

B. Whoever, with intent to defraud, fails to comply with a licensing, reporting or stamping requirement of the Cigarette Tax Act or with a licensing, reporting or stamping rule adopted pursuant to that act is guilty of a fourth degree felony and upon conviction shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

C. Whoever packages cigarettes for sale in New Mexico or whoever sells cigarettes in New Mexico, in packages of other than five, ten, twenty or twenty-five cigarettes is:

(1) for the first offense, guilty of a misdemeanor and when convicted shall be sentenced pursuant to Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978; and

(2) for the second or subsequent offense, guilty of a fourth degree felony and when convicted shall be sentenced pursuant to Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

D. Whoever purchases or otherwise knowingly obtains counterfeit stamps or whoever produces, uses or causes counterfeit stamps to be used is guilty of a fourth degree felony and upon conviction shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

E. Whoever sells or possesses for the purpose of sale contraband cigarettes is in violation of the Cigarette Tax Act and shall have the product and related equipment seized. If convicted of selling or possessing for sale contraband cigarettes, the person shall be sentenced as follows:

(1) a violation with a quantity of fewer than two cartons of contraband cigarettes, or the equivalent, is a petty misdemeanor and is punishable in accordance with the provisions of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978;

(2) a first violation with a quantity of two cartons or more of contraband cigarettes, or the equivalent, is a misdemeanor and is punishable in accordance with the provisions of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978; and

(3) a second or subsequent violation with a quantity of two cartons or more of contraband cigarettes, or the equivalent, is a fourth degree felony and is punishable by a fine not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or imprisonment for a definite term not to exceed eighteen months, or both, and shall also result in the revocation by the department of the manufacturer's or distributor's license, if any.

F. Contraband cigarettes or counterfeit stamps seized by the department or by a law enforcement agency shall be retained as evidence to the extent necessary. Contraband cigarettes or counterfeit stamps no longer needed as evidence shall be destroyed.

G. Prosecution for a violation of a provision of this section does not preclude prosecution under other applicable laws.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1983, ch. 211, § 42, repealed 7-12-14 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1968, ch. 50, §4, relating to the distribution of cigarette tax revenues, effective July 1, 1983.

7-12-15. County and municipality recreational fund; distribution.

A. There is created in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "county and municipality recreational fund." At the end of each month the state treasurer shall distribute all sums remaining in the county and municipality recreational fund to each county and municipality in the state as follows:

(1) to each county in the proportion that the sales of cigarettes made within the county borders, exclusive of sales within any municipality in that county, bears to the total sales of cigarettes in the state during such month; and

(2) to each municipality in the proportion that the sales of cigarettes made within the municipality during such month bears to the total sales of cigarettes in the state for such month.

B. The funds distributed to the counties and municipalities under this section shall be used for recreational facilities and salaries of instructors and other employees necessary to the operation of such facilities. Such recreational facilities shall be for the use of all persons, and juveniles and elderly persons shall not be excluded. Each county or municipality shall establish a fund to be known as the "recreational fund" into which all moneys received from the county and municipality recreational fund shall be deposited. As used in this section, "juvenile" means every person under the age of majority and "elderly person" means every person over the age of sixty years.

7-12-17. Reporting requirements; penalty.

A. Each person who sells in New Mexico cigarettes manufactured by that person or who receives on consignment or buys cigarettes either directly from the manufacturer or from any out-of-state person for resale in New Mexico shall report to the department by the twenty-fifth day of each month that person's sales of cigarettes during the preceding month in each municipality and within that portion of each county outside of the municipalities located in that county. The department shall then advise the state treasurer of the proportion of the total sales of cigarettes for the month within each municipality and within that portion of each county outside of municipalities, including sales of cigarettes to tribes or tribal members in a county or municipality. The reports of such persons shall, upon receipt by the department, become public records.

B. Any person who sells in New Mexico cigarettes manufactured by that person or who receives on consignment or buys cigarettes for resale in New Mexico who willfully fails to render accurately the reports required by this section and any municipal or county officer who approves any expenditure or expends funds distributed from the county and municipality recreational fund for any purposes other than permitted by Section 7-12-15 NMSA 1978 is guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

C. Any tobacco product manufacturer, stamping agent or importer of cigarettes, or any officer, employee or agent of any such entity, who knowingly makes a materially false statement in any record required to be kept by the Cigarette Tax Act, or in any report or return required to be filed with the department by the Cigarette Tax Act, is guilty of a fourth degree felony.

7-12A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Tobacco Products Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "cigar" means a roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco and weighing greater than four and one-half pounds per thousand;

C. "distribute" means to sell or to give;

D. "closed system cartridge" means a single-use, pre-filled disposable cartridge containing five milliliters or less of e-liquid for use in an e-cigarette;

E. "e-cigarette" means any electronic oral device, whether composed of a heating element and battery or an electronic circuit, that provides a vapor of nicotine or any other substance the use or inhalation of which simulates smoking and includes any such device, or any part thereof, whether manufactured, distributed, marketed or sold as an e-cigarette, e-cigar, e-pipe or any other product, name or descriptor. "E-cigarette" does not include any product regulated as a drug or device by the United States food and drug administration under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act;

F. "e-liquid" means liquid or other substance intended for use in an e-cigarette, not including any substance containing cannabis or oil derived from cannabis;

G. "engaging in business" means carrying on or causing to be carried on any activity with the purpose of direct or indirect benefit;

H. "first purchaser" means a person engaging in business in New Mexico that manufactures tobacco products or that purchases or receives on consignment tobacco products from any person outside of New Mexico, which tobacco products are to be distributed in New Mexico in the ordinary course of business;

I. "little cigar" means a roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, using an integrated cellulose acetate or other similar filter, and weighing not more than four and one-half pounds per thousand;

J. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, other association or gas, water or electric utility owned or operated by a county or municipality or other entity of the state; "person" also means, to the extent permitted by law, a federal, state or other governmental unit or subdivision or an agency, department or instrumentality;

K. "product value" means the amount paid, net of any discounts taken and allowed, for tobacco products or, in the case of tobacco products received on consignment, the value of the tobacco products received or, in the case of tobacco products manufactured and sold in New Mexico, the proceeds from the sale by the manufacturer of the tobacco products; and

L. "tobacco product" means:

(1) any product, other than cigarettes, cigars and little cigars, made from or containing tobacco;

(2) e-liquid;

(3) e-cigarettes; and

(4) closed system cartridges.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12A-2, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 112, § 3; 1988, ch. 95, § 12; 2009, ch. 197, § 20; 2019, ch. 270, § 42.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, see 42 U.S.C. § 301 et seq.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, defined "cigar", "closed system cartridge", "e-cigarette", "e-liquid" and "little cigar", and revised the definitions of certain terms, as used in the Tobacco Products Tax Act; added a new Subsection B and redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection C; added new Subsections D through F and redesignated former Subsections C and D as Subsections G and H, respectively; added a new Subsection I and redesignated former Subsections E through G as Subsections J through L, respectively; and in Subsection L, Paragraph L(1), after "cigarettes", added "cigars and little cigars", and added Paragraphs L(2) through L(4).

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, added Subsection B; in Subsection D, after "which tobacco products are to be", deleted "sold" and added "distributed"; and in Subsection E, after "joint venture, syndicate", added "limited liability company, limited liability partnership, other association or gas, water or electric utility owned or operated by a county or municipality"; after "other entity of the state", deleted "of New Mexico or any political subdivision thereof" and added the definition of "person".

7-12A-3. Imposition and rates of tax; reduction of rate for certain tobacco products; denomination as "tobacco products tax"; date payment of tax due.

A. For the manufacture or acquisition of tobacco products in New Mexico, not including cigars, little cigars, e-liquid, e-cigarettes or closed system cartridges, to be distributed in the ordinary course of business and for the consumption of tobacco products in New Mexico, there is imposed an excise tax at the rate of twenty-five percent of the product value of the tobacco products.

B. For the manufacture or acquisition of cigars in New Mexico to be distributed in the ordinary course of business and for the consumption of cigars in New Mexico, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate equal to twenty-five percent of the product value of the cigar, not to exceed fifty cents ($.50) per cigar.

C. For the manufacture or acquisition of little cigars in New Mexico to be distributed in the ordinary course of business and for the consumption of little cigars in New Mexico, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate equal to the rate imposed on cigarettes pursuant to Section 7-12-3 NMSA 1978 per package of little cigars.

D. For the manufacture or acquisition of e-liquid in New Mexico to be distributed in the ordinary course of business and for the consumption of e-liquid in New Mexico, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate equal to twelve and one-half percent of the product value of the e-liquid.

E. For the manufacture or acquisition of closed system cartridges in New Mexico to be distributed in the ordinary course of business, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate of fifty cents ($.50) per closed system cartridge.

H[F]. The taxes imposed by this section may be referred to as the "tobacco products tax".

I[G]. The tobacco products tax shall be paid by the first purchaser on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12A-3, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 112, § 4; 1988, ch. 95, § 13; 2009, ch. 197, § 21; 2019, ch. 270, § 43.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 43, contained Subsections F and G, that were line-item vetoed by the governor:

F. The taxes imposed by this section shall be reduced by fifty percent for a tobacco product, cigar or little cigar for which a modified risk tobacco product order has been issued by the United States secretary of health and human services pursuant to Section 21 U.S.C. 387k(g)(1).

G. The taxes imposed by this section shall be reduced by twenty-five percent for a tobacco product, cigar or little cigar for which a modified risk tobacco product order has been issued by the United States secretary of health and human services pursuant to Section 21 U.S.C. 387k(g)(2).

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, provided excise tax rates for cigars, little cigars, e-liquid, e-cigarettes and closed system cartridges, and provided a reduction of the tax rate for certain tobacco products; in the section heading, added "reduction of rate for certain tobacco products"; in Subsection A, added "not including cigars, little cigars, e-liquid, e-cigarettes or closed system cartridges"; added new Subsections B through G and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections H and I, respectively; and in Subsection H, after "imposed by", deleted "Subsection A of".

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, in Subsection A, after "products in New Mexico", deleted "for sale" and added "to be distributed" and after "ordinary course of business", added "and for the consumption of tobacco products of New Mexico".

7-12A-4. Exemption; tobacco products tax.

A. Exempted from the tobacco products tax is the product value of tobacco products sold:

- (1) to or by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof;
- (2) to the governing body or any enrolled tribal member licensed by the governing body of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo to be distributed on the reservation or pueblo grant of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo; or
- (3) the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision thereof.

B. As used in this section, the term "agency or instrumentality" does not include persons who are agents or instrumentalities of the United States for a particular purpose or only when acting in a particular capacity or corporate agencies or instrumentalities.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12A-4, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 112, § 5; 2009, ch. 197, § 22.

ANNOTATIONS

7-12A-8. Retention of invoices and records; inspection by department.

A. Each person who sells tobacco products in New Mexico for resale in New Mexico shall maintain a file of copies of the invoices of sale for three years from the end of the year the sale was made. The invoices shall indicate the date of sale of the tobacco products, quantity of tobacco products sold, the price received and the name and address of the purchaser.

B. Each person who sells tobacco products in New Mexico shall maintain a file of copies of invoices under which the person purchased tobacco products for three years from the end of the year during which tobacco products were purchased. The invoices shall indicate the date of purchase, the quantity of tobacco products purchased, the price paid and the name and address of the seller.

C. All invoices required to be kept under this section may be inspected by the department along with any stock of tobacco products in the possession of the purchaser or seller.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-12A-8, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 112, § 9; 1988, ch. 95, § 15.

7-12A-9. Penalties.

Any person selling tobacco products in New Mexico and required by the provisions of Section 7-12A-8 NMSA 1978 to retain invoices who willfully fails to retain the invoices shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500). Jurisdiction over such actions is hereby granted to the magistrate courts.

53 C.J.S. Licenses § 34.

7-13-2. Definitions.

As used in the Gasoline Tax Act:

A. "aviation gasoline" means gasoline sold for use in aircraft propelled by engines other than turbo-prop or jet-type engines;

B. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

C. "distributor" means any person, not including the United States of America or any of its agencies except to the extent now or hereafter permitted by the constitution and laws thereof, who receives gasoline in this state. "Distributor" shall be construed so that a person simultaneously may be both a distributor and a retailer or importer;

D. "drip gasoline" means a combustible hydrocarbon liquid formed as a product of condensation from either associated or nonassociated natural or casing head gas and that remains a liquid at room temperature and pressure;

E. "ethanol blended fuel" means gasoline containing a minimum of ten percent by volume of denatured ethanol, of at least one hundred ninety-nine proof, exclusive of denaturants;

F. "fuel supply tank" means any tank or other receptacle in which or by which fuel may be carried and supplied to the fuel-furnishing device or apparatus of the propulsion mechanism of a motor vehicle when the tank or receptacle either contains gasoline or gasoline is delivered into it;

G. "gallon" means the quantity of liquid necessary to fill a standard United States gallon liquid measure or that same quantity adjusted to a temperature of sixty degrees fahrenheit at the election of any distributor, but a distributor shall report on the same basis for a period of at least one year;

H. "gasoline" means any flammable liquid hydrocarbon used primarily as fuel for the propulsion of motor vehicles, motorboats or aircraft except for diesel engine fuel, kerosene, liquefied petroleum gas, compressed or liquefied natural gas and products specially prepared and sold for use in aircraft propelled by turbo-prop or jet-type engines;

I. "government-licensed vehicle" means a motor vehicle lawfully displaying a registration plate, as defined in the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978], issued by the United States or any state, identifying the motor vehicle as belonging to the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities or an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any of its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities;

J. "highway" means every road, highway, thoroughfare, street or way, including toll roads, generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of motor vehicle travel regardless of whether it is temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair;

K. "motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle or device that is either subject to registration under Section 66-3-1 NMSA 1978 or used or that may be used on the public highways in whole or in part for the purpose of transporting persons or property and includes any connected trailer or semitrailer;

L. "person" means an individual or any other entity, including, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other government or any department, agency, instrumentality or political subdivision of any federal, state or other government;

M. "rack operator" means the operator of a refinery in this state or the owner of gasoline stored at a pipeline terminal in this state;

N. "registered Indian tribal distributor" means an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo recognized by the United States whose reservation or pueblo grant lies wholly or partly in this state, a corporation or other enterprise wholly owned by that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or a corporation or other enterprise wholly owned by one or more members of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo that is registered with the department as a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act; provided that the department shall register a corporation or other enterprise as an Indian tribal distributor only upon certification by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo that the corporation or other enterprise is wholly owned by that nation, tribe or pueblo or wholly owned by one or more of its members;

O. "retailer" means a person who sells gasoline generally in quantities of thirty-five gallons or less and delivers such gasoline into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. "Retailer" shall be construed so that a person simultaneously may be both a retailer and a distributor or wholesaler;

P. "secretary" means the secretary of taxation and revenue or the secretary's delegate;

Q. "taxpayer" means a person required to pay gasoline tax;

R. "unloaded" means removal of gasoline from tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment into a nonmobile container at the place at which the unloading takes place; and

S. "wholesaler" means a person who is not a distributor and who sells gasoline in quantities of thirty-five gallons or more and does not deliver such gasoline into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. "Wholesaler" shall be construed so that a person simultaneously may be a wholesaler and a retailer.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-2, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 2; 1977, ch. 249, § 59; 1979, ch. 166, § 5; 1983, ch. 204, § 2; 1986, ch. 20, § 73; 1987, ch. 46, § 1; 1993, ch. 32, § 1; 1997, ch. 192, § 1; 1999, ch. 190, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted present Subsection N for former Subsection N which defined "received".

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, deleted " 'division' or" at the beginning of Subsection B and " 'director' or" at the beginning of Subsection C; inserted "limited liability company, limited liability partnership," in Paragraph (1) of Subsection J; deleted "manufactured exclusively in New Mexico" following both "fuel" and "ethanol" in Subsection N; and made minor stylistic changes in Subsections D, E, and M.

7-13-2.1. When gasoline received and by whom.

A. Gasoline that is produced, refined, manufactured, blended or compounded at a refinery in this state or stored at a pipeline terminal in this state by a person is received by that person when it is loaded there into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment, or when it is placed there into a tank or other container from which sales or deliveries not involving transportation are made; however:

(1) when gasoline is delivered at the refinery or pipeline terminal to a person registered as a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act, then it is received there by the distributor to whom it is delivered at the time of the delivery;

(2) when gasoline is delivered at the refinery or pipeline terminal to a person not registered as a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act for the account of a person that is registered as a distributor, it is received there by the distributor for whose account it is delivered at the time of delivery; and

(3) gasoline is not received when it is shipped from one refinery or pipeline terminal to another refinery or pipeline terminal.

B. Gasoline imported into New Mexico by any means other than in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or by pipeline is received at the time and place it is imported into this state. The person who owns the gasoline at the time of importation receives the gasoline at the time and place of importation unless the gasoline is delivered to a person who is registered as a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act, in which case the distributor is deemed to have received the gasoline at the time and place of importation.

C. Any product other than gasoline that is blended in this state to produce gasoline other than at a refinery or pipeline terminal is received by the person who is the owner of the gasoline at the time and place the blending is completed.

D. If gasoline is received within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation or pueblo grant and the gasoline tax is not paid with respect to the gasoline by the person receiving the gasoline within the exterior boundaries of the Indian reservation or pueblo grant, the gasoline is also received when the gasoline is transported off the reservation or pueblo grant by any means other than in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle. In such a case, the person who owns the gasoline immediately after the time of transportation off the reservation or pueblo grant or, if the gasoline is delivered to a person registered as a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act, the distributor receives the gasoline at the time and place the gasoline is transported off the reservation or pueblo grant.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13-2.1, enacted by Laws 1999, ch. 190, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1999, ch. 190, § 4 made Laws 1999, ch. 190, § 2 effective July 1, 1999.

7-13-3. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination as "gasoline tax".

A. For the privilege of receiving gasoline in this state, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate provided in Subsection B of this section on each gallon of gasoline received in New Mexico.

B. The tax imposed by Subsection A of this section shall be seventeen cents ($.17) per gallon received in New Mexico.

C. The tax imposed by this section may be called the "gasoline tax".

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Subsection B of Laws 1995, ch. 6, § 20 repealed 7-13-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1994, ch. 5, § 23, relating to the imposition and rate of the gasoline tax and which was to become effective August 1, 1997, effective June 16, 1995.

Laws 2003, ch. 289, § 1 repealed the Laws 1995, ch. 6, § 11 repeal and reenactment of this section, effective June 20, 2003.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 1997, ch. 192, § 15, effective June 1, 1997, provided that gasoline received by a distributor pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act or special fuel received by a supplier pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act prior to the effective date of this act shall be subject to gasoline tax or special fuel excise tax, as appropriate, pursuant to the provisions of the Gasoline Tax Act or Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "seventeen cents ($.17)" for "twenty cents ($.20)" in Subsection B.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "twenty cents ($.20)" for "twenty-two cents ($.22)" in Subsection B.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison was impracticable.

The 1989 amendment, effective July 1, 1989, in Subsection B, substituted "sixteen cents ($.16) per gallon" for "fourteen cents ($.14) per gallon".

Right to impose tax. — A state may impose a license tax upon the distribution and sale of gasoline in domestic commerce if it does not make its payment a condition of carrying on interstate or foreign commerce; gasoline imported from another state and used to conduct the business of the distributor may be taxed, for it loses its interstate character and the tax is an excise tax on its use. Bowman v. Cont'l Oil Co., 256 U.S. 642, 41 S. Ct. 606, 65 L. Ed. 1139 (1921).

Preemption by Self-Determination Act. — To the extent that the Gasoline Tax Act imposes a tax on Indian entities, where that tax would not be imposed if the gasoline were sold to a federal agency providing the same services as the Indian entity, the tax imposed is preempted by the Self-Determination Act, 25 U.S.C.S. §§ 450-458. Ramah Navajo Sch. Bd., Inc. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1999-NMCA-050, 127 N.M. 101, 977 P.2d 1021, cert. denied, 127 N.M. 389, 981 P.2d 1207.

Former excise tax on use of gasoline offended commerce clause of the federal constitution and could not be enforced in the case of one purchasing gasoline in another state and using it in this state as fuel for interstate air commerce. Transcon. & W. Air, Inc. v. Lujan, 1931-NMSC-064, 36 N.M. 64, 8 P.2d 103.

7-13-3.1. Gasoline inventory tax; imposition of tax; date payment of tax due.

A. A gasoline inventory tax is imposed measured by the quantity of gallons of gasoline in the possession of a distributor or wholesaler on the day in which an increase in the excise tax imposed by Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978 is effective. The taxable event is the existence of an inventory in the possession of a distributor or wholesaler on the day prior to the day in which an increase in the excise tax imposed by Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978 is effective. The rate of the gasoline inventory tax to apply on each gallon of gasoline held in inventory by a distributor or wholesaler, as provided in Section 7-13-3.2 NMSA 1978, shall be the difference between the gasoline excise tax rate imposed on the day prior to the day in which the gasoline excise tax is increased subtracted from the gasoline excise tax rate imposed on the day that the gasoline excise tax rate increase is effective, expressed in cents per gallon.

B. The gasoline inventory tax is to be paid to the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13-3.1, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 166, § 7; 1993, ch. 32, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, in Subsection A, substituted "the day" for "July 1 of the calendar year" in the first sentence and "the day prior to the day" for "July 1 of the calendar year" in the second sentence, and in the third sentence, substituted "on the day prior to the day" for "through June of the calendar year", deleted "increased" following "subtracted from the", and substituted "the day that the gasoline excise tax rate increase is effective" for "July 1 of that same calendar year"; deleted former Subsection B, pertaining to inclusion in the inventory tax of the selling price of gasoline; redesignated former Subsection C as current Subsection B; and substituted "department" for "division" in current Subsection B.

7-13-3.2. Gasoline inventories.

A. On the day prior to the day that the excise tax imposed by Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978 is increased, each distributor, wholesaler and retailer shall take inventory of the gallons of gasoline on hand.

B. Distributors and wholesalers shall report total gallons of gasoline in inventory on the day prior to the day that an increase in the gasoline tax rate is effective and pay any tax due imposed by Section 7-13-3.1 NMSA 1978.

C. Retailers shall maintain a record of the total gallons of gasoline in inventory on the day prior to the day that an increase in the gasoline tax rate is effective and shall not increase the price of the gasoline sold until the inventory is disposed of in the ordinary course of business.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13-3.2, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 166, § 8; 1985, ch. 35, § 2; 1993, ch. 32, § 4; 1994, ch. 5, § 24; 1995, ch. 70, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, deleted Subsection D which read: "The department shall promulgate regulations required to administer this section."

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, deleted "or decreased" following "increased" in Subsection A, "or decrease" following "increase" and "excise" following "the gasoline" in Subsection B, and "excise" following "in the gasoline" and "or reduce" following "not increase" in Subsection C.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "On the day prior to the day that the excise tax imposed by Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978 is increased or decreased" for "On July 1 of the calendar year in which the excise tax is imposed by Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978" in Subsection A, "the day prior to the day that an increase or decrease in the gasoline excise tax rate is effective" for July 1" in Subsections B and C, and "department" for "division" in Subsection D.

7-13-3.3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1994, ch. 5, § 27, repealed 7-13-3.3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 166, § 9, relating to the gasoline inventory tax rebate, effective May 18, 1994. For provisions of former section, see the 1993 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-13-3.4. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 23 repealed 7-13-3.4 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 70, § 10, relating to petroleum storage cleanup fund surcharge, effective July 1, 1990. For provisions of former section, see the 1989 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-13-3.5. Bond required of taxpayers.

A. Except as provided in Subsection H of this section, every taxpayer shall file with the department a bond on a form approved by the attorney general with a surety company authorized by the state corporation commission [public regulation commission] to transact business in this state as a surety and upon which bond the taxpayer is the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the taxpayer to the department of all taxes levied by the Gasoline Tax Act, together with all applicable penalties and interest thereon.

B. In lieu of the bond, the taxpayer may elect to file with the department cash or bonds of the United States or New Mexico or of any political subdivision of the state.

C. The total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of any taxpayer shall be fixed by the department and may be increased or reduced by the department at any time, subject to the limitations provided in this section.

D. In fixing the total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of any taxpayer required to post bond, the department shall require an equivalent in total amount to at least two times the amount of the department's estimate of the taxpayer's monthly gasoline tax, determined in such manner as the secretary may deem proper; provided, however, the total amount of bond, cash or securities required of a taxpayer shall never be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

E. In the event the department decides that the amount of the existing bond, cash or securities is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the gasoline tax and any penalties and interest for which the taxpayer is or may at any time become liable, then the taxpayer, upon written demand of the department mailed to the last known address of the taxpayer as shown on the records of the department, shall file an additional bond, cash or securities in the manner, form and amount determined by the department to be necessary to secure at all times the payment by the taxpayer of all taxes, penalties and interest due under the Gasoline Tax Act.

F. A surety on a bond furnished by a taxpayer as required by this section shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on the bond after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety files with the department a written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that such request shall not operate to release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or that shall accrue before the expiration of the ninety-day period, unless a new bond is filed during the ninety-day period, in which case the previous bond may be canceled as of the effective date of the new bond. On receipt of notice of such request, the department promptly shall notify the taxpayer who furnished the bond that the taxpayer, on or before the expiration of the ninety-day period, shall file with the department a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form required in this section.

G. The taxpayer required to file bond with or provide cash or securities to the department in accordance with this section and who is required by another state law to file another bond with or provide cash or securities to the department may elect to file a combined bond or provide cash or securities applicable to the provisions of both this section and the other law, with the approval of the secretary. The amount of the combined bond, cash or securities shall be determined by the department, and the form of the combined bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

H. Every taxpayer who, for the twenty-four month period immediately preceding July 1, 1994, has not been a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act is exempt from the requirement pursuant to this section to file a bond. A taxpayer required to file a bond pursuant to the provisions of this section who, for a twenty-four consecutive month period ending after July 1, 1994, has not been a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act may request to be exempt from the requirement to file a bond beginning with the first day of the first month following the end of the twenty-four month period. If a taxpayer exempted pursuant to this subsection subsequently becomes a delinquent taxpayer under the Gasoline Tax Act, the department may terminate the exemption and require the filing of a bond in accordance with this section. If the department terminates the exemption, the termination shall not be effective any earlier than ten days after the date the department notifies the taxpayer in writing of the termination.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 1998, ch. 108, § 80 provided that references to the state corporation commission be construed as references to the public regulation commission.

7-13-4. Deductions; gasoline tax.

In computing the gasoline tax due, the following amounts of gasoline may be deducted from the total amount of gasoline received in New Mexico during the tax period, provided satisfactory proof thereof is furnished to the department:

A. gasoline received in New Mexico, but exported from this state by a rack operator, distributor or wholesaler other than in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or sold for export by a rack operator or distributor; provided that, in either case:

(1) the person exporting the gasoline is registered in or licensed by the destination state to pay that state's gasoline or equivalent fuel tax;

(2) proof is submitted that the destination state's gasoline or equivalent fuel tax has been paid or is not due with respect to the gasoline; or

(3) the destination state's gasoline or equivalent fuel tax is paid to New Mexico in accordance with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 9-11-12 NMSA 1978 with the destination state;

B. gasoline received in New Mexico sold to the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof. Gasoline sold to the United States includes gasoline delivered into the supply tank of a government-licensed vehicle of the United States;

C. gasoline received in New Mexico sold to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or a political subdivision, agency or instrumentality of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo for the exclusive use of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or a political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof. Gasoline sold to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo includes gasoline delivered into the supply tank of a government-licensed vehicle of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo;

D. gasoline received in New Mexico, dyed in accordance with department regulations and used in a manner other than for propulsion of motor vehicles on the highways of this state or motorboats or activities ancillary to that propulsion;

E. gasoline received in New Mexico and sold at retail by a registered Indian tribal distributor if:

(1) the sale occurs on the Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land of the distributor's Indian nation, tribe or pueblo;

(2) the gasoline is placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle on that reservation, pueblo grant or trust land; and

(3) the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo has certified to the department that it has in effect an excise, privilege or similar tax on the gasoline; provided that the volume of gasoline deducted pursuant to this subsection shall be the total gallons sold in accordance with the provisions of this subsection multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the rate of the tribal tax certified to the department by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo and the denominator of which is the rate of the gasoline tax imposed pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act, but if the fraction exceeds one, it shall be one for purposes of determining the deduction;

F. gasoline received in New Mexico and sold by a registered Indian tribal distributor from a nonmobile storage container located within that distributor's Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land for resale outside that distributor's Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land; provided the department certifies that the distributor claiming the deduction sold no less than one million gallons of gasoline from a nonmobile storage container located within that distributor's Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land for resale outside that distributor's Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land during the period of May through August 1998; and provided further that the amount of gasoline deducted by a registered Indian tribal distributor pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed two million five hundred thousand gallons per month, calculated as a monthly average during the calendar year. Volumes deducted pursuant to Subsection E of this section shall not be deducted pursuant to this subsection; and

G. gasoline received in New Mexico on which New Mexico gasoline tax was paid by the out-of-state terminal at which the gasoline was loaded, provided that documentation that the gasoline was to be imported into New Mexico was provided to the terminal operator by the person receiving the fuel.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 32 repealed 7-13-4 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 31 and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1992.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, added a new Subsection G to provide a deduction for gasoline received in New Mexico on which New Mexico gasoline tax was paid by the out-of-state terminal at which the gasoline was loaded.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added Subsections E and F and made a related stylistic change.

The 1998 amendment, effective May 20, 1998, deleted "that" following "provided" in the introductory language and added Subsection D, making minor punctuation and stylistic changes.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, rewrote Subsection A, added the second sentence of Subsection B, and added Subsection C.

Preemption by Self-Determination Act. — To the extent that the Gasoline Tax Act imposes a tax on Indian entities, where that tax would not be imposed if the gasoline were sold to a federal agency providing the same services as the Indian entity, the tax imposed is preempted by the Self-Determination Act, 25 U.S.C.S. §§ 450-458. *Ramah Navajo Sch. 7-13-4.4. Additional deduction; certain retail sales on an Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land.

In computing the gasoline tax due, a person other than a registered Indian tribal distributor may deduct from the total amount of gasoline received in New Mexico during the tax period, provided satisfactory proof is provided to the department, gasoline received in New Mexico and sold at retail in New Mexico if:

- A. the sale occurs on an Indian reservation, pueblo grant or trust land;
- B. the gasoline is placed into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle on that reservation, pueblo grant or trust land;
- C. the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo has certified to the department that it has in effect an excise, privilege or similar tax on gasoline; provided that the gallons of gasoline deducted pursuant to this section shall be the total gallons sold in accordance with the provisions of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the rate of the tribal tax certified to the department by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo and the denominator of which is the rate of the gasoline tax imposed pursuant to the Gasoline Tax Act, but, if the fraction exceeds one, the fraction shall be deemed to be one for purposes of determining the deduction; and
- D. the person is subject to and in compliance with the tax on gasoline imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo where the sale occurs.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2000, ch. 50 § 2 made Laws 2000, ch. 50, § 1 effective April 1, 2000.

7-13-5. Tax returns; payment of tax.

Distributors shall file gasoline tax returns in form and content as prescribed by the secretary on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which gasoline is received in New Mexico. Such returns shall be accompanied by payment of the amount of gasoline tax due. The department may require that the tax returns be provided through electronic means as long as an exception is provided for distributors with limited amounts of fuel distributed.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-5, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 5; 1983, ch. 204, § 5; 1993, ch. 32, § 6; 2005, ch. 109, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, provided that the taxation and revenue department may require that tax returns be provided by electronic means if an exception is given to distributors with limited amounts of fuel distributed.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "secretary" for "director" in the first sentence.

7-13-6. Returns by wholesalers; exception.

Wholesalers shall file information returns in form and content as prescribed by the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which gasoline is sold in New Mexico. The department may require that the information returns be provided through electronic means as long as an exception is provided for wholesalers with limited amounts of fuel sold. Sales of gasoline in quantities of thirty-five gallons or more delivered into the fuel tanks of aircraft are not wholesale sales for the purposes of this section, and information returns on such sales need not be filed with the department.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-6, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 6; 1977, ch. 154, § 1; 1983, ch. 204, § 6; 1993, ch. 32, § 7; 2005, ch. 109, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, provided that the taxation and revenue department may require that information returns be provided by electronic means if an exception is given to wholesalers with limited amounts of fuel sold.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "department" for "director" in two places.

7-13-6.1. Returns by retailers; requirements; exception.

Retailers shall file information returns in form and content as prescribed by the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which gasoline is sold in New Mexico. The department may require that the information returns be provided through electronic means if the department provides an exception from that requirement for retailers that purchase limited amounts of fuel.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 16 made Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 5 effective January 1, 2006.

7-13-7. Registration necessary to engage in business as distributor, wholesaler or retailer.

Each person engaged in the business of selling gasoline in New Mexico as a distributor, wholesaler or retailer shall register as such under the provisions of Section 7-1-12 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-7, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 7; 1983, ch. 204, § 7.

7-13-8. Misdemeanor for anyone other than producer, refiner or pipeline company to transport or store drip gasoline; misdemeanor to use drip gasoline in vehicle operated on highways of this state; enforcement by state police; magistrate court jurisdiction.

A. Any person other than a recognized producer, refiner or pipeline company who transports or stores drip gasoline in New Mexico without having in his possession an instrument in writing issued and signed by a recognized seller of gasoline stating the names and addresses of the seller and purchaser, the date of sale and the amount sold and price paid therefor shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or confined in the county jail for a period of not longer than six months, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

B. Whoever uses drip gasoline in a motor vehicle operated on the highways of this state shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or confined in the county jail for a period of not longer than six months, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

C. The New Mexico state police shall have the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of this section.

D. Jurisdiction over actions brought under this section is granted to magistrate courts.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1983, ch. 211, § 42, repealed 7-13-9 NMSA 1978, relating to the distribution of tax revenues, effective July 1, 1983.

7-13-10. Validation of pledges.

All prior pledges of any amounts distributed to municipalities and counties pursuant to Section 64-26-19 NMSA 1953 (being Laws 1967, Chapter 170, Section 8 repealed by Laws 1971, Chapter 207, Section 16) which heretofore have been made to the payment of bonds of municipalities and counties pursuant to Sections 3-31-1, 3-33-24, 3-34-1 through 3-34-4 or 3-39-12 NMSA 1978 or any other statute, and all action of the governing bodies of such municipalities and counties preliminary to and in the authorization of such pledges are validated, ratified, approved and confirmed.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-9.1, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 342, § 5; 1983, ch. 204, § 8.

7-13-11. Claim for refund or credit of gasoline tax paid; on gasoline destroyed by fire, accident or acts of God before retail sale; on gasoline previously received from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal.

A. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, the department shall allow a claim for refund or credit as provided in Sections 7-1-26 and 7-1-29 NMSA 1978 for tax paid on gasoline destroyed by fire, accident or acts of God while in the possession of a distributor, wholesaler or retailer.

B. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, a rack operator may submit, and the department may allow, a claim for refund of a New Mexico tax paid on gasoline previously received in New Mexico from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal in this state and placed in a terminal from which it will be loaded into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment.

C. No person may submit claims for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section more frequently than quarterly. No claim for refund may be submitted or allowed on less than one hundred gallons.

D. The department may prescribe the documents necessary to support a claim for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-27-10, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 10; 1983, ch. 204, § 9; 1993, ch. 32, § 8; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, provided for a refund or credit of a New Mexico tax paid on gasoline previously received from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal in this state; in the catchline added "on gasoline previously received from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal"; added the subsection designation "A" preceding the previously undesignated language; and added Subsections B, C and D.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "to the department" and "department" for "to him" and "director", respectively.

7-13-12. Manifest or bill of lading required when transporting gasoline.

Every person transporting gasoline from a refinery or pipeline terminal in this state, importing gasoline into this state or exporting gasoline from this state, other than by pipeline or in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, shall carry a manifest or bill of lading in form and content as prescribed by or acceptable to the department. The manifest or bill of lading shall be signed by the consignor and by every person accepting the gasoline or any part of it, with a notation as to the amount accepted. If a manifest or bill of lading is not required to be carried by the terms of this section, any person transporting gasoline without such a manifest or bill of lading shall, upon demand, furnish proof acceptable to the department that the gasoline so transported was legally acquired by a registered distributor who assumed liability for payment of the tax imposed by the Gasoline Tax Act.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1983, ch. 211, § 42, repealed 7-13-16 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 207, § 15, relating to the refund gasoline suspense fund, effective July 1, 1983.

7-13-17. Permit to purchase undyed gasoline for certain off-road use and to claim refund of tax.

A. Any person using gasoline in the operation of a clothes cleaning establishment, in stoves or other appliances burning gasoline, or operators of aircraft using aviation gasoline exclusively in the operation of aircraft, upon proper showing of the permit provided for in this section, may purchase gasoline to which dye has not been added and may claim a refund thereon under the provisions of this section.

B. Upon submission of proof satisfactory to the department that the requirements of this subsection have been met, the department shall allow a claim for refund of gasoline tax paid on gasoline purchased and used in the manner described in Subsection A of this section by holders of permits issued under this section. The individual purchases of gasoline, other than that used for aviation fuel, must have been made in quantities of fifty gallons or more. Purchasers of aviation fuel may accumulate invoices to reach the fifty gallon minimum. No claim for refund may be presented or allowed on less than one hundred gallons so purchased. The secretary may prescribe by regulation or instruction the documents necessary to support a claim for refund made pursuant to the provisions of this subsection.

C. The department shall create permits, in form and content as the secretary may prescribe, that will allow persons to purchase gasoline to which dye has not been added for the uses specified in Subsection A of this section. The secretary shall prescribe the method by which a person may apply for a permit.

D. The secretary, upon notice and after hearing, may suspend for a period of up to one year or revoke the gasoline tax refund permit of any person who makes any false statement on an application for a permit or on a claim for refund made pursuant to the provisions of this section, who uses the gasoline in a motor boat or in a vehicle registered to operate on the highways of this state or who violates any other provision of the Gasoline Tax Act.

7-13-18. Dyed gasoline; permissible uses; penalties for misuse.

A. Gasoline distributors and wholesalers who are registered as distributors or wholesalers with the department may sell gasoline to be used other than in motor boats or in vehicles licensed to operate on the highways. These distributors and wholesalers shall mix with the gasoline an identifying dye in a manner consistent with state and federal law and regulations. The department shall furnish without charge the dye upon request. Such dyed gasoline may not be used in motor boats or in vehicles registered to be operated upon the highways of this state.

B. Any person who uses dyed gasoline in a motor boat or in a vehicle registered to be operated upon the highways of this state is liable for a civil penalty for each occurrence in an amount equal to the greater of one hundred dollars ($100) or the rate of the gasoline tax multiplied by the capacity in gallons of the fuel supply tank or tanks of the motor boat or vehicle.

ARTICLE 13A

Petroleum Products Loading Fee

7-13A-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 13A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Petroleum Products Loading Fee Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13A-1, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 25 contained an emergency clause and was approved March 7, 1990.

Cross references. — For the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act, see 7-29B-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

7-13A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Petroleum Products Loading Fee Act :

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "distributor" means any person registered or required to be registered as a rack operator or distributor for purposes of the Gasoline Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 13 NMSA 1978] and any person registered or required to be registered as a rack operator or special fuel supplier for purposes of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 16A NMSA 1978];

C. "gallon" means the quantity of liquid necessary to fill a standard United States gallon liquid measure, which is approximately 3.785 liters, or that same quantity adjusted to a temperature of sixty degrees fahrenheit at the election of any distributor, but a distributor shall report on the same basis for a period of at least one year;

D. "load" means eight thousand gallons of petroleum product;

E. "loading" means the act of placing or causing to be placed any petroleum product that is produced, refined, manufactured, blended or compounded at a refinery in this state or stored at a pipeline terminal in this state into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment or into any tank or other container from which sales or deliveries not involving transportation are made;

F. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity, including any gas, water or electric utility owned or operated by a county, municipality or other political subdivision of the state. "Person" also means, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other government or any department, agency or instrumentality of the state, county, municipality or any political subdivision thereof;

G. "petroleum product" means gasoline as defined in the Gasoline Tax Act and special fuel as defined in the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act; and

H. "secretary" means, unless the context indicates another meaning, the secretary of taxation and revenue or the secretary's delegate; and

I. "unobligated balance of the corrective action fund" means corrective action fund equity less all known or anticipated liabilities against the fund.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13A-2, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 15; 1995, ch. 16, § 13; 1997, ch. 192, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

The 1995 amendment, effective January 1, 1996, inserted "which is approximately 3.785 liters" in Subsection C; rewrote Subsection E which read "'highway' means every way or place, including toll roads, generally open to or intended to be used for public travel by motor vehicles, regardless of whether it is temporarily closed"; rewrote Subsection F which read "'motor vehicle' means any self-propelled vehicle suitable for operation on highways"; rewrote Subsection G; and, in Subsection K, added Paragraph (2) and redesignated former Paragraphs (2) and (3) as Paragraphs (3) and (4).

7-13A-3. Imposition and rate of fee; denomination as "petroleum products loading fee".

A. For the privilege of loading gasoline or special fuel from a rack at a refinery or pipeline terminal in this state into a cargo tank, there is imposed a fee on the distributor at a rate provided in Subsection C of this section on each gallon of gasoline or special fuel loaded in New Mexico on which the petroleum products loading fee has not been previously paid.

B. For the privilege of importing gasoline or special fuel into this state for resale or consumption in this state there is imposed a fee determined as provided in Subsection C of this section on each load of gasoline or special fuel imported into New Mexico for resale or consumption on which the petroleum products loading fee has not been previously paid. For the purposes of this section, "load" means eight thousand gallons of gasoline or special fuel. To determine how many loads a person is to report under the provisions of this section, the person shall divide by eight thousand the total gallons of gasoline reported for the purposes of Section 7-13-3 NMSA 1978 as adjusted under the provisions of Section 7-13-4 NMSA 1978 and the total gallons of special fuels received in New Mexico less any gallons exempted under Section 7-13A-4 NMSA 1978. Loads shall be calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of a load.

C. The fee imposed by this section is and may be referred to as the "petroleum products loading fee" and shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per load or whichever of the following applies:

(1) in the event the secretary of environment certifies that the unobligated balance of the corrective action fund at the end of the prior fiscal year equals or exceeds eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) the fee shall be set at forty dollars ($40.00) per load;

(2) in the event the secretary of environment certifies that the unobligated balance of the corrective action fund at the end of the prior fiscal year exceeds twelve million dollars ($12,000,000) but is less than eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) the fee shall be set at eighty dollars ($80.00) per load;

(3) in the event the secretary of environment certifies that the unobligated balance of the corrective action fund at the end of the prior fiscal year exceeds six million dollars ($6,000,000) but is less than twelve million dollars ($12,000,000) the fee shall be set at one hundred twenty dollars ($120) per load; and

(4) in the event the secretary of environment certifies that the unobligated balance of the corrective action fund at the end of the prior fiscal year is less than six million dollars ($6,000,000) the fee shall be set at one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per load.

D. The amount of the petroleum products loading fee set pursuant to Paragraph (1), (2), (3) or (4) of Subsection C of this section shall be imposed on the first day of the month following expiration of ninety days after the end of the fiscal year for which the certification was made.

E. As used in this section, "unobligated balance of the corrective action fund" means corrective action fund equity less all known or anticipated liabilities against the fund."

The 1996 amendment, effective July 1, 1996, rewrote Subsection C and added Subsections D and E.

7-13A-4. Exemptions.

A. Petroleum products that are either loaded into cargo tanks in New Mexico and exported for resale and consumption outside of New Mexico or are imported into New Mexico and subsequently exported for resale and consumption outside of New Mexico are exempt from the imposition of the petroleum products loading fee.

B. Petroleum products sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof are exempt from the imposition of the petroleum products loading fee.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13A-4, enacted by Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 34.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 34 repealed 7-13A-4 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 33 and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1992.

7-13A-5. Deduction; gasoline or special fuels returned; biodiesel for subsequent blending or resale by a rack operator.

A. Refunds and allowances made to buyers for gasoline or special fuels returned to the refiner, pipeline terminal operator or distributor or amounts of gasoline or special fuels, the payment for which has not been collected and has been determined to be uncollectible pursuant to provisions of regulations issued by the secretary may be deducted from gallons used to determine loads for the purposes of calculating the petroleum products loading fee. If such a payment is subsequently collected, the gallons represented shall be included in determining loads. The deduction under the provisions of this section shall not be allowed if the petroleum products loading fee has not been paid previously on the petroleum products that were returned to the seller or the sale of which created an uncollectible debt.

B. Biodiesel, as defined in the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 16A NMSA 1978], loaded in or imported into New Mexico and delivered to a rack operator for subsequent blending or resale by a rack operator may be deducted from gallons used to determine loads for the purposes of calculating the petroleum products loading fee.

C. A taxpayer that deducts an amount of biodiesel pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall report the deducted amount separately with the taxpayer's return in a manner prescribed by the department.

D. The department shall calculate the aggregate amount, in dollars, of the difference between the amount of the petroleum products loading fee that would have been collected in a fiscal year if not for the deduction allowed pursuant to Subsection B of this section and the amount of the petroleum products loading fee actually collected. The department shall compile an annual report that includes the aggregate amount, the number of taxpayers that deducted an amount of biodiesel pursuant to Subsection B of this section and any other information necessary to evaluate the deduction. Beginning in 2019 and every five years thereafter, the department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the costs and benefits to the state of the deduction.

E. For purposes of this section, "rack operator" means the operator of a refinery in this state or the owner of special fuel stored at a pipeline terminal in this state.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13A-5, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 18; 2014, ch. 18, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective May 21, 2014, provided a deduction for certain biodiesel for subsequent blending or resale by a rack operator; in the catchline, after "returned", added "biodiesel for subsequent blending or resale by a rack operator; and added Subsections B, C, D and E.

Applicability. — Laws 2014, ch. 18, § 2 provided that Laws 2014, ch. 18, § 1 applies to biodiesel loaded in or imported into New Mexico on or after July 1, 2014.

7-13A-6. Fee returns; payment of fee.

Any person who either loads gasoline or special fuel in New Mexico and any person who imports gasoline or special fuel into New Mexico for resale or consumption in New Mexico shall file petroleum products loading fee returns in form and content as prescribed by the secretary on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which petroleum products are either loaded in New Mexico or imported into New Mexico. Such returns shall be accompanied by payment of the amount of the petroleum products loading fee due.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-13A-6, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1990, ch. 124, § 25 contained an emergency clause and was approved March 7, 1990.

7-13A-7. Claim for refund of petroleum products loading fee on products previously loaded from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal.

A. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, a distributor may claim, and the department may allow, a claim for refund of the petroleum products loading fee paid on petroleum products previously loaded in New Mexico from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal in this state and placed in a terminal from which it will be loaded into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment.

B. No person may submit claims for refund pursuant to this section more frequently than quarterly. No claim for refund may be submitted or allowed on less than one hundred gallons.

C. The department may prescribe the documents necessary to support a claim for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section.

ARTICLE 14

Motor Vehicle Excise Tax

7-14-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 14 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-1, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 11 effective July 1, 1988.

7-14-2. Definitions.

As used in the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or an employee of that department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "manufactured home" means a structure that exceeds either a width of eight feet or a length of thirty-two feet, when equipped for the road;

C. "motor vehicle" means every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from batteries or from overhead trolley wires but not operated upon rails;

D. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture or syndicate; "person" also means, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other governmental unit or subdivision or an agency, department or instrumentality thereof;

E. "secretary" means the secretary of taxation and revenue or the secretary's delegate;

F. "tax" means the motor vehicle excise tax imposed under the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act; and

G. "vehicle" means every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, including any frame, chassis or body of any vehicle or motor vehicle, except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-2, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 12 effective July 1, 1988.

7-14-3. Imposition of motor vehicle excise tax.

An excise tax, subject to the credit provided by Section 7-14-7.1, is imposed upon the sale in this state of every vehicle, except as otherwise provided in Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978 and manufactured homes, required under the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] to be registered in this state. To prevent evasion of the excise tax imposed by the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act and the duty to collect it, it is presumed that the issuance of every original and subsequent certificate of title for vehicles of a type required to be registered under the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code constitutes a sale for tax purposes, unless specifically exempted by the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act or unless there is shown proof satisfactory to the department that the vehicle for which the certificate of title is sought came into the possession of the applicant as a voluntary transfer without consideration or as a transfer by operation of law. The excise tax imposed by this section shall be known as the "motor vehicle excise tax".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-3, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 13; 1991, ch. 197, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, inserted "subject to the credit provided by Section 7-14-7.1" and "as otherwise provided in Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978" in the first sentence.

Used car dealership was not entitled to a refund of excise taxes paid for vehicles that were eventually returned. — The legislature did not intend for the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act, 7-14-1 to 7-14-11 NMSA 1978 (Act), to provide a tax exemption for returned and refunded vehicles, as evinced by the inclusion of such exemption in the context of gross receipts tax and the exclusion thereof under the Act, and therefore the New Mexico taxation and revenue department did not err in denying taxpayer's requested refund of excise taxes paid for 175 vehicles that were eventually returned to taxpayer. This section is bereft of any language implying an exemption for returned and refunded vehicles. Drivetime Car Sales Co. v. N.M. Tax'n Revenue Dep't, 2024-NMCA-039, cert. denied.

7-14-4. Determination of amount of motor vehicle excise tax.

The rate of the motor vehicle excise tax is four percent and is applied to the price paid for the vehicle. If the price paid does not represent the value of the vehicle in the condition that existed at the time it was acquired, the tax rate shall be applied to the reasonable value of the vehicle in such condition at such time. However, allowances granted for vehicle trade-ins may be deducted from the price paid or the reasonable value of the vehicle purchased.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-4, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 14; 2019, ch. 270, § 44.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, increased the motor vehicle excise tax rate; and after "motor vehicle excise tax is", deleted "three" and added "four".

7-14-5. Time of payment of tax.

The tax shall be paid to the department by the applicant for the certificate of title at the time of application for issuance of the certificate.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-5, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 15 effective July 1, 1988.

7-14-6. Exemptions from tax.

A. A person who acquires a vehicle out of state thirty or more days before establishing a domicile in this state is exempt from the tax if the vehicle was acquired for personal use.

B. A person applying for a certificate of title for a vehicle registered in another state is exempt from the tax if the person has previously registered and titled the vehicle in New Mexico and has owned the vehicle continuously since that time.

C. A vehicle with a certificate of title owned by this state or any political subdivision is exempt from the tax.

D. A person is exempt from the tax if the person has a disability at the time the person purchases a vehicle and can prove to the motor vehicle division of the department or its agent that modifications have been made to the vehicle that are:

- (1) due to that person's disability; and
- (2) necessary to enable that person to drive that vehicle or be transported in that vehicle.

E. A person is exempt from the tax if the person is a bona fide resident of New Mexico who served in the armed forces of the United States and who suffered, while serving in the armed forces or from a service-connected cause, the loss or complete and total loss of use of:

- (1) one or both legs at or above the ankle; or
- (2) one or both arms at or above the wrist.

F. A person who acquires a vehicle for subsequent lease shall be exempt from the tax if:

- (1) the person does not use the vehicle in any manner other than holding it for lease or sale or leasing or selling it in the ordinary course of business;
- (2) the lease is for a term of more than six months;
- (3) the receipts from the subsequent lease are subject to the gross receipts tax; and
- (4) the vehicle does not have a gross vehicle weight of over twenty-six thousand pounds.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-6, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 16; 1990, ch. 24, § 1; 1994, ch. 139, § 1; 2004, ch. 66, § 3; 2007, ch. 319, § 1; 2023, ch. 85, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, removed an expired provision related to a tax exemption for certain vehicles; and deleted former Subsection G, which provided "From July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2009, vehicles that are gasoline-electric hybrid vehicles with a United States environmental protection agency fuel economy rating of at least twenty-seven and one-half miles per gallon are eligible for a one-time exemption from the tax at the time of the issuance of the original certificate of title for the vehicle."

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, rewrote Subsection D and added a new Subsection E.

The 2004 amendments, effective July 1, 2004, added Subsection F.

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, added Subsection E.

The 1990 amendment, effective June 1, 1990, deleted former Subsection A relating to the exemption for the person on active duty in the military service or as officers of the public health service and redesignated former Subsections B to E as present Subsections A to D.

7-14-7. Credit against tax.

A. If a vehicle has been acquired through an out-of-state transaction upon which a gross receipts, sales, compensating or similar tax was levied by another state or political subdivision thereof, the amount of the tax paid may be credited against the tax due this state on the same vehicle.

B. If a vehicle has been acquired through a transaction on reservation or trust land within an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, located wholly or partly in New Mexico, upon which a gross receipts, sales, compensating or similar tax was levied by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, the amount of the tax paid may be credited against the tax due this state on the same vehicle.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-7, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 17; 2022, ch. 48, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2022 amendment, effective July 1, 2022, provided a credit against the motor vehicle excise tax for a similar tax paid to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo; and added Subsection B.

7-14-7.1. Credit; vehicles used for short-term leasing; requirements; reports.

A. Upon application of the owner, the secretary shall suspend payment of the tax and issue a certificate of title without payment of the tax for any vehicle the leasing of which is subject to the Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 14A NMSA 1978], if:

- (1) the vehicle is acquired by the owner on or after July 1, 1991;
- (2) the vehicle is required to be registered in this state;
- (3) the owner presents proof satisfactory to the secretary that the owner is registered with the department to pay the leased vehicle gross receipts tax; and
- (4) the owner declares that the vehicle for which issuance of a certificate of title is being applied will be part of a vehicle fleet of at least five vehicles, will be used primarily as a short-term rental vehicle and that each period of rental or lease will not exceed six months.

B. If an owner has paid the motor vehicle excise tax after July 1, 1991 with respect to a vehicle that qualifies for suspension of the motor vehicle excise tax pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the owner may apply for a refund of the motor vehicle excise tax paid, but the application for refund must be made within one year of the date certificate of title was issued to the owner for the vehicle. If application is made after that time, the claim for refund is not timely and the motor vehicle excise tax paid shall not be refunded.

C. On or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the close of the calendar year, the owner shall submit to the department in a form prescribed by the secretary a report indicating the total collections of leased vehicle gross receipts tax collected in lieu of the tax. The report shall also indicate the amount of tax that would have been paid in the state of New Mexico for the preceding calendar year.

D. If the total amount of leased vehicle gross receipts tax is less than the amount of tax that would have been collected, the owner shall pay the difference to the department at the time of filing the report required by Subsection B of this section.

E. Once the total amount of leased vehicle gross receipts tax credited with respect to a vehicle for which payment of the motor vehicle excise tax is suspended pursuant to Subsection A of this section equals or exceeds the amount of motor vehicle excise tax due on that vehicle, or the owner has paid the difference pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the secretary shall cause the records of the department to indicate that the motor vehicle excise tax due with respect to that vehicle is paid in full and that payment is no longer suspended.

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, deleted "motor vehicle excise" preceding "tax" twice in Subsection A, deleted former Subsections C, D, E, F and G, concerning reports of suspended taxes, crediting of suspended taxes against taxes due on the vehicle, adjustment of department records to reflect payments, and payments by vehicle owners of amounts due on the vehicles; and added Subsections C, D and E.

Applicability. — Laws 1994, ch. 104, § 3 made the provisions of §§ 1 and 2 of the act applicable to vehicle registered on or after January 1, 1994, and to vehicles registered during 1993 and for which the motor vehicle excise tax was suspended during the last six months of the year.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted present Subsection B, redesignated former Subsections B to F as present Subsections C to G, and inserted "the vehicle identification number" near the middle of the second sentence of Subsection C.

7-14-8. Imposition of penalty for failure to make timely application.

A penalty of fifty percent of the tax is imposed on any person who is:

A. domiciled in this state and accepts transfer in this state, but fails to apply for a certificate of title within ninety days of the date on which ownership of the vehicle was transferred to the person; or

B. domiciled in this state but accepts transfer outside this state and fails to apply for a certificate of title within ninety days of the date on which the vehicle is brought into this state.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-8, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 18 effective July 1, 1988.

7-14-9. Refunds; procedures.

A. If any person believes that the person has made payment of any motor vehicle excise tax in excess of that for which the person was liable or has been denied any credit against motor vehicle excise tax, that person may claim a refund by directing to the secretary a claim for refund in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

B. The department may authorize refunds of the motor vehicle excise tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-29 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-9, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 19; 1993, ch. 347, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted "protests" following "Refunds" in the catchline; deleted former Subsection B, pertaining to the procedure for protests of denial of a claim for refund; redesignated former Subsection C as present Subsection B; and made minor stylistic changes in Subsection A.

7-14-9.1. Protests.

A. Any person upon whom a penalty is imposed by the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act may protest the imposition of the penalty in accordance with the provisions of Sections 7-1-24 and 7-1-25 NMSA 1978.

B. Any person whose claim for refund of motor vehicle excise tax is denied in whole or in part may protest the denial in accordance with the provisions of Sections 7-1-24 and 7-1-25 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 347, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 347, § 6 made Laws 1993, ch. 347, § 4 effective July 1, 1993.

7-14-9.2. Penalties for failure to submit report or to pay; interest.

A. Any person required to submit the report required by Subsection C of Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978 who does not file the report in the manner and by the date required shall pay a penalty in an amount equal to five percent of the total amount of tax suspended pursuant to Subsection A of Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978 for vehicles required to be included in the report.

B. Any person required to pay any amount pursuant to Subsection D of Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978 who fails to pay the amount by the date required is liable for penalty in an amount equal to the greater of five dollars ($5.00) or two percent per month or any fraction of a month from the date the amount was due multiplied by the amount of tax due but not paid, not to exceed a maximum of ten percent of the tax due but not paid.

C. If any person required to pay any amount pursuant to Subsection D of Section 7-14-7.1 NMSA 1978 fails to pay the amount by the date required, interest shall be paid to the state on such amount in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-67 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 347, § 5; 1994, ch. 104, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, deleted "motor vehicle excise" preceding "tax" in Subsection A; in Subsection B, deleted "of motor vehicle tax" following "any amount," substituted "D" for "F or G," substituted "amount" for "tax" preceding "was due," and deleted "motor vehicle excise" preceding the first occurrence of "tax due"; and in Subsection C, substituted "pursuant to Subsection D" for "of motor vehicle excise tax pursuant to Subsection F or G."

Applicability. — Laws 1994, ch. 104, § 3 made the provisions of §§ 1 and 2 of the act applicable to vehicle registered on or after January 1, 1994, and to vehicles registered during 1993 and for which the motor vehicle excise tax was suspended during the last six months of the year.

7-14-10. Distribution of proceeds.

The receipts from the tax and any associated interest and penalties shall be deposited in the "motor vehicle suspense fund", hereby created in the state treasury. As of the end of each month, the net receipts attributable to the tax and associated penalties and interest shall be distributed as follows:

A. fifty-nine and thirty-nine hundredths percent to the general fund;

B. twenty-one and eighty-six hundredths percent to the state road fund; and

C. eighteen and seventy-five hundredths percent to the transportation project fund.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-14-10, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 20; 1991, ch. 9, § 35; 1993, ch. 347, § 3; 1994, ch. 5, § 25; 2018, ch. 3, § 1; 2019, ch. 270, § 45; 2021, ch. 22, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, changed a distribution of the motor vehicle excise tax from the local governments road fund to the transportation project fund; deleted former Subsection A, deleted subsection designation "B.", deleted the language from former Subsection B, "beginning July 1, 2021", and redesignated former Paragraphs B(1) through B(3) as Subsections A through C, respectively; and in Subsection C, after "percent to the", deleted "local governments road" and added "transportation project".

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised how funds from the motor vehicle suspense fund are distributed; and deleted former Subsections A and B and added new Subsections A and B.

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, distributed a portion of the revenue from the motor vehicle excise tax to the state road fund; in the introductory clause, after "shall be distributed", added "as follows:"; added Subsection A and new subsection designation "B."; and in Subsection B, added "the remainder".

The 1994 amendment, effective August 1, 1994, deleted former Subsections A and B, relating to distribution of receipts, deleted "motor vehicle excise" preceding "tax" in both sentences, and substituted "to the general fund" for "as follows" in the second sentence.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, substituted "governments" for "government's" in Subsection B.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, deleted former Subsection A which read "five-twelfths to the state road fund"; redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections A and B; substituted "three-fourths" for "one-third" in Subsection A; and substituted "one-fourth" for "the remainder" in Subsection B.

7-14-11. Administration by department; authority of department.

A. The department has the authority and duty to administer the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act and to impose, collect and enforce the motor vehicle excise tax.

B. The department has the authority to interpret the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax Act and to promulgate regulations with respect to that act. The extent to which regulations will have retroactive effect shall be stated and, if no such statement is made, they will be applied prospectively only.

ARTICLE 14A

Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax

7-14A-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 14A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax Act".

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 5; 1993, ch. 30, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Chapter 7, Article 14A NMSA 1978" for "Sections 5 through 15 of this Act".

7-14A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "engaging in business" means carrying on or causing to be carried on the leasing of vehicles with the purpose of direct or indirect benefit;

C. "gross receipts" means the total amount of money or the value of other consideration received from leasing vehicles used in New Mexico, but excludes cash discounts allowed and taken, leased vehicle gross receipts tax payable on transactions for the reporting period, gross receipts tax payable pursuant to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978] on transactions for the reporting period and taxes imposed pursuant to the provisions of any local option gross receipts tax, as that term is defined in the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978], that is payable on transactions for the reporting period and any type of time-price differential. Also excluded from "gross receipts" are any gross receipts or sales taxes imposed by an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, provided that the tax is approved, if approval is required by federal law or regulation, by the secretary of the interior of the United States, and provided further that the gross receipts or sales tax imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo provides a reciprocal exclusion for gross receipts, sales or gross receipts-based excise taxes imposed by the state or its political subdivisions. In an exchange in which the money or other consideration received does not represent the value of the lease of the vehicle, "gross receipts" means the reasonable value of the lease of the vehicle. When the leasing of vehicles is made under a leasing contract, the seller or lessor may elect to treat all receipts under those contracts as gross receipts as and when the payments are actually received. "Gross receipts" also includes amounts paid by members of any cooperative association or similar organization for the lease of vehicles by that organization;

D. "leasing" means any arrangement whereby, for a consideration, a vehicle without a driver furnished by the lessor or owner is employed for or by any person other than the owner of the vehicle for a period of not more than six months;

E. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate or other entity; and

F. "vehicle" means a passenger automobile designed to accommodate six or fewer adult [adult] human beings that is part of a fleet of five or more passenger automobiles owned by the same person.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 6; 1995, ch. 70, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law.

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, deleted "or 'division'" following "'department'" in Subsection A, and in Subsection C, substituted "any local option gross receipts tax, as that term is defined in the Tax Administration Act" for "the County Fire Protection Excise Tax Act or any municipality or county sales or gross receipts tax" in the first sentence, and inserted "nation" in two places in the second sentence.

7-14A-3. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination as "leased vehicle gross receipts tax".

A. For the privilege of engaging in business, an excise tax equal to five percent of gross receipts is imposed on any person engaging in business in New Mexico.

B. The tax imposed by this section shall be referred to as the "leased vehicle gross receipts tax".

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 16 made Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 7 effective July 1, 1991.

7-14A-3.1. Imposition and rate; leased vehicle surcharge.

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, there is imposed a surcharge on the leasing of a vehicle to another person by a person engaging in business in New Mexico if the lease is subject to the leased vehicle gross receipts tax. The amount of this surcharge is two dollars ($2.00) for each day the vehicle is leased by the person. The surcharge may be referred to as the "leased vehicle surcharge".

B. The leased vehicle surcharge imposed in Subsection A of this section shall not apply to the lease of a temporary replacement vehicle if the lessee signs a statement that the temporary replacement vehicle is to be used as a replacement for another vehicle that is being repaired, serviced or replaced. For the purposes of this section, "temporary replacement vehicle" means a vehicle that is:

(1) used by an individual in place of another vehicle that is unavailable for use by the individual due to loss, damage, mechanical breakdown or need for servicing; and

(2) leased temporarily by or on behalf of the individual or loaned temporarily to the individual by a vehicle repair facility or dealer while the other vehicle is being repaired, serviced or replaced.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 359, § 1; 2007, ch. 172, § 22.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added Subsection B.

7-14A-4. Presumption of taxability.

To prevent evasion of the leased vehicle gross receipts tax and the leased vehicle surcharge and to aid in their administration, it is presumed that all receipts of a person engaging in business are subject to the leased vehicle gross receipts tax and that all vehicles leased by that person are subject to the leased vehicle surcharge.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 8; 1993, ch. 359, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "and the leased vehicle surcharge", added the language beginning "and that all vehicles" at the end of the section, and made a minor stylistic change.

7-14A-5. Separately stating the leased vehicle gross receipts tax.

When the leased vehicle gross receipts tax is stated separately on the books of the lessor and if the total amount of tax that is stated separately on transactions reportable within one reporting period is in excess of the amount of leased vehicle gross receipts tax otherwise payable on the transactions on which the tax was separately stated, the excess amount of tax stated on the transactions within that reporting period shall be included in gross receipts.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 16 made Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 9 effective July 1, 1991.

7-14A-6. Date payment due.

The tax and the surcharge imposed by the Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax Act are to be paid on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 10; 1993, ch. 359, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "and the surcharge" and made a minor stylistic change.

7-14A-7. Deduction; transactions in interstate commerce.

Receipts from transactions in interstate commerce may be deducted from gross receipts to the extent that the imposition of the leased vehicle gross receipts tax would be unlawful under the United States constitution.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 16 made Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 11 effective July 1, 1991.

7-14A-8. Deduction; trade-in allowance.

Receipts represented by allowances granted for vehicle trade-ins may be deducted from gross receipts.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 16 made Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 12 effective July 1, 1991.

7-14A-9. Repealed.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 13; repealed by Laws 2023, ch. 85, § 28.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2023, ch. 85, § 28 repealed 7-14A-9 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 13, relating to exemption, vehicles titled before July 1, 1991, effective July 1, 2023. For provisions of former section, see the 2022 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-14A-10. Distribution of proceeds.

At the end of each month, the net receipts attributable to the leased vehicle gross receipts tax and any associated penalties and interest shall be distributed as follows:

- A. one-fourth to the local governments road fund; and
- B. three-fourths to the highway infrastructure fund.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 14; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 9, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted present Subsections A and B for former Subsections A and B, relating to the manner of distribution of the net receipts.

7-14A-11. Administration.

A. The department shall interpret the provisions of the Leased Vehicle Gross Receipts Tax Act.

B. The department shall administer and enforce the collection of the leased vehicle gross receipts tax and the leased vehicle surcharge, and the Tax Administration Act applies to the administration and enforcement of the tax and the surcharge.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 197, § 15; 1993, ch. 359, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "and the leased vehicle surcharge" near the middle and added "and the surcharge" at the end, in Subsection B.

Trip Tax

7-15-1. Recompiled.

ANNOTATIONS

Recompilations. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 24 recompiled former 7-15-1 NMSA 1978, relating to computation of the trip tax, as 7-15-3.1 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 1988.

7-15-1.1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 15 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Trip Tax Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15-1.1, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 22.

7-15-2. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 56A, repealed 7-15-2 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1943, ch. 125, § 13, relating to exemption from mileage tax of certain vehicles transporting farm products, effective July 1, 1988.

7-15-2.1. Definitions.

As used in the Trip Tax Act:

A. "combination gross vehicle weight" means the sum total of the gross vehicle weights of all units of a combination;

B. "commercial motor carrier vehicle" means any motor vehicle with a gross weight of twelve thousand pounds or more used or reserved for use in the transportation of persons, property or merchandise for hire, compensation or profit or in the furtherance of a commercial enterprise or any vehicle used or maintained primarily for the transportation of property or merchandise or for drawing other vehicles so used or maintained;

C. "department" means the department of transportation, the secretary of transportation and any employee of the department of transportation exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

D. "gross vehicle weight" means the weight of a vehicle without load, plus the weight of any load;

E. "motor vehicle" means every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from batteries or from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails;

F. "registrant" means the person who has registered the vehicle pursuant to the laws of this state or another state;

G. "trip tax" means the use fee imposed under the Trip Tax Act; and

H. "vehicle" means every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, including any frame, chassis or body of any vehicle or motor vehicle, except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15-2.1, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 23; 1998 (1st S.S.), ch. 10, § 1; 2021, ch. 59, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, replaced the department of public safety with the department of transportation in the definition of "department", as used in the Trip Tax Act; and in Subsection C, changed "public safety" to "transportation" throughout, and after "employee of the department", added "of transportation".

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, substituted "department of public safety" and "secretary of public safety" for "taxation and revenue department" and "secretary of revenue", respectively, in Subsection C.

7-15-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 56A repealed 7-15-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1943, ch. 125, § 14, relating to exemption from mileage tax of retail merchants doing business outside of state when transporting farm products to wholesalers or manufacturers, effective July 1, 1988.

7-15-3.1. Trip tax; computation.

A. For the purpose of providing funds for the construction, maintenance, repair and reconstruction of this state's public highways, a use fee, to be known as the "trip tax", is imposed on each trip made in this state by the registrant, owner or operator of a foreign-based commercial motor carrier vehicle and is in lieu of registration fees and the weight distance tax that would otherwise be imposed on the trip on a registrant, owner or operator of any foreign-based commercial motor carrier vehicle that is:

- (1) not registered in this state under interstate registration;
- (2) not registered in this state under proportional registration;
- (3) not subject to a valid reciprocity agreement;
- (4) not registered as a foreign commercial motor carrier vehicle under short-term registration;
- (5) not registered under an allocation of one-way rental fleet vehicles; and
- (6) not exempted from registration and the payment of any registration fees and not exempted from the payment of the trip tax under Section 65-5-3 NMSA 1978.

B. Except as provided otherwise in Subsections C and D of this section, the trip tax shall be computed as follows:

- (1) when the gross vehicle weight or combination gross vehicle weight exceeds twelve thousand pounds but does not exceed twenty-six thousand pounds, seven cents ($.07) a mile for mileage to be traveled on the public highways within New Mexico, measured from the point of entering the state to the point of destination or place of leaving the state;
- (2) when the gross vehicle weight or combination gross vehicle weight exceeds twenty-six thousand pounds and does not exceed fifty-four thousand pounds, twelve cents ($.12) a mile for mileage to be traveled on the public highways within New Mexico, measured from the point of entering the state to the point of destination or place of leaving the state;
- (3) when the gross vehicle weight or combination gross vehicle weight exceeds fifty-four thousand pounds and does not exceed seventy-two thousand pounds, fifteen cents ($.15) a mile for mileage to be traveled on the public highways within New Mexico, measured from the point of entering the state to the point of destination or place of leaving the state; and

(4) when the gross vehicle weight or combination gross vehicle weight exceeds seventy-two thousand pounds, sixteen cents ($.16) a mile for mileage to be traveled on the public highways within New Mexico, measured from the point of entering the state to the point of destination or place of leaving the state.

C. The department, by regulation, shall establish a procedure for the issuance of prepaid trip permits for:

(1) trips by a single vehicle or a fleet of vehicles for the purpose of:

(a) custom harvesting operations; or

(b) the transportation of goods or passengers between the state and Mexico;

or

(2) any vehicle that is unable to declare at the time of entering the state the point of destination or place of leaving the state.

D. Prepaid trip permits established pursuant to Subsection C of this section shall be sold in increments of no less than fifty dollars ($50.00). Any portion not used prior to one year from the date of issuance shall not be refundable. Prepaid trip permits shall not be transferable between a registrant, owner or operator and another registrant, owner or operator. Charges against the prepaid trip permit shall be based on the computations specified in Subsection B of this section.

History: 1941 Comp., § 68-1531, enacted by Laws 1943, ch. 125, § 12; 1953 Comp., § 64-30-12; Laws 1972, ch. 7, § 30; 1980, ch. 59, § 1; 1987, ch. 347, § 13; 1978 Comp., § 7-15-1, recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-15-3.1 by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 24; 1993, ch. 30, § 21; 1994, ch. 49, § 1; 2005, ch. 258, § 1; 2023, ch. 85, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, clarified the amount of the trip tax that may be imposed; and in Subsection A, in the introductory clause, after "is imposed", deleted "in lieu of registration fees and the weight distance tax on the" and added "on each trip made in this state by the registrant, owner or operator of a foreign-based commercial motor carrier vehicle and is in lieu of registration fees and the weight distance tax that would otherwise be imposed on the trip on a".

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection B(1), changed the trip tax from five cents to seven cents; in Subsection B(2), changed the trip tax from nine cents to twelve cents; in Subsection B(3), changed the trip tax from eleven cents to fifteen cents; and in Subsection B(4), changed the trip tax from twelve cents to sixteen cents.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "Subsections C and D" for "Subsection C" in the introductory language of Subsection B; and substituted Subsections C and D for former Subsection C, relating to flat fee permits.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "fuel excise tax" for "fuel tax" and "Section 7-16A-3" for "Section 7-16-3" near the end of Subsection C and made a minor stylistic change.

7-15-3.2. Exemption from tax.

Exempted from imposition of the trip tax is the use of the highways of this state by commercial motor carrier vehicles while operating exclusively within ten miles of a border with Mexico in conjunction with crossing the border with Mexico.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 44, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2006, ch. 44 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 2006, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-15-4. Interest; penalties.

A. If any trip tax is not paid when due, interest shall be paid to the state on such amount from the date on which the trip tax becomes due until it is paid. Interest shall be due to the state at the rate of fifteen percent a year, computed at the rate of one and one-quarter percent per month or any fraction thereof, except that, if the amount of interest due at the time payment is made is less than one dollar ($1.00), then no interest shall be due. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to impose interest on interest or interest on penalty.

B. In the case of failure, due to negligence or disregard of rules and regulations, but without intent to defraud, to pay when due any amount of trip tax required to be paid, there shall be added to the amount as penalty two percent per month, or any fraction thereof, from the date on which the trip tax becomes due until the time payment is made, provided that the total penalty shall not exceed ten percent of the amount nor shall it be less than a minimum of five dollars ($5.00).

C. In the case of failure to pay when due any amount of trip tax required to be paid, with intent to defraud the state, there shall be added to the amount fifty percent thereof or a minimum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), whichever is greater, as penalty.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15-4, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 25.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 25 repealed former 7-15-4 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1943, ch. 125, § 15, relating to exemption from mileage tax of vehicles of public utilities, corporations, companies, or individuals used in regular course of business, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1988.

7-15-5. Distribution of proceeds.

The receipts from permit fees established pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-15-3.1 NMSA 1978, the trip tax and any associated interest and penalties shall be deposited into the "motor vehicle suspense fund", hereby created in the state treasury. As of the end of each month, the net receipts attributable to the permit fees established pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-15-3.1 NMSA 1978, trip tax and penalties and interest associated with the trip tax shall be distributed to the state road fund.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-2, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 29; 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2004, substituted "a" for "every" preceding "motor vehicle" twice and "a person" for "persons" twice in Subsection A, "an" for "any" preceding "employee" near the middle of Subsection C, "a load upon the vehicle" for "any load thereon" at the end of Subsection D, "a vehicle that" for "every vehicle which" twice in Subsection E, rewrote Subsection F so as to designate the previously undesignated language as Paragraphs (1) and (2) and substituted "an" for "any" at the beginning of Paragraph (1) and "a" for "any" preceding "federal" near the beginning and "of the federal, state or other governmental unit" for "thereof" at the end of Paragraph (2) of that subsection, "a" for "any" preceding "person" in Subsection G, and "a" for "every" preceding "device" near the beginning, "a" for "any" preceding "person" near the beginning, preceding "frame" and "vehicle" near the middle and "a device" for "devices" near the end of Subsection J, and added Subsection K.

7-15A-3. Imposition of weight distance tax.

A tax is imposed upon the registrants, owners and operators for the use of the highways of this state by all motor vehicles having a declared gross weight or gross vehicle weight in excess of twenty-six thousand pounds and registered in this state, registered under proportional registration or qualified under the provisions of Sections 65-1-32 and 65-1-33 NMSA 1978. This tax shall be known as the "weight distance tax".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-3, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 30.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 30 effective July 1, 1988.

Burden of proof. — Where the taxpayer engaged in the intra-state hauling of construction materials; the taxpayer calculated the mileage traveled by taxpayer's trucks based on the amount of fuel purchased as shown on fuel receipts multiplied by the industry average of five miles per gallon, the department's auditor decided that the taxpayer's records were unreliable and used an alternative methodology to calculate mileage; based on the taxpayer's evidence, a hearing officer found that the taxpayer's fuel records were reliable and were not controverted by the department's evidence; and the hearing officer concluded that the taxpayer had overcome the presumption of the correctness of the department's assessment and that the department had failed to meet its burden to prove the correctness of its assessment, the hearing officer correctly determined that the burden had shifted to the department to prove the correctness of its assessment. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't v. Casias Trucking, 2014-NMCA-099.

7-15A-4. Responsibility for payment of tax.

The tax shall be paid by the registrant, owner or operator of a motor vehicle registered in this state to which the tax applies.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-4, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 31.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 31 effective July 1, 1988.

7-15A-5. Exemption from tax.

Exempted from imposition of the weight distance tax is the use of the highways of this state by:

- A. school buses;
- B. buses used exclusively for the transportation of agricultural laborers;
- C. buses operated by religious or nonprofit charitable organizations; and
- D. commercial motor carrier vehicles as defined in Subsection B of Section 7-15-2.1 NMSA 1978 while operating exclusively within ten miles of a border with Mexico in conjunction with crossing the border with Mexico.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-5, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 32; 2006, ch. 44, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, added Subsection D to exempt commercial motor carrier vehicles while operating exclusively within ten miles of a border with Mexico in conjunction with crossing the border with Mexico.

7-15A-6. Tax rate for motor vehicles other than buses; reduction of rate for one-way hauls.

A. For on-highway operations of motor vehicles other than buses, the weight distance tax shall be computed in accordance with the following schedule:

Declared Gross Weight (Gross Vehicle Weight)	Tax Rate (Mills per Mile)
26,001 to 28,000	11.01
28,001 to 30,000	11.88

74,001 to 76,000	40.71
76,001 to 78,000	42.21
78,001 and over	43.78.

B. All motor vehicles for which the tax is computed under Subsection A of this section shall pay a tax that is two-thirds of the tax computed under Subsection A of this section if:

- (1) the motor vehicle is customarily used for one-way haul;
- (2) forty-five percent or more of the mileage traveled by the motor vehicle for a registration year is mileage that is traveled empty of all load; and
- (3) the registrant, owner or operator of the vehicle attempting to qualify under this subsection has made a sworn application to the department to be classified under this subsection for a registration year and has given whatever information is required by the department to determine the eligibility of the vehicle to be classified under this subsection and the vehicle has been so classified.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-6, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 33; 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 4; 2004, ch. 59, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2004 amendments, effective July 1, 2004, amended Subsection A to change the gross vehicle weight of "26,000" to "26,001".

The 2003 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2004, increased each of the tax rates in Subsection A by approximately 38.2%, except the "46,001 to 48,000" rate which increased by approximately 25.6%, and substituted "that" for "which" in the introductory language and in Paragraph (2) and "year and has given" for "year, has given" in Paragraph (3) of Subsection B.

7-15A-7. Tax rate for buses.

For all buses, the weight distance tax shall be computed in accordance with the following schedule:

Declared Gross Weight (Gross Vehicle Weight)	Tax Rate (Mills per Mile)
26,001 to 28,000	11.01
28,001 to 30,000	11.88
30,001 to 32,000	12.77
32,001 to 34,000	13.64
34,001 to 36,000	14.52
36,001 to 38,000	15.39
38,001 to 40,000	16.73
40,001 to 42,000	18.05

42,001 to 44,000	19.36

48,001 to 50,000	23.33
50,001 to 52,000	24.65
52,001 to 54,000	25.96
54,001 and over	27.29.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-7, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 34; 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 5; 2004, ch. 59, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2004 amendments, effective July 1, 2004, amended Subsection A to change the gross vehicle weight of "26,000" to "26,001".

The 2003 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2004, increased each of the tax rates by approximately 38%.

7-15A-8. Mileage and weights to be used for computing tax.

A. The total number of miles traveled on New Mexico highways during the tax payment period by the motor vehicle subject to the tax shall be used in computing the tax.

B. Registrants, owners and operators of all motor vehicles to which the tax applies shall report to the department, in the manner required by the department, the total mileage traveled in New Mexico and the total mileage traveled in all states during the tax payment period applicable to that registrant, owner or operator.

C. All motor vehicles subject to the tax shall be registered in accordance with law at the highest gross vehicle weight or combined gross vehicle weight at which the vehicle will be operated for that registration year in this state.

D. It is unlawful and a violation of the Weight Distance Tax Act for any motor vehicle to be operated on New Mexico highways at a gross vehicle weight higher than that at which the registrant declared for registration purposes pursuant to either the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] or the Motor Transportation Act [Chapter 65, Articles 1, 3 and 5 NMSA 1978]. The operator of a motor vehicle operated on highways of this state at a gross weight or combination gross weight higher than that declared for registration purposes shall be subject to the penalty provisions of Section 66-7-411 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-15A-8, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 35.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 58 made Laws 1988, ch. 73, § 35 effective July 1, 1988.

7-15A-9. Weight distance tax; payment to department; record-keeping requirements.

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, the weight distance tax shall be paid to the department by April 30 for the first quarterly period of January 1 through March 31, by July 31 for the second quarterly period of April 1 through June 30, by October 31 for the third quarterly period of July 1 through September 30 and by January 31 for the fourth quarterly period of October 1 through December 31 of each year.

B. Any registrant, owner or operator not liable for the special fuel tax whose total weight distance tax for the previous calendar year was less than five hundred dollars ($500) may elect to pay the tax on an annual basis. Any registrant, owner or operator liable for the special fuel tax whose total combined liability for the weight distance tax and the special fuel tax for the previous calendar year was less than five hundred dollars ($500) may elect to pay the weight distance tax on an annual basis. Election shall be made by filing a written statement of such election with the department on or before April 1 of the first year in which the election is made. Upon filing the written election with the department, the total weight distance tax due for the current calendar year shall be paid to the department by January 31 of the following year. If, however, any registrant, owner or operator is or becomes delinquent in excess of thirty days in any payment of the weight distance tax, that person shall make all future payments according to the schedule of Subsection A of this section. If any person who has made an election under this subsection has a liability for total weight distance tax or total combined weight distance tax and special fuel tax, as applicable, of five hundred dollars ($500) or more for any calendar year, that person shall make the succeeding year's payments pursuant to Subsection A of this section.

C. Any registrant, owner or operator not liable for the special fuel tax who has not previously been liable for the weight distance tax and whose liability for the weight distance tax is expected to be less than five hundred dollars ($500) annually may, with the approval of the secretary, pay the weight distance tax as provided in Subsection B of this section. Any registrant, owner or operator liable for the special fuel tax who has not previously been liable for the weight distance tax and whose total combined liability for the special fuel tax and weight distance tax is expected to be less than five hundred dollars ($500) annually may, with the approval of the secretary, pay the weight distance tax as provided in Subsection B of this section. If, however, the total annual liability or combined liability, as applicable, is expected to be five hundred dollars ($500) or more, the registrant, owner or operator shall make payments pursuant to Subsection A of this section.

D. All registrants, owners or operators required to pay the weight distance tax shall preserve the records upon which the periodic payments required by Subsections A and B of this section are based for four years following the period for which a payment is made. Upon request of the department, the registrant, owner or operator shall make the records available to the department at the owner's office for audit as to accuracy of computations and payments. If the registrant, owner or operator keeps the records at any place outside this state, the department or the department's authorized agent may examine them at the place where they are kept. The department may make arrangements with agencies of other jurisdictions administering motor vehicle laws for joint audits of any such registrants, owners or operators.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1996, ch. 37, § 10 repealed 7-15A-11 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 14, § 2, relating to annual safety and training fee and schedule, effective July 1, 1996. For provisions of former section, see the 1995 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-15A-12. Weight distance tax identification permits; suspension and renewal.

A. An operator of a motor vehicle registered in this state and subject to the weight distance tax shall display a weight distance tax identification permit issued for that vehicle to an enforcement officer of the department of public safety upon demand of that employee and when the vehicle passes through a port of entry.

B. The department may suspend or decline to renew a weight distance tax identification permit for a motor vehicle if the owner or operator of the vehicle does not comply with the provisions of the Weight Distance Tax Act or if the owner or operator is a delinquent taxpayer as provided in Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978 only with respect to the weight distance tax or the gross receipts tax or if there are unfiled tax returns due with respect to the weight distance tax or the gross receipts tax.

C. The department of transportation may collect delinquent weight distance tax on behalf of the taxation and revenue department at ports of entry operated by the department of transportation.

History: Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 6; 2021, ch. 59, § 2; 2023, ch. 85, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, provided that certain licenses shall not be issued or renewed if the licensee is a delinquent taxpayer for certain taxes; and in Subsection B, added "or if the owner or operator is a delinquent taxpayer as provided in Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978 only with respect to the weight distance tax or the gross receipts tax or if there are unfiled tax returns due with respect to the weight distance tax or the gross receipts tax".

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, authorized the department of transportation to collect delinquent weight distance tax on behalf of the taxation and revenue department at ports of entry operated by the department of transportation; and added Subsection C.

7-15A-13. Weight distance tax identification permit administrative fee.

A. A person that obtains a weight distance tax identification permit shall pay an administrative fee to the department for the reasonable and necessary expense that the department incurs for processing and issuing a weight distance tax identification permit. The fee shall be paid in addition to a weight distance tax, special fuel excise tax and other use fee imposed for the use of public highways of this state. The department shall determine the amount of the fee pursuant to regulation. The fee shall not exceed ten dollars ($10.00).

B. The department shall deposit to the weight distance tax identification permit administration fund all proceeds from administrative fees collected by the department pursuant to this section.

History: Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. – Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 31 made Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 7 effective July 1, 2004.

7-15A-14. Weight distance tax identification permit fund.

The "weight distance tax identification permit fund" is created in the state treasury. The purpose of the fund is to provide an account from which the department and the department of transportation may pay the costs of issuing and administering weight distance tax identification permits and of enforcing weight distance tax compliance. The fund shall consist of administrative fees collected pursuant to the Weight Distance Tax Act. Money in the fund shall be appropriated to the department and the department of transportation to pay for the cost of issuance and administration of weight distance tax identification permits and of enforcement by the department and the department of transportation of weight distance tax compliance for motor carriers with the provisions of the Weight Distance Tax Act. Disbursements from the fund shall be by warrant of the secretary of finance and administration upon vouchers signed by the secretary or the secretary's authorized representative. Money in the fund shall not revert to the general fund at the end of a fiscal year.

History: Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 8; 2006, ch. 33, § 1; 2017, ch. 60, § 1; 2021, ch. 59, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, removed the department of public safety from the provisions of the section; and deleted occurrences of "the department of public safety.

The 2017 amendment, effective June 16, 2017, included the department of public safety and the department of transportation as eligible recipients of the weight distance tax identification permit fund to pay the costs of administration and compliance enforcement of the Weight Distance Tax Act; after "an account from which the department", added "the department of public safety and the department of transportation", after "enforcing weight distance tax", deleted "identification permit use" and added "compliance", after "appropriated to the department", added "the department of public safety and the department of transportation", after "enforcement by the department", deleted "or the motor transportation division of", after the next occurrence of "department of public safety", added "and the department of transportation", after the next occurrence of "weight distance tax", deleted "identification permit use" and added "compliance", and after "for motor carriers", deleted "that do not comply".

The 2006 amendment, effective July 1, 2006, changed the name of the fund from the "weight distance tax identification permit administration fund" to the "weight distance tax identification permit fund"; provided that a purpose of the fund is to enforce weight distance tax identification permit use; and provided for the appropriation of money in the fund for administration and enforcement of the weight distance tax.

7-15A-15. Taxpayers of weight distance tax; surety bond required; exceptions.

A. Except as required in Subsection H of this section, every taxpayer with a commercial domicile not located in an International Fuel Tax Agreement jurisdiction shall file with the department a bond on a form approved by the attorney general with a surety company authorized by the public regulation commission to transact business in New Mexico as a surety and upon which bond the taxpayer is the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the taxpayer to the department of all taxes levied by the Weight Distance Tax Act, together with all applicable penalties and interest on the taxes.

B. In lieu of the bond, the taxpayer may elect to file with the department cash or bonds of the United States or New Mexico or of any political subdivision of the state.

C. The total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of a taxpayer shall be fixed by the department and may be increased or reduced by the department at any time, subject to the limitations provided in this section.

D. In fixing the total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of a taxpayer required to post a bond, the department shall require an amount equivalent to the total estimated tax due for two quarters; provided, however, that the total amount of bond, cash or securities required of a taxpayer shall never be less than five hundred dollars ($500) per motor vehicle on which the weight distance tax is imposed.

E. In the event the department determines that the amount of the existing bond, cash or securities is insufficient to ensure payment to New Mexico of the amount of the weight distance tax and penalties and interest for which a taxpayer is or may at any time become liable, the taxpayer, upon written demand from the department mailed to the last known address of the taxpayer as shown on the records of the department, shall file an additional bond, cash or securities in the manner, form and amount determined by the department to be necessary to secure at all times the payment by the taxpayer of all taxes, penalties and interest due pursuant to the Weight Distance Tax Act.

F. A surety on a bond furnished by a taxpayer as required by this section shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on the bond after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety files with the department a written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that the request shall not operate to release or discharge the surety from liability already accrued or that shall accrue before the expiration of the ninety-day period, unless a new bond is filed during the ninety-day period, in which case the previous bond may be canceled as of the effective date of the new bond. On receipt of notice of the request to cancel the bond due to filing of a new bond, the department shall promptly notify the taxpayer who furnished the bond that the taxpayer, on or before the expiration of the ninety-day period, shall file with the department a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form required in this section.

G. A taxpayer who is required to file a bond with or provide cash or securities to the department in accordance with this section and who is required by another state law to file another bond with or provide cash or securities to the department may elect to file a combined bond or provide cash or securities applicable to the provision of both this section and the other law, with the approval of the secretary. The amount of the combined bond, cash or securities shall be determined by the department, and the form of the combined bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

H. A taxpayer who is required to file a bond pursuant to the provisions of this section and who for the eight consecutive quarters preceding the date of request has not been a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to the Weight Distance Tax Act may request to be exempt from the requirement to file a bond beginning with the first day of the first quarter following the end of the eight-quarter period. If a taxpayer exempted pursuant to this subsection subsequently becomes a delinquent taxpayer, the department may terminate the exemption and require the filing of a bond in accordance with this section. If the department terminates the exemption, the termination shall not be effective any earlier than ten days after the date the department notifies the taxpayer in writing of the termination.

I. As used in this section, "taxpayer" means a registrant, owner or operator of a motor vehicle on whom the weight distance tax is imposed.

Special Fuels Supplier Tax

7-16A-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 16A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 1; 1993, ch. 272, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act, see 7-29B-1 NMSA 1978.

The 1993 amendment, substituted "Chapter 7, Article 16A NMSA 1978" for "This act".

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1993, ch. 272 included both an emergency clause making the act effective immediately and an effective date provision providing that the act was effective January 1, 1993. See N.M. Const., Art. IV, § 23.

7-16A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act:

A. "biodiesel" means a renewable, biodegradable, mono alkyl ester combustible liquid fuel that is derived from agricultural plant oils or animal fats and that meets the American society for testing and materials specifications for biodiesel fuel, B100 or B99 blend stock for distillate fuels;

B. "blended biodiesel" means a diesel engine fuel that contains at least two percent biodiesel;

C. "bulk storage" means the storage of special fuels in any tank or receptacle, other than a supply tank, for the purpose of sale by a dealer or for use by a user or for any other purpose;

D. "bulk storage user" means a user who operates, owns or maintains bulk storage in this state from which the user places special fuel into the supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by that user;

E. "dealer" means any person who sells and delivers special fuel to a user;

F. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

G. "government-licensed vehicle" means a motor vehicle lawfully displaying a registration plate, as defined in the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] issued by:

(1) the United States or any state, identifying the motor vehicle as belonging to the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities;

(2) the state of New Mexico, identifying the vehicle as belonging to the state of New Mexico or any of its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities; or

(3) any state, identifying the motor vehicle as belonging to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or an agency or instrumentality thereof;

H. "gross vehicle weight" means the weight of a motor vehicle or combination motor vehicle without load, plus the weight of any load on the vehicle;

I. "highway" means every road, highway, thoroughfare, street or way, including toll roads, generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of motor vehicle travel and notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair;

J. "motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle or device that is either subject to registration pursuant to Section 66-3-1 NMSA 1978 or is used or may be used on the public highways in whole or in part for the purpose of transporting persons or property and includes any connected trailer or semitrailer;

K. "person" means an individual or any other entity, including, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other government or any department, agency, instrumentality or political subdivision of any federal, state or other government;

L. "rack operator" means the operator of a refinery in this state, any person who blends special fuel in this state or the owner of special fuel stored at a pipeline terminal in this state;

M. "registrant" means any person who has registered a motor vehicle pursuant to the laws of this state or of another state;

N. "retailer" means a person who sells special fuel generally in quantities of less than two hundred fifty gallons and delivers the special fuel into the supply tanks of motor vehicles;

O. "sale" means any delivery, exchange, gift or other disposition;

P. "secretary" means the secretary of taxation and revenue or the secretary's delegate;

Q. "special fuel" means any diesel-engine fuel, biodiesel, blended biodiesel or kerosene used for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle, except for gasoline, liquefied petroleum gas, compressed or liquefied natural gas and products specially prepared and sold for use in aircraft propelled by turbo-prop or jet engines;

R. "special fuel user" means any user who is a registrant, owner or operator of a motor vehicle using special fuel and having a gross vehicle weight in excess of twenty-six thousand pounds;

S. "state" or "jurisdiction" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a foreign country or a state or province of a foreign country;

T. "supplier" means any person, but not including a rack operator or the United States or any of its agencies except to the extent now or hereafter permitted by the constitution of the United States and laws thereof, who receives special fuel;

U. "supply tank" means any tank or other receptacle in which or by which fuel may be carried and supplied to the fuel-furnishing device or apparatus of the propulsion mechanism of a motor vehicle when the tank or receptacle either contains special fuel or special fuel is delivered into it;

V. "tax" means the special fuel excise tax imposed pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, and, with respect to a special fuel user, "tax" includes any special fuel tax paid to another jurisdiction pursuant to a cooperative agreement to which the state is a party pursuant to Section 9-11-12 NMSA 1978;

W. "user" means any person other than the United States government or any of its agencies or instrumentalities; the state of New Mexico or any of its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities; or an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, who uses special fuel to propel a motor vehicle on the highways; and

X. "wholesaler" means a person who is not a supplier and who sells special fuel in quantities of two hundred fifty gallons or more and does not deliver special fuel into the supply tanks of motor vehicles.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-16A-2, enacted by Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 2; 1993, ch. 272, § 4; 1995, ch. 16, § 14; 1997, ch. 192, § 5; 2005, ch. 109, § 8; 2013, ch. 109, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective May 1, 2013, defined "biodiesel" and "blended biodiesel"; clarified the definition of "special fuel"; added Subsections A and B; and in Subsection Q, after "diesel-engine fuel", added "biodiesel, blended biodiesel".

Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 6 provided the effective date of Laws 2013, ch. 109, was May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013 the provisions of the act were enacted into law. Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 7, contained an emergency clause and was approved April 2, 2013.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 5 provided that the provisions of Laws 2013, ch. 109 apply to special fuel received on or after:

A. May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013, provisions of this act are enacted into law; or

B. July 1, 2013.

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, added the definition of "retailer" in Subsection L; added an exception in Subsection O to the definition of "special fuel" for fuel used in aircraft propelled by turbo-prop or jet engines; provided in Subsection T that "tax" includes any special fuel tax paid to another jurisdiction pursuant to a cooperative agreement; and added the definition of "wholesaler" in Subsection V.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, redesignated former Paragraphs E(1) and (2) as Paragraphs E(1) to (3), inserted "identifying the vehicle as belonging to the state of New Mexico" in Paragraph E(2), inserted "either subject to registration pursuant to Section 66-3-1 NMSA 1978 or is" in Subsection H, rewrote Subsections J and N, inserted "a rack operator or" in Subsection Q, deleted "within the meaning of 'received' as defined in this section" from the end of Subsection Q, deleted former Subsection T defining "use", redesignated former Subsection U as Subsection T, and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

The 1995 amendment, effective January 1, 1996, substituted "motor vehicle or combination motor vehicle" for "vehicle" in Subsection F; inserted "including toll roads" near the beginning of Subsection G; substituted "or any other legal entity" for "firm, partnership, company, corporation, cooperative association, receiver, estate, joint venture, syndicate, limited liability company or other association" in Subsection I; in Subsection N, deleted "kerosene, all other liquid fuels, including liquified petroleum gases and natural gas" following "diesel-engine fuel" and added the language beginning "or alternative fuel" at the end; and inserted "vehicle" in Subsection O.

The 1993 amendment, inserted "limited liability company" in Subsection I; substituted "twenty-six thousand pounds" for "twelve thousand pounds" in Subsection O; added "and any activity ancillary to that propulsion" at the end of Paragraph (2) of Subsection T; rewrote Subsection U, which read " 'user' means any person other than the United States government or an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo who uses special fuel to propel a motor vehicle on the highways"; and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

7-16A-2.1. When special fuel received or used; who is required to pay tax.

A. A rack operator receives special fuel at the time and place when the rack operator first loads the special fuel at the refinery or pipeline terminal into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or any other type of transportation equipment or when the rack operator places the special fuel into any tank or other container in this state from which sales or deliveries not involving transportation are made. A rack operator who receives special fuel is required to pay the tax on the special fuel received, except as provided otherwise in Subsection B of this section. Special fuel is not received when it is shipped from one refinery or pipeline terminal to another refinery or pipeline terminal.

B. When the rack operator first loads special fuel at the refinery or pipeline terminal into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or any other type of transportation equipment for the account of another person who is registered with the department as a supplier and is taxable under the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, that person receives the special fuel and is required to pay the tax.

C. Special fuel imported into New Mexico by any means other than in the supply tank of a motor vehicle or by pipeline is received at the time and place it is imported into this state. The person who owns the special fuel at the time of importation receives the special fuel and is required to pay the tax.

D. If special fuel is received within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation or pueblo grant and the person required to pay the tax is immune from state taxation, the special fuel is also received when the special fuel is transported off the reservation or pueblo grant by any means other than in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or by pipeline. Any person who owns special fuel after the special fuel is transported off the reservation or pueblo grant receives the special fuel and is the person required to pay the tax, unless the tax has been paid by a previous owner.

E. Except as provided in Subsection F of this section, special fuel is used in New Mexico when it is put into the supply tank of any motor vehicle registered, owned or operated by a special fuel user, consumed by a special fuel user in the propulsion of a motor vehicle on the highways of this state or any activity ancillary to that propulsion, or imported into the state in the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle for the propulsion of the motor vehicle on New Mexico highways.

F. To the extent that a special fuel user whose use of New Mexico highways is limited to that for which the special fuel user holds a valid border crossing special fuel user permit, as provided for in Section 1 of this 2018 act [7-16A-19.1 NMSA 1978], the special fuel user does not use special fuel in this state.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-16A-2.1, enacted by Laws 1997, ch. 192, § 6; 2018, ch. 77, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, provided an exception for the payment of the special fuel excise tax to special fuel users who hold a valid border crossing special fuel user permit, and made technical changes; in Subsection E, added "Except as provided in Subsection F of this section"; and added Subsection F.

7-16A-3. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination as special fuel excise tax.

A. For the privilege of receiving or using special fuel in this state, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate provided in Subsection B of this section on each gallon of special fuel received in New Mexico.

B. The tax imposed by Subsection A of this section shall be twenty-one cents ($.21) per gallon of special fuel received or used in New Mexico.

C. The tax imposed by this section may be called the "special fuel excise tax".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 3; 1993, ch. 357, § 10; 2003 (1st S.S.), ch. 3, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2004, substituted "twenty-one cents ($.21)" for "eighteen cents ($.18)" in Subsection B.

7-16A-4. Special fuel inventory tax; imposition of tax; date payment of tax due.

A. A "special fuel inventory tax" is imposed measured by the quantity of gallons of special fuel in the possession of a supplier or bulk storage user on the day in which an increase in the special fuel excise tax rate is effective. The taxable event is the existence of an inventory in the possession of a supplier or bulk storage user on the day prior to the day in which an increase in the special fuel excise tax rate is effective. The rate of the special fuel inventory tax applicable to each gallon of special fuel held in inventory by a supplier or bulk storage use, as provided in Section 5 [7-16A-5 NMSA 1978] of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, shall be the difference between the special fuel excise tax rate imposed on the day prior to the day in which the special fuel excise tax rate is increased, subtracted from the special fuel excise tax rate imposed on the day in which the special fuel excise tax rate increase is effective, expressed in cents per gallon.

B. The special fuel inventory tax is to be paid to the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 24 made Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 4 effective January 1, 1993.

7-16A-5. Special fuel inventories.

A. On the day prior to the day in which the special fuel excise tax rate is increased or decreased, each supplier, dealer and bulk storage user shall take inventory of the gallons of special fuel on hand.

B. Suppliers and bulk storage users shall report total gallons of special fuel in inventory on the day prior to the day in which an increase in the special fuel excise tax rate is effective and pay any special fuel inventory tax due.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 5; 2005, ch. 109, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, deleted Subsection C, which required dealers to maintain a record of total gallons of fuel in inventory prior the day on which an the special fuel excise tax rate changes and which prohibited dealers from changing the price of special fuel sold until the inventory was sold.

7-16A-5.1. Manifest or bill of lading required when transporting special fuels.

Every person transporting special fuels from a refinery or other facility at which special fuel is produced, refined, manufactured, blended or compounded or from a pipeline terminal in this state, importing special fuels into this state or exporting special fuels from this state, other than by pipeline or in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, shall carry a manifest or bill of lading in form and content as prescribed by or acceptable to the department. The manifest or bill of lading shall be signed by the consignor and by every person accepting the special fuel or any part of it, with a notation as to the amount accepted. If a manifest or bill of lading is not required to be carried by the terms of this section, any person transporting special fuels without such a manifest or bill of lading shall, upon demand, furnish proof acceptable to the department that the special fuels so transported were legally acquired by a registered supplier who assumed liability for payment of the tax imposed by the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 192, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1997, ch. 192, § 17 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 10, 1997.

7-16A-6. Special fuel inventory tax refund.

A "special fuel inventory tax refund" is established measured by the quantity of gallons of special fuel in the possession of a supplier or bulk storage user on the day in which a decrease in the special fuel excise tax rate is effective. The refund event is the existence of an inventory in the possession of a supplier or bulk storage user on the day prior to the day in which a decrease in the special fuel excise tax rate is effective. The refund is to be calculated by determining the difference between the special fuel excise tax rate imposed on the day prior to the day in which the special fuel excise tax rate is decreased, subtracted from the special fuel excise tax rate imposed on the day in which the special fuel excise tax rate decrease is effective, expressed in cents per gallon. The refund rate so determined is then multiplied by each gallon in inventory as determined under Section 5 [7-16A-5 NMSA 1978] of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 24 made Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 6 effective January 1, 1993.

7-16A-7. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 16 repealed 7-16A-7 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 7, relating to flat tax for liquefied petroleum gas-powered and natural gas-powered vehicles, effective January 1, 1996. For provisions of former section, see the 1994 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com. For present comparable provisions, see 7-16B-4 NMSA 1978.

7-16A-8. Repealed.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 8; 1993, ch. 272, § 5; 1997, ch. 192, § 7; 2006, ch. 74, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2006, ch. 74, § 3, repealed 7-16A-8 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 8, relating to special bulk storage user permits, effective May 17, 2006. For provisions of former section, see the 2005 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-16A-9. Tax returns; payment of tax.

Rack operators and special fuel suppliers shall file tax returns in form and content as prescribed by the secretary on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which special fuel is received in New Mexico. Payment of the tax shall be made with or prior to filing of the return. The department may require that the tax returns be provided through electronic means as long as an exception is provided for rack operators with limited amounts of fuel sold and for suppliers with limited amounts of fuel received.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 9; 1997, ch. 192, § 8; 2005, ch. 109, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, provided that the taxation and revenue department may require that tax returns be provided by electronic means if an exception is given to rack operator with limited amounts of fuel sold and for suppliers with limited amount of fuel received.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, deleted "special fuel suppliers" from the end of the section heading and inserted "Rack operators and" at the beginning of the section.

7-16A-9.1. Returns by retailers; requirements.

Retailers shall file information returns in form and content as prescribed by the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which special fuel is purchased in New Mexico. The department may require that the information returns be provided through electronic means if the department provides an exception from that requirement for retailers that purchase limited amounts of fuel.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 16 made Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 12 effective January 1, 2006.

7-16A-9.2. Returns by wholesalers.

Wholesalers shall file information returns in form and content as prescribed by the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which special fuel is sold in New Mexico. The department may require that the information returns be provided through electronic means as long as an exception is provided for wholesalers with limited amounts of fuel sold.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 16 made Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 13 effective January 1, 2006.

7-16A-9.3. Returns by rack operators; requirements.

Rack operators shall file information returns in form and content as prescribed by the department on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which special fuel is distributed in New Mexico. The department may require that the information returns be provided through electronic means if the department provides an exception from that requirement for rack operators that distribute limited amounts of fuel.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 16 made Laws 2005, ch. 109, § 14 effective January 1, 2006.

7-16A-9.4. Reporting requirements; special fuel deduction; biodiesel.

A. A taxpayer that deducts an amount of special fuel that is biodiesel from the total amount of special fuel received in New Mexico pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection H of Section 7-16A-10 NMSA 1978 shall report the deducted amount separately with the taxpayer's return in a manner prescribed by the department.

B. The department shall calculate the aggregate amount, in dollars, of the difference between the amount of special fuel excise tax that would have been collected in a fiscal year if not for the deduction allowed pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection H of Section 7-16A-10 NMSA 1978 and the amount of special fuel excise tax actually collected. The department shall compile an annual report that includes the aggregate amount, the number of taxpayers that deducted an amount of special fuel pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection H of Section 7-16A-10 NMSA 1978 and any other information necessary to evaluate the deduction. Beginning in 2017 and every five years thereafter, the department shall compile and present the annual reports to the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and the legislative finance committee with an analysis of the costs and benefits of the deduction to the state.

History: Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 6 provided that Laws 2013, ch. 109 was effective May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013 the provisions of the act are enacted into law, or July 1, 2013.

Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 7, contained an emergency clause and was approved April 2, 2013.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 5 provided that the provisions of Laws 2013, ch. 109 apply to special fuel received on or after:

A. May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013, provisions of this act are enacted into law; or

B. July 1, 2013.

7-16A-10. Deductions; special fuel excise tax; special fuel suppliers.

In computing the tax due, the following amounts of special fuel may be deducted from the total amount of special fuel received in New Mexico during the tax period, provided that satisfactory proof thereof is furnished to the department:

A. special fuel received in New Mexico, but exported from this state by a rack operator, special fuel supplier or dealer, other than in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or sold for export by a rack operator or distributor; provided that, in either case:

(1) the person exporting the special fuel is registered in or licensed by the destination state to pay that state's special fuel or equivalent fuel tax;

(2) proof is submitted that the destination state's special fuel or equivalent fuel tax has been paid or is not due with respect to the special fuel; or

(3) the destination state's special fuel or equivalent fuel tax is paid to New Mexico in accordance with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 9-11-12 NMSA 1978 with the destination state;

B. special fuel sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof. Special fuel sold to the United States includes special fuel delivered into the supply tank of a government-licensed vehicle;

C. special fuel sold to the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof. Special fuel sold to the state of New Mexico includes special fuel delivered into the supply tank of a government-licensed vehicle;

D. special fuel sold to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality thereof. Special fuel sold to an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo includes special fuel delivered into the supply tank of a government-licensed vehicle;

E. special fuel dyed in accordance with federal regulations;

F. special fuel that is number 2 diesel fuel sold for the generation of power to propel a vehicle authorized by contract with the public education department as a school bus; provided that the fuel has a distillation temperature of five hundred degrees Fahrenheit at a ten percent recovery point and six hundred forty degrees Fahrenheit at a ninety percent recovery point;

G. special fuel received in New Mexico on which New Mexico special fuel excise tax was paid by the out-of-state terminal at which the special fuel was loaded, provided that documentation that the special fuel was to be imported into New Mexico was provided to the terminal operator by the person receiving the fuel; and

H. special fuel received in New Mexico that:

(1) prior to July 1, 2014, consists of at least ninety-nine percent vegetable oil or animal fat; provided that the use is restricted to an auxiliary fuel system that is subject to a certificate of conformity pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act; or

(2) is biodiesel received or manufactured and delivered to a rack operator that is within the state for blending or resale.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 10; 1993, ch. 272, § 6; 1997, ch. 192, § 9; 1998, ch. 44, § 4; 2001, ch. 43, § 1; 2005, ch. 232, § 1; 2006, ch. 74, § 1; 2007, ch. 110, § 3; 2009, ch. 99, § 2; 2009, ch. 99, § 3; 2013, ch. 109, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 4, effective April 2, 2013, repealed Laws 2009, ch. 99, § 3, which would have become effective July 1, 2014.

The 2013 amendment, effective May 1, 2013, provided a deduction for receipt of biodiesel fuel to rack operators for blending and resale; in Paragraph (1) of Subsection H, at the beginning of the sentence, added "prior to July 1, 2014"; and added Paragraph (2) of Subsection H.

Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 6 provided that Laws 2013, ch. 109 is effective on May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013 the provisions of the act are enacted into law, or July 1, 2013.

Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 7, contained an emergency clause and was approved April 2, 2013.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 109, § 5 provided that the provisions of Laws 2013, ch. 109 apply to special fuel received on or after:

A. May 1, 2013, provided that prior to May 1, 2013, provisions of this act are enacted into law; or

B. July 1, 2013.

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, added Subsection H.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, added a new Subsection G to provide a deduction for special fuel received in New Mexico on which New Mexico special fuel tax was paid by the out-of-state terminal at which the special fuel was loaded.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, deleted former Subsection E, which provided a deduction for special fuel sold to the holder of a special bulk storage user permit and delivered in to special bulk storage pursuant to Section 7-16A-8 NMSA 1978.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, added Subsection G to provide a deduction for number 2 diesel fuel sold for the generation of power to propel a school bus.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2000, deleted "and used in any manner other than for propulsion of motor vehicles on the highways of this state or activities ancillary to that propulsion" from Subsection F.

The 1998 amendment, effective July 1, 1998, in the introductory language deleted "special fuel excise" preceding "tax" and in Subsection F, inserted "dyed in accordance with federal regulations and".

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, rewrote Subsections A and F, and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection E.

The 1993 amendment, added current Subsection C and Subsections E and F; redesignated former Subsection C as Subsection D; and made a minor stylistic change.

7-16A-11. Tax returns; payment of tax; special fuel users; exception.

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a special fuel user shall file a special fuel excise tax return in form and content as prescribed by the secretary to conform to the due date for the special fuel excise tax return required by an interstate agreement to which the state is a party.

B. A special fuel user may elect to file and pay the special fuel excise tax annually by conforming to the annual filing requirements of an international fuel tax agreement to which the state is a party.

C. A special fuel user shall file a return in accordance with the conditions and terms of the international fuel tax agreement to which the state is a party.

D. To the extent that a special fuel user whose use of New Mexico highways is limited to that for which the special fuel user holds a valid border crossing special fuel user permit, as provided for in Section 1 of this 2018 act [7-16A-19.1 NMSA 1978], the special fuel user is exempt from the requirements of this section.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 11; 2005, ch. 109, § 11; 2018, ch. 77, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, provided an exemption from filing a special fuel excise tax return and the payment of the special fuel excise tax for special fuel users who hold a valid border crossing special fuel user permit, and made technical changes; in the catchline, added "exception"; and added Subsection D.

The 2005 amendment, effective January 1, 2006, modified former Subsections A through D to require a special fuel user to file a special fuel excise tax return in form and content prescribed by the secretary of taxation and revenue to conform to the due date for the return required by an interstate agreement; added Subsection B to provide that a special fuel user may elect to file and pay the special fuel excise tax annually by conforming to an international fuel tax agreement; and added Subsection C to provide that a special fuel user shall file a return in accordance with the conditions and terms of an international fuel tax agreement.

7-16A-12. Credit; special fuel excise tax; special fuel users.

In computing any special fuel excise tax due, all special fuel excise tax paid on special fuel used during the reporting period may be credited against the calculated special fuel excise tax due for that reporting period, provided that satisfactory proof of the special fuel excise tax paid is furnished to the department.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 12; 1997, ch. 192, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, deleted "or weight distance tax due" preceding "for that reporting period, provided".

7-16A-13. Claim for refund or credit of special fuel excise tax paid; on special fuel destroyed by fire, accident or acts of God before retail sale; on special fuel previously received from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal.

A. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, the department shall allow a claim for refund or credit of any special fuel excise tax or special fuel inventory tax paid on special fuel destroyed by fire, accident or acts of God while in the possession of a supplier, bulk storage user or dealer.

B. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, a rack operator may submit, and the department may allow, a claim for refund of a New Mexico tax paid on special fuel previously received in New Mexico from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal in this state and placed in a terminal from which it will be loaded into tank cars, tank trucks, tank wagons or other types of transportation equipment.

C. No person may submit claims for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section more frequently than quarterly. No claim for refund may be submitted or allowed on less than one hundred gallons.

D. The department may prescribe the documents necessary to support a claim for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 13; 2015 (1st S.S.), ch. 2, § 21.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 2016, provided for a refund or credit of a New Mexico tax paid on special fuel previously received in New Mexico from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal in this state; in the catchline added "on special fuel previously received from a source other than a refiner or pipeline terminal"; added the subsection designation "A" preceding the previously undesignated language; and added Subsections B, C and D.

7-16A-13.1. Claim for refund of special fuel excise tax paid on special fuel.

A. Upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the department, a user of special fuel may submit and the department may allow a claim for refund of tax paid on special fuel used to propel a vehicle authorized by contract with the public education department or with a public school district as a school bus, to propel a vehicle off-road, to operate auxiliary equipment by a power take-off from the main engine or transmission of a vehicle or to operate a non-automotive apparatus mounted on a vehicle when the special fuel used for such purposes and the special fuel used to propel the vehicle on the highways are drawn from a common supply tank. The vehicle must be registered with the department. The user must be registered with the department for purposes of reporting and paying gross receipts tax.

B. No person may submit claims for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section more frequently than quarterly. No claim for refund may be submitted or allowed on less than one hundred gallons.

C. The department may prescribe the documents necessary to support a claim for refund pursuant to the provisions of this section. The department may prescribe the use of types of monitoring or measuring equipment.

D. This section applies to special fuel purchased on or after July 1, 2001, except for the refund for special fuel used to propel a school bus, which applies to special fuel purchased on or after July 1, 2005.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-16A-13.1, enacted by Laws 2001, ch. 43, § 2; 2005, ch. 232, § 2; 2006, ch. 73, § 1; 2006, ch. 74, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

2006 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2006, ch. 73, § 1 and Laws 2006, ch. 74, § 2 enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2006, ch. 74, § 2, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2006,

ch. 73, § 1 and Laws 2006, ch. 74, § 2 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2006 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

Laws 2006, ch. 74, § 2, effective May 17, 2006, deleted the exception relating to a holder of a bulk storage user permit.

Laws 2006, ch. 73, § 1, effective July 1, 2006, added "or with a public school district" in Subsection A.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection A, provided that the department may allow a claim for refund of tax paid on special fuel used to propel a vehicle authorized by contract with the public education department as a school bus; and in Subsection D, provided that the section applies to special fuel to propel a school bus that is purchased on or after July 1, 2005.

7-16A-14. Registration necessary to engage in business as rack operator, special fuel supplier or dealer.

Each person engaged in the business of selling special fuel in New Mexico as a rack operator, special fuel supplier or dealer shall register as such under the provisions of Section 7-1-12 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 14; 1997, ch. 192, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, inserted "rack operator" in the section heading, and near the middle of the section.

7-16A-15. Bond required of supplier.

A. Except as provided in Subsection H of this section, every supplier shall file with the department a bond on a form approved by the attorney general with a surety company authorized by the state corporation commission [public regulation commission] to transact business in this state as a surety and upon which bond the supplier is the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the supplier to the department of all taxes levied by the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, together with all applicable penalties and interest thereon.

B. In lieu of the bond, the supplier may elect to file with the department cash or bonds of the United States or New Mexico or of any political subdivision of the state.

C. The total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of any supplier shall be fixed by the department and may be increased or reduced by the department at any time, subject to the limitations provided in this section.

D. In fixing the total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of any supplier required to post bond, the department shall require an equivalent in total amount to at least two times the amount of the department's estimate of the supplier's monthly special fuel excise tax, determined in such manner as the secretary may deem proper; provided, however, the total amount of bond, cash or securities required of a supplier shall never be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

E. In the event the department decides that the amount of the existing bond, cash or securities is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the special fuel excise tax and any penalties and interest for which the supplier is or may at any time become liable, then the supplier shall forthwith, upon written demand of the department mailed to the last known address of the supplier as shown on the records of the department, file an additional bond, cash or securities in the manner, form and amount determined by the department to be necessary to secure at all times the payment by the supplier of all taxes, penalties and interest due pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act.

F. Any surety on any bond furnished by any supplier as required by this section shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on the bond after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety files with the department a written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, the request shall not operate to release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or that shall accrue before the expiration of the ninety-day period, unless a new bond is filed during the ninety-day period, in which case the previous bond may be canceled as of the effective date of the new bond. On receipt of notice of such request, the department shall notify promptly the supplier who furnished the bond that the supplier shall, on or before the expiration of the ninety-day period, file with the department a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form required in this section.

G. The supplier required to file bond with or provide cash or securities to the department in accordance with this section and who is required by any other state law to file another bond with or provide cash or securities to the department may elect to file a combined bond or provide cash or securities applicable to the provisions of both this section and the other law, with the approval of the secretary. The amount of the combined bond, cash or securities shall be determined by the department, and the form of the combined bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

H. On July 1, 1994, every supplier who, for the twenty-four month period immediately preceding that date, has not been a delinquent taxpayer under the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act or the Special Fuels Tax Act [repealed] is exempt from the requirement pursuant to this section to file a bond. A supplier required to file a bond pursuant to the provisions of this section who, for a twenty-four consecutive month period ending after July 1, 1994, has not been a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to either the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act or the Special Fuels Tax Act [repealed] may request to be exempt from the requirement to file a bond beginning with the first day of the first month following the end of the twenty-four month period. If a supplier exempted pursuant to this subsection subsequently becomes a delinquent taxpayer pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, the department may terminate the exemption and require the filing of a bond in accordance with this section. If the department terminates the exemption, the termination shall not be effective any earlier than ten days after the date the department notifies the supplier in writing of the termination.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 15; 1994, ch. 7, § 1; 1997, ch. 192, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 1998, ch. 108, § 80 provided that references to the state corporation commission be construed as references to the public regulation commission.

The Special Fuels Tax Act was formerly compiled as Chapter 7, Article 16 NMSA 1978 prior to its repeal in 1993.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, deleted "or dealer" following "supplier" in the section heading and throughout the section, substituted "supplier's monthly special fuel excise tax" for "supplier's or dealer's quarterly special fuel excise tax" in Subsection D and rewrote the first three sentences in Subsection H.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, added the exception clause at the beginning of the first sentence in Subsection A; in Subsection D, inserted "required to post bond", and substituted "two times" for "one and one-half times" and "quarterly" for "monthly"; deleted "any any" preceding "and all" near the beginning of the first sentence in Subsection F; and added Subsection H.

7-16A-15.1. Special fuel users; surety bond required; exceptions.

A. Except as required in Subsection H of this section, every special fuel user with a commercial domicile not located in an International Fuel Tax Agreement jurisdiction shall file with the department a bond on a form approved by the attorney general with a surety company authorized by the public regulation commission to transact business in New Mexico as a surety and upon which bond the special fuel user is the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the special fuel user to the department of all taxes levied by the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act, together with all applicable penalties and interest on the taxes.

B. In lieu of the bond, the special fuel user may elect to file with the department cash or bonds of the United States or New Mexico or of any political subdivision of the state.

C. The total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of a special fuel user shall be fixed by the department and may be increased or reduced by the department at any time, subject to the limitations provided in this section.

D. In fixing the total amount of the bond, cash or securities required of a special fuel user required to post a bond, the department shall require an amount equivalent to the total estimated tax due for two quarters; provided, however, that the total amount of bond, cash or securities required of a special fuel user shall never be less than five hundred dollars ($500).

E. In the event the department determines that the amount of the existing bond, cash or securities is insufficient to ensure payment to New Mexico of the amount of the special fuel excise tax and penalties and interest for which a special fuel user is or may at any time become liable, the special fuel user, upon written demand from the department mailed to the last known address of the special fuel user as shown on the records of the department, shall file an additional bond, cash or securities in the manner, form and amount determined by the department to be necessary to secure at all times the payment by the special fuel user of all taxes, penalties and interest due pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act.

F. A surety on a bond furnished by a special fuel user as required by this section shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on the bond after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety files with the department a written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that the request shall not operate to release or discharge the surety from liability already accrued or that shall accrue before the expiration of the ninety-day period, unless a new bond is filed during the ninety-day period, in which case the previous bond may be canceled as of the effective date of the new bond. On receipt of notice of the request to cancel the bond due to filing of a new bond, the department shall promptly notify the special fuel user who furnished the bond that the special fuel user, on or before the expiration of the ninety-day period, shall file with the department a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form required in this section.

G. A special fuel user who is required to file a bond with or provide cash or securities to the department in accordance with this section and who is required by another state law to file another bond with or provide cash or securities to the department may elect to file a combined bond or provide cash or securities applicable to the provision of both this section and the other law, with the approval of the secretary. The amount of the combined bond, cash or securities shall be determined by the department, and the form of the combined bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

H. A special fuel user who is required to file a bond pursuant to the provisions of this section and who for the eight consecutive quarters preceding the date of request has not been delinquent filing reports or paying special fuel excise taxes pursuant to the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act may request to be exempt from the requirement to file a bond beginning with the first day of the first quarter following the end of the eight-quarter period. If a special fuel user exempted pursuant to this subsection subsequently becomes delinquent, the department may terminate the exemption and require the filing of a bond in accordance with this section. If the department terminates the exemption, the termination shall not be effective any earlier than ten days after the date the department notifies the special fuel user in writing of the termination.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 110, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 110, contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-16A-16. Delivery and use of special fuel prohibited in certain cases.

It is a violation of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act to do any of the following acts:

A. operate any motor vehicle upon the highways of this state with a connection between a cargo or other tank or container, not considered in the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act as being the motor vehicle's fuel supply tank, and a carburetor or other fuel supplying device; fuel supply tanks, including auxiliary fuel supply tanks, shall be separate and apart from cargo tanks or other containers, with no connection by pipe, tube, valve or otherwise;

B. sell or deliver to any person or motor vehicle special fuel from any special fuel supply tank or auxiliary special fuel supply tank; or

C. deliver special fuel from a cargo tank into the special fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle; provided, however, delivery of liquefied petroleum gases may be made into the special fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle carrying a valid permit under the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act by a registered and licensed liquefied petroleum gas dealer who is also a special fuel dealer when made by that dealer from the cargo tank of a vehicle operated by that dealer, which tank is specially designed to make this type of special fuel delivery.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 272, § 8 repealed 7-16A-18 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 18, relating to permits, special fuel users, penalty, effective April 7, 1993. For provisions of former sections, see the 1992 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-16A-19. Special fuel user permits; violation.

A. A special fuel user whose vehicle is not registered with the department shall acquire from the department of transportation, before operating the vehicle on New Mexico highways:

(1) a temporary special fuel user permit valid for one calendar day only or for one entry into and one exit out of New Mexico; or

(2) a border crossing special fuel user permit, as provided for in Section 7-16A-19.1 NMSA 1978.

B. A special fuel user applying for a temporary special fuel user permit shall apply for the permit on a form approved by the department.

C. The fee for a temporary special fuel user permit is five dollars ($5.00) for each motor vehicle.

D. It is a violation of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act for a person to act as a temporary special fuel user without possessing a valid temporary special fuel user permit issued by the department of transportation.

E. It is a violation of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act for a person holding a valid border crossing special fuel user permit to travel in the motor carrier vehicle for which the permit was issued on New Mexico highways outside the area in which the permit authorizes travel, unless the person may otherwise under law engage in that travel. In addition to any other penalty that may apply, a person who violates this provision is subject to a fine of three hundred dollars ($300).

History: Laws 1992, ch. 51, § 19; 1993, ch. 272, § 7; 1997, ch. 192, § 13; 2018, ch. 77, § 4; 2021, ch. 59, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, made conforming changes due to the transfer of certain authority to the department of transportation, and added a statutory citation; in Subsection A, after the second occurrence of "department", added "of transportation", and in Paragraph A(2), after "Section", deleted "1 of this 2018 act" and added "7-16A-19.1 NMSA 1978"; and in Subsection D, after "department", added "of transportation".

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, required special fuel users whose vehicles are not registered with the department to either obtain a temporary permit or a border crossing special fuel user permit before operating a vehicle on New Mexico highways, and provided a penalty for the violation of the provisions of this section; in the catchline, deleted "Temporary", and after "permits;", added "violation"; in Subsection A, deleted "To prevent evasion of the special fuel excise tax" and added "A", after "shall acquire", deleted "a temporary special fuel user permit", and added Paragraphs A(1) and A(2); added new subsection designation "B." and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections C and D, respectively; in Subsection B, added "A special fuel user applying for a", after "permit shall", deleted "be valid for one entrance and one exit of the state within a period that shall not exceed forty-eight hours from the time of issuance" and added "apply for the permit on a form approved by the department"; in Subsection D, after "user without", deleted "obtaining" and added "possessing"; and added Subsection E.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 1, 1997, rewrote the first sentence in Subsection A, deleted Subsection B, and redesignated former Subsections C and D as Subsections B and C.

The 1993 amendment, deleted "temporary highway user permits" at the end of the catchline and deleted former Subsections E to G, pertaining to issuance, use and requirements for temporary highway user permits.

Laws 1993, ch. 272 contained both an emergency clause making the act effective immediately and an effective date provision providing that the act was effective January 1, 1993. See N.M. Const., Art. IV, § 23.

7-16A-19.1. Border crossing special fuel user permit.

A. A special fuel user who operates a commercial motor carrier vehicle registered or titled in Mexico, who is engaged primarily in movement across the New Mexico-Mexico border and into or from an international border commercial zone and whose exclusive use of New Mexico highways is limited to an area within ten miles of the New Mexico-Mexico border may apply for, on a form approved by the department of transportation, a quarterly, semi-annual or annual border crossing special fuel user permit. The department of transportation shall issue the permit if it approves the application and upon payment of the fee for the permit.

B. The department of transportation shall establish by rule the amount, which shall not exceed the following, of fees for border crossing special fuel user permits:

- (1) for a quarterly permit, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125);
- (2) for a semi-annual permit, two hundred dollars ($200); and
- (3) for an annual permit, three hundred fifty dollars ($350).

C. As used in this section, "international border commercial zone" means that part of a commercial zone established by a law of the United States that extends into New Mexico.

History: Laws 2018, ch. 77, § 1; 2021, ch. 59, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, made conforming changes due to the transfer of certain authority to the department of transportation, and removed a provision authorizing the taxation and revenue department to revoke the border crossing special fuel user permit of a special fuel user found to have violated the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act; after each occurrence of "department", added "of transportation" throughout; and deleted former Subsection C and redesignated former Subsection D as Subsection C.

7-16A-20. Administration and enforcement of act.

The department shall interpret the provisions of the Special Fuels Supplier Tax Act. The department shall administer and enforce the collection of the special fuel excise tax, the special fuel inventory taxes and the tax on liquefied petroleum gas, and the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978] applies to the administration and enforcement of those taxes.

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, added the NMSA 1978 chapter and article for the Alternative Fuel Tax Act; and at the beginning of the sentence, deleted "Sections 1 through 10 of this act" and added "Chapter 7, Article 16B NMSA 1978".

7-16B-2. Purpose.

To encourage the use of alternative fuel for the propulsion of motor vehicles on the roads of New Mexico, thereby increasing the market for supplies of New Mexico natural gas and reducing harmful environmental emissions, it is the purpose of the Alternative Fuel Tax Act to provide for fair taxation of alternative fuel used for such purposes.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 17 made Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 2 effective January 1, 1996.

7-16B-3. Definitions.

As used in the Alternative Fuel Tax Act:

A. "alternative fuel" means liquefied petroleum gas, compressed natural gas, liquefied natural gas or a water-phased hydrocarbon fuel emulsion consisting of a hydrocarbon base and water in an amount not less than twenty percent by volume of the total water-phased fuel emulsion, all of which may be used for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle on the highways;

B. "alternative fuel user" means any user who is a registrant, owner or operator of a motor vehicle propelled by alternative fuel;

C. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

D. "distributor" means any person who delivers or dispenses alternative fuel into the supply tank of a motor vehicle;

E. "gallon" means:

(1) for liquid alternative fuel, the quantity of liquid necessary to fill a standard United States gallon liquid measure, which is approximately 3.785 liters; provided that:

(a) in the case of a water-phased hydrocarbon fuel emulsion, a gallon shall be measured only with respect to the hydrocarbon base portion of the emulsion and not to the water base portion; and

(b) in the case of liquefied natural gas, a gallon shall be 6.06 pounds of liquefied natural gas; or

(2) for nonliquid alternative fuel, one hundred fourteen cubic feet; provided that in the case of compressed natural gas, a gallon shall be 5.66 pounds or 126.67 standard cubic feet of compressed natural gas;

F. "gross vehicle weight" means the weight of a motor vehicle or a combination motor vehicle without load, plus the weight of any load on the motor vehicle;

G. "highway" means every road, highway, thoroughfare, street or way, including toll roads, generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of motor vehicle travel and notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair;

H. "motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle or device subject to registration under Section 66-3-1 NMSA 1978 that is used or may be used on the public highways in whole or in part for the purpose of transporting persons or property and includes any connected trailer or semitrailer;

I. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity; "person" also means, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other government or any department, agency or instrumentality of the state, county, municipality or any political subdivision thereof;

J. "registrant" means any person who has registered a motor vehicle pursuant to the laws of this state or of another state;

K. "sale" means any delivery, exchange, gift or other disposition;

L. "secretary" means the secretary of taxation and revenue or the secretary's delegate;

M. "supply tank" means any tank or other receptacle in which or by which fuel may be carried and supplied to the fuel-furnishing device or apparatus of the propulsion mechanism of a motor vehicle when the tank or receptacle either contains alternative fuel or alternative fuel is delivered into it;

N. "use" means:

(1) the receipt or placing of alternative fuel by an alternative fuel user into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle registered, owned or operated by the alternative fuel user;

(2) the consumption by an alternative fuel user of alternative fuel in the propulsion of a motor vehicle on the highways of this state and any activity ancillary to that propulsion; or

(3) the importation of alternative fuel in the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle as fuel for the propulsion of the motor vehicle on the highways;

O. "user" means any person other than the United States government or any of its agencies or instrumentalities; the state of New Mexico or any of its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities; or an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo who uses alternative fuel to propel a motor vehicle on the highways; and

P. the definitions of "alternative fuel user" and "distributor" shall be construed so that a person may at the same time be an alternative fuel user and a distributor.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 3; 1997, ch. 24, § 1; 2014, ch. 34, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, changed the definition of "gallon" with respect to liquid and nonliquid alternative fuel; in Subsection E, Paragraph (1), added "for liquid alternative fuel", and after "3.785 liters", deleted "for liquid alternative fuel" and added Subparagraph (b); and in Subsection E, Paragraph (2), at the beginning of the sentence, added "for nonliquid alternative fuel", and after "cubic feet", deleted "for nonliquid alternative fuel", and added the remainder of the sentence.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, in Subsection A, added the language beginning "or a water-phased hydrocarbon" and ending "which may be", and in Subsection B added the language beginning "provided, however," and ending "water base portion" and made minor stylistic changes.

7-16B-4. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination as alternative fuel excise tax.

A. For the privilege of distributing alternative fuel in this state, there is imposed an excise tax at a rate provided in Subsection C of this section on each gallon of alternative fuel distributed in New Mexico.

B. The tax imposed by this section may be called the "alternative fuel excise tax".

C. For each gallon of alternative fuel distributed in New Mexico, the tax imposed by Subsection A of this section shall be:

(1) for the period beginning January 1, 1996 and ending December 31, 1997, three cents ($0.03) per gallon;

(2) for the period beginning January 1, 1998 and ending December 31, 1999, six cents ($0.06) per gallon;

(3) for the period beginning January 1, 2000 and ending December 31, 2001, nine cents ($0.09) per gallon;

(4) for the period beginning January 1, 2002 and ending June 30, 2014, twelve cents ($0.12) per gallon; and

(5) for the period beginning July 1, 2014 and thereafter:

(a) for alternative fuel that is compressed natural gas, thirteen and three-tenths cents ($.133) per gallon;

(b) for alternative fuel that is liquefied natural gas, twenty and six-tenths cents ($.206) per gallon; and

(c) for alternative fuel not described in Subparagraph (a) or (b) of this paragraph, twelve cents ($.12) per gallon.

D. Alternative fuel purchased for distribution shall not be subject to the alternative fuel excise tax at the time of purchase or acquisition, but the tax shall be due on any alternative fuel at the time it is dispensed or delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle that is operated on the highways of this state.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 16, § 4; 2014, ch. 34, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective July 1, 2014, added tax rates for the period beginning July 1, 2014; eliminated the option to pay the alternative fuel excise tax on an annual basis; in Subsection C, in Paragraph (4), after "January 1, 2002 and", deleted "thereafter" and added "ending June 30, 2014", in Subsection C, added Paragraph (5); deleted former Subsection D, which gave taxpayers the option of paying the excise tax on an annual basis; and deleted former Subsection E, which provided that the annual excise tax could be prorated for periods of less than one year if approved by the secretary of taxation and revenue.

7-16B-5. Exemptions; alternative fuel excise tax.

A. Alternative fuel distributed to or used by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof is exempt from the imposition of the alternative fuel excise tax.

B. Alternative fuel distributed to or used by the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof is exempt from the imposition of the alternative fuel excise tax.

C. Alternative fuel distributed to or used by an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality thereof for the exclusive use of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or any agency or instrumentality thereof is exempt from the imposition of the alternative fuel excise tax.

7-16B-6. Tax returns; payment of tax; alternative fuel distributors.

A. Alternative fuel distributors shall file alternative fuel excise tax returns in form and content as prescribed by the secretary on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which alternative fuel is distributed in New Mexico. Payment of the alternative fuel excise tax shall be made with or prior to filing of the return.

B. In computing the alternative fuel excise tax due, amounts of alternative fuel distributed to an alternative fuel user may be deducted from the total amount of alternative fuel distributed in New Mexico during the tax period provided the alternative fuel user can establish proof of compliance with the provisions of Section 7 [7-16B-7 NMSA 1978] of the Alternative Fuel Tax Act.

7-16B-9. Delivery and use of alternative fuel; prohibited acts.

It is a violation of the Alternative Fuel Tax Act to:

A. operate a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state with a connection between a cargo or other tank or container, not considered in the Alternative Fuel Tax Act as being the motor vehicle's fuel supply tank, and a carburetor or other fuel supply device. Fuel supply tanks, including auxiliary fuel supply tanks, shall be separate and apart from cargo tanks or other containers, with no connection by pipe, tube, valve or otherwise;

B. sell or deliver to any person alternative fuel from any alternative fuel supply tank or auxiliary alternative fuel supply tank;

C. deliver alternative fuel from a cargo tank into the alternative fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle; provided, however, delivery of liquefied alternative fuels may be made into the alternative fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle by a registered and licensed alternative fuel distributor when made by that distributor from the cargo tank of a vehicle operated by that distributor, which tank is specially designed to make this type of alternative fuel delivery; or

D. engage in the business of distributing alternative fuel in New Mexico without obtaining an alternative fuel distributor license under the provisions of Section 8 [7-16B-8 NMSA 1978] of the Alternative Fuel Tax Act.

C. "cider" means an alcoholic beverage made from the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe apples or pears that contains not less than one-half of one percent of alcohol by volume and not more than eight and one-half percent of alcohol by volume;

D. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

E. "fortified wine" means wine containing more than fourteen percent alcohol by volume when bottled or packaged by the manufacturer, but "fortified wine" does not include:

- (1) wine that is sealed or capped by cork closure and aged two years or more;
- (2) wine that contains more than fourteen percent alcohol by volume solely as a result of the natural fermentation process and that has not been produced with the addition of wine spirits, brandy or alcohol; or
- (3) vermouth and sherry;

F. "microbrewer" means a person who produces less than two hundred thousand barrels of beer per year;

G. "person" includes, to the extent permitted by law, a federal, state or other governmental unit or subdivision or an agency, department, institution or instrumentality thereof;

H. "small winegrower" means a winegrower who produces less than one million five hundred thousand liters of wine in a year;

I. "spirituous liquors" means alcoholic beverages, except fermented beverages such as wine, beer, cider and ale;

J. "wholesaler" means a person holding a license issued under Section 60-6A-1 NMSA 1978 or a person selling alcoholic beverages that were not purchased from a person holding a license issued under Section 60-6A-1 NMSA 1978;

K. "wine" means an alcoholic beverage other than cider that is obtained by the fermentation of the natural sugar contained in fruit or other agricultural products, with or without the addition of sugar or other products, and that does not contain more than twenty-one percent alcohol by volume; and

L. "winegrower" means a person licensed pursuant to Section 60-6A-11 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 46-7-16, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 49, § 2; recompiled as 1953 Comp., § 72-32-2, by Laws 1973, ch. 166, § 2; 1984, ch. 85, § 2; 1986, ch. 20, § 74; 1991, ch. 161, § 1; 1993, ch. 65, § 6; 1994, ch. 52, § 1; 1995, ch. 70, § 18; 1995, ch. 74, § 1; 1996, ch. 49, § 1; 1997, ch. 143, § 1; 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 8, § 1; 2008, ch. 82, § 1; 2013, ch. 94, § 1; 2013, ch. 95, § 1; 2019, ch. 229, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the definitions of "cider" and "microbrewer" as used in the Liquor Excise Tax Act; in Subsection C, after "ripe apples", added "or pears", after "not more than", deleted "seven" and added "eight and one-half"; and in Subsection F, deleted former Paragraphs F(1) through F(3) and added "a person who produces less than two hundred thousand barrels of beer per year".

2013 Amendments. — Laws 2013, ch. 95, § 1, effective January 1, 2014, increased the volume limit for small wine growers; and in Subsection H, after "winegrower who produces", deleted "fewer than nine hundred fifty thousand" and added "less than one million five hundred thousand".

Laws 2013, ch. 94, § 1, effective January 1, 2014, deleted former Subsection F and added a new Subsection F.

The 2008 amendment, effective July 1, 2008, deleted the former definitions of "spirituous liquor", "fortified wine" and "wine"; in Subsection H, increased the maximum production of wine from five hundred sixty thousand liters to nine hundred fifty thousand liters; and added Subsections E, I, K and L.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, substituted "five hundred sixty thousand liters" for "three hundred seventy-five thousand liters" in Subsection E.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, made several stylistic changes throughout the section and substituted "three hundred seventy-five thousand" for "two hundred twenty thousand" in Subsection E.

The 1996 amendment, effective July 1, 1996, inserted "cider" in Paragraph A(1), added Paragraph A(3) and redesignated the following paragraphs accordingly, and inserted "other than cider" near the beginning of Paragraph A(5).

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, deleted former Subsection B, redesignated the remaining sections appropriately, and deleted "'director' or 'division'" following "'department'" in Subsection B.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, in Paragraph A(3), substituted "and aged two years of more" for "aged two years or more and sold only in 750 milliliter bottles or" in Subparagraph (a) and "or" for "and" at the end of Subparagraph (b), and added Subparagraph (c).

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, in Subsection A, added Paragraph (3) and redesignated former Paragraph (3) as Paragraph (4); added Subsection D and redesignated former Subsections D through F as Subsections E through G; and deleted provisions in Subsection F, pertaining to persons designated as small domestic producers for purposes of Section 5041 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1987, added Subsection E; redesignated former Subsection E as Subsection F; and made minor stylistic changes in Subsections A and B.

7-17-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1982, ch. 111, § 2, repealed 7-17-3 NMSA 1978, relating to the imposition of a wholesaler's tax and the rate thereof.

Laws 1982, ch. 111, § 3, provided that § 2 of the act would become effective on the day when the supreme court found the tax credit provisions of 7-9-80.1 NMSA 1978 to be less than fully enforceable and effective.

Laws 1983, ch. 213, § 38, repealed 7-17-3 NMSA 1978, relating to the imposition and rate of the wholesalers tax, and Laws 1982, ch. 111, § 2, effective July 1, 1983.

7-17-4. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1984, ch. 85, § 12, repealed 7-17-4 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 49, § 4, and recompiled by Laws 1973, ch. 166, § 2, relating to presumption of taxability under the Liquor Control Act, effective July 1, 1984.

7-17-5. Imposition and rate of liquor excise tax.

A. There is imposed on a wholesaler who sells alcoholic beverages on which the tax imposed by this section has not been paid an excise tax, to be referred to as the "liquor excise tax", at the following rates on alcoholic beverages sold:

(1) on spirituous liquors, except as provided in Paragraph (9) of this subsection, one dollar sixty cents ($1.60) per liter;

(2) on beer, except as provided in Paragraph (5) of this subsection, forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon;

(3) on wine, except as provided in Paragraphs (4) and (6) of this subsection, forty-five cents ($.45) per liter;

(4) on fortified wine, one dollar fifty cents ($1.50) per liter;

(5) on beer manufactured or produced by a microbrewer and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the beer was manufactured or produced by a microbrewer, eight cents ($.08) per gallon on the first thirty thousand barrels sold, twenty-eight cents ($.28) per gallon for all barrels sold over thirty thousand barrels but less than sixty thousand barrels and forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon for sixty thousand or more barrels sold;

(6) on wine manufactured or produced by a small winegrower and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the wine was manufactured or produced by a small winegrower:

(a) ten cents ($.10) per liter on the first eighty thousand liters sold;

(b) twenty cents ($.20) per liter on each liter sold over eighty thousand liters but not over nine hundred fifty thousand liters; and

(c) thirty cents ($.30) per liter on each liter sold over nine hundred fifty thousand liters but not over one million five hundred thousand liters;

(7) on cider, except as provided in Paragraph (8) of this subsection, forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon;

(8) on cider manufactured or produced by a small winegrower and sold in this state, provided that proof is furnished to the department that the cider was manufactured or produced by a small winegrower, eight cents ($.08) per gallon on the first thirty thousand barrels sold, twenty-eight cents ($.28) per gallon for all barrels sold over thirty thousand barrels but less than sixty thousand barrels and forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon for sixty thousand or more barrels sold; and

(9) on spirituous liquors manufactured or produced by a craft distiller licensed pursuant to Section 60-6A-6.1 NMSA 1978, provided that proof is provided to the department that the spirituous liquors were manufactured or produced by a craft distiller, for products up to ten percent alcohol by volume, eight cents ($.08) per liter for the first two hundred fifty thousand liters sold and twenty-eight cents ($.28) per liter for the next two hundred fifty thousand liters sold and for products over ten percent alcohol by volume, thirty-two cents ($.32) per liter on the first one hundred seventy-five thousand liters sold and sixty-five cents ($.65) per liter on the next two hundred thousand liters sold.

B. The volume of wine transferred from one winegrower to another winegrower for processing, bottling or storage and subsequent return to the transferor shall be excluded pursuant to Section 7-17-6 NMSA 1978 from the taxable volume of wine of the transferee. Wine transferred from an initial winegrower to a second winegrower remains a tax liability of the transferor, provided that if the wine is transferred to the transferee for the transferee's use or for resale, the transferee then assumes the liability for the tax due pursuant to this section.

C. A transfer of wine from a winegrower to a wholesaler for distribution of the wine transfers the liability for payment of the liquor excise tax to the wholesaler upon the sale of the wine by the wholesaler.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-17-5, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 65, § 8; 1994, ch. 52, § 2; 1995, ch. 74, § 2; 1996, ch. 49, § 2; 1997, ch. 143, § 2; 2000, ch. 43, § 1; 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 8, § 2; 2008, ch. 82, § 2; 2013, ch. 94, § 2; 2013, ch. 95, § 2; 2019, ch. 229, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1993, ch. 65, § 8 repealed former 7-17-5 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1993, ch. 65, § 7, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1994.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, revised the liquor excise tax rates on beer manufactured or produced by a microbrewer and sold in this state, and provided for a liquor excise tax on cider manufactured or produced by a small winegrower and sold in this state and on spirituous liquors manufactured or produced by a craft distiller; in Subsection A, Paragraph A(1), after "liquors", added "except as provided in Paragraph (9) of this subsection", in Paragraph A(5), after "on the first", deleted "ten" and added "sixty", after "barrels sold over", deleted "ten" and added "thirty", after "but less than", deleted "fifteen" and added "sixty", and after "sixty thousand barrels", added "and forty-one cents ($.41) per gallon for sixty thousand or more barrels sold", in Paragraph A(7), after "cider", added "except as provided in Paragraph (8) of this subsection", and added Paragraphs A(8) and A(9).

2013 Amendments. — Laws 2013, ch. 95, § 2, effective January 1, 2014, increased the liquor excise tax rate for small winegrowers; and added Subparagraph (c) of Paragraph (6) of Subsection A.

Laws 2013, ch. 94, § 2, effective January 1, 2014, added a new tax rate for all barrels sold over ten thousand barrels, but fewer than fifteen thousand barrels; and in Paragraph (5), Subsection A, added the language after "eight cents ($.08) per gallon".

The 2008 amendment, effective July 1, 2008, increased the minimum production of wine from five hundred sixty thousand liters to nine hundred fifty thousand liters and added Subsections B and C.

The 2000 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective July 1, 2000, substituted "five hundred sixty thousand liters" for "three hundred seventy-five thousand liters" at the end of Subsection F.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, in Subsection E, changed the excise tax on beer produced by a microbrewer from twenty-five cents per gallon to eight cents per gallon.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, substituted "three hundred seventy-five thousand" for "two hundred twenty thousand" in Subsection F.

The 1996 amendment, effective July 1, 1996, added Subsection G.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, deleted "or distributes" following "sells" and "or distributed" following "sold" in the introductory paragraph.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "one dollar sixty cents ($1.60)" for "one dollars sixty cents ($1.60)" in Subsection A; inserted "except as provided in Subsection E of this section" in Subsection B; substituted "a micro brewer and" and "each micro brewer" in Subsection E; and, in Subsection F, deleted former Paragraph (2), which read: 'after June 30, 1994, twenty-five cents ($.25) per liter on all liters sold", combined together the former introductory language and former Paragraph (1) into one present paragraph, substituted "a small winer or winegrower and" for "each small winer or winegrower", and deleted "from July 1, 1992 to June 30, 1994" preceding "ten cents" and "and" at the end.

This section does not implicate or violate the dormant Commerce Clause. — The dormant Commerce Clause, U.S. Const., Art. I, Sec. 8, limits state regulation of interstate commerce and is primarily concerned with preventing economic protectionism by states, and although NMSA 1978, § 7-17-5(A)(5) provides a lower excise tax rate on beer manufactured or produced by a microbrewer and sold in this state, it does not limit this lower tax rate to beer manufactured or produced in this state; this section does not differentiate between in-state and out-of-state craft distillers or give in-state craft distillers a competitive advantage over out-of-state craft distillers. Section 7-17-5(A)(5)'s purpose and effect are not discriminatory or protectionist and therefore do not implicate or violate the dormant Commerce Clause. 2024 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 24-02.

Proposed legislation does not discriminate against interstate commerce. — Proposed legislation that seeks to raise the basic alcohol tax rates imposed by NMSA 1978, § 7-17-5, does not implicate or violate the dormant Commerce Clause, U.S. Const., Art. I, § 8; a statute may be invalidated only where the burden imposed on interstate commerce is clearly excessive in relation to the putative local benefits, and the proposed legislation in this case does not distinguish between in-state and out-of-state economic interests on its face and does not discriminate against interstate commerce in its effects. The proposed legislation seeks to unify tax rates for all spiritous liquors, whether the wholesaler selling the alcoholic beverage sells products produced in-state or out-of-state, and does not place a burden on interstate commerce. 2024 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 24-02.

7-17-5.1. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1983, ch. 213, § 38, repealed 7-17-5.1 NMSA 1978, relating to the effective date of Laws 1982, ch. 111, §§ 1 and 2, effective July 1, 1983.

7-17-6. Deduction; interstate sales; winegrower-to-winegrower transfers.

A. A wholesaler may deduct the liters of spirituous liquors, gallons of beer and liters of wine sold and shipped to a person in another state from the units of alcoholic beverages subject to the tax imposed by the Liquor Excise Tax Act; provided that the department may require the wholesaler to submit evidence satisfactory to the department that the units have been sold and shipped to a person in another state.

B. A winegrower may deduct the liters of wine transferred to the winegrower from another winegrower for processing, bottling or storage and subsequent return to the transferor from the units of wine subject to the liquor excise tax on the licensed premises of the winegrower.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-17-6, enacted by Laws 1984, ch. 85, § 4; 1995, ch. 70, § 19; 2008, ch. 82, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1984, ch. 85, § 4, repealed former 7-17-6 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1973, ch. 166, § 2, relating to a deduction from gross receipts of receipts from selling beer to certain instrumentalities of the armed forces of the United States, and enacted a new section. For present comparable provisions, see 7-17-9 NMSA 1978.

The 2008 amendment, effective July 1, 2008, added Subsection B.

7-17-11. Refund or credit of tax.

The department shall allow a claim for refund or credit as provided in Sections 7-1-26 and 7-1-29 NMSA 1978 for the tax imposed by Section 7-17-5 NMSA 1978 and paid on alcoholic beverages destroyed in shipment, spoiled or otherwise damaged as to be unfit for sale or consumption upon submission of proof satisfactory to the department of such destruction, spoilage or damage.

History: Laws 1968, ch. 22, § 1; 1953 Comp., § 46-7-23; reenacted by Laws 1969, ch. 80, § 1; 1971, ch. 22, § 4; recompiled as 1953 Comp., § 72-32-11 and amended by Laws 1973, ch. 166, § 1; 1977, ch. 249, § 62; 1984, ch. 85, § 7; 1995, ch. 70, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective July 1, 1995, substituted "department" for "director" in two places.

7-17-12. Interpretation of act; administration and enforcement of tax.

A. The department shall interpret the provisions of the Liquor Excise Tax Act.

B. The department shall administer and enforce the collection of the liquor excise tax, and the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978] applies to the administration and enforcement of the tax.

7-19-10. Short title.

Sections 7-19-10 through 7-19-18 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act".

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 1; 1983, ch. 211, § 32.

7-19-11. Definitions.

As used in the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act:

A. "department" or "division" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "governing body" means the city council or city commission of a municipality;

C. "municipality" means any incorporated city, town or village having previously qualified to impose and did impose the tax pursuant to the provisions of the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act in effect prior to this 1997 act;

D. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity;

E. "refunding bonds" means bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act to refund supplemental municipal gross receipts tax bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of that act;

F. "state gross receipts tax" means the gross receipts tax imposed under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978]; and

G. "supplemental municipal gross receipts tax" means the tax authorized to be imposed under the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 2; 1980, ch. 106, § 1; 1986, ch. 20, § 79; 1997, ch. 219, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "this 1997 act" in Subsection C refers to Laws 1997, ch. 219, which amended this section.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, rewrote Subsection C, added Subsection E, and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly.

7-19-12. Authorization to impose supplemental municipal gross receipts tax; authorization for issuance of supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds; election required.

A. The majority of the members elected to the governing body of a municipality may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax on any person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business in the municipality. This tax is to be referred to as the "supplemental municipal gross receipts tax". The rate of the tax shall not exceed one percent of the gross receipts of the person engaging in business and shall be imposed in one-fourth percent increments if less than one percent.

B. The governing body of a municipality enacting an ordinance imposing the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section shall submit the question of imposing such tax and the question of the issuance of supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds in an amount not to exceed nine million dollars ($9,000,000), for which the revenue from the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax is dedicated, to the qualified electors of the municipality at a regular or special election.

C. The questions referred to in Subsection B of this section shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the municipality as two separate ballot questions which shall be substantially in the following form:

(1) "Shall the municipality be authorized to issue supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds in an amount of not exceeding _____ dollars for the purpose of constructing and equipping and otherwise acquiring a municipal water supply system?

For _____ Against _____"; and

(2) "Shall the municipality impose an excise tax for the privilege of engaging in business in the municipality which shall be known as the "supplemental municipal gross receipts tax" and which shall be imposed at a rate of _____ percent of the gross receipts of the person engaging in business, the proceeds of which are dedicated to the payment of supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds?

For _____ Against _____".

D. Only those voters who are registered electors who reside within the municipality shall be permitted to vote on these two questions. The procedures for conducting the election shall be substantially the same as the applicable provisions in Sections 3-30-1, 3-30-6 and 3-30-7 NMSA 1978 relating to municipal debt.

E. If at an election called pursuant to this section a majority of the voters voting on each of the two questions vote in the affirmative on each such question, then the ordinance imposing the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall be approved. If at such election a majority of the voters voting on such questions fail to approve any of the questions, then the ordinance imposing the tax shall be disapproved and the questions required to be submitted by Subsection B of this section shall not be submitted to the voters for a period of one year from the date of the election.

F. Any ordinance enacted under the provisions of this section shall include an effective date of either July 1 or January 1, whichever date occurs first after the expiration of at least five months from the date of the election. A certified copy of any ordinance imposing a supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall be mailed to the division within five days after the ordinance is adopted by the approval by the electorate. Any ordinance repealing the imposition of a tax under the provisions of the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act shall become effective on either July 1 or January 1, after the expiration of at least five months from the date the ordinance is repealed by the governing body.

G. Nothing in this section is intended to or does alter the effectiveness or validity of any actions taken in accordance with Subsection G of Section 80 of Chapter 20 of Laws 1986.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 3; 1980, ch. 106, § 2; 1986, ch. 6, § 1; 1986, ch. 20, § 80; 1997, ch. 219, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1986, ch. 20, § 80, referred to in Subsection G, amended this section. The reference to Subsection G of that law is a reference to Subsection G of this section as it read prior to the 1997 amendment by Laws 1997, ch. 219, § 2, when Subsection G provided that no ordinance would be effective under this article unless the ordinance is enacted and the required election is held prior to February 1, 1986.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, deleted "authorization removed" at the end of the section heading, deleted "registered" preceding "electors" near the end of Subsection B and in the introductory paragraph of Subsection C, and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection C, inserted "municipal" preceding "gross receipts tax" in the first sentence of Subsection E, and rewrote Subsection G.

Am. Jur. 2d, A.L.R. and C.J.S. references. — 68 Am. Jur. 2d Sales and Use Taxes § 1 et seq.

7-19-13. Ordinance must conform to certain provisions of the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and requirements of the division.

A. Any ordinance imposing a supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall adopt by reference the same definitions and the same provisions relating to exemptions and deductions as are contained in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978] then in effect and as it may be amended from time to time.

B. The governing body of any municipality imposing or increasing the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax must adopt the language of the model ordinance furnished to the municipality by the division for the portion of the ordinance relating to the tax.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 10 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 6, 1979.

7-19-14. Specific exemptions.

No supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall be imposed on the gross receipts arising from:

A. prior to July 1, 2021, transporting persons or property for hire by railroad, motor vehicle, air transportation or any other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality; or

B. a business located outside the boundaries of a municipality on land owned by that municipality for which a gross receipts tax distribution is made pursuant to Section 7-1-6.4 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 5; 1983, ch. 211, § 33; 1994, ch. 101, § 1; 2019, ch. 270, § 46.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, provided that no municipal gross receipts tax shall be imposed on the gross receipts arising from transporting persons or property for hire by railroad, motor vehicle, air transportation or any other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality prior to July 1, 2021; and in Subsection A, added "prior to July 1, 2021".

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, deleted former Subsection A, which read: "the transmission of messages by wire or other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality;" and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections A and B; and in Subsection B, deleted "Subsection C of" following "pursuant to."

7-19-15. Collection by department; transfer of proceeds; deductions.

A. The department shall collect the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax in the same manner and at the same time it collects the state gross receipts tax.

B. The department shall withhold an administrative fee pursuant to Section 1 [7-1-6.41 NMSA 1978] of this 1997 act. The department shall transfer to each municipality for which it is collecting a supplemental municipal gross receipts tax the amount of the tax collected less the administrative fee withheld and less any disbursements for tax credits, refunds and the payment of interest applicable to the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax. Transfer of the tax to a municipality shall be made within the month following the month in which the tax is collected.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 6; 1983, ch. 211, § 34; 1997, ch. 125, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "this 1997 act" in Subsection B refers to Laws 1997, ch. 125, which amended this section.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section and in the section heading, and in Subsection B, substituted "shall withhold an administrative fee pursuant to Section 1 of this 1997 act" for "may deduct an amount not to exceed three percent of the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax collected as a charge for the administrative costs of collection, which amount shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund each month" in the first sentence, and substituted "less the administrative fee withheld" for "less any deduction for administrative cost" in the second sentence.

7-19-16. Interpretation of act; administration and enforcement of tax.

A. The division shall interpret the provisions of the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act.

B. The division shall administer and enforce the collection of the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax, and the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978] applies to the administration and enforcement of the tax.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 10 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 6, 1979.

7-19-17. Issuance of bonds; purposes.

A. If the ordinance imposing the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax is approved as provided in Subsection E of Section 7-19-12 NMSA 1978, the governing body of a municipality may issue bonds pursuant to the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act in an amount not to exceed nine million dollars ($9,000,000). The supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds shall be issued for the purpose of constructing and equipping and otherwise acquiring a municipal water supply system, including the purchase of water rights and easements, equipment and professional fees related thereto, to be paid back from the proceeds of the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax imposed.

B. Supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds shall be issued and sold as provided in the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act. The governing body of the municipality shall determine at its discretion the terms, covenants and conditions of the supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds, including but not limited to, date of issuance, denomination, maturity, coupon rates, call features, premium, registration, refundability and other matters covering the general and technical aspects of their issuance. These bonds may be either serial or term and may be sold by the governing body of the municipality at the time and in the manner as the governing body may elect, at either public or private sale. The supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds shall not be considered or held to be general obligations of the municipality issuing them and are payable solely from the revenue accruing from the revenue of the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax. The ordinance authorizing the tax shall be irrevocable until these bonds are fully paid.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 8; 1980, ch. 106, § 3; 1986, ch. 6, § 2.

7-19-17.1. Refunding bonds; authorization.

A. Any municipality may issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refinancing, paying and discharging all or any part of outstanding supplemental municipal gross receipts tax bonds of any one or more or all outstanding issues:

(1) for the acceleration, deceleration or other modification of the payment of such obligations, including without limitation any capitalization of any interest thereon in arrears or about to become due for any period not exceeding one year from the date of the refunding bonds;

(2) for the purpose of reducing interest costs or affecting other economies;

(3) for the purpose of modifying or eliminating restrictive contractual limitations pertaining to the issuance of additional bonds, otherwise concerning the outstanding bonds or to any facilities relating thereto; or

(4) for any combination of such purposes.

B. The municipality may pledge irrevocably for the payment of interest and principal on refunding bonds the appropriate pledged revenues, which may be pledged to an original issue of bonds as provided in the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act. Nothing in this section shall permit the pledge of the gross receipts tax revenue to the payment of bonds that refund bonds issued under any other provision of law.

C. Refunding bonds may be issued separately or issued in combination in one series or more.

D. Refunding bonds issued pursuant to the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act shall be authorized by ordinance. Any bonds that are refunded under the provisions of this section shall be paid at maturity or on any permitted prior redemption date in the amounts, at the time and places and, if called prior to maturity, in accordance with any applicable notice provisions, all as provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunded bonds, or otherwise appertaining thereto, except for any such bond that is voluntarily surrendered for exchange or payment by the holder or owner.

E. Provision shall be made for paying the bonds refunded at the time or places provided in Subsection D of this section. The principal amount of the refunding bonds shall not exceed, but may be less than or be the same as the principal amount of the bonds being refunded so long as provision is duly and sufficiently made for the payment of the refunded bonds.

F. The proceeds of refunding bonds, including any accrued interest and premium appertaining to the sale of refunding bonds, shall either be immediately applied to the retirement of the bonds being refunded or be placed in escrow in a commercial bank or trust company that possesses and is exercising trust powers and that is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation, to be applied to the payment of the principal of, interest on and any prior redemption premium due in connection with the bonds being refunded; provided that such refunding bond proceeds, including any accrued interest and any premium appertaining to a sale of refunding bonds, may be applied to the establishment and maintenance of a reserve fund and to the payment of expenses incidental to the refunding and the issuance of the refunding bonds, the interest on the refunding bonds and the principal of the refunding bonds or both interest and principal as the municipality may determine. Nothing in this section requires the establishment of an escrow if the refunded bonds become due and payable within one year from the date of the refunding bonds and if the amounts necessary to retire the refunded bonds within that time are deposited with the paying agent for the refunded bonds. Any such escrow shall not necessarily be limited to proceeds of refunding bonds but may include other money available for its escrow purpose. Any proceeds in escrow pending such use may be invested or reinvested in bills, certificates of indebtedness, notes or bonds that are direct obligations of or the principal and interest of which obligations are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States or in certificates of deposit of banks that are members of the federal deposit insurance corporation, the par value of which certificates of deposit is collateralized by a pledge of obligations of or the payment of which is unconditionally guaranteed by the United States, the par value of which obligations is [at] least seventy-five percent of the par value of the certificates of deposit. Such proceeds and investments in escrow together with any interest or other income to be derived from any such investment shall be in an amount at all times sufficient as to principal, interest, any prior redemption premium due and any charges of the escrow agent payable therefrom to pay the bonds being refunded as they become due at their respective maturities or due at any designated prior redemption date in connection with which the municipality shall exercise a prior redemption option. Any purchaser of any refunding bond issued pursuant to the provisions of the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act is in no manner responsible for the application of the proceeds thereof by the municipality or any of its officers, agents or employees.

G. Refunding bonds may be sold at a public or negotiated sale and may bear such additional terms and provisions as may be determined by the municipality subject to limitations in the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act. The terms, provisions and authorization of the refunding bonds are not subject to the provisions of any other statute, provided that the Public Securities Limitation of Action Act [6-14-4 to 6-14-7 NMSA 1978] shall be fully applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds.

H. The municipality shall receive from the department of finance and administration written approval of any refunding bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this section.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 219, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1997, ch. 219 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 20, 1997, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law.

7-19-18. Supplemental municipal gross receipts tax; use of proceeds; restriction.

A. The proceeds from the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall be deposited in a special improvement account of the municipality and shall be used only for:

(1) the payment of the principal of, interest on, any prior redemption premiums due in connection with and other expenses related to the supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds issued pursuant to the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act;

(2) the funding of any reserves and other accounts in connection with such bonds;

(3) refunding bonds; and

(4) to the extent not needed for those purposes, the improvement of the municipality's water system.

B. When any issue of supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds is fully paid, the supplemental municipal gross receipts tax shall cease to be imposed for that issue, but may continue to be imposed for bonds enacted and approved pursuant to Section 7-19-12 NMSA 1978 and thereafter issued, or for refunding bonds issued pursuant to Section 4 [7-19-17.1 NMSA 1978] of this 1997 act. Any money remaining in a special improvement account after the obligations for supplemental municipal gross receipts bonds and refunding bonds, are fully paid may be transferred to any other fund of the municipality.

History: Laws 1979, ch. 397, § 9; 1980, ch. 106, § 4; 1986, ch. 6, § 3; 1997, ch. 219, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "this 1997 act" in Subsection B refers to Laws 1997, ch. 219, which amended this section.

The 1997 amendment, June 20, 1997, designated the former first sentence as Paragraphs A(1), (2) and (4), and added Paragraph A(3); designated the former second and third sentences as Subsection B, and in Subsection B, inserted "any issue of" near the beginning of the subsection, added the language beginning "for that issue, but may continue to be imposed for bonds" at the end of the first sentence, inserted "and refunding bonds," in the second sentence, and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

ARTICLE 19D

Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes

7-19D-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 19D NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-1, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 1; 2019, ch. 270, § 47.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, changed the name of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act; after "Receipts", added "and Compensating".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 54, provided that references in law to the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be deemed to be references to the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act, and references in law to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be deemed to be references to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act.

Law reviews. — For article, "New Mexico Taxes: Taking Another Look," see 32 N.M.L. Rev. 351 (2002).

7-19D-2. Definitions.

As used in the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "governing body" means the city council or city commission of a city, the board of trustees of a town or village and the board of county commissioners of H-class counties;

C. "municipality" means any incorporated city, town or village, whether incorporated under general act, special act or special charter, and an H-class county;

D. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity; and

E. "state gross receipts tax" means the gross receipts tax imposed under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978].

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-2, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 13 made Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 2 effective July 1, 1993.

7-19D-3. Effective date of ordinance.

An ordinance imposing, amending or repealing a tax or an increment of tax authorized by the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be effective on July 1 or January 1, whichever date occurs first after the expiration of at least three months from the date the adopted ordinance is mailed or delivered to the department. The ordinance shall include that effective date.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-3, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 13 made Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 3 effective July 1, 1993.

7-19D-4. Ordinance shall conform to certain provisions of the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and requirements of the department.

A. An ordinance imposing a tax under the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall adopt by reference the same definitions and the same provisions relating to exemptions and deductions as are contained in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978] then in effect and as it may be amended from time to time.

B. The governing body of any municipality imposing a tax under the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall impose the tax by adopting the model ordinance with respect to the tax furnished to the municipality by the department. An ordinance that does not conform substantially to the model ordinance of the department is not valid.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-4, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 13 made Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 4 effective July 1, 1993.

7-19D-5. Specific exemptions.

No tax authorized by the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act shall be imposed on the gross receipts arising from:

A. prior to July 1, 2021, transporting persons or property for hire by railroad, motor vehicle, air transportation or any other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality; or

B. a business located outside the boundaries of a municipality on land owned by that municipality for which a state gross receipts tax distribution is made pursuant to Section 7-1-6.4 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-5, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 5; 1994, ch. 101, § 3; 2019, ch. 270, § 48.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, provided that no tax authorized by the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act shall be imposed on the gross receipts arising from transporting persons or property for hire by railroad, motor vehicle, air transportation or any other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality prior to July 1, 2021; and in Subsection A, added "prior to July 1, 2021".

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "by" for "under" in the undesignated paragraph; deleted former Subsection A, which read: "the transmission of messages by wire or other means from one point within the municipality to another point outside the municipality;" and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections A and B; and in Subsection B, deleted "Subsection C of" following "pursuant to".

7-19D-6. Copy of ordinance to be submitted to department.

A certified copy of the ordinance imposing or repealing a tax authorized under the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act or changing the tax rate imposed shall be mailed or delivered to the department within five days after the later of the date the ordinance is adopted or the date the results of any election held with respect to the ordinance are certified to be in favor of the ordinance.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-6, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 13 made Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 6 effective July 1, 1993.

7-19D-7. Collection by department.

The department shall collect each tax imposed pursuant to the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act in the same manner and at the same time it collects the state gross receipts and compensating taxes.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-7, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 7; 1997, ch. 125, § 7; 2019, ch. 270, § 49.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, removed provisions related to administrative fees; in the section heading, deleted "transfer of proceeds; deductions"; deleted former subsection designation "A.", after "Gross Receipts", added "and Compensating", and after "state gross receipts", deleted "tax" and added "and compensating taxes"; and deleted former Subsections B and C.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, substituted "pursuant to" for "under" in Subsection A; in Subsection B, substituted "shall withhold an administrative fee pursuant to Section 1 of this 1997 act" for "may deduct an amount not to exceed three percent of each tax collected under the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act as a charge for the administrative costs of collection, which amount shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund each month", and in the second sentence, substituted "pursuant" for "under" and substituted "the administrative fee withheld and less any disbursements for" for "any disbursement for administrative charges made pursuant to this section"; and substituted "shall withhold the administrative fee pursuant to Section 1 of this 1997 act only on that" for "may deduct as a charge for administration an amount equal to three percent of the" in Subsection C.

7-19D-8. Interpretation of act; administration and enforcement of act.

A. The department shall interpret the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act.

B. The department shall administer and enforce the collection of each tax authorized under the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, and the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978] applies to the administration and enforcement of each tax.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-8, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 13 made Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 8 effective July 1, 1993.

7-19D-9. Municipal gross receipts tax; authority to impose rate.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of any municipality may impose by ordinance an excise tax on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business in the municipality. A tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be imposed by the enactment of one or more ordinances enacting any number of increments of one-hundredth percent; provided that the total increments do not exceed the maximum rate provided in Subsection C of this section; and provided further that, if at the time of enacting the ordinance the total municipal gross receipts tax rate is not an even multiple of one-hundredth percent, the municipality may impose an increment in an amount sufficient to bring the total rate to an even multiple of one-hundredth percent. The governing body of a municipality may, at the time of enacting the ordinance, dedicate the revenue for any municipal purpose. If the governing body proposes to dedicate such revenue, the ordinance and, if any election is held, the ballot shall clearly state the purpose to which the revenue will be dedicated, and any revenue so dedicated shall be used by the municipality for that purpose unless a subsequent ordinance is adopted to change the purpose to which dedicated or to place the revenue in the general fund of the municipality.

B. The tax imposed pursuant to Subsection A of this section may be referred to as the "municipal gross receipts tax".

C. The maximum rate of the municipal gross receipts tax on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the municipality shall not exceed two and one-half percent. Of that two and one-half percent:

(1) a governing body may choose to require an election to impose increments up to a total of two and five-hundredths percent; and

(2) the remaining increments, up to a total of forty-five hundredths percent, shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the municipality voting in the election votes in favor of the tax. Increments approved by voters prior to July 1, 2019 shall be included in the increments approved by the voters, as provided in this paragraph.

D. An election shall be called on the questions of disapproval or approval of any ordinance enacted pursuant to Subsection C of this section or any ordinance amending such ordinance:

(1) if the governing body chooses to provide in the ordinance that it shall not be effective until the ordinance is approved by the majority of the registered voters voting on the question at an election to be held pursuant to the provisions of the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978]; or

(2) if the ordinance does not contain a mandatory election provision as provided in Paragraph (1) of this subsection, upon the filing of a petition requesting such an election if the petition is filed:

(a) pursuant to the requirements of a referendum provision contained in a municipal home-rule charter and signed by the number of registered voters in the municipality equal to the number of registered voters required in its charter to seek a referendum; or

(b) in all other municipalities, with the municipal clerk within thirty days after the adoption of such ordinance and the petition has been signed by a number of registered voters in the municipality equal to at least five percent of the number of the voters in the municipality who were registered to vote in the most recent regular municipal election.

E. The signatures on the petition filed in accordance with Subsection D of this section shall be verified by the municipal clerk. If the petition is verified by the municipal clerk as containing the required number of signatures of registered voters, the governing body shall adopt an election resolution calling for the holding of a special election on the question of approving or disapproving the ordinance unless the ordinance is repealed before the adoption of the election resolution. An election held pursuant to Subparagraph (a) or (b) of Paragraph (2) of Subsection D of this section shall be called, conducted and canvassed as provided in the Local Election Act, and the election shall be held within seventy-five days after the date the petition is verified by the municipal clerk or it may be held in conjunction with a regular local election if such election occurs within seventy-five days after the date of verification by the municipal clerk.

F. If at an election called pursuant to Subsection D of this section a majority of the registered voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act. If at such an election a majority of the registered voters voting on the question disapproves the ordinance, the ordinance imposing the tax shall be deemed repealed and the question of imposing any increment of the municipal gross receipts tax authorized in this section shall not be considered again by the governing body for a period of one year from the date of the election.

G. Any law that imposes or authorizes the imposition of a municipal gross receipts tax or that affects the municipal gross receipts tax, or any law supplemental thereto or otherwise appertaining thereto, shall not be repealed or amended or otherwise directly or indirectly modified in such a manner as to impair adversely any outstanding revenue bonds that may be secured by a pledge of such municipal gross receipts tax unless such outstanding revenue bonds have been discharged in full or provision has been fully made therefor.

History: Laws 1978, ch. 151, § 1; 1979, ch. 155, § 1; 1981, ch. 37, § 11; 1982, ch. 3, § 2; 1983, ch. 213, § 18; 1985, ch. 208, § 121; 1986, ch. 20, § 76; 1987, ch. 323, § 26; 1988, ch. 120, § 1; 1978, Comp., § 7-19-4, amended and recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-19D-9 by Laws 1993, ch. 346, § 9; 2007, ch. 331, § 5; 2018, ch. 79, § 76; 2019, ch. 274, § 13; 2020, ch. 80, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, provided that increments of the municipal gross receipts tax shall be imposed in increments of one-hundredths percent; in Subsection A, added "enacting any number of increments of one-hundredth percent; provided that the total increments do not exceed the maximum rate provided in Subsection C of this section; and provided further that, if at the time of enacting the ordinance the total municipal gross receipts tax rate is not an even multiple of one-hundredth percent, the municipality may impose an increment in an amount sufficient to bring the total rate to an even multiple of one-hundredth percent"; in Subsection C, Paragraph C(1), after "increments", deleted "that" and added "up to a", and in Paragraph C(2), after "increments", deleted "totaling" and added "up to a total of"; and in Subsection F, after "Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts", added "and Compensating".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 13, effective May 20, 2020, provided that an ordinance imposing a local option gross receipts tax authorized by those sections of law that were repealed and consolidated with the municipal gross receipts tax or the county gross receipts tax by Laws 2019, Chapter 274 is deemed to be imposing an equal rate of the municipal gross receipts tax or county gross receipts tax, as appropriate, as was imposed by the ordinance when the ordinance was enacted; provided that the ordinance was in effect on the date of repeal and the ordinance has not been repealed by the governing body. Any dedication of revenue pursuant to the ordinance remains in effect until changed by the governing body; provided that, if the dedication were approved by the electorate, any change to the dedication must also be approved by the electorate.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, replaced the one and one-half percent maximum authority for municipal gross receipts tax local option with a maximum authority of two and one-half percent, provided that local authorities are authorized to allow local voters to approve any enactments of less than an aggregate two and five hundredths percent, and provided that any authorization over two and five-hundredths percent to be approved by the local voters; in Subsection A, after "an excise tax", deleted "not to exceed a rate of one and one-half percent of", and deleted "each imposing any number of municipal gross receipts tax rate increments but the total municipal gross receipts tax rate imposed by all ordinances shall not exceed an aggregate rate of one and one-half percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business. Municipalities may impose increments of one-eighth of one percent." and added "any municipal purpose"; deleted former Subsection B and subsection designation "C"; after "dedicate the revenue for", deleted "a specific purpose or area of municipal government services, including police protection, fire protection, public transportation or street repair and maintenance"; added new Subsections B and C; and deleted former Subsection G and redesignated former Subsection H as Subsection G.

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, provided that elections called to approve or disapprove ordinances imposing excise taxes shall be called, conducted and canvassed pursuant to the provisions of the Local Election Act, and made technical and conforming changes; in Paragraph D(1), after "pursuant to the provisions of", deleted "a home-rule charter or on a date set by the governing body and pursuant to the provisions of the Municipal Election Code governing special elections" and added "the Local Election Act"; and in Subsection E, after "canvassed as provided in the", deleted "Municipal Election Code for special elections" and added "Local Election Act", and after "regular", deleted "municipal" and added "local".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2018, ch. 79, § 174 provided that references in law to the Municipal Election Code and to the School Election Law shall be deemed to be references to the Local Election Act.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, increased the maximum aggregate gross receipts tax rate to one-half percent of gross receipts and provided that all municipalities may impose increments of one-eighth of one percent.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, renumbered this section and rewrote it to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

7-19D-9.1. Municipal compensating tax.

A. Beginning July 1, 2021, for the privilege of using tangible personal property in a municipality, there is imposed on the person using the property an excise tax at a rate equal to the combined gross receipts tax rates imposed and in effect pursuant to the Supplemental Municipal Gross Receipts Tax Act [7-19-10 to 7-19-18 NMSA 1978] and the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act of the value of tangible personal property that was:

- (1) manufactured by the person using the property in the state; or
- (2) acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the state gross receipts tax had the tangible personal property been acquired from a person with nexus with New Mexico.

B. For the purpose of Subsection A of this section, the value of tangible personal property shall be the adjusted basis of the property for federal income tax purposes determined as of the time of acquisition or introduction into this state or of conversion to use, whichever is later. If no adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes is established for the property, a reasonable value of the property shall be used.

C. For the privilege of using a license or franchise in a municipality, there is imposed on the person using the license or franchise an excise tax equal to the tax rate provided in Subsection A of this section against the value of the license or franchise as determined pursuant to Section 7-9-7 NMSA 1978. The department by rule, ruling or instruction shall fairly apportion, where appropriate, the value of a license or franchise to its value in use in the municipality. For use of a license or franchise to be taxable under this subsection, the value of the license or franchise shall be acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the gross receipts tax had the license or franchise been acquired from a person with nexus with this state.

D. For the privilege of using services in a municipality, there is imposed on the person using the services an excise tax at the rate provided in Subsection A of this section of the value of the services at the time the product of the service was acquired. For use of services to be taxable under this subsection, the services shall have been performed by a person outside this state and the product of which was acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the gross receipts tax had the service or product of the service been acquired from a person with nexus with this state.

E. The governing body of a municipality may dedicate the revenue from the tax imposed pursuant to this section for any municipal purpose. If the governing body proposes to dedicate revenue for a specific purpose, the dedicated revenue shall be used by the municipality for that purpose unless a subsequent ordinance is adopted to change the purpose to which the revenue is dedicated or to place the revenue in the general fund of the municipality.

F. Any law that affects the municipal compensating tax, or any law supplemental or otherwise appertaining thereto, shall not be repealed or amended or otherwise directly or indirectly modified in such a manner as to impair adversely any outstanding revenue bonds that may be secured by a pledge of such municipal compensating tax unless such outstanding revenue bonds have been discharged in full or provision has been fully made therefor.

G. The tax imposed by this section may be cited as the "municipal compensating tax".

7-19D-14. Quality of life gross receipts tax; authority to impose; ordinance requirements; use of revenue; election.

A. Prior to January 1, 2016, the majority of the members of the governing body of a municipality may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-fourth percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business. The tax may be imposed in one or more increments of one-sixteenth percent not to exceed an aggregate rate of one-fourth percent. The tax shall be imposed for a period of not more than ten years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax. Having enacted an ordinance imposing the tax prior to January 1, 2016 pursuant to the provisions of this section, the governing body may enact subsequent ordinances for succeeding periods of not more than ten years; provided that each ordinance meets the requirements of this section and of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. The tax imposed pursuant to the provisions of this section may be referred to as the "quality of life gross receipts tax".

B. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the quality of life gross receipts tax, shall dedicate the revenue to cultural programs and activities provided by a local government and to cultural programs, events and activities provided by contract or operating agreement with nonprofit or publicly owned cultural organizations and institutions.

C. An ordinance imposing any increment of the quality of life gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the municipality voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within ninety days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question may be submitted to the voters as a separate question at a general election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. In any election held, the ballot shall clearly state the purpose to which the revenue will be dedicated pursuant to this section. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the quality of life gross receipts tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the quality of life gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

D. The quality of life gross receipts tax revenue shall be used to meet the following goals: promoting and preserving cultural diversity; enhancing the quality of cultural programs and activities; fostering greater access to cultural opportunities; promoting culture in order to further economic development within the municipality; and supporting programs, events and organizations with direct, identifiable and measurable public benefit to residents of the municipality. It is the objective of the quality of life gross receipts tax that the revenue from the tax be used to expand and sustain existing programs and to develop new programs, events and activities, rather than to replace other funding sources for existing programs, events and activities.

E. The governing body of a municipality that imposes the quality of life gross receipts tax shall, within sixty days of the election approving the imposition of the tax, appoint a municipal cultural advisory board consisting of between nine and fifteen members. Persons appointed to the board shall be residents of the municipality who are knowledgeable about the activities eligible for quality of life tax funding. The members of the board shall be appointed for fixed terms and shall not be removed during their terms except for malfeasance. The terms of the initial board members shall be staggered so that one-third of the members are appointed for one-year terms, one-third are appointed for two-year terms and one-third are appointed for three-year terms. Subsequent appointments to the board shall be for three-year terms. If a vacancy on the board occurs, the governing body shall appoint a replacement member for the remainder of the unexpired term. A board member shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms.

F. The municipal cultural advisory board shall have the responsibility of overseeing the distribution of the quality of life gross receipts tax revenue for the goals listed in Subsection D of this section. The board shall:

(1) biennially submit recommendations to the governing body for expenditures of revenue from the quality of life gross receipts tax that are allocated pursuant to this section through contracts for services with appropriate organizations and institutions;

(2) establish and publicize the necessary qualifications for organizations and institutions to receive quality of life gross receipts tax funding; and

(3) develop guidelines and procedures for applying for funding through a request for proposals process and the criteria by which contracts will be awarded. The evaluation process shall include a public review component.

G. The municipal cultural advisory board shall establish reporting requirements for recipients of the quality of life gross receipts tax revenue. The board shall provide to the governing body an annual evaluation of the use of revenue from the quality of life gross receipts tax to ensure that it is meeting the goals listed in Subsection D of this section.

H. Every four years, the municipal cultural advisory board shall review and revise as necessary:

(1) the guidelines and procedures for applying for funding; and

(2) the criteria by which applications for funding will be evaluated.

I. As used in this section:

(1) "cultural organizations and institutions" means organizations or institutions that have as a primary purpose the advancement or preservation of zoology, museums, library sciences, art, music, theater, dance, literature or the humanities; and

(2) "municipality" means an incorporated municipality except for an incorporated municipality with a population in excess of two hundred fifty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census.

7-19D-15. Municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election required.

A. A majority of the members of the governing body of a municipality that desires to become a member of a regional spaceport district pursuant to the Regional Spaceport District Act [5-16-1 to 5-16-13 NMSA 1978] shall impose by ordinance an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business. A tax imposed pursuant to this section may be imposed by one or more ordinances, each imposing any number of tax rate increments, but an increment shall not be less than one-sixteenth percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the municipality, and the aggregate of all rates shall not exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the municipality. The tax may be referred to as the "municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax".

B. A governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, shall dedicate a minimum of seventy-five percent of the revenue to a regional spaceport district for the financing, planning, designing, engineering and construction of a regional spaceport pursuant to the Regional Spaceport District Act and may dedicate no more than twenty-five percent of the revenue for spaceport-related projects as approved by resolution of the governing body of the municipality.

C. An ordinance imposing a municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters of the municipality voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality as a separate question at a regular local election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. An election shall be called, conducted and canvassed as provided in the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978]. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of an increment of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

D. The governing body of a municipality imposing the municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax shall transfer a minimum of seventy-five percent of all proceeds from the tax to the regional spaceport district of which it is a member for regional spaceport purposes in accordance with the provisions of the Regional Spaceport District Act. The governing body of a municipality imposing the municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax may retain no more than twenty-five percent of the municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax for spaceport-related projects as approved by resolution of the governing body.

History: Laws 2006, ch. 15, § 14; 2018, ch. 79, § 78.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, provided that elections called to approve or disapprove an ordinance imposing a municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax shall be called, conducted and canvassed as provided in the Local Election Act, and made technical and conforming changes; and in Subsection C, after "at a regular", deleted "municipal" and added "local", after "governing body.", deleted "A special municipal" and added "An", and after "as provided in the", deleted "Municipal Election Code" and added "Local Election Act".

7-19D-16. Municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of an eligible municipality may impose by ordinance an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-fourth of one percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business. The tax may be imposed in increments of one-sixteenth of one percent not to exceed an aggregate rate of one-fourth of one percent. The tax shall be imposed for a period of not more than twenty years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax.

B. The tax imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax".

C. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a rate of tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, shall dedicate the revenue only for:

(1) acquisition, construction, renovation or improvement of facilities of a four-year post-secondary public educational institution located in the municipality and acquisition of or improvements to land for those facilities; or

(2) payment of municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax revenue bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 3, Article 31 NMSA 1978.

D. An ordinance imposing any increment of the municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters of the municipality voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election on the question of imposing the tax at the next regular municipal election. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality as a separate question. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the municipal higher education facilities gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of any increment of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

E. For the purposes of this section, "eligible municipality" means a municipality that has a population greater than fifty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census and that is located in a class B county having a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for the 2006 property tax year or any subsequent year of more than two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000).

7-19D-17. Federal water project gross receipts tax; authorization; use of revenue; referendum.

A. A majority of the members of the governing body of a municipality may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax on any person engaging in business in the municipality for the privilege of engaging in business. The rate of the tax shall not exceed one-fourth percent of the gross receipts of the person engaging in business. An ordinance enacting the tax authorized by this section is subject to a positive referendum.

B. The tax imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "federal water project gross receipts tax".

C. The governing body of a municipality, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the rate of the tax authorized in this section, shall dedicate the revenue for the repayment of loan obligations to the federal government for the construction, expansion, operation and maintenance of a water delivery system and for the expansion, operation and maintenance of that water delivery system after the loan obligation to the federal government is retired or repaid. The revenue from the federal water project gross receipts tax shall not be dedicated to repay revenue bonds or any other form of bonds.

D. An ordinance imposing the federal water project gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until an election is held and a majority of the voters of the municipality voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality as a separate question at a regular local election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. An election shall be called, conducted and canvassed as provided in the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978]. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the federal water project gross receipts tax, then the ordinance shall become effective on January 1 or July 1 in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the federal water project gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

E. A municipality that imposed a federal water project gross receipts tax pursuant to this section shall not also impose a municipal capital outlay gross receipts tax.

F. As used in this section, "municipality" means an incorporated municipality that has a population pursuant to the most recent federal decennial census of greater than twenty thousand but less than twenty-five thousand and is located in a class B county.

ARTICLE 20E

County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes

7-20E-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 20E NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-1, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 1; 2019, ch. 270, § 51.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, changed the name of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act to the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act; after "Receipts", added "and Compensating".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 54, provided that references in law to the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be deemed to be references to the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act, and references in law to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be deemed to be references to the Municipal Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act.

7-20E-2. Definitions.

As used in the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act:

A. "county" means, unless specifically defined otherwise in the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, a county, including an H class county;

B. "county area" means that portion of a county located outside the boundaries of any municipality, except that for H class counties, "county area" means the entire county;

C. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

D. "governing body" means the county commission of the county or the county council of an H class county;

E. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity; and

F. "state gross receipts tax" means the gross receipts tax imposed under the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978].

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-2, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 2; 1994, ch. 93, § 1; 1994, ch. 97, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, added the language following "municipality" in Subsection B and added "or the county council of an H class county" in Subsection D. Laws 1994, ch. 93, § 1 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1994, ch. 97, § 1. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-20E-3. Optional referendum selection; effective date of ordinance.

A. The governing body of a county imposing a tax or an increment of tax authorized by the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act or any other county local option gross receipts tax act that is subject to optional referendum selection shall select, when enacting the ordinance imposing the tax, one of the following referendum options:

(1) the ordinance imposing the tax or increment of tax shall go into effect on July 1 or January 1 in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, but an election may be called in the county on the question of approving or disapproving that ordinance as follows:

(a) an election shall be called when: 1) in a county having a referendum provision in its charter, a petition requesting such an election is filed pursuant to the requirements of that provision in the charter and signed by the number of registered voters in the county equal to the number of registered voters required in its charter to seek a referendum; and 2) in all other counties, a petition requesting such an election is filed with the county clerk within sixty days of enactment of the ordinance by the governing body and the petition has been signed by a number of registered voters in the county equal to at least five percent of the number of the voters in the county who were registered to vote in the most recent general election;

(b) the signatures on the petition requesting an election shall be verified by the county clerk. If the petition is verified by the county clerk as containing the required number of signatures of registered voters, the governing body shall adopt a resolution calling an election on the question of approving or disapproving the ordinance. The election shall be held within sixty days after the date the petition is verified by the county clerk, or it may be held in conjunction with a general election if that election occurs within sixty days after the date of the verification. The election shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections; and

(c) if a majority of the registered voters voting on the question approves the ordinance, the ordinance shall go into effect on July 1 or January 1 in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If at such an election a majority of the registered voters voting on the question disapproves the ordinance, the ordinance imposing the tax shall be deemed repealed and the question of imposing the tax or increment of tax shall not be considered again by the governing body for a period of one year from the date of the election; or

(2) the ordinance imposing the tax or increment of tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a simple majority of the registered voters of the county voting on the question votes in favor of imposing the tax or increment of tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax or increment of tax. Such question may be submitted to the voters and voted upon as a separate question at any general election or at any special election called for that purpose by the governing body. The election upon the question shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as may be provided by law for general elections. If the question of imposing the tax or increment of tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the tax or increment of tax for a period of one year after the election.

B. An ordinance imposing, amending or repealing a tax or an increment of tax authorized by the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall be effective on July 1 or January 1, whichever date occurs first after the expiration of at least three months from the date the adopted ordinance is mailed or delivered to the department. The ordinance shall include that effective date.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-3, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 3; 2004, ch. 110, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2004 amendment, effective July 1, 2004, added new Subsection A and redesignated the previously undesignated provisions as Subsection B.

7-20E-4. Ordinance shall conform to certain provisions of the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act and requirements of the department.

A. An ordinance imposing a tax under the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall adopt by reference the same definitions and the same provisions relating to exemptions and deductions as are contained in the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 9 NMSA 1978] then in effect and as it may be amended from time to time.

B. The governing body of any county imposing a tax under the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act shall impose the tax by adopting the model ordinance with respect to the tax furnished to the county by the department. An ordinance that does not conform substantially to the model ordinance of the department is not valid.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 20 made Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 4 effective July 1, 1993.

7-20E-5. Repealed.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-5, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 5; 1994, ch. 101, § 6; repealed by Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 57.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2019, ch. 270, § 57 repealed 7-20E-5 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 5, relating to specific exemptions, effective July 1, 2021. For provisions of former section, see the 2020 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-20E-6. Copy of ordinance to be submitted to department.

A certified copy of any ordinance imposing or repealing a tax or an increment of a tax authorized under the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act or changing the tax rate imposed shall be mailed or delivered to the department within five days after the later of the date the ordinance is adopted or the date the results of any election held with respect to the ordinance are certified to be in favor of the ordinance.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-6, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 20 made Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 6 effective July 1, 1993.

7-20E-7. Collection by department.

The department shall collect each tax imposed pursuant to the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act in the same manner and at the same time it collects the state gross receipts and compensating taxes.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-7, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 7; 1997, ch. 125, § 9; 2008, ch. 51, § 2; 2014, ch. 79, § 2; 2019, ch. 270, § 52.

ANNOTATIONS

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.). ch. 4, § 4, effective June 29, 2020, provided:

A. Notwithstanding Sections 7-1-67 and 7-1-69 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a taxpayer for:

(1) tax liabilities pursuant to the Income Tax Act or the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due April 15, 2020 through July 15, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid payments is made in full on or before April 15, 2021;

(2) tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021;

(3) gross receipts tax, local option gross receipts tax or compensating tax liabilities for failure to pay any of those taxes that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021; and

(4) tax liabilities assessed between September 3, 2019 and January 3, 2020 as the result of a managed audit performed in accordance with a managed audit agreement pursuant to Section 7-1-11.1 NMSA 1978; provided that payment for those liabilities is made pursuant to terms of the managed audit agreement on or before December 31, 2020.

B. Notwithstanding Sections 7-38-49 and 7-38-50 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a property owner for unpaid property taxes that became due April 10, 2020 pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978; provided that:

(1) the unpaid property taxes did not become delinquent because of an intent to defraud by the property owner;

(2) payment for the unpaid property taxes is made in full on or before May 10, 2021; and

(3) the subject property does not have property taxes that became delinquent pursuant to Section 7-38-46 NMSA 1978 prior to May 10, 2020.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, removed provisions related to administrative fees; deleted subsection designation "A." and deleted former Subsection B.

The 2014 amendment, effective March 12, 2014, eliminated the distribution to the sole community provider fund; in Subsection B, in the second sentence, deleted "Except as provided in Subsection C of this section"; and deleted former Subsection C, which provided for a distribution to the sole community provider fund from the county gross receipts tax through June 30, 2009.

The 2008 amendment, effective February 28, 2008, added Subsection C.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, substituted "pursuant to" for "under" in Subsection A, and in Subsection B, substituted "shall withhold an administrative fee pursuant to Section 1 of this 1997 act" for "may deduct an amount not to exceed three percent of the local hospital gross receipts tax collected as a charge for the administrative costs of collection, which amount shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund each month" in the first sentence, and in the second sentence, substituted "pursuant to" for "under" and substituted "the administrative fee withheld and less any disbursements for" for "any disbursement for the administrative charge provided by this section".

7-20E-8. Interpretation of act; administration and enforcement of act.

A. The department shall interpret the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act.

B. The department shall administer and enforce the collection of each tax authorized under the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act, and the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978] applies to the administration and enforcement of each tax.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-8, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 20 made Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 8 effective July 1, 1993.

7-20E-9. County gross receipts tax; authority to impose rate; county health care assistance fund requirements.

A. A majority of the members of the governing body of a county may impose by ordinance an excise tax on the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the county or the county area. A tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be imposed by the enactment of one or more ordinances enacting any number of increments of one-hundredth percent; provided that the total increments do not exceed the maximum rate provided in Subsections C and D of this section; and provided further that, if at the time of enacting the ordinance the total county gross receipts tax rate is not an even multiple of one-hundredth percent, the county may impose an increment in an amount sufficient to bring the total rate to an even multiple of one-hundredth percent. The governing body may, at the time of enacting the ordinance, dedicate the revenue for any county purpose.

B. The tax authorized by this section is to be referred to as the "county gross receipts tax".

C. The maximum rate of the county gross receipts tax that may be imposed on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in a county shall not exceed one and twenty-five hundredths percent. Of that one and twenty-five hundredths percent:

(1) a governing body may choose to require an election to impose increments up to a total of one percent; and

(2) the remaining increments, up to a total of twenty-five hundredths percent, shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the county voting in the election votes in favor of the tax. Increments approved by voters prior to July 1, 2019 shall be included in the increments approved by the voters, as provided in this paragraph.

D. In addition to the maximum rate that may be imposed on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in a county, the maximum rate of the county gross receipts tax that may be imposed on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in a county area shall not exceed one-half percent. Of that one-half percent:

(1) a governing body may choose to require an election to impose increments that total twelve hundredths percent; but

(2) the remaining increments, up to a total of thirty-eight hundredths percent, shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the county area voting in the election votes in favor of the tax. Increments approved by voters prior to July 1, 2019 shall be included in the increments approved by the voters, as provided in this paragraph.

E. A class A county with a county hospital operated and maintained pursuant to a lease or operating agreement with a state educational institution named in Article 12, Section 11 of the constitution of New Mexico shall provide not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) in funds, and that amount shall be dedicated to the support of indigent patients who are residents of that county. Funds for indigent care shall be made available each month of each year the tax is in effect in an amount not less than eighty-three thousand three hundred thirty-three dollars thirty-three cents ($83,333.33). The interest from the investment of county funds for indigent care may be used for other assistance to indigent persons, not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for all other assistance in any year.

F. A county, except a class A county with a county hospital operated and maintained pursuant to a lease or operating agreement with a state educational institution named in Article 12, Section 11 of the constitution of New Mexico, shall be required to dedicate revenue produced by the imposition of a one-eighth percent gross receipts tax increment for the support of indigent patients who are residents of that county. A county that imposed up to two one-eighth percent increments on January 1, 1996 for support of indigent patients in the county or, after January 1, 1996, imposes a one-eighth percent increment and dedicates one-half of that increment for county indigent patient purposes shall deposit the revenue dedicated for county indigent purposes that is transferred to the county in the county health care assistance fund, and such revenues shall be expended pursuant to the Indigent Hospital and County Health Care Act [Chapter 27, Article 5 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 1983, ch. 213, § 30; 1986, ch. 20, § 84; 1989, ch. 169, § 1; 1991, ch. 212, § 16; 1978 Comp., § 7-20-3, amended and recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-9 by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 9; 1996, ch. 29, § 1; 1998, ch. 90, § 8; 2004, ch. 110, § 2; 2008, ch. 51, § 3; 2014, ch. 79, § 3; 2019, ch. 274, § 14; 2020, ch. 80, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For class B county property tax levy for providing health care to sick and indigent persons, see 4-38-17.1 NMSA 1978.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, provided that increments of the county gross receipts tax shall be imposed in increments of one-hundredths percent; in Subsection A, added "enacting any number of increments of one-hundredth percent; provided that the total increments do not exceed the maximum rate provided in Subsections C and D of this section; and provided further that, if at the time of enacting the ordinance the total county gross receipts tax rate is not an even multiple of one-hundredth percent, the county may impose an increment in an amount sufficient to bring the total rate to an even multiple of one-hundredth percent"; in Subsection C, in the introductory clause, after "county gross receipts tax", added "that may be imposed", in Paragraph C(1), after "increments", deleted "that" and added "up to a", and in Paragraph C(2), added "the remaining"; and in Subsection D, in the introductory clause, added "In addition to the maximum rate that may be imposed on the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in a county", and in Paragraph D(2), after "increments", deleted "totaling" and added "up to a total of".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020, ch. 80, § 13 effective May 20, 2020, provided that an ordinance imposing a local option gross receipts tax authorized by those sections of law that were repealed and consolidated with the municipal gross receipts tax or the county gross receipts tax by Laws 2019, Chapter 274 is deemed to be imposing an equal rate of the municipal gross receipts tax or county gross receipts tax, as appropriate, as was imposed by the ordinance when the ordinance was enacted; provided that the ordinance was in effect on the date of repeal and the ordinance has not been repealed by the governing body. Any dedication of revenue pursuant to the ordinance remains in effect until changed by the governing body; provided that, if the dedication were approved by the electorate, any change to the dedication must also be approved by the electorate.

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, replaced the current seven-sixteenths percent maximum authority for the county-wide gross receipts tax local option with a maximum authority of one and twenty-five hundredths percent, and required any authorization over one percent to be approved by the local voters, and local authorities are authorized to allow local voters to approve any enactments of less than an aggregate one percent; in Subsection A, deleted "Except as provided in Subsection E of this section, a majority of the members of the governing body of a county may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax not to exceed a rate of seven-sixteenths percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business in the county. An ordinance imposing an excise tax pursuant to this subsection shall impose the tax in three independent increments of one-eighth percent and one independent increment of one-sixteenth percent, which shall be separately denominated as 'the first one-eighth increment', 'the second one-eighth increment', 'the third one-eighth increment' and 'the one-sixteenth increment', respectively, not to exceed an aggregate amount of seven-sixteenths percent" and added the remainder of the subsection; added new Subsections C and D and redesignated former Subsections C and D as Subsections E and F respectively; in Subsection E, after "New Mexico", deleted "enacting the second one-eighth increment of county gross receipts tax"; in Subsection F, after "New Mexico", deleted "imposing the second one-eighth increment of county gross receipts tax", after "residents of that county", deleted "The revenue produced by the imposition of the third one-eighth increment and the one-sixteenth increment may be used for general purposes. Any" and added "A", after "county that imposed", deleted "the second one-eighth increment or the third" and added "up to two", after "1996, imposes", deleted "the second one-eighth increment or imposes the third"; and deleted former Subsection E.

The 2014 amendment, effective March 12, 2014, authorized a county, except a class A county with a state educational institution, to impose an additional increment of county gross receipts tax for three years; in the catchline, after "rate", deleted "indigent" and added "county health care assistance"; in Subsection A, in the first sentence, added "Except as provided in Subsection E of this section", in the second sentence, after "pursuant to this", deleted "section" and added "subsection"; in Subsection B, after "authorized", deleted "in Subsection A of" and added "by"; in Subsection C, in the first sentence, after "pursuant to a lease", added "or operating agreement"; in Subsection D, in the first sentence, after "pursuant to a lease", added "or operating agreement", and in the third sentence, after "transferred to the county", deleted "after the distribution pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-1-6.13 and Subsection C of Section 7-20E-7 NMSA 1978", and after "in the county", deleted "indigent hospital claims" and added "health care assistance"; and added Subsection E.

The 2008 amendment, effective February 28, 2008, in Subsection D, required counties to deposit into the county indigent hospital claims fund revenue dedicated for county indigent purposes that is transferred to the county after the distribution pursuant to Subsection C of 7-1-6.13 NMSA 1978 and Subsection C of 7-20E-7 NMSA 1978.

The 2004 amendment, effective July 1, 2004, amended Subsection A to change "three-eighths of one percent" to "seven-sixteenths percent" and to provide for an increment of one-sixteenth and amended Subsection D to add "one-sixteenth increment" after "one-eighth increment".

The 1998 amendment, effective May 20, 1998, in Subsection B, inserted "authorized in Subsection A of this section" at the beginning; in Subsection C in the first sentence, deleted "or third" following "second" and "for each additional increment of one-eighth percent enacted" following "in funds"; in Subsection D, deleted "Fifty percent of" at the beginning of the second sentence, deleted the former third sentence, rewrote the last sentence and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

The 1996 amendment, effective May 15, 1996, made a stylistic change in Subsection A, rewrote the second sentence and added the fourth sentence in Subsection D, and deleted former Subsection E relating to counties that provided for indigent care in an amount equal to or greater than the amount anticipated in Subsection D.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, renumbered this section, deleted "percent" following "one-eighth" throughout the section; designated the former final sentence of Subsection A as Subsection B; redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection C; deleted former Subsection C, stating that imposition of the county gross receipts tax shall not be subject to referendum; and deleted former Subsection F, pertaining to the effective date of any ordinance enacted under the provisions of Subsection A.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted "independent increments of one-eighth percent which shall be separately denominated as 'first one-eighth', 'second one-eighth' and 'third one-eighth', respectively" for "any number of increments of one-eighth percent" in the second sentence in Subsection A; in Subsections B and D, inserted "with a county hospital operated and maintained pursuant to a lease with a state educational institution named in Article 12, Section 11 of the constitution of New Mexico" and deleted "in excess of one-eighth percent" following "gross receipts tax" in the first sentence; in Subsection B, inserted "the second or third one-eighth percent increment of " in the first sentence, inserted "county" preceding "funds" in the final sentence and made a related stylistic change; in Subsection D, substituted "the second one-eighth percent increment" for "an increment" in the first sentence, inserted "one-eighth percent" in the final sentence and made a minor stylistic change; in Subsection E, substituted "the first one-eighth percent increment" for "one-eighth percent" in three places; and deleted former Subsection G, relating to counties that had lawfully imposed a county sales tax pursuant to the County Sales Tax Act prior to the effective date of the 1986 act.

7-20E-9.1. County compensating tax.

A. Beginning July 1, 2021, for the privilege of using tangible personal property in a county, there is imposed on the person using the property an excise tax at a rate equal to the combined gross receipts tax rates imposed and in effect pursuant to the Local Hospital Gross Receipts Tax Act [repealed], the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act [Chapter 7, Article 20E NMSA 1978] and the County Correctional Facility Gross Receipts Tax Act [7-20F-3 to 7-20F-12 NMSA 1978] of the value of tangible personal property that was:

- (1) manufactured by the person using the property in the state; or
- (2) acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the state gross receipts tax had the tangible personal property been acquired from a person with nexus with New Mexico.

B. For the purpose of Subsection A of this section, the value of tangible personal property shall be the adjusted basis of the property for federal income tax purposes determined as of the time of acquisition or introduction into this state or of conversion to use, whichever is later. If no adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes is established for the property, a reasonable value of the property shall be used.

C. For the privilege of using a license or franchise in a county, there is imposed on the person using the license or franchise an excise tax equal to the tax rate provided in Subsection A of this section against the value of the license or franchise as determined pursuant to Section 7-9-7 NMSA 1978. The department by rule, ruling or instruction shall fairly apportion, where appropriate, the value of a license or franchise to its value in use in the county. For use of a license or franchise to be taxable under this subsection, the value of the license or franchise shall be acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the gross receipts tax had the license or franchise been acquired from a person with nexus with this state.

D. For the privilege of using services in a county, there is imposed on the person using the services an excise tax at the rate provided in Subsection A of this section of the value of the services at the time the product of the service was acquired. For use of services to be taxable under this subsection, the services shall have been performed by a person outside this state and the product of which was acquired inside or outside this state as the result of a transaction with a person located outside this state that would have been subject to the gross receipts tax had the service or product of the service been acquired from a person with nexus with this state.

E. The governing body of a county may dedicate the revenue from the tax imposed pursuant to this section for any county purpose. If the governing body proposes to dedicate revenue for a specific purpose, the dedicated revenue shall be used by the county for that purpose unless a subsequent ordinance is adopted to change the purpose to which the revenue is dedicated or to place the revenue in the general fund of the county.

F. Any law that affects the county compensating tax, or any law supplemental or otherwise appertaining thereto, shall not be repealed or amended or otherwise directly or indirectly modified in such a manner as to impair adversely any outstanding revenue bonds that may be secured by a pledge of such county compensating tax unless such outstanding revenue bonds have been discharged in full or provision has been fully made therefor.

G. The tax imposed by this section may be cited as the "county compensating tax".

7-20E-12.1. County hospital emergency gross receipts tax; authority to impose; use of proceeds.

A. A majority of the members of a governing body may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax on a person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business. The rate of the tax shall be one-fourth of one percent of the gross receipts of the person engaging in business. The tax shall be imposed for a period of not more than two years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax. The tax may be imposed for an additional period not to exceed three years from the date of the ordinance imposing the tax for that period. On or after July 1, 1997:

(1) in a county described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection D of this section, the tax may be imposed for the period necessary for payment of bonds or a loan for acquisition of land or buildings for and the design, construction, equipping, remodeling or improvement of a county hospital facility, but the period shall not exceed twenty years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax for that period; provided, however, that a majority of the members of a governing body that has enacted an ordinance imposing the tax pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph may, prior to the date of the delayed repeal of the ordinance, enact an ordinance to extend the period of imposition of the previously imposed tax for an additional twenty years and modify the purposes for which the revenue from the tax is dedicated, consistent with one or more of the purposes permitted pursuant to this paragraph; and

(2) in a county described in Paragraph (2) of Subsection D of this section, the tax may be imposed for the period necessary for payment of bonds or a loan for acquisition, equipping, remodeling or improvement of a county health facility, but the period shall not exceed twenty years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax for that period.

B. The tax imposed by this section may be referred to as the "county hospital emergency gross receipts tax".

C. At the time of enacting the ordinance imposing the tax authorized in this section:

(1) if the effective date of the tax is prior to July 1, 1997, the governing body shall dedicate the revenue for current operations and maintenance of a hospital owned by the county or a hospital with which the county has entered into a health care facilities contract; provided that a majority of the members of a governing body may enact an ordinance to change the purposes for which the revenue from a previously imposed tax is dedicated and to dedicate that revenue during the remainder of the tax imposition period to payment of bonds or a loan for acquisition of land or buildings for, and the design, construction, equipping, remodeling or improvement of, a county hospital facility; and

(2) if the effective date of the tax is on or after July 1, 1997:

(a) the governing body of a county described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection D of this section shall dedicate the revenue for the period of time the tax is imposed to payment of a bond or loan for acquisition, equipping, remodeling and improvement of a county hospital facility; provided, however, that a majority of the members of a governing body that has imposed the tax and dedicated the revenue from that imposition pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph may, prior to the date of the delayed repeal of the ordinance imposing the tax, enact an ordinance to extend the period of imposition of the tax as provided in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of this section and modify the purposes for which the revenue from the previously imposed tax is dedicated, and dedicate that revenue to payment of bonds or a loan for acquisition of land or buildings for, and the design, construction, equipping, remodeling or improvement of, a county hospital facility; and

(b) the governing body of a county described in Paragraph (2) of Subsection D of this section shall dedicate the revenue for the period of time the tax is imposed to payment of a bond or loan for acquisition, equipping, remodeling and improvement of a county health facility.

D. As used in this section, "county" means:

(1) a class B county with a population of less than ten thousand according to the 1990 federal decennial census and with a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for the 1993 property tax year in excess of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000); or

(2) a class B county with a population of less than ten thousand according to the 1990 federal decennial census and with a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for the 1997 property tax year of more than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) but less than one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000).

History: Laws 1994, ch. 14, § 1; 1996, ch. 34, § 1; 1997, ch. 20, § 2; 2000, ch. 69, § 2; 2010, ch. 75, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection A(1), after "bonds or a loan for acquisition", added "or land or buildings for and the design, construction" and after "imposing the tax for that period;", added the remainder of the sentence; in Subsection C(1), after "bonds or a loan for acquisition", added "of land or buildings for, and the design, construction"; and in Subsection C(2)(a), after "county hospital facility;", added the remainder of the sentence.

The 2000 amendment, effective March 6, 2000, rewrote Subsections A, C(2) and D.

The 1997 amendment, effective July 1, 1997, added the fifth sentence of Subsection A, divided former Subsection C and added the Paragraph C(1) designation, inserted "if the effective date of the tax is prior to July 1, 1997," at the beginning of Paragraph C(1), added the language beginning "provided that" at the end of Paragraph C(1), and added Paragraph C(2).

The 1996 amendment, effective March 4, 1996, in Subsection A deleted "only once" in the third sentence and added the last sentence.

7-20E-12.2. County hospital gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election; use of revenue.

A. Upon submission of a resolution to the governing body pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the governing body of a county shall enact an ordinance imposing or reimposing an excise tax at a rate of one-half percent on any person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business in the county. The tax imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "county hospital gross receipts tax".

B. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a tax pursuant to this section, shall dedicate:

(1) twenty-five percent of the revenue to support a nursing program administered by a state university or branch of a state university within the boundaries of the county; and

(2) the remainder of the revenue for the payment of gross receipts tax bonds for hospital capital projects in the county. The tax shall be imposed for the period necessary for payment of the principal and interest on the revenue bonds issued to accomplish the purpose for which the revenue is dedicated, but the period shall not exceed ten years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax.

C. The governing body may reimpose a county hospital gross receipts tax to be effective upon termination of a previously imposed county hospital gross receipts tax by following the procedures set forth in this section.

D. An ordinance imposing the county hospital gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the county voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election on the question of imposing the tax. The election shall be held pursuant to the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978]. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the tax, then the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts and Compensating Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

E. The proceeds from revenue bonds issued for purposes provided by this section shall be administered by the governing body for the purposes authorized in this section and as set out in the resolution submitted by the boards to the governing body.

F. As used in this section:

(1) "capital projects" means the designing, constructing and equipping of hospital buildings; the remodeling, renovating or making additions to and equipping existing hospital buildings; or the improving or equipping of the grounds of hospital buildings; and

(2) "county" means a class B county with a population of less than thirty-seven thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census and a net taxable value for property tax purposes of more than one billion five hundred ninety million dollars ($1,590,000,000) but less than two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000).

History: Laws 2023, ch. 103, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2023, ch. 103, § 2 made Laws 2023, ch. 103, § 1 effective July 1, 2023.

7-20E-13. Special county hospital gross receipts tax; authority to impose; ordinance requirements.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax on any person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business. The rate of the tax shall be one-eighth of one percent of the gross receipts of the person engaging in business. The tax shall be imposed for a period of not more than five years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax. Having once enacted an ordinance under this section, the governing body may enact subsequent ordinances for succeeding periods of not more than five years; provided that each such ordinance meets the requirements of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act with respect to the tax imposed by this section.

B. The tax imposed by this section may be referred to as the "special county hospital gross receipts tax".

C. For the purposes of this section, "county" means:

(1) a county:

(a) having a population of more than ten thousand but less than ten thousand six hundred, according to the last federal decennial census or any subsequent decennial census, and having a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for the 1986 property tax year or any subsequent year of more than eighty-two million dollars ($82,000,000) but less than eighty-two million three hundred thousand dollars ($82,300,000);

(b) that has imposed a rate of one dollar fifty cents ($1.50) to each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value of property as defined in the Property Tax Code [Chapter 7, Articles 35 through 38 NMSA 1978] for property taxation purposes in the county and to each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the assessed value of products severed and sold in the school district as determined under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978] and the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978] or has made an appropriation of funds or has imposed another tax that produces an amount not less than the revenue that would be produced by applying a rate of one dollar fifty cents ($1.50) to each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value of property as defined in the Property Tax Code for property taxation purposes in the school district and to each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the assessed value of products severed and sold in the school district as determined under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act and the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act. The proceeds of any tax imposed or appropriation made shall be dedicated for current operations and maintenance of a hospital owned and operated by the county or operated and maintained by another party pursuant to a lease with the county; and

(c) having qualified at any time under this definition shall continue to be qualified as a county and authorized to implement the provisions of this section; and

(2) a class B county having a population of more than seventeen thousand five hundred but less than nineteen thousand according to the 1990 federal decennial census and having a net taxable value for property tax rate-setting purposes of under three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000).

D. The governing body of a county described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this section shall, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the rate of the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, dedicate the revenue for current operations and maintenance of a hospital owned and operated by the county or operated and maintained by another party pursuant to a lease with the county, and the use of these proceeds shall be for the care and maintenance of sick and indigent persons and shall be an expenditure for a public purpose. In any election held, the ballot shall clearly state the purpose to which the revenue will be dedicated, and the revenue shall be used by the county for that purpose.

E. The governing body of a county described in Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of this section shall, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the rate of the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, dedicate the revenue for county ambulance transport costs or for operation of a rural health clinic. In any election held, the ballot shall clearly state the purposes to which the revenue will be dedicated, and the revenue shall be used by the county for those purposes.

F. Any ordinance enacted under the provisions of Subsection A of this section shall include an effective date of either July 1 or January 1 in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act.

G. The ordinance shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a simple majority of the qualified electors of the county voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the special county hospital gross receipts tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question may be submitted to the qualified electors and voted upon as a separate question in a general election or in any special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special election upon the question shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If the question of imposing a special county hospital gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose a special county hospital gross receipts tax for a period of one year after the election. A certified copy of any ordinance imposing a special county hospital gross receipts tax shall be mailed to the department within five days after the ordinance is adopted in any election called for that purpose.

H. A single election may be held on the question of imposing a special county hospital gross receipts tax as authorized in this section on the question of imposing a special county hospital gasoline tax as authorized in the Special County Hospital Gasoline Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 24B NMSA 1978] and on the question of imposing a mill levy pursuant to the Hospital Funding Act [Chapter 4, Article 48B NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 1987, ch. 45, § 3; 1992, ch. 80, § 2; 1978 Comp., § 7-20-21, amended and recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-13 by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 13; 1994, ch. 101, § 8; 2000, ch. 68, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2000 amendment, effective March 6, 2000, in Subsection C(2), substituted "1990" for "most recent" and substituted "three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000)" for "two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000)"; added the internal reference near the beginning of Subsection D; and added Subsection E, redesignating the remaining subsections accordingly.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "votes" for "vote" in the first sentence in Subsection F; and in the second sentence in Subsection F, substituted language from "adopt" to the end of the sentence for "provide for an election on the question of imposing the tax within sixty days after the date the ordinance is adopted".

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, renumbered this section and rewrote it to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

7-20E-14. Special county hospital gross receipts tax; use of proceeds.

The funds provided through the special county hospital gross receipts tax shall be administered by the governing body of the county. In a county described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection C of Section 7-20E-13 NMSA 1978, the funds shall be disbursed by the county treasurer to a hospital within the county, subject to the approval by the governing body of a budget or plan for use of the funds submitted by that hospital's governing board.

7-20E-18. County health care gross receipts tax; authority to impose rate.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of any county may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax at a rate of one-sixteenth percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business in the county. Any ordinance imposing an excise tax pursuant to this section shall not be subject to a referendum. The governing body of a county shall, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the tax, dedicate the revenue to the county-supported medicaid fund. This tax is to be referred to as the "county health care gross receipts tax".

B. In addition to the imposition of the county health care gross receipts tax authorized by Subsection A of this section, the majority of the members of the governing body of a county having a population of more than five hundred thousand persons according to the most recent federal decennial census may enact an ordinance imposing an additional one-sixteenth percent increment of county health care gross receipts tax; provided that the imposition of the additional increment shall be for a period that ends no later than June 30, 2009. To continue an increment after June 30, 2009 or beyond any five-year period for which the increment has been imposed, the members of the governing body shall review the need for the increment and if the majority of the members vote in favor of continuing the increment imposed pursuant to this subsection, the increment shall be imposed for an additional period of five years. The governing body of the county shall, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the additional increment of county health care gross receipts tax, dedicate the revenue to the support of indigent patients.

C. Any ordinance enacted pursuant to the provisions of Subsection A or B of this section shall include an effective date of either July 1 or January 1 in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 212, § 7; 1978 Comp., § 7-20D-3, amended and recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-18 by Laws 1993, ch. 354, § 18; 2006, ch. 9, § 1.; 2009, ch. 61, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2009 amendment, effective April 2, 2009, in Subsection B, added the second sentence to provide for the continuation of the tax increment after June 30, 2009.

The 2006 amendment, effective July 1, 2006, moved former Subsection B to make it the last sentence of Subsection A; added a new Subsection B, which authorized the imposition, in counties having a population of more than 500,000 persons, of an additional one-sixteenth percent increment of county gross receipts tax for the support of indigent patients for a period that ended no later than June 30, 2009.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, renumbered this section and rewrote it to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

7-20E-20. County education gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election; use of revenue.

A. Upon submission of a resolution to the governing body pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the governing body of a county shall enact an ordinance imposing or reimposing an excise tax at a rate of one-half of one percent on any person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business in the county. The tax imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "county education gross receipts tax".

B. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a county education gross receipts tax pursuant to this section shall dedicate the revenue only for the payment of county education gross receipts tax bonds for public school capital projects and off-campus instruction program capital projects, if any, in the county. The tax shall be imposed for the period necessary for payment of the principal and interest on the county education gross receipts tax revenue bonds issued to accomplish the purpose for which the revenue is dedicated, but the period shall not exceed ten years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax.

C. The governing body may reimpose a county education gross receipts tax to be effective upon termination of a previously imposed county education gross receipts tax by following the procedures set forth in this section.

D. Upon a finding of need, the boards of every school district in a county that is either located wholly within the exterior boundaries of the county or that has a student membership no more than ten percent of whom reside outside the exterior boundaries of the county may enter into a joint agreement to submit a resolution to the governing body of the county requiring the governing body to impose a county education gross receipts tax and to issue county education gross receipts tax revenue bonds for funding public school capital projects and, if applicable, off-campus instruction program capital projects. The boards must agree to provide at least one-fourth of the bond proceeds for capital projects for an off-campus instruction program, if one of the school districts in the county has established such a program. The remaining revenues shall be distributed proportionately to each school district for public school capital outlay projects, including capital projects at charter schools and state-chartered charter schools within the district, based on the ratio that the population of each school district, according to the 2010 federal decennial census, bears to the population of all of the school districts in the county that are parties to the agreement.

E. An ordinance imposing the county education gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters in the county voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within sixty days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the county as a separate question at a general election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the county education gross receipts tax, then the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the county education gross receipts tax fails, a resolution from the boards of school districts in the county may not again be proposed to the governing body requesting imposition of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

F. The proceeds from county education gross receipts tax revenue bonds shall be administered by the governing body and disbursed by the county treasurer to the respective school districts in the amounts and for the purposes authorized in this section and as set out in the resolution submitted by the boards to the governing body.

G. As used in this section:

(1) "board" means the governing body of a school district;

(2) "capital projects" means the designing, constructing and equipping of new buildings; the remodeling, renovating or making additions to and equipping existing buildings; or the improving or equipping of the grounds surrounding buildings;

(3) "county" means:

(a) a class B county with a population of less than twenty-five thousand according to the 1990 federal decennial census and a net taxable value for property tax purposes for the 1999 property tax year of more than five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000);

(b) a county that has imposed a local hospital gross receipts tax pursuant to the Local Hospital Gross Receipts Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 20C NMSA 1978], which tax will expire on December 31, 2001; and

(c) a county that has previously imposed a county education gross receipts tax; and

(4) "off-campus instruction program" means a program established by a school district pursuant to the Off-Campus Instruction Act [21-14A-1 to 21-14A-10 NMSA 1978].

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-20E-20, enacted by Laws 2001, ch. 328, § 1; 2012, ch. 39, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2019, ch. 274, § 16 repealed 7-20E-21 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 2001, ch. 172, § 2, relating to county capital outlay gross receipts tax, purposes, referendum, effective July 1, 2019. For provisions of former section, see the 2018 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-20E-22. County emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax; authority to impose countywide or only in the county area; ordinance requirements; use of revenue; election.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of an eligible county that does not have in effect a tax imposed pursuant to Subsection B of this section may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-fourth percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the county for the privilege of engaging in business. The tax imposed by this subsection may be referred to as the "countywide emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax".

B. The majority of the members of the governing body of an eligible county that does not have in effect a tax imposed pursuant to Subsection A of this section may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-fourth percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the county area for the privilege of engaging in business. The tax imposed by this subsection may be referred to as the "county area emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax".

C. The taxes authorized in Subsections A and B of this section may be imposed in one or more increments of one-sixteenth percent not to exceed an aggregate rate of one-fourth percent.

D. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a rate of tax authorized in Subsection A or B of this section, shall dedicate the revenue to one or more of the following purposes:

(1) operation of an emergency communications center that has been determined by the local government division of the department of finance and administration to be a consolidated public safety answering point. That operation may include the construction, improvement, remodel or purchase of one or more buildings to use as an emergency communications center or the purchase of emergency communications equipment for the center;

(2) operation of emergency medical services provided by the county, including the purchase of ambulatory transport vehicles; or

(3) provision of behavioral health services, including alcohol abuse and substance abuse treatment.

E. An ordinance imposing any increment of the countywide emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax or the county area emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. In the case of an ordinance imposing an increment of the countywide emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax, the election shall be conducted countywide. In the case of an ordinance imposing the county area emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax, the election shall be conducted only in the county area. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question may be submitted to the voters as a separate question at a general election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. In any election held, the ballot shall clearly state the purpose to which the revenue will be dedicated pursuant to Subsection D of this section. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the imposition of the countywide emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax or the county area emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of any increment of either tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

F. For the purposes of this section, "eligible county" means:

(1) a county that operates or, pursuant to a joint powers agreement, is served by an emergency communications center that has been determined by the local government division of the department of finance and administration to be a consolidated public safety answering point; or

(2) in the case of a county imposing the tax for the purposes provided in Paragraph (3) of Subsection D of this section, a county that operates or contracts for the operation of a behavioral health services facility providing alcohol abuse, substance abuse and inpatient and outpatient behavioral health treatment.

History: Laws 2002, ch. 14, § 1; 2003, ch. 70, § 1; 2004, ch. 110, § 5; 2007, ch. 230, § 1; 2017, ch. 47, § 2; 2019, ch. 210, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective July 1, 2019, provided that revenue from county area and countywide emergency communications and emergency medical and behavioral health services taxes may be used for the construction, improvement, remodel or purchase of buildings to use as an emergency communications center and for the purchase of ambulatory transport vehicles; in Subsection D, Paragraph D(1), after "may include the", added "construction, improvement, remodel or purchase of one or more buildings to use as an emergency communications center or the ", and in Paragraph D(2), after "provided by the county", added "including the purchase of ambulatory transport vehicles".

The 2017 amendment, effective April 6, 2017, authorized the purchase of emergency communications equipment for certain emergency communications centers; in Subsection C, after "The", deleted "tax" and added "taxes"; and in Subsection D, Paragraph D(1), added the last sentence.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, allowed the use of the tax for behavioral health services.

The 2004 amendment, effective July 1, 2004, in Subsection A, deleted the ten-year limit on the tax.

Applicability. — Laws 2004, ch. 110, § 8, effective May 19, 2004, provided that "An ordinance imposing the county fire protection excise tax that has an effective date on or after July 1, 2004 shall not be subject to the time limit on tax imposition specified in that version of Section 7-20E-15 NMSA 1978 that was in effect prior to the effective date of this 2004 act, and any delayed repeal provision included in that ordinance shall be ineffective."

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, rewrote the section.

7-20E-23. County regional transit gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election required.

A. Upon a request by resolution of the board of directors of a regional transit district, a majority of the members of the governing body of each county that is within the district shall impose by identical ordinances an excise tax at the rate specified in the resolution, but not to exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the district for the privilege of engaging in business. A tax imposed pursuant to this section may be imposed by one or more ordinances, each imposing any number of tax rate increments, but an increment shall not be less than one-sixteenth percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the district and the aggregate of all rates shall not exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the district. The tax may be referred to as the "county regional transit gross receipts tax".

B. Each governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, shall dedicate the revenue for the purposes authorized by the Regional Transit District Act [Chapter 73, Article 25 NMSA 1978].

C. An ordinance imposing a county regional transit gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after a joint election is held by all counties within the district and a majority of the voters of the district voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. Each governing body shall adopt an ordinance calling for a joint election within seventy-five days of the date the resolution is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the district as a separate question at a general election or at a joint special election called for that purpose by each governing body. A joint special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed substantially in the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If a majority of the voters in the district voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the county regional transit gross receipts tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the county regional transit gross receipts tax fails, the governing bodies shall not again propose the imposition of any increment of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

D. The governing body of a county imposing a county regional transit gross receipts tax shall transfer all proceeds from the tax to the regional transit district for the purposes specified in the ordinance and in accordance with the provisions of the Regional Transit District Act.

E. As used in this section, "county within the district" means a county within which lies any portion of a regional transit district.

7-20E-25. County regional spaceport gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election required.

A. A majority of the members of the governing body of a county that desires to become a member of a regional spaceport district pursuant to the Regional Spaceport District Act [5-16-1 to 5-16-13 NMSA 1978] shall impose by ordinance an excise tax at a rate not to exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the district area of the county for the privilege of engaging in business. A tax imposed pursuant to this section may be imposed by one or more ordinances, each imposing any number of tax rate increments, but an increment shall not be less than one-sixteenth percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the district area of the county, and the aggregate of all rates shall not exceed one-half percent of the gross receipts of a person engaging in business in the district area of the county. The tax may be referred to as the "county regional spaceport gross receipts tax".

B. A governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section, shall dedicate a minimum of seventy-five percent of the proceeds of the revenue to the regional spaceport district for the financing, planning, designing and engineering and construction of a spaceport or for projects or services of the district pursuant to the Regional Spaceport District Act and may dedicate no more than twenty-five percent of the revenue for spaceport-related projects as approved by resolution of the governing body of the county.

C. An ordinance imposing a county regional spaceport gross receipts tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a majority of the voters of the district area of the county voting in the election votes in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt an ordinance calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the resolution is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the district area of the county as a separate question at a general election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed substantially in the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the county regional spaceport gross receipts tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act. If the question of imposing the county regional spaceport gross receipts tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of an increment of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

D. The governing body of a county imposing a county regional spaceport gross receipts tax shall transfer a minimum of seventy-five percent of all proceeds from the tax to the regional spaceport district of which it is a member for the purposes in accordance with the provisions of the Regional Spaceport District Act. The governing body of a county imposing a county regional spaceport gross receipts tax may retain no more than twenty-five percent of the county regional spaceport gross receipts tax for spaceport-related projects as approved by the resolution of the governing body of the county.

E. As used in this section, "district area of the county" means that portion of a county that is outside the boundaries of a municipality and that is within the boundaries of a regional spaceport district of which the county is a member; provided that if no municipality within the county has imposed a municipal regional spaceport gross receipts tax, "district area of the county" may mean the area within the boundaries of the county that is within the boundaries of a regional spaceport district of which the county is a member.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Election Code, see 1-1-1 NMSA 1978.

Effective dates. — Laws 2006, ch. 15 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 2006, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-20E-26. Water and sanitation gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; election; use of revenue.

A. An excise tax imposed by a governing body pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "water and sanitation gross receipts tax". The water and sanitation gross receipts tax shall be imposed by a governing body as set forth in this section, contingent upon a majority of the voters voting in an election on the question of whether to impose a water and sanitation gross receipts tax voting in favor of the imposition.

B. Upon receipt of a resolution adopted and submitted by the board of directors of a water and sanitation district that requests the governing body to impose a water and sanitation gross receipts tax on behalf of the water and sanitation district, a governing body shall enact an ordinance imposing a water and sanitation gross receipts tax in that water and sanitation district. The ordinance shall impose the tax at a rate of one-fourth percent on a person engaging in business within the area of the county located within the water and sanitation district for the privilege of engaging in business within that water and sanitation district within the county.

C. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a water and sanitation gross receipts tax authorized pursuant to Subsection A of this section, shall dedicate the revenue only for the operation of the water and sanitation district for which the tax is imposed. The tax shall be imposed for six years from the date on which the water and sanitation gross receipts tax goes into effect.

D. Within sixty days of the date the ordinance is adopted by the governing body, the governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election on the question of whether to impose a water and sanitation gross receipts tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the water and sanitation district requesting the county to impose the tax. A special election shall be called, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If a majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the water and sanitation gross receipts tax, then the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the County Local Option Gross Receipts Taxes Act on either January 1 or July 1 following the election approving the imposition of the tax. If the question of imposing the water and sanitation gross receipts tax fails, a resolution from the board of directors of the water and sanitation district initiating the request to the county to impose a water and sanitation gross receipts tax may not again be submitted to the governing body for a period of one year from the date of the election.

E. The proceeds from the water and sanitation gross receipts tax shall be administered by the governing body and disbursed by the county treasurer to the appropriate water and sanitation district in amounts and for the purposes authorized in this section and as set out in the resolution submitted by the board of directors to the governing body. An agreement shall be entered into between the water and sanitation district and the governing body that sets out the responsibilities of both parties regarding administration, distribution and use of the revenue from the water and sanitation gross receipts tax.

7-20E-29. Electric generating facility economic district gross receipts tax; authority to impose; rate; use of revenue.

A. A majority of the members of the governing body of a county within which a county electric generating facility economic district is located and a bordering county within twenty miles of a qualifying electric generating facility may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax of up to one-fourth percent of the gross receipts of any person engaging in business in the county or county area for the privilege of engaging in business in the county or county area. The tax authorized by this section may be referred to as the "county electric generating facility economic district gross receipts tax".

B. An ordinance imposing a county electric generating facility economic district gross receipts tax shall impose the tax in any number of increments of one-thousandth percent; provided that the aggregate amount of increments shall not exceed one-fourth percent.

C. The governing body, at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing a county electric generating facility economic district gross receipts tax, shall dedicate the revenue only for the payment of the interest on and principal of revenue bonds issued pursuant to the Electric Generating Facility Economic District Act [71-10-1 to 71-10-11 NMSA 1978]. Revenue from a county electric generating facility economic district gross receipts tax shall not be used for any other purpose.

Exemption of Producers from Licenses

7-23-1. [Producers exempt from license or occupation tax; sellers of meat; keeping of hides; notification of intent to slaughter.]

That any resident of this state, selling wood, fruits, farm and garden produce of his own raising, exclusively, or fresh meats, butchered from animals of his own raising only, shall not be required to pay an occupation tax or to obtain a peddler's or itinerant vendor's license to engage in such sales; provided, that when beef, veal or mutton is offered for sale the person so offering such beef, veal or mutton for sale shall have in his immediate possession at the time and place of offering such meat for sale the hide or pelt of the slaughtered animal, the meat of which is being offered for sale, so that such hide may be examined and inspected by any authorized cattle inspector, peace officer, or any other person demanding to inspect the same. The provisions of this section, relative to the sale of fresh meat shall apply only to owners of livestock who do not make a business of peddling; provided that any person desiring to slaughter any meat animal for the purpose of selling the meat thereof, shall before slaughtering notify in writing the nearest justice of the peace [magistrate] or brand inspector of the New Mexico cattle sanitary board [livestock board] of such intent, giving descriptions of brand, sex, color and age of such animal.

ARTICLE 24

Municipal and County Gross Receipts Tax on Liquor

7-24-1. License tax imposed by municipalities.

Municipalities within or composing local option districts may, by duly adopted ordinance, impose an annual, nonprohibitive municipal license tax upon the privilege of persons holding state licenses under the provisions of the Liquor Control Act [60-3A-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.] to operate within such municipalities as retailers, dispensers, canopy licensees, restaurant licensees or club licensees. The amount of the license tax, which shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and the dates and manner of payment shall be fixed on or before June 1 of each year by the ordinance imposing the tax. In case any municipality permits the payment in installments, no bond shall be required to secure the payment of the deferred installments, but the remedy for the collection shall be that provided in Section 7-24-3 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 1939, ch. 236, § 1103; 1941 Comp., § 61-402; 1953 Comp., § 46-4-2; Laws 1969, ch. 163; 1981, ch. 39, § 124; 1990, ch. 76, § 1; 1993, ch. 68, § 1.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted the Subsection A designation; deleted "Except as provided in Subsection B of this section" at the beginning; substituted "two hundred fifty dollars ($250)" for "one thousand dollars ($1,000)" in the second sentence; and deleted former Subsection B, pertaining to allocation of a portion of the license tax for purposes of funding a home free program to provide free rides home when requested by intoxicated persons.

The 1990 amendment, effective March 2, 1990, designated the existing language as Subsection A; added Subsection B; and, in Subsection A, added "Except as provided in Subsection B of this section" at the beginning and made minor stylistic changes.

Section empowers municipalities by ordinance to impose an annual license tax upon the privilege of persons holding state licenses to operate within a municipality as retailers, dispensers or clubs. Sunset Package Store, Inc. v. City of Carlsbad, 1968-NMSC-105, 79 N.M. 260, 442 P.2d 572.

Tax imposed by the ordinance is a privilege tax imposed on a certain class of persons for the privilege of carrying on businesses for which a license is required. Sunset Package Store, Inc. v. City of Carlsbad, 1968-NMSC-105, 79 N.M. 260, 442 P.2d 572.

Section does not require adoption of new ordinance each year in order to impose a valid license tax. Eddie's Inferno, Inc. v. City of Albuquerque, 1968-NMSC-155, 79 N.M. 512, 445 P.2d 389.

Amount, date and manner of payment fixed by ordinance remain from year to year until such time as ordinance is modified or repealed by an ordinance of the legislative body enacting the same. Sunset Package Store, Inc. v. City of Carlsbad, 1968-NMSC-105, 79 N.M. 260, 442 P.2d 572.

Maximum tax rate applicable to preexisting ordinances. — The City of Albuquerque was without authority to impose or collect any liquor license tax over $1,000 (now $250) after July 1, 1981, the effective date of the amendment of this section limiting such license taxes, notwithstanding the fact that an ordinance providing for a higher tax was enacted prior to July 1, 1981. Waksman v. City of Albuquerque, 1984-NMSC-114, 102 N.M. 41, 690 P.2d 1035.

7-24-2. License tax imposed by boards of county commissioners.

The boards of county commissioners of counties composing local option districts are empowered, by resolution duly adopted, on or before the first day of June of each year to impose an annual, nonprohibitive license tax upon the privileges of persons holding state licenses under the provisions of the Liquor Control Act [60-3A-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.] to operate within such counties, outside of the municipalities that are local option districts, as retailers, dispensers, canopy licensees, restaurant licensees or club licensees. The amount of the license tax, which shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and the dates and manner of the payment shall be fixed by the resolution imposing the tax; provided, that in case the county permits the payment in installments, no bond shall be required to secure the payment of the deferred installments, but the remedy for the collection shall be that provided in Section 7-24-3 NMSA 1978.

7-24-9. Definitions.

As used in the Local Liquor Excise Tax Act [7-24-8 to 7-24-16 NMSA 1978]:

A. "alcoholic beverages" means distilled or rectified spirits, potable alcohol, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin and aromatic bitters or any similar alcoholic beverage, including blended or fermented beverages, dilutions or mixtures of one or more of the foregoing containing more than one-half of one percent alcohol, but excluding medicinal bitters;

B. "county" means a class B county having a population of more than fifty-six thousand but less than seventy-five thousand, according to the most recent federal decennial census or any subsequent decennial census and having a net taxable value for rate-setting purposes for the 1988 or any subsequent property tax year of more than five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) but less than seven hundred million dollars ($700,000,000);

C. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

D. "governing body" means the board of county commissioners of a county;

E. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate or other association; "person" also means, to the extent permitted by law, any federal, state or other governmental unit or subdivision or agency, department or instrumentality thereof;

F. "price" means the total amount of money or the reasonable value of other consideration or both paid for alcoholic beverages, inclusive of the amount of any tax paid pursuant to the Liquor Excise Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 17 NMSA 1978]; and

G. "retailer" means any person having a place of business within the county who sells, offers for sale or possesses for the purpose of selling alcoholic beverages within the county.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 326, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1989, ch. 326 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 16, 1989, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-24-10. Authorization to impose local liquor excise tax; rate; use of proceeds; election required.

A. The majority of the members elected to the governing body may enact an ordinance imposing on any retailer an excise tax on the price paid by the retailer for alcoholic beverages purchased by the retailer upon which the tax imposed by this section has not been paid. The tax may be imposed at a rate not to exceed six percent, provided that any lower rate shall be an even multiple of one percent. The tax imposed under this section may be referred to as the "local liquor excise tax". Any tax imposed under this section shall be for a period of not more than three years from the effective date of the ordinance imposing the tax.

B. The governing body at the time of enacting an ordinance imposing the tax authorized in Subsection A of this section shall dedicate the revenue to fund educational programs and prevention and treatment, including social detoxification, of alcoholism and drug abuse within the county and for no other purpose. After approval of the imposition of a local liquor excise tax by the voters but before the effective date of the ordinance, the governing body shall hold a public meeting for the purpose of inviting comment on and suggestions for the most appropriate programs on which to expend the revenue produced by the tax. The governing body shall invite representatives from the appropriate Indian tribes, nations and pueblos to the meeting. If the governing body awards any contract using funds derived from the local liquor excise tax, it shall do so only through a selection process requiring submission of sealed bids or proposals after public notice of the opportunity to submit the sealed bids or proposals.

C. The governing body enacting an ordinance imposing the local liquor excise tax shall submit the question of imposing the tax to the qualified voters of the county at a regular or special election.

D. Only those voters who are registered within the county shall be permitted to vote. The election shall be called, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections.

E. If at an election called pursuant to this section the majority of the voters voting on the question vote in the affirmative on the question, then the ordinance imposing the local liquor excise tax shall be approved. If at such an election the majority of the voters voting on the question fail to approve the question, then the ordinance shall be disapproved and the question required to be submitted by Subsection B of this section shall not be submitted to the voters for a period of at least one year from the date of the election.

F. Any ordinance enacted under the provisions of this section that imposes a local liquor excise tax or changes the rate of tax imposed shall include an effective date that is the first day of any month that begins no earlier than ninety days after the date of the election. A certified copy of any ordinance imposing a local liquor excise tax shall be mailed or personally delivered to the department within five days after the ordinance is certified to have been approved by the voters.

G. Any ordinance repealing the imposition of a tax under the provisions of this section shall contain an effective date that is the first day of any month beginning no earlier than sixty days from the date the ordinance repealing the tax is adopted by the governing body. A certified copy of any ordinance repealing a local liquor excise tax shall be mailed or personally delivered to the department within five days of the date the ordinance is adopted.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 326, § 3; 2013, ch. 218, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, increased the local liquor excise tax rate; permitted local liquor excise tax proceeds to be used for social detoxification; in Subsection A, in the second sentence, after "not to exceed", deleted "five" and added "six"; and in Subsection B, in the first sentence, after "prevention and treatment", added "including social detoxification".

7-24-10.1. Use of tax proceeds; local liquor excise tax committee; joint powers agreement; community participation.

A. Prior to an election on the question of imposing a local liquor excise tax pursuant to the provisions of the Local Liquor Excise Tax Act [7-24-8 to 7-24-16 NMSA 1978], the governing body of a county shall enter into a joint powers agreement with the governing body of the most populated municipality and the governing bodies of any other municipalities in the county that choose to be parties to the agreement to provide for the use and administration of the tax proceeds. The agreement shall provide for the establishment and appointment of a local liquor excise tax committee to provide advice, assist in preventing duplication and supplanting of program funding and make recommendations to the governing body of the county and the municipal governing bodies that are parties to the agreement on the use of the tax proceeds. The agreement shall:

(1) clearly specify the use of the proceeds of the proposed local liquor excise tax, including the identification of specific local programs, agencies or entities that will be funded from the tax proceeds;

(2) determine the allocation of election expenses among the parties to the agreement;

(3) clearly specify that the detoxification center located within a municipality with a population of not less than fifteen thousand and not more than thirty-five thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census providing social detoxification treatment with the greatest numbers of adult clients shall receive the funding necessary to provide social detoxification of alcohol and drug treatment for adults;

(4) provide that the remaining proceeds of the proposed local liquor excise tax shall be used to fund social detoxification of alcohol and drugs for juveniles and other prevention and treatment programs as recommended by the local liquor excise tax committee; and

(5) clearly specify that each specific local program, agency or entity that is funded from the tax proceeds shall be audited at its own expense and provide accountability reports to the governing body of the county and municipal governing bodies that are parties to the agreement within thirty days of the end of each quarter of the calendar year, including an itemized breakdown of program services and expenditures.

B. Prior to the agreement by the governing body of a county and the municipal governing bodies for use of the proposed local liquor excise tax proceeds, the local liquor excise tax committee established pursuant to the provisions of Subsection A of this section shall conduct a public hearing for the purpose of inviting public comment on use of the proposed local liquor excise tax proceeds. The committee shall make every effort to provide public notice of the hearing and to invite a broad cross-section of community representatives and groups to comment on community needs. Following the hearing, the committee shall make its funding recommendations to the governing body of the county and the municipal governing bodies.

C. On or before April 1 of each calendar year, the governing body of a county or municipality that has entered into an agreement pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall submit to the department of finance and administration a report itemizing the receipts, expenditures and number of clients served pursuant to any such agreement for the preceding calendar year. On or before July 1 of each year, the department of finance and administration shall complete an audit of the county's report submitted pursuant to this section and shall report its findings to the appropriate interim legislative committee before September 1 of that year.

D. If a local program, agency or entity receiving funds from local liquor excise tax proceeds fails to timely submit an accountability report pursuant to Paragraph (5) of Subsection A of this section, the county or municipality shall be immediately prohibited from disbursing any further funds to such local program, agency or entity until the delinquent accountability report has been submitted to and accepted by the governing board of the county and the municipal governing bodies.

E. "transit route" means a road, highway or street normally used in the operation of a public transportation system; and

F. "vehicle emission inspection program" means a vehicle emission inspection program designed to reduce pollutants emitted by motor vehicles of less than ten thousand pounds pursuant to a county or municipal ordinance.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-2, enacted by Laws 1991, ch. 156, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1991, ch. 156, § 2 repealed 7-24A-2 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1991, ch. 156, § 1, relating to definitions in the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1996.

Cross references. — For county classifications, see 4-44-1 NMSA 1978.

For local authority as to the Air Quality Control Act, see 74-2-4 NMSA 1978 et seq.

7-24A-3. Use of proceeds.

A. The proceeds of a county or municipal gasoline tax shall be used for bridge and road projects or public transportation related trails and for expenses of purchasing, maintaining and operating transit operations and facilities, for the operation of a transit authority established by the Municipal Transit Law [3-52-1 to 3-52-13 NMSA 1978] or as provided in the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act, for operation of a vehicle emission inspection program or for road, street or highway construction, repair or maintenance in the county or municipality. The proceeds of a county or municipal gasoline tax may be pledged for the payment of bonds issued pursuant to the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act. A county or municipality may engage in the business of transportation of passengers and property within the political subdivision by whatever means it may decide and may acquire cars, motor buses and other equipment necessary for carrying on the business. It may acquire land and erect buildings and equip them with all necessary machinery and facilities for operation, maintenance, modification, repair and storage of any buses, cars, trucks or other equipment needed. It may do all things necessary for the acquisition and conduct of the business of public transportation.

B. A governing body may enact ordinances and resolutions and promulgate rules as it may deem necessary and proper for the conduct of the business of transportation and for fixing and collecting all fares, rates and charges for services rendered.

C. Any county or municipality engaging in the business of transportation may extend any system of transportation to points outside its boundaries where necessary and incidental to furnishing efficient transportation to points within the county or municipality.

D. A governing body may lease any system of transportation in whole or in part to any person who will contract to operate it according to the rules, time tables and other requirements established by the governing body.

E. Any county or municipality may furnish transportation service to areas located outside its boundaries, provided that prior contracts have been entered into with the county or municipality in which the areas are located covering the schedules, rates, service and other pertinent matters before initiation of such service.

F. The power of eminent domain is granted to a participating county or municipality for the purpose of acquiring lands and buildings necessary to provide efficient public transit or a vehicle emission inspection program to be exercised in the manner provided by law.

G. A county or municipality, as an operating entity, may enter into contracts for special transportation service, charter buses, advertising and any other function that a private enterprise operating a public transit facility could do or perform for revenue.

H. A governing body may spend any public funds to pay the costs of operation of public transit or a vehicle emission inspection program if revenues of the system prove to be insufficient.

I. A county or municipality is authorized to enter into binding agreements with the United States or any of its officers or agencies or the state or any of its officers or agencies or any combination of agencies, departments or officers of both the United States and the state for planning, developing, modernizing, studying, improving, financing, operating or otherwise affecting public transit; to accept any loans, grants or payments from any of these agencies; and to make any commitments or assume any obligations required by any of these agencies as a condition of receiving the benefits thereof.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-3, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 3; 1985, ch. 196, § 2; 1993, ch. 190, § 1; 1999, ch. 226, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "or public transportation related trails" near the beginning of the first sentence of Subsection A and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection G.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, in Subsection A, inserted the second sentence, and made stylistic changes throughout.

7-24A-4. Limitations on power.

A. All contracts for work, material or labor in connection with such transportation shall be let in the manner provided by law for the letting of other contracts by the county or municipality.

B. Transit service may not be extended to points outside the county in which a city is located or outside the boundaries of the county unless prior approval is obtained from the department of transportation and other regulatory bodies having jurisdiction in the matter.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-4, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 4; 2023, ch. 100, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2024, removed a reference to the state corporation commission due to the transfer of certain powers and duties to the department of transportation; and in Subsection B, after "obtained from the", deleted "state corporation commission" and added "department of transportation".

7-24A-5. County gasoline tax; authorization; imposition; rate.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of a county may adopt an ordinance imposing a tax of up to two cents ($.02) a gallon on all gasoline sold at retail within the boundaries of the county on all property not lying within the boundaries of a municipality and upon which gasoline taxes are imposed in accordance with the Gasoline Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 13 NMSA 1978]. The tax imposed by this section is to be referred to as the "county gasoline tax" and is in addition to the tax imposed in the Gasoline Tax Act.

B. If the governing body of a county adopts an ordinance imposing a county gasoline tax, the governing body shall submit the question of levying the tax to the qualified electors in the county residing outside the boundaries of a municipality.

C. The gasoline tax may be imposed in increments of one cent ($.01) per gallon up to a maximum of two cents ($.02) per gallon. The amount of the tax and the specific purposes for which the proceeds shall be used shall be stated in the ordinance adopted by the governing body of the county as provided in Subsection A of this section. The gasoline tax shall not be imposed for the purpose of funding a vehicle emissions inspection program if a re-registration fee that funds a vehicle emissions inspection and maintenance program has been imposed pursuant to Subsection C of Section 74-2-4 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-5, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 5; 1985, ch. 196, § 3; 1990, ch. 88, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, substituted "sold at retail" for "received in New Mexico and distributed" in the first sentence of Subsection A and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection C.

7-24A-6. County gasoline tax; procedure for adoption of ordinance; election.

A. The ordinance imposing a county gasoline tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a simple majority of the qualified electors of the county residing outside the boundaries of a municipality vote in favor of imposing the county gasoline tax. The governing body of the county shall provide for an election on the question of imposing a county gasoline tax within sixty days after the day the ordinance is adopted. Such question may be submitted to the electors and voted upon as a separate question at any general election or at any special election called for that purpose by the governing body. The election upon the question shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If the question of imposing a county gasoline tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose a county gasoline tax ordinance for a period of one year after the election.

B. Within five days after passage of a county gasoline tax ordinance, the governing body of the county shall submit a certified copy of the ordinance to the taxation and revenue department.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-6, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 6; 1985, ch. 196, § 4; 1990, ch. 88, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, added "County gasoline tax" at the beginning and deleted "effective date" at the end of the section heading; deleted former Subsection A, relating to notice to and action by the division on a proposed ordinance; designated former Subsection B as Subsection A and inserted "imposing a county gasoline tax" in the first sentence thereof; deleted former Subsection C, relating to the effective date of the ordinance; and redesignated former Subsection D as Subsection B, adding "Within five days" at the beginning, and substituted "taxation and revenue department" for "division" at the end thereof.

7-24A-6.1. County-wide gasoline tax; authorization; imposition; rate; election.

A. A county-wide gasoline tax may be imposed on each gallon of gasoline sold at retail within the county in increments of one cent ($.01) per gallon up to a maximum of two cents ($.02) per gallon for the purpose of funding a vehicle emissions inspection program and other programs as specified in Subsection D of this section when the governing bodies of a county and a municipality adopt identical ordinances submitting the question to the qualified electors in the county in a joint election.

B. The procedures of the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act shall apply unless otherwise provided in this section.

C. The ordinance shall not go into effect until after a joint election is held pursuant to Section 7-24A-21 NMSA 1978 and a simple majority of the qualified electors of the county voting on the issue vote in favor of imposing a county-wide gasoline tax. If the ordinance is approved by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting on the issue, the gasoline tax shall be imposed county-wide, both within and outside the boundaries of any municipality within the county.

D. If the qualified electors of the county vote in favor of an ordinance imposing a county-wide gasoline tax pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-24A-21 NMSA 1978 and any proceeds of the tax are dedicated by the ordinance to a vehicle emissions inspection program, then the proceeds of the tax imposed shall be used first for the vehicle emissions inspection program and the balance shall be used for other environmental programs such as water quality or air quality programs. That balance shall be distributed to the municipality and the county based on the proportions that the population of the municipality and the population of the county outside the boundaries of the municipality bear to the total population of the county. The municipality and county shall reimburse the motor vehicle division of the taxation and revenue department for actual costs incurred in administering any plan that involves the motor vehicle division in the enforcement of denial of motor vehicle registration for noncompliance with a vehicle emissions inspection program. The costs reimbursed are appropriated to the motor vehicle division for that purpose.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-6.1, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 74, § 1; 1990, ch. 88, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, added "imposition," "rate" and "election" in the section heading, inserted "on each gallon of gasoline sold at retail within the county" near the beginning of Subsection A and, in Subsection D, inserted "of the taxation and revenue department" in the second sentence and made a minor stylistic change.

7-24A-7. Ordinance must conform to certain provisions of the Gasoline Tax Act.

Any ordinance imposing a county, county-wide or municipal gasoline tax shall contain or adopt by reference the same definitions and the same provisions relating to deductions, refunds and credits as are contained in the Gasoline Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 13 NMSA 1978].

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-7, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 7; 1990, ch. 88, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, inserted "county-wide" and "or adopt by reference".

7-24A-7.1. Registration required.

Each person selling gasoline at retail in a county which imposes a county or county-wide gasoline tax or in a municipality which imposes a municipal gasoline tax shall register with the county or the municipality, as appropriate, as a seller of gasoline at retail.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-7.1, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 88, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1990, ch. 88 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 16, 1990, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-24A-8. Collection of county gasoline tax.

The county shall collect the county gasoline tax imposed by the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act. Every person subject to the imposition of the county gasoline tax shall file a return on forms provided by and with the information required by the county and shall pay the tax due on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the gasoline is sold at retail within the boundaries of the county.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-8, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 8; 1983, ch. 211, § 36; 1990, ch. 88, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, deleted "by division" following "gasoline tax" and "Transfer of proceeds" at the end of the section heading; deleted the subsection designation "A" and former Subsection B, relating to the deduction of administrative costs of collection and the transfer of tax proceeds by the division; in the present section, substituted "county" for "division" in two places, and, in the second sentence, deleted "second" preceding "month following" and substituted "sold at retail" for "received in New Mexico and distributed".

7-24A-9. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1990, ch. 88, § 21 repealed 7-24A-9 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 9, relating to interpretation of County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act, effective May 16, 1990. For provisions of former section, see the 1989 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-24A-10. Municipal gasoline tax; authorization; imposition; rate.

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of a municipality may adopt an ordinance imposing a tax of up to two cents ($.02) a gallon on all gasoline sold at retail within the boundaries of the municipality and upon which gasoline taxes are imposed in accordance with the Gasoline Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 13 NMSA 1978]. The tax imposed by this section is to be referred to as the "municipal gasoline tax" and is in addition to the tax imposed in the Gasoline Tax Act.

B. If the governing body of a municipality adopts an ordinance imposing a municipal gasoline tax, the governing body shall submit the question of levying the tax to the qualified electors in the municipality.

C. The gasoline tax may be imposed in increments of one cent ($.01) per gallon up to a maximum of two cents ($.02) per gallon. The amount of the tax and the specific purposes for which the proceeds shall be used shall be stated in the ordinance adopted by the governing body of the municipality as provided in Subsection A of this section. The gasoline tax shall not be imposed for the purpose of funding a vehicle emissions inspection program if a re-registration fee that funds a vehicle emissions inspection and maintenance program has been imposed pursuant to Subsection C of Section 74-2-4 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-10, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 10; 1985, ch. 196, § 5; 1990, ch. 88, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, substituted "sold at retail" for "received in New Mexico and distributed" in the first sentence of Subsection A and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection C.

7-24A-11. Municipal gasoline tax; procedure for adoption of ordinance; election.

A. The ordinance imposing a municipal gasoline tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and a simple majority of the qualified electors of the municipality voting on the question votes in favor of imposing the municipal gasoline tax. The governing body of the municipality shall provide for an election on the question of imposing the municipal gasoline tax within sixty days after the day the ordinance is adopted. Such question may be submitted to the electors and voted upon as a separate question at any regular or special election or at any special election called for that purpose by the governing body. The election upon the question shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for special elections as provided in the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978]. If the question of imposing a municipal gasoline tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose a municipal gasoline tax ordinance for a period of one year after the election.

B. After passage of a municipal gasoline tax ordinance, the governing body of the municipality shall submit a certified copy of the ordinance to the taxation and revenue department.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-11, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 11; 1985, ch. 196, § 6; 1985, ch. 208, § 123; 1986, ch. 74, § 2; 1990, ch. 88, § 11; 2018, ch. 79, § 80.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, provided that elections called to approve or disapprove an ordinance imposing a municipal gasoline tax shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for special elections as provided in the Local Election Act, and made technical and conforming changes; and in Subsection A, after "special", deleted "municipal", and after "as provided in the", deleted "Municipal Election Code" and added "Local Election Act".

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2018, ch. 79, § 174 provided that references in law to the Municipal Election Code and to the School Election Law shall be deemed to be references to the Local Election Act.

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, added "Municipal gasoline tax" at the beginning and deleted "effective date" at the end of the section heading; deleted former Subsection A, relating to notice to and approval by the division of the proposed ordinance; designated former Subsection A as present Subsection B and inserted "imposing a municipal gasoline tax" in the first sentence thereof; deleted former Subsection C, relating to the effective date of the ordinance; and designated former Subsection D as present Subsection B, substituting "taxation and revenue department" for "division" at the end thereof.

7-24A-12. Collection of municipal gasoline tax.

The municipality shall collect the municipal gasoline tax imposed by the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act. Every person subject to the imposition of the municipal gasoline tax shall file a return on forms provided by and with the information required by the municipality and shall pay the tax due on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the gasoline is sold at retail within the boundaries of the municipality.

7-24A-13. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1990, ch. 88, § 21 repealed 7-24A-13 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 13, relating to imposition of federal regulations, effective May 16, 1990. For provisions of former section, see the 1989 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-24A-14. Bond ordinance.

A. The governing body may adopt an ordinance providing for issuance of bonds to enable the county or municipality to acquire land, buildings, buses or other equipment required for public transit, a vehicle emission inspection program or for road, street or highway construction, repair or maintenance or for refunding bonds previously issued for such purpose or any such purposes.

B. The bonds are payable solely from a pledge of:

(1) gross income derived by the county or municipality from the transit facilities or vehicle emission inspection facilities financed with the proceeds and other transit facilities not so financed; provided that when gross revenues are so pledged, the county or municipality may apply to the payment of the expense of maintaining and operating the transit facilities, the gross revenues of which are so pledged, the county's or municipality's revenues derived from sources other than the proceeds of ad valorem taxes and may, in the proceedings authorizing the issue of bonds, covenant and agree to apply to the payment of the maintenance and operation expenses so much of the revenues as may be necessary for such purposes or as may be specified in the proceedings;

(2) income derived from franchises granted by the governing body of a county or municipality;

(3) contributions, grants or other financial assistance from the state or federal government or any other source;

(4) county or municipal gasoline tax revenue; or

(5) any one or a combination of these sources.

C. The ordinance is irrevocable as long as any indebtedness on the bonds is unpaid by the county or municipality.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-14, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 14; 1985, ch. 196, § 7; 1999, ch. 226, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, made stylistic changes in Subsection A, redesignated former Subsection B(5) as B(4), added Subsection B(4) and in Subsection B(5), substituted "any one or a combination" for "any combination".

7-24A-15. Terms of bonds.

A. The ordinance authorizing issuance of bonds shall specify:

- (1) issuance in any number of series;
- (2) maturity dates;
- (3) interest payable on the bonds;
- (4) denominations;
- (5) form, either coupon or registered;
- (6) conversion or registration privileges;
- (7) rank or priority;
- (8) manner of execution;
- (9) if desirable, features of redemption, prior to maturity with or without premium; and
- (10) the terms, manner and medium of payment and redemption.

B. No member of the governing body or any person executing bonds is personally liable on any bond. All bonds are payable solely from the sources specified in the authorizing ordinance. No bond is a debt, liability or general obligation of the issuing county or municipality.

C. The terms prescribed by the authorizing ordinance and by this section shall be carried on the face of each bond.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-15, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 15; 1985, ch. 196, § 8.

7-24A-16. Sale of bonds.

A. Bonds may be sold at either public or private sale; provided that no such bonds may be sold at any price which does not result in an actual net interest cost to maturity, computed on the basis of standard tables of bond values, in excess of the maximum net effective interest rate permitted by the Public Securities Act [6-14-1 to 6-14-3 NMSA

1978] or the Public Securities Short-term Interest Rate Act [6-18-1 to 6-18-16 NMSA 1978], as applicable.

B. If any county or municipal officer whose signature appears on any bond ceases to be an officer before delivery of the bonds, the signature is valid for all purposes as if the officer had remained in office until delivery.

C. All bonds are fully negotiable.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-16, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 16; 1985, ch. 196, § 9.

7-24A-17. Construction.

The County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act is full authority for authorization and issuance of bonds. If [In] any proceeding involving the validity and enforceability of any bond or its security, any bond reciting in substance that it was issued by the county or municipality to aid in financing public transit or transportation projects or any other purpose authorized by the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act is conclusively presumed to have been issued for a county or municipal transit or transportation project or other purpose in accordance with that act.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-17, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law.

7-24A-18. Additional security.

To further the marketability of bonds, the ordinance authorizing their issue may:

A. secure their payment by deed of trust or mortgage conveying county or municipally owned land and improvements acquired for the public transit facility operation or use from the proceeds of the bonds to a trustee for the benefit and security of the bondholders; and

B. authorize any other security agreement not in conflict with law.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-18, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 18.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1978, ch. 182 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 1978, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-24A-19. Foreclosure.

If the interest or any serial maturity of any bond is in default, any obligee may foreclose against the county or municipality under the same procedure provided for foreclosure of real estate mortgages. The district court may appoint a receiver to operate the transit facilities or operation in default.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-19, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 19.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1978, ch. 182 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 1978, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-24A-20. Legal investments.

Bonds are legal investments for savings banks and insurance companies under the laws of this state. They are bonds, notes or other obligations of a county or municipality of this state, issued pursuant to a law of this state, for the purposes of investment or purchase by the state investment officer.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-24A-20, enacted by Laws 1978, ch. 182, § 20.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1978, ch. 182 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 17, 1978, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-24A-21. Joint election.

A. If an election is held by one or more municipalities within a county or a municipality and the county concerning adoption of the county and municipal gasoline taxes, such election may be held jointly by such county and municipality, or municipalities, and may be held at any election except a primary election.

B. The election may be conducted using paper ballots. Consolidated voter precincts may be used if the board of county commissioners determines that such a consolidation would provide for a cost-effective and efficient election process and such consolidation would insure the integrity of the election process.

C. If a joint election is held by a municipality and a county pursuant to Section 7-24A-6.1 NMSA 1978 and a simple majority of the qualified electors of the county voting on the issue vote in favor of imposing the county-wide gasoline tax, the tax shall be imposed by the division and collected pursuant to the County and Municipal Gasoline Tax Act.

7-25-2. Purpose.

The purpose of the Resources Excise Tax Act is to provide revenue for public purposes by levying a tax on the privilege of severing and processing natural resources within New Mexico.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-21, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 48, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1966, ch. 48, § 14 made Laws 1966, ch. 48, § 2 effective July 1, 1967.

Primary purpose of Resources Excise Tax Act is to encourage the development of the extractive industries of this state through the imposition of rates that are a fraction of the gross receipts tax (see Sections 7-9-1 to 7-9-81 NMSA 1978). Carter & Sons, Inc. v. N.M. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-025, 92 N.M. 591, 592 P.2d 191.

Taxation of lumber business activities. — "Road maintenance" and "hauling" are an integral and indispensable part of a taxpayer's activity of severing timber and delivering it to a lumber mill and as such are exempt from the gross receipts tax (see Sections 7-9-1 to 7-9-81 NMSA 1978) by the provisions of Section 7-9-35 NMSA 1978, while being taxable under the Resources Excise Tax Act. Carter & Sons, Inc. v. N.M. Bureau of Revenue, 1979-NMCA-025, 92 N.M. 591, 592 P.2d 191.

7-25-3. Definitions.

As used in the Resources Excise Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "natural resource" means timber and any product thereof and any metalliferous or nonmetalliferous mineral product, combination or compound thereof, severed in New Mexico but does not include oil, natural gas, liquid hydrocarbon individually or any combination thereof, carbon dioxide, helium or nonhydrocarbon gas;

C. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, cooperative association, club, corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate or other entity;

D. "processing" means smelting, leaching, refining, reducing, compounding or otherwise preparing for sale or commercial use any natural resource so that its character or condition is materially changed in mills or plants located in New Mexico;

E. "processor" means any person engaging in the business of processing natural resources that the person owns, or any person who is the owner of natural resources and who has another person perform the processing of such natural resources;

F. "service charge" means the total amount of money or the reasonable value of other consideration received for severing or processing any natural resource by any person who is not the owner of the natural resource. However, if the money received does not represent the value of the severing or processing performed, "service charge" means the reasonable value of the severing or processing performed;

G. "severer" means any person engaging in the business of severing natural resources that the person owns, or any person who is the owner of natural resources and who has another person perform the severing of such natural resources;

H. "severing" means mining, quarrying, extracting, felling or producing any natural resource in New Mexico for sale, profit or commercial use; and

I. "taxable value" means the value after severing or processing, without deduction of any kind other than specified in this subsection, of any natural resource severed or processed in New Mexico. It is presumed, in the absence of preponderant evidence of another value, that the taxable value means the total amount of money or the reasonable value of other consideration received for the severed or processed natural resource. However, if the amount of money received does not represent the value of the severed or processed natural resource or if the severed or processed natural resource is not sold, the taxable value shall be the reasonable value of the severed or processed natural resource. All natural resources severed or processed in New Mexico shall be included in determining taxable value, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that delivery may be made to points outside of New Mexico. If any person shall ship, transmit or transport natural resources out of New Mexico without making sale of them or shall ship, transmit or transport natural resources out of New Mexico in an unfinished condition, the value of the natural resources in the condition in which they existed when shipped, transmitted or transported out of New Mexico and before they enter interstate commerce, without deduction of any kind other than specified in this subsection, shall be the basis for determining the taxable value. Amounts received from selling natural resources, other than metalliferous mineral ores, whether processed or unprocessed, to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision thereof, or to organizations that have demonstrated to the department that they have been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as organizations described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or renumbered, which employ the natural resource in the conduct of functions described in Section 501 (c) (3) and not in the conduct of an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or renumbered, may be deducted from taxable value. Any royalty or other similar interest, whether payable in cash or in kind, paid to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or the state of New Mexico or any political subdivision thereof, or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States may be deducted from taxable value. In computing taxable value, any owner of natural resources may deduct any service charge on which the service tax imposed by Section 7-25-6 NMSA 1978 is payable.

History: 1953, Comp., § 72-16A-22, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 48, § 3; 1968, ch. 58, § 1; 1969, ch. 267, § 1; 1970, ch. 14, § 1; 1971, ch. 23, § 1; 1972, ch. 37, § 1; 1977, ch. 249, § 50; 1979, ch. 255, § 1; 1985, ch. 65, § 22; 1986, ch. 20, § 91; 2007, ch. 275, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

7-25-5. Rate and measure of tax; denomination as "processors tax".

A. For the privilege of processing natural resources, there is imposed on any processor of natural resources in New Mexico an excise tax at the following rates on the taxable value of the natural resources:

- (1) all natural resources except timber, potash and molybdenum, three-fourths of one percent;
- (2) timber, three-eighths of one percent;
- (3) potash, one-eighth of one percent; and
- (4) molybdenum, one-eighth of one percent.

B. The tax imposed by this section shall be referred to as the "processors tax".

7-25-6. Rate and measure of tax; denomination as "service tax".

A. For the privilege of severing or processing in New Mexico natural resources that are owned by another person and are not otherwise taxed by Sections 7-25-4 and 7-25-5 NMSA 1978, there is imposed on the service charge of any person severing or processing natural resources that are owned by another person an excise tax at the same rate that would be imposed on an owner of natural resources for performing the same function.

B. The tax imposed by this section shall be referred to as the "service tax".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-16A-25, enacted by Laws 1966, ch. 48, § 6; 1993, ch. 30, § 25.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Sections 7-25-4 and 7-25-5 NMSA 1978" for "Sections 4 and 5 of the Resources Excise Tax Act" in Subsection A.

Severance alone does not give rise to taxable event. Yankee Atomic Elec. Co. v. N.M. & Ariz. Land Co., 632 F.2d 855 (10th Cir. 1980).

Severance and sale, transportation or consumption triggers tax. — Severance, coupled with the sale, transportation out of New Mexico, or consumption thereof triggers the imposition of the tax. Yankee Atomic Elec. Co. v. N.M. & Ariz. Land Co., 632 F.2d 855 (10th Cir. 1980).

Receipts from development work incidental to severing taxable under this section. — The exemption from the gross receipts tax provided by Section 7-9-35 NMSA 1978 applies when severing was taking place as the development work was performed and none of taxpayer's work was preliminary to or preparatory for severing; receipts from development work, which includes construction, are exempted from the gross receipts tax and taxable under the service tax provided by this section when such construction work is incidental to the severing. *Patten v. 7-26-3. Imposition of tax; denomination as "severance tax".

For the privilege of severing natural resources, there is imposed on any severer of natural resources in New Mexico an excise tax on the taxable value or the quantity of natural resources severed and saved by or for him as determined under, and at the rates provided in the Severance Tax Act. The tax imposed by this section shall be known as the "severance tax".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-3, enacted by Laws 1971, ch. 65, § 5; 1977, ch. 102, § 5.

7-26-4. Determination of taxable value of natural resources.

A. Except as otherwise provided in Subsections C, E, F and G of this section, the "taxable event" is the severance of a natural resource whose taxable value is determined under the provisions of this section.

B. For all natural resources except potash or potash products described under Subsection C of this section, molybdenum or molybdenum products described under Subsection D of this section, copper, lead or zinc described in Subsection E of this section, gold described in Subsection F of this section, silver described in Subsection G of this section, coal and uranium, the gross value of the natural resource is the sales value of the severed and saved product at the first marketable point without any deductions, except that:

(1) for those products having a posted field or market price at the point of production, the gross value is its posted field or market price, except that the gross value of potash is forty percent of the posted field or market price, less those expenses of hoisting, crushing and loading necessary to place the severed product in marketable form and at a marketable place, but the allowable deductions for hoisting, loading and crushing shall not exceed fifty percent of the posted field or market price; and

(2) for those products that must be processed or beneficiated before sale, the gross value is the sales value after deducting freight charges from the point of severance to the point of first sale and the cost of processing or beneficiation.

C. The gross value for each type of potash and potash product requiring processing or beneficiation (other than sizing), regardless of the form in which the product is actually sold, shall be thirty-three and one-third percent of the proceeds realized from the sale of muriate of potash and sulphate of potash magnesia, as standard grades, and thirty-three and one-third percent of the value of such products consumed in the production of other potash products, less fifty percent of such reported value as a deduction for expenses of hoisting, loading, crushing, processing and beneficiation. For purposes of this subsection, the taxable event occurs when products are sold or consumed. Any potash or potash products, the value of which is computed under this subsection, shall not also have their value computed by the use of any of the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

D. The gross value for each type of molybdenum and molybdenum product requiring processing or beneficiation, regardless of the form in which the product is actually sold, shall be the value of molybdenum contained in concentrates shipped or sold from a mine site, but in no event a value less than the value that bona fide sales which reflect current market conditions would yield for the same quantity of molybdenum products contained in concentrates at the mine site, less fifty percent of that value as a deduction for the expenses of hoisting, loading, crushing, processing and beneficiation.

E. The gross value for copper, lead and zinc shall be sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the sales value established from published price data, as further described in this subsection, of the quantity of copper, lead or zinc recoverable from the concentrate or other product which is sold or is shipped, transmitted or transported out of New Mexico without sale, less fifty percent of the sales value as a deduction for the expenses of hoisting, loading, crushing, processing and beneficiation. For purposes of this subsection, the taxable event occurs when the severer sells copper, lead or zinc in New Mexico or when the severer ships, transmits or transports copper, lead or zinc out of New Mexico without first making sale of it. The secretary shall designate by regulation which published price index shall be used to establish the sales value for each resource. The sales value for each resource shall be the monthly average price published for each resource for the month in which the taxable event occurs. When the taxable event is sale, the recoverable quantity of copper, lead or zinc shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined by presale assay, and the reported quantity may be adjusted in a report filed after final assay, if necessary. When the taxable event is shipment, transmission or transportation out of New Mexico without sale, the recoverable quantity of copper, lead or zinc shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined after preshipment assay. Copper, lead or zinc shall not be considered saved for the purposes of the Severance Tax Act unless the copper, lead or zinc can economically be separated and saved from the dominant resource, which is the resource subject to sale by the severer. Any copper, lead or zinc the value of which is computed under this subsection shall not also have its value computed by the use of any of the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

F. The gross value for gold shall be the sales value established from published price data, as further described in this subsection, of the quantity of gold recoverable from the concentrate or other product which is sold or is shipped, transmitted or transported out of New Mexico without sale, less fifty percent of the sales value as a deduction for the expenses of hoisting, loading, crushing, processing and beneficiation. For purposes of this subsection, the taxable event occurs when the severer sells gold in New Mexico or when the severer ships, transmits or transports gold out of New Mexico without first making sale of it. The secretary shall designate by regulation which published price index shall be used to establish the sales value for gold. The sales value for gold shall be the monthly average price published for gold for the month in which the taxable event occurs. When the taxable event is sale, the recoverable quantity of gold shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined by presale assay, and the reported quantity may be adjusted in a report filed after final assay, if necessary. When the taxable event is shipment, transmission or transportation out of New Mexico without sale, the recoverable quantity of gold shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined after preshipment assay. For purposes of the Severance Tax Act, gold shall not be considered saved unless the gold can economically be separated and saved from the dominant resource, which is the resource subject to sale by the severer. Any gold the value of which is computed under this subsection shall not also have its value computed by the use of any of the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

G. The gross value for silver shall be eighty percent of the sales value established from published price data, as further described in this subsection, of the quantity of silver recoverable from the concentrate or other product which is sold or is shipped, transmitted or transported out of New Mexico without sale, less fifty percent of the sales value as a deduction for the expenses of hoisting, loading, crushing, processing and beneficiation. For purposes of this subsection, the taxable event occurs when the severer sells silver in New Mexico or when the severer ships, transmits or transports silver out of New Mexico without first making sale of it. The secretary shall designate by regulation which published price index shall be used to establish the sales value for silver. The sales value for silver shall be the monthly average price published for silver for the month in which the taxable event occurs. When the taxable event is sale, the recoverable quantity of silver shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined by presale assay, and the reported quantity may be adjusted in a report filed after final assay, if necessary. When the taxable event is shipment, transmission or transportation out of New Mexico without sale, the recoverable quantity of silver shall be reported as the provisional quantity determined after preshipment assay. For purposes of the Severance Tax Act, silver shall not be considered saved unless the silver can economically be separated and saved from the dominant resource, which is the resource subject to sale by the severer. Any silver the value of which is computed under this subsection shall not also have its value computed by the use of any of the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

H. The taxable value of all severed natural resources except coal and uranium is the gross value of the severed resource determined under this section less rental or royalty payments belonging to the United States or the state.

I. The taxable value to be reported for severed and saved uranium-bearing material is the sales price per pound of the content of U₃O₈ contained in the severed and saved or processed uranium, regardless of the form in which the product is actually disposed of, reduced by fifty percent for the purposes of Section 7-26-7 NMSA 1978. It is presumed, in the absence of preponderant evidence of another value, that the sales price means the total amount of money and the reasonable value of other consideration received, or either of them, for the severed and saved uranium ore or processed uranium "yellowcake" concentrate without deduction of any kind. However, if the severed and saved uranium ore or "yellowcake" concentrate is not sold as ore or concentrate, the sales price shall be the value of U₃O₈ in ore or "yellowcake" concentrate represented in the final product.

History: Laws 1971, ch. 65, § 6; 1953 Comp., § 72-18-4; Laws 1972, ch. 47, § 2; 1977, ch. 102, § 6; 1981, ch. 169, § 1; 1983, ch. 210, § 1; 1984, ch. 84, § 1; 1986, ch. 20, § 93.

7-26-6. Severance tax on coal; surtax.

A. The severance tax on coal is measured by the quantity of coal severed and saved. The taxable event is sale, transportation out of New Mexico or consumption of the coal, whichever first occurs. Upon each short ton (two thousand pounds) of coal severed and saved, there shall be imposed on the severer a severance tax. For the period commencing on July 1, 1982, the severance tax rate shall be:

- (1) surface coal, fifty-seven cents ($.57); and
- (2) underground coal, fifty-five cents ($.55).

B. The severance tax on coal shall be increased by a surtax, hereby imposed. The surtax shall be imposed on the unit of quantity of such product or natural resource at the following rates:

- (1) surface coal, sixty cents ($.60); and
- (2) underground coal, fifty-eight cents ($.58).

C. The surtax rate on coal shall be increased on July 1, 1994, and on July 1 of each succeeding year by an amount equal to the product of the dollar amount of the severance tax imposed on each ton of coal by a percentage equal to the percentage rise in the producer price index for coal from the calendar year 1992 to the calendar year just prior to the year in which the surtax rates are computed, but in no case shall the surtax rate be decreased. The rates so computed shall be computed by the department in April of 1994 and in April of each year thereafter and published on or before May 1, 1994 and on or before May 1 of each year thereafter.

If the producer price index for coal is substantially revised or if the base year used as an index of one hundred is changed, the department shall make an adjustment in the percentage used to compute the surtax rates that would produce results equivalent, as nearly as possible, to those that would have been obtained if the producer price index for coal had not been so revised or if the base year had not been changed. If this index ceases to become available, then a comparable index based upon changes in the price of coal shall be adopted by the department by regulation.

D. As used in this section:

(1) "producer price index for coal" means the commodity code 05-1 as reported annually by the bureau of labor statistics at the United States department of labor in their annual producer price indexes data;

(2) "surface coal" means coal that is severed using surface mining methods;

(3) "surface mining" means the extraction of coal from the earth by removing the material overlying a coal seam and then removing the coal by common methods, including, but not limited to, contour mining, strip mining, mountain top removal mining, box cut mining, open pit mining and area mining; and

(4) "underground coal" means all coal that is not surface coal.

7-26-6.2. Coal surtax exemption; qualification requirements.

A. The following coal is exempt from the surtax imposed on coal under the provisions of Section 7-26-6 NMSA 1978:

(1) coal sold and delivered pursuant to coal sales contracts that are entered into on or after July 1, 1990, under which deliveries start after July 1, 1990, if the sales contracts are not the result of:

(a) a producer and purchaser mutually rescinding an existing contract and negotiating a revised contract under substantially similar terms and conditions;

(b) a purchaser establishing an affiliated company to purchase coal on behalf of the purchaser; or

(c) a purchaser independently abrogating a contract that was in effect on July 1, 1990 with a producer for the purpose of securing the benefits of the exemption granted by this section; and

(2) coal sold and delivered pursuant to a contract in effect on July 1, 1990 that exceeds the average calendar year deliveries under the contract during production years 1987, 1988 and 1989 or the highest contract minimum during 1987, 1988 and 1989, whichever is greater.

B. If a contract existing on July 1, 1990 is renegotiated between a producer and a purchaser after May 20, 1992 and if that renegotiated contract requires the purchaser to take annual coal deliveries in excess of the greater of the average calendar year deliveries under the contract during production years 1987, 1988 and 1989 or the highest contract minimum during 1987, 1988 and 1989, the surtax imposed by Subsection B of Section 7-26-6 NMSA 1978 shall not apply to such excess deliveries for the remaining term of the renegotiated contract.

C. For coal exempt under the provisions of Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this section, if the contract involved was for a lesser term during the production years specified, then actual deliveries shall be annualized to establish average calendar year deliveries, and in the event that coal sold and delivered in a calendar year after June 30, 2009 falls below the average calendar year deliveries during 1987, 1988 and 1989, the exemption shall no longer apply unless the deliveries are reduced due to causes beyond the reasonable control of either party to the contract.

D. The taxpayer, prior to taking the exemption provided by this section, shall register any contract for the sale of coal that qualifies for the exemption from the surtax under the provisions of this section with the department on forms provided by the secretary. If upon examination of the contract or upon audit or inspection of transactions occurring under the contract the secretary or the secretary's delegate determines that a person who is a party to the contract has taken an action to circumvent the intent and purpose of this section, the exemption shall be disallowed.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, in Subsection A, deleted "until July 1, 2009" following "is exempt" in the introductory language, and "and before June 30, 1999" following "July 1, 1990" in Paragraph (1); in Subsection B, deleted "prior to June 30, 1999 and" following "a purchaser" near the beginning and "or until July 1, 2009, whichever occurs first" at the end; in Subsection C, substituted "June 30, 2009" for "June 30, 1999"; and made minor stylistic changes.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, substituted "1999" for "1997" following "June 30," in Subsection B.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "June 30, 1997" for "June 30, 1995" in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A and in Subsections B and C.

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "1995" for "1994" in Paragraph A(1), in the first sentence of Subsection B, and in Subsection C; substituted

"May 20, 1992" for "effective date of this 1992 act" in Subsection B; and deleted "taxation and revenue" preceding "department" in the first sentence of Subsection D.

The 1992 amendment, effective May 20, 1992, substituted "highest contract minimum during 1987, 1988 and 1989, whichever is greater" for "contract minimum, whichever is greater" in Subsection A(2) and rewrote Subsection B.

7-26-7. Severance tax on uranium.

The severance tax on uranium is measured by the quantity of U3O8 contained in and recoverable from severed and saved uranium-bearing material whether that material is ore or solution, measured in a standard manner established by regulation of the director. The taxable event is the sale, transportation out of New Mexico or consumption of the uranium-bearing material, whichever first occurs. Upon each pound of severed and saved U3O8 contained in severed uranium-bearing material, there shall be collected from the severer a severance tax equal to three and one-half percent of taxable value.

Reappropriation of unexpended severance tax bond proceeds. — The legislature can reappropriate the balance of unexpended severance tax bond proceeds for purposes other than the purpose specified in the legislation originally authorizing the issuance and sale of the bonds, but only if the proceeds have not reverted to the severance tax bond fund and it is determined by bond counsel that the bondholders are not adversely affected by the reappropriation. 1991 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 91-01.

7-27-3. Severance tax permanent fund created.

There is created in the state treasury the "severance tax permanent fund".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-30.1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 294, § 2; 1996, ch. 3, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1996 amendment, effective upon certification by the secretary of state that the proposed amendments to art. 8, § 10 and art. 12, §§ 2, 4, and 7 of the New Mexico Constitution have passed, substituted "fund created" for "and income funds" in the section heading, substituted "is" for "are" preceding "created in", and deleted "and the 'severance tax income fund'" from the end of the section. Those constitutional amendments, proposed by S.J.R. No. 2 (Laws 1996), were adopted at the general election held November 5, 1996, by a vote of 307,442 for and 153,021 against.

7-27-3.1. Transfer of investment powers.

The functions, powers and duties vested by law relating to the investment or reinvestment of money and the purchase, sale or exchange of investments or securities of the severance tax permanent fund are transferred to the council. The state treasurer shall maintain custody of the severance tax permanent fund but shall at all times render the fund or any part of it available for investment in accordance with the provisions of Sections 7-27-1 through 7-27-48 NMSA 1978.

7-27-4. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1996, ch. 3, § 3, repealed 7-27-4 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 294, § 4, relating to disposition of income from the severance tax permanent fund, effective upon certification by the secretary of state that the proposed amendments to art. 8, § 10 and art. 12, §§ 2, 4, and 7 of the New Mexico Constitution have passed. Those constitutional amendments, proposed by S.J.R. No. 2 (Laws 1996), were adopted at the general election held November 5, 1996, by a vote of 307,442 for and 153,021 against. For provisions of former section, see the 1995 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-27-5. Investment of severance tax permanent fund.

A. The severance tax permanent fund shall be invested in separate differential rate and market rate investment classes. "Differential rate investments" are permitted in Sections 7-27-5.3 through 7-27-5.5, 7-27-5.13 through 7-27-5.17, 7-27-5.22, 7-27-5.24 and 7-27-5.26 NMSA 1978 and are intended to stimulate the economy of New Mexico and to provide income to the severance tax permanent fund. "Market rate investments" are investments that are not differential rate investments and are intended to provide income to the severance tax permanent fund. All market rate investments and differential rate investments shall be invested in accordance with the Uniform Prudent Investor Act [45-7-601 to 45-7-612 NMSA 1978] and shall be accounted for in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. In addition to the investment classes described in Subsection A of this section, the severance tax permanent fund shall be invested in loans to provide emergency economic relief to local governments as provided by Section 8 [7-27-5.27 NMSA 1978] of this 2020 act.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-5, enacted by Laws 1983, ch. 306, § 7; 1987, ch. 219, § 1; 1988, ch. 133, § 2; 1988, ch. 134, § 6; 1989, ch. 265, § 2; 1990, ch. 126, § 2; 1990, ch. 127, § 9; 1990 (2nd S.S.), ch. 3, § 1; 1991, ch. 83, § 2; 1995, ch. 215, § 1; 1997, ch. 178, § 2; 2000, ch. 5, § 3; 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 6, § 1; 2005, ch. 240, § 3; 2020 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For investment of state funds generally, see 6-8-1 to 6-8-18, 6-10-10 NMSA 1978.

The 2020 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 7, 2020, provided for the investment of the severance tax permanent fund in loans to provide emergency economic relief to local governments; in Subsection A, after "7-27-5.24", deleted "through" and added "and"; and added Subsection B.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, provided that the fund shall be invested in separate differential rate and market rate investment classes; defined "differential rate investments" by reference to the statutory sections listed prior to the amendment; provided that differential rate investments are intended to provide income to the severance tax permanent fund; defined "market rate investments"; deleted the former statement of the purposes of the severance tax permanent fund and intent of market rate investments and the provision that the prudent man rule be applied to market rate investments.

The 2000 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective July 3, 2000, substituted "and 7-27-5.24 through 7-27-5.26" for "7-27-5.24 and 7-27-5.25" in the third sentence.

The 2000 amendment, effective February 15, 2000, inserted "and 7-27-5.25" in the third sentence.

The 1997 amendment, effective on June 20, 1997, in the third sentence, deleted "7-27-5.7" following "7-27-5.5" and substituted "7-27-5.22 and 7-27-5.24 NMSA 1978" for "and 7-27-5.21 NMSA 1978" at the end.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "Sections 7-27-5.3 through 7-27-5.5, 7-27-5.7, 7-27-5.13 through 7-27-5.17 and 7-27-5.21 NMSA 1978" for "Sections 7-27-5.2 through 7-27-5.5, 7-27-5.7 and 7-27-5.13 through 7-27-5.17 NMSA 1978" in the second sentence.

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, substituted the final sentence of the section for a sentence which read "The full cost pass-through accounting method shall be used to account for exchanges of fixed-income securities".

The 1990 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective January 1, 1991, substituted "through 7-27-5.17 NMSA 1978" for "and 7-27-5.14 NMSA 1978" in the third sentence.

The 1990 amendment, effective March 30, 1990, inserted the reference to 7-27-5.14 NMSA 1978 in the third sentence.

The 1989 amendment, effective April 5, 1989, added "7-27-5.13" in the third sentence.

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 267, § 5 repealed 7-27-5.2 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1983, ch. 306, § 9, concerning investment of the severance tax permanent fund, effective July 1, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1992 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-27-5.3. Conventional mortgage pass-through securities.

A. The severance tax permanent fund may be invested in conventional mortgage pass-through securities secured by real estate situated in New Mexico. In the initial twelve-month period, the aggregate face amount of such securities shall not exceed one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), and in no succeeding fiscal year shall the face amount of pass-through securities authorized by the council in that fiscal year exceed one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

B. The council shall establish the yield on investments in conventional mortgage pass-through securities, which yield shall be in effect from the effective date of this act until July 1, 1986. After that date, the yield shall not be less than one-half of one percent of the investment below, and shall be determined by reference to, the yield on comparable term and type government national mortgage association securities. Such yield shall not be less than one-half of one percent of the investment below, and shall be determined by reference to, the yield on comparable term and type government national mortgage association securities.

C. The council may purchase conventional mortgage pass-through securities created and issued by a mortgage pooling corporation which has purchased eligible mortgages from mortgage lenders authorized to originate mortgages in New Mexico and which maintains a permanent manned office within New Mexico; provided, however, the council may, in its discretion, purchase such conventional mortgage pass-through securities directly from such qualified mortgage lenders.

D. Conventional mortgage pass-through securities eligible for purchase by the council shall be limited to such securities issued by the federal national mortgage association or issued by a governmental agency, representing an undivided ownership interest in a pool of mortgage loans.

E. The mortgage pooling corporation and the qualified mortgage lender shall be subject to such regulations as the council may promulgate and shall enter into written agreements specifying the powers and duties of the respective parties. The council shall further establish guidelines for mortgage loans eligible for inclusion in the pass-through security, provided such guidelines do not contradict the eligibility requirements set forth in Subsection F of this section.

F. To be eligible for inclusion in a conventional mortgage pass-through security, the mortgage loan shall:

- (1) be originated by a qualified mortgage lender;

- (2) be secured by a single-family dwelling to be occupied by the owner;
- (3) be a conventional mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrument creating a first lien against the fee simple in real estate situated in New Mexico upon which there is constructed a permanent structure;
- (4) have a maximum original term not to exceed thirty years;
- (5) be made to a person domiciled in New Mexico who is eighteen years of age or older;
- (6) contain no prepayment penalties; and
- (7) not exceed the dollar limit for federal national mortgage association approved mortgages.

G. To be eligible for purchase by the council, the securities shall be based on mortgage loans on new construction for at least sixty percent of the dollar amount of the securities.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-5.3, enacted by Laws 1983, ch. 306, § 10; 1984, ch. 131, § 2; 1985, ch. 222, § 1; 1987, ch. 229, § 1.

7-27-5.4. New Mexico business investments.

No more than twenty percent of the book value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in the following investments and in the following amounts:

A. no more than ten percent of the book value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in notes or obligations securing loans to New Mexico businesses made by farm credit entities, banks and savings and loan associations and mortgages approved by the department of housing and urban development pursuant to the act of congress of July 30, 1953 known as the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended, and notes or obligations pursuant to the act of congress of August 14, 1946 known as the Farmers' Home Administration Act of 1946, as amended, only to the extent that both principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States government. The effective yield of these loans shall be a market rate not less than the yield available on the planned amortized class tranche of collateralized mortgage obligations guaranteed by the federal national mortgage association or the federal home loan mortgage corporation with an average life comparable to the maturity of the loan. The state investment officer may enter into conventional agreements for the servicing of the loans and the administration of the receipts therefrom. Any servicing agreement may contain reasonable and customary provisions, including servicing fees not to exceed one hundred fifty basis points, as may be agreed upon; provided, in no event shall the rate paid by the borrower on the loan, together with servicing fees, exceed the maximum rate permitted by the applicable federal guarantee program; and

B. no more than ten percent of the book value of the fund may be invested in bonds, notes, debentures or other evidence of indebtedness, excluding commercial paper rated not less than Baa or BBB or the equivalent by a national rating service of any corporation organized and operating within the United States, excluding regulated public utility corporations, which as a condition of receiving the proceeds of such evidence of indebtedness will use such proceeds to establish or expand business outlets or ventures in New Mexico, provided that:

(1) the investment in the bonds, notes or debentures or other evidence of indebtedness of any one corporation shall not exceed one hundred percent of the cost of the expansion venture or new outlet or twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), whichever is less;

(2) the rate of interest to be paid on the bonds, notes or debentures or other evidence of indebtedness shall be established by the council, but shall not be less than the equivalent yield available on United States treasury issues of a comparable maturity plus one hundred basis points;

(3) the indebtedness shall be approved prior to purchase by the council; and

(4) the guidelines for initiation of the purchase by the council of the bonds, notes, debentures or other evidence of indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be established by the council.

7-27-5.13. Educational institution research and development facilities revenue bonds.

No more than ten percent of the book value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in educational institution revenue bonds described in this section.

A. The revenue bonds shall have been issued by one of the following educational institutions:

- (1) the university of New Mexico;
- (2) the New Mexico state university;
- (3) the New Mexico highlands university;
- (4) the western New Mexico university;
- (5) the eastern New Mexico university; and
- (6) the New Mexico institute of mining and technology.

B. The revenue bonds shall have been issued under the authority of Chapter 6, Article 17 NMSA 1978.

C. The revenue bonds shall have been issued to provide funds for the construction, furnishing and equipping of a research or development facility, including any infrastructure improvements necessary to the construction of the facility. The facility shall be one that will:

- (1) provide space for operations of an already funded research or development project;
- (2) be income-producing when completed and occupied; and

(3) provide both the local community in which it is located and the state generally with economic benefits including, but not limited to, employment for students of post-secondary educational institutions.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-5.13, enacted by Laws 1989, ch. 265, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 1989, ch. 265, § 4 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 5, 1989.

7-27-5.14. Findings and purpose.

The legislature finds that the health of the New Mexico economy is heavily dependent on the establishment and expansion of small businesses and that the lack of available private equity is an impediment to the start-up and growth of businesses in the state. The legislature further finds that the commercialization of technology conceived in the universities and the federal scientific and engineering laboratories and test facilities in the state is likely to occur elsewhere unless sources of local private equity are developed. The purpose of Section 7-27-5.15 NMSA 1978 is to provide a mechanism whereby the establishment of private equity funds, whose investment policies are supportive of the economic welfare of New Mexico, will be stimulated.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-5.14, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 126, § 4; 2001, ch. 252, § 9; 2016, ch. 48, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2016 amendment, effective May 18, 2016, after "whereby the establishment of", deleted "locally managed".

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, substituted "private equity" for "venture capital" throughout the section; and substituted "Section 7-27-5.15 NMSA 1978" for "this act".

7-27-5.15. New Mexico private equity funds and New Mexico business investments.

A. In addition to the investments required by Subsections F and G of this section, no more than eleven percent of the market value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in New Mexico private equity funds or New Mexico businesses under this section.

B. In making investments pursuant to Subsection A of this section, the council shall make investments in New Mexico private equity funds or New Mexico businesses whose investments or enterprises enhance the economic development objectives of the state.

C. The state investment officer shall make investments pursuant to Subsection A of this section only upon approval of the council and within guidelines and policies established by the council.

D. As used in this section:

(1) "New Mexico business" means, in the case of a corporation or limited liability company, a business with its principal office and a majority of its full-time employees located in New Mexico or, in the case of a limited partnership, a business with its principal place of business and eighty percent of its assets located in New Mexico; and

(2) "New Mexico private equity fund" means an entity that makes, manages or sources potential investments in New Mexico businesses and that:

(a) has as its primary business activity the investment of funds in return for equity in or debt of businesses for the purpose of providing capital for start-up, expansion, product or market development, recapitalization or similar business purposes;

(b) holds out the prospects for capital appreciation from such investments;

(c) has at least one full-time manager with at least three years of professional experience in assessing the growth prospects of businesses or evaluating business plans;

(d) is committed to investing or helps secure investing by others, in an amount at least equal to the total investment made by the state investment officer in that fund pursuant to this section, in businesses with a principal place of business in New Mexico and that hold promise for attracting additional capital from individual or institutional investors nationwide for businesses in New Mexico; and

(e) accepts investments only from accredited investors as that term is defined in Section 2 of the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended (15 USCA Section 77(b)), and rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to that section, or federally recognized Indian tribes, nations and pueblos with at least five million dollars ($5,000,000) in overall investment assets.

E. The state investment officer is authorized to make investments in New Mexico businesses to create new job opportunities and to support new, emerging or expanding businesses in a manner consistent with the constitution of New Mexico if:

(1) the investments are made:

(a) in conjunction with cooperative investment agreements with parties that have demonstrated abilities and relationships in making investments in new, emerging or expanding businesses;

(b) in a New Mexico aerospace business that has received an award from the United States government or one of its agencies or instrumentalities: 1) in an amount, not less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), that is equal to at least ten times the investment from the severance tax permanent fund; and 2) for the purpose of stimulating commercial enterprises; or

(c) in a New Mexico business that: 1) is established to perform technology transfer, research and development, research commercialization, manufacturing, training, marketing or public relations in any field of science or technology, including but not limited to energy, security, defense, aerospace, automotives, electronics, telecommunications, computer and information science, environmental science, biomedical science, life science, physical science, materials science or nanoscience, using research developed in whole or in part by a state institution of higher education or a prime contractor designated as a national laboratory by an act of congress that is operating a facility in the state, or an affiliated entity; and 2) has an agreement to operate the business on state lands;

(2) an investment in any one business does not exceed ten percent of the amount available for investment pursuant to this section; and

(3) the investments represent no more than fifty-one percent of the total investment capital in a business; provided, however, that nothing in this subsection prohibits the ownership of more than fifty-one percent of the total investment capital in a New Mexico business if the additional ownership interest:

(a) is due to foreclosure or other action by the state investment officer pursuant to agreements with the business or other investors in that business;

(b) is necessary to protect the investment; and

(c) does not require an additional investment of the severance tax permanent fund.

F. In addition to the investments required by Subsections A and G of this section, the state investment officer shall make a commitment to the small business investment corporation pursuant to the Small Business Investment Act [Chapter 6, Article 32 NMSA 1978] to invest two percent of the market value of the severance tax permanent fund to create new job opportunities by providing capital for land, buildings or infrastructure for facilities to support new or expanding businesses and to otherwise make investments to create new job opportunities to support new or expanding businesses in a manner consistent with the constitution of New Mexico. On July 1 of each year, the state investment officer shall determine whether the invested capital in the small business investment corporation is less than two percent of the market value of the severance tax permanent fund. If the invested capital in the small business investment corporation equals less than two percent of the market value of the severance tax permanent fund, further commitments shall be made until the invested capital is equal to two percent of the market value of the fund.

G. In addition to the investments provided for in Subsections A and F of this section, the state investment officer shall make a commitment to the New Mexico finance authority to invest five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) of the severance tax permanent fund in investments made pursuant to the Small Business Recovery and Stimulus Act; provided that:

(1) investments made pursuant to and in compliance with the Small Business Recovery and Stimulus Act shall be deemed to be in compliance with the prudent investor rule set forth in the Uniform Prudent Investor Act [45-7-601 to 45-7-612 NMSA 1978]; and

(2) the New Mexico finance authority shall not be held liable for investments made pursuant to this subsection that do not provide a return on investment that is comparable to other differential rate investments made pursuant to the Severance Tax Bonding Act.

H. The state investment officer shall report semiannually on the investments made pursuant to this section. Annually, a report shall be submitted to the legislature prior to the beginning of each regular legislative session and a second report no later than October 1 each year to the legislative finance committee, the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and any other appropriate interim committee. Each report shall provide the amounts invested in each New Mexico private equity fund, as well as information about the objectives of the funds, the companies in which each private equity fund is invested and how each private equity investment enhances the economic development objectives of the state. Each report also shall provide the amounts invested in each New Mexico business.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 12, effective July 7, 2020, repealed Laws 2020, ch. 75, § 1, which would have become effective July 1, 2020. For provisions of Laws 2020, ch. 75, § 1, see the 2020 Session Laws on NMOneSource.com.

The 2021 amendment, effective March 3, 2021, increased the amount of the severance tax permanent fund that the New Mexico finance authority is authorized to invest pursuant to the Small Business Recovery and Stimulus Act; changed "Small Business Recovery Act of 2020" to "Small Business Recovery and Stimulus Act" throughout; and in Subsection G, after "authority to invest", changed "the lesser of four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000) or ten percent of the market value" to "five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000)".

The 2020 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective July 7, 2020, allowed for an increase in the investment of severance tax permanent fund in New Mexico private equity funds or New Mexico businesses, and required the state investment officer to invest a certain amount of the severance tax permanent fund in loans made pursuant to the Small Business Recovery Act of 2020; in Subsection A, added "In addition to the investments required by Subsections F and G of this section", and after "no more than", deleted "nine" and added "eleven"; in Subsection F, added "In addition to the investments required by Subsections A and G of this section"; and added a new Subsection G and redesignated the succeeding subsection accordingly.

The 2019 amendment, effective June 14, 2019, increased the amount of Severance Tax Permanent Fund capital dedicated for investment through the Small Business Investment Corporation pursuant to the Small Business Investment Act from one percent of the severance tax permanent fund to two percent; and in Subsection F, substituted "two" for "one" throughout the subsection.

The 2016 amendment, effective May 18, 2016, amended the definition of "private equity fund"; in the catchline, added "New Mexico"; in Subsection D, Paragraph (2), after "equity fund means", deleted "a limited partnership, limited liability company or corporation organized and operating in the United States and maintaining an office staffed by a full-time investment officer in New Mexico" and added "an entity that makes, manages or sources potential investments in New Mexico businesses and", in Subparagraph D(2)(c), after "business plans", deleted "and who has established permanent residency in the state", in Subparagraph D(2)(d), after each occurrence of "business in", deleted "the state" and added "New Mexico"; in Subsection G, after "semiannually on the", deleted "New Mexico private equity", after "in which each", added "private equity", after "invested and how each", added "private equity", and after "Each report", added "also".

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, eliminated the private equity investment advisory committee; and in Subsection C, after "approval of the council", deleted "upon review of the recommendation of the private equity investment advisory committee".

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, permitted the state investment council to invest in New Mexico businesses that perform technology transfer, research and development, research commercialization, manufacturing, training, marketing or public relations in fields of science and technology on state land; and added Subparagraph (c) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection E.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, increased investments of the severance tax permanent fund in private equity funds from six to nine percent.

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, added Subparagraph (b) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection E to authorize the state investment officer to make investments in New Mexico aerospace businesses.

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, increased the percentage of the severance tax permanent fund invested in the small business investment corporation to three-fourths percent of the market value of the fund.

The 2004 amendment, effective May 19, 2004, amended Subsection F to change "one-fourth" to "one-half" percent of the market value of the severance tax fund in three places.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, deleted "small" preceding "business" in the section heading; substituted "six percent" for "three percent" near the beginning of Subsection A; deleted former Subsection B, relating to limitations on investments in private equity funds; and added Subsections E and G.

7-27-5.18. Purpose.

It is the purpose of this act to encourage economic development in New Mexico by linking deposit of the severance tax permanent fund in New Mexico financial institutions to an increase in loans to New Mexico businesses and investment in New Mexico government entities and to encourage financial institutions to make the type of loans that meet business needs not addressed by conventional loans and loans guaranteed by federal, state or local agencies.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 267, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1993, ch. 267, § 6 made Laws 1993, ch. 267, § 1 effective July 1, 1993.

7-27-5.19. Deposits in New Mexico financial institutions; limitations.

A. No more than twenty percent of the book value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in deposits in New Mexico financial institutions under terms and conditions set by the council in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. To be eligible for deposits under this section, a financial institution's loans and investments shall equal in the aggregate at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). If eligible, a financial institution may qualify for deposits as follows:

(1) a financial institution may qualify for deposits in an amount equal to new loans and investments made by that financial institution after July 1, 1993;

(2) the financial institution shall provide the state investment officer with the necessary documentation and information for each new loan or investment and the state investment officer shall verify that each such loan or investment meets the requirements of this section and the regulations, guidelines and investment policies adopted pursuant to this section; and

(3) in any calendar year, the state investment officer may increase the deposits in any financial institution only to the extent new loans and investments made by the financial institution have increased over the same period of the prior year.

C. Notwithstanding any other collateral, interest rate or other provisions of law to the contrary governing deposit of public money in Chapter 6, Article 10 NMSA 1978, deposits of the severance tax permanent fund made pursuant to this section shall be governed by the regulations, guidelines and investment policies established by the council and shall not be made until such regulations, guidelines and policies are adopted. Those policies shall provide:

(1) the terms and conditions for pledging of collateral security and the amount and kind of collateral security to be pledged; provided:

(a) no collateral shall be required for deposits of financial institutions rated "A" by the council pursuant to its risk assessment analysis, unless the council in its sole discretion deems it necessary to protect the severance tax permanent fund;

(b) financial institutions not rated "A" by the council shall secure each severance tax permanent fund deposit with security having an aggregate value equal to seventy-five percent of the amount of money deposited by that institution or any greater percentage determined by the council in its sole discretion to be necessary to protect the severance tax permanent fund;

(c) secured deposits shall be secured by: 1) securities of the United States or its agencies or instrumentalities, the state or its agencies or instrumentalities or political subdivisions of the state; 2) securities guaranteed by agencies or instrumentalities of the United States; or 3) New Mexico residential mortgages;

(d) to be rated "A" by the council, a bank shall at a minimum have: 1) primary capital at least equal to six percent of assets; 2) net income after taxes at least equal to sixty-one hundredths of one percent of the average assets of the bank for the current quarter and for each of the three previous quarters; and 3) an aggregate amount of nonperforming loans, defined as loans that are at least ninety days past due, that does not exceed thirty-four and nine-tenths percent of primary capital; provided the council in its sole discretion may increase any of the requirements of this paragraph to protect the severance tax permanent fund; and

(e) to be rated "A" by the council, a savings and loan association shall have a regulatory net worth equal to at least three percent of total assets and net income after taxes equal to at least thirty hundredths of one percent of average assets for the current quarter and for each of the previous three quarters; provided the council may increase these requirements or add additional criteria for nonperforming loans as a percentage of primary capital or net worth that are similar to the criteria for banks, as necessary to conform to changing applicable federal regulatory requirements or to protect the severance tax permanent fund;

(2) the rate at which severance tax permanent fund deposits shall bear interest, payable monthly, which shall be at a fixed market rate determined by the council, but in no event shall the rate of interest paid be less than the yield available on comparable maturities of obligations of the United States government, its agencies or instrumentalities or obligations guaranteed by the United States government, its agencies or instrumentalities, whichever is higher;

(3) the terms of maturity, renewal or withdrawal; provided that in no event shall the maturity exceed eight years and the council may withdraw any deposit before maturity without penalty if more than seventy-five percent collateral is required by the rules and regulations adopted by the council; and

(4) such other terms, including the financial condition of the financial institution, as the council deems prudent to protect the severance tax permanent fund and to implement efficiently and effectively the deposit program.

D. In making deposits in New Mexico financial institutions pursuant to this section, the state investment officer shall not deposit from the severance tax permanent fund an amount that exceeds two hundred percent of the total equity capital in the case of banks or two hundred percent of the net worth in the case of savings and loan associations or ten percent of the total of that bank's or the savings and loan association's deposits, whichever is less. These limits shall be based on the most recently published statement of financial condition required by federal or state financial authorities as certified by an authorized officer of the financial institution unless the council has more current reliable information from the financial institution. In the event a financial institution exceeds the limitations set forth in this subsection, the state investment officer may withdraw without penalty the deposits that exceed that limitation. The maximum funds on deposit or the deposit limit in this subsection shall not apply to the state fiscal agent bank as to the funds held by the fiscal agent bank or demand deposits held by a state checking depository bank approved by the state board of finance in accordance with the provisions of Section 6-10-35 NMSA 1978.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "financial institution" means a New Mexico bank, a branch of a bank doing business in New Mexico or a savings and loan association that is qualified as an insured public depository;

(2) "investment" means a New Mexico municipal bond or a New Mexico industrial revenue bond; and

(3) "loan" means a loan of any term that is secured or unsecured and is made for business purposes. "Loan" does not include a loan that is a renewal or restructuring of a loan existing on or before July 1, 1993, a loan of more than three million dollars ($3,000,000) to one borrower, a student loan, a consumer loan or a loan to purchase or provide permanent financing on a personal residence, but does include a loan that is made to "persons of low or moderate income" as that term is defined in the Mortgage Finance Authority Act [Chapter 58, Article 18 NMSA 1978], is secured by real estate and is held and serviced by the original lending financial institution in New Mexico. For purposes of this paragraph, "business" includes but is not limited to manufacturing; construction; transportation; communications; publishing; wholesale or retail business; restaurants; entertainment; architectural, engineering and other professional services; medical and health services; food processing; farming or ranching; mining and natural resource exploration and development; and research and technology development.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 267, § 2; 1997, ch. 220, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, inserted "a branch of a bank doing business in New Mexico" in Paragraph E(1), and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

7-27-5.20. Deposits in New Mexico credit unions.

The severance tax permanent fund may be invested in deposits in New Mexico credit unions, provided each deposit is insured by an agency of the United States and the credit union offers interest on such deposits at least equal to that offered to its members for similar deposits. Such deposits may be invested for a term of maturity of eight years or less at an interest rate to be set by the council. Such deposits shall be made and administered by the council and state investment officer in accordance with the law governing deposits of public money, including, but not limited to, Sections 6-10-10, 6-10-16, 6-10-24.1 and 6-10-29 NMSA 1978. As used in this section, "deposit" includes share, share certificate and share draft.

7-27-5.26. Investment in films to be produced in New Mexico.

A. No more than six percent of the market value of the severance tax permanent fund may be invested in New Mexico film private equity funds or a New Mexico film project under this section.

B. If an investment is made under this section, not more than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) of the amount authorized for investment pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall be invested in any one New Mexico film private equity fund or any one New Mexico film project.

C. The state investment officer shall make investments pursuant to this section only upon approval of the council after a review by the New Mexico film division of the economic development department. The state investment officer may make debt or equity investments pursuant to this section only in New Mexico film projects or New Mexico film private equity funds that invest only in film projects that:

- (1) are filmed wholly or substantially in New Mexico;
- (2) have shown to the satisfaction of the New Mexico film division that a distribution contract is in place with a reputable distribution company;
- (3) have agreed that, while filming in New Mexico, a majority of the production crew will be New Mexico residents;
- (4) have posted a completion bond that has been approved by the New Mexico film division; provided that a completion bond shall not be required if the fund or project is guaranteed pursuant to Paragraph (5) of this subsection; and
- (5) have obtained a full, unconditional and irrevocable guarantee of repayment of the invested amount in favor of the severance tax permanent fund:
 - (a) from an entity that has a credit rating of not less than Baa or BBB by a national rating agency;
 - (b) from a substantial subsidiary of an entity that has a credit rating of not less than Baa or BBB by a national rating agency;

(c) by providing a full, unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit from a United States incorporated bank with a credit rating of not less than A by a national rating agency; or

(d) from a substantial and solvent entity as determined by the council in accordance with its standards and practices; or

(6) if not guaranteed pursuant to Paragraph (5) of this subsection, have obtained no less than one-third of the estimated total production costs from other sources as approved by the state investment officer.

D. The state investment officer may loan at a market rate of interest, with respect to an eligible New Mexico film project, up to eighty percent of an expected and estimated film production tax credit available to a film production company pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-2F-1 NMSA 1978; provided that the film production company agrees to name the state investment officer as its agent for the purpose of filing an application for the film production tax credit to which the company is entitled if the company does not apply for the film production tax credit. The New Mexico film division of the economic development department shall determine the estimated amount of a film production tax credit. The council shall establish guidelines for the state investment officer's initiation of a loan and the terms of the loan.

E. As used in this section:

(1) "film project" means a single media or multimedia program, including advertising messages, fixed on film, videotape, computer disc, laser disc or other similar delivery medium from which the program can be viewed or reproduced and that is intended to be exhibited in theaters; licensed for exhibition by individual television stations, groups of stations, networks, cable television stations or other means or licensed for the home viewing market; and

(2) "New Mexico film private equity fund" means any limited partnership, limited liability company or corporation organized and operating in the United States that

(a) has as its primary business activity the investment of funds in return for equity in film projects produced wholly or partly in New Mexico;

(b) holds out the prospects for capital appreciation from such investments;
and

(c) accepts investments only from accredited investors as that term is defined in Section 2 of the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and rules promulgated pursuant to that section.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-5.26, enacted by Laws 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 6, § 2; 2001, ch. 252, § 12; 2002, ch. 60, § 1; 2003, ch. 56, § 1; 2005, ch. 101, § 2; 2005, ch. 106, § 1; 2007, ch. 340, § 1; 2015, ch. 95, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For Section 2 of the federal Securities Act of 1933, see 15 U.S.C. § 77b.

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, eliminated the private equity investment advisory committee; in the introductory paragraph of Subsection C, after "upon approval of the", deleted "state investment", and after "a review by", deleted "the private equity investment advisory committee"; in Subsection C, Paragraph (5)(d), after "determined by the", deleted "state investment"; and in Subsection D, in the third sentence, after "The", deleted "state investment".

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, increased the percentage of the severance tax permanent fund that may be invested in film private equity funds to six percent.

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, increased in Subsections A and B the percentage of the severance tax permanent fund that may be invested in the New Mexico film private equity funds or a New Mexico film project from 2½ percent to 5 percent and the maximum amount that may be invested from $7,500,000 to $15,000,000.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, substituted "two and on-half" for "one-half of one" near the beginning of Subsection A; added present Subsection D and redesignated former Subsection D as Subsection E.

The 2002 amendment, effective March 4, 2002, inserted "or a New Mexico film project" in Subsection A; inserted "or any one New Mexico film project" in Subsection B; in Subsection C, in the introductory matter, substituted "debt or equity investments" for "an investment" and inserted "New Mexico film projects or", deleted former Paragraph (2), which read: "have obtained no less than one-third of the estimated total production costs from other sources", and redesignated the remaining paragraphs accordingly, added the proviso in Paragraph (4), and added Paragraphs (5) and (6).

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, substituted "private equity" for "venture capital" throughout the section.

7-27-5.27. Local government emergency economic relief.

A. Within thirty days of the effective date of this 2020 act, the state investment officer shall make a commitment to the authority to invest one percent of the average of the year-end market values of the severance tax permanent fund for the immediately preceding five calendar years for the purpose of making loans to local governments pursuant to this section; provided that investments made pursuant to this section are in compliance with the prudent investor rule set forth in the Uniform Prudent Investor Act [45-7-601 to 45-7-612 NMSA 1978]. The authority may expend no more than one percent of the funding made available to it pursuant to this section for administering the provisions of this section.

B. The authority shall receive and review applications for loans from the amount committed pursuant to Subsection A of this section to a local government that can demonstrate that the local government experienced at least a ten percent decline in local option gross receipts tax revenue for the last quarter of fiscal year 2020 due to the economic impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 pandemic. The authority shall adopt rules to govern the application procedures and requirements for disbursing the loans.

C. The authority shall make loans from the amount committed pursuant to Subsection A of this section in accordance with the following:

(1) an application for a loan shall be received by the authority no later than December 31, 2020;

(2) the authority shall determine the proper amount for a loan in consultation with the local government division of the department of finance and administration and the local government; provided that:

(a) the authority shall take into consideration the local government's actual decline of local gross receipts tax revenue in the determination of a loan amount; and

(b) a loan shall not exceed fifty percent of the local government's actual decline of local gross receipts tax revenue; and

(3) terms of the loan shall include that:

(a) a local government may use loan proceeds for general operating expenses and revenue replacement;

(b) a local government shall dedicate future local option gross receipts tax revenue to secure the loan at a lien level as determined by the authority;

(c) a loan shall bear an annual interest rate equal to two percent;

(d) a loan shall be structured as an interest-only loan for a period of three years, at which time the local government shall begin making monthly payments on the principal and interest of any balance of the loan;

(e) interest on a loan shall not compound until twelve months following the date the loan proceeds are made available to the local government; and

(f) a loan shall be made for a period of no more than five years.

D. Receipts from the repayment of loans made pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the severance tax permanent fund.

E. No provision in a loan or the evidence of indebtedness of a loan shall include a penalty or premium for prepayment of the balance of the indebtedness.

F. On or before October 1 of a year that a loan made pursuant to this section is outstanding, the authority shall audit the loan program and submit a report of the findings to the New Mexico finance authority oversight committee, the legislative finance committee and the office of the governor. The report shall provide details regarding the loans made pursuant to this section, including:

(1) the name of each local government that received a loan, the loan amount, the balance owed and if the loan is in a delinquent status or default; and

(2) the number of jobs saved that can be attributed to receiving the loan, with evidence of how the loan saved each job.

G. The authority may exercise any power provided to the authority in the New Mexico Finance Authority Act [Chapter 6, Article 21 NMSA 1978] to assist in the administration of section; provided that the power is consistent with the provisions of this section.

H. As used in this section:

(1) "authority" means the New Mexico finance authority;

(2) "local government" means a municipality or county; and

(3) "local option gross receipts tax revenue" means:

(a) for a municipality, revenue distributed to the municipality pursuant to Section 7-1-6.4 NMSA 1978 and transferred to the municipality pursuant to Section 7-1-6.12 NMSA 1978; and

(b) for a county, revenue transferred to the county pursuant to Section 7-1-6.13 NMSA 1978.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 13 contained an emergency clause and was approved July 7, 2020.

7-27-6. Severance tax bonding fund pledged.

A. The money in the severance tax bonding fund is first pledged for the payment of principal and interest on all severance tax bonds issued after the enactment of the Severance Tax Bonding Act.

B. The money in the severance tax bonding fund is second pledged, on a basis subordinate to any severance tax bonds then or thereafter outstanding, for the payment of principal and interest on all supplemental severance tax bonds issued after the enactment of the Severance Tax Bonding Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-31, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 4; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, deleted the former first sentence, relating to the first pledging of the severance tax bonding fund moneys, added the Subsection A designation, substituted "first" for "further" and made a minor stylistic change, and added Subsection B.

7-27-7. Special income to retire bonds.

When a law authorizing a severance tax bond issue or supplemental severance tax bond issue contemplates the income of money for the retirement of the bond issue other than or in addition to the money in the severance tax bonding fund, then the money derived from such income shall be paid to the state treasurer and be credited to the specific bond issue account and deposited in the severance tax bonding fund.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-32, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 5; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "or supplemental severance tax bond issue" and substituted "state treasurer" for "state board of finance".

7-27-8. Transfer of money to severance tax permanent fund.

On each December 31 and each June 30 the state treasurer shall transfer to the severance tax permanent fund all money in the severance tax bonding fund except the amount necessary to meet all principal and interest payments on bonds payable from the severance tax bonding fund on the next two ensuing semiannual payment dates.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-33, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 6; 1973, ch. 294, § 3.

7-27-9. Bonds to be known as severance tax bonds and supplemental severance tax bonds.

A. Prior to July 1, 1999, all bonds issued wherein the money in the severance tax bonding fund is pledged for their retirement shall be known as "New Mexico severance tax bonds".

B. After July 1, 1999, there shall be two categories of bonds issued by the state board of finance wherein the money in the severance tax bonding fund is pledged for their retirement. Those bonds shall be known as "New Mexico severance tax bonds" and as "New Mexico supplemental severance tax bonds".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-34, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 7; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added "and supplemental severance tax bonds" to the catchline; added the Subsection A designation, added "Prior to July 1, 1999" to the beginning, and made a stylistic change; and added Subsection B.

7-27-10. State board of finance shall issue bonds.

A. The state board of finance is authorized to issue and sell severance tax bonds within the provisions of the Severance Tax Bonding Act, and no other agency of the state is authorized to issue or sell severance tax bonds.

B. For fiscal year 2024, the state board of finance is authorized to issue and sell up to five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) of severance tax bonds or notes in addition to all other authorized issuances. The actual amount shall be determined by the state board of finance after all other authorized issuances are made. Proceeds from the sale of these bonds or notes shall be deposited in the capital development and reserve fund.

C. The state board of finance may issue and sell supplemental severance tax bonds within the provisions of the Severance Tax Bonding Act, and no other agency of the state is authorized to issue or sell supplemental severance tax bonds.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-35, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 8; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 4; 2019, ch. 273, § 1; 2023, ch. 124, § 1; 2024, ch. 56, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2024 amendment, effective May 15, 2024, authorized the issuance of up to five hundred million dollars of severance tax bonds in addition to all other authorized issuances in fiscal year 2024; added a new Subsection B and redesignated former

Subsection B as Subsection C; and in Subsection C, deleted "As a temporary measure for fiscal year 2023, the state board of finance shall not issue and sell more than six hundred eighty-two million two hundred thousand dollars ($682,200,000) of supplemental severance tax bonds or notes."

The 2023 amendment, effective June 16, 2023, limited the amount of supplemental severance tax bonds or notes issued in 2023; and in Subsection B, after "fiscal year", changed "2019" to "2023", and after "sell more than", deleted "one hundred eighty-one million eight hundred thousand dollars ($181,800,000)" and added "six hundred eighty-two million two hundred thousand dollars ($682,200,000)".

The 2019 amendment, effective June 14, 2019, provided that for fiscal year 2019, the state board of finance shall not issue and sell more than one hundred eighty-one million eight hundred thousand dollars of supplemental severance tax bonds or notes; and in Subsection B, added "As a temporary measure for fiscal year 2019, the state board of finance shall not issue and sell more than one hundred eighty-one million eight hundred thousand dollars ($181,800,000) of supplemental severance tax bonds or notes".

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added the Subsection A designation, added Subsection B, and made a minor stylistic change.

7-27-10.1. Transfer to severance tax permanent fund before determining bonding capacity; authorization for severance tax bonds; priority for water projects and tribal infrastructure projects.

A. On December 31 of each year from 2019 through 2028, the division shall transfer twenty-three million six hundred ninety thousand dollars ($23,690,000) from the severance tax bonding fund to the severance tax permanent fund, unless the state board of finance determines that a lesser transfer amount is necessary pursuant to Section 7-27-8 NMSA 1978 to avoid a potential shortfall in debt service obligations.

B. By January 15 of each year, the division shall estimate the amount of bonding capacity available for severance tax bonds to be authorized by the legislature based on the lesser of the following estimates:

(1) an estimate that provides for equal annual issuances over the expected term of bonds with terms greater than one year anticipated to be issued by the state board of finance in the fiscal year in compliance with the requirements of Section 7-27-14 NMSA 1978; and

(2) an estimate that provides that issuances for each year of that term shall be projected to result in stable levels of state tax supported debt relative to the median state debt ratios published by the national municipal bond rating agencies.

C. The division shall allocate nine percent of the estimated bonding capacity each year for water projects, and the legislature authorizes the state board of finance to issue severance tax bonds in the annually allocated amount for use by the water trust board to fund water projects statewide. The water trust board shall certify to the state board of finance the need for issuance of bonds for water projects. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this subsection. If necessary, the state board of finance shall take the appropriate steps to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the water project fund in the New Mexico finance authority for the purposes certified by the water trust board to the state board of finance.

D. The division shall allocate four and one-half percent of the estimated bonding capacity for tribal infrastructure projects.

E. The legislature authorizes the state board of finance to issue severance tax bonds in the amount provided for in this section for use by the tribal infrastructure board to fund tribal infrastructure projects. The tribal infrastructure board shall certify to the state board of finance the need for issuance of bonds for tribal infrastructure projects. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this section. If necessary, the state board of finance shall take the appropriate steps to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the tribal infrastructure project fund for the purposes certified by the tribal infrastructure board to the state board of finance.

F. Money from the severance tax bonds provided for in this section shall not be used to pay indirect project costs. Any unexpended balance from proceeds of severance tax bonds issued for a water project or a tribal infrastructure project shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund within six months of completion of the project. The New Mexico finance authority shall monitor and ensure proper reversions of the bond proceeds appropriated for water projects, and the department of finance and administration shall monitor and ensure proper reversions of the bond proceeds appropriated for tribal infrastructure projects.

G. As used in this section:

(1) "division" means the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration;

(2) "tribal infrastructure project" means a qualified project under the Tribal Infrastructure Act [6-29-1 to 6-29-9 NMSA 1978]; and

(3) "water project" means a capital outlay project for:

(a) the storage, conveyance or delivery of water to end users;

(b) the implementation of federal Endangered Species Act of 1973 collaborative programs;

(c) the restoration and management of watersheds;

(d) flood prevention; or

(e) conservation, recycling, treatment or reuse of water.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 134, § 1; 2009, ch. 22, § 1; 2010, ch. 37, § 1; 2015, ch. 63, § 1; 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 9; 2017 (1st S.S.), ch. 1, § 4; 2019, ch. 273, § 2; 2024, ch. 56, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

For the federal Endangered Species Act of 1973, see 16 U.S.C.S. § 1531 et seq.

The 2024 amendment, effective May 15, 2024, required certain estimates of bonding capacity available for severance tax bonds, and made certain technical amendments; in Subsection B, after "legislature", added "based on the lesser of the following estimates" and added Paragraphs B(1) and B(2); in Subsection C, deleted "For each year except 2017"; and in Subsection D, after "shall allocate", deleted "the following percentage" and added "four and one-half percent", and deleted Paragraphs D(1) and D(2).

The 2019 amendment, effective June 14, 2019, provided for a distribution from the severance tax bonding fund to the severance tax permanent fund every year for ten years; and added a new Subsection A and redesignated former Subsections A through F as Subsections B through G.

The 2017 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective May 26, 2017, suspended the severance tax bonding capacity allocation for water projects for the year 2017; in Subsection B, added "For each year except 2017"; in Subsection C, in the introductory clause, changed "percentages" to "percentage"; and in Subsection D, after "in the amount", deleted "allocated pursuant to" and added "provided for in", and after "provided for in this", deleted "subsection" and added "section".

The 2016 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective October 21, 2016, reduced the percentages of estimated severance tax bonding capacity allocated to water and tribal infrastructure projects; in Subsection B, after "water projects statewide", deleted "except for projects authorized in Subsection F of this section"; in Subsection C(2), after "subsequent year", deleted "five and one-half" and added "four and one-half"; and deleted Subsection F and redesignated former Subsection G as Subsection F.

Severability. — Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 12, provided that if a specific reversion, a voided authorization, a change in the use of severance tax bond proceeds or an authorization to expend severance tax bond proceeds is held invalid or otherwise cannot be effectuated, the remainder of Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5 and any other reversion, voided authorization, change in the use of severance tax bond proceeds or authorization to expend severance tax bond proceeds shall not be affected.

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, adjusted the percentages of severance tax bonding capacity allocated for tribal infrastructure projects; in Subsection A, after "each year, the", deleted "board of finance", and after "division", deleted "of the department of finance and administration"; in Subsection C, after "The", deleted "board of finance", after "allocate", deleted "five percent" and added "the following percentages", after "capacity", deleted "each year", and after the first occurrence of "tribal infrastructure projects", deleted "and" and added Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection C; designated the remainder of Subsection C as a new Subsection D and redesignated the succeeding subsections accordingly; in Subsection D, after "severance tax bonds in the", deleted "annually allocated", and after "amount", added "allocated pursuant to this section"; in Subsection F, after "The", deleted "board of finance", and after "division", deleted "of the department of finance and administration"; and added new Paragraph (1) of Subsection G and redesignated the succeeding subsections accordingly.

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, in the catchline, after "priority", deleted "water projects" and added "for water projects and tribal infrastructure projects"; in Subsection B, in the first sentence, after "The division shall", deleted "authorize" and added "allocate"; after "bonding capacity each year", added "for water projects"; and after "tax bonds in the annually", deleted "deducted" and added "allocated"; and after "Section", changed "D" to "E"; and in the third sentence, after "authorized amount provided for in", deleted "Subsection A of this section" and added "this subsection"; added Subsection C; in Subsection D, in the second sentence, after "bonds issued for a water project", added "or a tribal infrastructure project" and after "six months of completion of the", deleted "water"; and in the third sentence, after "ensure proper reversions", added the remainder of the sentence; and added Paragraph (1) of Subsection F.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 37, § 2 provided that the allocation of severance tax bonding capacity and the authorization of severance tax bonds for tribal infrastructure projects shall commence with the severance tax bonding capacity estimated on January 15, 2012 for authorization by the second session of the fiftieth legislature.

The 2009 amendment, effective March 20, 2009, in Subsection A, added the exception at the end of the subsection and added Subsection D.

7-27-10.2. Transfer to severance tax permanent fund before determining bonding capacity.

On December 31 of each year from 2023 through 2033, the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration shall transfer ninety-two million dollars ($92,000,000) from the severance tax bonding fund to the severance tax permanent fund, unless the state board of finance determines that a lesser transfer amount is necessary pursuant to Section 7-27-8 NMSA 1978 to avoid a potential shortfall in debt service obligations.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-10.2, enacted by Laws 2023, ch. 124, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2023, ch. 124 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 16, 2023, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-27-11. Authority to refund bonds.

A. The state board of finance may issue and sell at public or private sale severance tax bonds to refund outstanding severance tax bonds by exchange, immediate or prospective redemption, cancellation or escrow, including the escrow of debt service funds accumulated for payment of outstanding bonds, or any combination thereof when, in its opinion, such action will be beneficial to the state.

B. The state board of finance may issue and sell at public or private sale supplemental severance tax bonds to refund outstanding supplemental severance tax bonds by exchange, immediate or prospective redemption, cancellation or escrow, including the escrow of debt service funds accumulated for payment of outstanding supplemental severance tax bonds, or any combination thereof when, in its opinion, such action will be beneficial to the state.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-36, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 9; 1985 (1st S.S.), ch. 15, § 13; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the state board of finance, see 6-1-1 NMSA 1978.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, deleted "and other bonds payable from the severance tax bonding fund" preceding "by exchange" near the middle of Subsection A; deleted former Subsections B and C, relating to use of the level savings method of advance refunding and prohibiting issuance of certain bonds to refund outstanding severance tax bonds; and added present Subsection B.

7-27-11.1. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 20 repealed 7-27-11.1 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1985 (1st S.S.), ch. 15, § 15, relating to declaration of legislative intent in enacting 7-27-11 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 1999. For provisions of former section, see the 1998 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-27-12. When severance tax bonds to be issued.

A. The state board of finance shall issue and sell all severance tax bonds when authorized to do so by any law that sets out the amount of the issue and the recipient of the money.

B. The state board of finance shall also issue and sell severance tax bonds authorized by Sections 72-14-36 through 72-14-42 NMSA 1978, and such authority as has been given to the interstate stream commission to issue and sell such bonds is transferred to the state board of finance. The state board of finance shall issue and sell all severance tax bonds only when so instructed by resolution of the governing body or by written direction from an authorized officer of the recipient of the bond money.

C. Except as provided in Subsection D of this section, proceeds from supplemental severance tax bonds shall be used only for public school capital outlay projects pursuant to the Public School Capital Outlay Act [Chapter 22, Article 24 NMSA 1978] or the Public School Capital Improvements Act [Chapter 22, Article 25 NMSA 1978].

D. Proceeds from supplemental severance tax bonds issued pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of Section 19 of Chapter 6 of Laws 1999 (1st S.S.) and Section 1 of this 2017 act shall be used for the purposes specified in those provisions.

E. Except as provided in Subsection F of this section, the state board of finance shall issue and sell all supplemental severance tax bonds when so instructed by resolution of the public school capital outlay council pursuant to Section 7-27-12.2 NMSA 1978.

F. The state board of finance shall issue and sell the supplemental severance tax bonds authorized by:

(1) Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of Section 19 of Chapter 6 of Laws 1999 (1st S.S.) when so instructed by resolution of the commission on higher education; and

(2) Section 1 of this 2017 act upon certification by the secretary of finance and administration of the need to use proceeds from those bonds as outlined in that section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-18-37, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 5, § 10; 1984, ch. 4, § 2; 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 6, § 6; 2001, ch. 37, § 1; 2001, ch. 338, § 1; 2017 (1st S.S.), ch. 1, § 5.

The 2017 (1st S.S.) amendment, effective May 26, 2017, authorized the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration to transfer proceeds from supplemental severance tax bonds to the general fund for use by the department in fiscal year 2017 to restore certain allotments from the general fund; in Subsection D, after "(1st S.S.)", added "and Section 1 of this 2017 act", and after "specified in", deleted "that paragraph" and added "those provisions"; and in Subsection F, after "authorized by", added paragraph designation "(1)", and at the end of Paragraph (1), added "and", and added Paragraph (2).

2001 Amendments. — Laws 2001, ch. 338, § 1, effective April 5, 2001, substituted "by written direction from an authorized officer" for "executive head" at the end of Subsection B; in Subsection C, inserted the exception to the beginning of the subsection, deleted "critical" preceding "capital outlay", substituted "the Public School Capital Improvements Act" for language concerning post-secondary infrastructure renovation and expansion needs; deleted former Subsection D; and added current Subsections D, E and F.

Laws 2001, ch. 37, § 1, effective June 15, 2001, in Subsection B, deleted "executive head" and added "by written direction from an authorized officer"; and in Subsection D, after the second occurrence of "commission higher education", deleted "pursuant to certification by the governing bodies of the appropriate educational institutions".

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added the Subsection A and B designations and added Subsection C; inserted "or executive head" in the second sentence in Subsection B; and made minor stylistic changes.

7-27-12.1. Severance tax bonds; purpose for which issued; appropriation of proceeds.

The state board of finance may issue and sell severance tax bonds in fiscal years 2001 through 2010 in compliance with the Severance Tax Bonding Act in an amount not exceeding a total of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) when the local government division of the department of finance and administration certifies the need for the issuance of the bonds; provided that no more than four million dollars ($4,000,000) may be issued in fiscal year 2001 and no more than two million dollars ($2,000,000) may be issued in any one fiscal year thereafter. The state board of finance shall schedule the issuance and sale of the bonds in the most expeditious and economical manner possible upon a finding by the board that the project has been developed sufficiently to justify the issuance and that the project can proceed to contract within a reasonable time. The state board of finance shall further take the appropriate steps necessary to comply with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the local government division of the department of finance and administration for the purpose of financing water and sewer distribution and collection systems in the developed and underserved areas of Bernalillo county, including areas in the city of Albuquerque. The certification and issuance of bonds for any fiscal year is contingent upon the secretary of finance and administration receiving certification from the governing body of the city of Albuquerque and the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county that funding in an amount equal to one and one-half times the amount of bonds issued pursuant to this section, including the amount of bonds proposed to be issued for that fiscal year, has been secured from federal, city and county sources to construct the water and sewer distribution and collection systems. Any funding from federal, city and county sources in excess of the amount required for certification in any fiscal year may be carried forward and credited against the amount required in subsequent fiscal years. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of fiscal year 2012 shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund. If the local government division of the department of finance and administration has not certified the need for the issuance of the bonds by the end of fiscal year 2010, the authorization provided in this section shall expire.

History: Laws 1999 (1st S.S.), ch. 5, § 1; 2000 (2nd S.S.), ch. 18, § 1; 2002, ch. 66, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, substituted "one and one-half" for "four and one-half" in the fifth sentence.

The 2000 amendment, effective April 12, 2000, inserted "four million dollars ($4,000,000) may be issued in fiscal year 2001 and no more than" preceding "two million dollars" and inserted the fifth sentence.

7-27-12.2. Supplemental severance tax bonds; public school capital outlay and other projects.

A. The public school capital outlay council is authorized to certify by resolution that proceeds of supplemental severance tax bonds are needed for expenditures relating to public school capital outlay projects pursuant to the Public School Capital Outlay Act [Chapter 22, Article 24 NMSA 1978] or for the state distribution for public school capital improvements pursuant to the Public School Capital Improvements Act [Chapter 22, Article 25 NMSA 1978]. The resolution shall specify the total amount needed.

B. The state board of finance may issue and sell supplemental severance tax bonds in compliance with the Severance Tax Bonding Act when the public school capital outlay council certifies by resolution the need for the issuance of the bonds or when the secretary of public education certifies the need for the issuance of the bonds pursuant to Section 22-24-4 NMSA 1978 or Section 3 of this 2016 act. The amount of the bonds sold at each sale shall not exceed the lesser of:

(1) the total of the amounts certified by the council and the secretary of public education; or

(2) the amount that may be issued pursuant to the restrictions of Section 7-27-14 NMSA 1978.

C. The state board of finance shall schedule the issuance and sale of the bonds in the most expeditious and economical manner possible.

D. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated as follows:

(1) the amount certified by the secretary of public education as necessary to make the distribution pursuant to Section 22-25-9 NMSA 1978 is appropriated to the public school capital improvements fund for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Public School Capital Improvements Act; and

(2) the remainder of the proceeds is appropriated to the public school capital outlay fund for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Public School Capital Outlay Act.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-27-12.2, enacted by Laws 2001, ch. 338, § 2; 2004, ch. 125, § 1; 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 2, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The reference to "Section 3 of this 2016 act" in Subsection B of this section, refers to Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 2, § 3, effective October 7, 2016, which appropriated twelve million five hundred thousand dollars ($12,500,000) from the public school capital outlay fund to the instructional material fund for expenditure in fiscal year 2017 and subsequent fiscal years for the purchase of instructional material pursuant to the Instructional Material Law; provided that the secretary of public education certifies the need for the issuance of supplemental severance tax bonds to meet that appropriation. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the public school capital outlay fund.

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 274, § 20 made Laws 2005, ch. 274, § 1 effective April 6, 2005.

7-27-12.4. Authorization for severance tax bonds for severance tax transportation fund; appropriation of proceeds.

A. The state board of finance may issue and sell severance tax bonds in fiscal years 2007 through 2009 in compliance with the Severance Tax Bonding Act in an amount not exceeding a total of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) when the department of transportation certifies the need for the issuance of the bonds; provided that:

(1) in fiscal year 2007, no more than fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) in bonds shall be issued; and

(2) in each of fiscal years 2008 and 2009, no more than the lesser of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) or twelve and one-half percent of severance tax bonding capacity, as determined pursuant to Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978, shall be issued.

B. The state board of finance shall schedule the issuance and sale of the bonds in the most expeditious and economical manner possible upon a finding by the board that, based upon a certification from the department of transportation, the proceeds of the bonds are needed and that the projects can proceed to contract within a reasonable time. The state board of finance shall further take the appropriate steps necessary to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this subsection.

C. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated as follows:

(1) proceeds of the bonds issued in fiscal year 2007 are appropriated to the local government transportation fund for distribution as directed by the department of transportation for projects pursuant to Section 6-21-6.12 NMSA 1978;

(2) twenty percent of the proceeds of the bonds issued in fiscal years 2008 and 2009 are appropriated to the department of transportation to perform routine maintenance on state highways;

(3) forty percent of the proceeds of the bonds issued in fiscal years 2008 and 2009 are appropriated to the local government transportation fund for distribution as directed by the department of transportation for projects pursuant to Section 6-21-6.12 NMSA 1978; and

(4) forty percent of the proceeds of the bonds issued in fiscal years 2008 and 2009 are appropriated to the department of transportation for the purpose of completing those projects authorized in Paragraphs (1) and (3) through (38) of Subsection A of Laws 2003 (1st S.S.), Chapter 3, Section 27, provided that the department shall comply with the requirements of Subsections C, D and E of Section 67-3-59.4 NMSA 1978.

D. Money from the severance tax bonds provided for in this section shall not be used to pay indirect costs. If the department of transportation has not certified the need for the issuance of the bonds by July 1, 2009, the authorization provided in this section shall expire.

Effective dates. — Laws 2007 (1st S.S.), ch. 3 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 28, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-27-12.5. Authorization for severance tax bonds; priority for infrastructure projects for colonias.

A. After the annual estimate of severance tax bonding capacity pursuant to Subsection A of Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978, the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration shall allocate the following percentages of the estimated bonding capacity for colonias infrastructure projects:

- (1) in 2016, six and one-half percent; and
- (2) in 2017 and each subsequent year, four and one-half percent.

B. The legislature authorizes the state board of finance to issue severance tax bonds in the amount allocated pursuant to this section for use by the colonias infrastructure board to fund the projects. The colonias infrastructure board shall certify to the state board of finance the need for issuance of bonds for colonias infrastructure projects. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this subsection. If necessary, the state board of finance shall take the appropriate steps to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the colonias infrastructure project fund for the purposes certified by the colonias infrastructure board to the state board of finance.

C. Money from the severance tax bonds provided for in this section shall not be used to pay indirect project costs. Any unexpended balance from proceeds of severance tax bonds issued for a colonias infrastructure project shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund within six months of completion of the project. The colonias infrastructure board shall monitor and ensure proper reversions of the bond proceeds appropriated for the projects.

D. As used in this section, "colonias infrastructure project" means a qualified project under the Colonias Infrastructure Act [Chapter 6, Article 30 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 2010, ch. 10 § 9; 2015, ch. 63, § 2; 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the colonias infrastructure board, see 6-30-4 NMSA 1978.

For the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C.

The 2016 (2nd S.S.) amendment, effective October 21, 2016, reduced the percentages of estimated severance tax bonding capacity allocated to colonias infrastructure projects; and in Subsection A(2), after "subsequent year", deleted "five and one-half" and added "four and one-half".

Severability. — Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5, § 12, provided that if a specific reversion, a voided authorization, a change in the use of severance tax bond proceeds or an authorization to expend severance tax bond proceeds is held invalid or otherwise cannot be effectuated, the remainder of Laws 2016 (2nd S.S.), ch. 5 and any other reversion, voided authorization, change in the use of severance tax bond proceeds or authorization to expend severance tax bond proceeds shall not be affected.

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, adjusted the percentages of severance tax bonding capacity allocated for colonias infrastructure projects; in the introductory sentence of Subsection A, after "allocate", deleted "five percent" and added "the following percentages", after "capacity", deleted "each year", and after "colonias infrastructure projects", deleted "and", added a colon, and after the colon, added new Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection A; designated the remainder of Subsection A as Subsection B and redesignated the succeeding subsections accordingly; and in Subsection B, after "severance tax bonds in the", deleted "annually allocated", and after "amount", added "allocated pursuant to this section".

7-27-13. Reserved.

7-27-14. Amount of tax; security for bonds.

A. The legislature shall provide for the continued assessment, levy, collection and deposit into the severance tax bonding fund of the tax or taxes upon natural resource products severed and saved from the soil of the state that, together with such other income as may be deposited to the fund, will be sufficient to produce an amount that is at least the amount necessary to meet annual debt service charges on all outstanding severance tax bonds and supplemental severance tax bonds.

B. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the state board of finance shall issue no severance tax bonds unless the aggregate amount of severance tax bonds outstanding, and including the issue proposed, can be serviced with not more than the following percentages of the annual deposits into the severance tax bonding fund, as determined by the lesser of the deposits during the preceding fiscal year or the deposits during the current fiscal year as estimated by the division:

- (1) for fiscal year 2016, forty-nine and four-tenths percent;
- (2) for fiscal year 2017, forty-eight and eight-tenths percent;
- (3) for fiscal year 2018, forty-eight and two-tenths percent; and
- (4) for fiscal year 2019 and subsequent fiscal years, forty-seven and six-tenths percent.

C. The state board of finance shall issue no supplemental severance tax bonds with a term that extends beyond the fiscal year in which the bonds are issued unless the aggregate amount of severance tax bonds and supplemental severance tax bonds outstanding, and including the issue proposed, can be serviced with not more than the following percentages of the annual deposits into the severance tax bonding fund, as determined by the lesser of the deposits during the preceding fiscal year or the deposits during the current fiscal year as estimated by the division:

- (1) for fiscal year 2016, sixty-one and nine-tenths percent;
- (2) for fiscal year 2017, sixty-one and three-tenths percent;
- (3) for fiscal year 2018, sixty and seven-tenths percent; and
- (4) for fiscal year 2019 and subsequent fiscal years, sixty and one-tenth percent.

D. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the state board of finance may issue supplemental severance tax bonds with a term that does not extend beyond the fiscal year in which they are issued if the debt service on such supplemental severance tax bonds when added to the debt service previously paid or scheduled to be paid during that fiscal year on severance tax bonds and supplemental severance tax bonds does not exceed the following percentages of the lesser of the deposits into the severance tax bonding fund during the preceding fiscal year or the deposits into the severance tax bonding fund during the current fiscal year as estimated by the division:

- (1) for fiscal year 2016, ninety-four and four-tenths percent;
- (2) for fiscal year 2017, ninety-three and eight-tenths percent;
- (3) for fiscal year 2018, ninety-three and two-tenths percent;

- (4) for fiscal year 2019, ninety-one percent;
- (5) for fiscal year 2020, eighty-nine and four-tenths percent;
- (6) for fiscal year 2021, eighty-seven and eight-tenths percent; and
- (7) for fiscal year 2022 and subsequent fiscal years, eighty-six and two-tenths percent.

E. The provisions of this section shall not be modified by the terms of any severance tax bonds or supplemental severance tax bonds hereafter issued.

F. For the purposes of this section, "division" means the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, inserted "and supplemental severance tax bonds" near the beginning of the first sentence.

7-27-18. Procedure for sale of bonds.

A. Severance tax bonds and supplemental severance tax bonds shall be sold by the state board of finance at such times and in such manner as the board may elect, consistent with the need of the board, commission or agency that is the recipient of the bond money, to the highest bidder for cash at not less than par and accrued interest.

B. The state board of finance shall publish a notice of the time and place of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the state, and also in a recognized financial journal outside the state. Such publication shall be made once at least five business days prior to the date fixed for such sale. Such notice shall specify the amount, denomination, maturity and description of the bonds to be offered for sale and the place, day and hour at which bids therefor shall be received and publicly examined. All bids shall be sealed or sent by facsimile or other electronic transmission to the state board of finance as set forth in the notice. All bids, except that of the state, shall be accompanied by a deposit of two percent of the bid price, either in the form of a financial surety bond or in cash or by cashier's check or treasurer's check of, or by certified check drawn on, a solvent commercial bank or trust company in the United States. The financial surety bond or the long-term debt obligations of the issuer or person guarantying the obligations of the issuer of the financial surety bond shall be rated in one of the top two rating categories of a nationally recognized rating agency, without regard to any modification of the rating, and the financial surety bond shall be issued by an insurance company licensed to issue such a bond in New Mexico. Deposits of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned upon rejection of the bid.

C. At the time and place specified in such notice, bids shall be publicly examined and the bonds, or any part thereof, shall be awarded to the bidder or bidders offering the best price therefor. Before delivering any bonds sold, the state treasurer shall detach therefrom and cancel all interest coupons that may have matured prior to the date of delivery. The state board of finance may reject any or all bids and readvertise. The state board of finance may sell a severance tax bond or supplemental severance tax bond issue, or any part thereof, to the state at private sale.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The term "this act", referred to in this section, means Laws 1981 (1st S.S.), ch. 9, which is presently compiled as 7-27-31, 7-27-32, 7-27-42 to 7-27-44, 7-27-46, and 7-27-47 NMSA 1978.

Laws 2007, ch. 64, § 5, effective March 29, 2007, authorized the issuance of severance tax bonds for state laboratory facilities.

7-27-49. Authorization for severance tax bonds; New Mexico mortgage finance authority; New Mexico housing trust fund.

A. After the annual estimate of severance tax bonding capacity is made pursuant to Subsection B of Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978, the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration shall allocate two and one-half percent of the estimated bonding capacity for the New Mexico housing trust fund for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of the New Mexico Housing Trust Fund Act [58-18C-1 to 58-18C-9 NMSA 1978].

B. The legislature authorizes the state board of finance to issue severance tax bonds in the amount allocated pursuant to this section for use by the New Mexico mortgage finance authority to fund the New Mexico housing trust fund for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of the New Mexico Housing Trust Fund Act. The New Mexico mortgage finance authority shall certify to the state board of finance the need for issuance of bonds. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this section. If necessary, the state board of finance shall take the appropriate steps to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as that code may be amended or renumbered. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the New Mexico housing trust fund for the purposes certified by the New Mexico mortgage finance authority to the state board of finance.

C. Money from the severance tax bonds provided for in this section shall not be used to pay indirect project costs. Any unexpended balance from proceeds of severance tax bonds issued for projects pursuant to the New Mexico Housing Trust Fund Act shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund within one year of completion of the project. Any unencumbered balance from the proceeds of severance tax bonds issued pursuant to this section after three years from the issuance of those bonds shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund. The New Mexico mortgage finance authority shall monitor and ensure proper reversions of the bond proceeds appropriated for the projects.

History: Laws 2022, ch. 38, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, see 26 U.S.C. § 1.

Effective dates. — Laws 2022, ch. 38 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 18, 2022, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2023, ch. 9, § 1 provided that the allocation of severance tax bonding capacity and the authorization of severance tax bonds for the New Mexico housing trust fund pursuant to 7-27-49 NMSA 1978 shall commence with the severance tax bonding capacity estimated in January 2023.

7-27-50. Capital development and reserve fund.

A. The "capital development and reserve fund" is created as a nonreverting fund in the state treasury. The fund consists of distributions, appropriations, gifts, grants and donations. Income from investment of the fund shall be credited to the fund. Money in the fund shall be expended only as provided in Subsections E through F of this section. Money in the fund shall not be pledged against any state debt.

B. The state investment officer, subject to the approval of the council, shall invest money in the fund:

(1) in accordance with the prudent investor rule set forth in the Uniform Prudent Investor Act [45-7-601 to 45-7-612 NMSA 1978]; and

(2) in consultation with the state treasurer.

C. The state investment officer shall report quarterly to the legislative finance committee and the council on the investments made pursuant to this section. Annually, a report shall be submitted no later than October 1 each year to the legislative finance committee, the revenue stabilization and tax policy committee and any other appropriate interim committees.

D. On January 1 of each year, a distribution shall be made from the capital development and reserve fund to the capital development program fund in an amount equal to five percent of the average of the fiscal year-end market values of the capital development and reserve fund for the immediately preceding three fiscal years. If, on January 1 of a year, the capital development and reserve fund has been in effect for less than three fiscal years, the distribution shall be in an amount equal to five percent of the average of the fiscal year-end market values of the capital development and reserve fund for the immediately preceding number of fiscal years that the fund has been in effect.

E. Money in the fund is subject to appropriation by the legislature for capital projects or for transfer to the severance tax permanent fund.

F. Money in the capital development and reserve fund may be expended in the event that the balance of the severance tax bonding fund is insufficient to meet principal and interest payments on outstanding bonds. In that event, the balance in the reserve fund shall be transferred to the severance tax bonding fund only in the amount necessary to meet the principal and interest payments.

History: Laws 2024, ch. 56, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 56 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 15, 2024, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-27-51. Capital development program fund.

The "capital development program fund" is created as a nonreverting fund as a subaccount of the severance tax bonding fund. The fund consists of distributions, appropriations, gifts, grants, donations and income from investment of the fund. The department of finance and administration shall administer the fund. Money in the fund is subject to appropriation by the legislature to fund capital projects with a total cost of less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) and only the planning and design of capital projects with a total cost greater than that amount. Expenditures from the fund shall be by warrant of the secretary of finance and administration pursuant to vouchers signed by the secretary of finance and administration or the secretary's authorized representative. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance of an appropriation for a capital project remaining after two years following the date of the appropriation shall revert to the severance tax permanent fund.

History: Laws 2024, ch. 56, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 56 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 15, 2024, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-27-52. Authorization for severance tax bonds; priority for projects funded by the capital development program fund.

A. After the annual estimate of severance tax bonding capacity pursuant to Subsection B of Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978, the board of finance division of the department of finance and administration shall allocate an amount equal to the difference between the estimated average annual principal and interest to be repaid from the amount estimated pursuant to Paragraph (1) of Subsection B of Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978 for the term of an issuance less the estimated average annual principal and interest to be repaid from the amount estimated pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection B of Section 7-27-10.1 NMSA 1978; provided that the difference is greater than zero. The division shall not issue debt with a term greater than one year for the allocated amount.

B. The legislature authorizes the state board of finance to issue severance tax bonds in the amount allocated pursuant to Subsection A of this section for projects funded by the capital development program fund. The state board of finance may issue and sell the bonds in the same manner as other severance tax bonds in an amount not to exceed the authorized amount provided for in this subsection. If necessary, the state board of finance shall take the appropriate steps to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated to the capital development and reserve fund.

C. Money from the severance tax bonds provided for in this section shall not be used to pay indirect project costs.

History: Laws 2024, ch. 56, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2024, ch. 56 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 15, 2024, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-29-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985, ch. 65, § 46 repealed 7-29-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 52, § 3, relating to the purpose and declaration of intention of the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act, effective July 1, 1985.

7-29-4. Oil and gas severance tax imposed; collection; interest owner's liability to state; Indian liability.

A. There is imposed and shall be collected by the department a tax on all products that are severed and sold, except as provided in Subsection B of this section. The measure of the tax and the rates are:

(1) on natural gas severed and sold, except as provided in Paragraphs (4), (6) and (7) of this subsection, three and three-fourths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978;

(2) on oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead, except as provided in Paragraphs (3), (5), (8) and (9) of this subsection, three and three-fourths percent of taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978;

(3) on oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead produced from a qualified enhanced recovery project, one and seven-eighths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the annual average price of west Texas intermediate crude oil, determined by the department by averaging the posted prices in effect on the last day of each month of the twelve-month period ending on May 31 prior to the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed, was less than twenty-eight dollars ($28.00) per barrel;

(4) on the natural gas from a well workover project that is certified by the oil conservation division of the energy, minerals and natural resources department in its approval of the well workover project, two and forty-five hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the annual average price of west Texas intermediate crude oil, determined by the department by averaging the posted prices in effect on the last day of each month of the twelve-month period ending on May 31 prior to the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed, was less than twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per barrel;

(5) on the oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a well workover project that is certified by the oil conservation division of the energy, minerals and natural resources department in its approval of the well workover project, two and forty-five hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the annual average price of west Texas intermediate crude oil, determined by the department by averaging the posted prices in effect on the last day of each month of the twelve-month period ending on May 31 prior to the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed, was less than twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per barrel;

(6) on the natural gas from a stripper well property, one and seven-eighths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided the average annual taxable value of natural gas was equal to or less than one dollar fifteen cents ($1.15) per thousand cubic feet in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed;

(7) on the natural gas from a stripper well property, two and thirteen-sixteenths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of natural gas was greater than one dollar fifteen cents ($1.15) per thousand cubic feet but not more than one dollar thirty-five cents ($1.35) per thousand cubic feet in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed;

(8) on the oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a stripper well property, one and seven-eighths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of oil was equal to or less than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per barrel in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed;

(9) on the oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a stripper well property, two and thirteen-sixteenths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of oil was greater than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per barrel but not more than eighteen dollars ($18.00) per barrel in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed; and

(10) on carbon dioxide, helium and non-hydrocarbon gases, three and three-fourths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978.

B. The tax imposed in Subsection A of this section shall not be imposed on:

(1) natural gas severed and sold from a production restoration project during the first ten years of production following the restoration of production, provided that the annual average price of west Texas intermediate crude oil, determined by the department by averaging the posted prices in effect on the last day of each month of the twelve-month period ending on May 31 prior to each fiscal year in which the tax exemption is to be effective, was less than twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per barrel; and

(2) oil and other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a production restoration project during the first ten years of production following the restoration of production, provided that the annual average price of west Texas intermediate crude oil, determined by the department by averaging the posted prices in effect on the last day of each month of the twelve-month period ending on May 31 prior to each fiscal year in which the tax exemption is to be effective, was less than twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per barrel.

C. Every interest owner shall be liable for the tax to the extent of his interest in such products. Any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian shall be liable for the tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

D. The tax imposed by this section may be referred to as the "oil and gas severance tax".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-29-4, enacted by Laws 1980, ch. 62, §§ 3, 5; 1987, ch. 315, § 3; 1989, ch. 130, § 2; 1992, ch. 38, § 7; 1995, ch. 15, § 8; 1999, ch. 256, § 2; 2005, ch. 130, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act, see 7-29B-1 NMSA 1978.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, imposed the severance tax on helium and non-hydrocarbon gases in Subsection A(10).

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, substituted "pursuant to" for "under" throughout the section; substituted "Paragraphs (4), (6) and (7)" for "Paragraph (4)" in Subsection A(1); inserted "(8) and (9)" in Subsection A(2); deleted "in excess of the production projection" preceding "certified" and substituted "two and forty-five hundredths percent" for "one and seven-eighths percent" in Subsections A(4) and A(5); and added Subsections A(6) through A(9), redesignating former Subsection A(6) as A(10).

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, in Subsection A, added the exception at the end of the first sentence, rewrote Paragraph (1), substituted "Paragraphs (3) and (5)" for "Paragraph (3)" in Paragraph (2), added Paragraphs (4) and (5), and redesignated former Paragraph (4) as Paragraph (6); added subsection B; and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections C and D.

The 1992 amendment, effective March 6, 1992, in Subsection A, inserted "except as provided in Paragraph (3) of this subsection" in Paragraph (2), added Paragraph (3), made a related stylistic change, and redesignated former Paragraph (3) as Paragraph (4); and added Subsection C.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, in Subsection A(1) substituted "taxable value determined under Section 7-29-4.1 NMSA 1978" for "value" in Subparagraph (a) and substituted all of the language of Subparagraph (b) beginning with "taxable" for "value of products"; and added Subsection A(3).

Tribe's power to impose severance tax not limited by federal government. — The federal interest in interstate commerce, manifested in traditional commerce clause analyses, does not limit the Jicarilla Apache tribe's power to impose an oil and gas severance tax to be measured by production of these products within the reservation. Merrion v. Jicarilla Apache Tribe, 617 F.2d 537 (10th Cir. 1980), aff'd, 455 U.S. 130, 102 S. Ct. 894, 71 L. Ed. 2d 21 (1982).

Non-Indian producers operating on reservations. — Oil and gas taxes imposed by the state against a non-Indian producer whose operations are located on an Indian reservation do not constitute an impermissible burden on interstate commerce, were not preempted by federal laws promoting tribal self-sufficiency, and may be imposed on the same on-reservation production of oil and gas by non-Indian lessees as is subject to the tribe's own severance tax. Cotton Petroleum v. State, 1987-NMCA-121, 106 N.M. 517, 745 P.2d 1170, cert. quashed, 106 N.M. 511, 745 P.2d 1159, aff'd, 490 U.S. 163, 109 S. Ct. 1698, 104 L. Ed. 2d 209 (1989).

Tax liability of interest owners. — Although, pursuant to Subsection C, each interest owner is liable for its proportionate share of the calculated tax, the law does not mandate or even contemplate the determination of different taxable values for each of the various interest owners based on proceeds received downstream from the wellhead. The law is satisfied so long as (1) carbon dioxide production is accurately measured and valued as a whole at the wellhead, (2) the appropriate tax rate is applied to that production to calculate the total tax owed, and (3) the total tax is allocated to the various interest owners in proportion to their fractional interest in that production. Any readjustment in the allocation of the tax burden among working interest owners and royalty interest owners is left to private contract. Feerer v. Amoco Prod. Co., 242 F.3d 1259 (10th Cir. 2001).

Taxable value of carbon dioxide. — The calculation of severance taxes under New Mexico law, Subsection A(6) (now Subsection A(10)), is based on a single valuation of a total quantity of carbon dioxide extracted at the wellhead during a given time period. Feerer v. Amoco Prod. Co., 242 F.3d 1259 (10th Cir. 2001).

7-29-4.1. Taxable value; method of determining.

To determine the taxable value of oil and of other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead, of carbon dioxide, of helium, of non-hydrocarbon gases, of natural gas from new production natural gas wells and of natural gas severed after June 30, 1990, there shall be deducted from the value of products:

- A. royalties paid or due the United States or the state of New Mexico;
- B. royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States of America; and
- C. the reasonable expense of trucking any product from the production unit to the first place of market.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, provided the method to determine the taxable value of helium and non-hydrocarbon gases.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, inserted "of carbon dioxide, of natural gas from new production natural gas wells and of natural gas severed after June 30, 1990" in the undesignated introductory paragraph.

Transportation adjustment. — Regulation 3.18.6.9 NMAC required all owners of pipelines at the time of the adoption of the regulation to use the owners' predecessors' depreciation schedule to calculate the transportation adjustment for years subsequent to 1991. Kinder Morgan CO2 Co. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2009-NMCA-019, 145 N.M. 579, 203 P.3d 110, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-001, 145 N.M. 655, 203 P.3d 870.

Where a pipeline was constructed by the first owner prior to 1985 for $7.9 million; the pipeline was purchased by a second owner in 1985 for $45 million; and the pipeline was purchased in 1998 by the taxpayer, 3.18.6.9 NMAC, which was adopted in 1991, required the second owner and the taxpayer to calculate the transportation adjustment for years subsequent to 1991 on the basis of the first owner's depreciation schedule which was based on a $7.9 million cost to construct the pipeline. Kinder Morgan CO2 Co. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2009-NMCA-019, 145 N.M. 579, 203 P.3d 110, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-001, 145 N.M. 655, 203 P.3d 870.

7-29-4.2. Value may be determined by department; standard.

The department may determine the value of products severed from a production unit when:

- A. the operator and purchaser are affiliated persons;
- B. the sale and purchase of products is not an arm's length transaction; or when
- C. products are severed and removed from a production unit and a value as defined in the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act is not established for such products.

The value determined by the department shall be commensurate with the actual price received for products of like quality, character and use which are severed in the same field or area. If there are no sales of products of like quality, character and use severed in the same field or area, then the department shall establish a reasonable value.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, substituted "department" for "division" in the catchline, substituted "department" for "oil and gas accounting division" throughout the section, and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Determination of value. — The statute does not mandate the way in which the department must calculate processing costs, whether by a comparable value or by some other method. Rather, the final value of natural gas calculated by the department must be commensurate with similar products. Chevron U.S.A., Inc. v. State ex rel. Taxation and Revenue Dep't, 2006-NMCA-050, 139 N.M. 498, 134 P.3d 785, cert. denied, 2006-NMCERT-005, 139 N.M. 567, 136 P.3d 568.

Burden to prove propriety of regulations. — An administrative agency does not have the burden to show that its regulations are proper. The department's regulation regarding the presumption of control was rational and valid. Chevron U.S.A., Inc. v. State ex rel. Taxation and Revenue Dep't, 2006-NMCA-050, 139 N.M. 498, 134 P.3d 785, cert. denied, 2006-NMCERT-005, 139 N.M. 567, 136 P.3d 568.

7-29-4.3. Price increase subject to approval of agency of United States of America, state of New Mexico or court; refund.

When an increase in the value of any product is subject to the approval of any agency of the United States of America or the state of New Mexico or any court, the increased value shall be subject to this tax. In the event the increase in value is disapproved, either in whole or in part, then the amount of tax which has been paid on the disapproved part of the value shall be considered excess tax. Any person who has paid any such excess tax may apply for a refund of that excess tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

7-29-7. Operator's report; tax remittance; additional information.

Each operator shall, in the form and manner required by the division, make a return to the division showing the total value, volume and kind of products sold from each production unit for each calendar month. All taxes due, or to be remitted, by the operator shall accompany this return. The return shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the second month after the calendar month for which the return is required. Any additional report or information the division may deem necessary for the proper administration of the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act may be required.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985, ch. 65, § 46 repealed 7-29-9 to 7-29-22 NMSA 1978, relating to the fund and remedies under the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act, effective July 1, 1985.

7-29-23. Advance payment required.

A. Any person required to make payment of tax pursuant to Section 7-29-7 or 7-29-8 NMSA 1978 shall make the advance payment required by this section.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "advance payment" means the payment required to be made by this section in addition to any oil and gas severance tax, penalty or interest due; and

(2) "average tax" means the aggregate amount of tax, net of any refunds or credits, paid by a person during the twelve-month period ending March 31 pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act divided by the number of months during that period for which the person made payment.

C. Each year, prior to July 1, each person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act shall compute the average tax for the period ending March 31 of that year. The average tax calculated for a year shall be used during the twelve-month period beginning with July of that year and ending with June of the following year as the basis for making the advance payments required by Subsection D of this section.

D. Every month, beginning with July 1991, every person required to pay tax in a month pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act shall pay, in addition to any amount of tax, interest or penalty due, an advance payment in an amount equal to the applicable average tax, except:

(1) if the person is making a final return under the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act, no advance payment pursuant to this subsection is due for that return; and

(2) as provided in Subsection F of this section.

E. Every month, beginning with tax payments due in August 1991, every person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act may claim a credit equal to the amount of advance payment made in the previous month, except as provided in Subsection F of this section.

F. If, in any month, a person is not required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act, that person is not required to pay the advance payment and may not claim a credit pursuant to Subsection E of this section provided that, in any succeeding month when the person has liability under the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act, the person may claim a credit for any advance payment made and not credited.

G. In the event that the date by which a person is required to pay the tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Severance Tax Act is accelerated to a date earlier than the twenty-fifth day of the second month following the month of production, the advance payment provision contained in this section is null and void and any money held as advance payments shall be credited to the taxpayers' accounts.

ARTICLE 29A

Enhanced Oil Recovery

7-29A-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 29A NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Enhanced Oil Recovery Act".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 38, § 1; 1993, ch. 30, § 26.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, substituted "Chapter 7, Article 29A NMSA 1978" for "Sections 1 through 5 of this act".

7-29A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act:

A. "crude oil" means oil and other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead;

B. "division" means the oil conservation division of the energy, minerals and natural resources department;

C. "enhanced recovery project" means the use or the expanded use of any process for the displacement of crude oil from an oil well or pool classified by the division pursuant to Paragraph (11) of Subsection B of Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978 other than a primary recovery process, including but not limited to the use of a pressure maintenance process, a water flooding process, an immiscible, miscible, chemical, thermal or biological process or any other related process;

D. "expansion or expanded use" means a significant change or modification, as determined by the oil conservation division in:

(1) the technology or process used for the displacement of crude oil from an oil well or pool classified by the division pursuant to Paragraph (11) of Subsection B of Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978; or

(2) the expansion, extension or increase in size of the geologic area or adjacent geologic area that could reasonably be determined to represent a new or unique area of activity;

E. "operator" means the person responsible for the actual physical operation of an enhanced recovery project;

F. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association or other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number;

G. "positive production response" means that the rate of oil production from the wells or pools affected by an enhanced recovery project is greater than the rate that would have occurred without the project;

H. "primary recovery" means the displacement of crude oil from an oil well or pool classified by the division pursuant to Paragraph (11) of Subsection B of Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978 into the well bore by means of the natural pressure of the oil well or pool, including but not limited to artificial lift;

I. "recovered oil tax rate" means that tax rate, as set forth in Paragraph (3) of Subsection A of Section 7-29-4 NMSA 1978, on crude oil produced from an enhanced recovery project;

J. "secondary recovery project" means an enhanced recovery project that:

(1) occurs subsequent to the completion of primary recovery and is not a tertiary recovery project;

(2) involves the application, in accordance with sound engineering principles, of carbon dioxide miscible fluid displacement, pressure maintenance, water flooding or any other secondary recovery method accepted and approved by the division pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph (14) of Subsection B of Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978 that can reasonably be expected to result in an increase, determined in light of all facts and circumstances, in the amount of crude oil that may ultimately be recovered; and

(3) encompasses a pool or portion of a pool the boundaries of which can be adequately defined and controlled;

K. "severance" means the taking from the soil of any product in any manner whatsoever;

L. "termination" means the discontinuance of an enhanced recovery project by the operator; and

M. "tertiary recovery project" means an enhanced recovery project that:

(1) occurs subsequent to the completion of a secondary recovery project;

(2) involves the application, in accordance with sound engineering principles, of carbon dioxide miscible fluid displacement, pressure maintenance, water flooding or any other tertiary recovery method accepted and approved by the division pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph (14) of Subsection B of Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978 that can reasonably be expected to result in an increase, determined in light of all facts and circumstances, in the amount of crude oil that may ultimately be recovered; and

(3) encompasses a pool or portion of a pool the boundaries of which can be adequately defined and controlled.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 38, § 2.

7-29A-3. Procedures for qualifying for the recovered oil tax rate.

A. Crude oil severed and sold from an enhanced recovery project or the expansion of an existing project shall qualify for the recovered oil tax rate if, before the enhanced recovery project or expansion begins operation, the division approves the project or expansion and designates the area to be affected by the project or expansion, but no project or expansion approved by the division prior to the effective date of the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act shall qualify for the recovered oil tax rate.

B. The operator of a proposed enhanced recovery project or expansion shall apply to the division for approval of the proposed enhanced recovery project or expansion and shall provide the division with any relevant information the division requires for that approval.

C. If approval by the division of a unitization agreement as set forth in Chapter 70, Article 7 NMSA 1978 is required for purposes of carrying out the enhanced recovery project or expansion, the division shall not approve the enhanced recovery project or expansion unless it approves the unitization agreement.

D. An operator may apply for approval of a proposed enhanced recovery project or expansion concurrently with an application for approval of a unitization agreement as set forth in Chapter 70, Article 7 NMSA 1978 for the purposes of carrying out the proposed enhanced recovery project or expansion.

E. The division shall only approve a proposed enhanced recovery project or expansion if it determines that the application for approval has not been prematurely filed either for economic or technical reasons and that the area to be affected by the enhanced recovery project or expansion has been so depleted that it is prudent to apply enhanced recovery techniques to maximize the ultimate recovery of crude oil from the well or pool.

F. Upon the approval of the application for an enhanced recovery project or expansion, the division shall issue a certification of approval to the operator and designate the area to be affected by the enhanced recovery project or expansion.

G. The recovered oil tax rate shall apply only to the crude oil produced from the area the division certifies to be affected by the enhanced recovery project or expansion.

H. The operator shall file an application for certification of a positive production response with the division to be eligible to receive the recovered oil tax rate.

I. The recovered oil tax rate shall only apply to crude oil produced from an enhanced recovery project or the expansion of an existing project beginning the first day of the month following the date the division certifies that a positive production response has occurred and if the application for certification of positive production response is filed:

(1) not later than five years from the date the division issues the certification of approval of the enhanced recovery project or expansion if the enhanced recovery project or expansion is designated a secondary recovery project; or

(2) not later than seven years from the date the division issues the certification of approval of the enhanced recovery project or expansion if the enhanced recovery project or expansion is designated a tertiary recovery project.

J. Qualification for the recovered oil tax rate ends on the first day of the first calendar month that begins on or after the ninety-first day following the termination of the enhanced recovery project or expansion.

K. If the active operation of an approved enhanced recovery project or expansion is terminated, the operator shall notify the division and the secretary of taxation and revenue in writing, not later than the thirtieth day after the termination of the enhanced recovery project or expansion.

L. In addition to the powers enumerated in Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978, the division shall adopt, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations concerning the approval of the applications, the designation of the affected areas and the operation, expansion and termination of the enhanced recovery projects as provided for in the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 38, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The effective date of the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act was March 6, 1992, the effective date of Laws 1992, ch. 38.

7-29A-4. Notification to the secretary of taxation and revenue; duties of the secretary.

A. The division shall immediately notify the secretary of taxation and revenue upon:

(1) certifying that a positive production response has occurred for an enhanced oil recovery project, in which case the notice shall contain the date certification was made and the date positive production response occurred;

(2) receiving notification of termination of an enhanced recovery project, in which case the notice shall contain the date of termination; and

(3) adopting and promulgating rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act.

B. The secretary of taxation and revenue shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations to enforce the provisions of the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 38, § 4.

7-29A-5. Secretary of taxation and revenue approval; refund.

A. The person responsible for paying the oil and gas severance tax on production from the enhanced recovery project shall not qualify to receive the recovered oil tax rate unless that person:

(1) applies to the secretary of taxation and revenue in the form and manner prescribed by the secretary for approval to pay the oil and gas severance tax on crude oil severed and saved from the enhanced recovery project at the recovered oil tax rate;

(2) includes the certifications from the division of approval and designation of the affected areas of the enhanced recovery project and of a positive production response from the enhanced recovery project; and

(3) provides all relevant material that the secretary of taxation and revenue considers necessary to administer the applicable provisions of the Enhanced Oil Recovery Act.

B. An approval of the secretary of taxation and revenue in accordance with Subsection A of this section shall be applicable to crude oil severed and sold from the enhanced recovery project on and after the first day of the month following the month in which the division certifies that a positive production response with respect to the enhanced recovery project has occurred. If the oil and gas severance tax is paid at a rate imposed in Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of Section 7-29-4 NMSA 1978 on crude oil severed and saved from the enhanced recovery project after the month in which the division certifies that a positive production response with respect to the enhanced recovery project has occurred, a claim for refund may be filed in accordance with Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 for the excess in tax over the amount due using the recovered oil tax rate. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection E [Subsection F] of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 any such refund granted shall be made in the form of a credit against future oil and gas severance tax liabilities.

History: Laws 1992, ch. 38, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. The reference to Subsection E of 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 in Subsection B should now be a reference to Subsection F in light of the 1997 amendment to 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

ARTICLE 29B

Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentives

7-29B-1. Short title.

Sections 1 through 6 [7-29B-1 to 7-29B-6 NMSA 1978] of this act may be cited as the "Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act".

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 1.

7-29B-2. Definitions.

As used in the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act:

A. "average annual taxable value" means the average of the taxable value per barrel, determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, of all oil produced in New Mexico for the specified calendar year as determined by the department;

B. "average daily production" means, for any crude oil or natural gas property assigned a single production number by the department, the number derived by dividing the total volume of crude oil or natural gas production from the property reported to the division during a calendar year by the sum of the number of days each eligible well within the property produced or injected during that calendar year;

C. "department" means the taxation and revenue department;

D. "division" means the oil conservation division of the energy, minerals and natural resources department;

E. "eligible well" means a crude oil or natural gas well that produces or an injection well that injects and is integral to production for any period of time during the preceding calendar year;

F. "natural gas" means any combustible vapor composed chiefly of hydrocarbons occurring naturally;

G. "operator" means the person responsible for the actual physical operation of a natural gas or oil well;

H. "person" means any individual or other legal entity, including any group or combination of individuals or other legal entities acting as a unit;

I. "production restoration incentive tax exemption" means the tax exemption set forth in Subsection B of Section 7-29-4 NMSA 1978 for natural gas or oil produced from a production restoration project;

J. "production restoration project" means the use of any process for returning to production a natural gas or oil well that had thirty days or less of production in any period of twenty-four consecutive months beginning on or after January 1, 1993 as approved and certified by the division;

K. "severance" means the taking from the soil of any product in any manner whatsoever;

L. "stripper well property" means a crude oil or natural gas producing property that is assigned a single production unit number by the department and:

(1) if a crude oil producing property, produced an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day for the preceding calendar year;

(2) if a natural gas producing property, produced an average daily production of less than sixty thousand cubic feet of natural gas per eligible well per day during the preceding calendar year; or

(3) if a property with wells that produce both crude oil and natural gas, produced an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day for the preceding calendar year, as determined by converting the volume of natural gas produced by the well to barrels of oil by using a ratio of six thousand cubic feet to one barrel of oil;

M. "stripper well incentive tax rates" means the tax rates set forth in Paragraphs (6) through (9) of Subsection A of Section 7-29-4 NMSA 1978 and in Paragraphs (4) through (7) of Subsection A of Section 7-31-4 NMSA 1978 for natural gas or oil produced from a well within a stripper well property;

N. "well workover incentive tax rate" means the tax rate set forth in Paragraphs (4) and (5) of Subsection A of Section 7-29-4 NMSA 1978 on the natural gas or oil produced from a well workover project; and

O. "well workover project" means any procedure undertaken by the operator of a natural gas or oil well that is intended to increase the production from the well and that has been approved and certified by the division.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 2; 1999, ch. 7, § 2; 1999, ch. 256, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, added Subsections A, B, E, L, and M, and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly; deleted former Subsection F, which read: "production projection" means the estimate of the productive capacity of a natural gas or oil well that is certified by the division pursuant to the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act as the future rate of production from the well prior to the operator of the well performing a well workover project on the well"; and deleted "in excess of the production projection" following "produced" in Subsection N.

This section was also amended by Laws 1999, ch. 7, § 2, effective June 18, 1999, which would have substituted "in any period of twenty-four consecutive months beginning on or after January 1, 1993" for "between January 1, 1993 and December 31, 1994" in Subsection H. The section was set out as amended by Laws 1999, ch. 256, § 3. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-29B-3. Approval of production restoration projects, well workover projects and stripper well properties.

A. A natural gas or oil well shall be approved by the division as a production restoration project if:

(1) the operator of the well makes application to the division in accordance with the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act and rules adopted pursuant to that act for approval of a production restoration project and the application is made within twelve months of the completion of the production restoration project; and

(2) the division records show that the well had thirty days or less of production in any period of twenty-four consecutive months beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

B. A natural gas or oil well shall be approved by the division as a well workover project if:

(1) the operator of the well makes application to the division in accordance with the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act and rules adopted pursuant to that act for approval of a well workover project;

(2) the division determines that the procedure performed by the operator of the well is a procedure to increase the production from the well, but is not routine maintenance performed by a prudent operator to maintain the well in operation. Such procedures may include, but are not limited to:

(a) re-entry into the well to drill deeper, to sidetrack to a different location or to recompleat for production;

(b) recompleat by reperforation of a zone from which natural gas or oil has been produced or by perforation of a different zone;

(c) repair or replacement of faulty or damaged casing or related downhole equipment;

(d) fracturing, acidizing or installing compression equipment; or

(e) squeezing, cementing or installing equipment necessary for removal of excessive water, brine or condensate from the well bore in order to establish, continue or increase production from the well; and

(3) the operator of the well submits to the division evidence of a positive production increase over the production rate of the well prior to the workover. The operator must submit a production curve or tabulation made up of at least twelve months' production prior to the workover and at least three months' production following the workover that reflects a positive production increase from the workover. The production curve or tabulation must be certified by the operator as that of the well on which a workover was performed.

C. A natural gas or crude oil producing property shall be approved and certified by the division as a stripper well property if the division records show that the property is assigned a single production unit number by the department and:

(1) if a crude oil producing property, produced an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day for the preceding calendar year;

(2) if a natural gas producing property, produced an average daily production of less than sixty thousand cubic feet of natural gas per eligible well per day during the preceding calendar year; or

(3) if a property with wells that produce both crude oil and natural gas, produced an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day for the preceding calendar year, as determined by converting the volume of natural gas produced by the well to barrels of oil by using a ratio of six thousand cubic feet to one barrel of oil.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 3; 1999, ch. 7, § 3; 1999, ch. 256, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, deleted "and" preceding "well" and added "and stripper well properties" in the section heading; deleted "and regulations" preceding "adopted" in Subsections A(1) and B(1); substituted "performed" for "proposed to be undertaken", deleted "intended" following "procedure" and "that would be" following "performed" in Subsection B(2); rewrote Subsection B(3), which read: "the operator of the well submits to the division an estimate of the productive capacity of the well based on at least twelve months of established production, and the division, based on its verification of that estimate, determines the future rate of production from the well prior to the operator of the well performing the well workover project on the well and certifies that as the production projection for the project"; and added Subsection C.

This section was also amended by Laws 1999, ch. 7, § 3, effective June 18, 1999, which would have added "and the application" to the end of Paragraph A(1), and substituted "in any period of twenty-four consecutive months beginning on or after January 1, 1993" for "between January 1, 1993 and December 31, 1994" in Paragraph A(2). The section was set out as amended by Laws 1999, ch. 256, § 3. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

7-29B-4. Application procedures; certification of approval; rules; administration.

A. The operator of a proposed production restoration project or well workover project shall apply to the division for approval of a production restoration project or a well workover project in the form and manner prescribed by the division and shall provide any relevant material and information the division requires for that approval.

B. Upon a determination that the project complies with the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act and rules adopted pursuant to that act, the division shall approve the application and shall issue a certification of approval to the operator and designate the natural gas or oil well as a production restoration project or well workover project, as applicable.

C. In addition to the powers enumerated in Section 70-2-12 NMSA 1978, the division shall adopt, promulgate and enforce rules to carry out the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act.

D. The division shall consider and approve applications for approval of a production restoration project or well workover project without holding hearings on the applications. If the division denies approval of an application pursuant to such a process, the division, upon the request of the applicant, shall set a hearing of the application before an examiner appointed by the division to conduct the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Oil and Gas Act [Chapter 70, Article 2 NMSA 1978] for such hearings.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 4; 1999, ch. 256, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, deleted "and regulations" following "rules" in the section heading and throughout the section; deleted former Subsection C which read: "At the time of issuing a certification of approval to an operator of a natural gas or oil well for a well workover project, the division shall also certify the production projection for that project", and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly; and deleted "Sections 1 through 5 of" following "provisions of" in Subsection C.

7-29B-5. Notice to secretary of taxation and revenue.

The division shall notify immediately the secretary of taxation and revenue upon:

A. adoption of rules pursuant to the provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act;

B. certification of the date that production has been restored on a production restoration project;

C. certification of the date that a well workover project has been completed; and

D. certification of the stripper well properties for the fiscal year.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 5; 1999, ch. 256, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, deleted "and regulations" following "rules" in Subsection A, and added Subsection D.

7-29B-6. Qualification for production restoration incentive tax exemption and well workover and stripper well property incentive tax rate; secretary of taxation and revenue approval; refund.

A. The person responsible for paying the oil and gas severance tax on natural gas or oil produced from a production restoration project shall qualify to receive a ten-year production restoration incentive tax exemption upon:

- (1) application to the department in the form and manner prescribed by the department for approval for the ten-year production restoration incentive tax exemption;
- (2) submission of the certification of approval from the division and designation of the natural gas or oil well as a production restoration project; and
- (3) submission of any other relevant material that the secretary of taxation and revenue deems necessary to administer the applicable provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act.

B. The person responsible for payment of the oil and gas severance tax on natural gas or oil produced from a well workover project shall qualify for the well workover incentive tax rate on all the natural gas or oil produced by that project upon:

- (1) application to the department in the form and manner prescribed by the department for approval to apply the well workover incentive tax rate to the natural gas or oil produced from a well workover project;
- (2) submission of the certification from the division of approval and designation of the natural gas or oil well as a well workover project; and
- (3) any other relevant material that the department considers necessary to administer the applicable provisions of the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act.

C. The person responsible for paying the oil and gas severance tax and the oil and gas emergency school tax on natural gas and crude oil produced from a stripper well property shall qualify to receive the stripper well property incentive tax rate for the fiscal year following certification by the division in the form and manner agreed to by the division and the department designating the property as a stripper well property. The division shall certify stripper well properties for calendar year 1998 no later than June 30, 1999 and no later than June 1 of each succeeding year for the preceding calendar year.

D. The production restoration incentive tax exemption shall apply to natural gas or oil produced from a production restoration project beginning the first day of the month following the date the division certifies that production has been restored and ending the last day of the tenth year of production following that date. The well workover incentive tax rate applies to the natural gas or oil produced from a well workover project beginning the first day of the month following the date the division certifies that the well workover project has been completed. The stripper well property incentive tax rates apply to the natural gas or oil produced from a stripper well property in the twelve months beginning May 1 prior to July 1 of the fiscal year to which the certification of the property as a stripper well property applies.

E. The person responsible for payment of the oil and gas severance tax on natural gas or oil production from an approved well workover project may file a claim for credit against current tax liability or for refund in accordance with Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 for taxes paid in excess of the amount due using the well workover incentive tax rate. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection E [F] of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978, any such refund granted shall be made in the form of a credit against any future oil and gas severance tax liabilities incurred by the taxpayer.

F. Well workover projects certified prior to July 1, 1999 shall be deemed to be approved and certified in accordance with the provisions of this 1999 act and natural gas or oil produced from those projects shall be eligible for the well workover incentive tax rate effective beginning July 1, 1999.

G. The secretary of taxation and revenue may adopt and promulgate rules to enforce the provisions of this section.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 15, § 6; 1999, ch. 256, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. The reference to Subsection E of 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 should now be a reference to Subsection F in light of the 1997 amendment to 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "this 1999 act," referred to in Subsection F, means Laws 1999, Chapter 256, which was compiled as 7-29-2, 7-29-4, 7-29B-2 to 7-29B-6, 7-31-2 and 7-31-4 NMSA 1978.

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, inserted "and stripper well property" in the section heading; inserted "all" preceding "the natural", substituted "by" for "in excess of the production projection for" in Subsection B; deleted "in excess of the production projection" following "produced" in Subsections B(1) and D; deleted "and of the production projection for the well workover project" following "project" in Subsection B(2); added Subsections C and F, and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly; added the third sentence of Subsection D; inserted "credit against current tax liability or for" in the first sentence of Subsection E; and deleted "and regulations" following "rules" in Subsection G.

ARTICLE 29C

Intergovernmental Tax Credits

7-29C-1. Intergovernmental tax credits.

A. Any person who is liable for the payment of the oil and gas severance tax, the oil and gas conservation tax, the oil and gas emergency school tax or the oil and gas ad valorem production tax imposed on products severed from Indian tribal land or imposed on the privilege of severing products from Indian tribal land shall be entitled to a credit to be computed under this section and to be deducted from the payment of the indicated taxes with respect to products from qualifying wells. The credit provided by this subsection may be referred to as the "intergovernmental production tax credit".

B. Any person who is liable for the payment of the oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax imposed on equipment located on Indian tribal land shall be entitled to a credit to be computed under this section and to be deducted from the payment of the indicated taxes with respect to equipment at qualifying wells. The credit provided by this subsection may be referred to as the "intergovernmental production equipment tax credit".

C. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "equipment" means wells and nonmobile equipment used at a well in connection with severance, treatment or storage of well products;

(2) "Indian tribal land" means all land that on March 1, 1995 was within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation or pueblo grant or held in trust by the United States for an Indian person, nation, tribe or pueblo;

(3) "product" means oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or in combination, or carbon dioxide; and

(4) "qualifying well" means a well on Indian tribal land, the actual drilling of which commenced on or after July 1, 1995.

D. The intergovernmental production tax credit shall be determined separately for each calendar month and shall be equal to seventy-five percent of the lesser of:

(1) the aggregate amount of severance, privilege, ad valorem or similar tax in effect on March 1, 1995 that is imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo upon the products severed from qualifying wells or upon the privilege of severing products from qualifying wells; or

(2) the aggregate amount of the oil and gas severance tax, the oil and gas conservation tax, the oil and gas emergency school tax and the oil and gas ad valorem production tax imposed by this state upon the products severed from qualifying wells or upon the privilege of severing products from qualifying wells.

E. The intergovernmental production equipment tax credit shall be determined annually for the equipment at qualifying wells and shall be equal to seventy-five percent of the lesser of:

(1) the amount of ad valorem or similar tax in effect on March 1, 1995 that is imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo upon the equipment for the calendar year; or

(2) the amount of the oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax imposed by this state upon the equipment for the calendar year.

F. If, after March 1, 1995, an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo increases any severance, privilege, ad valorem or similar tax applicable to products or equipment to which the tax credits provided by this section apply, the amount of the intergovernmental production tax credit for any month to which the increase applies shall be reduced by the difference between the aggregate amount of tax due to the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo for the production month and the aggregate amount of tax that would have been imposed by the terms of the tax or taxes in effect on March 1, 1995, and the intergovernmental production equipment tax credit shall be reduced by the difference between the aggregate amount of tax due to the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo for the year and the aggregate amount of tax that would have been imposed for the year by the terms of the tax or taxes in effect on March 1, 1995.

G. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the amount of credit taken and allowed shall be applied proportionately against the amount of oil and gas severance tax, oil and gas conservation tax, oil and gas emergency school tax, oil and gas ad valorem production tax and oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax due with respect to the products, severance of products or equipment taxed.

H. The taxation and revenue department shall administer and interpret the provisions of this section in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978].

I. The burden of showing entitlement to a credit authorized by this section is on the taxpayer claiming it, and he shall furnish to the appropriate tax collecting agency, in the manner determined by the taxation and revenue department, proof of payment of any tribal tax on which the credit is based.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 171, § 1; 1999, ch. 108, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective, July 1, 1999, inserted "person" in Paragraph C(2).

7-29C-2. Intergovernmental tax credit; severance tax on coal.

A. Any person who is liable pursuant to Section 7-26-6 NMSA 1978 for the payment of the severance tax on coal severed and saved from tribal land is entitled to a credit to be computed under this section and to be deducted from the payment of the indicated tax. The credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "intergovernmental coal severance tax credit".

B. For the purposes of this section, "tribal land" means all land in New Mexico that, on March 1, 2001, was within the exterior boundaries of the reservation or pueblo grant of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, was within a dependent Indian community of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or was held in trust by the United States for the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo.

C. The intergovernmental coal severance tax credit shall be determined separately for each calendar month and shall be equal to seventy-five percent of the lesser of:

(1) the aggregate amount of tax due under one or more taxes in effect on March 1, 2001 imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo upon coal severed and saved from the tribal land of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, the value of coal severed and saved, the privilege of severing coal or the value of the leasehold interest; or

(2) the aggregate amount of severance tax and surtax due the state pursuant to Section 7-26-6 NMSA 1978 upon coal severed and saved from the tribal land of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo.

D. If, after March 1, 2001, an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo increases any severance, privilege, possessory interest or similar tax applicable to coal to which the tax credits provided by this section apply, the amount of the intergovernmental coal severance tax credit for any month to which the increase applies shall be reduced by the difference between the aggregate amount of tax due to the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo for the month and the aggregate amount of tax that would have been imposed by the terms of the tax or taxes in effect on March 1, 2001. The expiration of a partial or total waiver from the tribal tax granted prior to March 1, 2001 does not constitute an increase in the tribal tax.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the amount of credit taken and allowed shall be applied proportionately against the amount of severance tax and the amount of surtax due.

F. The burden of showing entitlement to a credit authorized by this section is on the taxpayer claiming it, and the taxpayer shall furnish to the appropriate tax collecting agency, in the manner determined by the taxation and revenue department, proof of payment of any tribal tax on which the credit is based.

G. The taxation and revenue department is authorized to promulgate rules or instructions prescribing the method by which a taxpayer may allocate credit for a tax imposed by the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo on a basis other than monthly against the monthly amounts of severance tax and surtax due.

7-30-2. Definitions.

As used in the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act:

A. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "production unit" means a unit of property designated by the department from which products of common ownership are severed;

C. "severance" means the taking from the soil of any product in any manner whatsoever;

D. "value" means the actual price received for products at the production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act;

E. "product" or "products" means oil, including crude, slop or skim oil and condensate; natural gas; liquid hydrocarbon, including ethane, propane, isobutene, normal butane and pentanes plus, individually or any combination thereof; and non-hydrocarbon gases, including carbon dioxide and helium;

F. "operator" means any person:

(1) engaged in the severance of products from a production unit; or

(2) owning an interest in any product at the time of severance who receives a portion or all of such product for the person's interest;

G. "purchaser" means a person who is the first purchaser of a product after severance from a production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act;

H. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association or other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number;

I. "interest owner" means a person owning an entire or fractional interest of whatsoever kind or nature in the products at the time of severance from a production unit or who has a right to a monetary payment that is determined by the value of such products;

J. "tax" means the oil and gas conservation tax; and

K. "volume" means the quantity of product severed reported using:

(1) oil, condensate and slop oil in barrels; and

(2) natural gas, liquid hydrocarbons, helium and carbon dioxide in thousand cubic feet at a pressure base of fifteen and twenty-five thousandths pounds per square inch.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-20-2, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 2; 1975, ch. 289, § 14; 1977, ch. 249, § 54; 1980, ch. 97, § 4; 1986, ch. 20, § 99; 1989, ch. 130, § 5; 2005, ch. 130, § 4; 2021, ch. 65, § 31.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, defined "volume" and revised the definition of "product", as used in the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act; in Subsection

E, after "means oil", deleted "natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or any combination thereof, uranium, coal, geothermal energy, carbon dioxide, helium or a non-hydrocarbon gas" and added the remainder of the subsection; and added Subsection K.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, defined "product" in Subsection E to include helium or non-hydrocarbon gas and defines "tax" in Subsection J to mean the oil and gas conservation tax.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, substituted "'department'" for "'commission', 'department' or 'division'" in Subsection A.

Law reviews. — For article, " 'New Mexican Nationalism' and the Evolution of Energy Policy in New Mexico," see 17 Nat. Resources J. 283 (1977).

7-30-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985, ch. 65, § 46 repealed 7-30-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 3, relating to the purpose and declaration of intention of the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act, effective July 1, 1985.

7-30-4. Oil and gas conservation tax levied; collected by department; rate; interest owner's liability to state; Indian liability.

A. There is levied and shall be collected by the department a tax on all products that are severed and sold. The measure and rate of the tax shall be nineteen-hundredths percent of the taxable value of sold products. Every interest owner shall be liable for this tax to the extent of the owner's interest in the value of the products or to the extent of the owner's interest as may be measured by the value of the products. An Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian shall be liable for this tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

B. When the average price of west Texas intermediate crude in the previous quarter exceeds seventy dollars ($70.00) per barrel, an additional tax to that provided pursuant to Subsection A of this section is levied and shall be collected by the department on oil that is severed and sold in the ensuing quarter. The measure and rate of the total tax on oil shall be twenty-four hundredths percent of the taxable value of the sold product. Every interest owner shall be liable for this tax to the extent of the owner's interest in the value of the products or to the extent of the owner's interest as may be measured by the value of the products. An Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian shall be liable for this tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

The 2010 amendment, effective May 19, 2010, in Subsection A, in the second sentence, deleted "Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section"; deleted former Subsection B, which provided that if the unencumbered balance of the oil and gas reclamation fund equals or exceeds $2,500,000 the tax rate shall be eighteen-hundredths percent; deleted former Subsection C, which provided that if the unencumbered balance of the oil and gas reclamation fund is less than or equal to $500,000, the tax rate shall be nineteen-hundredths percent; deleted former Subsection D, which provided that the department shall notify taxpayers of changes in the tax rate; and added a new Subsection B.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, in Subsection B, increased the maximum amount to be held in the oil and gas reclamation fund from $1,150,000 to $2,500,000.

The 2003 amendment, effective July 1, 2003, inserted the exception near the beginning of Subsection A; rewrote Subsection B designating part of former Subsection B as present Subsection C and redesignating former Subsection C as Subsection D; and deleted the last phrase of Subsection C, concerning distribution to the oil and gas reclamation fund.

The 1996 amendment, effective May 15, 1996, made stylistic changes in Subsection A.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, substituted "department" for "division" in the catchline; in Subsection A substituted "department" for "division" in the first sentence, inserted "and rate" in the second sentence, and made minor stylistic changes in the third sentence; rewrote the first and second sentences of Subsection B; and designated the former third sentence of Subsection B as Subsection C.

7-30-5. Taxable value; method of determining.

A. To determine the taxable value of oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or any combination thereof, carbon dioxide, helium or non-hydrocarbon gases, there shall be deducted from the value of products:

- (1) royalties paid or due the United States or the state of New Mexico;
- (2) royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States; and
- (3) the reasonable expense of trucking any product from the production unit to the first place of market.

B. The taxable value of coal shall be the taxable value determined under Section 7-25-3 NMSA 1978, less royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States.

C. The taxable value of uranium shall be twenty-five percent of an amount equal to the difference between:

- (1) the taxable value determined under Section 7-25-3 NMSA 1978; and
- (2) royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States.

D. The taxable value of geothermal energy shall be the value at the point of first sale, less the cost of transporting it from the point of severance to the point of the first sale, less the royalties paid or due the United States or the state of New Mexico or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-20-5, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 5; 1975, ch. 289, § 16; 1977, ch. 102, § 2; 1980, ch. 97, § 5; 1985, ch. 65, § 32; 2005, ch. 130, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

7-30-6. Value may be determined by department; standard.

The department may determine the value of products severed from a production unit when:

- A. the operator and purchaser are affiliated persons;
- B. the sale and purchase of products is not an arm's length transaction; or when
- C. products are severed and removed from a production unit and a value as defined in this act is not established for such products.

The value determined by the department shall be commensurate with the actual price received for products of like quality, character and use which are severed in the same field or area.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-20-6, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 6; 1989, ch. 130, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, substituted "department" for "commission" in the section heading and throughout the section, and made minor stylistic changes.

Determination of value. — The statute does not mandate the way in which the department must calculate processing costs, whether by a comparable value or by some other method. Rather, the final value of natural gas calculated by the department must be commensurate with similar products. Chevron U.S.A., Inc. v. State ex rel. Taxation and Revenue Dep't, 2006-NMCA-050, 139 N.M. 498, 134 P.3d 785, cert. denied, 2006-NMCERT-005, 139 N.M. 567, 136 P.3d 568.

7-30-7. Price increase subject to approval of agency of United States of America, state of New Mexico or court; refund.

When an increase in the value of any product is subject to the approval of any agency of the United States of America or the state of New Mexico, or any court, the increased value shall be subject to this tax. In the event the increase in value is disapproved, either in whole or in part, then the amount of tax which has been paid on the disapproved part of the value shall be considered excess tax. Any person who has paid any such excess tax may apply for a refund of that excess tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

7-30-8. Products on which tax has been levied; regulation by department.

This tax shall not be levied more than once on the same product. Reporting of products on which this tax has been paid shall be subject to the regulation of the department.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-20-8, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 8; 1989, ch. 130, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, substituted "department" for "commission" in the section heading and in the second sentence.

7-30-9. Operator or purchaser to withhold interest owner's tax; department may require withholding of tax; tax withheld to be remitted to the state; operator or purchaser to be reimbursed.

A. Any operator making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

B. Any purchaser who, by express or implied agreement with the operator, makes a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit, shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

C. The department may require any purchaser making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit to withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

D. Any operator or purchaser who pays any tax due from an interest owner shall be entitled to reimbursement from the interest owner for the tax so paid, and may take credit for such amount from any monetary payment to the interest owner for the value of products.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-20-9, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 53, § 9; 1989, ch. 130, § 9.

7-30-10. Operator's report; tax remittance; additional information.

Each operator shall, in the form and manner required by the department, make a return to the department showing the total value, volume and kind of products sold from each production unit for each calendar month. All taxes due or to be remitted by the operator shall accompany this return. The return shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the second month after the calendar month for which the return is required. A uranium or a coal return shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs pursuant to Section 7-26-6 or 7-26-7 NMSA 1978. Any additional report or information the department may deem necessary for the proper administration of the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act may be required.

7-30-27. Advance payment required.

A. Any person required to make payment of tax pursuant to Section 7-30-10 or 7-30-11 NMSA 1978 shall make the advance payment required by this section.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "advance payment" means the payment required to be made by this section in addition to any oil and gas conservation tax, penalty or interest due; and

(2) "average tax" means the aggregate amount of tax, net of any refunds or credits, paid by a person during the twelve-month period ending March 31 pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act divided by the number of months during that period for which the person made payment.

C. Each year, prior to July 1, each person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act shall compute the average tax for the period ending March 31 of that year. The average tax calculated for a year shall be used during the twelve-month period beginning with July of that year and ending with June of the following year as the basis for making the advance payments required by Subsection D of this section.

D. Every month, beginning with July 1991, every person required to pay tax in a month pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act shall pay, in addition to any amount of tax, interest or penalty due, an advance payment in an amount equal to the applicable average tax, except:

(1) if the person is making a final return under the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act, no advance payment pursuant to this subsection is due for that return; and

(2) as provided in Subsection F of this section.

E. Every month, beginning with tax payments due in August 1991, every person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act may claim a credit equal to the amount of advance payment made in the previous month, except as provided in Subsection F of this section.

F. If, in any month, a person is not required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act, that person is not required to pay the advance payment and may not claim a credit pursuant to Subsection E of this section provided that, in any succeeding month when the person has liability under the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act, the person may claim a credit for any advance payment made and not credited.

G. In the event that the date by which a person is required to pay the tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act is accelerated to a date earlier than the twenty-fifth day of the second month following the month of production, the advance payment provision contained in this section is null and void and any money held as advance payments shall be credited to the taxpayers' accounts.

7-31-2. Definitions.

As used in the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act:

A. "commission", "department" or "division" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "production unit" means a unit of property designated by the department from which products of common ownership are severed;

C. "severance" means the taking from the soil of any product in any manner whatsoever;

D. "value" means the actual price received from products at the production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act;

E. "product" or "products" means oil, including crude, slop or skim oil and condensate; natural gas; liquid hydrocarbon, including ethane, propane, isobutene, normal butane and pentanes plus, individually or any combination thereof; and non-hydrocarbon gases, including carbon dioxide and helium;

F. "operator" means any person:

- (1) engaged in the severance of products from a production unit; or
- (2) owning an interest in any product at the time of severance who receives a portion or all of such product for the person's interest;

G. "purchaser" means a person who is the first purchaser of a product after severance from a production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act;

H. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association, limited liability company or other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number;

I. "interest owner" means a person owning an entire or fractional interest of whatsoever kind or nature in the products at the time of severance from a production unit or who has a right to a monetary payment that is determined by the value of such products;

J. "stripper well property" means a crude oil or natural gas producing property that is assigned a single production unit number by the department and is certified by the oil conservation division of the energy, minerals and natural resources department pursuant to the Natural Gas and Crude Oil Production Incentive Act [7-29B-1 to 7-29B-6 NMSA 1978] to have produced in the preceding calendar year:

(1) if a crude oil producing property, an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day;

(2) if a natural gas producing property, an average daily production of less than sixty thousand cubic feet of natural gas per eligible well per day; or

(3) if a property with wells that produce both crude oil and natural gas, an average daily production of less than ten barrels of oil per eligible well per day, as determined by converting the volume of natural gas produced by the well to barrels of oil by using a ratio of six thousand cubic feet to one barrel of oil;

K. "average annual taxable value" means as applicable:

(1) the average of the taxable value per one thousand cubic feet, determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, of all natural gas produced in New Mexico for the specified calendar year as determined by the department; or

(2) the average of the taxable value per barrel, determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, of all oil produced in New Mexico for the specified calendar year as determined by the department;

L. "tax" means the oil and gas emergency school tax; and

M. "volume" means the quantity of product severed reported using:

(1) oil, condensate and slop oil in barrels; and

(2) natural gas, liquid hydrocarbons, helium and carbon dioxide in thousand cubic feet at a pressure base of fifteen and twenty-five thousandths pounds per square inch.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-21-2, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 54, § 2; 1977, ch. 249, § 55; 1980, ch. 97, § 6; 1986, ch. 20, § 100; 1993, ch. 360, § 1; 1999, ch. 256, § 8; 2005, ch. 130, § 7; 2021, ch. 65, § 32.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, defined "volume" and revised the definition of "product", as used in the Oil and Gas Conservation Tax Act; in Subsection E, after "means oil", deleted "natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or any combination thereof, carbon dioxide, helium or a non-hydrocarbon gas" and added the remainder of the subsection; and added Subsection M.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection E, defined "product" to include helium or non-hydrocarbon gas.

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, added Subsections J and K, and redesignated former Subsection J as Subsection L.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "limited liability company" in Subsection H; and added Subsection J, making related grammatical changes.

7-31-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985, ch. 65, § 46 repealed 7-31-3 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1975, ch. 133, § 3, relating to the purpose and declaration of intention of the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act, effective July 1, 1985.

7-31-4. Privilege tax levied; collected by department; rate; interest owner's liability to state; Indian liability.

A. There is levied and shall be collected by the department a privilege tax on the business of every person severing products in this state. The measure of the tax shall be:

(1) on oil and on oil and other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead, except as provided in Paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection, three and fifteen hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978;

(2) on carbon dioxide, helium and non-hydrocarbon gases, three and fifteen hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978;

(3) on natural gas, except as provided in Paragraphs (6) and (7) of this subsection, four percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978;

(4) on the oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a stripper well property, one and fifty-eight hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of oil was equal to or less than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per barrel in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed;

(5) on the oil and on other liquid hydrocarbons removed from natural gas at or near the wellhead from a stripper well property, two and thirty-six hundredths percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of oil was greater than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per barrel but not more than eighteen dollars ($18.00) per barrel in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed;

(6) on the natural gas removed from a stripper well property, two percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of natural gas was equal to or less than one dollar fifteen cents ($1.15) per thousand cubic feet in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed; and

(7) on the natural gas removed from a stripper well property, three percent of the taxable value determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, provided that the average annual taxable value of natural gas was greater than one dollar fifteen cents ($1.15) per thousand cubic feet but not more than one dollar thirty-five cents ($1.35) per thousand cubic feet in the calendar year preceding July 1 of the fiscal year in which the tax rate is to be imposed.

B. Every interest owner, for the purpose of levying this tax, is deemed to be in the business of severing products and is liable for this tax to the extent of his interest in the value of the products or to the extent of his interest as may be measured by the value of the products.

C. Any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian is liable for this tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection A(2), imposed the privilege tax on helium and non-hydrocarbon gases.

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, inserted "except as provided in Paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection" in Subsection A(1), substituted "fifteen hundredths" for "fifteen one-hundredths" and "pursuant to" for "under" in Subsections A(1) and A(2), inserted "except as provided in Paragraphs (6) and (7) of this subsection" in Subsection A(3); added Subsections (A)(4) through A(7), and made minor stylistic changes.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted the subsection designations; substituted "department" for "division" in the catchline and in the first sentence of Subsection A; deleted "three and fifteen one-hundredths percent of the taxable value of such products" at the end of the introductory paragraph of Subsection A; and added paragraphs (1) to (3) of Subsection A.

Indian right to tax oil production not preempted by congress. — Although it granted to the states the right to tax the production of oil and gas on Indian reservations, congress did not preempt similar tribal taxation. *Merrion v. Non-Indian producers operating on reservations. — Oil and gas taxes imposed by the state against a non-Indian producer whose operations are located on an Indian reservation do not constitute an impermissible burden on interstate commerce, were not preempted by federal laws promoting tribal economic self-sufficiency, and may be imposed on the same on-reservation production of oil and gas by non-Indian lessees as is subject to the tribe's own severance tax. *Cotton Petroleum v. 7-31-5. Taxable value; method of determining.

To determine the taxable value there shall be deducted from the value of products:

- A. royalties paid or due the United States or the state of New Mexico;
- B. royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States of America; and
- C. the reasonable expense of trucking any product from the production unit to the first place of market.

7-31-6. Value may be determined by commission; standard.

The commission may determine the value of products severed from a production unit when:

- A. the operator and purchaser are affiliated persons; or when
- B. the sale and purchase of products is not an arm's length transaction; or when
- C. products are severed and removed from a production unit and a value as defined in this act is not established for such products.

The value determined by the commission shall be commensurate with the actual price received for products of like quality, character and use which are severed in the same field or area.

7-31-7. Price increase subject to approval of agency of United States of America, state of New Mexico or court; refund.

When an increase in the value of any product is subject to the approval of any agency of the United States of America or the state of New Mexico or any court, the increased value shall be subject to this tax. In the event the increase in value is disapproved, either in whole or in part, then the amount of tax which has been paid on the disapproved part of the value shall be considered excess tax. Any person who has paid any such excess tax may apply for a refund of that excess tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

7-31-9. Operator or purchaser to withhold interest owner's tax; commission may require withholding of tax; tax withheld to be remitted to the state; operator or purchaser to be reimbursed.

Any operator making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from any interest owner.

Any purchaser, who, by express or implied agreement with the operator, makes a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit, shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

The commission may require any purchaser making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit to withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

Any operator or purchaser who pays any tax due from an interest owner shall be entitled to reimbursement from the interest owner for the tax so paid, and may take credit for such amount from any monetary payment to the interest owner for the value of products.

7-31-26. Advance payment required.

A. Any person required to make payment of tax pursuant to Section 7-31-10 or 7-31-11 NMSA 1978 shall make the advance payment required by this section.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "advance payment" means the payment required to be made by this section in addition to any oil and gas emergency school tax, penalty or interest due; and

(2) "average tax" means the aggregate amount of tax, net of any refunds or credits, paid by a person during the twelve-month period ending March 31, pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act divided by the number of months during that period for which the person made payment.

C. Each year, prior to July 1, each person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act shall compute the average tax for the period ending March 31 of that year. The average tax calculated for a year shall be used during the twelve-month period beginning with July of that year and ending with June of the following year as the basis for making the advance payments required by Subsection D of this section.

D. Every month, beginning with July 1991, every person required to pay tax in a month pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act shall pay, in addition to any amount of tax, interest or penalty due, an advance payment in an amount equal to the applicable average tax, except:

(1) if the person is making a final return under the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act, no advance payment pursuant to this subsection is due for that return; and

(2) as provided in Subsection F of this section.

E. Every month, beginning with tax payments in August 1991, every person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act may claim a credit equal to the amount of advance payment made in the previous month, except as provided in Subsection F of this section.

F. If, in any month, a person is not required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act, that person is not required to pay the advance payment and may not claim a credit pursuant to Subsection E of this section provided that, in any succeeding month when the person has liability under the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act, the person may claim a credit for any advance payment made and not credited.

G. In the event that the date by which a person is required to pay the tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Emergency School Tax Act is accelerated to a date earlier than the twenty-fifth day of the second month following the month of production, the advance payment provision contained in this section is null and void and any money held as advance payments shall be credited to the taxpayers' accounts.

History: Laws 1991, ch. 9, § 38.

7-31-27. Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax credit.

A. A person who is liable for the payment of the oil and gas emergency school tax imposed on products severed from Jicarilla Apache tribal land or imposed on the privilege of severing products from Jicarilla Apache tribal land shall be entitled to a credit to be computed pursuant to this section and to be deducted from the payment of those taxes with respect to products from qualifying wells. The credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax credit".

B. As used in this section:

(1) "Jicarilla Apache tribal land" means land within the state of New Mexico that on March 1, 2002 was within the exterior boundaries of a Jicarilla Apache reservation or was held in trust by the United States for the Jicarilla Apache Nation;

(2) "product" means oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or in combination, or carbon dioxide;

(3) "qualifying well" means a well on Jicarilla Apache tribal land; and

(4) "Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax" means a tax imposed after the effective date of this section by the Jicarilla Apache Nation that is exclusively dedicated to fund capital improvement projects on Jicarilla Apache tribal land and that is not available to finance the construction of buildings used for commercial activity.

C. The Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax credit shall be determined separately for each calendar month and shall be equal to the lesser of:

(1) the amount of the Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax imposed by the Jicarilla Apache Nation upon the products severed from qualifying wells or upon the privilege of severing products from qualifying wells; or

(2) seven-tenths of one percent of the taxable value of the products severed from qualifying wells as determined by applicable state law.

D. A credit pursuant to this section shall be allowed by the taxation and revenue department only if the Jicarilla Apache Nation has entered into a cooperative agreement with the secretary of taxation and revenue for the exchange of information necessary for the administration of the Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax credit.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the amount of credit taken and allowed shall be applied against the amount of the oil and gas emergency school tax due with respect to the products or severance of products taxed.

F. The credit provided by this section shall be in addition to any credit claimed by the taxpayer or allowed by the taxation and revenue department pursuant to Section 7-29C-1 NMSA 1978 with respect to the same products or the severance of the same products. A Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax that qualifies for the credit provided by this section shall constitute an increase in tribal taxes for purposes of Subsection F of Section 7-29C-1 NMSA 1978 only to the extent that it exceeds the amount identified in Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of this section.

G. The taxation and revenue department shall administer and interpret the provisions of this section in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Administration Act [Chapter 7, Article 1 NMSA 1978].

H. The burden of showing entitlement to a credit authorized by this section is on the taxpayer claiming it, and the taxpayer shall furnish to the appropriate tax collecting agency, in a manner determined by the taxation and revenue department, proof of payment of the Jicarilla Apache tribal capital improvements tax on which the credit is based.

7-32-2. Definitions.

As used in the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act:

A. "commission", "department" or "division" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "production unit" means a unit of property designated by the department from which products of common ownership are severed;

C. "severance" means the taking from the soil any product in any manner whatsoever;

D. "value" means the actual price received for products at the production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act;

E. "product" or "products" means oil, including crude, slop or skim oil and condensate; natural gas; liquid hydrocarbon, including ethane, propane, isobutene, normal butane and pentanes plus, individually or any combination thereof; and non-hydrocarbon gases, including carbon dioxide and helium;

F. "operator" means any person:

(1) engaged in the severance of products from a production unit; or

(2) owning an interest in any product at the time of severance who receives a portion or all of such product for the person's interest;

G. "purchaser" means a person who is the first purchaser of a product after severance from a production unit, except as otherwise provided in the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act;

H. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association or other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number;

I. "interest owner" means a person owning an entire or fractional interest of whatsoever kind or nature in the products at the time of severance from a production unit or who has a right to a monetary payment that is determined by the value of such products;

J. "assessed value" means the value against which tax rates are applied;

K. "tax" means the oil and gas ad valorem production tax; and

L. "volume" means the quantity of product severed reported using:

(1) oil, condensate and slop oil in barrels; and

(2) natural gas, liquid hydrocarbons, helium and carbon dioxide in thousand cubic feet at a pressure base of fifteen and twenty-five thousandths pounds per square inch.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-2, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 2; 1977, ch. 249, § 56; 1980, ch. 97, § 7; 1986, ch. 20, § 101; 2005, ch. 130, § 9; 2021, ch. 65, § 33.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, defined "volume" and revised the definition of "product", as used in the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act; in Subsection E, after "means oil", deleted "natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or any combination thereof, carbon dioxide, helium or a non-hydrocarbon gas" and added the remainder of the subsection; and added Subsection L.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection E, defined "product" to include helium or non-hydrocarbon gas; and Subsection K, defined "tax" to mean the oil and gas ad valorem production tax.

7-32-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985, ch. 65, § 46 repealed 7-32-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 3, relating to the purpose and declaration of intention of the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act, effective July 1, 1985.

7-32-4. Ad valorem tax levied; collected by division; rate; interest owner's liability to state; Indian liability.

There is levied and shall be collected by the division an ad valorem tax on the assessed value of products which are severed and sold from each production unit at the rate certified to the division by the department of finance and administration under the provisions of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978. Such rate shall be levied for each month following its certification and shall be levied monthly thereafter until a new rate is certified. Every interest owner shall be liable for this tax to the extent of his interest in the value of such products, or to the extent of his interest as may be measured by the value of such products. Provided, any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian shall be liable for this tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-4, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 4; 1981, ch. 37, § 58.

ANNOTATIONS

Law reviews. — For article, "Nonneutral Features of Energy Taxation," see 20 Nat. Resources J. 853 (1980).

7-32-5. Assessed value; method of determining.

A. The taxable value of products is an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent of the value of products after deducting:

- (1) royalties paid or due the United States or the state of New Mexico;
- (2) royalties paid or due any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian that is a ward of the United States; and
- (3) the reasonable expense of trucking any product from the production unit to the first place of market.

B. The assessed value of products shall be determined by applying the uniform assessment ratio to the taxable value of products. The method prescribed by this section shall be the exclusive method for determining the assessed value of products. The tax imposed by Section 7-32-4 NMSA 1978 of the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act, together with the tax imposed by Section 7-34-4 NMSA 1978 of the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978], shall be the full and exclusive measure of ad valorem tax liability on the interests of all persons, including the operator and interest owners, in the production unit. Any other ad valorem tax on the production unit or on products severed therefrom is void.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-5, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 5; 1972, ch. 59, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For exclusive ad valorem taxes on equipment, see 7-34-5 NMSA 1978.

7-32-6. Value may be determined by commission; standard.

The commission may determine the value of products severed from a production unit when:

- A. the operator and purchaser are affiliated persons; or when
- B. the sale and purchase of products is not an arm's length transaction; or when
- C. products are severed and removed from a production unit and a value as defined in this act is not established for such products.

The value determined by the commission shall be commensurate with the actual price received for products of like quality, character and use which are severed in the same field or area.

7-32-7. Price increase subject to approval of agency of United States of America, state of New Mexico or court; refund.

When an increase in the value of any product is subject to the approval of any agency of the United States of America or the state of New Mexico or any court, the increased value shall be subject to this tax. In the event the increase in value is disapproved, either in whole or in part, then the amount of tax which has been paid on the disapproved part of the value shall be considered excess tax. Any person who has paid any such excess tax may apply for a refund of that excess tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-7, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 7; 1985, ch. 65, § 37.

7-32-8. Products on which tax has been levied; regulation by commission.

This tax shall not be levied more than once on the same product. Reporting of products on which this tax has been paid shall be subject to the regulation of the commission.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-8, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 8.

7-32-9. Operator or purchaser to withhold interest owner's tax; commission may require withholding of tax; tax withheld to be remitted to the state; operator or purchaser to be reimbursed.

Any operator making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from any interest owner.

Any purchaser, who, by express or implied agreement with the operator, makes a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit, shall withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

The commission may require any purchaser making a monetary payment to an interest owner for his portion of the value of products from a production unit to withhold from such payment the amount of tax due from the interest owner.

Any operator or purchaser who pays any tax due from an interest owner shall be entitled to reimbursement from the interest owner for the tax so paid, and may take credit for such amount from any monetary payment to the interest owner for the value of products.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-9, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For meaning of "commission", see 7-32-2A NMSA 1978.

7-32-10. Operator's report; tax remittance; additional information.

Each operator shall in the form and manner required by the division make a return to the division showing the total value, volume and kind of products sold from each production unit for each calendar month. All taxes due or to be remitted by the operator shall accompany this return. The return shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the second month after the calendar month for which the return is required. Any additional report or information the division may deem necessary for the proper administration of the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act may be required.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-22-10, enacted by Laws 1959, ch. 55, § 10; 1986, ch. 5, § 8.

7-32-11. Purchaser's report; tax remittance; additional information.

Each purchaser shall in the form and manner required by the division make a return to the division showing the total value, volume and kind of products purchased by him from each production unit for each calendar month. All taxes due or to be remitted by the purchaser shall accompany this return. The return shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the second month after the calendar month for which the return is required. Any additional reports or information the division may deem necessary for the proper administration of the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act may be required.

7-32-13. Division shall prepare schedules and forward to assessors; assessor shall deliver schedule to treasurer.

By the last day of each month, the division shall prepare and certify a schedule to the respective counties in which production units are located. The schedules shall reflect the accounting of the preceding month and shall list each production unit, and by production unit show the assessed value, taxing district, extension of tax levies, tax payments and other information as the director of the division deems appropriate. The schedules shall be forwarded to the assessors of the respective counties who upon receipt thereof shall accept them as the assessment of property as required in the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act and shall deliver them to the county treasurer as the oil and gas ad valorem schedule for the county.

7-32-14. Monthly report to department of finance and administration; remittance to state and county treasurers; state and county treasurers may distribute funds.

A. By the last day of each month, the department shall prepare and certify a report to the secretary of finance and administration. The report shall be for the preceding month and shall show the amount of taxes collected and distributed to the oil and gas production tax fund, the amount due the state and each taxing district imposing a tax as reflected by the schedules prepared pursuant to Section 7-32-13 NMSA 1978 and any other information required by the secretary of finance and administration. The secretary of finance and administration shall forthwith remit the appropriate amounts from the oil and gas production tax fund to the state treasurer and the respective county treasurers. The state treasurer and the county treasurers shall, upon receipt of such remittance, make appropriate distribution of the proceeds thereof, except as provided in Subsection B of this section.

B. If the board of county commissioners notifies the secretary of finance and administration that the county elects not to distribute the proceeds of the oil and gas ad valorem production tax due the municipalities, community college districts and school districts within the county, the secretary of finance and administration shall pay amounts due directly to municipalities, community college districts and school districts within the county.

7-32-28. Advance payment required.

A. Any person required to make payment of tax pursuant to Section 7-32-10 or 7-32-11 NMSA 1978 shall make the advance payment required by this section.

B. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "advance payment" means the payment required to be made by this section in addition to any oil and gas ad valorem production tax, penalty or interest due; and

(2) "average tax" means the aggregate amount of tax, net of any refunds or credits, paid by a person during the twelve-month period ending March 31 pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act divided by the number of months during that period for which the person made payment.

C. Each year, prior to July 1, each person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act shall compute the average tax for the period ending March 31 of that year. The average tax calculated for a year shall be used during the twelve-month period beginning with July of that year and ending with June of the following year as the basis for making the advance payments required by Subsection D of this section.

D. Every month, beginning with July 1991, every person required to pay tax in a month pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act shall pay, in addition to any amount of tax, interest or penalty due, an advance payment in an amount equal to the applicable average tax, except:

(1) if the person is making a final return under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act, no advance payment pursuant to this subsection is due for that return; and

(2) as provided in Subsection F of this section.

E. Every month, beginning with tax payments due in August 1991, every person required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act may claim a credit equal to the amount of advance payment made in the previous month, except as provided in Subsection F of this section.

F. If, in any month, a person is not required to pay tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act, that person is not required to pay the advance payment and may not claim a credit pursuant to Subsection E of this section provided that, in any succeeding month when the person has liability under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act, the person may claim a credit for any advance payment made and not credited.

G. In the event that the date by which a person is required to pay the tax pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act is accelerated to a date earlier than the twenty-fifth day of the second month following the month of production, the advance payment provision contained in this section is null and void and any money held as advance payments shall be credited to the taxpayers' accounts.

ARTICLE 33

Natural Gas Processors Tax

7-33-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 33 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Natural Gas Processors Tax Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-1, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 1; 1970, ch. 13, § 2; 1985, ch. 65, § 41.

7-33-2. Definitions.

As used in the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act:

A. "average annual taxable value" means the average of the taxable value per mcf, determined pursuant to Section 7-31-5 NMSA 1978, of all natural gas produced in New Mexico for the specified calendar year as determined by the department;

B. "department" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

C. "fiscal year" means the period starting July 1 and ending June 30 of the succeeding calendar year;

D. "mcf" means one thousand cubic feet;

E. "mmbtu" means one million British thermal units;

F. "natural gas" means any hydrocarbon that at atmospheric conditions of temperature and pressure is in a gaseous state, and includes non-hydrocarbon gases that are in combination with hydrocarbon gases;

G. "natural gas processing plant" means a facility used to extract liquid hydrocarbons and non-hydrocarbon gaseous or liquid substances, individually or in any combination, from natural gas, but does not include a facility that refines or processes oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbons or that extracts substances from natural gas through a field or lease operation;

H. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association or other group or combination acting as a unit;

I. "processor" means a person who operates a natural gas processing plant; and

J. "tax" means the natural gas processors tax.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-2, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 2; 1970, ch. 13, § 3; 1977, ch. 249, § 57; 1986, ch. 20, § 102; 1998, ch. 102, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective January 1, 1999, rewrote the section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

Removal of carbon dioxide was not a field or lease operation. — Where taxpayer, which was a producer of coal seam gas, had carbon dioxide removed from the gas at a processing plant to make the gas marketable or acceptable to interstate pipelines, the taxpayer was subject to the natural gas processors tax, because the removal of carbon dioxide constituted a processing operation that was not exempt as a field or lease operation. Amoco Production Co. v. N.M. Taxation and Revenue Dep't, 2003-NMCA-092, 134 N.M. 162, 74 P.3d 96.

State courts may determine if additional tax was imposed increasing gas price. — Whether an additional tax was imposed on gas company's sale of natural gas to other company so as to provide contractual basis for increased price is within state courts' jurisdiction. Pan Am. Petroleum Corp. v. El Paso Natural Gas Co., 1970-NMSC-156, 82 N.M. 193, 477 P.2d 827.

7-33-3. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1989, ch. 115, § 6B repealed 7-33-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 3, relating to purpose of Natural Gas Processors Tax Act, effective July 1, 1989.

7-33-4. Privilege tax levied; collected by department; rate.

A. There is levied and shall be collected by the department a privilege tax on processors for the privilege of operating a natural gas processing plant in New Mexico. This tax may be referred to as the "natural gas processors tax".

B. The tax shall be imposed on the amount of mmbtus of natural gas delivered to the processor at the inlet of the natural gas processing plant after subtracting the mmbtu deductions authorized in Subsection E of this section. The tax shall be imposed at the rate per mmbtu determined in Subsection C or D of this section, as applicable.

C. The tax rate for the six-month period beginning on January 1, 1999 shall be determined by multiplying the rate of sixty-five hundredths of one cent ($.0065) per mmbtu by a fraction, the numerator of which is the annual average taxable value per mcf of natural gas produced in New Mexico during the 1997 calendar year and the denominator of which is one dollar thirty-three cents ($1.33) per mcf. The resulting tax rate shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent per mmbtu.

D. The tax rate for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1999 shall be determined by multiplying the rate of sixty-five hundredths of one cent ($.0065) per mmbtu by a fraction, the numerator of which is the annual average taxable value per mcf of natural gas produced in New Mexico during the preceding calendar year and the denominator of which is one dollar thirty-three cents ($1.33) per mcf. The resulting tax rate shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent per mmbtu.

E. A processor may deduct from the amount of mmbtus of natural gas subject to the tax the mmbtus of natural gas that are:

- (1) used for natural gas processing by the processor;
- (2) returned to the lease from which it is produced;
- (3) legally flared by the processor; or
- (4) lost as a result of natural gas processing plant malfunctions or other incidences of force majeure.

F. On or before June 15, 1999 and June 15 of each succeeding year, the department shall inform each processor in writing of the tax rate applicable for the succeeding fiscal year.

G. Any Indian nation, tribe or pueblo or Indian is liable for the tax to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-4, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 4; 1970, ch. 13, § 5; 1984, ch. 2, § 9; 1998, ch. 102, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective January 1, 1999, deleted "oil and gas accounting division of the taxation and revenue" from the section heading and rewrote the section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

"Interest owners" liable under former section. — Under the version of this section in effect prior to its 1998 amendment, the "interest owner" of the natural gas was liable for the privilege tax on processing natural gas. Blackwood & Nichols Co. v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1998-NMCA-113, 125 N.M. 576, 964 P.2d 137, cert. denied, 126 N.M. 107, 967 P.2d 447 (decided under prior law).

Marketable condition rule does not apply in New Mexico. — Where Appellants, several living trusts that held royalty interests on oil and gas leases (Trusts), brought a putative class action against Defendant, the owner and operator of natural gas wells on the leases, claiming that Defendant was systematically underpaying royalties by improperly deducting from their royalties their proportionate share of the costs incurred to place the gas produced from the wells in a marketable condition (post-production costs), the district court did not err in dismissing the Trusts' claims, because under New Mexico law, Defendant had a duty to diligently market the gas for the benefit of the Trusts but that duty did not prohibit it from deducting from royalty payments the Trusts' proportionate share of post-production costs, those costs necessary to make the gas marketable. The marketable condition rule, which requires the lessor to market gas, but to do so solely at its expense, does not apply in New Mexico. Anderson Living Trust v. Energen Resources Corp., 886 F.3d 826 (10th Cir. 2018).

Third-party gas processors may pass tax onto owner and operator of natural gas well who may in turn pass tax onto interest owners. — Where Appellants, several living trusts that held royalty interests on oil and gas leases (Trusts), brought a putative class action against Defendant, the owner and operator of natural gas wells on the leases, claiming that Defendant was systematically underpaying royalties by improperly deducting from their royalties a privilege tax the State of New Mexico imposes on natural gas processors (the natural gas processors tax), the district court did not err in granting Defendant's motion for summary judgment, because Subsection A of this section places the responsibility for paying the tax on natural gas processors, but there is nothing in this section that prohibits the processors from passing the tax onto Defendant, the owner and operator of the gas wells, or from Defendant passing the tax onto the interest owners. Anderson Living Trust v. Energen Resources Corp., 886 F.3d 826 (10th Cir. 2018).

7-33-5. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1998, ch. 102, § 7, repealed 7-33-5 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 5, relating to valuing the products of a processor, effective January 1, 1999. For provisions of former section, see the 1997 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-33-6. Refund.

Any person who has overpaid the tax may apply for a refund of that overpayment in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1-26 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-6, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 6; 1985, ch. 65, § 42; 1998, ch. 102, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective January 1, 1999, deleted "Price increase subject to approval of agency of United States of America, state of New Mexico or court" in the section heading, deleted the first two sentences of the section pertaining to product value being subject to tax, and in the last sentence substituted "overpaid the tax" for "paid any such excess tax" and "overpayment" for "excess tax".

7-33-7. Natural gas on which tax has been levied; regulation by department.

The tax shall not be levied more than once on the same natural gas. Reporting of natural gas on which the tax has been paid is subject to the regulation of the department.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-7, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 7; 1998, ch. 102, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective January 1, 1999, substituted "Natural gas" for "Products" and "department" for "commission" in the section heading; substituted "natural gas" for "product" at the end of the first sentence; in the last sentence substituted "natural gas" for "products" and "department" for "commission", and made a minor stylistic change.

7-33-8. Tax return; tax remittance; additional information.

A. Each processor shall submit a return monthly to the department in the form and manner required by the department showing for the month the total mmbtus of natural gas received by the processor at the inlet of the natural gas processing plant and the total mmbtus of natural gas deducted pursuant to the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act. All tax due or to be remitted by the processor shall accompany the return.

B. The return required by this section shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month after the calendar month for which the return is required.

C. The department may require additional reports or information as necessary for the proper administration of the Natural Gas Processors Tax Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-23-8, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 179, § 8; 1970, ch. 13, § 7; 1998, ch. 102, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1998 amendment, effective January 1, 1999, substituted "return" for "report" in the section heading and rewrote the section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

"Interest owners" liable under former article. — Under the version of this article in effect prior to the 1998 amendment of 7-33-4 NMSA 1978, the "interest owner" of the natural gas was liable for the privilege tax on processing natural gas. *Blackwood & Nichols Co. v. ARTICLE 34

Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax

7-34-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-1, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 1; 1985, ch. 65, § 43.

ANNOTATIONS

Law reviews. — For article, "New Mexico's Effort at Rational Taxation of Hard-Minerals Extraction," see 10 Nat. Resources J. 415 (1970).

For note, "Tribal Severance Taxes - Outside the Purview of the Commerce Clause," see 21 Nat. Resources J. 405 (1981).

7-34-2. Definitions.

As used in the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act:

A. "commission", "department" or "division" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

B. "person" means any individual, estate, trust, receiver, business trust, corporation, firm, copartnership, cooperative, joint venture, association or other group or combination acting as a unit;

C. "operator" means any person engaged in the severance of products from a production unit;

D. "product" means oil, natural gas or liquid hydrocarbon, individually or any combination thereof, carbon dioxide, helium or a non-hydrocarbon gas;

E. "severance" means taking any product from the soil in any manner;

F. "production unit" means a unit of property designated by the department from which products of common ownership are severed;

G. "equipment" means wells and nonmobile equipment used at a production unit in connection with severance, treatment or storage of production unit products;

H. "value" means the actual price received for products at the production unit as established under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978];

I. "assessed value" means the value against which tax rates are applied; and

J. "tax" means the oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-2, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 2; 1977, ch. 249, § 58; 1980, ch. 97, § 8; 1986, ch. 20, § 103; 2005, ch. 130, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection D, defined "product" to include helium or non-hydrocarbon gas; and in Subsection J, defined "tax" to mean the oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax.

7-34-3. Method of determining assessed value.

A. Annually the commission shall compute the value of products of each production unit for the previous calendar year.

B. The taxable value of equipment of each production unit is an amount equal to twenty-seven percent of the value of products of each production unit.

C. The assessed value of equipment of each production unit shall be determined by applying the uniform assessment ratio to the taxable value of equipment of each production unit.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-3, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 3; 1972, ch. 60, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For meaning of "commission", see 7-34-2A NMSA 1978.

7-34-4. Ad valorem tax levied.

An ad valorem tax is levied on the assessed value of the equipment at each production unit. The tax shall be at the rate certified to the division by the department of finance and administration under the provisions of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-4, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 4; 1981, ch. 37, § 59.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For meaning of "commission", see 7-34-2A NMSA 1978.

Indian right to tax oil production not preempted by congress. — Although it granted to the states the right to tax the production of oil and gas on Indian reservations, congress did not preempt similar tribal taxation. *Merrion v. 7-34-5. Oil and gas production equipment ad valorem tax to be exclusive measure of ad valorem tax liability.

The tax levied by Section 7-34-4 NMSA 1978 shall be the full and exclusive measure of ad valorem tax liability for equipment used at a production unit for the calendar year 1969 and all subsequent years. Any other ad valorem tax on equipment used at a production unit is void.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-5, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 5; 1985, ch. 65, § 44.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For taxes being exclusive of any other ad valorem taxes, see 7-32-5 NMSA 1978.

7-34-6. Tax statement; tax due date.

Annually the commission shall compute the assessed value of equipment for each production unit and extend the applicable rates against the assessed value to determine the amount of tax due. The commission shall prepare a tax statement for each production unit showing the production unit identification, the taxing district in which it is located, calendar-year value, assessed value, district rates and the amount of tax due. The tax statement shall be sent to the operator on or before October 15th and payment shall be made to the commission on or before November 30.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-6, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For meaning of "commission", see 7-34-2A NMSA 1978.

7-34-7. Commission shall report to county; tax roll.

On or before December 30, the commission shall deliver a report to each county in which production units are located, identifying each production unit, the taxing district in which it is located, the value, assessed value, district rates and the amount of tax paid.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-24-7, enacted by Laws 1969, ch. 119, § 7.

7-34-9. Monthly report to department of finance and administration; remittances to state and county treasurers; state and county treasurers may distribute funds.

A. By the last day of each month, the department shall prepare and certify a report to the secretary of finance and administration. The report shall be for the preceding month and shall show the amount of taxes distributed to the oil and gas equipment tax fund, the amount due the state and each taxing district imposing a tax and any other information required by the secretary of finance and administration. The secretary of finance and administration shall forthwith remit the appropriate amounts from the oil and gas equipment tax fund to the state treasurer and the county treasurers who shall make the appropriate distribution, except as provided in Subsection B of this section.

B. If the board of county commissioners notifies the secretary of finance and administration that the county elects not to distribute the proceeds of the oil and gas ad valorem production equipment tax due the municipalities, community college districts and school districts in the county, the secretary of finance and administration shall pay amounts due directly to municipalities, community college districts and school districts within the county.

7-35-2. Definitions.

As used in the Property Tax Code:

A. "abandoned real property" means real property:

(1) that is part of a subdivision where the subdivision has a minimum of five thousand lots in delinquency on the department's delinquent property tax list as prepared by the appropriate county treasurer pursuant to Section 7-38-61 NMSA 1978 as of January 1, 2019;

(2) of which the subdivided lots are vacant;

(3) that is part of a subdivision plotted on or before 1980;

(4) the property taxes, penalties and interest of which are delinquent for at least ten years; and

(5) that does not include property with existing homes, businesses or other habitable structures;

B. "department" or "division" means the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

C. "director" means the secretary;

D. "livestock" means cattle, buffalo, horses, mules, sheep, goats, swine, ratites and other domestic animals useful to humans;

E. "manufactured home" means a manufactured home as that term is defined in Section 66-1-4.11 NMSA 1978;

F. "net taxable value" means the value of property upon which the tax is imposed and is determined by deducting from taxable value the amount of any exemption authorized by the Property Tax Code;

G. "nonresidential property" means property that is not residential property;

H. "owner" means the person in whom is vested any title to property;

I. "person" means an individual or any other legal entity;

J. "property" means tangible property, real or personal;

K. "residential property" means property consisting of one or more dwellings together with appurtenant structures, the land underlying both the dwellings and the appurtenant structures and a quantity of land reasonably necessary for parking and other uses that facilitate the use of the dwellings and appurtenant structures. As used in this subsection, "dwellings" includes both manufactured homes and other structures when used primarily for permanent human habitation, but the term does not include structures when used primarily for temporary or transient human habitation such as hotels, motels and similar structures;

L. "secretary" means the secretary of taxation and revenue and, except for purposes of Section 7-35-6 NMSA 1978 and Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection B of Section 9-11-6.2 NMSA 1978, also includes the deputy secretary or a division director or deputy division director delegated by the secretary;

M. "tax" means the property tax imposed under the Property Tax Code;

N. "taxable value" means the value of property determined by applying the tax ratio to the value of the property determined for property taxation purposes;

O. "tax rate" means the rate of the tax expressed in terms of dollars per thousand dollars of net taxable value of property;

P. "tax ratio" means the percentage established under the Property Tax Code that is applied to the value of property determined for property taxation purposes in order to derive taxable value; and

Q. "tax year" means the calendar year.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-28-2, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 2; 1977, ch. 249, § 60; 1981, ch. 37, § 60; 1985, ch. 109, § 1; 1986, ch. 20, § 104; 1991, ch. 166, § 1; 1993, ch. 39, § 1; 1994, ch. 9, § 1; 1994, ch. 9, § 2; 2018, ch. 50, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective May 16, 2018, defined "abandoned real property" as used in the Property Tax Code; added a new Subsection A and redesignated former Subsections A through P as Subsections B through Q, respectively; in Subsection D, after "useful to", changed "man" to "humans"; and in Subsection L, after "Subsection B of Section", deleted "7-38-90" and added "9-11-6.2".

The second 1994 amendment, effective January 1, 2001, in Subsection C, inserted "buffalo" and "ratites", and deleted "excluding ratites" at the end.

The first 1994 amendment, effective February 15, 1994, in Subsection C, inserted "buffalo", deleted "ratites" following "swine" and added "excluding ratites" at the end.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, inserted "ratites" in Subsection C.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, deleted "or, when delegated authority by the secretary, the director of the property tax division of the department" at the end of Subsection B; added Subsection D; redesignated former Subsections D to O as Subsections E to P; deleted "as defined in Section 66-1-4 NMSA 1978" following "manufactured homes" near the beginning of Subsection J; and added the language beginning "and, except for" at the end of Subsection K.

The property tax division's conclusion that elk are not livestock is a reasonable interpretation of this section. Had the legislature intended for the word "livestock" to be given identical treatment under the Livestock Code and the Property Tax Code, it would have been a simple matter for it to have given the term identical definitions. Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Rodarte, 2004-NMSC-035, 136 N.M. 630, 103 P.3d 554.

Vendor is an "owner". — Because a vendor holds legal title and because the Property Tax Code defines "owner" as the holder of any title, the vendor under a real estate contract is an "owner" under the code. Southwest Land Inv., Inc. v. Hubbart, 1993-NMSC-072, 116 N.M. 742, 867 P.2d 412.

Am. Jur. 2d, A.L.R. and C.J.S. references. — Oil and gas royalty as real or personal property, 56 A.L.R.4th 539.

7-35-2.1. Additional definition.

As used in the Property Tax Code, "costs" means the expenses incurred by the department in connection with collecting delinquent taxes. As applied to a particular property, "costs" may be, in the discretion of the department, either the sum of the expenses incurred specifically in connection with that property or the uniform charge applied to the class of delinquent properties of which the property is a member.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 12, § 5.

7-35-3. Director's supervisory power over county assessors; duty to evaluate performance and provide technical assistance; property valuation fund created.

A. The director has general supervisory authority over county assessors for the purposes of assuring implementation of and compliance with the provisions of the Property Tax Code and applicable regulations, orders, rulings and instructions of the department. He shall implement procedures for evaluation of the performance of county assessors' functions on a regular basis and shall also provide, subject to the availability of resources within the department and from the property valuation fund created in Subsection B of this section, appropriate technical assistance to county assessors.

B. A revolving fund, to be called the "property valuation fund", is created.

(1) The fund shall consist of:

(a) all money which on January 1, 1975 remained in the special reappraisal fund which was created pursuant to Section 72-2-21.1 NMSA 1953 [repealed] and the reappraisal loan fund which was created pursuant to Section 72-2-21.11 NMSA 1953 [repealed];

(b) all repayments of outstanding loans made or committed to be made from the special reappraisal fund and the reappraisal loan fund; and

(c) all money appropriated to the fund.

(2) The fund shall not be used to supplement the general operating budget of the department. The fund may be used by the department for:

(a) providing a county with technical assistance services pursuant to Section 7-36-19 NMSA 1978 in the valuation of major industrial or commercial properties subject to valuation by the assessor;

(b) providing a county with technical assistance services in keeping appraised values current for valuation purposes;

(c) providing other major technical assistance to a county;

(d) installing necessary maps and other increments of the property description system in a county pursuant to Section 7-38-10 NMSA 1978; and

(e) meeting prior commitments for loans of money in the reappraisal loan fund for assistance to a county in which reappraisal has not been completed.

(3) Amounts from the property valuation fund may be expended by the director only after approval by the state board of finance. Approval by the state board of finance, fully setting forth the reasons for the expenditure, must be requested in writing by either the director or the county assessor of the county requesting department assistance. A request by the county assessor must be concurred in by the board of county commissioners and the director.

(4) Any amount in the property valuation fund not currently needed for the purpose of the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer in such manner and for such times as will make the funds available when needed for the purposes of the fund.

(5) Any amount expended from the property valuation fund shall be reimbursed in full to the fund by the county requesting assistance or to which assistance has been provided; the reimbursement shall not be reduced by the director pursuant to Section 7-35-8 NMSA 1978; and the reimbursement shall be upon terms and conditions prescribed by the director and approved by the state board of finance.

(6) In any county which has not completed reappraisal by June 30, 1977, no political subdivision shall be eligible to receive any funds distributed from the following unless specific appropriations are made by the legislature:

(a) public school fund, supplemental distributions pursuant to Section 22-8-30 NMSA 1978; or

(b) any discretionary distributions made by the board of finance.

(7) There is appropriated to the property valuation fund all money which on January 1, 1975 remained in the special reappraisal fund and the reappraisal loan fund and all repayments of outstanding loans made or committed to be made from the special reappraisal fund and the reappraisal loan fund.

7-35-4. Department to provide manuals and other materials.

The department shall prepare, issue and periodically revise valuation manuals, cost and valuation schedules, bulletins and annotated digests of property tax laws and regulations in handbook form for the use of its employees, the county assessors and their employees and other persons involved in the administration and collection of the property tax. The department shall make the foregoing materials available to members of the public and may charge a fee for the materials to offset the cost of physical preparation. Any amounts collected are appropriated to the department for its operation.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-28-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 7.

7-35-5. Training programs; attendance by assessor.

A. The department shall conduct or sponsor special courses of instruction and in-service and intern training programs on the technical, legal and administrative aspects of property taxation. The department may cooperate with educational institutions and appropriate organizations interested in the property valuation or taxation field in the conduct or sponsorship of training programs. The department may reimburse the expenses incurred by assessors and employees of the state and its political subdivisions who attend training programs with the approval of the department.

B. The department shall establish a training program for persons elected or appointed as county assessors who have not held office as a county assessor within the ten years prior to the beginning of the term for which the person was elected or from the date of appointment. The department shall require attendance and satisfactory completion of such a program by such persons elected or appointed after the effective date of this 1991 act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-28-8, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 8; 1991, ch. 166, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For courses in property valuation and property tax administration, see 4-39-2 NMSA 1978.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, added "Attendance by assessor" in the section heading; designated the existing language as Subsection A; and added Subsection B.

7-35-6. Suspension of county assessor's functions; department's performance of county assessor's functions.

A. If the secretary finds after informal efforts to obtain compliance have failed that a county assessor is not complying with the Property Tax Code or with the regulations, orders, rulings or other administrative directives of the department under the Property Tax Code, the secretary shall notify the county assessor and the board of county commissioners of the county involved by certified mail of the noncompliance and of the action required to remedy the noncompliance.

B. If the failure has not been remedied within sixty days after the notice is mailed, the secretary shall issue an order requiring the county assessor and the board of county commissioners to show cause why the county assessor's functions should not be suspended. The secretary shall set a time and place for a hearing on the order and shall send by certified mail to the county assessor and to the board of county commissioners copies of the order and the notice of hearings.

C. If the secretary determines after a hearing that a county assessor has failed to comply with the Property Tax Code or regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration pursuant to the Property Tax Code, the secretary may suspend in whole or in part any of the county assessor's functions. The suspension shall be by written order of the secretary and shall continue until the secretary finds that the county assessor is both willing and able to comply with the Property Tax Code and the regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration pursuant to the Property Tax Code.

D. During a suspension, the department succeeds to and shall carry out the functions from which the county assessor has been suspended. The county shall reimburse the department for all costs incurred in performing the functions. In the event that the county does not make reimbursement within a reasonable time, the department, notwithstanding any other provision of law, may obtain reimbursement by retaining ten percent of each distribution or transfer required by law to be made to the county from money collected by the department until the total retained equals the amount to be reimbursed. All amounts received or retained by the department under this subsection are appropriated to the department for its use in carrying out its duties under the Property Tax Code.

E. No less than thirty days after the date of any suspension order, the board of county commissioners may make a written request to the secretary to terminate the suspension order on the grounds that it is no longer justified because of the county assessor's willingness and ability to comply with the Property Tax Code or regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration pursuant to the Property Tax Code. Upon receipt of a request to terminate a suspension order, the secretary shall set a time and place for a hearing on the request. The date of the hearing shall be not more than thirty days after the receipt of the request, and the secretary shall notify the board of county commissioners and the county assessor of the time and place of the hearing by certified mail. If the secretary determines after a hearing that the county assessor is both willing and able to comply with the Property Tax Code and the regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration pursuant to the Property Tax Code, the secretary shall terminate the suspension by written order, which order must be made within ten days of the hearing. In the absence of such a finding, the secretary shall deny the request for termination of the suspension, which denial must be made by written order within ten days of the hearing. Nothing in this subsection prohibits the secretary from terminating an order of suspension issued in accordance with Subsection C of this section without a request for a hearing, or a hearing, on the issue of termination of suspension. Repeated requests for the termination of a suspension may be made, but no request may be made less than thirty days after the date of the secretary's denial of a previous request for termination of a suspension.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Section 7-35-6 NMSA 1978 was repealed and reenacted by Laws 1981, Chapter 37, Section 61. For prior history, see 1953 Comp., § 72-28-9, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 9; 1974, ch. 92, § 2.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, rewrote the section heading which read "Division to seek compliance by assessors and county commissioners"; in Subsection A, substituted "secretary" for "director" in two places and substituted "department under the Property Tax Code" for "division"; rewrote Subsection B; and added Subsections C to E.

7-35-7. Suspension of county treasurer's functions; department of finance and administration's performance of county treasurer's functions.

A. If the secretary of finance and administration finds that a county treasurer has failed to comply with the Property Tax Code or regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration, he shall notify the county treasurer and the board of county commissioners by certified mail of the fact and nature of the failure.

B. If the failure has not been remedied within sixty days after the notice is mailed, the secretary of finance and administration shall issue an order requiring the county treasurer and the board of county commissioners to show cause why the county treasurer's functions should not be suspended. The secretary of finance and administration shall set a time and place for a hearing on the order and shall send by certified mail to the county treasurer and to the board of county commissioners copies of the order and the notice of the hearing.

C. If the secretary of finance and administration determines after a hearing that a county treasurer has failed to comply with the Property Tax Code or regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration, the secretary of finance and administration may suspend in whole or in part any of the county treasurer's functions. The suspension shall be by written order of the secretary of finance and administration and shall continue until he finds that the county treasurer is both willing and able to comply with the Property Tax Code and the regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration.

D. During a suspension, the department of finance and administration succeeds to and shall carry out the functions from which the county treasurer has been suspended. The county shall reimburse the department of finance and administration for all costs incurred in performing the functions. All amounts received by the department of finance and administration under this subsection shall be deposited with the state treasurer for credit to the state general fund.

E. No less than thirty days after the date of any suspension order, the board of county commissioners may make a written request to the secretary of finance and administration to terminate the suspension order on the grounds that it is no longer justified because of the county treasurer's willingness and ability to comply with the Property Tax Code or regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration. Upon receipt of a request to terminate a suspension order, the secretary of finance and administration shall set a time and place for a hearing on the request. The date of the hearing shall be not more than thirty days after the receipt of the request, and the secretary of finance and administration shall notify the board of county commissioners and the county treasurer of the time and place of the hearing by certified mail. If the secretary of finance and administration determines after a hearing that the county treasurer is both willing and able to comply with the Property Tax Code and the regulations, orders, rulings or instructions of the department or of the department of finance and administration, he shall terminate the suspension by written order, which must be made within ten days of the hearing. In the absence of such a finding, he shall deny the request for termination of the suspension, which denial must be made by written order within ten days of the hearing. Nothing in this subsection prohibits the secretary of finance and administration from terminating an order of suspension in accordance with Subsection C of this section without a request for a hearing, or a hearing, on the issue of termination of suspension. Repeated requests for the termination of a suspension may be made, but no request may be made less than thirty days after the date of the secretary of finance and administration's denial of a previous request for termination of a suspension.

F. Copies of suspension orders and orders terminating suspensions shall be sent to the department at the time they are made.

7-35-8. Authority for director to reduce amount required to be reimbursed to department by counties for services provided by department.

When any provision of the Property Tax Code requires a county to reimburse the department for the costs of services provided by the department, the director may reduce the amount required to be reimbursed to less than actual costs of the services.

Repeals. — Laws 1982, ch. 28, § 31, repealed 7-35-9 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 12, relating to the furnishing of annual reports by the property tax division of the taxation and revenue department, effective May 19, 1982.

7-35-10. Division to furnish valuation services to state agencies and political subdivisions of the state.

The division shall provide, subject to the availability of resources within the division, assistance services to state agencies and political subdivisions in the valuation of property owned or being considered for purchase by the state or by political subdivisions. Agencies and political subdivisions that are not funded from the state general fund shall reimburse the division for the actual cost incurred in the valuation of the property.

7-36-2. Allocation of responsibility for valuation and determining classification of property for property taxation purposes; county assessor and department.

A. The county assessor is responsible and has the authority for the valuation of all property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes in the county except the property specified by Subsections B and C of this section.

B. The department is responsible and has the authority for the valuation of all property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and used in the conduct of the following businesses:

- (1) railroad;
- (2) communications system as that term is defined in Section 7-36-30 NMSA 1978;
- (3) pipeline;
- (4) public utility; and
- (5) airline.

C. The department is responsible and has the authority for the valuation of property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes when that property is:

(1) an electricity generating plant, whether or not owned by a public utility, if all or part of the electricity is generated for ultimate sale to the consuming public;

(2) mineral property and property held or used in connection with mineral property as defined in Sections 7-36-22 through 7-36-25 NMSA 1978; or

(3) machinery, equipment and other personal property of all resident and nonresident persons customarily engaged in construction that involves the use during a tax year of the machinery, equipment and other personal property in more than one county. For the purposes of this paragraph, "construction" means leveling or clearing land, excavating earth, drilling wells of any type, including seismograph shot holes or core drilling, or similar work, or building, altering, repairing or demolishing any:

- (a) road, highway, bridge, parking area or related project;
- (b) building, fence, stadium or other structure;
- (c) airport, subway or similar facility;
- (d) park, trail, athletic field, golf course or similar facility;

(e) dam, reservoir, canal, ditch or similar facility;

(f) sewerage or water treatment facility, power generating plant, pump station, natural gas compressing station, gas processing plant, coal gasification plant, refinery, distillery or similar facility;

(g) sewerage, water, gas or other pipeline;

(h) transmission line;

(i) radio, television or other tower;

(j) water, oil or other storage tank;

(k) shaft, tunnel or other mining appurtenance; or

(l) similar work.

D. The entity having responsibility and authority for valuing the property described in Subsections A through C of this section shall also have responsibility and authority for classifying that property as either residential or nonresidential under the provisions of Section 7-36-2.1 NMSA 1978.

E. The secretary by regulation may delegate authority to the county assessor for the valuation and classification of property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes for which the department is responsible pursuant to Subsections B through D of this section only if:

(1) the property is held or used in connection with the transmission, storage, measurement or distribution of water and the transmission, storage, measurement and distribution is conducted by a single person entirely within a single county; or

(2) the property is held or used in connection with a communications system as defined in Section 7-36-30 NMSA 1978 and the system operates entirely within a single county.

F. The department is authorized to enter into one or more agreements with each county assessor, subject to approval of each agreement by the appropriate board of county commissioners, under which the county assessor agrees to perform the valuation of property for which the department is responsible under Subsection B of this section but which property is not subject to the special methods of valuation set forth in Sections 7-36-27, 7-36-28 and 7-36-30 through 7-36-32 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-29-2, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 14; 1974, ch. 92, § 5; 1975, ch. 156, § 1; 1975, ch. 165, § 1; 1981, ch. 37, § 62; 1985, ch. 109, § 2; 1995, ch. 12, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For county assessors, see Chapter 4, Article 39 NMSA 1978.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "department" for "division" in the section heading and in Subsections B, C, and E; inserted "gas processing plant, coal gasification plant, refinery, distillery" in Subparagraph C(3)(f); substituted "secretary" for "director" near the beginning of Subsection E; and added Subsection F.

Different tax treatment based on use of contractor's equipment unconstitutional.

— Since the effect of former 7-36-9 NMSA 1978 and 72-6-4A(1)(c), 1953 Comp. (predecessor of this section), was that contractors whose machinery and equipment was used in more than one county were subject to property tax on sales inventories, and contractors whose machinery and equipment was not used in more than one county were not subject to property tax on sales inventories, this difference in tax treatment based solely on whether a contractor uses his equipment in more than one county was arbitrary and resulted in a denial of equal protection of the law; therefore, to the extent that valuation by the property appraisal department deprives the taxpayer of the exemption in former 7-36-9 NMSA 1978, that section is unconstitutional. Halliburton Co. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1975-NMCA-123, 88 N.M. 476, 542 P.2d 56.

Use of equipment in multiple counties cannot be defended on basis of administrative convenience.

— A classification based solely on the use of machinery and equipment in more than one county is patently unreasonable, and cannot be defended on the basis of assessment procedures. Administrative convenience in arriving at a valuation of the property involved does not show a rational basis for taxing inventories of contractors who report value to the property appraisal department rather than to the county assessor. The fact that taxpayers may reasonably be required to report their property values to different government offices because of differences in geographic operations does not provide a reasonable basis for a difference in tax treatment on the values reported. Halliburton Co. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1975-NMCA-123, 88 N.M. 476, 542 P.2d 56.

Mineral value taxed centrally. — In New Mexico, any mineral value, whether held in fee or as severed minerals, may only be classified and valued by the state tax commission (now taxation and revenue department). Gerner v. State Tax Comm'n, 1963-NMSC-022, 71 N.M. 385, 378 P.2d 619.

Director, not court, to choose between conflicting inferences. — Decision of the director supported by substantial evidence that taxpayer contractor's activities, which were performed prior to production from a well, in the usual course of business, involving the use of machinery and equipment commonly used in the course of drilling an oil and gas well came within 72-6-4A(1)(c), 1953 Comp. (now Section 7-36-2C(3) NMSA 1978), was affirmed since although there was conflicting evidence and it was for the director to choose between conflicting inferences. Halliburton Co. v. Prop. Appraisal Dep't, 1975-NMCA-123, 88 N.M. 476, 542 P.2d 56.

Use of machinery and equipment sufficient. — Section 72-6-4A(1)(c), 1953 Comp. (now Section 7-36-2C(3) NMSA 1978), by its terms, did not require a company to be the drilling contractor; the contractor's work must involve the use of, but not be limited to, machinery and equipment commonly used in oil and gas well drilling. Halliburton Co. v. Prop. Appraisal Dep't, 1975-NMCA-123, 88 N.M. 476, 542 P.2d 56.

Assessed value is not competent direct evidence of value for purposes other than taxation. Gomez v. Board of Educ., 1966-NMSC-095, 76 N.M. 305, 414 P.2d 522.

Valuation of livestock. — Subsection D of Section 7-36-21 NMSA 1978 does not allocate valuation of livestock responsibility to the division (department); instead, that section simply requires the division (department) to supervise the assessor by establishing classes of livestock and values for those classes of livestock. While the division (department) must establish general criteria for valuing livestock, the county assessor does the actual valuation. Zwaagstra v. DelCurto, 1992-NMCA-087, 114 N.M. 263, 837 P.2d 457.

Department found in contempt for failing to value and assess high-voltage transmission lines for property taxes. — Where petitioners petitioned for a writ of mandamus to compel the New Mexico taxation and revenue department (department) to establish values for two high-voltage transmission lines in Harding county and report those values to the Harding county assessor so that property taxes could be assessed on the lines, and where the district court issued the peremptory writ, determining that the transmission lines were taxable, and ordered the department to complete the valuation processes for the two transmission lines, timely conclude any protests, and certify the values to the county assessor for preparation of a bill for the property tax due, and where, following an administrative hearing officer's conclusion that the transmission lines did not have any value for tax assessment purposes, the department certified that the transmission were not taxable, which was contrary to the district court's order, and certified to the district court that the department complied with the court's order, and where petitioners then filed a motion for an order to show cause, arguing that the department had not complied with the peremptory writ, the district court did not abuse its discretion in holding the department in contempt and in awarding petitioners attorney fees as sanctions, because the department admittedly failed to act in accordance with the dictates of the law after the district court ordered the department to act and after the department was given notice and an opportunity to be heard. Harding Cnty. Bd. of Comm'rs v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMSC-007, aff'g A-1-CA-36305, mem. op. (May 24, 2019) (nonprecedential).

7-36-2.1. Classification of property.

A. Property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be classified as either residential property or nonresidential property.

B. The department by regulation, ruling, order or other directive shall provide for the implementation of a classification system and shall include a method for apportioning the value of multiple-use properties between residential and nonresidential components.

7-36-3. Industrial revenue bond, pollution control bond, economic development bond and regional air center special economic district bond project property; health-related equipment; tax status.

A. Property interests of a lessee in project property held under a lease from a county or a municipality under authority of an industrial revenue bond or pollution control revenue bond act, the Statewide Economic Development Finance Act [Chapter 6, Article 25 NMSA 1978] or the Regional Air Center Special Economic District Act [5-20-1 to 5-20-10 NMSA 1978] are exempt from property taxation for as long as there is an outstanding bonded indebtedness under the terms of the revenue bonds issued for the acquisition of the project property, but in no event for a period of more than thirty years from the date of execution of the first lease of the project to the lessee by the county or municipality.

B. Property interests of a person, other than a public utility, arising out of the purchase of a project authorized by the Industrial Revenue Bond Act [Chapter 3, Article 32 NMSA 1978], the County Industrial Revenue Bond Act [Chapter 4, Article 59 NMSA 1978], the Pollution Control Revenue Bond Act [3-59-1 to 3-59-14 NMSA 1978], the Statewide Economic Development Finance Act or the Regional Air Center Special Economic District Act are exempt from property taxation for as long as the project purchaser remains liable to the project seller for any part of the purchase price, but not to exceed thirty years from the date of execution of the sale agreement.

C. Property interests of a participating health facility in health-related equipment purchased, acquired, leased, financed or refinanced with the proceeds of bonds issued under the Hospital Equipment Loan Act [Chapter 58, Article 23 NMSA 1978] are exempt from property taxation for as long as the participating health facility remains liable for any amount under any lease, loan or other agreement securing the bonds, but not to exceed thirty years from the date the bonds were issued for the health-related equipment.

D. The exemptions from property taxation under this section are not cumulative; provided, however, that the exemptions may be applied consecutively if subsequent exemptions relate to the financing of a new project or new health-related equipment.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective June 14, 2019, provided that property within a district held under a lease from a county or municipality is exempt from property tax as long as there is outstanding bond indebtedness in the same way industrial revenue bonds are exempt from property tax; in the section heading, added "and regional air center special economic district bond"; and in Subsections A and B, added "or the Regional Air Center Special Economic District Act".

The 2006 amendment, effective May 17, 2006, added a new Subsection C, to provide a property tax exemption for property interests in health-related equipment; and in Subsection D (formerly Subsection C), provided that the exemption may be applied consecutively if subsequent exemption relate to the financing of a new project or new health-related equipment.

Duplicate laws. — Laws 2006, ch. 90, § 1 and Laws 2006, ch. 92, § 1 enacted identical amendments to this section. The section was set out as amended by Laws 2006, ch. 92, §1. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

Applicability. — Laws 2006, ch. 92, § 4 made the provisions of Laws 2006, ch. 92, § 1 applicable to property tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, inserted "or the Statewide Economic Development Finance Act" in Subsections A and B.

ANNOTATIONS

7-36-4. Fractional property interests; definitions; taxation and valuation of fractional interests.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "fractional interest" means a tangible interest in real property, except for mineral property as defined in Section 7-36-22 NMSA 1978, that is less than the total of the interests existing in the property, but "fractional interest" does not include those property interests described in Sections 7-36-3, 7-36-3.1 and 7-36-3.2 NMSA 1978 nor does it include the lessee's interest under a lease when the term of the lease is more than seventy-five years;

(2) "exempt entity" means any person whose real property is exempt from taxation under the constitution of New Mexico or the Enabling Act (36 Stat. 557, as amended) by reason of ownership;

(3) "exempt property" means property that is exempt from property taxation pursuant to Article 8, Section 3 of the constitution of New Mexico by reason of use;

(4) "improvements" includes surface and subsurface structures, fixtures, transmission lines, pipelines and other works, but "improvements" does not include:

(a) that property either included or specifically excluded under the terms "property used in connection with mineral property" under Section 7-36-23 NMSA 1978, "property used in connection with potash mineral property" under Section 7-36-24 NMSA 1978 and "property used in connection with uranium mineral property" under Section 7-36-25 NMSA 1978;

(b) a dwelling occupied by a low-income resident in a housing project authorized under the provisions of the Municipal Housing Law [Chapter 3, Article 45 NMSA 1978]; and

(c) those property interests described in Sections 7-36-3, 7-36-3.1 and 7-36-3.2 NMSA 1978;

(5) "nonexempt entity" means any person that is not an exempt entity; and

(6) "nonexempt property" means property that is not exempt property.

B. Fractional interests of nonexempt entities in real property of exempt entities are exempt from property taxation under the Property Tax Code, but this exemption shall not apply to the following property:

(1) improvements of land of an exempt entity if the improvements are owned or leased by a nonexempt entity; these improvements are subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and to property taxation to be paid by the nonexempt entity; and

(2) property interests of nonexempt entities held under equitable title in the property of exempt entities.

C. When fractional interests are created in property:

(1) fractional interests that are nonexempt property shall be reported to the appropriate valuation authority by the fractional interest owners for valuation for property tax purposes if the owner is a nonexempt entity; and

(2) except for fractional interests owned by the United States, an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo, the state of New Mexico or a political subdivision of the state, fractional interests that are owned by a nonexempt entity but are claimed to be exempt property shall be reported by the owner to the appropriate valuation authority for a determination of exemption status and valuation if determined to be nonexempt property.

D. Fractional interests that are nonexempt property shall be valued by the applicable method of valuation pursuant to the Property Tax Code, and if fractional interests that are exempt property have been created, the value of the remaining nonexempt fractional interests shall be determined in the property tax year following the creation of the interests as the value of the property in the property tax year immediately prior to the year in which creation of the fractional interests occurred, increased or decreased by the value directly attributable to the creation of the fractional interests that are exempt property. For subsequent property tax years, the nonexempt fractional interests shall be valued pursuant to the applicable methods of valuation.

The 1998 amendment, effective May 20, 1998, in the section heading, inserted "taxation and valuation of fractional interests"; added new Paragraphs A(3) and A(6) and redesignated the remaining Paragraphs in Subsection A accordingly; substituted "subject" for "hereby subjected" in Paragraph B(1); and added a new Subsection C.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, designated the existing introductory language as Subsection A and redesignated former Subsections A through D as Paragraphs A(1) through A(4); deleted "and Sections 7-36-5 and 7-36-6 NMSA 1978" following "section" in the introductory phrase of Subsection A; inserted references to Section 7-36-3.2 in Paragraph A(1) and Subparagraph A(3)(c); added Subsection B; and made related stylistic changes.

Constitutional. — Constitutional guarantees of equal protection and uniform taxation are not violated by the provision of this section for a 75-year limitation on leases qualifying for exemption. *Welch v. 7-36-7. Property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes.

A. Except for the property listed in Subsection B of this section or exempt pursuant to Section 7-36-8 NMSA 1978, all property is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes under the Property Tax Code if it has a taxable situs in the state.

B. The following property is not subject to valuation for property taxation purposes under the Property Tax Code:

(1) property exempt from property taxation under the federal or state constitution, federal law, the Property Tax Code or other laws, but:

(a) this does not include property all or a part of the value of which is exempt because of the application of the veteran, disabled veteran or head-of-family exemption;

(b) this provision does not excuse an owner from obligations to report the owner's property as required by regulation of the department adopted under Section 7-38-8.1 NMSA 1978 or to claim its exempt status under Subsection C of Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978;

(c) this includes property of a museum that: 1) has been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or renumbered; 2) is used to provide educational services; and 3) grants free admission to each student who attends a public school in the county in which the museum is located; and

(d) this includes property that is operated either as a community to which the Continuing Care Act [Chapter 24, Article 17 NMSA 1978] applies or as a facility licensed by the department of health to operate as a nursing facility, a skilled nursing facility, an adult residential care facility, an intermediate care facility or an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled; and is owned by a charitable nursing, retirement or long-term care organization that: 1) has been granted exemption from the federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or renumbered; 2) donates or renders gratuitously a portion of its services or facilities; and 3) uses all funds remaining after payment of its usual and necessary expenses of operation, including the payment of liens and encumbrances upon its property, to further its charitable purpose, including the maintenance, improvement or expansion of its facilities;

(2) oil and gas property subject to valuation and taxation under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978] and the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978]; and

(3) productive copper mineral property subject to valuation and taxation under the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978]; for the purposes of this section, "copper mineral property" means all mineral property and property held in connection with mineral property when seventy-five percent or more, by either weight or value, of the salable mineral extracted from or processed by the mineral property is copper.

Assessor's standing to raise the constitutionality of this section. — Where the Santa Fe county assessor appealed the district court's decision that petitioner, a retirement and continuing care community, was improperly denied a charitable property tax exemption on the grounds that by meeting the plain language requirements of 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978, petitioner had also fulfilled the charitable use requirements for tax exemption under art. VIII, § 3 of the New Mexico constitution, the county assessor had standing to challenge the constitutionality of 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978, because a justiciable controversy existed with regard to petitioner's claim of entitlement to a tax exemption and the county assessor is responsible and has the authority for the valuation of all property subject to valuation for property tax purposes. El Castillo Ret. Residences v. Martinez, 2017-NMSC-026, aff'g 2015-NMCA-041, and overruling La Vida Llena v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Constitutional limitation on the legislature's power. — N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 3 operates as a limit on the legislature's power to redefine categories of property which will be exempt from taxation, and 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978 may not be interpreted or applied to grant exemptions that are not authorized by art. VIII, § 3. El Castillo Ret. Residences v. Martinez, 2017-NMSC-026, aff'g 2015-NMCA-041, and overruling La Vida Llena v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Where the Santa Fe county assessor appealed the district court's decision that petitioner, a retirement and continuing care community, was improperly denied a charitable property tax exemption, the New Mexico supreme court held that the district court erred in concluding that petitioner fulfilled the charitable use requirements for tax exemption under art. VIII, § 3 of the New Mexico constitution, because petitioner, a self-sustaining community that accepts and benefits only financially and medically screened residents based on requirements calculated in the interests of financial security for itself, did not create any substantial public benefit and therefore cannot be entitled to exemption from taxation under 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978 or N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 3. El Castillo Ret. Residences v. Martinez, 2017-NMSC-026, aff'g 2015-NMCA-041, and overruling La Vida Llena v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Department found in contempt for failing to value and assess high-voltage transmission lines for property taxes. — Where petitioners petitioned for a writ of mandamus to compel the New Mexico taxation and revenue department (department) to establish values for two high-voltage transmission lines in Harding county and report those values to the Harding county assessor so that property taxes could be assessed on the lines, and where the district court issued the peremptory writ, determining that the transmission lines were taxable, and ordered the department to complete the valuation processes for the two transmission lines, timely conclude any protests, and certify the values to the county assessor for preparation of a bill for the property tax due, and where, following an administrative hearing officer's conclusion that the transmission lines did not have any value for tax assessment purposes, the department certified that the transmission lines were not taxable, which was contrary to the district court's order, and certified to the district court that the department complied with the court's order, and where petitioners then filed a motion for an order to show cause, arguing that the department had not complied with the peremptory writ, the district court did not abuse its discretion in holding the department in contempt and in awarding petitioners attorney fees as sanctions, because the department admittedly failed to act in accordance with the dictates of the law after the district court ordered the department to act and after the department was given notice and an opportunity to be heard. Harding Cnty. Bd. of Comm'rs v. N.M. Tax'n & Revenue Dep't, 2021-NMSC-007, aff'g A-1-CA-36305, mem. op. (May 24, 2019) (nonprecedential).

Property operated under the Continuing Care Act. — Section 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978 does not require a minimum amount of donated or gratuitously rendered services or facilities for charitable purposes in order for a continuing care facility to receive the property tax exemption. La Vida Llana v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Where protestant operated a continuing care facility pursuant to the Continuing Care Act, Section 24-17-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., had been granted an exemption from federal taxes, used all funds remaining after payment of its usual and necessary expenses of operation to further its charitable purpose, provided services to some medicare residents when the cost of their care exceeded medicare reimbursement, permitted its staff time to serve other charitable organizations, provided services for its foundation, and did not terminate resident agreements when residents did not pay, protestant donated or rendered gratuitously some part of its facilities and services for charitable services and was entitled to receive the property tax exemption. La Vida Llana v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Property to provide educational services. — Property devoted primarily and substantially to traditional museum functions of: (1) the preservation and exhibition of significant aspects, artifacts, and works of our lives and history for the benefit of the general public's appreciation, study, and knowledge; and (2) the carrying on of museum-related educational programs and activities such as lectures, studies, publishing scholarly materials, and creating instructional materials, is property with uses and purposes that ought to be considered for educational purposes tax exemption pursuant to the state constitution. Georgia O'Keefe Museum v. County of Santa Fe, 2003-NMCA-003, 133 N.M. 297, 62 P.3d 754.

To qualify for the educational purposes tax exemption, a museum must adhere to a systematic approach to learning. This requires an ordered, methodical, structured, and regular learning opportunity provided by the museum owner whose primary goal and major purpose through the museum is to impart knowledge and information in order to educate the public in respect to a branch of learning and it requires substantial public benefit. Georgia O'Keefe Museum v. County of Santa Fe, 2003-NMCA-003, 133 N.M. 297, 62 P.3d 754.

Indian lands and property exempt. — New Mexico Const., art. XXI, § 2, clearly precludes state from taxing Indian lands and Indian property on the reservation. Prince v. Board of Educ., 1975-NMSC-068, 88 N.M. 548, 543 P.2d 1176.

Private non-Indian corporations cannot escape obligation to pay state taxes by locating their property on Indian reservations. Nothing forbids the imposition of such a tax, since it does not in any way infringe on the right of reservation Indians to make their own laws and be ruled by them. Prince v. Board of Educ., 1975-NMSC-068, 88 N.M. 548, 543 P.2d 1176.

State may tax property of corporation leasing land from Indian tribe. — Nothing prevents New Mexico from imposing a tax on the property of non-Indian corporations leasing land from the Navajo tribe, despite the fact that the property might be located on the reservation, because although the land itself cannot be taxed, the non-Indian property, which does not belong to and may not be acquired by the United States or reserved for its use, can. As private property owned by non-Indians who are not performing a federal function, it is subject to the taxing powers of this state. Prince v. Board of Educ., 1975-NMSC-068, 88 N.M. 548, 543 P.2d 1176.

Lease to construct housing on federal land subject to tax. — Congress having explicitly removed the bar of sovereign immunity as it applied to property belonging to the United States, the immunity granted the federal government by N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 3, and art. XXI, § 2, clearly was not available to one who had lease to construct military housing on federal land. It was his interest that was subject to taxation. Kirtland Heights, Inc. v. Board of Cnty. Comm'rs, 1958-NMSC-066, 64 N.M. 179, 326 P.2d 672.

7-36-8. Tangible personal property exempt from property tax; exceptions.

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, tangible personal property owned by a person is exempt from property taxation.

B. The following tangible personal property owned by a person is subject to valuation and taxation under the Property Tax Code:

- (1) livestock;
- (2) manufactured homes;
- (3) aircraft not registered under the Aircraft Registration Act [64-4-1 to 64-4-15 NMSA 1978];
- (4) private railroad cars, the earnings of which are not taxed under the provisions of the Railroad Car Company Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 11 NMSA 1978];
- (5) tangible personal property subject to valuation under Sections 7-36-22 through 7-36-25 and 7-36-27 through 7-36-32 NMSA 1978;
- (6) vehicles not registered under the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code [Chapter 66, Articles 1 through 8 NMSA 1978] and for which the owner has claimed a deduction for depreciation for federal income tax purposes during any federal income taxable year occurring in whole or in part during the twelve months immediately preceding the first day of the property tax year; and
- (7) other tangible personal property not specified in Paragraphs (1) through (6) of this subsection:

(a) that is used, produced, manufactured, held for sale, leased or maintained by a person for purposes of the person's profession, business or occupation; and

(b) for which the owner has claimed a deduction for depreciation for federal income tax purposes during any federal income taxable year occurring in whole or in part during the twelve months immediately preceding the first day of the property tax year.

7-36-14. Taxable situs; allocation of value of property.

A. Property has a taxable situs in the state if:

- (1) it is real property and is located in the state;
- (2) it is an interest in real property and the real property is located in the state;
- (3) it is personal property and is physically present in the state on the date when it is required to be valued for property taxation purposes except for:
 - (a) property being transported in interstate commerce that is physically present in the state only while being transported through or over the state;
 - (b) property that is consigned to a warehouse or factory in the state from outside the state for the purpose of storage, manufacturing, processing or fabricating and which is in transit to a final destination outside the state, whether the destination is specified before or after the original transportation begins; or
 - (c) wool, mohair, hides, pelts and farm crops when owned by the person that originally produced them, but only during the tax year in which produced and the following tax year;
- (4) it is personal property that is a part of a communications system as that term is defined in Section 7-36-30 NMSA 1978 and, even though not physically present in the state on the date when it is required to be valued for property taxation purposes, it is an integral part of the system and substantial property that is on that date a part of the communications system is physically present in New Mexico; or
- (5) it is personal property and, even though not physically present in the state on the date when it is required to be valued for property taxation purposes, it is subject to valuation in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-36-31 or 7-36-32 NMSA 1978.

B. Real property and interests in real property having a taxable situs in the state shall be valued in and have their value allocated to the governmental units in which the real property is located unless a different method of allocation is specified under the Property Tax Code or by regulation of the department.

C. Personal property having a taxable situs in the state shall be valued in and have its value allocated to the governmental units in which the property is located on the date it is required to be valued unless a different method of allocation is specified under the Property Tax Code or by regulation of the department.

7-36-15. Methods of valuation for property taxation purposes; general provisions.

A. Property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes under this article of the Property Tax Code shall be valued by the methods required by this article of the Property Tax Code whether the determination of value is made by the department or the county assessor. The same or similar methods of valuation shall be used for valuation of the same or similar kinds of property for property taxation purposes.

B. Unless a method or methods of valuation are authorized in Sections 7-36-20 through 7-36-33 NMSA 1978, the value of property for property taxation purposes shall be its market value as determined by application of the sales of comparable property, income or cost methods of valuation or any combination of these methods. In using any of the methods of valuation authorized by this subsection, the valuation authority:

(1) shall apply generally accepted appraisal techniques; and

(2) in determining the market value of residential housing, shall consider any decrease in the value that would be realized by the owner in a sale of the property because of the effects of any affordable housing subsidy, covenant or encumbrance imposed pursuant to a federal, state or local affordable housing program that restricts the future use of the property or the resale price of the property or would otherwise prohibit the owner from fully benefitting from any enhanced value of the property. As used in this paragraph:

(a) "subsidy, covenant or encumbrance imposed pursuant to a federal, state or local affordable housing program" includes those imposed by a nonprofit entity approved by a governmental entity as a qualifying grantee pursuant to the Affordable Housing Act [6-27-1 to 6-27-8 NMSA 1978]; and

(b) "residential housing" means any building, structure or portion thereof that is primarily occupied, or designed or intended primarily for occupancy, as a residence by one or more households and any real property that is offered for sale or lease for the construction or location thereon of such a building, structure or portion thereof. "Residential housing" includes congregate housing, manufactured homes, housing intended to provide or providing transitional or temporary housing for homeless persons and common health care, kitchen, dining, recreational and other facilities primarily for use by residents of a residential housing project.

C. Dams, reservoirs, tanks, canals, irrigation wells, installed irrigation pumps, stock-watering wells and pumps, similar structures and equipment used for irrigation or stock-watering purposes, water rights and private roads shall not be valued separately from the land they serve. The foregoing improvements and rights shall be considered as appurtenances to the land they serve, and their value shall be included in the determination of value of the land.

D. The department shall adopt regulations to implement the methods of valuation authorized in this article of the Property Tax Code.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For constitutional provision as to equality in ad valorem taxation, see N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 1.

For constitutional provision as to assessment of lands, see N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 6.

The 2008 amendment, effective February 29, 2008, added Paragraph (2) of Subsection B.

Applicability. — Laws 2008, ch. 77, § 2 provided that the provisions of Laws 2008, ch. 77, § 1 apply to the 2008 and subsequent property tax years.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, in Subsection B, substituted "Sections 7-36-20 through 7-36-33 NMSA 1978" for "Sections 72-29-9 through 72-29-22 NMSA 1953", and substituted the language beginning "by application of the" for "by sales of comparable property, or, if that method cannot be used due to the lack of comparable sales data for the property being valued, then its value shall be determined using an income method or cost methods of valuation" at the end of the first sentence; and substituted "Section 7-38-90 NMSA 1978" for "72-31-88 NMSA 1953" in Subsection D.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Exclusive reliance on evidence of prior year comparable sales was reasonable. — With respect to comparable sales, the legislature intended assessors and protests boards to consider only data available on January 1 of the tax year of the valuation notice. AMREP Sw., Inc. v. Sandoval Cnty. Assessor, 2012-NMCA-082, 284 P.3d 1118.

Where the county valuation protests board refused to consider the taxpayer's comparable 2009 sales evidence and relied exclusively on comparable 2008 sales for the valuation of the taxpayer's property for the 2009 tax year based on the board's interpretation of statutory and administrative code provisions that required property to be valued using only data available on January 1, 2009, the board's interpretation of the statutory and administrative code provisions was reasonable. AMREP Sw., Inc. v. Sandoval Cnty. Assessor, 2012-NMCA-082, 284 P.3d 1118.

Assessor's valuation sufficient evidence. — Since the assessor's valuation is presumed to be correct it is sufficient evidence, where uncontradicted, to support the board's decision. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

How presumption of assessor's valuation may be overcome. — The statutory presumption of correctness of the value of property by the county assessor for tax purposes can be overcome by a taxpayer showing that the assessor did not follow the applicable statutory provisions, or by presenting evidence tending to dispute the factual correctness of the valuation. La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

Admission of taxpayer's evidence when market value indeterminable. — The protests board could not rely exclusively on the county assessor's valuation of property even though, according to 72-2-3, 1953 Comp., the assessment must be at "full actual value," and neither could it rely on comparable sales or sales of comparable lands where none have occurred; accordingly, the board should have allowed the admission of the only available relevant evidence which the taxpayer had. In situations where cash market value could not be determined, earning capacity, cost of reproduction and original cost less depreciation furnished relevant considerations for determining "value." In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142 (1976) (decided under prior law).

Presumption of assessor's valuation not overcome. — Since taxpayer failed to present any evidence of sales of comparable property or evidence of value based on generally accepted appraisal techniques, and its only evidence, the purchase price of its land in question, did not establish a market value under Subsection B, the presumption of the correctness of the assessor's valuation was not overcome. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Presumption of assessor's valuation not overcome. — The presumption of the correctness of the assessor's valuation was not overcome by the taxpayers' offer, as evidence of market value, the price for which they purchased the property, where the sales price was not the result of an arms'-length transaction because of the taxpayers' mailing campaign to convince landowners to sell their property to the taxpayers at below market prices. In re Cobb, 1991-NMCA-122, 113 N.M. 251, 824 P.2d 1053, cert. denied, 113 N.M. 44, 822 P.2d 1127 (1992).

Taxpayer rebutted presumption of assessor's valuation. — Since taxpayers presented uncontradicted evidence that access to their property was physically blocked and also offered the only substantial evidence of the fair market value of the property in the form of testimony by a real estate appraiser that because of the lack of access the highest and best use that the property could be put to was as grazing land by one of the adjoining landowners, and that as such it had a fair market value of $18.00 per acre, or $2034 and $5022 respectively for the two tracts, they effectively rebutted the presumption of 7-38-6 NMSA 1978 that the county assessor's valuations of $313,875 and $169,500 were correct. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

When county assessor did not follow any statutory method of valuation in 1976, but simply set the valuation of a shopping center back up to the 1972 figure, the decisions of the board were arbitrary and capricious, not supported by substantial evidence in the record taken as a whole, and otherwise not in accordance with law, and its orders were vacated. San Pedro S. Group v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1976-NMCA-116, 89 N.M. 784, 558 P.2d 53.

Scope of "structures and equipment" in Subsection C. — The inclusion of Subsection C indicated that the exemption from separate valuation for the structures and equipment listed in Subsection C is not limited to structures and equipment used for the purposes of irrigation or stock-watering, but applies to all such structures and equipment. Kerr-McGee Nuclear Corp. v. Property Tax Div., 1980-NMCA-063, 95 N.M. 685, 625 P.2d 1202.

No denial of due process in failure to adopt regulations. — Taxpayer was not denied due process because the property tax department did not adopt regulations that listed the procedures to be followed, and identified the methods of valuation in general use by the department and the applicable factors to be included in determining the value of property, since the amended statute did not require regulations, and taxpayer had the right of discovery by deposition of all the facts necessary to defend the assessed valuation of its property. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Failure to require equalization does not establish official interpretation. — The fact that state officials have, for years, known that there are inequalities or lack of uniformity in tax assessments and have done nothing about it does not establish this as official "long-standing interpretation." It is, in essence, merely long-standing failure by respondents and their predecessors to require equalization as plainly required by the constitution and the legislative enactments. State ex rel. Castillo Corp. v. N.M. Tax Comm'n, 1968-NMSC-117, 79 N.M. 357, 443 P.2d 850.

Honest judgment most important. — What is most important is that the appraisers, the assessor and the protest board exercise an honest judgment based upon the information they possess or are able to acquire. First Nat'l Bank v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1977-NMCA-005, 90 N.M. 110, 560 P.2d 174.

Sovereign immunity not applicable in mandamus of assessment ratio. — In a mandamus proceeding to require the performance of a duty plainly required under the constitution, i.e., to prescribe an assessment ratio so that property shall be uniformly assessed in proportion to its value, the sovereign immunity doctrine is not applicable. State ex rel. Castillo Corp. v. N.M. Tax Comm'n, 1968-NMSC-117, 79 N.M. 357, 443 P.2d 850.

II. MARKET VALUE.

A. IN GENERAL.

"Market value" means a price which a purchaser, willing but not obliged to buy, would pay an owner, willing but not obliged to sell, taking into consideration all uses to which the property is adapted and might in reason be applied. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Usual factors which are considered in ascertaining fair market value of any given tract of land are its size, shape, location, topography, accessibility to roads, availability of public utilities and comparable sales, and, in a given instance, one factor may far outweigh all the rest in importance. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

Legislature gave priority to first method of valuation, a valuation determined by sales of comparable property. It did not do so with reference to the succeeding methods. If the legislature intended to give priority to the second method, the "income method," over the third method, the "cost method," for any reason, it would have phrased the section in language similar to the priority established in the first method of valuation. First Nat'l Bank v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1977-NMCA-005, 90 N.M. 110, 560 P.2d 174.

Proof of purchase price alone is not sufficient to fix market value without evidence of the details of the sale. Cobb v. Otero Cnty. Assessor, 1983-NMCA-090, 100 N.M. 207, 668 P.2d 323.

Market value not an absolute. — Subsection B makes it clear that market value is not a given or an absolute, it is only a method of determining value. National Potash Co. v. Property Tax Div., 1984-NMCA-055, 101 N.M. 404, 683 P.2d 521.

Explanation necessary when market value not used for valuation. — If market value is not used as the basis for calculating assessed valuation, the assessor must explain why that approach is not appropriate, or that there is a lack of adequate market data. Protest of Plaza Del Sol Ltd. P'ship v. Assessor for Cnty. of Bernalillo, 1986-NMCA-022, 104 N.M. 154, 717 P.2d 1123.

Past or future value not to serve as basis. — What the fair market value of a tract may have been in the past or speculation as to what it might be in the future cannot serve as the basis for valuation. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620; Bakel v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-173, 95 N.M. 723, 625 P.2d 1240.

Past market value. — Evidence of what the fair market value of a tract may have been in the past cannot properly be utilized as the sole basis for valuation of the property for tax purposes. La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

Use of mass appraisal method upheld. — The use by the county assessor of the mass appraisal methodology to value plaintiffs' undeveloped property for tax assessment purposes was permissible under this statute when the method was based on standard appraisal procedure, such as comparable sales, and the resulting valuation bore a reasonable relationship to the market value. In re Cobb, 1991-NMCA-122, 113 N.M. 251, 824 P.2d 1053, cert. denied, 113 N.M. 44, 822 P.2d 1127.

Using one uniform percentage depreciation factor for property valuation improper. — Any property valuation method which uses one uniform percentage depreciation factor, regardless of the age of the property, is an improper method of determining property value; such a method would not, except by mere coincidence, yield a value consistent with the fair market value of the property. Anaconda Co. v.

Prop. Tax Dep't, 1979-NMCA-158, 94 N.M. 202, 608 P.2d 514, cert. denied, 94 N.M. 628, 614 P.2d 545.

Insufficient evidence to support county assessor's method of valuation. — Where appellant sought review of the Bernalillo county valuation protests board's valuation of appellant's commercial property, and where the county assessor testified that the assessor applies a forty-five percent limitation on operating expenses rather than applying the taxpayer's actual reported expenses, but absent data that forty-five percent is an appropriate limitation on operating expenses in this market, for this property type, and during this time period, there was insufficient evidence such that a reasonable person could conclude that the county assessor's application of the income valuation method utilized generally accepted appraisal techniques. 2727 San Pedro LLC v. Bernalillo Cty. Assessor, 2017-NMCA-008.

B. COMPARABLE SALES METHOD.

"Comparable property" is property similar to the property being appraised, which has been recently sold or is currently being offered for sale in the same or competing areas. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074; New Mexico Baptist Found. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1979-NMCA-102, 93 N.M. 363, 600 P.2d 309.

"Comparable" is defined as capable of being compared with, worthy of comparison, and thus must necessarily include dissimilarities as well as similarities. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

"To compare". — In reviewing sales of other properties, "to compare" means to examine the characteristics or qualities of one or more properties for the purpose of discovering their resemblances or differences; the aim is to show relative values by bringing out characteristic qualities, whether similar or divergent, and thus, comparisons based on sales may be made according to location, age and condition of improvements, income and expense, use, size, type of construction and in numerous other ways. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Best method is use of comparable sales. — The best method of ascertaining what a willing and informed buyer would pay a willing and informed seller in usual circumstances in light of the highest and best use to which the property may be put in the not too distant future is through the use of comparable sales. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Reasonable cash market value, reflected by comparable property sales, is relevant for determining the correct valuation of a piece of property, if there have been such sales. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

When comparable sales evidence not presented. — Since the documents relied upon by a taxpayer as evidence of comparable sales are documents dealing with the sale of that very improvement whose valuation is the subject of the present dispute and the only evidence submitted by the taxpayer is the purchase price of the land in question, the taxpayer failed to present any evidence of sales of comparable property and the evidence submitted does not establish a market value under Subsection B and the statutory presumption of correctness of valuation for tax purposes still stands. N.M. Baptist Found. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1979-NMCA-102, 93 N.M. 363, 600 P.2d 309.

Test of comparable sales relevancy left to court's discretion. — The rule regarding comparable sales is one of relevancy and, not unlike the general evidentiary rule applied in all proceedings, requiring similarity of conditions. The test is usually left to the discretion of the court in light of the circumstances of each case. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

C. INCOME OR COST METHOD.

When income or cost method of valuation utilized. — Since, if reliable comparable sales data can be reasonably obtained, the comparable sales method must be used, the taxpayer has the burden to demonstrate either that comparable sales data is not reasonably obtainable or that it would be unreliable. To demonstrate a lack of reliability, the taxpayer might show that the location, access, utilities or other such factors distinguish his property from other such properties. If the taxpayer is able to show that the comparable sales method should not be utilized, then the income method or cost method must be used. Bakel v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-173, 95 N.M. 723, 625 P.2d 1240.

Methods of valuation. — If the "cost method" or "income method" is employed as the primary mode of ascertaining the value of property for tax purposes, the appraiser must determine that there is a lack of comparable sales data precluding utilization of the first method of valuation and support this determination by substantial evidence. La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

Income method inapplicable to agricultural land. — By its plain terms, the income method set forth in this section does not apply to land classified as agricultural. Agricultural land is to be valued based on its capacity to produce, not on its actual production. Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Rio Arriba Cnty. Assessor, 2004-NMCA-055, 135 N.M. 630, 92 P.3d 642, rev'd, 2004-NMSC-035, 136 N.M. 630, 103 P.3d 554.

III. EVIDENCE.

Taxing authority may rely on any relevant evidence. — In assessing property for taxation the taxing authority may rely on any evidence that is relevant. Assessor's evidence of a sale of a smaller tract of land in the same vicinity was substantial and supported the board's decision. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Relevant evidence includes that of ratios of assessed value to market value. — To arrive at uniformity in the assessment of property for taxation, as provided in N.M. Const., art. VIII, §§ 1 and 2, the taxing authority and the taxpayer can introduce evidence regarding the ratios of assessed values to market values as the latter are reflected in actual sales of any other real estate in the taxing district for a reasonable period prior to the assessment date. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

No denial of due process in exclusion of irrelevant evidence. — Since former Subsection B of this section fixed two methods of determining market value, namely sales of comparable property and the application of generally accepted appraisal techniques, taxpayer's offer of evidence of a valuation of comparable property was not relevant and exclusion of such evidence did not deny taxpayer of due process. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Appraiser's acceptance of hearsay destroys weight of his opinions. — An expert appraiser's blanket acceptance of hearsay information and his failure to consider influencing facts in so-called "comparable sales" all but destroys any weight that might be given to his opinions. Four Hills Country Club v. Bernalillo Cnty. Property Tax Protest Bd., 1979-NMCA-141, 94 N.M. 709, 616 P.2d 422.

Section does not give taxpayers right to determine method of valuation, but gives the county assessor the right to use either the "income method or cost methods of valuation." First Nat'l Bank v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1977-NMCA-005, 90 N.M. 110, 560 P.2d 174.

Taxpayer has right to discover method of valuation used and has a right to discovery similar in scope to that granted by Rules 26 to 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. First Nat'l Bank v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1977-NMCA-005, 90 N.M. 110, 560 P.2d 174.

7-36-16. Responsibility of county assessors to determine and maintain current and correct values of property.

A. County assessors shall determine values of property for property taxation purposes in accordance with the Property Tax Code and the regulations, orders, rulings and instructions of the department. Except as limited in Section 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978, they shall also implement a program of updating property values so that current and correct values of property are maintained and shall have sole responsibility and authority at the county level for property valuation maintenance, subject only to the general supervisory powers of the director.

B. The director shall implement a program of regular evaluation of county assessors' valuation activities with particular emphasis on the maintenance of current and correct values.

C. Upon request of the county assessor, the director may contract with a board of county commissioners for the department to assume all or part of the responsibilities, functions and authority of a county assessor to establish or operate a property valuation maintenance program in the county. The contract shall be in writing and shall include provisions for the sharing of the program costs between the county and the department. The contract must include specific descriptions of the objectives to be reached and the tasks to be performed by the contracting parties. The initial term of any contract authorized under this subsection shall not extend beyond the end of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which it is executed, but contracts may be renewed for additional one-year periods for succeeding years.

D. The department of finance and administration shall not approve the operating budget of any county in which there is not an adequate allocation of funds to the county assessor for the purpose of fulfilling his responsibilities for property valuation maintenance under this section. If the department of finance and administration questions the adequacy of any allocation of funds for this purpose, it shall consult with the department, the board of county commissioners and the county assessor in making its determination of adequacy.

E. To aid the board of county commissioners in determining whether a county assessor is operating an efficient program of property valuation maintenance and in determining the amount to be allocated to him for this function, the county assessor shall present with his annual budget request a written report setting forth improvements of property added to valuation records during the year, additions of new property to valuation records during the year, increases and decreases of valuation during the year, the relationship of sales prices of property sold to values of the property for property taxation purposes and the current status of the overall property valuation maintenance program in the county. The county assessor shall send a copy of this report to the department.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2000 amendment, effective May 17, 2000 inserted "Except as limited in Section 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978" at the beginning of the second sentence in Subsection A and substituted "shall present" for "must present" in the first sentence in Subsection E.

Reappraisal of all comparable properties in same year not required. — Section 72-2-21.1, (since repealed) 1953 Comp., et seq., did not require that reappraisal of all comparable properties within each county be completed within the same year. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142 (decided under prior law).

Duty of assessor to view property. — It is the duty of the assessor to make a reasonable and diligent effort to view the property in order to see that the property is adequately valued. Bloch Pitt Invs. v. Assessor of Bernalillo Cnty., 86 N.M. 589, 526 P.2d 183 (1974).

Value is a matter of opinion, and, when the law has provided officers upon whom the duty is imposed to make the valuation, it is the opinion of those officers to which the interests of the parties are referred. The court cannot sit in judgment upon their errors, or substitute its own opinion for the conclusions the officers of the law have reached. In re 1971 Assessment of Trinchera Ranch, 1973-NMSC-094, 85 N.M. 557, 514 P.2d 608.

Notice as to amount of taxation is essential due process requirement in the collection of property taxes. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70.

County property valuation fund. — In creating the county property valuation fund in 7-38-38.1C NMSA 1978, the legislature created a permanent source of additional revenue to assist county assessors in fulfilling their statutory obligations to maintain current and correct values of all property within their jurisdictions, and directed county assessors to use those funds to achieve fair and timely reappraisal programs. The legislation does not impose any restrictions on the use of the funds other than the use be part of a property valuation program presented by the county assessor and approved by the county commission. Robinson v. Board of Comm'rs of the Cty. of Eddy, 2015-NMSC-035.

Where the Eddy county assessor sought to use funds from the county property valuation fund, 7-38-38.1C NMSA 1978, to contract with a private company for technical assistance in locating and valuing oil and gas property within Eddy county, the Eddy county commission was not prohibited from approving a contract with an independent contractor to assist the county assessor in valuing property, because the legislature, in creating the county property valuation fund, made no attempt to restrict an assessor's discretion on the use of the fund and thus intended to leave it to the professional discretion of county assessors to decide how best to achieve the statutory goal of current and correct valuation of all property within the county. Robinson v. Board of Comm'rs of the Cty. of Eddy, 2015-NMSC-035.

7-36-17. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1979, ch. 268, § 3, repealed 7-36-17 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 361, § 1, relating to limitation on increases in valuation of certain property for property taxation purposes.

7-36-18. Collection and publication of property valuation data.

To promote uniformity and measure overall compliance by each county with the Property Tax Code and department valuation regulations, orders, rulings, instructions, schedules and other directives, the department shall prepare and publish annually comprehensive sales-ratio studies comparing the values of property determined for property taxation purposes by each county assessor with the values of the same property as established by sales prices.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-29-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 19.

7-36-19. Valuation of major industrial and commercial properties; specialists' services furnished to county assessor by department.

At the request of a county assessor, concurred in by the board of county commissioners, the director may provide a county assessor with technical assistance services in the valuation of major industrial or commercial properties subject to valuation by the assessor. The director shall take into account the ability of the county assessor to value the property with the resources at his disposal when deciding whether the requested services should be furnished. The county shall reimburse the department for the costs incurred in the valuation of the property.

7-36-20. Special method of valuation; land used primarily for agricultural purposes.

A. The value of land used primarily for agricultural purposes shall be determined on the basis of the land's capacity to produce agricultural products. Evidence of bona fide primary agricultural use of land for the tax year preceding the year for which determination is made of eligibility for the land to be valued under this section creates a presumption that the land is used primarily for agricultural purposes during the tax year in which the determination is made. If the land was valued under this section in one or more of the three tax years preceding the year in which the determination is made and the use of the land has not changed since the most recent valuation under this section, a presumption is created that the land continues to be entitled to that valuation.

B. For the purpose of this section:

(1) "agricultural products" means plants, crops, trees, forest products, orchard crops, livestock, poultry, captive deer or elk, or fish; and

(2) "agricultural use" means the:

(a) use of land for the production of agricultural products;

(b) use of land that meets the requirements for payment or other compensation pursuant to a soil conservation program under an agreement with an agency of the federal government;

(c) resting of land to maintain its capacity to produce agricultural products; or

(d) resting of land as the direct result of at least moderate drought conditions as designated by the United States department of agriculture, if the drought conditions occurred in the county within which the land is located for at least eight consecutive weeks during the previous tax year; provided that the land was used in the tax year immediately preceding the previous tax year primarily for a purpose identified pursuant to this paragraph.

C. The department shall adopt rules for determining whether land is used primarily for agricultural purposes. The rules shall provide that the use of land for the lawful taking of game shall not be considered in determining whether land is used primarily for agricultural purposes.

D. The department shall adopt rules for determining the value of land used primarily for agricultural purposes. The rules shall:

(1) specify procedures to use in determining the capacity of land to produce agricultural products and the derivation of value of the land based upon its production capacity;

(2) establish carrying capacity as the measurement of the production capacity of land used for grazing purposes, develop a system of determining carrying capacity through the use of an animal unit concept and establish carrying capacities for the land in the state classified as grazing land;

(3) provide that land the bona fide and primary use of which is the production of captive deer or elk shall be valued as grazing land and that captive deer shall be valued and taxed as sheep and captive elk shall be valued and taxed as cattle;

(4) provide for the consideration of determinations of any other governmental agency concerning the capacity of the same or similar lands to produce agricultural products;

(5) assure that land determined under the rules to have the same or similar production capacity shall be valued uniformly throughout the state; and

(6) provide for the periodic review by the department of determined production capacities and capitalization rates used for determining annually the value of land used primarily for agricultural purposes.

E. All improvements, other than those specified in Section 7-36-15 NMSA 1978, on land used primarily for agricultural purposes shall be valued separately for property taxation purposes, and the value of these improvements shall be added to the value of the land determined under this section.

F. The owner of the land shall make application to the county assessor in a tax year in which the valuation method of this section is first claimed to be applicable to the land or in a tax year immediately subsequent to a tax year in which the land was not valued under this section. Application shall be made under oath, shall be in a form and contain the information required by department rules and shall be made no later than thirty days after the date of mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation. Once land is valued under this section, application need not be made in subsequent tax years as long as there is no change in the use of the land.

G. The owner of land valued under this section shall report to the county assessor whenever the use of the land changes so that it is no longer being used primarily for agricultural purposes. This report shall be made on a form prescribed by department rules and shall be made by the last day of February of the tax year immediately following the year in which the change in the use of the land occurs.

H. Any person who is required to make a report under the provisions of Subsection G of this section and who fails to do so is personally liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to the greater of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or twenty-five percent of the difference between the property taxes ultimately determined to be due and the property taxes originally paid for the tax years for which the person failed to make the required report.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-29-9, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 21; 1975, ch. 165, § 3; 1997, ch. 162, § 1; 2005, ch. 231, § 1; 2013, ch. 219, § 1; 2015, ch. 92, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For agriculture generally, see Chapter 76 NMSA 1978.

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, defined "agricultural products" and expanded the definition of "agricultural use" for property taxes; in Subsection B, added Paragraph (1); redesignated the remainder of Subsection B as Paragraph (2); in Subsection B, Paragraph (2), after "'agricultural use' means the", added the designation Subsection B, Paragraph (2)(a); after "use of land for the production of", deleted "plants, crops, trees, forest products, orchard crops, livestock, poultry, captive deer or elk, or fish. The term also includes the" and added "agricultural products"; added the designation Subsection B, Paragraph (2)(b) to the remaining language of former Subsection B; added Subsection B, Paragraphs (2)(c) and (2)(d); and in Subsection F, after "owner of the land", deleted "must" and added "shall", and after "department rules and", deleted "must" and added "shall".

Applicability. — Laws 2015, ch. 92, § 2 provided that the provisions of Laws 2015, ch. 92, § 1 apply to the 2016 and subsequent property tax years.

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, provided that an application to use the valuation method for land used primarily for agricultural purposes be made no later than thirty days after the date of mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation; and in Subsection F, in the second sentence, after "and must be made no later than", deleted "the last day of February of the tax year" and added "thirty days after the date of mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation".

The 2005 amendment, effective April 6, 2005, in Subsection B, defined "agricultural use" to include production of captive deer or elk; in Subsection C, provided that the rules shall provide that the use of land for lawful taking of game shall not be considered in determining whether land is used primarily for agricultural purposes; and added Subsection D(3) to provide that the rules shall provide that land primarily used for the production of captive deer or elk shall be valued as grazing land, that captive deer shall be valued as sheep and that captive elk shall be valued as cattle.

Saving clauses. — Laws 2005, ch. 231, § 2, provided that nothing in this 2005 act shall affect the authority of the state game commission or the director of the department of game and fish.

The 1997 amendment, June 20, 1997, rewrote Subsection A; substituted "7-36-15 NMSA 1978" for "72-29-5 NMSA 1953" in Subsection E; deleted the last sentence in the introductory paragraph of Subsection F; deleted Paragraphs F(1) and (2); deleted the closing paragraph of Subsection F; and added Subsections G and H.

Elk herd was not livestock for purposes of agricultural classification of property, and, although petitioner's agreement with federal government was proper soil conservation agreement, comparisons of income from multiple uses of property was reasonable proxy for determining that agricultural use was not primary. *Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Distinction between subdivided agricultural lands not unconstitutional. —

Distinction drawn by 72-2-14.1, 1953 Comp., between subdivided and unsubdivided agricultural land, for tax purposes, did not offend N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 1 and did not violate due process. Property Appraisal Dep't v. Ransom, 1973-NMCA-015, 84 N.M. 637, 506 P.2d 794 (decided under prior law).

This section establishes special method of valuation for land used primarily for agricultural purposes, determined on the basis of the land's capacity to produce agricultural products. This "Green Belt" law is clearly an exception to the general mode of property valuation for tax purposes established by the Property Tax Code and the New Mexico constitution, i.e., market value. County of Bernalillo v. Ambell, 1980-NMSC-062, 94 N.M. 395, 611 P.2d 218.

Agricultural land is to be valued based on its capacity to produce, not on its actual production. Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Rio Arriba Cnty. Assessor, 2004-NMCA-055, 135 N.M. 630, 92 P.3d 642, rev'd 2004-NMSC-035, 136 N.M. 630, 103 P.3d 554.

Legislative intent behind this special method of property tax valuation is to aid the small subsistence farmers in the state. County of Bernalillo v. Ambell, 1980-NMSC-062, 94 N.M. 395, 611 P.2d 218.

Legislative intent. — A broad reading of "agricultural use" so as to entitle owners of residential, yet pastoral, lands generally to tax relief is inconsistent with the plain language of this section; the section evinces a legislative intent to deny tax relief to those who demonstrate mere passive or incidental cultivation of their lands. Alexander v. Anderson, 1999-NMCA-021, 126 N.M. 632, 973 P.2d 884.

Crops produced for sale or home consumption. — While growing alfalfa, fruits, nuts, and vegetables may constitute producing crops, an applicant for exemption is required to demonstrate an objective intent to produce a crop for sale or home consumption. Alexander v. Anderson, 1999-NMCA-021, 126 N.M. 632, 973 P.2d 884.

"Home consumption" construed. — Grazing of recreational horses on taxpayers' property did not satisfy the regulatory provision (3 NMAC 6.5.27.1.1) for "home consumption." Alexander v. Anderson, 1999-NMCA-021, 126 N.M. 632, 973 P.2d 884.

Regulation upheld. — Promulgation of a regulation (3 NMAC 6.5.27.1.1) to implement the "agricultural use" exemption of this section is a legal exercise of delegated legislative authority and the regulation is consistent with this section's manifest intent. Alexander v. Anderson, 1999-NMCA-021, 126 N.M. 632, 973 P.2d 884.

Comparable sales wrong criteria under this section. — County assessors using comparable sales instead of agricultural purposes were using the wrong criteria for determining tax on grazing land under this section. In re Armijo, 1976-NMCA-032, 89 N.M. 131, 548 P.2d 93.

Special valuation not applicable once land changed to nonagricultural use. —

Once a property's use has changed from agricultural to nonagricultural, there is no longer the need to give the property owner special tax treatment; the legislature did not desire to give special treatment to former owners of agricultural land even after they voluntarily submit to reclassification of their land for property tax purposes. County of Bernalillo v. Ambell, 1980-NMSC-062, 94 N.M. 395, 611 P.2d 218.

Hypothetical or speculative values not basis. — Classification or assessment of property for tax purposes premised upon hypothetical or speculative values believed, ultimately or at some later time, to be or become the true market value of such land cannot legitimately be the basis of determining its value. Gerner v. State Tax Comm'n, 1963-NMSC-022, 71 N.M. 385, 378 P.2d 619.

Grazing land being held for lots. — Classification and valuation of property suitable for grazing purposes at 10 times the valuation of other property of the same character and quality and similarly situated because of its classification as lots held for speculation for oil or other purposes, absent any evidence of such speculative purposes, was so excessive and discriminatory as to entitle taxpayer to relief, despite fact that some other owners of like tracts were similarly assessed or that these lands, while similar to grazing lands, were not actually used for grazing purposes. Gerner v. State Tax Comm'n, 1963-NMSC-022, 71 N.M. 385, 378 P.2d 619.

7-36-21. Special method of valuation; livestock.

A. All livestock located in the state on January 1 of the tax year shall be valued for property taxation purposes as of January 1.

B. All livestock not located in the state on January 1 but brought into the state and located there for more than twenty days subsequent to January 1 shall be valued for property taxation purposes as of the first day of the month following the month in which they have remained in the state for more than twenty days.

C. The owner of livestock subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall report the livestock for valuation to the county assessor of the county in which they are located on the valuation date specified in Subsections A or B of this section. However, if an importation or movement report is made by the livestock board under the provisions of Section 7-38-45 NMSA 1978, the owner of livestock is relieved of his responsibility to report the livestock covered by the livestock board report, and that report fulfills the owner's responsibility for reporting the livestock under this section. The owner's report shall be in a form and contain the information required by department regulations and shall be made no later than:

(1) the last day of February for livestock required to be valued as of the first day of January or February of the tax year; or

(2) ten days after the valuation date determined under Subsection B of this section for livestock required to be valued as of dates other than those in Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

D. The department shall establish for each tax year the various classes of livestock and the value of each class. This determination shall be implemented by an order of the director, and the order shall be made no later than December 1 of the year prior to the tax year to which the classification and values apply.

E. The department shall adopt regulations for the allocation of value of livestock, which regulations shall provide for:

(1) a basic allocation formula that prorates value on the basis of the amount of time that livestock are in the state and subject to valuation for property taxation purposes;

(2) determining proration of value under Paragraph (1) of this subsection using estimates of the amount of time that livestock will be in the state to cover those situations in which livestock are imported for an indeterminate time during a tax year or in which resident livestock are exported for an indeterminate time during a tax year but are returned during the same tax year; and

(3) a method of allocating value of livestock, both resident and transient, among different governmental units when the livestock range on land in more than one governmental unit.

F. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section or who knowingly makes a false statement in a report required under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

G. Any person who fails to make a report required of him under this section is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he failed to make the required report.

H. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax or who fails to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he refused or failed to make the required report.

I. The civil penalties authorized under Subsections G and H of this section shall be imposed and collected at the time and in the manner that the tax is imposed and collected. In order to assist in the imposition and collection of the penalties, the person having responsibility for determining the value of the property shall make an entry in the valuation records indicating the liability for any penalties due under this section.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For animals and animal industry, see 77-1-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.

Responsibility for valuation. — Subsection D of this section does not allocate valuation of livestock responsibility to the division; instead, that section simply requires the division to supervise the assessor by establishing classes of livestock and values for those classes of livestock. While the division must establish general criteria for valuing livestock, the county assessor does the actual valuation. Zwaagstra v. DelCurto, 1992-NMCA-087, 114 N.M. 263, 837 P.2d 457.

7-36-21.1. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1985 (1st S.S.), ch. 12, § 2 repealed 7-36-21.1, as enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 37, § 64, relating to the special method of valuation for residential property, effective January 1, 1986. For present provisions on limitations on property tax rates on residential property, see 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978.

7-36-21.2. Limitation on increases in valuation of residential property.

A. Residential property shall be valued at its current and correct value in accordance with the provisions of the Property Tax Code; provided that for the 2001 and subsequent tax years, the value of a property in any tax year shall not exceed the higher of one hundred three percent of the value in the tax year prior to the tax year in which the property is being valued or one hundred six and one-tenth percent of the value in the tax year two years prior to the tax year in which the property is being valued. This limitation on increases in value does not apply to:

(1) a residential property in the first tax year that it is valued for property taxation purposes;

(2) any physical improvements, except for solar energy system installations, made to the property during the year immediately prior to the tax year or omitted in a prior tax year; or

(3) valuation of a residential property in any tax year in which:

(a) a change of ownership of the property occurred in the year immediately prior to the tax year for which the value of the property for property taxation purposes is being determined; or

(b) the use or zoning of the property has changed in the year prior to the tax year.

B. If a change of ownership of residential property occurred in the year immediately prior to the tax year for which the value of the property for property taxation purposes is being determined, the value of the property shall be its current and correct value as determined pursuant to the general valuation provisions of the Property Tax Code.

C. To assure that the values of residential property for property taxation purposes are at current and correct values in all counties prior to application of the limitation in Subsection A of this section, the department shall determine for the 2000 tax year the sales ratio pursuant to Section 7-36-18 NMSA 1978 or, if a sales ratio cannot be determined pursuant to that section, conduct a sales-ratio analysis using both independent appraisals by the department and sales. If the sales ratio for a county for the 2000 tax year is less than eighty-five, as measured by the median ratio of value for property taxation purposes to sales price or independent appraisal by the department, the county shall not be subject to the limitations of Subsection A of this section and shall conduct a reassessment of residential property in the county so that by the 2003 tax year, the sales ratio is at least eighty-five. After such reassessment, the limitation on increases in valuation in this section shall apply in those counties in the earlier of the 2004 tax year or the first tax year following the tax year that the county has a sales ratio of eighty-five or higher, as measured by the median ratio of value for property taxation purposes to sales value or independent appraisal by the department. Thereafter, the limitation on increases in valuation of residential property for property taxation purposes in this section shall apply to subsequent tax years in all counties.

D. The provisions of this section do not apply to residential property for any tax year in which the property is subject to the valuation limitation in Section 7-36-21.3 NMSA 1978.

E. As used in this section, "change of ownership" means a transfer to a transferee by a transferor of all or any part of the transferor's legal or equitable ownership interest in residential property except for a transfer:

(1) to a trustee for the beneficial use of the spouse of the transferor or the surviving spouse of a deceased transferor;

(2) to the spouse of the transferor that takes effect upon the death of the transferor;

(3) that creates, transfers or terminates, solely between spouses, any co-owner's interest;

(4) to a child of the transferor, who occupies the property as that person's principal residence at the time of transfer; provided that the first subsequent tax year in which that person does not qualify for the head of household exemption on that property, a change of ownership shall be deemed to have occurred;

(5) that confirms or corrects a previous transfer made by a document that was recorded in the real estate records of the county in which the real property is located;

(6) for the purpose of quieting the title to real property or resolving a disputed location of a real property boundary;

(7) to a revocable trust by the transferor with the transferor, the transferor's spouse or a child of the transferor as beneficiary; or

(8) from a revocable trust described in Paragraph (7) of this subsection back to the settlor or trustor or to the beneficiaries of the trust.

F. As used in this section, "solar energy system installation" means an installation that is used to provide space heat, hot water or electricity to the property in which it is installed and is:

(1) an installation that uses solar panels that are not also windows;

(2) a dark-colored water tank exposed to sunlight; or

(3) a non-vented trombe wall.

History: Laws 2000, ch. 10, § 2; 2001, ch. 321, § 1; 2003, ch. 118, § 1; 2010, ch. 30, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2010 amendment, effective May 19, 2010, in Subsection A(2), added "except for solar energy system installations,"; in Subsection E(4), after "who occupies the property as", changed "his" to "that person's"; and added Subsection F.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 30, § 1 provided that the provisions of Laws 2010, ch. 30, § 1 are applicable to property tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2010.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, deleted former Paragraphs (2) and (3) from Subsection E, defining "net new value" and "prior year value", and redesignated the remaining Paragraphs of Subsection E.

The 2001 amendment, effective April 5, 2001, inserted "or omitted in a prior tax year" in Paragraph A(2); In Subsection C, substituted the language beginning "the department shall determine for the 2000 tax year" to the end of the subsection for that former language that provided for the method of determination if a county was not subject to the limitation in Subsection A; added Subsection D; and redesignated Subsection D as E.

Constitutional valuation limitations. — Article VIII, Section 1 of the New Mexico Constitution limits the legislature's existing plenary authority to impose valuation limitations based on taxpayer characteristics to the three enumerated characteristics of age, income, and owner-occupancy. It does not impose any restrictions on the legislature's authority to impose limitations in valuation increases based on its classification of residential property. Zhao v. Montoya, 2014-NMSC-025, aff'g in part, rev'g in part 2012-NMCA-056, 280 P.3d 918.

Statute does not violate the New Mexico Constitution. — Section 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 does not violate the New Mexico Constitution because it creates an authorized class based on the nature of the property and not on the taxpayer and it does not violate the equal and uniform clause of Article VIII, Section 1 of the New Mexico Constitution because it furthers the legitimate state interest of fostering neighborhood preservation and stability by permitting older owners to pay progressively less taxes than new owners. Zhao v. Montoya, 2014-NMSC-025, aff'g in part, rev'g in part 2012-NMCA-056, 280 P.3d 918.

Where a property owner purchased a residential property in 2007 that had been assessed and valued at $243,786; in 2008 the property was valued at $362,600; another property owner purchased a new home "around the corner" from the owner's old home; in 2009, the old home was valued at $553,700 and the new home was valued at $902,500; and the owners claimed that they were entitled to the three percent limitation on increase in valuation that applied to other properties in the area that had not changed ownership, that 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 was unconstitutional because it created an unauthorized class of residential property taxpayers based solely upon the time of acquisition, not on the constitutionally permissible classifications of owner-occupancy, age or income, and violated the equal and uniform clause of Article VIII, Section 1 of the New Mexico Constitution, 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 was not unconstitutional because it created an authorized class based on the nature of property and not the taxpayer and because it furthered the legitimate state interest of fostering neighborhood preservation and stability by permitting older owners to pay progressively less taxes than new owners. Zhao v. Montoya, 2014-NMSC-025, aff'g in part, rev'g in part 2012-NMCA-056, 280 P.3d 918.

Valuation methods did not create a new class of taxpayers. — The different valuation methods under 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 for newly sold residential property and residential property owned more than a year do not create a new class of taxpayer in violation of Paragraph B of Article VIII, Section 1 of the constitution of New Mexico because 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 limits revaluation for taxation purposes based on owner-occupant status. Zhao v. Montoya, 2012-NMCA-056, 280 P.3d 918, aff'd in part, rev'd in part, 2014-NMSC-025.

Where homeowners bought and occupied new homes and in the year following their purchase, the county valued their property at significantly greater amounts for tax purposes than the county had valued the property for the previous owners; as a result of the revaluation, the property tax assessment for the property significantly increased; and the homeowners claimed that 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 was unconstitutional because it created a new class of taxpayer based on the time of acquisition of property, 7-36-21.2 NMSA 1978 did not create a new class of taxpayer because the homeowners did not obtain the benefit of the limitation of increases in assessed value until they purchased the property, at which time, the homeowners became members of the class of owner-occupants to whom the limitation applies. Zhao v. Montoya, 2012-NMCA-056, 280 P.3d 918, aff'd in part, rev'd in part, 2014-NMSC-025.

Change of ownership. — Where respondents made property transfers between individuals or their trusts and wholly-owned limited liability companies (LLC), the Bernalillo county valuation protest board erred in determining that the transfers did not constitute a change of ownership on the grounds that the property had the same ultimate owner owning the property, because this section expressly carves out eight exceptions to the definition of "change of ownership," none of which includes transfers between individuals or their trusts and LLCs formed to hold title to their properties. A transfer of residential property between an LLC's members and the LLC itself constitutes a change of ownership, subjecting the property to a valuation based upon its current and correct value, regardless of whether the proportional beneficial interests remain intact. Giddings v. SRT-Mountain Vista, LLC, 2019-NMCA-025.

7-36-21.3. Limitation on increase in value for single-family dwellings occupied by low-income owners who are sixty-five years of age or older or disabled; requirements; penalties.

A. The valuation for property taxation purposes of a single-family dwelling owned and occupied by a person who is sixty-five years of age or older or disabled and whose modified gross income for the prior taxable year did not exceed the greater of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) or the amount calculated pursuant to Subsection F of this section shall not be greater than the assessed valuation of the property for property taxation purposes:

- (1) for a person sixty-five years of age or older in the tax year in which the owner qualifies and files an application; or
- (2) for a person who is disabled in the tax year in which the owner qualified and files an application for the limitation provided by this section.

B. The limitation provided by this section may be claimed by filing proof of eligibility with the county assessor on an application form furnished by the assessor. The application shall be filed no later than thirty days after the date of mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation. The application form shall be designed by the department and shall provide for proof of age or disability, occupancy and income eligibility. An owner who applies for the limitation of value specified in this section and files proof of income eligibility for the three consecutive years immediately subsequent to the tax year for which the application is made need not claim the limitation for subsequent tax years if there is no change in eligibility. The county assessor shall apply the limitation automatically in subsequent tax years until a change in eligibility occurs.

C. An owner who has claimed and been allowed the limitation of value specified in this section for the three consecutive tax years immediately prior to the 2020 tax year is not required to claim the limitation for subsequent tax years if there is no change in eligibility, unless the county assessor requests updated information on the owner's modified gross income. The county assessor shall apply the limitation automatically in subsequent tax years until a change in eligibility occurs.

D. A person who has had a limitation applied to a tax year and subsequently becomes ineligible for the limitation because of a change in the person's status or income or a change in the ownership of the property against which the limitation was applied shall notify the county assessor of the loss of eligibility for the limitation by the last day of February of the tax year immediately following the year in which loss of eligibility occurs.

E. A person who knowingly violates the provisions of this section by intentionally claiming and receiving the benefit of a limitation to which the person is not entitled or who fails to comply with the provisions of Subsection D of this section shall be liable for all taxes due, interest and a civil penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

F. For the 2020 tax year and each subsequent tax year, the maximum amount of modified gross income in Subsection A of this section shall be adjusted to account for inflation. The department shall make the adjustment by multiplying thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) by a fraction, the numerator of which is the consumer price index ending during the prior tax year and the denominator of which is the consumer price index ending in tax year 2019. The result of the multiplication shall be rounded down to the nearest one hundred dollars ($100), except that if the result would be an amount less than the corresponding amount for the preceding tax year, then no adjustment shall be made.

G. The department shall publish annually the amount determined by the calculation made pursuant to Subsection F of this section and provide the calculated amount to each county assessor no later than December 1 of each tax year.

H. The limitation of value specified in Subsection A of this section does not apply to:

(1) a change in valuation resulting from any physical improvements made to the property during the year immediately prior to the tax year or a change in the permitted use or zoning of the property during the year immediately prior to the tax year;

or

(2) a residential property in the first tax year that is valued for property taxation purposes.

I. As used in this section:

(1) "consumer price index" means the consumer price index for all urban consumers published by the United States department of labor for the month ending September 30;

(2) "disabled" means a person who has been determined to be blind or permanently disabled with medical improvement not expected pursuant to 42 USCA 421 for purposes of the federal Social Security Act or is determined to have a permanent total disability pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Act [Chapter 52, Article 1 NMSA 1978]; and

(3) "modified gross income" means "modified gross income" as used in the Income Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 2 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 2000, ch. 21, § 1; 2001, ch. 321, § 2; 2003, ch. 78, § 1; 2008, ch. 26, § 1; 2013, ch. 161, § 1; 2019, ch. 140, § 1; 2020, ch. 73, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective May 20, 2020, clarified the limitation on valuation increases for low-income disabled persons; in Subsection A, in the introductory clause, after "greater than the", added "assessed", in Paragraph A(1), added "for a person sixty-five years of age or older in the", and after "in which the", deleted "owner's sixty-fifth birthday occurs, if the owner owns and occupies that property" and added "owner qualifies and files an application", and completely rewrote Paragraph A(2); and in Subsection B, added "The application shall be filed no later than thirty days after the date of mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation."

The 2019 amendment, effective June 14, 2019, increased the income limit for eligibility for a limitation on property tax valuation of a dwelling occupied by a person who is sixty-five years of age or older or disabled; deleted former Subsections A through D, added a new Subsection A and redesignated former Subsections E through I as Subsections B through F, respectively; in Subsection B, added "The limitation provided by this section", and after "an application form", deleted "for the limitation"; in Subsection C, after "prior to the", deleted "2014" and added "2020", after "tax year is not", added "required to", and after "change in eligibility", added "unless the county assessor requests updated information on the owner's modified gross income"; in Subsection E, after "civil penalty of", deleted "no more than three times the amount of additional taxes due" and added "one thousand dollars ($1,000)"; in Subsection F, after "For the", deleted "2002" and added "2020", after "modified gross income in", deleted "Subsections A, B and C" and added "Subsection A", after "by multiplying", deleted "the maximum amount for tax year 2000" and added "thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000)", after "ending in tax year", deleted "2000" and added "2019", and deleted "for purpose of this subsection, 'consumer price index' means the consumer price index for all urban consumers published by the United States department of labor for the month ending September 30"; redesignated former Subsections J and K as Subsections H and I, respectively; in Subsection G, after "calculation", added "made pursuant to Subsection F of this section", and after "and", deleted "distribute it" and added "provide the calculated amount"; in Subsection H, in the introductory clause, after "specified in", deleted "Subsections A, B and C" and added "Subsection A"; and in Subsection I, added Paragraphs I(1) and I(3) and new paragraph designation "(2)".

Applicability. — Laws 2019, ch. 140, § 2 provided that the provisions of Laws 2019, ch. 140, § 1 apply to the 2020 and subsequent property tax years.

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, provided for an automatic application of the limitation on increase in value for single-family dwellings occupied by low-income owners sixty-five years of age or disabled; provides for penalties; in the title, added "requirements; penalties"; deleted former Subsection E, which provided for the application for the limitation of value; and added Subsections E through H.

The 2008 amendment, effective May 14, 2008, added Subsections B and D.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, in the section heading, substituted "low-income owners" for "owner" near the middle and added "or disabled" at the end; added present Subsection B and redesignated subsequent subsections accordingly; in present Subsection C, substituted "Subsections A and B" for "Subsection A" near the beginning and inserted "or disability" following "proof of age" near the end; substituted "Subsections A and B" for "Subsection A" near the beginning of Subsection D and near the middle of Subsection E; and added present Subsection F.

The 2001 amendment, effective April 5, 2001; in Subsection A, substituted "did not exceed the greater of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) or the amount calculated pursuant to Subsection C of this section" for "did not exceed eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000)" added Paragraph A(3); deleted "at the time notices of valuation are sent out by the assessor pursuant to Section 7-38-20 NMSA 1978" at the end of the first sentence in Subsection B and added Subsections C and D.

7-36-22. Mineral property; definitions and classifications for valuation purposes.

As used in this article, "mineral property" does not include oil and gas property or productive copper mineral property and means:

A. "class one productive mineral property", which means mineral lands, all mineral reserves and interests in minerals in mineral lands and all severed mineral products from mineral lands when the mineral lands are held under private ownership in fee and the property is mined or operated in good faith for its mineral values with a reasonable degree of continuity during the year preceding the tax year in which its value is determined and to an extent in keeping with the market demand and conditions affecting the extraction and disposition of the product;

B. "class one nonproductive mineral property", which means mineral lands, all mineral reserves and interests in minerals in mineral lands and all severed mineral products from mineral lands when the mineral lands are held under private ownership in fee and the property is known to contain minerals in commercially workable quantities of such a character as add present value to the land in addition to its values for other purposes but is not operated so as to fall in the class of class one productive mineral property;

C. "class two mineral property", which means the severed mineral products from mineral lands held by possessory title under the laws of the United States; and

D. "class three mineral property", which means severed mineral products from leasehold or contract mineral rights in mineral lands, the fee of which is vested in the United States or the state.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-29-11, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 23; 1975, ch. 218, § 2; 1990, ch. 125, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective March 7, 1990, inserted "for productive copper mineral property" in the introductory language.

Nonseverability. — Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 19 provided that the provisions of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978] and the corresponding amendments made in that act to the Property Tax Code [Articles 35 to 38 of Chapter 7 NMSA 1978] are not severable.

Neither supreme court nor district court may reclassify, revalue or reassess property improperly classified by taxing officials and, consequently, assess at an excessive valuation. Gerner v. State Tax Comm'n, 1963-NMSC-022, 71 N.M. 385, 378 P.2d 619.

Negative mineral property production figure disallowed. — The statutory requirement of allocating the net taxable value of each item of property used in connection with mineral property prevents the use of the negative value for mineral property production to reduce the valuation of property valued under Section 7-36-33 NMSA 1978; therefore, the taxpayer cannot use a negative figure for mineral property production to reduce the positive value of property used in connection with mineral property. U.V. Indus., Inc. v. Property Tax Div. of Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1979-NMCA-147, 93 N.M. 651, 603 P.2d 1108.

Valuation to be fixed by standards. — To have uniformity and equality in a form of tax, the valuations must be established by some standard; and after valuations are fixed, the taxes based upon such valuations must be levied by a standard. It is only thus that each taxpayer may bear his fair share of the burden of government. Gerner v. State Tax Comm'n, 1963-NMSC-022, 71 N.M. 385, 378 P.2d 619.

Regulation based upon taxpayer's federal tax treatment of property. — Regulation providing that, if a taxpayer attributed development expenditures to a particular piece of property under 26 USCS § 616, the property was rebuttably presumed, for the next 10 years, to contain minerals in such quantities and character so as to classify the property as class one nonproductive mineral property under Subsection B, was a valid regulation in that it was not arbitrary because the taxpayer would have opportunity to present facts to rebut the presumption; in that there was substantial evidence to support the regulation; and in that the regulation was not substantive, since it announced a procedure for classifying the property based upon the taxpayer's treatment of the property for federal tax purposes. Santa Fe Pac.R.R. v. Property Tax Dep't, 1976-NMCA-071, 89 N.M. 446, 553 P.2d 726 (Ct. App. 1976).

7-36-23. Special method of valuation; mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property; exception for potash and uranium mineral property and property used in connection with potash and uranium mineral property.

A. The provisions of this section apply to the valuation of all mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property except potash and uranium mineral property and property used in connection with potash and uranium mineral property, the methods of valuation for which are provided in Sections 7-36-24 and 7-36-25 NMSA 1978.

B. The following kinds of property held or used in connection with mineral property shall be valued under the methods of valuation required by the Property Tax Code:

(1) improvements, equipment, materials, supplies and other personal property held or used in connection with all classes of mineral property; "improvements" as used in this section includes surface and subsurface structures, but does not include pits, shafts, drifts and other similar artificial changes in the physical condition of the surface or subsurface of the earth produced solely by the removal or rearrangement of earth or minerals for the purpose of exposing or removing ore from a mine; and

(2) the surface value for agricultural or other purposes of class one productive or nonproductive mineral property when the surface interest is held in the same ownership as the mineral interests.

C. The value for property taxation purposes of class one productive mineral property is an amount equal to three hundred percent of the annual net production value of the mineral property.

D. The value for property taxation purposes of class two and class three mineral property is an amount equal to three hundred percent of the annual net production value.

E. The value for property taxation purposes of class one nonproductive mineral property shall be determined by applying a per acre value to the surface acres of the property being valued. The per acre value of class one nonproductive mineral property shall be determined under regulations adopted by the department, which regulations shall establish a per acre value based upon bonus bids accepted by the commissioner of public lands for the latest one year period in which bonus bids were accepted for the sale of mineral leases, which per acre value may be determined by geographical areas.

F. For purposes of this section, "annual net production value" means either:

(1) the average of five years' net production value from the mineral property for the five years immediately preceding the tax year in which value is being determined, or so much of the period during which the property has been in operation, with each year's net production value being determined by taking the year's market value of production of all minerals, including any bonus or subsidy payments, and deducting from that value:

(a) any royalties paid or due the United States, the state or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian who is a ward of the United States;

(b) the direct costs, exclusive of depreciation, determined under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied by the taxpayer, of extracting, milling, treating, reducing, transporting and selling the minerals; and

(c) the costs of depreciation, determined under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied by the taxpayer, of property actually used in the extracting, milling, treating, reducing and transporting of the minerals; or

(2) the net production value from the mineral property for the year immediately preceding the tax year in which value is being determined, with that year's net production value being determined by taking the year's market value of production of all minerals, including any bonus or subsidy payments, and deducting from that value:

(a) any royalties paid or due the United States, the state or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian who is a ward of the United States;

(b) the direct costs, exclusive of depreciation, determined under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied by the taxpayer, of extracting, milling, treating, reducing, transporting and selling the minerals; and

(c) the cost of depreciation, determined under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied by the taxpayer, of property actually used in the extracting, milling, treating, reducing and transporting of the minerals.

G. Annual net production value shall be determined under Paragraph (1) of Subsection F of this section unless the taxpayer elects to have it determined under Paragraph (2) of that subsection. To be effective, an election must be exercised by written notification to the department at the time the mineral property is reported to the department for valuation in a tax year. Once an election is exercised, a taxpayer may not change from the elected method without the prior approval of the department.

H. The department shall adopt regulations specifying procedures to be followed under, and the details of, the method for valuation of mineral property specified in this section.

Payments to be included in market value. — Portions of former 72-6-7(6), 1953 Comp., are pertinent as the market value is to include bonus or subsidy payments and there is evidence that the royalty payments fall into that category; however, amounts paid for improvements are not to be included as part of the costs, and depreciation on such improvements should also not be included. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1976-NMCA-071, 83 N.M. 251, 490 P.2d 968, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 258, 490 P.2d 975.

Essential factors in determining market value are the existence of a demand and the accessibility of a market. Without a demand a rich natural resource may lie dormant and be commercially valueless. Regulation modifying statutory determination of annual net production contrary to section. — Regulation providing that the property tax department would not permit the use of minus figures for a particular year's net production value in calculating the average of five years' net production value was contrary to the provisions of Subsection F because the property tax department had no authority to adopt regulations modifying the statutory provision for determining the annual net production value. *Santa Fe Pac.R.R. v. 7-36-24. Special method of valuation; mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property when the primary production from the mineral property is potash.

A. The provisions of this section apply to valuation of all mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property when the primary production from the mineral property is potash.

B. The value for property taxation purposes of improvements, equipment, materials, supplies and other personal property held or used in connection with all classes of potash mineral property is an amount equal to the market value of all mineral production from the potash mineral property for the prior year, less any royalties paid or due the United States, the state or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian who is a ward of the United States. "Improvements" as used in this section includes surface and subsurface structures, but does not include pits, shafts, drifts and other similar artificial changes in the physical condition of the surface or subsurface of the earth produced solely by the removal or rearrangement of earth or minerals for the purpose of exposing or removing ore from a mine.

C. The value for property taxation purposes of the surface value for agricultural or other purposes held in connection with class one productive or nonproductive potash mineral property, when the surface interest is held in the same ownership as the mineral interests, shall be determined under the methods of valuation required by the Property Tax Code.

D. The value for property taxation purposes of class one productive potash mineral property is an amount equal to fifty percent of the market value of all mineral production from the potash mineral property for the prior year.

E. The value for property taxation purposes of class two and class three potash mineral property is an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount derived by deducting from the market value of all mineral production from the potash mineral property for the prior year any royalties paid or due the United States, the state or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian who is a ward of the United States.

F. The value for property taxation purposes of class one nonproductive potash mineral property shall be determined under Subsection E of Section 7-36-23 NMSA 1978.

G. If a taxpayer severs potash in one or more governmental units and processes the severed potash in another governmental unit, the value of all interests in minerals shall be allocated to the governmental unit or units in which the potash is severed, and the value of improvements, equipment, materials, supplies and personal property shall be allocated among the governmental units in which the property is located on the basis of the original cost of the property.

H. The department shall adopt regulations specifying procedures to be followed under, and the details of, the method for valuation of potash mineral property specified in this section. The department shall also adopt regulations for the allocation of values of potash mineral property among the governmental units.

7-36-25. Special method of valuation; mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property when the primary production from the mineral property is uranium.

A. The provisions of this section apply to the valuation of all mineral property and property used in connection with mineral property when the primary production from the mineral property is uranium.

B. The following kinds of property held or used in connection with uranium mineral property shall be valued under the methods of valuation required by the Property Tax Code:

(1) improvements, equipment, materials, supplies and other personal property held or used in connection with all classes of uranium mineral property; "improvements" as used in this section includes surface and subsurface structures, but does not include pits, shafts, drifts or other similar artificial changes in the physical condition of the surface or subsurface of the earth produced solely by the removal or rearrangement of earth or minerals for the purpose of exposing or removing ore from a mine; and

(2) the surface value for agricultural or other purposes of class one productive or nonproductive uranium mineral property when the surface interest is held in the same ownership as the mineral interests.

C. The value for property taxation purposes of class one productive, class two and class three uranium mineral property is the annual net production value of the uranium mineral property.

D. The value for property taxation purposes of class one nonproductive uranium mineral property shall be determined under Subsection E of Section 7-36-23 NMSA 1978.

E. For the purposes of this section, the "annual net production value" means:

(1) the sales price of uranium-bearing material disposed of as ore or solution, less fifty percent of that sales price as a deduction for the cost of producing and bringing the output to the surface and of transporting and selling it; or

(2) in the case of uranium-bearing material not disposed of as ore or solution but processed or beneficiated (other than by sizing and blending), regardless of the form in which the product is actually disposed of, the value of U3O8 contained in ore or solution determined on the basis of the U3O8 content of the ore or solution at fifty percent of the taxpayer's average unit sales price during the preceding calendar year of U3O8 contained in the concentrate form commonly known as "yellowcake" (or if the uranium concentrate has not been sold in the preceding calendar year, at fifty percent of the representative sales price for U3O8 contained in the concentrate form commonly known as "yellowcake" at the place and time of processing or beneficiation into that concentrate), plus fifty percent of the representative sales price of all other minerals produced and saved from such uranium-bearing material, less fifty percent of the value as a deduction for the cost of producing and bringing the output to the surface from an underground mine.

F. In determining annual net production value of class two and class three uranium mineral property, a deduction may be taken for royalties paid or due the United States, the state or any Indian tribe, Indian pueblo or Indian who is a ward of the United States, but the deduction allowed by this subsection must be subtracted from one hundred percent of the applicable sales price before applying any other reductions in or deductions from that sales price.

Section deemed constitutional. — Since the classification, in Subsection E, distinguishing open-pit mines from underground mines is reasonable and the tax imposed by this section is uniform and equal on all subjects of a class, this section is constitutional. Anaconda Co. v. Property Tax Dep't, 1979-NMCA-158, 94 N.M. 202, 608 P.2d 514, cert. denied, 94 N.M. 628, 614 P.2d 545.

There is reasonable basis for division of mines for tax purposes into the classes of underground and open-pit mines: the basis for the classification is the difference between the cost of producing and bringing uranium ore to the surface in the two types of mines; since this cost is greater in underground than in open-pit mines, it was within the legislature's power to provide a tax deduction to underground mines that it did not grant to open-pit mines. Anaconda Co. v. Property Tax Dep't, 1979-NMCA-158, 94 N.M. 202, 608 P.2d 514, cert. denied, 94 N.M. 628, 614 P.2d 545.

Market price as exchange value. — As to the price between a fictional seller and buyer, the market price of a commodity is the exchange value and it is determined by the demand for it in relation to the supply and is proved, when possible, by actual sales. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1971-NMCA-131, 83 N.M. 251, 490 P.2d 968, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 258, 490 P.2d 975.

Essential factors in determining market value are the existence of a demand and the accessibility of a market. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1971-NMCA-131, 83 N.M. 251, 490 P.2d 968, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 258, 490 P.2d 975.

Property Tax Div.*, 1980-NMCA-063, 95 N.M. 685, 625 P.2d 1202.

Burden of proof was on contestant and was both the burden of producing evidence and the burden of persuasion which was, in this case, where the validity of the state's valuation is in issue, not the burden of showing the correct valuation but to show that the state's valuation was erroneous. However, an asserted failure in contestant's burden of persuasion does not require that the court uphold the state's valuation when that valuation is not supported by substantial evidence. Kaiser Steel Corp. v. Property Appraisal Dep't, 1971-NMCA-131, 83 N.M. 251, 490 P.2d 968, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 258, 490 P.2d 975.

Finding not supported by evidence inference. — Since the market value of the mine run coal was based on evidence of sales of 4% and 9% of production at $8.50 per ton, this evidence did not support an inference that 96% and 91% of production had a market value of $8.50 per ton absent evidence of a market at that price and, therefore, the finding utilizing a market value of $8.50 per ton for all mine run coal was not supported by substantial evidence. *Kaiser Steel Corp. v. 7-36-26. Special method of valuation; manufactured homes.

A. The owner of a manufactured home subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall report the manufactured home annually for valuation to the county assessor of the county in which the manufactured home is located on January 1. The report shall be in a form and contain the information required by department regulation and shall be made no later than the last day of February of the tax year in which the property is subject to valuation.

B. The valuation method used for determining the value of manufactured homes for property taxation purposes shall be a cost method applying generally accepted appraisal techniques and shall generally provide for:

(1) the determination of initial cost of a manufactured home based upon classifications of manufactured homes and sales prices for the various classifications;

(2) deductions from initial cost for allowable depreciation, which allowances for depreciation shall be developed by the division; and

(3) deduction from initial cost of other justifiable factors, including but not limited to functional and economic obsolescence.

C. Whether or not the presence of a manufactured home is declared and reported by the owner to a county assessor as required by this section, the county assessor shall determine the value for property taxation purposes of each manufactured home located in the county and subject to valuation. County assessors shall use the information required to be furnished them under Sections 66-6-10 and 66-7-413 NMSA 1978 to assure that accurate records of locations of manufactured homes are maintained.

D. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section or who knowingly makes a false statement in a report required under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

E. Any person who fails to make a report required of him under this section is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he failed to make the required report.

F. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax or who fails to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he refused or failed to make the required report.

G. The civil penalties authorized under Subsections E and F of this section shall be imposed and collected at the time and in the manner that the tax is imposed and collected. In order to assist in the imposition and collection of the penalties, the assessor having responsibility for determining the value of the property shall make an entry in the valuation records indicating the liability for any penalties due under this section.

7-36-27. Special method of valuation; pipelines, tanks, sales meters and plants used in the processing, gathering, transmission, storage, measurement or distribution of oil, natural gas, carbon dioxide or liquid hydrocarbons.

A. All pipelines, tanks, sales meters and plants used in the processing, gathering, transmission, storage, measurement or distribution of oil, natural gas, carbon dioxide or liquid hydrocarbons subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "construction work in progress" means the total of the balances of work orders for pipelines, plants, large industrial sales meters and tanks, in the process of construction on the last day of the preceding calendar year, exclusive of land and land rights and equipment, machinery or devices that are used or are available for use to construct pipelines, plants, large industrial sales meters and tanks but that are not incorporated into the pipelines, plants, large industrial sales meters or tanks;

(2) "depreciation" means straight line depreciation over the useful life of the item of property;

(3) "direct customer distribution pipeline" means a low or intermediate pressure distribution system pipeline of four inches or smaller diameter situated in urban areas;

(4) "economic obsolescence" means, with respect to valuation for property taxation purposes, loss in value of a property caused by unfavorable economic influences or factors outside of the property; "economic obsolescence" is a loss in value in addition to a loss in value attributable to physical depreciation;

(5) "functional obsolescence" means, with respect to valuation for property taxation purposes, loss in value of a property caused by functional inadequacies or deficiencies caused by factors within the property; "functional obsolescence" is a loss in value in addition to a loss in value attributable to physical depreciation;

(6) "large industrial sales meter" means a sales meter having an installed tangible property cost in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500);

(7) "other justifiable factors" includes, but is not limited to, functional obsolescence and economic obsolescence;

(8) "pipeline" means all pipe, appurtenances and devices used in systems for gathering, transmission or distribution, but excludes sales meters, a pipeline operated exclusively for and constituting a part of a plant and a direct customer distribution pipeline;

(9) "plant" means any refinery, gasoline plant, extraction plant, purification plant, compressor or pumping station or similar plant, including all structures, equipment, pipes and other related facilities, excluding residential housing, office buildings and warehouses;

(10) "sales meter" means the meter, regulator and all appurtenances and devices used for measuring sales to customers and includes the service pipe to the customer's property line from the point of connection with the pipeline;

(11) "schedule value" means a fixed value of an individual property unit within a mass of similar or like units established by determining the total tangible property cost of a substantial sample of such property and deducting therefrom an average related accumulated provision for depreciation and allocating a proportionate part of the remainder to individual taxable property units;

(12) "tangible property cost" means the actual cost of acquisition or construction of property, excluding construction work in progress, including additions, retirements, adjustments and transfers, but without deduction of related accumulated provision for depreciation, amortization or other purposes and excluding any amount attributable to oil or gas reserves dedicated to such item of property; and

(13) "tank" means any storage tank or container, other than a natural reservoir, for storage that is not a component part of a plant.

C. Sales meters, other than large industrial sales meters, shall be valued as follows:

(1) the department may periodically determine the average tangible property cost of a substantial sample of sales meters in general use in the state;

(2) such average tangible property cost shall then be reduced by the average related accumulated provision for depreciation applicable to the sample of sales meters; and

(3) from the determinations pursuant to Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, a schedule of value for sales meters for property taxation purposes shall be determined and set forth in a rule adopted by the department.

D. Pipelines, direct customer distribution pipelines, large industrial sales meters, tanks and plants shall be valued as follows:

(1) the valuation authority shall first establish the tangible property cost of each item of property;

(2) from such tangible property cost shall be deducted the related accumulated provision for depreciation and any other justifiable factors that further affect the tangible property value of each item of property; and

(3) notwithstanding the determination of value for property taxation purposes in Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, the value for property taxation purposes of each item of property valued under this subsection shall not be less than twenty percent of the tangible property cost of such item of property.

E. Construction work in progress shall be valued at fifty percent of the amount expended and entered upon the accounting records of the taxpayer as of December 31 of the preceding year as construction work in progress.

F. Each item of property having a taxable situs in the state and valued under this section shall have its net taxable value allocated to the governmental units in which the property is located.

G. A reduction in value asserted by a taxpayer as attributable to economic obsolescence or functional obsolescence shall contain an obsolescence factor along with a brief statement of the facts that support the reduction, together with supporting documentation. The documentation may include items such as monthly throughput volumes from the prior year; comparisons to a documented industry standard; comparisons to a close competitor; and an engineer's or appraiser's valuation. The department may adopt rules that include other types of objective evidence of functional obsolescence or economic obsolescence.

H. If the department determines that a taxpayer has not established, based on the brief statement of facts and the supporting documentation provided, that the reduction for functional obsolescence or economic obsolescence is in accordance with the law or rules adopted by the department, the department shall notify the taxpayer of the department's determination in writing setting forth the reasons for its determination and specifying the supporting information that the department requires. The department shall provide the notice by April 1 or thirty days after the return is filed but no later than April 15 of the tax year. If the taxpayer does not file the report by March 15 of the property tax year, the department shall not be required to furnish a timely notice of deficiency by April 15 of the property tax year. In the case of properties regulated by the federal energy regulatory commission, the notice of deficiency shall be provided to the taxpayer within fifteen days after the filing of the report and the taxpayer shall then have ten days within which to correct the deficiency.

I. The department shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section.

7-36-28. Special method of valuation; pipelines, tanks, collection systems, meters, plants and hydrants used in the collection, transmission, storage, treatment, discharge, measurement or distribution of water or wastewater.

A. Except as provided in Subsection F [G] of this section, all pipelines, tanks, meters, lift stations, treatment facilities, plants and hydrants used in the collection, transmission, storage, measurement, treatment, discharge or distribution of water or wastewater subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "commercial water property" means privately owned pipelines, tanks, meters, plants, hydrants, materials and supplies, whether in service, in stock or under construction, owned and operated as a utility for the purpose of transmitting, storing, measuring or distributing water for sale to the consuming public, excluding general buildings and improvements;

(2) "commercial wastewater property" means privately owned pipelines, collection systems, lift stations, meters, treatment facilities, materials and supplies, whether in service, in stock or under construction, owned and operated as a utility for the purpose of collecting, transmitting, measuring, treating or discharging wastewater used for the purpose of providing wastewater service to the public, excluding general buildings and improvements;

(3) "depreciation" means straight line depreciation over the useful life of the item of property;

(4) "general buildings and improvements" means buildings of the nature of offices, residential housing, warehouses, shops and associated improvements in general use by the taxpayer but not directly associated with the collection, transmission, storage, measurement, treatment, discharge or distribution of water or wastewater;

(5) "gallons" means the measurement of water sold or the measurement of wastewater discharged to a third party's treatment facility or the measurement of wastewater treated and discharged;

(6) "revenue" means gross utility operating revenue;

(7) "closed system" means a commercial water system in which water is gathered primarily by wells and stored in closed reservoirs and tanks; and

(8) "combination system" means a commercial water system in which water is gathered both in open reservoirs and by wells and is stored both in open reservoirs and closed reservoirs and tanks.

C. The value of commercial water property shall be determined as follows:

(1) a factor of two and forty-nine one hundredths per thousand gallons is to be used for a closed system and three and twenty-five one hundredths is to be used for a combination system;

(2) the department shall determine the type of system into which the taxpayer's commercial water properties should be categorized;

(3) the department shall then ascertain the number of thousand gallons sold to consumers by the taxpayer during each of the three immediately preceding calendar years and the taxpayer's water revenue from the immediately preceding calendar year;

(4) a simple average of the three-year thousand gallon sales shall be computed and compared to the actual thousand gallons sold to consumers during the immediately preceding calendar year. The higher of the average thousand gallons or the immediately preceding year's actual thousand gallons shall be the basis for value calculations;

(5) the thousand gallon figure determined in Paragraph (4) of this subsection shall then be multiplied by the appropriate per thousand gallon factor from Paragraph (1) of this subsection. The result of this calculation is the value of commercial water property for property taxation purposes; and

(6) notwithstanding the calculations provided for in Paragraphs (1) through (5) of this subsection, the value of the taxpayer's commercial water property shall not be greater than four and one-half times the revenue derived during the immediately preceding calendar year from the operation of the commercial water property.

D. The value of commercial wastewater property shall be determined as follows:

(1) a factor of two and forty-nine one hundredths per thousand gallons shall be used;

(2) the department shall then ascertain the number of thousand gallons wastewater discharged to a third party's treatment facility or the number of thousand gallons wastewater treated and discharged during each of the three immediately preceding calendar years and the taxpayer's wastewater revenue from the immediately preceding calendar year;

(3) a simple average of the three-year thousand gallons shall be computed and compared to the actual thousand gallons during the immediately preceding calendar year. The higher of the average thousand gallons or the immediately preceding year's actual thousand gallons shall be the basis for value calculations;

(4) the thousand gallon figure determined in Paragraph (3) of this subsection shall then be multiplied by the factor provided in Paragraph (1) of this subsection. The result of this calculation is the value of commercial wastewater property for property taxation purposes; and

(5) notwithstanding the calculations provided for in this subsection, the value of the taxpayer's commercial wastewater property shall not be greater than four and one-half times the revenue derived during the immediately preceding calendar year from the operation of the commercial wastewater property.

E. Each item of property having a taxable situs in the state and valued pursuant to this section shall have its net taxable value allocated to the governmental units in which the property is located on the basis of the percentage of the taxpayer's total investment in each governmental unit.

F. The department shall adopt regulations to implement the provisions of this section.

G. Commercial water property owned or sold by a nonprofit mutual domestic water association is exempt from valuation for property taxation purposes.

2009 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2009, ch. 246, § 1 and Laws 2009, ch. 247, § 1 enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2009, ch. 247, § 1, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2009,

ch. 246, § 1 and Laws 2009, ch. 247, § 1 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2009 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

Laws 2009, ch. 247, § 1, effective April 7, 2009, in Subsection A, after "tanks", deleted "sales", after "meters", added "lift stations, treatment facilities"; after "used in the", added "collection"; after "measurement", added "treatment, discharge"; and after "distribution of water", added "or wastewater"; added Paragraph (2) of Subsection B; in Paragraph (4) of Subsection B, after "associated with the", added "collection"; after "measurement", added "treatment, discharge"; and after "distribution of water", added "or wastewater"; in Paragraph (5) of Subsection B, after "water sold", added the remainder of the sentence; in Paragraph (3) of Subsection C, after "taxpayer's", added "water"; in Paragraph (5) of Subsection C, after "purposes;", added "and"; in Paragraph (6) of Subsection C, after "provided for", deleted "above" and added "in Paragraphs (1) through (5) of this subsection"; added Subsection D; in Subsection E, after "valued", deleted "under" and added "pursuant to"; and in Subsection F, after "regulations", deleted "under Section 72-31-88 NMSA 1953".

Laws 2009, ch. 246, § 1, effective June 19, 2009, in Subsection A, added "Except as provided in Subsection F of this section"; in Paragraph (5) of Subsection C, after "purposes;", added "and"; in Subsection E, after "regulations", deleted "under Section 72-31-88 NMSA 1953"; and added Subsection F.

Mutual domestic water consumers associations are municipal corporations and are therefore exempt from property taxes. — Article VIII, § 3 of the New Mexico Constitution exempts from property taxes the property of municipal corporations, and under current law mutual domestic water consumers associations (MDWCA), organized pursuant to the Sanitary Projects Act, NMSA 1978, §§ 3-29-1 to 3-29-21, are municipal corporations, as they are local political entities created pursuant to statute and authorized to manage community water systems, and therefore the property of MDWCAs is constitutionally exempt from property taxation. 2024 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 24-06.

7-36-29. Special method of valuation; property used for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric power or energy.

A. All property used for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric power or energy subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "depreciation" means straight line depreciation over the useful life of the item of property;

(2) "electric plant" means all property situated in this state used or useful for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric power or energy, but does not include land, land rights, general buildings and improvements, construction work in progress, materials and supplies and licensed vehicles;

(3) "construction work in progress" means the total of the balances of work orders for an electric plant in process of construction on the last day of the preceding calendar year exclusive of land, land rights and licensed vehicles;

(4) "general buildings and improvements" means buildings of the nature of offices, residential housing, warehouses, shops and associated improvements in general use by the taxpayer and not directly associated with generation, transmission or distribution of electric power or energy;

(5) "materials and supplies" means the cost, including sales, use and excise taxes, and transportation costs to point of delivery in this state, less purchases and trade discounts, of all unapplied material and supplies on hand in this state as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year; and

(6) "tangible property cost" means the actual cost of acquisition or construction of property, including additions, retirements, adjustments and transfers, but without deduction of related accumulated provision for depreciation, amortization or other purposes; "tangible property cost" excludes the cost of property contributed to, or acquired with funds contributed to, a utility by or on behalf of a ratepayer or potential ratepayer for the expansion, improvement or replacement of property used for the transmission or distribution of electric power of the utility.

C. An electric plant shall be valued as follows:

(1) the department shall determine the tangible property cost of the electric plant;

(2) such tangible property cost shall then be reduced by the related accumulated provision for depreciation and any other justifiable factors, including functional and economic obsolescence, such as the limitation on the use of the property based on the available reserves committed to the property; and

(3) notwithstanding the foregoing determination of value for property taxation purposes, the value for property taxation purposes of an electric plant shall not be less than twenty percent of the tangible property cost of the electric plant.

D. The value of construction work in progress shall be fifty percent of the amount expended and entered upon the accounting records of the taxpayer as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year as construction work in progress.

E. The value of materials and supplies shall be the tangible property cost for such property as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year.

F. Each item of property having a taxable situs in the state and valued under this section shall have its net taxable value allocated to the governmental units in which the property is located.

G. The department shall adopt regulations under Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to implement the provisions of this section.

History: Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 30; 1953 Comp., § 72-29-18, repealed and reenacted by Laws 1975, ch. 165, § 10; 2016, ch. 49, § 1.

7-36-30. Special methods of valuation; property that is part of a communications system.

A. All property that is part of a communications system and is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "communications system" means a system for the transmission and reception of information by the use of electronic, magnetic or optical means or any combination thereof and which system or any portion thereof is available for use by another person for consideration;

(2) "depreciation" means straight line depreciation over the useful life of the item of property;

(3) "other justifiable factors" includes but is not limited to wear and tear of the property not covered by depreciation, inadequacy, changes in demand and requirements of public authorities attributable to the applicable decrease in value and functional or economic obsolescence;

(4) "plant" means all tangible property located in this state and used or useful for the provision of communication service as reflected by the uniform system of accounting in use by the taxpayer, but does not include construction work in progress or materials and supplies;

(5) "construction work in progress" means the total of the balance of work orders for plant in process of construction on the last day of the preceding calendar year, exclusive of land and land rights;

(6) "tangible property cost" means the actual cost of acquisition or construction of property, including additions, retirements, adjustments and transfers, but without deduction of related accumulated provision for depreciation, amortization or other purposes; and

(7) "materials and supplies" means the cost, including sales, use and excise taxes, and transportation costs to point of delivery in this state, less purchases and trade discounts, of all unapplied materials and supplies on hand in this state as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year.

C. Each taxpayer having property subject to valuation under this section shall elect to have that property valued by the department in accordance with either Subsection D or Subsection F of this section. The election shall be effective for subsequent property tax years unless prior permission of the secretary is obtained to change the election for good cause shown. A taxpayer may not seek permission to change an election unless the prior election has been effective for at least three consecutive property tax years. The secretary shall find that good cause exists to change the election upon a showing satisfactory to the secretary by the taxpayer that:

(1) the net result of all amendments to the property tax statutes and regulations with effective dates commencing within the property tax year has a substantial adverse effect on the valuation for property tax purposes under the alternative elected for the property for that year relative to what the valuation for property tax purposes would have been under the other alternative in the absence of the amendments;

(2) the net result of all changes in law or circumstances but excluding acquisition or sale of property subject to valuation under this section, including changes which do not affect property tax liability, occurring within the property tax year has a substantial adverse effect on the valuation for property tax purposes under the alternative elected for the property for that year relative to what the valuation for property tax purposes for the property would have been under the other alternative in the absence of the changes; or

(3) changes in property tax statutes or regulations which are effective prior to the property tax year have a substantial adverse effect on the valuation for property tax purposes under the alternative elected for the property relative to what the valuation for property tax purposes would have been under the other alternative.

D. Communications system property valued under this subsection shall be valued in accordance with Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection:

(1) plant shall be valued in the following manner:

(a) the department shall first establish the tangible property cost of the plant;

(b) from such tangible property cost shall be deducted the related accumulated provision for depreciation and other justifiable factors; and

(c) notwithstanding the foregoing determination of value for property taxation purposes, the value for property taxation purposes of the plant shall not be less than twenty percent of the tangible property cost of the plant;

(2) construction work in progress shall have a value for property taxation purposes equal to fifty percent of the actual amounts expended and entered upon the accounting records of the taxpayer as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year for construction work in progress; and

(3) the value of materials and supplies shall be the tangible property cost for such property as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year.

E. Each item of property having a taxable situs in the state and valued under this section shall have its net taxable value allocated to the governmental units in which the property is located.

F. Communications system property valued under this subsection shall be valued using one or more or a combination of the following methods of valuation and applying the unit rule of appraisal to the property:

- (1) capitalization of earnings;
- (2) market value of stock and debt; or
- (3) cost less depreciation and obsolescence.

G. The department shall adopt regulations under Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to implement the provisions of this section.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-36-30, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 165, § 11; 1985, ch. 109, § 6; 1987, ch. 206, § 1; 1989, ch. 112, § 1.

The 1989 amendment, effective January 1, 1990, added Subsection C; added the introductory paragraph of Subsection D; designated the introductory paragraph of former Subsection C as Subsection D(1); redesignated former Subsections C(1) through C(3) as Subparagraphs (a) through (c) of Subsection D(1); redesignated former Subsections D through F as Subsections D(2), D(3) and E; deleted former Subsection G, relating to election of alternate valuation; redesignated former Subsection H as Subsection F, while substituting all of the language of the introductory paragraph preceding "using" for "The department shall, at the election of a taxpayer value communications system property"; deleted former Subsection I, relating to adoption of regulations providing for allocation of net taxable values of communications system property to the state and governmental units; and redesignated former Subsection J as Subsection G.

Interpretation of "communications system". — Where plaintiff cable company repurposed parts of its cable television system and expanded its services to include broadband internet and interconnected voice over internet protocol (VoIP) services, which both transmit and receive information, and where the New Mexico taxation and revenue department began assessing taxes on all cable companies operating in the state which provided two-way communications services, reclassified plaintiff's property as a "communications system", and assessed taxes on plaintiff's property accordingly, the district court erred in granting plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and in concluding that plaintiff's property is not a "communications system" under the Tax Code, because in light of the clear, unambiguous definition of "communications system" in 7-36-30(B)(1) NMSA 1978, the legislature intended to grant the department the authority to classify plaintiff's property as a "communications system" and assess it under this section when plaintiff elected to repurpose portions of its system in order to provide two-way communications services to its customers. *Cable One, Inc. v. 7-36-31. Special method of valuation; operating railroad property.

A. All property owned or leased and used by an operating railroad in its operation if the operating railroad has operations in New Mexico is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section, except for land and land rights other than operating railroad rights-of-way, sidings and marshalling yards and general buildings and improvements determined not to be an active part of an operating railroad.

B. The division shall value operating railroad property using the following methods of valuation and applying the unit rule of appraisal to the property:

- (1) capitalization of earnings;
- (2) market value of stock and debt; or
- (3) original cost less depreciation and obsolescence.

C. The division may use one or more, or a combination of, the methods of valuation specified in Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of Subsection B of this section in valuing operating railroad property.

D. Land, land rights other than operating railroad rights-of-way, sidings and marshalling yards, general buildings and improvements determined not to be an active part of an operating railroad shall be valued under the provisions of this article of the Property Tax Code applicable to the property.

E. The division shall adopt regulations providing for the allocation of net taxable values of operating railroad property to New Mexico and to the governmental units within the state.

F. The division shall adopt regulations pursuant to Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to implement the methods of valuation for operating railroad property specified in this section.

7-36-32. Special method of valuation; commercial aircraft.

A. All commercial aircraft used by commercial airline companies in the operation of their businesses and subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of this section.

B. The department shall value commercial aircraft as follows:

(1) all gasoline engine propeller driven aircraft shall be valued at ten percent of original cost regardless of age; and

(2) all jet propelled aircraft shall have an assumed life of twelve years and shall be valued by deducting from eighty percent of the original cost of the aircraft depreciation computed on a monthly basis, but no aircraft valued under this paragraph shall have computed a value of less than twenty percent of its original cost.

C. The department shall adopt regulations providing for the allocation of net taxable values of commercial aircraft to New Mexico and to the governmental units in the state, which regulations shall include allocation factors related to ground time in New Mexico compared to total ground time within the airline system and flight time over New Mexico compared to total flight time within the airline system, exclusive of flight time outside the continental limits of the United States.

D. The department shall adopt regulations pursuant to Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to implement the method of valuation of commercial aircraft specified in this section.

7-36-33. Special method of valuation; certain industrial and commercial personal property.

A. The following kinds of property shall be valued for property taxation purposes in accordance with the provisions of this section;

(1) all property used in connection with mineral property and defined in Paragraph (1) of Subsection B of Section 7-36-23 NMSA 1978 and Paragraph (1) of Subsection B of Section 7-36-25 NMSA 1978;

(2) all industrial, manufacturing, construction and commercial machinery, equipment, furniture, materials and supplies subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and not subject to valuation under the provisions of Sections 7-36-22 through 7-36-32 NMSA 1978;

(3) all other business personal property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and not subject to valuation under the provisions of Sections 7-36-22 through 7-36-32 NMSA 1978; and

(4) construction work in progress that includes any of the items of property specified in Paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this subsection.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "depreciation" means the straight line method of computing the depreciation allowance over the useful life of the item of property;

(2) "useful life of the item of property" means the "class life" for same or similar kinds of property as defined and used in Section 167 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or renumbered;

(3) "other justifiable factors" includes, but is not limited to, functional and economic obsolescence;

(4) "schedule value" means a fixed value of an individual property unit within a mass of similar or like units established by determining the average unit tangible property cost of a substantial sample of such property and deducting therefrom an average related accumulated provision for depreciation per unit and an average of other justifiable factors per unit;

(5) "tangible property cost" means the actual cost of acquisition or construction of property including additions, retirements, adjustments and transfers, but without deduction of related accumulated provision for depreciation, amortization or other purposes; and

(6) "construction work in progress" means the total of the balance of work orders for property in process of construction on the last day of the preceding calendar year but does not include the equipment, machinery or devices used or available to construct such property but not incorporated therein.

C. The value of individual items of property subject to valuation under this section, except construction work in progress, shall be determined as follows:

(1) the valuation authority shall first establish the tangible property cost of each item of property;

(2) from the tangible property cost shall be deducted the related accumulated provision for depreciation and any other justifiable factors; and

(3) notwithstanding the foregoing determination of value for property taxation purposes, the value for property taxation purposes of each item of property valued under this subsection shall never be less than twelve and one-half percent of the tangible property cost of such item of property so long as the property is used and useful in a business activity.

D. Construction work in progress shall be valued at fifty percent of the actual amounts expended and entered upon the accounting records of the taxpayer as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year as construction work in progress.

E. The division may establish a schedule value for the same or similar kinds of property to be valued under Subsection C of this section for property taxation purposes. In arriving at a schedule value, the division shall:

(1) determine the average unit tangible property cost of a substantial sample of the same or similar kinds of property;

(2) such unit average tangible property cost shall then be reduced by the average related accumulated provision for depreciation per unit applicable to the sample of the same or similar kinds of property and shall then be further reduced by an average of other justifiable factors per unit applicable to the same or similar kinds of property; and

(3) from the foregoing determination a schedule value for the same or similar kinds of property shall be determined and set forth in a regulation adopted pursuant to Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed].

F. The division shall adopt a schedule value for the following kinds of property:

- (1) drilling rigs; and
- (2) large off-the-road highway construction equipment.

G. Each item of property having a taxable situs in the state and valued under this section shall have its net taxable value allocated to the governmental unit in which the property is located.

H. The division shall adopt regulations under Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978 [repealed] to implement the provisions of this section.

ARTICLE 37

Imposition of Property Tax

7-37-1. Provisions for imposition of tax; applicability.

The provisions of Chapter 7, Article 37 NMSA 1978 apply to and govern the imposition of the property tax. Except for Sections 7-37-7 and 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978, the provisions of that article do not apply to:

A. impositions or levies of taxes on specific classes of property authorized by laws outside of the Property Tax Code; and

B. special benefit assessments authorized by laws outside of the Property Tax Code.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-30-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 34; 1986, ch. 32, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.). ch. 4, § 4, effective June 29, 2020, provided:

A. Notwithstanding Sections 7-1-67 and 7-1-69 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a taxpayer for:

(1) tax liabilities pursuant to the Income Tax Act or the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due April 15, 2020 through July 15, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid payments is made in full on or before April 15, 2021;

(2) tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021;

(3) gross receipts tax, local option gross receipts tax or compensating tax liabilities for failure to pay any of those taxes that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021; and

(4) tax liabilities assessed between September 3, 2019 and January 3, 2020 as the result of a managed audit performed in accordance with a managed audit agreement pursuant to Section 7-1-11.1 NMSA 1978; provided that payment for those liabilities is made pursuant to terms of the managed audit agreement on or before December 31, 2020.

B. Notwithstanding Sections 7-38-49 and 7-38-50 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a property owner for unpaid property taxes that became due April 10, 2020 pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978; provided that:

(1) the unpaid property taxes did not become delinquent because of an intent to defraud by the property owner;

(2) payment for the unpaid property taxes is made in full on or before May 10, 2021; and

(3) the subject property does not have property taxes that became delinquent pursuant to Section 7-38-46 NMSA 1978 prior to May 10, 2020.

Department found in contempt for failing to value and assess high-voltage transmission lines for property taxes. — Where petitioners petitioned for a writ of mandamus to compel the New Mexico taxation and revenue department (department) to establish values for two high-voltage transmission lines in Harding county and report those values to the Harding county assessor so that property taxes could be assessed on the lines, and where the district court issued the peremptory writ, determining that the transmission lines were taxable, and ordered the department to complete the valuation processes for the two transmission lines, timely conclude any protests, and certify the values to the county assessor for preparation of a bill for the property tax due, and where, following an administrative hearing officer's conclusion that the transmission lines did not have any value for tax assessment purposes, the department certified that the transmission lines were not taxable, which was contrary to the district court's order, and certified to the district court that the department complied with the court's order, and where petitioners then filed a motion for an order to show cause, arguing that the department had not complied with the peremptory writ, the district court did not abuse its discretion in holding the department in contempt and in awarding petitioners attorney fees as sanctions, because the department admittedly failed to act in accordance with the dictates of the law after the district court ordered the department to act and after the department was given notice and an opportunity to be heard. *Harding Cnty. 7-37-3. Tax ratio established.

The tax ratio is thirty-three and one-third percent.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-30-3, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 36.

7-37-4. Head-of-family exemption.

A. Up to two thousand dollars ($2,000) of the taxable value of residential property subject to the tax is exempt from the imposition of the tax if the property is owned by the head of a family who is a New Mexico resident or if the property is held in a grantor trust established under Sections 671 through 677 of the Internal Revenue Code, as those sections may be amended or renumbered, by a head of a family who is a New Mexico resident. The exemption allowed shall be in the following amounts for the specified property tax years:

(1) for the property tax years 1989 and 1990, the exemption shall be eight hundred dollars ($800);

(2) for the property tax years 1991 and 1992, the exemption shall be one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400); and

(3) for the 1993 and subsequent tax years, the exemption shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000).

B. The exemption shall be deducted from taxable value of property to determine net taxable value of property.

C. The head-of-family exemption shall be applied only if claimed and allowed in accordance with Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978 and regulations of the department.

D. As used in this section, "head of a family" means an individual New Mexico resident who is either:

(1) a married person, but only one spouse in a household may qualify as a head of a family;

(2) a widow or a widower;

(3) a head of household furnishing more than one-half the cost of support of any related person;

(4) a single person, but only one person in a household may qualify as a head of family; or

(5) a member of a condominium association or like entity who pays property tax through the association.

E. A head of a family is entitled to the exemption allowed by this section only once in any tax year and may claim the exemption in only one county in any tax year even though the claimant may own property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes in more than one county.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-30-4, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 37; 1983, ch. 219, § 1; 1989, ch. 81, § 1; 1991, ch. 228, § 1; 1993, ch. 343, § 1.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, added Paragraph (5) of Subsection D.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, added the language beginning "or if the property" at the end of the first sentence in Subsection A.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, in Subsection A substituted "up to two thousand dollars ($2,000)" for "Two hundred dollars ($200)" in the first sentence of the introductory paragraph, added the second sentence of the introductory paragraph, and added Paragraphs (1) and (3); designated the former second sentence of Subsection A as Subsection B; redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection C, while substituting "department" for "division"; and redesignated former Subsections C and D as Subsections D and E.

7-37-5. Veteran exemption.

A. Up to four thousand dollars ($4,000) of the taxable value of property, including the community or joint property of husband and wife, subject to the tax is exempt from the imposition of the tax if the property is owned by a veteran or the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse if the veteran or surviving spouse is a New Mexico resident or if the property is held in a grantor trust established under Sections 671 through 677 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as those sections may be amended or renumbered, by a veteran or the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse if the veteran or surviving spouse is a New Mexico resident. The exemption shall be deducted from the taxable value of the property to determine the net taxable value of the property. The exemption allowed shall be in the following amounts for the specified tax years:

- (1) for tax year 2004, the exemption shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000);
- (2) for tax year 2005, the exemption shall be three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500); and
- (3) for tax year 2006 and each subsequent tax year, the exemption shall be four thousand dollars ($4,000).

B. The veteran exemption shall be applied only if claimed and allowed in accordance with Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978 and regulations of the department. For taxpayers who became eligible for a veteran exemption due to the approval of the amendment to Article 8, Section 5 of the constitution of New Mexico in November 2004, a county assessor shall, at the time of determining the net taxable value of the taxpayer's property for the 2005 property tax year, in addition to complying with the provisions of Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978, determine the net taxable value of the taxpayer's property that would result from the application of the veteran exemption for the 2004 property tax year had the deadline for applying for the veteran exemption in 2004 occurred after the amendment was certified. The veteran exemption for 2004 shall not be credited against the 2005 property value of a taxpayer until the taxpayer has paid in full the taxpayer's property tax liability for the 2004 property tax year.

C. As used in this section, "veteran" means an individual who:

(1) has been honorably discharged from membership in the armed forces of the United States; and

(2) except as provided in this section, served in the armed forces of the United States on active duty continuously for ninety days.

D. For the purposes of Subsection C of this section, a person who would otherwise be entitled to status as a veteran except for failure to have served in the armed forces continuously for ninety days is considered to have met that qualification if the person served for less than ninety days and the reason for not having served for ninety days was a discharge brought about by service-connected disablement.

E. For the purposes of Subsection C of this section, a person has been "honorably discharged" unless the person received either a dishonorable discharge or a discharge for misconduct.

F. For the purposes of this section, a person whose civilian service has been recognized as service in the armed forces of the United States under federal law and who has been issued a discharge certificate by a branch of the armed forces of the United States shall be considered to have served in the armed forces of the United States.

The 2005 amendment, effective April 6, 2005, in Subsection A, deleted the former exemptions for tax years 2003 and prior years; in Subsection B, provided that for taxpayers who have become eligible for a veteran exemption under Article 8, Section 5 of the New Mexico constitution as amended in November 2004, a county assessor shall, when determining the net taxable value of property for 2005, determine the veteran exemption for 2004 under the constitutional amendment and credit the 2004 exemption against the 2005 property value after the taxpayer has paid the tax liability for 2004; in Subsection C(2), added the exception ; and in Subsection C(3), deleted the former provision that a "veteran" was defined to mean a person who served in the armed forces during an armed conflict prior to World War I, World War I, World War II, the Korean conflict, the Vietnam conflict, the Grenada conflict or the Persian gulf conflict.

The 2003 amendment, effective March 20, 2003, in Subsection A, substituted "Up to four thousand dollars ($4,000)" for "Two thousand dollars ($2,000)" at the beginning, in the introductory paragraph, added the last sentence; and added Paragraphs (1) to (5).

The 2000 amendment, effective May 17, 2000, inserted new Subsection C(3)(f), and redesignated former Subsection C(3)(f) as C(3)(g).

The 1992 amendment, effective May 20, 1992, added Subsection C(3)(f).

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, added the language beginning "or if the property" at the end of the first sentence in Subsection A.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, in Subsection B, substituted "department" for "division"; in Subsection C, corrected a misspelling in Paragraph (2); and added Subsection F.

7-37-5.1. Disabled veteran exemption.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "disabled veteran" means an individual who:

(a) has been honorably discharged from membership in the armed forces of the United States or has received a discharge certificate from a branch of the armed forces of the United States for civilian service recognized pursuant to federal law as service in the armed forces of the United States; and

(b) has been determined pursuant to federal law to have a one hundred percent permanent and total service-connected disability; and

(2) "honorably discharged" means discharged from the armed forces pursuant to a discharge other than a dishonorable or bad conduct discharge.

B. The property of a disabled veteran, including joint or community property of the veteran and the veteran's spouse, is exempt from property taxation if it is occupied by the disabled veteran as the veteran's principal place of residence. Property held in a grantor trust established under Sections 671 through 677 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as those sections may be amended or renumbered, by a disabled veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse is also exempt from property taxation if the property otherwise meets the requirements for exemption in this subsection or Subsection C of this section.

C. The property of the surviving spouse of a disabled veteran is exempt from property taxation if:

(1) the surviving spouse and the disabled veteran were married at the time of the disabled veteran's death; and

(2) the surviving spouse continues to occupy the property continuously after the disabled veteran's death as the spouse's principal place of residence.

D. Upon the transfer of the principal place of residence of a disabled veteran or of a surviving spouse of a disabled veteran entitled to and granted a disabled veteran exemption, the disabled veteran or the surviving spouse may choose to:

(1) maintain the exemption for that residence for the remainder of the year, even if the residence is transferred during the year; or

(2) remove the exemption for that residence and apply it to the disabled veteran's or the disabled veteran's surviving spouse's new principal place of residence, regardless of whether the exemption was applied for and claimed within thirty days of the mailing of the county assessor's notice of valuation made pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-38-20 NMSA 1978.

E. The exemption provided by this section may be referred to as the "disabled veteran exemption".

F. The disabled veteran exemption shall be applied only if claimed and allowed in accordance with Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978 and the rules of the department.

G. The veterans' services department shall assist the department and the county assessors in determining which veterans qualify for the disabled veteran exemption.

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, provided that a disabled veteran's property tax exemption may remain on a transferred residence for the remainder of the year or may be applied to the disabled veteran's or the disabled veteran's surviving spouse's new principal place of residence; in Subsection B, after "occupied by the disabled veteran as", deleted "his" and added "the veteran's"; and added a new Subsection D and redesignated the succeeding subsections accordingly.

Applicability. — Laws 2015, ch. 126, § 2 provided that the provisions of Laws 2015, ch. 126, § 1 apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

The 2004 amendment, effective May 19, 2004, amended Subsection F of this section to change "veterans' service commission" to "veterans' services department".

The 2003 amendment, effective March 20, 2003, and applicable to the 2003 and subsequent tax years, in Subparagraph A(1)(b), inserted "one hundred percent"; and in Subsection B, deleted "and has been especially adapted to his disability using a grant for specially adapted housing granted to the veteran by the federal government based on his permanent and total service-connected disability" at the end of the first sentence.

7-37-5.2. Deleted.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Section 7-37-5.2 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 2007, ch. 167, § 1, which provided that the property of a veterans' organization was exempt from property tax, was deleted by the compiler. Laws 2007, ch. 167, § 3 provided that the act would become effective upon the certification by the secretary of state that the constitution of New Mexico was amended as proposed by a joint resolution of the first session of the forty-eighth legislature entitled, "A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 8 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF NEW MEXICO TO PROVIDE A PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION FOR PROPERTY OF A VETERANS' ORGANIZATION CHARTERED BY THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS AND USED BY A LOCAL, STATE OR FEDERAL GOVERNMENTAL ENTITY FOR EVENTS OR BY NONPROFIT COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS OR OTHER VETERANS' ORGANIZATIONS" (Laws 2007, H.J.R. No. 16). That joint resolution was not passed by the legislature. Therefore, Laws 2007, ch. 167, § 1 did not become effective.

7-37-5.3. Veterans' organization exemption.

The property of a veterans' organization chartered by the United States congress and that is used primarily for the benefit of veterans and their families is exempt from property taxation. The exemption provided by this section may be referred to as the "veterans' organization exemption". The veterans' organization exemption shall be applied only if claimed and allowed pursuant to Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978 and the rules of the department. The veterans' services department shall assist the taxation and revenue department and the county assessors in determining which veterans' organizations qualify for the veterans' organization exemption.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2011, ch. contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 17, 2011, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2011, ch. 102, § 3 provided that the provisions of Laws 2011, ch. 102, § 1 apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2012.

7-37-5.4. Property owned by a disabled veteran is exempt from a special benefit assessment.

A. Property owned by a disabled veteran, including joint or community property of the veteran and the veteran's spouse, is exempt from the imposition of a special benefit assessment if the property is occupied by the disabled veteran as the veteran's principal place of residence. Property held in a grantor trust established under Sections 671 through 677 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as those sections may be amended or renumbered, by a disabled veteran or the veteran's surviving spouse is also exempt from the imposition of a special benefit assessment if the property otherwise meets the requirements for exemption in this subsection or Subsection B of this section.

B. The property of the surviving spouse of a disabled veteran is exempt from the imposition of a special benefit assessment if:

(1) the surviving spouse and the disabled veteran were married at the time of the disabled veteran's death;

(2) the surviving spouse continues to occupy the property continuously after the disabled veteran's death as the spouse's principal place of residence; and

(3) the surviving spouse has remained unmarried since the time of the disabled veteran's death.

C. For purposes of this section:

(1) "disabled veteran" means an individual who:

(a) has been honorably discharged from membership in the armed forces of the United States or has received a discharge certificate from a branch of the armed forces of the United States for civilian service recognized pursuant to federal law as service in the armed forces of the United States; and

(b) has been determined pursuant to federal law to have a one hundred percent permanent and total service-connected disability;

(2) "honorably discharged" means discharged from the armed forces pursuant to a discharge other than a dishonorable or bad conduct discharge; and

(3) "special benefit assessment" means an assessment or levy authorized by law for benefits, damages, construction, improvements or maintenance on property that is specially benefited by the benefits, damages, construction, improvements or maintenance; and includes an assessment or levy authorized by The Conservancy Act of New Mexico [73-14-1 NMSA 1978], the Public Improvement District Act [Chapter 5, Article 11 NMSA 1978], the Tax Increment for Development Act [Chapter 5, Article 15 NMSA 1978] and other similar laws outside the Property Tax Code.

Effective dates. — Laws 2015, ch. 115 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 19, 2015, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-37-6. Rate of tax cumulative; determination; governmental units' entitlement to tax.

A. The rate of the tax is cumulative and shall be determined for application against any property in a tax year by adding all of the rates authorized by this article and set by the department of finance and administration for the use of the governmental units to which the net taxable value of the property is allocated.

B. Each governmental unit that is authorized a rate under this article is entitled to that portion of the tax collected by applying the governmental unit's rate set for the tax year to the net taxable value of property allocated to the governmental unit.

C. For the purposes of this section and Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978, the net taxable value of all property subject to the tax is considered allocated to the state when determining or applying tax rates authorized for the use of the state.

7-37-7. Tax rates authorized; limitations.

A. The tax rates specified in Subsection B of this section are the maximum rates that may be set by the department of finance and administration for the use of the stated governmental units for the purposes stated in that subsection. The tax rates set for residential property for county, school district or municipal general purposes or for the purposes authorized in Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of this section shall be the same as the tax rates set for nonresidential property for those governmental units for those purposes unless different rates are required because of limitations imposed by Section 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978. The department of finance and administration may set a rate at less than the maximum in any tax year. In addition to the rates authorized in Subsection B of this section, the department of finance and administration shall also determine and set the necessary rates authorized in Subsection C of this section. The tax rates authorized in Paragraphs (1), (3) and (4) of Subsection C of this section shall be set at the same rate for both residential and nonresidential property. Rates shall be set after the governmental units' budget-making and approval process is completed and shall be set in accordance with Section 7-38-33 NMSA 1978. Orders imposing the rates set for all units of government shall be made by the boards of county commissioners after rates are set and certified to the boards by the department of finance and administration. The department of finance and administration shall also certify the rates set for nonresidential property in governmental units to the department for use in collecting taxes imposed under the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978], the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978] and the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978].

B. The following tax rates for the indicated purposes are authorized:

(1) for the use of each county for general purposes for the 1987 and subsequent property tax years, a rate of eleven dollars eighty-five cents ($11.85) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value of both residential and nonresidential property allocated to the county;

(2) for the use of each school district for general operating purposes, a rate of fifty cents ($.50) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value of both residential and nonresidential property allocated to the school district; and

(3) for the use of each municipality for general purposes for the 1987 and subsequent property tax years, a rate of seven dollars sixty-five cents ($7.65) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value of both residential and nonresidential property allocated to the municipality.

C. In addition to the rates authorized in Subsection B of this section, there are also authorized:

(1) those rates or impositions authorized under provisions of law outside of the Property Tax Code that are for the use of the governmental units indicated in those provisions and are for the stated purpose of paying principal and interest on a public general obligation debt incurred under those provisions of law;

(2) those rates or impositions authorized under provisions of law outside of the Property Tax Code that are for the use of the governmental units indicated in those provisions, are for the stated purposes authorized by those provisions and have been approved by the voters of the governmental unit in the manner required by law;

(3) those rates or impositions necessary for the use of a governmental unit to pay a tort or workers' compensation judgment for which a county, municipality or school district is liable, subject to the limitations in Subsection B of Section 41-4-25 NMSA 1978, but, except as provided in Paragraph (4) of this subsection, no rate or imposition shall be authorized to pay any judgment other than one arising from a tort or workers' compensation claim; and

(4) those rates or impositions ordered by a court pursuant to Section 22-24-5.5 NMSA 1978 and for the use of a school district to pay a judgment pursuant to that section.

D. The rates and impositions authorized under Subsection C of this section shall be on the net taxable value of both residential and nonresidential property allocated to the unit of government specified in the provisions of the other laws or the judgments.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-30-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 40; 1974, ch. 92, § 6; 1975, ch. 132, § 1; 1981, ch. 176, § 2; 1986, ch. 20, § 110; 1990, ch. 125, § 5; 2004, ch. 125, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For constitutional provision as to property tax limits and exceptions, see N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 2.

The 2004 amendment, effective May 19, 2004, in Subsection A, deleted "and" after "Paragraph (1)," and added a reference to Paragraph (4) of Subsection C of this section after the reference to Paragraph (3); in Subsection C, Paragraph (3), added a reference to Paragraph (4) and added a new Paragraph (4); and in Subsection D, added "or the judgments" at the end of the subsection.

The 1990 amendment, effective March 7, 1990, in Subsection A, inserted "school district" and "or for the purposes authorized in Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of this section" in the second sentence, "Paragraphs (1) and (3) of" in the fifth sentence, and "and the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act" in the last sentence; in Paragraphs (1) and (3) of Subsection B, deleted former Subparagraph (a) in both paragraphs, relating to the tax rate for the 1986 property tax year and deleted the former Subparagraph (b) designations; and, in Subsection C, substituted "workers' compensation" for "workmen's compensation" in two places in Paragraph (3).

7-37-7.1. Additional limitations on property tax rates.

A. Except as provided in Subsections D and E of this section, in setting the general property tax rates for residential and nonresidential property authorized in Subsection B of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978, the other rates and impositions authorized in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection C of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978, except the portion of the rate authorized in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of Section 4-48B-12 NMSA 1978 used to meet the requirements of Section 27-10-4 NMSA 1978, and benefit assessments authorized by law to be levied upon net taxable value of property, assessed value or a similar term, neither the department of finance and administration nor any other entity authorized to set or impose a rate or assessment shall set a rate or impose a tax or assessment that will produce revenue from either residential or nonresidential property in a particular governmental unit in excess of the sum of a dollar amount derived by multiplying the appropriate growth control factor by the revenue due from the imposition on residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, for the prior property tax year in the governmental unit of the rate, imposition or assessment for the specified purpose plus, for the calculation for the rate authorized for county operating purposes by Subsection B of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 with respect to residential property, any applicable tax rebate adjustment. The calculation described in this subsection shall be separately made for residential and nonresidential property. Except as provided in Subsections D and E of this section, no tax rate or benefit assessment that will produce revenue from either class of property in a particular governmental unit in excess of the dollar amount allowed by the calculation shall be set or imposed. The rates imposed pursuant to Sections 7-32-4 and 7-34-4 NMSA 1978 shall be the rates for nonresidential property that would have been imposed but for the limitations in this section. As used in this section, "growth control factor" is a percentage equal to the sum of "percent change I" plus V where:

$$(1) \quad V = \frac{\text{(base year value + net new value),}}{\text{base year value}}$$ expressed as a percentage, but if the percentage calculated is less than one hundred percent, then V shall be set and used as one hundred percent;

(2) "base year value" means the value for property taxation purposes of all residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, subject to valuation under the Property Tax Code in the governmental unit for the specified purpose in the prior property tax year;

(3) "net new value" means the additional value of residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, for property taxation purposes placed on the property tax schedule in the current year resulting from the elements in Subparagraphs (a) through (d) of this paragraph reduced by the value of residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, removed from the property tax schedule in the current year and, if applicable, the reductions described in Subparagraph (e) of this paragraph:

(a) residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, valued in the current year that was not valued at all in the prior year;

(b) improvements to existing residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate;

(c) additions to residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, or values that were omitted from previous years' property tax schedules even if part or all of the property was included on the schedule, but no additions of values attributable to valuation maintenance programs or reappraisal programs shall be included;

(d) additions to nonresidential property due to increases in annual net production values of mineral property valued in accordance with Section 7-36-23 or 7-

36-25 NMSA 1978 or due to increases in market value of mineral property valued in accordance with Section 7-36-24 NMSA 1978; and

(e) reductions to nonresidential property due to decreases in annual net production values of mineral property valued in accordance with Section 7-36-23 or 7-36-25 NMSA 1978 or due to decreases in market value of mineral property valued in accordance with Section 7-36-24 NMSA 1978; and

(4) "percent change I" means a percent not in excess of five percent that is derived by dividing the annual implicit price deflator index for state and local government purchases of goods and services, as published in the United States department of commerce monthly publication entitled "survey of current business" or any successor publication, for the calendar year next preceding the prior calendar year into the difference between the prior year's comparable annual index and that next preceding year's annual index if that difference is an increase, and if the difference is a decrease, the "percent change I" is zero. In the event that the annual implicit price deflator index for state and local government purchases of goods and services is no longer prepared or published by the United States department of commerce, the department shall adopt by regulation the use of any comparable index prepared by any agency of the United States.

B. If, as a result of the application of the limitation imposed under Subsection A of this section, a property tax rate for residential or nonresidential property, as appropriate, authorized in Subsection B of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 is reduced below the maximum rate authorized in that subsection, no governmental unit or entity authorized to impose a tax rate under Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 shall impose any portion of the rate representing the difference between a maximum rate authorized under Subsection B of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 and the reduced rate resulting from the application of the limitation imposed under Subsection A of this section.

C. If the net new values necessary to make the computation required under Subsection A of this section are not available for any governmental unit at the time the calculation must be made, the department of finance and administration shall use a zero amount for net new values when making the computation for the governmental unit.

D. Any part of the maximum tax rate authorized for each governmental unit for residential and nonresidential property by Subsection B of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 that is not imposed for a governmental unit for any property tax year for reasons other than the limitation required under Subsection A of this section may be authorized by the department of finance and administration to be imposed for that governmental unit for residential and nonresidential property for the following tax year subject to the restriction of Subsection D of Section 7-38-33 NMSA 1978.

E. If the base year value necessary to make the computation required under Subsection A of this section is not available for any governmental unit at the time the calculation must be made, the department of finance and administration shall set a rate for residential and nonresidential property that will produce in that governmental unit a dollar amount that is not in excess of the property tax revenue due for all property for the prior property tax year for the specified purpose of that rate in that governmental unit.

F. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "nonresidential property" does not include any property upon which taxes are imposed pursuant to the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978], the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978] or the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978]; and

(2) "tax rebate adjustment" means, for those counties that have an ordinance in effect providing the property tax rebate pursuant to the Income Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 2 NMSA 1978] for the property tax year and that have not imposed for the property tax year either a property tax, the revenue from which is pledged for payment of the income tax revenue reduction resulting from the provision of the property tax rebate, or a property transfer tax, the estimated amount of the property tax rebate to be allowed with respect to the property tax year, and for any other governmental unit or purpose, zero; provided that any estimate of property tax rebate to be allowed is subject to review for appropriateness and approval by the department of finance and administration.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, in Subsection A, substituted "27-10-4 NMSA 1978" for "4 of the Statewide Health Care Act," substituted "either residential or" for "residential and," added "the sum of" preceding "a dollar amount," added "appropriate" preceding "growth control factor," substituted "or nonresidential property, as appropriate" for "and nonresidential property," added language from "plus, for" to the end of the first sentence, and substituted "made for" for "applied to" in the second sentence; substituted "or nonresidential property, as appropriate" for "and nonresidential property," in Paragraph A(2), twice in Paragraph A(3), and once each in Subparagraphs A(3)(a), A(3)(b) and A(3)(c); added "to nonresidential property" in Subparagraphs A(3)(d) and A(3)(e); substituted "or nonresidential property, as appropriate" for "and nonresidential property," in Paragraph B; redesignated language in Subsection F as Paragraph F(1) and added "; and" at the end of the paragraph; and added Paragraph F(2).

The 1991 amendment, effective July 1, 1991, inserted "except the portion of the rate authorized in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of Section 4-48B-12 NMSA 1978 used to meet the requirements of Section 4 of the Statewide Health Care Act" in the first sentence in Subsection A.

The 1990 amendment, effective March 7, 1990, inserted "or the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act" in Subsection F and made several minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

The 1989 amendment, effective June 16, 1989, in Subsection A substituted "the rates for nonresidential property" for "those" in the fourth sentence of the introductory paragraph, rewrote the former fifth and sixth sentences of the introductory paragraph so as to constitute the fifth sentence and Paragraph (1), redesignated former Paragraphs (1) through (3) as Paragraphs (2) through (4), in Paragraph (3) inserted "if applicable, the reductions described in" in the introductory paragraph, and in Paragraph (4) substituted "implicit price deflator" for "general business indicator" in the first and second sentences and substituted "department" for "division" in the second sentence; twice substituted "impose" for "levy" in Subsection B; and added all of the language of Subsection D beginning with "subject".

Application to 1979 tax year not unconstitutionally retroactive. — Application of this section, which became law on April 4, 1979, to the 1979 tax year, when notice of taxes due and payable were required to be mailed by April 1, 1979, is not unconstitutionally retroactive. Hansman v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-088, 95 N.M. 697, 625 P.2d 1214.

Comparative sales of nonresidential properties not basis for valuation. — This section precludes valuation of residential property for tax purposes based on comparative sales of nonresidential properties. Landmark, Ltd. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1985-NMCA-032, 103 N.M. 65, 702 P.2d 1010 (decided under former 7-36-21.1 NMSA 1978).

7-37-8. School tax rates.

No later than August 15 of each year, the state department of public education shall submit to the secretary of finance and administration the property tax rates for the succeeding tax year for each school district and the commission on higher education [higher education department] shall submit to the secretary of finance and administration the property tax rates for the succeeding tax year for each technical and vocational district, area vocational school district, junior college district and branch community college district. The rates required to be submitted pursuant to this section shall separately state by county and by school district the rate to be levied for operational purposes and the rate to be levied for payment of principal and interest on general obligation debt issued or entered into by the district.

ANNOTATIONS

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law. Laws 2005, ch. 289, § 29 abolished the commission on higher education and provided that all references in law to the commission on higher education shall be construed to be references to the higher education department.

Cross references. — For the Education Technology Equipment Act, see Chapter 6, Article 15A NMSA 1978.

The 1997 amendment, effective April 10, 1997, substituted "payment of principal and interest on general obligation debt issued or entered into by the district" for "principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued by the district" at the end of the section.

ARTICLE 38

Administration and Enforcement of Property Taxes

7-38-1. Applicability.

This article applies to the administration and enforcement of all taxes imposed under the Property Tax Code.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-1, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 41.

ANNOTATIONS

Ultimate responsibility for taxes rests upon property owner. — A review of New Mexico statutes pertaining to assessment and collection of taxes demonstrates that the ultimate responsibility for payment rests upon the property owner. Bailey v. Barranca, 1971-NMSC-074, 83 N.M. 90, 488 P.2d 725.

Duty on assessor where owner refuses to declare property. — In the event of a refusal of any person, owning or in control of any property, to declare the same as required, the duty then rests upon the assessor to make a true and complete list of the property. McKay v. Espinosa, 1958-NMSC-144, 65 N.M. 241, 335 P.2d 567.

Assumption is that owner made assessment. — Only when the owner fails to make a declaration of all his property is the assessor given the duty of supplying one for him. There being no evidence to the contrary, it will be assumed in compliance with the law that the questioned assessment was not made by the assessor but was actually made by the assessee. McKay v. Espinosa, 1958-NMSC-144, 65 N.M. 241, 335 P.2d 567.

7-38-2. Investigative authority and powers.

A. The director may issue subpoenas, returnable in not less than ten days, to require the production of any pertinent records or to require any person to appear and testify under oath concerning the subject matter of an inquiry for the purposes of:

- (1) determining whether property is subject to property taxation;
- (2) establishing or determining the value of any property for property taxation purposes;
- (3) determining the extent of liability for and the amount of any property tax due from any person; and
- (4) enforcing any statute administered by the department or administered by county officers under the supervision of the department.

B. At any time after the service of a subpoena and prior to its return date, a person to whom a subpoena is issued may file an action in the district court to quash the subpoena on the grounds that it was improperly issued.

C. In order to carry out their respective responsibilities under the Property Tax Code, county assessors and their employees, and the director and employees of the department may at reasonable times and after displaying identity credentials:

- (1) with the permission of a property owner or his authorized agent, examine those records that relate to the valuation of the property; and
- (2) with the permission of a property owner or his authorized agent, enter or inspect any property that is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes.

D. If a person fails to appear, produce records or refuses to testify in response to a subpoena issued under Subsection A, or if a person refuses permission to allow examination of records, entry or inspection of property authorized under Subsection C, the director, or the county assessor in the case where he or his employees have been refused examination, entry or inspection, may invoke the aid of the district court by filing an action to require appearance or testimony or to allow examination, entry or inspection. The court may, after notice, hearing and good cause shown, require the person to appear and testify, to produce records, to allow examination of records or to allow entry or inspection of property. If the person fails to comply with the court's order, the court may punish him for contempt.

7-38-3. Information reports.

For the purpose of establishing or determining the value of property for property taxation purposes, the director may promulgate regulations requiring any property owner or his authorized agent to report information concerning the property to the department or the county assessor at the times and in the manner required by the director.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-3, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 43.

7-38-4. Confidentiality of information.

A. Except as specifically authorized in this section or as otherwise provided by law, it is unlawful for the secretary, any employee or any former employee of the department to reveal to any person other than the secretary, an employee of the department, a county assessor or an employee of a county assessor any information gained during his employment about a specific property or a property taxpayer gained as a result of a report or information furnished the department or a county assessor by a taxpayer or as a result of an examination of property or records of a taxpayer. Except as specifically authorized in this section or as otherwise provided by law, it is unlawful for any county assessor or any employee or former employee of a county assessor to reveal to any person other than county assessors or their employees or the secretary or an employee of the department any information furnished by the department about a specific property or property owner or any other information gained during that person's employment about a specific property or a property taxpayer gained as a result of a report or information furnished the department or a county assessor by a taxpayer or as a result of an examination of property or records of a taxpayer. Information described in this subsection may be released:

(1) that is limited to the information contained in those valuation records that are public records and the identity of the owner or person in possession of the property;

(2) to an authorized representative of another state; provided that the receiving state has entered into a written agreement with the department to use the information for tax purposes only;

(3) to a state district or appellate court or a federal court or county valuation protests board:

(a) in response to an order made in an action relating to taxation in which the state or a governmental unit is a party and in which the information is material to the inquiry; or

(b) in any action in which the department or a county is attempting to enforce the provisions of the Property Tax Code or to collect a property tax or in any matter in which the taxpayer has put the taxpayer's own property valuation or liability for taxes at issue;

(4) to the property owner or a representative authorized in writing by the owner to obtain the information;

(5) if used for statistical purposes in a way that the information revealed is not identified or identifiable as applicable to any property owner or person in possession of the property;

(6) to a representative of the secretary of the treasury or the secretary's delegate pursuant to the terms of a reciprocal agreement entered into with the federal government for exchange of such information; or

(7) to the multistate tax commission or its authorized representative; provided that the information is used for tax purposes only and is disclosed by the multistate tax commission only to states which have met the requirements of Paragraph (2) of this subsection.

B. The secretary, any employee or any former employee of the department or any other person subject to the provisions of this section who willfully releases information in violation of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for a definite term of less than one year or both. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall not be employed by the state for a period of five years after the date of conviction.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-4, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 44; 1977, ch. 249, § 61; 1982, ch. 28, § 7; 1986, ch. 20, § 113; 1990, ch. 22, § 2; 1991, ch. 166, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, in Subsection A, rewrote the second sentence which read "Except as specifically authorized in this section or as otherwise provided by law, it is unlawful for county assessors and their employees and former employees to reveal to any person other than county assessors or their employees any information furnished by the department about a specific property or property owner" and, in Paragraph (1), inserted "that are public records" and made a minor stylistic change.

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, in Paragraph (3) of Subsection A, added the Subparagraph designation "(a)" and added Subparagraph (b).

Nondisclosure held proper. — Board did not err in failing to sanction assessor who refused to comply with taxpayers' discovery request, where the assessor showed that such discovery might have compromised confidential data about other property owners, and where it did not appear that taxpayers' protest proceedings were prejudiced by assessor's refusal to grant them access to the information. Hannahs v. Anderson, 1998-NMCA-152, 126 N.M. 1, 966 P.2d 168, cert. denied, 126 N.M. 532, 972 P.2d 351.

Remedy for denial of access to assessment records. — Taxpayers who believed that assessor wrongfully denied them access to public records should have pursued the remedies provided in this section. Hannahs v. Anderson, 1998-NMCA-152, 126 N.M. 1, 966 P.2d 168, cert. denied, 126 N.M. 532, 972 P.2d 351.

7-38-5. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1982, ch. 28, § 31, repealed 7-38-5 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 45, relating to the allocation of responsibility for the valuation of property. For present provisions, see 7-36-2 NMSA 1978, effective May 15, 1982.

7-38-6. Presumption of correctness.

Values of property for property taxation purposes determined by the division or the county assessor are presumed to be correct. Determinations of tax rates, classification, allocations of net taxable values of property to governmental units and the computation and determination of property taxes made by the officer or agency responsible therefor under the Property Tax Code are presumed to be correct.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-6, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 46; 1981, ch. 37, § 67.

ANNOTATIONS

Assessor's valuation sufficient evidence to support decision. — Since the assessor's valuation is presumed to be correct, it is sufficient evidence, where uncontradicted, to support the board's decision. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Application of presumption. — The question whether property is entitled to the special valuation method in Section 7-36-20 NMSA 1978 is a question of classification; property that is classified as agricultural is entitled to the benefit of that section, whereas other property is not. Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Rodarte, 2004-NMSC-035, 136 N.M. 630, 103 P.3d 554, rev'g 2004-NMCA-055, 135 N.M. 630, 92 P.3d 642.

Presumption in this section is applicable only to the value of property and inapplicable when the question is whether a taxpayer is entitled to the special method of valuation provided for in 7-36-20 NMSA 1978. Jicarilla Apache Nation v. Rio Arriba Cnty. Assessor, 2004-NMCA-055, 135 N.M. 630, 92 P.3d 642, rev'd 2004-NMSC-035, 136 N.M. 630, 103 P.3d 554.

Presumption is rebuttable and is best characterized as a prima facie inference in that it shifts the burden of going forward with the evidence to the taxpayer to prove the contrary. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620; N.M. Baptist Found. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1979-NMCA-102, 93 N.M. 363, 600 P.2d 309.

Presumption of correctness can be overcome by taxpayer's showing that an assessor did not follow the statutory provisions of the act or by presenting evidence tending to dispute the factual correctness of the valuation. N.M. Baptist Found. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1979-NMCA-102, 93 N.M. 363, 600 P.2d 309; La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo County Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

Overcoming the statutory presumption of correctness afforded to the assessor's valuation. — Where appellant sought review of the Bernalillo county valuation protests board's (protests board) valuation of appellant's commercial property, where appellant offered evidence of value tending to dispute the factual correctness of the county assessor's method of valuation, where the county assessor did not offer expert testimony disputing that appellant's method of valuation was a generally accepted appraisal technique, and where neither the protests board nor the district court ruled that appellant failed to overcome the statutory presumption of correctness afforded to the assessor's valuation, the appellant overcame the statutory presumption of correctness and the burden shifted to the assessor to prove that his or her method of valuation utilized a generally accepted appraisal technique. 2727 San Pedro LLC v. Bernalillo Cty. Assessor, 2017-NMCA-008.

Since taxpayer overcame presumption, burden rested on assessor. — This presumption is rebuttable and is best characterized as a prima facie inference in that it shifts the burden of going forward with the evidence to the taxpayer to prove the contrary; where taxpayer's protest and evidence overcame the presumption the burden rested on the county assessor to meet the contentions of the taxpayer. San Pedro S. Group v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1976-NMCA-116, 89 N.M. 784, 558 P.2d 53.

Since taxpayer overcame presumption, burden rested on assessor. — While the county assessor's valuation is presumed to be correct, this presumption is rebuttable, and, once rebutted, the burden shifts to the county assessor to show the correct valuation. Bakel v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-173, 95 N.M. 723, 625 P.2d 1240; Protest of Plaza Del Sol Ltd. P'ship v. Assessor for Cnty. of Bernalillo, 1986-NMCA-022, 104 N.M. 154, 717 P.2d 1123.

This section places the burden on the taxpayer to overcome the presumption of correctness, but, the burden shifted to the county assessor to show a correct valuation once that burden of correctness is overcome. Cibola Energy Corp. v. Roselli, 1987-NMCA-055, 105 N.M. 774, 737 P.2d 555.

Since taxpayer's valuation is supported by the whole record in that after rebutting the assessor's valuation and presenting a prima facie case for its own valuation the board failed to rebut taxpayer's appraisal, the decision of the board will be reversed and remanded with instructions that the board enter judgment for taxpayer in favor of its valuations. Cibola Energy Corp. v. Roselli, 1987-NMCA-055, 105 N.M. 774, 737 P.2d 555.

Taxpayer effectively rebutted presumption. — Since taxpayers presented uncontradicted evidence that access to their property was physically blocked and also offered the only substantial evidence of the fair market value of the property in the form of testimony by a real estate appraiser that because of the lack of access the highest and best use that the property could be put to was as grazing land by one of the adjoining landowners, and that as such it had a fair market value of $18.00 per acre, or $2034 and $5022 respectively for the two tracts, they effectively rebutted the presumption of this section that the county assessor's valuations of $313,875 and $169,500 were correct. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

When presumption unrebutted by lack of comparable sales evidence. — Since the documents relied upon by a taxpayer as evidence of comparable sales are documents dealing with the sale of that very improvement whose valuation is the subject of the present dispute and the only evidence submitted by the taxpayer failed to present any evidence of sales of comparable property and the evidence submitted does not establish a market value under Section 7-36-15B NMSA 1978 and the statutory presumption of correctness still stands. N.M. Baptist Found. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1979-NMCA-102, 93 N.M. 363, 600 P.2d 309.

Presumption of assessor's valuation not overcome. — Since taxpayer failed to present any evidence of sales of comparable property or evidence of value based on generally accepted appraisal techniques, and its only evidence, the purchase price of its land in question, did not establish a market value under Section 7-36-15 NMSA 1978, the presumption of the correctness of the assessor's valuation was not overcome. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Failure to overcome presumption. — Taxpayers' offer of the price for which they had purchased the property in question as evidence of fair market value failed to overcome the presumption of the correctness of the assessor's valuation where the sales price was not the result of an arms'-length transaction because of the taxpayers' mailing campaign to convince landowners to sell their property to the taxpayers at below market prices. In re Cobb, 1991-NMCA-122, 113 N.M. 251, 824 P.2d 1053, cert. denied, 113 N.M. 44, 822 P.2d 1127.

Taxpayers challenge of their property assessment, which proposed an alternative assessment method, failed to present sufficient evidence to overcome the presumption that the original assessment was correct. Hannahs v. Anderson, 1998-NMCA-152, 126 N.M. 1, 966 P.2d 168, cert. denied, 126 N.M. 532, 972 P.2d 351.

7-38-7. Valuation date.

All property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall be valued as of January 1 of each tax year, except that livestock shall be valued as of the date and in the manner prescribed under Section 7-36-21 NMSA 1978 and tangible personal property of construction contractors shall be valued as of the date and in the manner prescribed under Section 1 [7-38-7.1 NMSA 1978] of this act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-7, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 47; 1997, ch. 68, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "this act" at the end of the section refers to Laws 1997, ch. 68, which amended this section.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, substituted "7-36-21" and the language following it for "72-29-10 NMSA 1953" at the end of the section.

Appropriate time period to establish exemption status. — The prior calendar year is the appropriate time period upon which to base a property's exemption status, and January 1 is the appropriate "cutoff date" under Article VIII, Section 3 of the New Mexico Constitution. CAVU Co. v. Martinez, 2014-NMSC-029, aff'g in part, rev'g in part 2013-NMCA-050, 302 P.3d 126.

Evidence of the use of property on the valuation date. — The valuation date of January 1 sets a cut-off date to avoid reclassification of property throughout the tax year. It does not specify the date on which the property's use defines its status for the remainder of the year and does not limit the evidence that can be considered in determining the status of property to the property's use on January 1. Property does not have to be in active use for exempt purposes on January 1 in order for an exemption to apply and evidence of the prior use of the property should be considered. CAVU Co. v. Martinez, 2013-NMCA-050, 302 P.3d 126, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-004.

Where the taxpayer's property was used as a school until May 2008, the property ceased to be used actively as a school after May, 2008 and was not used actively as a school again until August 2010 when the fall semester began; the property was not used for educational purposes on January 1, 2010; and the district court held that January 1 is the point at which the status of property is determined for purposes of qualifying for an exemption from taxation and that the taxpayer's property was not exempt for the 2010 tax year because the property was not used for educational purposes on January 1, 2010, the district court erred in interpreting Section 7-38-7 NMSA 1978 too narrowly and should have considered the use of the property prior to January 1, 2010. CAVU Co. v. Martinez, 2013-NMCA-050, 302 P.3d 126, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-004.

Exclusive reliance on evidence of prior year comparable sales was reasonable. — With respect to comparable sales, the legislature intended assessors and protests boards to consider only data available on January 1 of the tax year of the valuation notice. AMREP Sw., Inc. v. Sandoval Cnty. Assessor, 2012-NMCA-082, 284 P.3d 1118.

Where the county valuation protests board refused to consider the taxpayer's comparable 2009 sales evidence and relied exclusively on comparable 2008 sales for the valuation of the taxpayer's property for the 2009 tax year based on the board's interpretation of statutory and administrative code provisions that required property to be valued using only data available on January 1, 2009, the board's interpretation of the statutory and administrative code provisions was reasonable. AMREP Sw., Inc. v. Sandoval Cnty. Assessor, 2012-NMCA-082, 284 P.3d 1118.

Past or future value not to serve as basis. — What the fair market value of a tract may have been in the past or speculation as to what it might be in the future cannot serve as the basis for valuation. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620; Bakel v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-173, 95 N.M. 723, 625 P.2d 1240.

Tax liability whether or not property evaluation done on time. — When property is evaluated in accordance with the law, the taxpayer is liable for payment, whether or not the evaluation is done on time, just so long as the value determined reflects the value as of January 1st of the tax year. Hansman v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1980-NMCA-088, 95 N.M. 697, 625 P.2d 1214.

7-38-7.1. Valuation date; tangible personal property; construction contractors.

A. All tangible personal property of construction contractors located in the state shall be valued for property taxation purposes as of January 1, except as provided in Subsection B of this section.

B. All tangible personal property of construction contractors not located in the state on January 1 but brought into the state and located there for more than twenty days subsequent to January 1 shall be valued for property taxation purposes as of the first day of the month following the month in which they have remained in the state for more than twenty days.

C. The construction contractor whose tangible personal property is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall report the property for valuation to the entity having responsibility for valuation of the property in accordance with Section 7-36-2 NMSA 1978 on the valuation date specified in Subsection A or B of this section and shall include in the report the actual or estimated time period during which the property has been and will be located in the state. The contractor's report shall be in a form and contain the information required by the department regulations and shall be made no later than:

(1) the last day of February for tangible personal property required to be valued as of the first day of January of the tax year; or

(2) ten days after the valuation date determined under Subsection B of this section for tangible personal property required to be valued as of a date other than that in Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

D. The department shall adopt regulations for the allocation of the value of tangible personal property of construction contractors, which regulations shall provide for:

(1) a basic allocation formula that prorates value on the basis of the amount of time that the tangible personal property is in the state and subject to valuation for property taxation purposes;

(2) determining proration of value under Paragraph (1) of this subsection using estimates of the amount of time that the tangible personal property will be in the state to cover those situations in which tangible personal property is imported for an indeterminate time during a tax year; and

(3) a method of allocating the value of the tangible personal property among different governmental units when the tangible personal property is located in more than one governmental unit.

E. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section or who knowingly makes a false statement in a report required under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

F. Any person who fails to make a report required of him under this section is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he failed to make the required report.

G. Any person who intentionally refuses to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax or who fails to make a report required of him under this section with the intent to evade any tax is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which he refused or failed to make the required report.

H. The civil penalties authorized under Subsections F and G of this section shall be imposed and collected at the time and in the manner that the tax is imposed and collected. In order to assist in the imposition and collection of the penalties, the person having responsibility for determining the value of the property shall make an entry in the valuation records indicating the liability for any penalties due under this section.

History: Laws 1997, ch. 68, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

7-38-8. Reporting of property for valuation; penalties for failure to report.

A. All property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes by the department shall be reported annually to the department. The report required by this subsection shall be made by the owner of the property or such other person as may be authorized by rules of the department. The report shall be in a form and contain the information required by rules of the department. It shall be made not later than the last day of February in the tax year in which the property is subject to valuation. Claims of economic obsolescence or functional obsolescence on properties not regulated by the federal government shall be made at the time the annual report is filed; however, the department shall accept supplements to the annual report containing claims of economic obsolescence or functional obsolescence on properties regulated by the federal energy regulatory commission or its successor agency at the time the annual commission report becomes available, but no later than April 15 of the tax year or at a later time allowed by an extension granted by the department. In the case of the failure or refusal to file the report required under this subsection, the department shall determine the value of the property subject to valuation from the best information available.

B. Except as provided in Subsection D of this section, all property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes by the county assessor shall be reported as follows:

(1) property valued in the 1974 tax year by the county assessor need not be reported for any subsequent tax year unless required to be reported under Paragraph (3) of this subsection;

(2) property not valued in the 1974 tax year by the county assessor but that becomes subject to valuation by the county assessor in any subsequent tax year shall be reported to the county assessor not later than the last day of February of the tax year in which it becomes subject to valuation, but such property need not be reported for any year subsequent to the year in which initially reported unless required to be reported under Paragraph (3) of this subsection;

(3) property once valued by a county assessor in a tax year, but which is not valued for a year subsequent to the year of initial valuation because it is not subject to valuation for that subsequent year by the county assessor, shall be reported to the county assessor not later than the last day of February in a tax year in which it again becomes subject to valuation by the county assessor; and

(4) reports required under Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection shall be in a form and contain the information required by rules of the department.

C. Not later than the last day of February of each tax year, every owner of real property who made, or caused to be made, in the preceding calendar year improvements costing more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to that real property shall report to the county assessor the property improved, the improvements made, the cost of the improvements and such other information as the department may require.

D. Manufactured homes, livestock and land used for agricultural purposes shall be reported for valuation for property taxation purposes to the county assessor at the times and in the manner prescribed under Sections 7-36-26, 7-36-21 and 7-36-20 NMSA 1978 and rules promulgated by the department.

E. Property subject to valuation by the county assessor for property taxation purposes and improvements to such property that are required to be reported under Subsection C of this section shall be reported to the county assessor of the county in which the property is required to be valued under Section 7-36-14 NMSA 1978. Reports shall be made either by the owner of the property, the owner's authorized agent or any person having control or management of the property and shall be in a form and contain the information required by rules of the department.

F. Reports required by this section shall be made by the declarant under oath, and the secretary, employees of the department, the assessor and the assessor's employees are empowered to administer oaths for this purpose.

G. A person who intentionally refuses to make a report required under the provisions of Subsection A, B or C of this section or who knowingly makes a false statement in a report required under the provisions of Subsection A, B or C of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

H. A person who fails to make a report required under the provisions of Subsection A or B of this section is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which the person failed to make the required report.

I. A person who intentionally refuses to make a report required under the provisions of Subsection A or B of this section with the intent to evade any tax or who fails to make a report required under the provisions of Subsection A or B of this section with the intent to evade any tax is liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the property taxes ultimately determined to be due on the property for the tax year or years for which the person refused or failed to make the required report.

J. A person who is required to make a report under the provisions of Subsection C of this section and who fails to do so is personally liable for a civil penalty in an amount equal to the greater of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or twenty-five percent of the difference between the property taxes ultimately determined to be due and the property taxes originally paid for the tax year or years for which the person failed to make the required report. This penalty shall not be considered a delinquent property tax, and the provisions of the Property Tax Code for the enforcement and collection of delinquent property taxes through the sale of the property do not apply. However, the county treasurer may use all other methods provided by law to collect the property tax or penalty due. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Property Tax Code, amounts collected pursuant to the penalty provided by this subsection shall be distributed among jurisdictions imposing tax on the property in the same proportion as the amount of tax ultimately determined to be due for the jurisdiction bears to the total due for all such jurisdictions.

K. The civil penalties authorized under Subsections H and I of this section shall be imposed and collected at the time and in the manner that the tax is imposed and collected. In order to assist in the imposition and collection of the penalties, the persons having responsibility for determining the value of the property shall make an entry in the valuation records indicating the liability for any penalties due under this section.

L. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "improvement" means the construction of any new structure permanently affixed to the land or the repair, rehabilitation or alteration of an existing structure permanently affixed to the land that, for property used for any commercial purpose, is required or allowed to be capitalized under the Internal Revenue Code and, for other properties, any similar construction, repair, rehabilitation or alteration; and

(2) "owner of real property" includes every owner of improvements who does not own the land upon which the improvements are made.

7-38-8.1. Division to adopt regulations to require reporting of exempt property.

The division shall adopt regulations to insure that all real property owned by any nongovernmental entity and claimed to be exempt from property taxation under the provisions of Paragraph (1) of Subsection B of Section 7-36-7 NMSA 1978 shall be reported for valuation purposes to the appropriate valuation authority. These regulations shall include provisions for initial reporting of the property and claiming of the exempt status pursuant to Subsection C of Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978.

7-38-9. Description of property for property taxation purposes.

A. Property shall be described for property taxation purposes by a description sufficiently adequate and accurate to identify it. Real property shall be described under a uniform system of real property description in accordance with regulations of the department. The department shall promulgate regulations establishing a uniform system of real property description to be used by the department and all assessors. The system shall include requirements for a comprehensive mapping or geographic information system, the use of uniform property record documents and uniform coding of real property descriptions.

B. Real property that has been valued for property taxation purposes prior to the effective date of the Property Tax Code by a description consisting of a mere reference to the time and place of filing or recording in the office of the county clerk of any map or other instrument describing the property with sufficient preciseness to permit its identification shall be considered to have been sufficiently described for property taxation purposes. All prior assessments, records and instruments maintained or issued by property taxation officers which describe the property by such a reference are validated and given the same force and effect as if a description of the property had been used that would comply with this section.

7-38-10. Department may insure compliance with mapping and description of real property regulations by departmental installation of required system; reimbursement by county of costs incurred.

Whenever the director determines that it is necessary to insure compliance with departmental regulations relating to comprehensive mapping or geographic information systems and real property description or to correct county deficiencies in this regard, he shall order the installation by the department of the necessary maps and other increments of the property description system in the county. The director may require the county to reimburse the department for costs incurred by the department in the installation or correction of a property description system.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-10, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 50; 1999, ch. 215, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, inserted "or geographic information systems" in the first sentence.

7-38-11. Property reported in the wrong county.

If property is reported for valuation for property taxation purposes in a county different from the county in which it is required to be reported by law and the regulations of the department, the county assessor to whom the erroneous report is made shall send a copy of the report to the county assessor of the county in which the report is required to be made and shall, at the same time, notify the person making the erroneous report of his obligation to make the required report to the appropriate county. A person making a report to the wrong county assessor is not relieved of his responsibility to make the required report to the correct county assessor because of the provisions of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-11, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 51.

7-38-12. Property transfers; copies of documents to be furnished to assessor; penalty for violation.

A. Whenever a deed or real estate contract transferring an interest in real property is received by a county clerk for recording, a copy of the deed or real estate contract shall be given to the county assessor by the clerk.

B. A county clerk who willfully fails to comply with this section is guilty of a petty misdemeanor, punishable in accordance with the Criminal Code [Chapter 30 NMSA 1978].

History: Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 52; 1953 Comp., § 72-31-12; Laws 1974, ch. 92, § 8; 1982, ch. 28, § 9.

7-38-12.1. Residential property transfers; affidavit to be filed with assessor.

A. After January 1, 2004, a transferor or the transferor's authorized agent or a transferee or the transferee's authorized agent presenting for recording with a county clerk a deed, real estate contract or memorandum of real estate contract transferring an interest in real property classified as residential property for property taxation purposes shall also file with the county assessor within thirty days of the date of filing with the county clerk an affidavit signed and completed in accordance with the provisions of Subsection B of this section.

B. The affidavit required for submission shall be in a form approved by the department and signed by the transferors or their authorized agents or the transferees or their authorized agents of any interest in residential real property transferred by deed or real estate contract. The affidavit shall contain only the following information to be used only for analytical and statistical purposes in the application of appraisal methods:

- (1) the complete names of all transferors and transferees;
- (2) the current mailing addresses of all transferors and transferees;

(3) the legal description of the real property interest transferred as it appears in the document of transfer;

(4) the full consideration, including money or any other thing of value, paid or exchanged for the transfer and the terms of the sale including any amount of seller incentives; and

(5) the value and a description of personal property that is included in the sale price.

C. Upon receipt of the affidavit required by Subsection A of this section, the county assessor shall place the date of receipt on the original affidavit and on a copy of the affidavit. The county assessor shall retain the original affidavit as a confidential record and as proof of compliance and shall return the copy marked with the date of receipt to the person presenting the affidavit. The assessor shall index the affidavits in a manner that permits cross-referencing to other records in the assessor's office pertaining to the specific property described in the affidavit. The affidavit and its contents are not part of the valuation record of the assessor.

D. The affidavit required by Subsection A of this section shall not be required for:

- (1) a deed transferring nonresidential property;
- (2) a deed that results from the payment in full or forfeiture by a transferee under a recorded real estate contract or recorded memorandum of real estate contract;
- (3) a lease of or easement on real property, regardless of the length of term;
- (4) a deed, patent or contract for sale or transfer of real property in which an agency or representative of the United States, New Mexico or any political subdivision of the state is the named grantor or grantee and authorized transferor or transferee;
- (5) a quitclaim deed to quiet title or clear boundary disputes;
- (6) a conveyance of real property executed pursuant to court order;
- (7) a deed to an unpatented mining claim;
- (8) an instrument solely to provide or release security for a debt or obligation;
- (9) an instrument that confirms or corrects a deed previously recorded;
- (10) an instrument between husband and wife or parent and child with only nominal actual consideration therefor;
- (11) an instrument arising out of a sale for delinquent taxes or assessments;

(12) an instrument accomplishing a court-ordered partition;

(13) an instrument arising out of a merger or incorporation;

(14) an instrument by a subsidiary corporation to its parent corporation for no consideration, nominal consideration or in sole consideration of the cancellation or surrender of the subsidiary's stock;

(15) an instrument from a person to a trustee or from a trustee to a trust beneficiary with only nominal actual consideration therefor;

(16) an instrument to or from an intermediary for the purpose of creating a joint tenancy estate or some other form of ownership; or

(17) an instrument delivered to establish a gift or a distribution from an estate of a decedent or trust.

E. The affidavit required by Subsection A of this section shall not be construed to be a valuation record pursuant to Section 7-38-19 NMSA 1978.

F. Prior to November 1, 2003, the department shall print and distribute to each county assessor affidavit forms for distribution to the public upon request.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 118, § 2; 2005, ch. 24, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, provided that a transferor or transferee or their agents who record deeds, real estate contracts and memorandum of real estate contracts that transfer interest in residential property for residential taxation purposes shall file an affidavit with the county assessor in a form approved by the taxation and revenue department, which shall include the terms of the sale, including the amount of seller incentives; provided that the county assessor shall place the date of receipt on a copy of the affidavit and give the copy of the affidavit to the person presenting the affidavit; and provided that this section does not apply to a deed transferring nonresidential property.

7-38-12.2. Penalties.

A. A person who intentionally refuses to make a required report within the time period specified under the provisions of Section 7-38-12.1 NMSA 1978 or who knowingly makes a false statement on an affidavit required under the provisions of Section 7-38-12.1 NMSA 1978 is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

B. The secretary, any employee or any former employee of the department or any other person subject to the provisions of Section 7-38-12.1 NMSA 1978 who willfully releases information in violation of that section, except as provided in Section 7-38-4 NMSA 1978 or as part of a protest proceeding as defined in Section 7-38-24 NMSA 1978, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

History: Laws 2003, ch. 118, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2003, ch. 118, contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 20, 2003, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-38-13. Statement of decrease in value of property subject to local valuation.

A. No later than the last day of February of a tax year, any owner of property subject to valuation by the county assessor who believes that the value of his property has decreased in the previous tax year may file with the county assessor a signed statement describing the property affected, the cause and nature of the decrease in value and the amount by which the owner contends the valuation of the property has been decreased. Prior to determining the value of the property, the county assessor or an employee of the assessor must view the property described in the statement. The county assessor shall note on the back of the statement the date the property was viewed, by whom it was viewed and any action taken or to be taken as a result. The provisions of this subsection include a decrease in valuation of property due to a change in ownership, location or existence of personal property subject to local valuation, and in those cases the assessor or his employee shall verify the alleged change and make an appropriate notation of the date of verification, the person who made it and any action taken or to be taken as a result.

B. Reports required or authorized under this section to be filed by the owner of property may be filed by the owner's authorized agent.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-13, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 53; 1991, ch. 213, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective January 1, 1992, deleted "Statement of improvements to real property subject to local valuation" in the section heading; deleted former Subsection A, relating to filing a statement of improvements to real property subject to local valuation; designated former Subsections B and C as Subsections A and B; and made minor stylistic changes in Subsection A.

7-38-14. Tabulation of construction permits; information required to be furnished to county assessors.

A. By the tenth day of each month, the trade boards operating under the Construction Industries Licensing Act [Chapter 60, Article 13 NMSA 1978] shall furnish the assessor of each county with a tabulation of all permits which they have issued in the assessor's county in the previous month for all construction projects, the cost of each of which exceeded one thousand dollars ($1,000). The tabulation shall include the name of the owner of the property for which a permit was issued, the construction location and the cost of the construction project for which the permit was issued. A copy of the tabulation shall be sent to the department.

B. By the tenth day of each month, each county or municipality issuing building permits shall furnish the assessor of the county issuing the permit or the county in which the municipality is located with a tabulation of all building permits issued in the previous month for all construction projects, the cost of each of which exceeded one thousand dollars ($1,000). The tabulation shall include the name of the owner of the property for which a permit was issued, the construction location and the cost of the construction project for which the permit was issued. A copy of the tabulation shall be sent to the department.

C. Upon receiving the information required to be furnished under this section, the county assessors and the department shall enter any required changes in their valuation or other records.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-14, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 54.

7-38-15. Information on real property sold, purchased, contracted to be sold or purchased, or exchanged by governmental bodies to be sent to or obtained by the department; department to compile and send information to county assessors.

A. By the twentieth day of each month, the department shall obtain from appropriate agencies of the United States the following information relating to real property transactions occurring during the preceding month:

(1) a list by legal description of each parcel of real property in the state that was sold, purchased, contracted to be sold or purchased, or exchanged by agencies of the United States government; and

(2) the names and addresses of each of the transferors and transferees of the property required to be listed under Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

B. By the twentieth day of each month, each state agency and the governing body of each of the state's political subdivisions shall report to the department the following information relating to real property transactions occurring during the preceding month:

(1) a list by legal description of each parcel of real property in the state that was sold, purchased, contracted to be sold or purchased, or exchanged by the state agency or the political subdivisions; and

(2) the names and addresses of each of the transferors and transferees of the property listed under Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

C. The information gathered by the department on real property that is subject to local valuation for property taxation purposes shall be compiled and sent immediately to the county assessors of the counties in which the reported property is located. The county assessor receiving the information shall enter any required changes in the valuation or other records and shall also take any action that is required under the Property Tax Code as a result of the receipt of the information.

D. The information gathered by the department on real property that is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes by the department shall be compiled and retained by the department. The department shall enter any required changes in its valuation or other records and shall also take any action that is required under the Property Tax Code as a result of the receipt of the information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-15, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 55.

7-38-16. Condemnation proceedings; duty of condemning authority to notify county assessor.

A. Upon the issuance of a court order making permanent an order of preliminary entry in any condemnation proceeding brought by any governmental authority in this state exercising the power of eminent domain, or upon the issuance of a final order of condemnation if no order allowing preliminary entry is issued, the condemning authority shall notify the county assessor of the county in which the land subject to condemnation is situated of:

(1) the fact of the issuance of an order making permanent an order of preliminary entry or an order of final condemnation and the date of the order;

(2) the description and ownership of the land subject to the order; and

(3) the date that physical possession of the land was or will be assumed by the condemning authority under a preliminary entry order.

B. Upon receipt of the notification required under Subsection A, the county assessor shall make appropriate changes in his valuation records to indicate as owner of the land for property taxation purposes the condemning authority as of the date of possession or the date of a final order of condemnation. If the land involved is subject to valuation for property taxation purposes by the department, the county assessor shall notify the department of the changes.

C. This section does not authorize the proration of taxes for a tax year in which ownership changes as a result of condemnation proceedings, but a condemning authority may contract or stipulate with an owner of land subject to condemnation for the proration of the owner's tax liability.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-16, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 56.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For condemnation proceedings generally, see Chapter 42A NMSA 1978.

7-38-17. Claiming exemptions; requirements; penalties.

A. Subject to the requirements of Subsection E of this section, head-of-family exemptions, veteran exemptions, disabled veteran exemptions or veterans' organization exemptions claimed and allowed in a tax year need not be claimed for subsequent tax years if there is no change in eligibility for the exemption nor any change in ownership of the property against which the exemption was claimed. Head-of-family, veteran and veterans' organization exemptions allowable under this subsection shall be applied automatically by county assessors in the subsequent tax years.

B. Other exemptions of real property specified under Section 7-36-7 NMSA 1978 for nongovernmental entities shall be claimed in order to be allowed. Once such exemptions are claimed and allowed for a tax year, they need not be claimed for subsequent tax years if there is no change in eligibility. Exemptions allowable under this subsection shall be applied automatically by county assessors in subsequent tax years.

C. Except as set forth in Subsection H of this section, an exemption required to be claimed under this section shall be applied for no later than thirty days after the mailing of the county assessor's notices of valuation pursuant to Section 7-38-20 NMSA 1978 in order for it to be allowed for that tax year.

D. A person who has had an exemption applied to a tax year and subsequently becomes ineligible for the exemption because of a change in the person's status or a change in the ownership of the property against which the exemption was applied shall notify the county assessor of the loss of eligibility for the exemption by the last day of February of the tax year immediately following the year in which loss of eligibility occurs.

E. Exemptions may be claimed by filing proof of eligibility for the exemption with the county assessor. The proof shall be in a form prescribed by regulation of the department. Procedures for determining eligibility of claimants for any exemption shall be prescribed by regulation of the department, and these regulations shall include provisions for requiring the veterans' services department to issue certificates of eligibility for veteran and veterans' organization exemptions in a form and with the information required by the department. The regulations shall also include verification procedures to assure that veteran exemptions in excess of the amount authorized under Section 7-37-5 NMSA 1978 are not allowed as a result of multiple claiming in more than one county or claiming against more than one property in a single tax year.

F. The department shall consult and cooperate with the veterans' services department in the development, adoption and promulgation of regulations under Subsection E of this section. The veterans' services department shall comply with the promulgated regulations. The veterans' services department shall collect a fee of five dollars ($5.00) for the issuance of a duplicate certificate of eligibility to a veteran or to a veterans' organization.

G. A person who violates the provisions of this section by intentionally claiming and receiving the benefit of an exemption to which the person is not entitled or who fails to comply with the provisions of Subsection D of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). A county assessor or the assessor's employee who knowingly permits a claimant for an exemption to receive the benefit of an exemption to which the claimant is not entitled is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall also be automatically removed from office or dismissed from employment upon conviction under this subsection.

H. When a disabled veteran or the disabled veteran's unmarried surviving spouse provides proof of eligibility pursuant to Subsection E of this section, the disabled veteran or the disabled veteran's unmarried surviving spouse shall be allowed the exemption for the current tax year; provided that the exemption shall not be allowed for property tax due for previous tax years.

The 2023 amendment, effective June 16, 2023, removed an obsolete provision, added a provision to provide flexibility regarding the requirement to provide proof of eligibility for a disabled veteran's property tax exemption, and specified that the exemption shall not be allowed for property tax due for previous tax years; and deleted former Subsection H and added a new Subsection H.

The 2011 amendment, effective June 17, 2011, provided the procedure for claiming the veterans' organization property tax exemption.

The 2005 amendment, effective April 6, 2005, in Subsection A, deleted the former provisions that limited exemptions to claimed and allowed after specified dates; added the exception in Subsection C; and added Subsection H to provide that a veteran or a veteran's unmarried surviving spouse shall apply for the exemption authorized in the November 2004 constitutional amendment to Article 8, Section 5 of the New Mexico constitution when the veteran or surviving spouse applies for the 2005 veteran exemption.

The 2004 amendment, effective May 19, 2004, amended Subsections E and F of this section to change "veterans' service commission" to "veterans' services department".

The 2003 amendment, effective March 16, 2003, substituted "thirty days after the mailing of the county assessors' notices of valuation pursuant to Section 7-38-20 NMSA 1978" for "the last day of February of the tax year in which it is required to be claimed" in Subsection C.

The 2000 amendment, effective March 7, 2000, in Subsection A, inserted "or a subsequent" following "1974" and "1982" and inserted "or disabled veteran exemptions claimed and allowed in the 2000 or a subsequent tax year"; deleted Subsection B, relating to unclaimed exemptions and redesignated the remaining subsections and adjusted internal references where appropriate, and substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section.

7-38-17.1. Presumption of nonresidential classification; declaration of residential classification.

A. Property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes for the 1982 and succeeding tax years is presumed to be nonresidential and will be so recorded by the appropriate valuation authority unless the property owner declares the property to be residential. This declaration will be made on a form prescribed by the division, signed by the owner or his agent and mailed to the valuation authority not later than the last day of February of the property tax year to which it applies. The form for the declaration shall be mailed by the valuation authority to property owners no later than January 31 of each property tax year and shall include the property owner's name and address and the description or identification of the property. It may be included as part of a preliminary notice of valuation form or any other similar form mailed to property owners during the appropriate time period. The valuation authority will take reasonable steps to verify any such declaration. Once the declaration is accepted, the valuation authority will make appropriate entries on the valuation records. Declarations, once accepted by the valuation authority, need not be made in subsequent tax years if there is no change in the use of the property.

B. No later than the last day of February of each tax year, every owner of property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes shall report to the appropriate valuation authority as set out in Section 7-36-2 NMSA 1978 whenever the use of the property changes from residential to nonresidential or from nonresidential to residential. This report will be made on a form prescribed by the division and will be signed by the owner of the property or his agent.

C. Any person who violates Subsection A of this section by declaring a property which is nonresidential to be residential or who violates Subsection B of this section by failing to report a change of use from residential to nonresidential shall be liable, for each tax year to which declaration or failure to report applies, for:

- (1) any additional taxes because of a difference in tax rates imposed against residential and nonresidential property;
- (2) interest, calculated as provided under Section 7-38-49 NMSA 1978, on any additional taxes determined to be due under Paragraph (1) of this subsection; and
- (3) a civil penalty of five percent of any additional taxes determined to be due under Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

D. Any person who violates Subsection A of this section by declaring a property which is nonresidential to be residential with the intent to evade any tax or who violates Subsection B of this section by refusing or failing to report a change of use from residential to nonresidential with the intent to evade any tax is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by the imposition of a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). Any director, employee of the division, county assessor or employee of any assessor who knowingly records a property which is nonresidential to be residential is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall be automatically removed from office or dismissed from employment upon conviction under this subsection.

E. The civil penalties authorized in Subsection C of this section shall be imposed and collected at the same time and in the same manner that the tax and interest are imposed and collected. The county treasurer is responsible for making entries on the appropriate records indicating amounts due and the date of payment.

7-38-18. Publication of notice of certain provisions relating to reporting property for valuation and claiming of exemptions.

A. Each county assessor shall have a notice published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county at least once a week during the first three full weeks in January of each tax year, which notice shall include a brief statement of the provisions of:

- (1) Section 7-38-8 NMSA 1978 relating to requirements for reporting property for valuation for property taxation purposes;
- (2) Section 7-38-8.1 NMSA 1978 relating to requirements for reporting exempt property;
- (3) Section 7-38-13 NMSA 1978 relating to filing statements of decrease in value of property;
- (4) Section 7-38-17 NMSA 1978 relating to requirements for claiming veteran, disabled veteran, head-of-family and other exemptions;
- (5) Section 7-38-17.1 NMSA 1978 relating to the requirements for declaring residential property and changes in use of property; and

(6) Section 7-36-21.3 NMSA 1978 relating to requirements for claiming eligibility for the limitation on increases in valuation for property taxation purposes of a single-family dwelling owned and occupied by a person who is sixty-five years of age or older.

B. The department shall develop and issue a uniform form of notice to be used by county assessors to fulfill the requirements of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-18, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 58; 1981, ch. 37, § 69; 1982, ch. 28, § 11; 2000, ch. 92, § 4; 2000, ch. 94, § 4; 2001, ch. 321, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2001 amendment, effective April 5, 2001, deleted "requirements for reporting improvements to real property and to" preceding "filing statements" in Paragraph A(3); and added Paragraph A(6).

Applicability. — Laws 2001, ch. 321, § 6 made the provisions of this act applicable to the 2001 property tax year and succeeding tax years.

The 2000 amendment, effective March 7, 2000, in Subsection A(4), inserted "disabled veteran" and in Subsection B, substituted "department" for "division".

7-38-19. Valuation records.

A. The county assessor shall maintain a record of the values determined for property taxation purposes on all property within the county subject to valuation under the Property Tax Code, whether the values are determined by the county assessor or the department.

B. The department shall maintain, in addition to the county assessors' records, a record of the values determined for property taxation purposes on all property subject to department valuation under the Property Tax Code.

C. Valuation records shall contain the information required by the Property Tax Code and regulations of the department.

D. Except as provided otherwise in Subsection E of this section, valuation records are public records.

E. Valuation records that contain information regarding the income, expenses other than depreciation, profits or losses associated with a specific property or a property owner or that contain diagrams or other depictions of the interior arrangement of buildings, alarm systems or electrical or plumbing systems are not public records and may be released only in accordance with Paragraphs (2) through (7) of Subsection A of Section 7-38-4 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-19, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 59; 1982, ch. 28, § 12; 1991, ch. 166, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section; deleted "but shall not include the income, expenses other than depreciation, profits or losses associated with a specific property or property owner" at the end of Subsection C; added the exception at the beginning of Subsection D; and added Subsection E.

7-38-20. County assessor and department to mail notices of valuation.

A. By April 1 of each year, the county assessor shall mail a notice to each property owner informing the property owner of the net taxable value of the property owner's property that has been valued for property taxation purposes by the assessor and other related information as required by Subsection D of this section.

B. By May 1 of each year, the department shall mail a notice to each property owner informing the property owner of the net taxable value of the property owner's property that has been valued for property taxation purposes by the department and other related information as required by Subsection D of this section.

C. Failure to receive the notice required by this section does not invalidate the value set on the property, any property tax based on that value or any subsequent procedure or proceeding instituted for the collection of the tax.

D. The notice required by this section shall state:

- (1) the property owner's name and address;
- (2) the description or identification of the property valued;
- (3) the classification of the property valued;
- (4) the value set on the property for property taxation purposes;
- (5) the tax ratio;
- (6) the taxable value of the property for the previous and current tax years;

- (7) the tax rate from the previous tax year;
- (8) the amount of tax from the previous tax year;

(9) with respect to residential property, instructions for calculating an estimated tax for the current tax year, which shall be prominently displayed on the front of the notice, and a disclaimer for such instructions similar to the following:

"The calculation of property tax may be higher or lower than the property tax that will actually be imposed.";

(10) the amount of any exemptions allowed and a statement of the net taxable value of the property after deducting the exemptions;

(11) the allocations of net taxable values to the governmental units;

(12) briefly, the eligibility requirements and application procedures and deadline for claiming eligibility for a limitation on increases in the valuation for property taxation purposes of a single-family dwelling owned and occupied by a person sixty-five years of age or older; and

(13) briefly, the procedures for protesting the value determined for property taxation purposes, classification, allocation of values to governmental units or denial of a claim for an exemption or for the limitation on increases in valuation for property taxation purposes.

E. The county assessor may mail the valuation notice required pursuant to Subsection A of this section to taxpayers with the preceding tax year's property tax bills if the net taxable value of the property has not changed since the preceding taxable year. In this early mailing, the county assessor shall provide clear notice to the taxpayer that the valuation notice is for the succeeding tax year and that the deadlines for protest of the value or classification of the property apply to this mailing date.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-20, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 60; 1974, ch. 92, § 10; 1981, ch. 37, § 70; 1996, ch. 39, § 1; 2001, ch. 321, § 4; 2012, ch. 60, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For mailing of notices, see 7-38-84 NMSA 1978.

The 2012 amendment, effective July 1, 2012, required the county assessor to include in the notice of valuation of residential property the taxable values and tax rates for the previous and current tax years and instructions for calculating an estimated tax for the current tax year; in Subsection A, after "valued for property taxation purposes by the assessor", added the remainder of the sentence; in Subsection B, after "valued for property taxation purposes by the department", added the remainder of the sentence; and in Subsection D, in Paragraph (6), after "property", added the remainder of the sentence, and added Paragraphs (7), (8) and (9).

The 2001 amendment, effective April 5, 2001, inserted present Paragraph D(9); designated former Paragraph D(9) as (10); and added the language beginning "or for the limitation on increases" at the end of Paragraph D(10).

The 1996 amendment, effective May 15, 1996, substituted "department" for "division" in the section heading and in Subsection B, and added Subsection E.

Notice not intended for relief or advantage of taxpayer. — The requirement that the county treasurer (now the county assessor) give written notice to each taxpayer of the amount of his tax adds nothing to the definite imposition of the tax and the equally definite imposition of a penalty to follow upon delinquency. It is intended for the benefit and convenience of the taxpayer, but certainly not for his relief or advantage. Greene v. Esquibel, 1954-NMSC-039, 58 N.M. 429, 272 P.2d 330.

7-38-20.1. Temporary provision; additional instructions to assessors and treasurers; special requirements for 2004 veteran exemption; newly eligible veterans.

A. A county assessor shall include with the notice of valuation distributed to property owners for the 2005 property tax year, a notice to taxpayers informing them that:

(1) a taxpayer who is a veteran or the unmarried surviving spouse of a veteran who was not previously eligible for a veteran property tax exemption may be eligible for that exemption due to the change in Article 8, Section 5 of the constitution of New Mexico adopted in November 2004; and

(2) a taxpayer who is eligible for the veteran tax exemption for the 2005 property tax year may also be eligible for the veteran tax exemption for the 2004 property tax year.

B. The taxpayer shall obtain certification from the veterans' services department verifying that the veteran upon whose service the exemption is claimed is eligible for a tax exemption pursuant to Article 8, Section 5 of the constitution of New Mexico for the 2005 property tax year to present to the county assessor. The veterans' services department shall certify the date on which the veteran became honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States.

C. The county assessor shall determine from the date of discharge from the armed forces of the United States certified by the veterans' services department if the veteran would have been eligible to receive a tax exemption for the 2004 property tax year based on the veteran's date of discharge from the armed forces of the United States and the dates on which the taxpayer took title to the property. A veteran would be eligible if the veteran were discharged on a date prior to the thirtieth day following the date on which the county assessor mailed the notice of valuation in 2004 and had title to the property to which the veteran tax exemption is applied at that time.

D. If a taxpayer, who became eligible for the veteran exemption due to the approval of the amendment to Article 8, Section 5 of the constitution of New Mexico, qualifies for the 2004 and 2005 veteran exemptions and has paid in full the taxpayer's property tax liability for the 2004 property tax year, for the 2005 property tax year only the county assessor shall combine the total of the veteran exemptions for those two property tax years and deduct the combined total from the taxable value of the taxpayer's property to obtain the net taxable value for the 2005 property tax year.

History: Laws 2005, ch. 230, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2005, ch. 230, § 5 made Laws 2005, ch. 230, § 3 effective April 6, 2005.

Applicability. — Laws 2005, ch. 230, § 4 provided that Laws 2005, ch. 230, § 3 was applicable only to the veteran exemptions claimed in a timely manner in the 2005 property tax year.

7-38-21. Protests; county-assessed property; election of remedies.

A. A property owner may protest the value or classification determined by the county assessor for the property owner's property for property taxation purposes, the allocation of value of the property to a particular governmental unit or a denial of a claim for an exemption or for a limitation on increase in value either by:

(1) filing a petition with the county assessor as provided in the Property Tax Code; or

(2) filing a claim for refund after paying the property owner's taxes as provided in the Property Tax Code.

B. The initiation of a protest under Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of this section is an election to pursue that remedy and is an unconditional and irrevocable waiver of the right to pursue the remedy provided in Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this section.

C. A property owner may also protest the application to the property owner's property of any administrative fee adopted pursuant to Section 7-38-36.1 NMSA 1978 by filing a claim for refund after paying the property owner's taxes as provided in the Property Tax Code.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-21, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 61; 1978 Comp., § 7-38-21; 1981, ch. 37, § 71; 1983, ch. 215, § 1; 2001, ch. 24, § 1; 2015, ch. 73, § 19; 2023, ch. 36, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For definition of "director," see 7-35-2 NMSA 1978.

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, clarified the process for protesting the value or classification of property determined by a county assessor; in the section heading, added "county-assessed property"; in Subsection A, after "classification determined", added "by the county assessor", in Paragraph A(1), after "filing", added "a petition with the county assessor", and after "Property Tax Code", deleted "a petition of protest with", and deleted Subparagraphs A(1)(a) and A(1)(b).

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, provided for protests of property valuation to be filed with the administrative hearings office; in Subsection A, after "determined for", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's" and after "allocation of value of", deleted "his" and added "the"; in Subsection A, Paragraph (1), after "filing", added "as provided in the Property Tax Code"; in Subsection A, Paragraph (1)(a), after "the", deleted "director" and added "administrative hearings office"; in Subsection A, Paragraph (1)(b), after "county assessor", deleted "as provided in the Property Tax Code"; in Subsection A, Paragraph (2), after "paying", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's"; in Subsection B, after "provided", deleted "under" and added "in"; and in Subsection C, after "application to", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's", and after "paying", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's".

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, inserted "or for a limitation on increase in value" in Subsection A.

Protest or refund. — The alternate methods of protesting the rejection of a tax exemption set out in Subsections A(1) and A(2) are separate and distinct. Where a museum files a protest with the county assessor under Subsection A(1) and then pays the disputed tax, in order to avoid interest and penalty assessments, the museum cannot later apply for a refund under Subsection A(2). Georgia O'Keeffe Museum v. County of Santa Fe, 2003-NMCA-003, 133 N.M. 297, 62 P.3d 754.

7-38-21.1. Protests; state-assessed property; election of remedies.

A. A property owner may protest the value or classification determined by the department for the property owner's property for property taxation purposes, the allocation of value of the property to a particular governmental unit or a denial of a claim for an exemption by:

(1) filing a petition of protest with the administrative hearings office, as provided in the Property Tax Code; or

(2) filing a claim for refund with a district court after paying the property owner's taxes as provided in the Property Tax Code.

B. The initiation of a protest under Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of this section is an election to pursue that remedy and is an unconditional and irrevocable waiver of the right to pursue the alternative remedy provided in Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this section.

7-38-22. Protesting values, classification, allocation of values and denial of exemption determined by the department.

A. A property owner may protest the value or classification determined by the department for the property owner's property for property taxation purposes or the department's allocation of value of the property owner's property to a particular governmental unit or the denial of a claim for an exemption by filing a petition with the administrative hearings office. Filing a petition in accordance with this section entitles a property owner to a hearing on the property owner's protest.

B. Petitions shall:

(1) be filed no later than thirty days after:

(a) the mailing by the department of the notice of valuation; or

(b) the mailing of a property tax bill on omitted property pursuant to Section 7-38-76 NMSA 1978;

(2) state the property owner's name and address and the description of the property;

(3) state why the property owner believes the value, classification, allocation of value or denial of an exemption is incorrect and what the property owner believes the correct value, classification, allocation of value or exemption to be;

(4) state the value, classification, allocation of value or exemption that is not in controversy; and

(5) contain such other information as the administrative hearings office may by rule require.

C. The administrative hearings office shall notify the secretary and the property owner by certified mail of the date, time and place that the parties may appear before the administrative hearings office to present evidence related to the petition; provided that the parties may request, consent or agree to an alternative service method for the notice of hearing. The notice shall be sent at least fifteen days prior to the hearing date.

D. The secretary may provide for an informal conference on the protest before the hearing.

Constitutional issues are outside the county protests board's statutory authority. — It is the duty of the judiciary to interpret the constitution, the supreme law of the land, and to set forth the law; a county protests board does not have jurisdiction to hear constitutional issues which are outside the protests board's statutory authority. El Castillo Retirement Residences v. Martinez, 2015-NMCA-041, overruling In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142, and cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-004.

Where retirement community was denied a charitable property tax exemption by the county assessor and appealed the county assessor's decision to the Santa Fe county protests board, claiming a charitable property tax exemption under N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 3, it was appropriate for the protests board to decline to hear the constitutional claim, citing a lack of jurisdiction. El Castillo Retirement Residences v. Martinez, 2015-NMCA-041, overruling In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142, and cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-004.

Failure of officials to equalize assessments does not establish interpretation. — The fact that state officials have, for years, known that there are inequalities or lack of uniformity in tax assessments, and have done nothing about it, does not establish this as official "long-standing interpretation." It is, in essence, merely long-standing failure by respondents and their predecessors to require equalization as plainly required by the constitution and the legislative enactments. State ex rel. Castillo Corp. v. N.M. Tax Comm'n, 1968-NMSC-117, 79 N.M. 357, 443 P.2d 850.

7-38-23. Protest hearings; verbatim record; action by hearing officer; time limitations.

A. Except for the rules relating to discovery, the technical rules of evidence and the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts do not apply at a protest hearing conducted pursuant to the provisions of the Property Tax Code, but the hearing shall be conducted so that an ample opportunity is provided for the presentation of complaints and defenses. All testimony shall be taken under oath. A verbatim record of the hearings shall be made but need not be transcribed unless required for appeal purposes. A hearing officer shall be designated by the chief hearing officer of the administrative hearings office to conduct the hearing.

B. Final action taken by the hearing officer on a petition shall be by written order. The hearing officer's order shall be made within thirty days after the date of the hearing, but this time limitation may be extended by agreement of the department and the protestant. A copy of the order shall be sent immediately by certified mail to the property owner. A copy of the order shall also be sent to the county assessor.

C. All protests shall be decided within one hundred twenty days of the date the protest is filed unless the parties otherwise agree. The protest shall be denied if the property owner or the property owner's authorized representative fails, without reasonable justification, to appear at the hearing.

D. The hearing officer's order shall be in the name of the chief hearing officer, dated, state the changes to be made in the valuation records, if any, and direct the county assessor to take appropriate action. The department shall make any changes in its valuation records required by the order.

E. Changes in the valuation records shall clearly indicate that the prior entry has been superseded by an order of the hearing officer.

F. The department shall maintain a file of all orders made pursuant to this section. The file shall be open for public inspection.

G. If an order of the hearing officer is appealed under Section 7-38-28 NMSA 1978, the department shall immediately notify the appropriate county assessor of the appeal. Notations shall be made in the valuation records of the assessor and the department indicating the pendency of the appeal.

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, required the chief hearing officer of the administrative hearings office to designate hearing officers to preside over protest hearings conducted pursuant to the Property Tax Code; in Subsection A, after "do not apply at", added "a", after "protest", deleted "hearings before the hearing officer" and added "hearing conducted pursuant to the provisions of the Property Tax Code", after "but the", changed "hearings" to "hearing", and after "designated by the", deleted "secretary" and added "chief hearing officer of the administrative hearings office"; in Subsection C, after "property owner or", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's"; and in Subsection D, after "in the name of the", deleted "secretary" and added "chief hearing officer".

7-38-24. Protesting values, classification, allocation of values and denial of exemption or limitation on increase in value determined by the county assessor.

A. A property owner may protest the value or classification determined by the county assessor for his property for property taxation purposes, the assessor's allocation of value of his property to a particular governmental unit or denial of a claim for an exemption or for a limitation on increase in value by filing a petition with the assessor. Filing a petition in accordance with this section entitles the property owner to a hearing on his protest.

B. Petitions shall:

(1) be filed with the county assessor on or before:

(a) the later of April 1 of the property tax year to which the notice applies or thirty days after the mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation if the notice was mailed with the preceding year's tax bill in accordance with Section 7-38-20 NMSA 1978;

(b) thirty days after the mailing of a property tax bill on omitted property pursuant to Section 7-38-76 NMSA 1978; or

(c) in all other cases, thirty days after the mailing by the assessor of the notice of valuation;

(2) state the property owner's name and address and the description of the property;

(3) state why the property owner believes the value, classification, allocation of value or denial of a claim of an exemption or of a limitation on increase in value is incorrect and what he believes the correct value, classification, allocation of value or exemption to be; and

(4) state the value, classification, allocation of value or exemption that is not in controversy.

C. Upon receipt of the petition, the county assessor shall schedule a hearing before the county valuation protests board and notify the property owner by certified mail of the date, time and place that he may appear to support his petition. The notice shall be mailed at least fifteen days prior to the hearing date.

D. The county assessor may provide for an informal conference on the protest before the hearing.

7-38-25. County valuation protests boards; creation; duties; funding.

A. There is created in each county a "county valuation protests board". Each board shall consist of three voting members. Three alternates shall also be appointed to serve as voting members in the absence of a voting member. Voting members and alternates shall be appointed as follows:

(1) one member and one alternate shall be a qualified elector of the county and shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners for a term of two years;

(2) one member and one alternate shall be a qualified elector of the county, shall have demonstrated experience in the field of valuation of property and shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners for a term of two years; and

(3) one member and one alternate shall be a property appraisal officer employed by the department, assigned by the director and shall be the chairman of the board.

B. Members of the board and alternates appointed under Paragraph (1) or (2) of Subsection A of this section shall not hold any elective public office during the term of their appointment nor shall any such member or alternate be employed by the state, a political subdivision or a school district during the term of his appointment.

C. Vacancies occurring on the board shall be filled by the authority making the original appointment and shall be for the unexpired term of the vacated membership.

D. The county valuation protests board shall hear and decide protests of determinations made by county assessors and protested under Section 7-38-24 NMSA 1978.

E. Members of the board and alternates when serving as voting members appointed under Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection A of this section shall be paid as independent contractors at the rate of eighty dollars ($80.00) a day for each day of actual service. The payment of board members and alternates and all other actual and direct expenses incurred in connection with protest hearings shall be paid by the department.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, inserted "Three alternates shall also be appointed to serve as voting members in the absence of a voting member. Voting members and alternates shall be" in the introductory paragraph of Subsection A; inserted "and one alternate" following "one member" in Paragraphs A(1), (2), and (3); and made related stylistic changes throughout the section.

Common-law rule of quorum applies in absence of statute. — Under the former version of this section a quorum of the voting members present was not sufficient for the hearing to be the official act of the board since absent any such statutory provisions the common-law rule that a majority of all of the members of a board or commission shall constitute a quorum applied. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

Denial of charitable property tax exemption upheld. — Where the Santa Fe county assessor appealed the district court's decision that petitioner, a retirement and continuing care community, was improperly denied a charitable property tax exemption, the New Mexico supreme court held that the district court erred in concluding that petitioner fulfilled the charitable use requirements for tax exemption under art. VIII, § 3 of the New Mexico constitution, because petitioner, a self-sustaining community that accepts and benefits only financially and medically screened residents based on requirements calculated in the interests of financial security for itself, did not create any substantial public benefit and therefore cannot be entitled to exemption from taxation under 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978 or N.M. Where retirement community was denied a charitable property tax exemption by the county assessor and appealed the county assessor's decision to the Santa Fe county protests board, claiming a charitable property tax exemption under N.M. 7-38-26. Scheduling of protest hearings.

Before scheduling a protest hearing, the county assessor shall notify the director and assure that the assigned property appraisal officer board member will be made available. The director may assign a property appraisal officer to act as a member of more than one county valuation protests board. He also may establish and publish schedules for hearings on protests in the various counties to make the most efficient use of assigned property appraisal officers and assure the expeditious determination of protests.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-26, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 66.

7-38-27. Protest hearings; verbatim record; action by county valuation protests board; time limitations.

A. Except for the rules relating to discovery, the technical rules of evidence and the Rules Civil Procedure for the District Courts do not apply at protest hearings before a county valuation protests board, but the hearing shall be conducted so that an ample opportunity is provided for the presentation of complaints and defenses. All testimony shall be taken under oath. A verbatim record of the hearing shall be made but need not be transcribed unless required for appeal purposes.

B. Final action taken by the board on a petition shall be by written order signed by the chairman or a member of the board designated by the chairman. The order shall be made within thirty days after the date of the hearing, but this time limitation may be extended by agreement of the board and the protestant. A copy of the order shall be sent immediately by certified mail to the property owner. A copy of the order shall also be sent to the director and the county assessor.

C. All protests shall be decided within one hundred eighty days of the date the protest is filed. The protest shall be denied if the property owner or his authorized representative fails, without reasonable justification, to appear at the hearing.

D. The board's order shall be dated, state the changes to be made in the valuation records, if any, and direct the county assessor to take appropriate action. The division shall make any changes in its valuation records required by the order.

E. Changes in the valuation records shall clearly indicate that the prior entry has been superseded by an order of the board.

F. The assessor shall maintain a file of all orders made by the county valuation protests board. The file shall be open for public inspection.

G. If an order of a county valuation protests board is appealed under Section 7-38-28 NMSA 1978, the director shall immediately notify the appropriate county assessor of the appeal. Notations shall be made in the valuation records of the assessor and the division indicating the pendency of the appeal.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For rules relating to discovery, see Rule 1-026 NMRA et seq.

Procedural due process denied when board excluded evidence. — By unlawfully excluding evidence and denying the right to discovery, the county valuation protests boards curtailed taxpayers' right to be heard and to present any defense, and, in so doing, they deprived appellants of their constitutionally guaranteed right to procedural due process. Taxpayers are entitled to new hearings, at which evidence of valuation of comparable properties or other properties of the same class may be admissible in evidence and are to be weighed by the boards in arriving at their decisions. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Refusal to allow witnesses. — A notion of fairness is included within the concept of procedural due process, and accordingly in a hearing before an administrative agency, the agency must examine both sides of the controversy taking and weighing the evidence that is offered and finding facts based on a consideration of the evidence, in order to fairly protect the interests and rights of all who are involved; a refusal to allow witnesses to be called is a denial of procedural due process. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Denial of right to take depositions. — To deny the taxpayer the right to take depositions at county valuation protests board hearings denies him the right to a fair hearing. Such denial constitutes a denial of due process under U.S. Const., amend. XIV. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Arbitrary for board to reach decision without considering all evidence. — The state has not given administrative boards the authority to catalogue which evidence shall be considered in deciding a protest, and when the administrative board has reached a decision and promulgated an order without considering all the evidence presented at the hearing, its decision and order is arbitrary and should be reversed. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Full opportunity to be heard required. — Administrative proceedings must conform to fundamental principles of justice and the requirements of due process of law; a litigant must be given a full opportunity to be heard with all rights related thereto. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Rulings void if not in accord with statute. — Rulings by an administrative agency not in accord with the basic statutory requirements relating to the agency will render its decision void. La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo County Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

Administrative law rules of evidence govern admissions. — While neither the rules of evidence, the rules of civil procedure nor the rules provided by the Administrative Procedures Act apply, there must be some rules to govern admission of evidence in proceedings before the county valuation protests boards, and these rules must be found in the body of administrative law that has grown up in the courts. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Wide latitude allowed in admission of evidence. — The rationale for stating that the technical rules of evidence do not apply at protest hearings before a county valuation protests board is to allow wide latitude in the admission of evidence before an administrative board. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Administrative Procedures Act (Sections 12-8-1 to 12-8-25 NMSA 1978) demonstrates that depositions are permissible under administrative law, to assist the agency and other parties in obtaining a fair hearing. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Taxpayer's evidence should be admitted to prove value. — The protests board could not rely exclusively on the county assessor's valuation of property even though according to former 72-2-3, 1953 Comp., the assessment must be at "full actual value," and neither could it rely on comparable sales or sales of comparable lands where none have occurred; accordingly, the board should have allowed the admission of the only available relevant evidence which the taxpayer had. In situations where cash market value could not be determined, earning capacity, cost of reproduction and original cost less depreciation furnished relevant considerations for determining "value." In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70, rev'd on other grounds, 1976-NMSC-039, 89 N.M. 547, 555 P.2d 142.

Rules of weight, etc., not necessarily limited. — Although the technical rules of evidence and the rules of civil procedure do not apply at protest hearings before a county valuation protests board, the rules relating to weight, applicability or materiality of evidence are not thus limited. San Pedro S. Group v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1976-NMCA-116, 89 N.M. 784, 558 P.2d 53.

Rules of weight, etc., not necessarily limited. — The rules relating to weight, applicability or materiality of evidence are not limited by the provisions of this section. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

Requirement for findings. — By inadvertence, the legislature omitted the requirement of a "decision" by the board under this section. However, the practical reasons for requiring administrative findings are so powerful that the requirement has been imposed with remarkable uniformity by virtually all federal and state courts, irrespective of a statutory requirement. First Nat'l Bank v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1977-NMCA-005, 90 N.M. 110, 560 P.2d 174 (decided under prior law).

Pronouncement not final order subject to review on appeal. — Statements of a judge as to reasons for the judgment, made before the judgment is entered, which statements are not embodied therein, cannot be considered as a part of the judgment but are merely evidence of what the court had decided to do, a decision that the trial court can change at any time before the entry of a final judgment and an order of a protest board is analogous to the judgment of a court. Therefore, a pronouncement of a county protests board did not constitute its duly entered final order and was not subject to review on appeal of its final order. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Board must show good cause for delay in hearing. — When taxpayers show that the statutory time constraints have not been complied with and the taxpayer and board have not agreed to extend the time, the burden shifts to the board to establish good cause for the delay. Protest of Plaza Del Sol Ltd. P'ship v. Assessor for Cnty. of Bernalillo, 1986-NMCA-022, 104 N.M. 154, 717 P.2d 1123.

Settlement negotiations do not toll time requirements. — Mere settlement negotiations, without more, are insufficient as a matter of law to toll the statutory time requirements. Protest of Plaza Del Sol Ltd. P'ship v. Assessor for Cnty. of Bernalillo, 1986-NMCA-022, 104 N.M. 154, 717 P.2d 1123.

Orders invalid when board without quorum. — When the protests board, consisting of three members, instead of the six required by the prior version of Section 7-38-25 NMSA 1978, heard the protests and entered the orders, a quorum was not present, and the orders of the board were invalid. San Pedro S. Group v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1976-NMCA-116, 89 N.M. 784, 558 P.2d 53.

Protests board without authority to reject agreement between assessor and landowner. — A county valuation protests board does not have authority to reject an agreement between an assessor and a landowner concerning the land value. In re Horn, 1980-NMCA-145, 95 N.M. 38, 618 P.2d 382.

Decisions have force and effect of judgments. — The decisions rendered by an officer or a board legally constituted and empowered to settle the question submitted to it, when acting judicially, have the force and effect of a judgment. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

7-38-28. Appeals from orders of the county valuation protests boards.

A property owner may appeal an order made by a county valuation protests board by filing an appeal pursuant to the provisions of Section 39-3-1.1 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-28, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 68; 1978 Comp., § 7-38-28; 1982, ch. 28, § 15; 1990, ch. 22, § 3; 1998, ch. 55, § 19; 1999, ch. 265, § 19; 2015, ch. 73, § 22; 2023, ch. 36, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For procedures governing administrative appeals to the district court, see Rule 1-074 NMRA.

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, revised the process for appeals from orders of county valuation protests boards; in the section heading, deleted "hearing officer or"; and after "order made by", deleted "a hearing officer or"; and deleted "The director shall notify the appropriate county assessor of the decision and order of the district court and shall direct the assessor to take appropriate action to comply with the decision and order."

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, authorized property owners to appeal orders made by hearing officers from the administrative hearings office; in the catchline, after "orders of the", deleted "director" and added "hearing officer"; and in Subsection A, after "order made by", deleted "the director" and added "a hearing officer".

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Section 39-3-1.1" for "Section 12-8A-1" in Subsection A.

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, rewrote Subsection A, deleted former Subsection B and redesignated former Subsection C as Subsection B; and in present Subsection B, inserted "district" and deleted "of appeals" following "court".

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, in Subsection A, substituted "thirty days" for "forty-five days" and inserted "or such other time prescribed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure, NMRA" in the first sentence, substituted "shall be" for "must be" and added "and shall not be de novo" at the end of the second sentence and added the third sentence; deleted former Subsections B and C, relating to the record on appeal; and redesignated former Subsections D and E as Subsections B and C.

Lack of jurisdiction at any stage of the proceedings is a controlling consideration which must be resolved before going further, and an appellate court may raise the question of jurisdiction on its own motion. Petition of Kinscherff, 1976-NMCA-097, 89 N.M. 669, 556 P.2d 355, cert. denied, 90 N.M. 8, 558 P.2d 620.

Court bound by substantial evidence of record. — If there is substantial evidence in the record to support a decision of a county valuation protests board, the appellate court is bound thereby, and, in deciding if there is substantial evidence to support the decision, it must view the evidence in the most favorable light to support the finding, reversing only if convinced that the evidence thus viewed, together with all reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom, cannot sustain the finding. Further, only favorable evidence and the inferences to be drawn therefrom will be considered, and any evidence unfavorable to the findings will not be considered. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70.

District court acted outside its proper appellate jurisdiction. — Where petitioner, a retirement and continuing care community, appealed to the district court the Santa Fe county valuation protests board's (board) decision upholding the county assessor's denial of petitioner's request for a property tax exemption, the district court erred in exercising its original jurisdiction over the statutory claim and issuing new findings of fact which contradicted the findings of the board; the district court should have exercised its appellate jurisdiction over the board's determination regarding the applicability of 7-36-7(B)(1)(d) NMSA 1978 to petitioner and reviewed whether the board's decision was arbitrary and capricious, unsupported by substantial evidence, or otherwise contrary to law as required under 39-3-1.1(D) NMSA 1978. El Castillo Ret. Residences v. Martinez, 2017-NMSC-026, aff'g 2015-NMCA-041, and overruling La Vida Llana v. Montoya, 2013-NMCA-048, 299 P.3d 456.

Pronouncement of board not subject to review on appeal. — Statements of a judge as to reasons for the judgment, made before the judgment is entered, which statements are not embodied therein, cannot be considered as a part of the judgment, but are merely evidence of what the court had decided to do, a decision that the trial court can change at any time before the entry of a final judgment, and an order of a protest board is analogous to the judgment of a court; therefore, a pronouncement of a county protests board did not constitute its duly entered final order and was not subject to review on appeal of its final order. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Decision arbitrary if board has not considered all evidence. — The state has not given administrative boards the authority to catalogue which evidence shall be considered in deciding a protest, and when the administrative board has reached a decision and promulgated an order without considering all the evidence presented at the hearing, its decision and order is arbitrary and should be reversed. In re Miller, 1975-NMCA-116, 88 N.M. 492, 542 P.2d 1182, cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70.

Rulings void if not in accord with statute. — Rulings by an administrative agency not in accord with the basic statutory requirements relating to the agency will render its decision void. La Jara Land Developers, Inc. v. Bernalillo Cnty. Assessor, 1982-NMCA-006, 97 N.M. 318, 639 P.2d 605.

When county assessor did not follow any statutory method of valuation in 1976, but simply set the valuation of a shopping center back up to the 1972 figure, it was held that the decisions of the board were arbitrary and capricious, not supported by substantial evidence in the record taken as a whole, and otherwise not in accordance with law, and its orders were vacated. San Pedro S. Group v. Bernalillo Cnty. Valuation Protest Bd., 1976-NMCA-116, 89 N.M. 784, 558 P.2d 53.

Court has no duty to search for authority supporting argument. — When taxpayer cited no authority to support its argument that the assessor's evidence of sales of certain property did not involve comparable sales, the appellate court had no duty to search for authority or consider taxpayer's claim unless it was apparent on the face of the claimed error that it had merit. Peterson Props. v. Valencia Cnty. Valuation Protests Bd., 1976-NMCA-043, 89 N.M. 239, 549 P.2d 1074.

Judicial review based on whole record. — Judicial review of decisions by agencies are based on the whole record. This requires the courts to review and consider not only evidence in support of one party's contention, but also to look at evidence which is contrary to the finding; the reviewing court must then decide whether, on balance, the agency's decision was supported by substantial evidence. Cibola Energy Corp. v. Roselli, 1987-NMCA-055, 105 N.M. 774, 737 P.2d 555.

Necessity of findings of fact and conclusions of law. — For purposes of judicial review, the order must, at least, indicate the reasoning of the board and the basis on which it acted; the expense incurred by having findings of fact and conclusions of law would be repaid 10-fold by the expense and energy saved on judicial review. Cibola Energy Corp. v. Roselli, 1987-NMCA-055, 105 N.M. 774, 737 P.2d 555.

Exhaustion of administrative remedies. — The legislature, in enacting a comprehensive scheme for administrative and judicial review, has provided the exclusive remedy for claims presented to the district court that property owned by all masonic lodges is exempt for taxation under N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 3, and the administrative remedies provided by the legislature must be exhausted before a declaratory judgment action will lie. Grand Lodge of Ancient & Accepted Masons v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1987-NMCA-081, 106 N.M. 179, 740 P.2d 1163, cert. denied, 106 N.M. 174, 740 P.2d 1158.

Taxpayer effectively rebutted presumption. — When taxpayer's valuation is supported by the whole record in that after rebutting the assessor's valuation and presenting a prima facie case for its own valuation the board failed to rebut taxpayer's appraisal, the decision of the board will be reversed and remanded with instructions that the board enter judgment for taxpayer in favor of its valuations. Cibola Energy Corp. v. Roselli, 1987-NMCA-055, 105 N.M. 774, 737 P.2d 555.

7-38-28.1. Appeals from decisions and orders of the hearing officer of the administrative hearings office.

A. A property owner or the secretary may appeal a decision and order of a hearing officer of the administrative hearings office to the court of appeals for further relief, but only to the same extent and on the same theory as was asserted in the hearing before the hearing officer. All such appeals shall be on the record made at the hearing and shall not be de novo. All such appeals shall be taken within thirty days of the date of mailing or delivery of the written decision and order of the hearing officer to the property owner, and, if not so taken, the decision and order are conclusive.

B. The procedure for perfecting an appeal pursuant to this section shall be as provided by the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

C. On appeal, the court shall set aside a decision and order of the hearing officer only if the decision and order is found to be:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion;
- (2) not supported by substantial evidence in the record; or
- (3) otherwise not in accordance with the law.

D. If the secretary appeals a decision and order of the hearing officer and the court's decision, from which either no appeal is taken or no appeal may be taken, upholds the decision of the hearing officer, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the property owner. If the court's decision upholds the hearing officer's decision only in part, the award shall be limited to reasonable attorney fees associated with the portion upheld.

E. The secretary shall notify the appropriate county assessor of any decision and order or appellate court opinion and shall direct the assessor to take appropriate action to comply with the decision and order.

Effective dates. — Laws 2023, ch. 36, § 10 made Laws 2023, ch. 36, § 9 effective July 1, 2023.

7-38-29. Retention of hearing records.

Untranscribed verbatim records of protest hearings shall be retained until after transcription, if transcription is required to support an appeal, or until the time for a protestant to appeal an order under Section 7-38-28 NMSA 1978 has expired and the protestant has not appealed.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-29, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 69.

7-38-30. Department to allocate and certify valuations to county assessors.

By June 1 of each year, the department shall certify to each county assessor the value determined by the department for property taxation purposes of all property allocated to governmental units within the county and subject to departmental valuation. In certifying values, the department shall indicate by appropriate notation all property valuations that are the subject of a pending protest and shall include in the notation a statement of the uncontroverted valuation in the pending protests. The certified values shall be entered by the county assessor in his valuation records.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-30, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 70.

7-38-31. County assessor to certify net taxable values to the department.

After receiving the values for property taxation purposes certified to him by the department, the county assessor shall determine the net taxable value for all property allocated to governmental units in the county and subject to valuation for property taxation purposes, whether valued by him or by the department. No later than June 15 of each year, the county assessor shall certify to the department the net taxable values for all property allocated to governmental units in the county and subject to property taxation. The net taxable values of property shall be certified according to governmental units within the county. The assessor's certification shall include a statement of all property valuations that are the subject of a pending protest, whether protested locally or to the department, and a statement of the uncontroverted valuation in the pending protests.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-31, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 71.

7-38-32. Department to prepare a compilation of net taxable values to be used for budget making and rate setting.

A. No later than June 30 of each year, the department shall prepare a compilation of all net taxable values certified to it by the county assessors and shall include in the compilation the information regarding protested values required to be furnished by the assessors to the department. The compilation shall be prepared in a form appropriate for use and shall be used for the purpose of making budgets. The compilation of net taxable values shall be sent immediately to the secretary of finance and administration.

B. No later than August 1 of each year, the department shall prepare an amended compilation of net taxable values and send it immediately to the secretary of finance and administration. This amended compilation shall include final valuations resulting from completed protests and information on pending protests. It shall be used by the department of finance and administration in setting property tax rates.

C. In the budget-making process for local units of government, including school districts, the net taxable values from the immediately preceding tax year may be considered for the purpose of estimating available revenue from the current tax year when the compilation of net taxable values certified under Subsection A is incomplete or indefinite due to pending protests.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-32, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 72; 1977, ch. 247, § 190.

7-38-33. Department of finance and administration to set tax rates.

A. No later than September 1 of each year, the secretary of finance and administration shall by written order set the property tax rates for the governmental units sharing in the tax in accordance with the Property Tax Code and the budget of each as approved by the department of finance and administration.

B. A copy of the property tax rate-setting order shall be sent to each board of county commissioners, each county assessor and the department within five days of the date the order is made.

C. Net taxable values from the immediately preceding tax year may be used by the department of finance and administration for the purpose of estimating current tax year revenue in connection with setting tax rates when final net taxable values for the current tax year are incomplete or indefinite due to pending protests.

D. When a rate is set for a governmental unit that is imposing a newly authorized rate pursuant to Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 or a newly authorized or a reauthorized rate after an election in which the imposition of the tax was approved by the voters of the unit, the rate shall be at a level that will produce in the first year of imposition revenue no greater than that which would have been produced if the valuation of property subject to the imposition had been the valuation in the tax year in which the increased rate pursuant to Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978 was authorized by the taxing district or the year in which the voters approved the imposition.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-33, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 73; 1977, ch. 247, § 191; 1989, ch. 198, § 1.

7-38-34. Board of county commissioners to order imposition of the tax.

Within five days of receipt of the property tax rate-setting order from the department of finance and administration, each board of county commissioners shall issue its written order imposing the tax at the rates set on the net taxable value of property allocated to the appropriate governmental units. A copy of this order shall be delivered immediately to the county assessor.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-34, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 74.

7-38-35. Preparation of property tax schedule by assessor.

A. After receipt of the rate-setting order and the order imposing the tax, but no later than October 1 of each tax year, the county assessor shall prepare a property tax schedule for all property subject to property taxation in the county. This schedule shall be in a form that shall be made available electronically and contain the information required by regulations of the department and shall contain at least the following information:

(1) the description of the property taxed and, if the property is personal property, its location;

(2) the property owner's name and address and the name and address of any person other than the owner to whom the tax bill is to be sent;

(3) the classification of the property;

- (4) the value of the property determined for property taxation purposes;
- (5) the tax ratio;
- (6) the taxable value of the property;
- (7) the amount of any exemption allowed and a statement of the net taxable value of the property after deducting the exemption;
- (8) the allocations of net taxable value to the governmental units;
- (9) the tax rate in dollars per thousand of net taxable value for all taxes imposed on the property;
- (10) the amount of taxes due on the described property; and
- (11) the amount of any penalties and interest already imposed and due on the described property.

B. The property tax schedule is a public record and a part of the valuation records.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, required that the property tax schedule be made available electronically.

7-38-36. Preparation and mailing of property tax bills.

A. A copy of the property tax schedule prepared by the assessor shall be delivered to the county treasurer on October 1 of each tax year.

B. Upon receipt of the property tax schedule, the county treasurer shall prepare and mail property tax bills to either the owner of the property or any person other than the owner to whom the tax bill is to be sent. Tax bills shall be mailed no later than November 1 of each tax year. The validity of the tax, the time at which the tax is payable or any subsequent proceeding instituted for the collection of the tax is not affected by the failure of a person to receive his tax bill.

C. To obtain the maximum efficiency and coordination between their offices, a county treasurer and a county assessor may stipulate by written agreement that property tax bills be prepared or mailed, or both, by the county assessor. An agreement authorized under this subsection shall include provisions for the allocation of costs of the functions delegated to the county assessor and must be approved by the board of county commissioners.

7-38-36.1. Administrative fee to be charged if property tax is less than five dollars ($5.00).

A. If the property tax on property for which a property tax bill is prepared is less than five dollars ($5.00), the board of county commissioners may, by resolution, charge an administrative fee equal to the difference between the amount of the property tax and five dollars ($5.00), but no administrative fee shall be charged if there is no tax due. A copy of the resolution shall be sent to the county treasurer who shall collect the fee. This administrative fee shall be separately identified and stated in the property tax bill and shall be included in the total shown in the bill as due.

B. The administrative fee authorized by this section shall be collected and its collection enforced as if the fee were a property tax except that no interest or penalty shall accrue or be charged because of its nonpayment.

C. The administrative fee authorized by this section shall be distributed to the county general fund when collected and shall not be distributed to the governmental units to which the property tax is distributed pursuant to Section 7-38-43 NMSA 1978.

7-38-36.2. Procedures to delay the mailing of property tax bills for counties for which a property tax levy is imposed at the November 2019 or 2021 regular local election to put the question of imposing or renewing a levy before the voters.

A. In 2019 and 2021:

(1) if a local government desires to impose or renew a property tax levy, the local government shall file a resolution with the county clerk and the local government division of the department of finance and administration no later than July 15 calling for the imposition or renewal of a property tax levy and indicate the local government's intent to place the question of imposing or renewing the property tax levy on the regular local election ballot in November;

(2) no later than September 1, and following the procedures provided in Section 7-38-33 NMSA 1978, the local government division of the department of finance and administration shall by written order set two property tax rates for the properties under the jurisdiction of the local governments that submitted a resolution pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this subsection. One set of rates shall assume that the question of the property tax levy will be approved by the voters, and a second set of rates shall assume that the question of the property tax levy will not be approved by the voters. A copy of the property tax rate-setting order with both rates shall be sent to each board of county commissioners and each county assessor of each affected county and the taxation and revenue department within five days of the date the order is made;

(3) within five days of receiving the rate-setting order, the board of county commissioners of each affected county shall issue a written order imposing a tax at the rates set on the net taxable value of property allocated to the appropriate governmental units pursuant to Section 7-38-34 NMSA 1978 for both of the property tax rates set pursuant to Paragraph (2) of this subsection. The order shall provide notice of both rates. A copy of each order shall be delivered immediately to the county assessor;

(4) no later than October 1, and following the procedures provided in Section 7-38-35 NMSA 1978, the county assessor for each affected county shall prepare a property tax schedule for all property subject to property taxation in the county for both of the property tax rates set pursuant to Paragraph (2) of this subsection;

(5) pursuant to Section 7-38-36 NMSA 1978, the county assessor shall deliver a copy of the property tax schedule prepared pursuant to Paragraph (4) of this subsection to the county treasurer on October 1, with a notice that the property tax bill for those properties shall be mailed pursuant to Paragraph (6) of this subsection;

(6) after the regular local election is held in November and the voters have answered the question of the property tax levy, the county treasurer for each affected county shall prepare and mail property tax bills no later than November 24, notwithstanding Section 7-38-36 NMSA 1978, reflecting the appropriate rate and amount due, to either the owner of the property or any person other than the owner to whom the tax bill is to be sent; and

(7) notwithstanding Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978, the first installment of property taxes is due on December 6, and shall become delinquent if not paid within thirty days pursuant to Section 7-38-49 NMSA 1978.

B. As used in this section:

(1) "affected county" means a county within which a local government is situate that files a resolution indicating the local government's intent to place the question of imposing or renewing a property tax levy on the regular local election ballot in November 2019 or 2021 pursuant to Subsection A of this section; and

(2) "local government" means "local government" as that term is defined in the Local Election Act [Chapter 1, Article 22 NMSA 1978].

7-38-38. Payment of property taxes; installment due dates; refund in cases of overpayments.

A. Unless otherwise provided in the Property Tax Code, property taxes in the amount of ten dollars ($10.00) or over are payable to the county treasurer in two equal installments due on November 10 of the year in which the tax bill was prepared and mailed and on April 10 of the following year. A board of county commissioners may, by ordinance, provide that property taxes under ten dollars ($10.00) are due and payable in a single payment on November 10 of the year in which the tax bill was prepared and mailed. No demand for payment of property taxes is necessary.

B. If a taxpayer remits an amount in payment of his property taxes that exceeds the total property tax liability shown on the property tax bill, together with any applicable penalty and interest computed to the date payment is received by the county treasurer, a refund of the amount in excess shall be made to the taxpayer if either of the following conditions are met:

(1) a written request for the refund is made by the taxpayer and received by the county treasurer within sixty days of the date the excess payment is received by the county treasurer; or

(2) the county treasurer on his own initiative determines by June 30 of the year following the year for which taxes are imposed that an excess payment has been made.

ANNOTATIONS

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2020 (1st S.S.). ch. 4, § 4, effective June 29, 2020, provided:

A. Notwithstanding Sections 7-1-67 and 7-1-69 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a taxpayer for:

(1) tax liabilities pursuant to the Income Tax Act or the Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due April 15, 2020 through July 15, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid payments is made in full on or before April 15, 2021;

(2) tax liabilities pursuant to the Withholding Tax Act for failure to pay the tax that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021;

(3) gross receipts tax, local option gross receipts tax or compensating tax liabilities for failure to pay any of those taxes that became due March 25, 2020 through July 25, 2020; provided that the failure to pay the tax was made without intent to evade or defeat the tax; and provided further that payment for the unpaid taxes is made in full on or before April 25, 2021; and

(4) tax liabilities assessed between September 3, 2019 and January 3, 2020 as the result of a managed audit performed in accordance with a managed audit agreement pursuant to Section 7-1-11.1 NMSA 1978; provided that payment for those liabilities is made pursuant to terms of the managed audit agreement on or before December 31, 2020.

B. Notwithstanding Sections 7-38-49 and 7-38-50 NMSA 1978, no interest shall accrue and no penalty shall be assessed to a property owner for unpaid property taxes that became due April 10, 2020 pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978; provided that:

(1) the unpaid property taxes did not become delinquent because of an intent to defraud by the property owner;

(2) payment for the unpaid property taxes is made in full on or before May 10, 2021; and

(3) the subject property does not have property taxes that became delinquent pursuant to Section 7-38-46 NMSA 1978 prior to May 10, 2020.

Payment of taxes by mortgagee. — Since mortgage contained provision stating that monthly payments were to be applied to taxes before being applied to interest or the mortgage loan, and that mortgagor would pay to mortgagee any amount necessary to make up the deficiency between balance of escrow account for payment of taxes and amount of taxes owed, on or before date when taxes become due, mortgagee who applied entire amount of January monthly payment to taxes due and payable, under 72-5-1, 1953 Comp., on November 1, was not liable for conversion of that payment even though such taxes would not become delinquent under 72-7-3, 1953 Comp., until May 1. *Evans v. 7-38-38.1. Recipients of revenue produced through ad valorem levies required to pay counties administrative charge to offset collection costs.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "revenue" means money for which a county treasurer has the legal responsibility for collection and which is owed to a revenue recipient as a result of an imposition authorized by law of a rate expressed in mills per dollar or dollars per thousands of dollars of net taxable value of property, assessed value of property or a similar term, including but not limited to money resulting from the authorization of rates and impositions under Subsection B and Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection C of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978, special levies for special purposes and benefit assessments, but the term does not include any money resulting from the imposition of taxes imposed under the provisions of the Oil and Gas Ad Valorem Production Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 32 NMSA 1978], the Oil and Gas Production Equipment Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 34 NMSA 1978] or the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978] or money resulting from impositions under Paragraph (3) of Subsection C of Section 7-37-7 NMSA 1978; and

(2) "revenue recipient" means the state and any of its political subdivisions, including charter schools, but excluding institutions of higher education located in class A counties and class B counties having more than three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) valuation, that are authorized by law to receive revenue.

B. Prior to the distribution to a revenue recipient of revenue received by a county treasurer, the treasurer shall deduct as an administrative charge an amount equal to one percent of the revenue received.

C. The "county property valuation fund" is created. All administrative charges deducted by the county treasurer shall be distributed to the county property valuation fund.

D. Expenditures from the county property valuation fund shall be made pursuant to a property valuation program presented by the county assessor and approved by the majority of the county commissioners.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-38-38.1, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 20, § 116; 1988, ch. 68, § 1; 1990, ch. 125, § 7; 2001, ch. 173, § 1; 2007, ch. 366, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1990, ch. 22, § 12 repealed Laws 1988, ch. 68, § 2, which had specified administrative charges collectible by the county treasurer from "revenue recipients" as defined in this section.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, amended Subsection A to include charter schools in the definition of "revenue recipient".

The 2001 amendment, effective July 1, 2001, rewrote Subsection B, which formerly provided for the billing of revenue recipients, as an administrative charge, an amount equal to a certain percentage, depending on the class of the county, of the revenues received; and in Subsection C, rewrote the last two sentences which formerly read "All administrative charges shall be collected by the county treasurer and distributed to the county property valuation fund. The revenue recipient may pay the administrative charge from any fund unless otherwise prohibited by law."

The 1990 amendment, effective March 7, 1990, in Subsection A, inserted "or the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act" in Paragraph (1) and made a related stylistic change.

County property valuation fund. — In creating the county property valuation fund in Subsection C of this section, the legislature created a permanent source of additional revenue to assist county assessors in fulfilling their statutory obligations to maintain current and correct values of all property within their jurisdictions, and directed county assessors to use those funds to achieve fair and timely reappraisal programs. The legislation does not impose any restrictions on the use of the funds other than the use be part of a property valuation program presented by the county assessor and approved by the county commission. Robinson v. Board of Comm'rs of the Cty. of Eddy, 2015-NMSC-035.

Where the Eddy county assessor sought to use funds from the county property valuation fund to contract with a private company for technical assistance in locating and valuing oil and gas property within Eddy county, this section does not prohibit the Eddy county commission from approving a contract with an independent contractor to assist the county assessor in valuing property, because the legislature made no attempt to restrict an assessor's discretion on the use of the fund and thus intended to leave it to the professional discretion of county assessors to decide how best to achieve the statutory goal of current and correct valuation of all property within the county. Robinson v. Board of Comm'rs of the Cty. of Eddy, 2015-NMSC-035.

7-38-38.2. Prepayment of certain property tax installments; resolution by board of county commissioners.

A. Each board of county commissioners, by resolution, may as an option to the taxpayer provide for prepayment of property tax due if the tax due is one hundred dollars ($100) or more.

B. The resolution shall provide for a prepayment of the first installment due pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978 by July 10 in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of the prior year's property tax bill. The amount of prepayment shall be credited against the first installment due.

C. The resolution shall further provide for a prepayment of the second installment due pursuant to Section 7-38-38 NMSA 1978 by January 10 in an amount equal to fifty percent of the second installment due. The amount of the prepayment shall be credited against the second installment due.

D. The resolution shall also provide that persons who are responsible by contract for paying property taxes on behalf of the property owner shall make prepayments as provided in this section if the amount of property tax due for the prior property tax year was at least one hundred dollars ($100).

E. No penalty and interest shall be applied for failure to pay or for late payment of any optional prepayment of property taxes as authorized by this section. For persons required to make prepayments of property taxes under Subsection D of this section, the date of each prepayment installment shall be deemed to be the date the property tax is due for purposes of applying penalties and interest for failure to pay for late payment of any prepayment.

F. The county treasurer may distribute to the units of government, thirty days following receipt of the prepayment amounts collected, an amount equal to fifty percent of the amounts collected. Distribution shall be made in accordance with the law and regulations of the department of finance and administration.

G. The county shall make a concerted effort to apprise taxpayers of the option provided in this section by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or through other media coverage.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-38-38.2, enacted by Laws 1987, ch. 166, § 3.

7-38-38.3. Optional prepayment of property taxes in monthly payments.

A board of county commissioners may by resolution provide property owners the option of making prepayments of property taxes in ten monthly payments beginning June 1 of the year in which the tax bill is prepared and ending March 1 of the following year. The first nine monthly payments shall each be in an amount equal to ten percent of the prior year's property tax bill and the final payment on March 1 shall be in an amount equal to the balance of the tax due, as indicated on the tax bill prepared and mailed pursuant to Sections 7-38-36 and 7-38-37 NMSA 1978; provided that an option otherwise allowed pursuant to this section may not be exercised if taxes are escrowed for the property owner and included in the property owner's monthly mortgage payment.

History: Laws 2008, ch. 33, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2008, ch. 33 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 14, 2008, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2008, ch. 33, § 3 provided that the provisions of Laws 2008, ch. 33, §§ 1 and 2 apply to property tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2009.

7-38-39. Protesting values; claim for refund.

After receiving his property tax bill and after making payment prior to the delinquency date of all property taxes due in accordance with the bill, a property owner may protest the value or classification determined for his property for property taxation purposes, the allocation of value of his property to a particular governmental unit, the application to his property of an administrative fee adopted pursuant to Section 7-38-36.1 NMSA 1978 or a denial of a claim for an exemption by filing a claim for refund in the district court.

7-38-40. Claims for refund; civil action.

A. Claims for refund shall be filed by the property owner as a civil action in the district court for the county in which the valuation was determined if the property was locally valued or in the district court for Santa Fe county if valued by the department. Claims shall:

(1) be filed against the director as party defendant if the property was valued by the department or against the county assessor as party defendant if the property was valued by the assessor and shall be filed no later than the sixtieth day after the first installment of the property tax for which a claim for refund is made is due;

(2) state the property owner's name and address and the name and address of any person other than the property owner to whom the tax bill was sent;

(3) state the basis of the claim for refund;

(4) state the amount of the refund to which the property owner believes he is entitled, the amount of property taxes admitted as legally due and the property taxes paid; and

(5) demand the refund to him of the amount to which he claims entitlement.

B. The director shall notify the appropriate county treasurer immediately when a claim for refund is filed against the director.

C. The property owner, the county assessor or the director may appeal to the court of appeals from any final decision or order of the district court in a claim for refund case in which they are parties.

D. Upon the final determination of the property owner's claim filed against the director, the director shall send a copy of the final order to the county treasurer and shall order the county assessor to change the valuation records to clearly reflect the final determination of the property owner's claim. The department shall change its valuation records accordingly.

E. Upon the final determination of the property owner's claim filed against the county assessor, the assessor shall send a copy of the final order to the county treasurer and to the director. The county assessor and the department shall change their respective valuation records to clearly reflect the final determination of the property owner's claim.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003 substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section; inserted "assessor" following "the county" three times; in Subsection E, substituted "assessor" for "treasurer" following "the county assessor" near the middle of the first sentence, and substituted "treasurer" for "assessor" following "The county" near the beginning of the second sentence.

The time limit for filing a property tax refund complaint begins to run on the date the tax payment is due, not the date the payment becomes delinquent. Chan v. Montoya, 2011-NMCA-072, 150 N.M. 44, 256 P.3d 987, cert. denied, 2011-NMCERT-005, 150 N.M. 666, 265 P.3d 717.

Time limit for filing complaint for refund. — Where taxpayers received property tax bills which stated that the first of two installments of the annual tax payment was due on November 10, 2007, and that the first installment payment would become delinquent on December 10, 2007; taxpayers paid the installment; and taxpayers filed a complaint for a refund in February 2008, approximately ninety days after the November 10th due date, taxpayers' claims for refund were untimely and barred by the sixty day limitation period. Chan v. Montoya, 2011-NMCA-072, 150 N.M. 44, 256 P.3d 987, cert. denied, 2011-NMCERT-005, 150 N.M. 666, 265 P.3d 717.

Refund claims asserted in supplemental complaint. — A claim for subsequent year's taxes, asserted in a supplemental complaint in a tax refund suit, was not timely where the supplemental complaint was filed six weeks after the deadline under Section 7-38-40(A)(1) NMSA 1978 for claiming a refund. Dale Bellamah Land Co. v. Bernalillo Cnty., 1978-NMSC-095, 92 N.M. 615, 592 P.2d 971.

Applicability. — This section applies to property that is subject to valuation. Property constitutionally exempt from property taxes is not to be valued for property tax purposes and therefore refund claims for exempt property are not viable under this section. Lovelace Ctr. for Health Sciences v. Beach, 1980-NMCA-004, 93 N.M. 793, 606 P.2d 203.

7-38-41. Protested property taxes; suspense fund; refunds; interest.

A. Each county treasurer shall establish a fund to be known as the "property tax suspense fund." The portion of any property taxes paid to the county treasurer that is not admitted to be due and is the subject of a claim for refund shall be deposited in this fund.

B. The fund shall be invested in interest-earning securities, accounts or deposits that are legal investments for county funds under the law and regulations of the department of finance and administration. The county treasurer shall keep records of interest earned by the investment of the fund.

C. If a property owner's property taxes are reduced as a result of a decrease in value of the property taxed, a change in the classification, a change in the allocation of the value of the property to a particular governmental unit or granting of a claim for an exemption ordered by a court after a claim for refund, the portion of the property taxes in controversy found to be in excess of the amount legally due and paid shall be refunded by the county treasurer to the property owner. The refund shall be made within fifteen days after the county treasurer receives a copy of the final order relating to the protest. The amount of property taxes in controversy found to be legally due and paid shall be distributed to the appropriate governmental units in accordance with the distribution regulations of the department of finance and administration. All payments authorized under this section shall be made from the property tax suspense fund.

D. In addition to the payments authorized under Subsection C of this section, the county treasurer shall pay to the property owner and the governmental units their pro rata share of interest earned by the protested taxes computed by applying the earned interest rate of the fund to the principal amounts of refund and distribution for the period of time from the date of payment into the fund until a date not more than thirty days prior to the date the actual refund payment and distribution payment are made. Payments are considered made on the date a refund payment is mailed or delivered to the property owner and on the date a transfer occurs on the county treasurer's books showing a distribution payment.

E. The department of finance and administration may authorize the transfer of any surplus interest accruing in the property tax suspense fund to the county general fund at the close of the fiscal year.

ANNOTATIONS

Section authorizes refunds upon decrease or change in property value. — This section authorizes refunds only when property taxes are reduced as a result of a decrease in value of the property taxed or a change in the allocation of the value of the property to a particular governmental unit. It does not authorize a refund of property taxes paid on property that was constitutionally exempt from taxation and, thus, was not to be valued for property tax purposes. Lovelace Ctr. for Health Sciences v. Beach, 1980-NMCA-004, 93 N.M. 793, 606 P.2d 203.

7-38-42. Collection and receipt of and accounting for property taxes; application of receipts to delinquent taxes.

A. The county treasurer has the responsibility and authority for collection of taxes and any penalties or interest due under the Property Tax Code except for the collection of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest authorized to be collected by the department under Section 7-38-62 NMSA 1978.

B. Property taxes, penalties and interest collected shall be receipted and accounted for in accordance with law and regulations of the department of finance and administration.

C. Any payments received by the treasurer or the department as payments for property taxes, penalties or interest shall be first applied to the oldest outstanding unpaid property taxes, penalties or interest accrued in prior property tax years on the property identified and described in the property tax bill for which payment is tendered or, if the payment cannot be identified with a particular year's property tax bill, then the payment shall be applied first to the oldest liability for property taxes, penalties and interest shown in the treasurer's records under the name of the paying taxpayer. In applying the foregoing requirements for applications of payments and in the adoption of any regulations to implement those provisions, the following additional rules shall apply:

(1) applications of payments to a prior year's delinquent taxes, penalties and interest shall not be made for more than ten years prior to the year of payment unless the treasurer's records show that the property for which taxes are delinquent has been deeded to the state of New Mexico and that property has not been sold by the state pursuant to applicable law;

(2) applications of payments to a prior year's delinquent taxes, penalties and interest shall not be made if:

(a) the prior year for which the delinquent taxes, penalties or interest are due is not the immediately preceding tax year;

(b) the delinquent taxes, penalties or interest are the result of real estate improvements that were omitted from property tax schedules in the prior year and listed and billed pursuant to Section 7-38-76 NMSA 1978;

(c) the current owner was not the owner at the time the improvements were omitted and had no actual notice that the improvements were omitted; and

(d) the payments were made by or on behalf of the current owner;

(3) after application of payment received, if all or part of the payment has been applied to a prior year's delinquent taxes, penalties or interest, the receipting authority shall issue a receipt to the paying taxpayer showing the application of the payment and indicating any balance due for taxes, penalties or interest to bring the property tax payment status current; and

(4) the failure of a receipting authority to apply a payment as required under this subsection or the failure to issue a required receipt to the taxpayer of the status of his account shall not relieve the taxpayer of liability for taxes, penalties or interest he would otherwise be required to pay nor does action or inaction by the receipting authority act to estop the collecting authority from taking any action to collect or enforce the payment of taxes, penalties and interest legally due.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1973, ch. 343, § 1 repealed 7-38-42, and enacted a new section.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, added Paragraph C(2) and redesignated former Paragraphs C(2) and (3) as present Paragraphs C(3) and (4).

Payment to county treasurer constitutes payment to state. — Timely payments of delinquent tax to the county treasurer constituted payment to the state since treasurer had apparent if not statutory authority to accept payment of delinquent taxes on property deeded to, but not yet sold by, the state. Tabet v. Campbell, 1984-NMSC-059, 101 N.M. 334, 681 P.2d 1111.

7-38-43. Distribution of receipts from collected property taxes, penalties and interest.

The county treasurer shall distribute the receipts from collected property taxes to each governmental unit in an amount and in a manner determined in accordance with the law and with the regulations of the department of finance and administration. Penalties and interest collected by the county treasurer, other than as an agent of the department under Section 7-38-62 NMSA 1978 and other than penalties and interest on assessments levied by a conservancy district organized under the provisions of The Conservancy Act of New Mexico [73-14-1 NMSA 1978], created prior to 1930 and embracing land situate in four or more counties, shall be deposited in the county general fund at the times and in the manner required by regulations of the department of finance and administration. Penalties and interest collected by the county treasurer as agent of the department under Section 7-38-62 NMSA 1978 shall be remitted to the department at the times and in the manner required by regulations of the department of finance and administration.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, inserted the language in the second sentence beginning "and other than penalties and interest" and ending "four or more counties".

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, inserted "with the" preceding "regulations" in the first sentence, substituted "other than as an agent of the department under Section 7-38-62 NMSA 1978" for "or received by him as a distribution under 72-31-63 NMSA 1953" in the second sentence, and added the third sentence.

7-38-44. Special procedures for administration of taxes on personal property when probable removal of property from state will jeopardize collection of taxes.

A. If the director or a county assessor has reasonable cause to believe that personal property, other than livestock, subject to valuation by him for property taxation purposes in a tax year will be removed from the state or the county, respectively, before the taxes for that year are due and that the removal of the property will jeopardize the collection of the tax, he may, for property subject to valuation by him:

(1) proceed immediately to determine the value of the property and send a notice of valuation to the property owner;

(2) at any time after sending the notice of valuation proceed to determine the taxes due on the property by using the prior year's tax rates if the current year's tax rates have not been set and prepare and mail or deliver a property tax bill to the property owner and proceed to collect the taxes immediately; and

(3) issue a demand warrant and proceed to collect unpaid taxes as delinquent taxes under the provisions of Sections 7-38-53 through 7-38-59 NMSA 1978 if taxes are not paid upon demand.

B. Payment of taxes determined on the basis of the prior year's tax rates under this section constitutes full payment of the taxes on the property involved for the current tax year.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-44, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 84; 1974, ch. 92, § 16.

7-38-44.1. Special procedures for administration of taxes on real property divided or combined.

A. For real property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes in a taxable year that is divided or combined, a county shall proceed to determine the taxes due on the property by using the prior year's tax rate, if the current tax rates have not been set, and the prior year's value, if the current year value has not been set, and proceed to immediately collect the taxes, penalties, interest and fees through the taxable year in which the property is divided or combined.

B. A taxpayer shall pay the taxes, penalties, interest and fees due on real property divided or combined through the taxable year in which the property is divided or combined prior to filing a plat.

History: Laws 2013, ch. 119, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Emergency clauses. — Laws 2013, ch. 119, § 2 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 2, 2013.

7-38-45. Special provisions relating to administration of taxes on livestock.

A. The New Mexico livestock board shall furnish to the department who shall forward to the county assessor of each county information obtained by it about the number, name and address of owner, description, movement, origin and destination of livestock being moved into or from any county. All such information shall be sent in duplicate to the county assessor into or from whose county livestock are being moved. Upon receipt of the information, the assessor shall send the duplicate to the department with a notation indicating the date on which it was received. The livestock board report made under this section fulfills the livestock owner's responsibility to make a report of the livestock under Section 7-36-21 NMSA 1978.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision in the Property Tax Code to the contrary, either the county assessor or the director may:

(1) determine the value of livestock for property taxation purposes at any time the livestock are subject to valuation under the Property Tax Code whether or not the owner of the livestock or any other person has reported them for valuation;

(2) issue a notice of valuation of livestock at any time after a determination of valuation has been made of livestock for property taxation purposes;

(3) prepare and deliver a tax bill and collect taxes on livestock at any time after a notice of valuation has been issued when there is reasonable cause to believe that it would jeopardize the collection of the taxes if the regular tax collection cycle in the Property Tax Code was followed; and

(4) issue a demand warrant to enforce collection of taxes on livestock as delinquent taxes if there is reasonable cause to believe that the livestock may be moved out of the state prior to the payment of taxes, and proceed to collect the taxes as delinquent taxes by sale of the livestock in accordance with Sections 7-38-53 through 7-38-59 NMSA 1978.

C. In the preparation of a tax bill under this section, the assessor or director may determine the tax due on the basis of the prior year's tax rates if the current year's tax rates have not yet been set. Taxes determined on livestock under this section are due when the tax bill is delivered to the owner or the person in charge of the livestock and are delinquent if not paid upon demand. Payment of taxes determined on the basis of the prior year's tax rates constitutes full payment of the taxes on the livestock for the current tax year.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-45, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 85; 1974, ch. 92, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — Pursuant to Laws 1977, ch. 256, § 3, the livestock board is attached to the New Mexico department of agriculture.

7-38-46. Delinquent property taxes.

A. Property taxes that are not paid within thirty days after the date on which they are due are delinquent unless a timely protest has been made under Sections 7-38-22 and 7-38-24 NMSA 1978, and in that case the amount of taxes attributable to the net taxable value of the property that is not in controversy becomes delinquent if not paid within thirty days after the due date.

B. If property taxes would have otherwise been delinquent but for a timely protest having been made under Sections 7-38-22 and 7-38-24 NMSA 1978, property taxes are also delinquent if the property owner:

(1) fails to pay his taxes or to appeal after a decision of a county valuation protests board, the director or a court within the time allowed for an appeal; or

(2) fails to pay his taxes as ordered within ten days after the entry of a final order resulting from a timely protest when that order is not appealable.

C. If a timely protest has been made under Sections 7-38-22 and 7-38-24 NMSA 1978, property taxes are also delinquent if the property owner fails to pay his taxes within thirty days after the date on which they are due if that date is later than the dates determined under Paragraph (1) or (2) of Subsection B of this section.

D. Notice of the date when taxes become delinquent must be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county at least once a week for the three weeks immediately preceding the week in which the delinquency date for first and second installments of property taxes due occurs. Each county treasurer shall cause the notice to be published for his county.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-46, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 86; 1982, ch. 28, § 18.

7-38-47. Property taxes are personal obligation of owner of property.

Property taxes imposed are the personal obligation of the person owning the property on the date on which the property was subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and a personal judgment may be rendered against him for the payment of property taxes that are delinquent together with any penalty and interest on the delinquent taxes. The sale or transfer of property after its valuation date does not relieve the former owner of personal liability for the property taxes imposed for that tax year.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-47, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 87.

ANNOTATIONS

County treasurer has no authority to enforce property tax lien. — A county treasurer does not have the authority to file suit to enforce a personal obligation of owners of real property for the collection of delinquent property taxes. The intent of the legislature is to place the authority to enforce the personal obligation provision of this section and the authority to proceed against property subject to a statutorily created tax lien in the taxation and revenue department only. *Colfax Cnty. v. 7-38-48. Property taxes are a lien against real property from January 1; priorities; continuance of taxing process.

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this section, taxes on real property are a lien against the real property from January 1 of the tax year for which the taxes are imposed. The lien runs in favor of the state and secures the payment of taxes on the real property and any penalty and interest that become due. The lien continues until the taxes and any penalty and interest are paid. The lien created by this section is a first lien and paramount to any other interest in the property, perfected or unperfected. The annual taxing process provided for in the Property Tax Code shall continue as to any particular property regardless of prior tax delinquencies or of pending protests, actions for refunds or other tax controversies involving the property, including a sale for delinquent taxes.

B. No lien is created pursuant to Subsection A of this section if:

(1) the tax otherwise creating the lien is not due for the current tax year or the immediately preceding property tax year;

(2) the tax otherwise creating the lien is the result of real estate improvements that were omitted from property tax schedules in a prior year and listed and billed pursuant to Section 7-38-76 NMSA 1978; and

(3) the current owner was not the owner at the time the improvements were omitted and had no actual notice that the improvements were omitted.

7-38-49. Unpaid property taxes; imposition of interest.

If property taxes are not paid for any reason within thirty days after the date they are due, interest on the unpaid taxes shall accrue from the thirtieth day after they are due until the date they are paid. Interest shall accrue at the rate of one percent a month or any fraction of a month. Interest shall accrue whether or not protests have been resolved. However, in the case of a timely protest, interest payable shall be computed on a principal amount equal to the unpaid taxes finally determined to be due upon resolution of the protest. Interest shall not be imposed on interest or on any penalty.

7-38-50. Delinquent taxes; civil penalties.

A. If property taxes become delinquent, a penalty of one percent of the delinquent taxes for each month or any portion of a month they remain unpaid shall be imposed, but the total penalty shall not exceed five percent of the delinquent taxes except that, when the penalty determined under the foregoing provisions of this subsection is less than five dollars ($5.00), the penalty to be imposed shall be five dollars ($5.00). A county may suspend for a particular tax year application of the minimum penalty requirements of this subsection by resolution of its county commissioners adopted not later than September 1 of that tax year. A copy of any such resolution shall be forwarded to the county treasurer.

B. If property taxes become delinquent because of an intent to defraud by the property owner, fifty percent of the property taxes due or fifty dollars ($50.00), whichever is greater, shall be added as a penalty.

7-38-51. Notification to property owner of delinquent property taxes.

A. In respect to any tax that is delinquent for more than thirty days as of June 30 of each year, the county treasurer shall mail a notice of delinquency to:

(1) the owner of the property as shown on the property tax schedule at the address of the owner as shown on the most recent property tax schedule; and

(2) any person other than the owner to whom the tax bill on the property was sent.

B. The notice required by this section shall be in a form and contain the information prescribed by division regulations and shall include at least the following:

(1) a description of the property upon which the property taxes are due;

(2) a statement of the amount of property taxes due, the date on which they became delinquent, the rate of accrual of interest and any penalties that may be charged;

(3) a statement that if the property taxes due on real property are not paid within three years from the date of delinquency, the real property will be sold and a deed issued by the division; and

(4) a statement that if property taxes due on personal property are not paid, the personal property may be seized and sold for taxes under authority of a demand warrant.

7-38-52. Notification to motor vehicle division of unpaid property taxes on manufactured homes; notice of filing constitutes lien on vehicle.

A. In the preparation of the tax delinquency notices, the county treasurer shall ascertain those persons who have failed to pay taxes on manufactured homes.

B. In addition to the information required under Section 7-38-51 NMSA 1978, delinquency notices sent to the persons determined under Subsection A of this section shall include the location and vehicle identification number of the manufactured home.

C. A copy of the delinquency notice of unpaid taxes on a manufactured home shall be sent to the motor vehicle division of the department. Upon receipt and filing of the notice by the motor vehicle division, the unpaid taxes, penalty and interest constitute a security interest in and a lien on the vehicle in accordance with Section 66-3-204 NMSA

1978. The delinquency notice sent to the owner of the manufactured home shall notify the owner of the mailing of the copy of the notification to the motor vehicle division and of the legal effect of the filing of the notice by that division.

D. When the delinquent taxes, penalty and interest are fully paid, the county treasurer shall certify the fact of payment and shall prepare a notification of certified payment. The original notification shall be sent to the motor vehicle division of the department, and a copy shall be sent to the owner of the manufactured home.

E. The lien provided for in this section is in addition to any other remedy available to the state for the collection of delinquent property taxes.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, deleted "transportation" preceding "department" in the first sentence in Subsection C and in the second sentence in Subsection D and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection C.

7-38-53. Collection of delinquent property taxes on personal property; assertion of claim against personal property.

A county treasurer may collect delinquent property taxes on personal property by asserting a claim against the owner's personal property for which taxes are delinquent. A claim shall be asserted by service of a demand warrant by the county treasurer, an employee of his office designated by him or the county sheriff upon any person in possession of the personal property subject to the claim.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-53, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 93.

7-38-54. Demand warrant; contents.

A demand warrant shall:

- A. contain a statement of the authority for its issuance and service;
- B. identify the property owner, the amount of the delinquent taxes on his personal property and the date on which the taxes were due;
- C. describe the personal property subject to the tax and the demand warrant;
- D. order the person on whom it is served to:

(1) reveal the amount of personal property in his possession that is described in the demand warrant;

(2) state the extent of his and any other person's interest in the personal property;

(3) reveal the amount and kind of the property owner's personal property described in the demand warrant that are in the possession of other persons; and

(4) surrender the personal property described in the demand warrant and in his possession;

E. state the penalties for failure to comply with the terms of the warrant; and

F. be signed by the county treasurer.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-54, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 94; 1974, ch. 92, § 21.

7-38-55. Surrender of personal property; penalty for refusal.

A. Any person in the possession of personal property subject to claim for delinquent taxes and upon whom service of a demand warrant has been made must surrender the personal property to the county treasurer. However, that part of the personal property which is the subject of a bona fide attachment, execution or other similar process need not be surrendered unless the property is released from the attachment, execution or other similar process.

B. Any person who wrongfully fails or refuses to surrender personal property is personally liable for an amount equal to the value of the personal property not surrendered or the amount of the delinquent taxes, penalties and interest on that property, whichever is less.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-55, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 95.

7-38-56. Release of personal property seized.

The county treasurer may release all or part of the personal property seized if he determines that the release will facilitate the collection of the delinquent taxes. However, the release does not prevent the assertion of any subsequent claim against the property owner's personal property.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-56, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 96.

7-38-57. Notice of sale of personal property.

A. As soon as practical after the seizure of personal property, but at least ten days before any proposed sale, the county treasurer shall notify the property owner by certified mail of the amount and kind of personal property seized and that the personal property will be sold for delinquent taxes on his personal property unless the taxes, penalties and interest are paid prior to the time of the sale.

B. The notice shall also state the amount of taxes, penalties and interest due, the time and place of the sale and any other information the department may require by regulation.

C. The treasurer shall make a diligent inquiry as to the identity and whereabouts of other persons having an interest in the property seized and provide them with the same notice given the property owner.

D. Failure to receive the notice of sale does not affect the validity of the sale.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-57, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 97; 1974, ch. 92, § 22.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For mailing of notices, see 7-38-84 NMSA 1978.

7-38-58. Personal property sale requirements.

A. The county treasurer must offer for sale all personal property seized by a demand warrant within sixty days of the date it is seized.

B. Notice of the sale must be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county where the personal property is to be sold at least once a week for the three weeks immediately preceding the week of the sale. The notice shall state the time and place of the sale and describe the personal property to be sold. The treasurer shall make a special effort to give notice of the sale to persons with a particular interest in special property and, apart from the requirements stated above, shall advertise the sale in a manner appropriate to the kind of property being sold.

C. Personal property must be sold at public auction either by the treasurer or an auctioneer hired by him. The auction shall be held at a time and place designated by the treasurer.

D. If a property owner's personal property is not sufficiently divisible to enable the treasurer to sell part of it and extinguish the tax delinquency, the treasurer may sell all of the personal property to extinguish the delinquency and return the remaining proceeds to the property owner.

E. Before the sale, the treasurer shall determine a minimum sale price for the personal property. In determining the minimum price, the treasurer shall consider the value of the property owner's interest in the personal property, the amount of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest for which it is being sold and the expenses of the sale. Personal property may not be sold for less than the minimum price unless no offer met the minimum price when it was offered at an earlier public auction.

F. Payment must be made in full and must be made immediately after an offer is accepted.

G. If, prior to the time of the sale, the property owner pays his personal property taxes, penalties and interest due and any costs incurred in preparing for the sale, or makes satisfactory arrangements with the treasurer for the payment of these amounts, the treasurer shall return his personal property to him.

7-38-59. Certificates of sale; effect of certificates of sale.

A. Upon receiving payment for the personal property sold, the county treasurer shall execute and deliver a certificate of sale to the purchaser.

B. A certificate of sale:

(1) is prima facie evidence of the treasurer's right to make the sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings relating to the sale;

(2) transfers all of the former property owner's interest in the personal property as of the date of sale. The purchaser takes the personal property free of any unrecorded or unfiled interests unknown to him at the time of sale; and

(3) shall be in a form prescribed by regulation of the department.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-59, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 99.

7-38-60. Notification to property owner of delinquent taxes.

By June 10 of each year, the county treasurer shall mail a notice to each property owner of property for which taxes have been delinquent for more than two years. The notice shall be in a form and contain the information prescribed by department regulations and shall include the following:

- A. a description of the property upon which the taxes are due;
- B. a statement of the amount of property taxes due, the date on which they became delinquent, the rate of accrual of interest and any penalties or costs that may be charged;
- C. a statement that the delinquent tax account on real property will be transferred to the department for collection;
- D. a statement that if taxes due on real property are not paid within three years from the date of delinquency, the real property will be sold and a deed issued; and
- E. a statement that if taxes due on personal property are not paid, the personal property may be seized and sold for taxes under authority of a demand warrant.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section and inserted "real property" in Subsection C.

7-38-61. Real property taxes delinquent for more than two years; treasurer to prepare delinquency list; notation on property tax schedule.

A. By July 1 of each year, the county treasurer shall prepare a property tax delinquency list of all real property for which taxes have been delinquent for more than two years. The tax delinquency list shall contain the information and be in a form prescribed and submitted by the date required by department regulations. The county treasurer shall record the tax delinquency list in the office of the county clerk. There shall be no recording fee for recordation of the tax delinquency list. The updated final property tax sale list shall be recorded with the office of the county clerk the day following the sale of the property. There shall be no recording fee for recordation of the final property tax sale list.

B. The county treasurer shall make a notation on the property tax schedule indicating that the account has been transferred to the department for collection at the time the tax delinquency list is mailed to the department.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-60, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 100; 1977, ch. 177, § 1; 1980 ch. 100, § 1; 1978 Comp., § 7-38-60, recompiled as 1978 Comp., § 7-38-61 by Laws 1982, ch. 28, § 22; 1997, ch. 124, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Recompilations. — Laws 1982, ch. 28, § 21, recompiled former 7-38-61 NMSA 1978, relating to notification to property owner of delinquent taxes, as 7-38-60 NMSA 1978.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section, added "Real" at the beginning of the section heading, and in Subsection A, inserted "real" in the first sentence and added the third sentence.

7-38-62. Authority of department to collect delinquent property taxes after receipt of tax delinquency list; allowing an authorized county treasurer to act as an agent of the department; use of penalties, interest and costs.

A. After the receipt of the tax delinquency list, the department has the responsibility and exclusive authority to take all action necessary to collect delinquent taxes shown on the list. This authority includes bringing collection actions in the district courts based upon the personal liability of the property owner for taxes as well as the actions authorized in the Property Tax Code for proceeding against the property subject to the tax for collection of delinquent taxes.

B. Payment of delinquent taxes listed and any penalty, interest or costs due in connection with those taxes shall be made to the department if occurring after the receipt by the department of the tax delinquency list; however, the department may authorize county treasurers to act as its agents in accepting payments of taxes, penalties, interest or costs due to the department, including payments made pursuant to an installment agreement authorized by Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978.

C. Penalties, interest and costs due received by the department pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall be retained by the department for use, subject to appropriation by the legislature, in the administration of the Property Tax Code.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-62, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 102; 1990, ch. 22, § 5; 2015, ch. 44, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, allowed the taxation and revenue department to authorize county treasurers to act as agents of the department in accepting payments made pursuant to an installment agreement for the payment of delinquent property taxes; in the catchline, added "allowing an authorized county treasurer to act as an agent of the department"; designated the first two sentences of the section as Subsection A, designated the third sentence of the section as Subsection B, and designated the last sentence of the section as Subsection C; in Subsection B, added "to the department, including payments made pursuant to an installment agreement authorized by Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978"; in Subsection C, after the first occurrence of "department", deleted "under" and added "pursuant to Subsection B of".

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, added "use of penalties, interest and costs" in the catchline and added the final sentence.

Payment to county treasurer constitutes payment to state. — Timely payments of delinquent tax to the county treasurer constituted payment to the state since treasurer had apparent if not statutory authority to accept payment of delinquent taxes on property deeded to, but not yet sold by, the state. Tabet v. Campbell, 1984-NMSC-059, 101 N.M. 334, 681 P.2d 1111.

7-38-63. Payment of delinquent taxes to the department; distribution.

At the time of payment to the department of delinquent taxes, interest and penalties, the department shall issue a receipt to the property owner for the payment of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest. A duplicate of the receipt shall be mailed to the county treasurer together with a remittance of the property taxes paid. When the county treasurer receives the remittance of the taxes and the duplicate receipt, the treasurer shall make a notation of the payment of the property taxes, penalties and interest on the property tax schedule and shall distribute the property taxes to the appropriate governmental units in accordance with the regulations of the department of finance and administration.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-63, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 103; 1979, ch. 373, § 1; 1990, ch. 22, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, substituted "department" for "division" in the section heading and in two places in the first sentence, deleted "penalties and interests" following "taxes" in the second and third sentences and, in the third sentence, inserted "of the property taxes, penalties and interests" and made a minor stylistic change.

7-38-64. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1997, ch. 124, § 3 repealed 7-38-64 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 104, relating to the authority of the department to sell personal property for delinquent taxes, effective June 20, 1997. For provisions of former section, see the 1996 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-38-65. Collection of delinquent taxes on real property; sale of real property.

A. If a lien exists by the operation of Section 7-38-48 NMSA 1978, the department may collect delinquent taxes on real property by selling the real property on which the taxes have become delinquent. The sale of real property for delinquent taxes shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Property Tax Code. Real property may be sold for delinquent taxes at any time after the expiration of three years from the first date shown on the tax delinquency list on which the taxes became delinquent. Real property shall be offered for sale for delinquent taxes either within four years after the first date shown on the tax delinquency list on which the taxes became delinquent or, if the department is barred by operation of law or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction from offering the property for sale for delinquent taxes within four years after the first date shown on the tax delinquency list on which the taxes became delinquent, within one year from the time the department determines that it is no longer barred from selling the property, unless:

(1) all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due are paid by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of the sale; or

(2) an installment agreement for payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due is entered into with the department by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of the sale pursuant to Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978.

B. Failure to offer property for sale within the time prescribed by Subsection A of this section shall not impair the validity or effect of any sale that does take place.

C. The time requirements of this section are subject to the provisions of Section 7-38-83 NMSA 1978.

D. After January 1, 2014 and subject to the provisions of Subsection A of this section, the department shall annually offer for sale in each county at least one real property listed on that county's property tax delinquency list, unless the director of the property tax division of the department and the county treasurer enter into an agreement to postpone the delinquent property tax sale. The agreement to postpone the delinquent property tax sale shall be executed in writing, and copies shall be sent to the secretary of taxation and revenue and the secretary of finance and administration. That agreement shall state the reason for the postponement and the proposed remedy that will allow the department to conduct the sale in the future.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective January 1, 2014, required the taxation and revenue department to conduct delinquent property tax sales in each county with delinquent properties at least one time in each calendar year; and added Subsection D.

Applicability. — Laws 2013, ch. 155, § 2 provided that the provisions of Laws 2013, ch. 155, § 2 applies to property tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, added "If a lien exists by the operation of Section 7-38-48 NMSA 1978" at the beginning of Subsection A.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, in Paragraphs A(1) and (2), substituted "by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale" for "by the date of sale"; and added Paragraph C.

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, in Subsection A, substituted "department" for "division" in the first sentence and in Paragraph (2) and rewrote the fourth sentence which read "Real property must be offered for sale for delinquent taxes within four years after the first date shown on the tax delinquency list on which the taxes became delinquent, unless".

Purpose of statutes on tax deeds is to give a measure of certainty and security to tax titles. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Tax deeds prima facie valid. — Since tax deeds attacked were signed by the proper officials, they were prima facie valid unless some departure from statutory mandates, which made the conveyance a nullity and void, was established. The burden in this respect was on the state in order to overcome the prima facie effect granted the deeds by former 72-8-43, 1953 Comp. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Tax deed issued before period of redemption has expired is void. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

State is not an "owner" neither is it "person entitled to redeem." First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

State has no standing to assert rights of owner. — The rights preserved in the statutes are rights of "owners" as that term is interpreted, and the state cannot bring itself within the protection of the sections. Unless the conveyances were void and a nullity, the state has no standing to assert rights given by statute to "owners" or "persons entitled to redeem." First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

State in no better position than other strangers. — The state is in no better position to avoid its tax deeds or to claim deprivation of rights guaranteed by statute to the prior owner than would be some other stranger to the right. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Action to declare rights under the Property Tax Code. — A claim seeking to invalidate a tax sale due to inadequacy of price may be directed solely at the third-party purchasers of the property. Valenzuela v. Snyder, 2014-NMCA-061, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-005.

Where plaintiffs owed delinquent property taxes; the department sold the property at auction; the department established the minimum bid as $215; the fair market value of the property was at least $25,000; the buyers of the property, who were the only bidders, paid $215 for the property; the department issued a tax deed to the buyers; and plaintiffs filed suit against the buyers to set aside the sale, the suit against the buyers was permissible. Valenzuela v. Snyder, 2014-NMCA-061, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-005.

Inadequacy of purchase price. — The inadequacy of the purchase price or gross disproportionality between the purchase price and the property's value are not grounds for setting aside a tax sale. Valenzuela v. Snyder, 2014-NMCA-061, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-005.

Where plaintiffs owed delinquent property taxes; the department sold the property at auction; the department established the minimum bid as $215; the fair market value of the property was at least $25,000; the buyers of the property, who were the only bidders, paid $215 for the property; the department issued a tax deed to the buyers; and plaintiffs filed suit against the buyers to set aside the sale, the inadequacy of the purchase price or gross disproportionality between the purchase price and the property's value were not unconscionable and were not grounds for setting aside the tax sale. Valenzuela v. Snyder, 2014-NMCA-061, cert. granted, 2014-NMCERT-005.

Failure of proper notice would not invalidate sale. — If a valid assessment and levy had been made of the taxes, the county treasurer's failure to give a proper notice would not invalidate the tax sales. The neglect to give a proper notice or failure to give any notice at all would not discharge the tax or present a valid obstacle to the collection thereof. Greene v. Esquibel, 1954-NMSC-039, 58 N.M. 429, 272 P.2d 330.

Continuity of adverse possession interrupted where land forfeited for taxes. — If, during the running of the statute of limitations in favor of the adverse occupant of land, the land is forfeited to the state for taxes, the general rule is that continuity of possession is interrupted for the reason that the statute of limitations does not run against the state in the absence of some special provision to that effect. Greene v. Esquibel, 1954-NMSC-039, 58 N.M. 429, 272 P.2d 330.

7-38-66. Sale of real property for delinquent taxes; notice of sale.

A. At least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of the sale for delinquent taxes, the department shall notify by certified mail, return receipt requested, and, for abandoned real property, an additional letter sent by first class mail, to the address as shown on the most recent property tax schedule, each property owner whose real property will be sold that the owner's real property will be sold to satisfy delinquent taxes, unless:

(1) all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due are paid by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of the sale, or, for abandoned real property being sold via an online platform as provided in Subsection D of Section 7-38-67.1 NMSA 1978, all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due are paid by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date the property is offered on the property tax division's website; or

(2) an installment agreement for payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due is entered into with the department by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale in accordance with Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978, or, for abandoned real property sold via an online platform as provided in Subsection D of Section 7-38-67.1 NMSA 1978, an installment agreement for payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due is entered into with the department in accordance with Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978 by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date the property is offered on the property tax division's website.

B. The notice shall also:

(1) state the amount of taxes, penalties, interest and costs due;

(2) state the time and place of the sale;

(3) if online, state the date and time the sale begins and expires and the web address of the property tax division's website where the property being sold will be listed;

(4) describe the real property that will be sold;

(5) inform the property owner of the property owner's right to apply for an installment agreement with the department for payment of delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs, in accordance with Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978;

(6) provide information on the name and phone number of the individual in the department the owner can contact to arrange for an installment agreement in accordance with Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978; and

(7) contain any other information that the department may require by rule.

C. At the same time a notice required by Subsection A of this section is sent to the owner of the real property, a notice containing the information set out in Subsection B of this section shall also be sent to each person holding a lien or security interest of record in the property if an address for such person is reasonably ascertainable through a search of the property records of the county in which the property is located.

D. Failure of the department to mail a required notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall invalidate the sale; provided, however, that return to the department of the notice of the return receipt shall be deemed adequate notice and shall not invalidate the sale.

E. Proof that all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs had been paid by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale shall prevent or invalidate the sale.

F. For abandoned real property sold via an online platform as provided in Subsection D of Section 7-38-67.1 NMSA 1978, proof that the owner has paid all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date the property is offered on the property tax division's website shall invalidate the sale.

G. Proof that the owner has, by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale, entered into an installment agreement to pay all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs as provided in Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978 and that timely payments under such agreement are being made shall prevent or invalidate the sale.

H. For abandoned real property sold via an online platform as provided in Subsection D of Section 7-38-67.1 NMSA 1978, proof that the owner has entered into an installment agreement with the department for payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due in accordance with Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978 by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date the property is offered on the property tax division's website shall invalidate the sale.

I. The time requirements of this section are subject to the provisions of Section 7-38-83 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-66, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 106; 1980, ch. 104, § 1; 1982, ch. 28, § 23; 1983, ch. 215, § 4; 1990, ch. 22, § 8; 2001, ch. 253, § 2; 2001, ch. 254, § 2; 2018, ch. 50, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, effective May 16, 2018, provided procedures for the sale of abandoned real property for which delinquent property tax is due; in Subsection A, in the introductory clause, after "return receipt requested", added "and, for abandoned real property, an additional letter sent by first class mail", in Paragraph A(1), after "date of the sale", added the remainder of the paragraph, and in Paragraph A(2), after "Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978", added the remainder of the paragraph; in Subsection B, added a new Paragraph B(3) and redesignated former Paragraphs B(3) through B(6) as Paragraphs B(4) through B(7), respectively, in Paragraph B(5), after "property owner of", deleted "his" and added "the property owner's", and after "right to", deleted "enter into" and added "apply for", in Paragraph B(6), after "department the", deleted "taxpayer" and added "owner", and in Paragraph B(7), after "require by", deleted "regulation" and added "rule"; in Subsection C, after "owner of the", added "real"; in Subsection E, after "Proof", deleted "by the taxpayer"; added a new Subsection F and redesignated former Subsection F as Subsection G; in Subsection G, after "Proof", deleted "by the taxpayer", and after "that the", deleted "taxpayer" and added "owner"; and added Subsection H and redesignated former Subsection G as Subsection I.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, in Paragraphs A(1), (2) and Subsection E, substituted "by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale" for "by the date of sale"; added Paragraphs B(4) and (5); in Subsection F, added "by 5:00 p.m. of the day prior to the date of sale" and deleted "prior to the date of sale" following "interests and costs"; and added Subsection G.

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section; added Subsection C; redesignated former Subsections C to E as Subsections D to F; rewrote the provisions of Subsection D which read "Failure of the division to mail the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, or failure of the division to receive the return receipt shall invalidate the sale; provided, however, that the receipt by the division of a return receipt indicating that the taxpayer does not reside at the address shown on the most recent property tax schedule shall be deemed adequate notice and shall not invalidate the sale"; and made numerous minor stylistic changes.

Taxpayer testimony insufficient to create issue of material fact. — In the face of documentary evidence establishing that the initial payment made by taxpayer for delinquent taxes corresponded to payment of one-half of his delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest, taxpayer's self-serving testimony as to his subjective belief that he had paid his taxes for certain tax years was insufficient to create a genuine issue of material fact as to prior payment. Cordova v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-009, 136 N.M. 713, 104 P.3d 1104.

Due process required. — A tax sale by the division is a taking of property by the government, and the notice of such taking must comply with minimum due process standards under the United States and New Mexico Constitutions. Patrick v. Rice, 1991-NMCA-063, 112 N.M. 285, 814 P.2d 463, cert. denied, 112 N.M. 308, 815 P.2d 161.

Section 7-38-70C NMSA 1978 subject to notice requirements. — The legislature did not intend to apply Section 7-38-70C NMSA 1978 (limitation period to challenge tax sale) when the state fails to comply with the notice requirements of this section and federal and state constitutional due process requirements. Hoffman v. State Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1994-NMCA-032, 117 N.M. 263, 871 P.2d 27.

Due process requirements. — Due process requires that the state must provide notice of sale to parties whose interest in property would be affected by a tax sale, as long as that information is reasonably ascertainable. Brown v. Greig, 1987-NMCA-096, 106 N.M. 202, 740 P.2d 1186, cert. denied, 106 N.M. 174, 740 P.2d 1158.

Persons to whom notice is necessary. — In keeping with the intent of the legislature to notify "each property owner" of an impending sale of his property, it is implicit that the legislature also intended that holders of record title be notified of the same thing. Brown v. Greig, 1987-NMCA-096, 106 N.M. 202, 740 P.2d 1186, cert. denied, 106 N.M. 174, 740 P.2d 1158.

Indications of ownership. — When the record owner of three lots orally notified the county assessor that he no longer owned the lots and would not be responsible for the property taxes, that notice did not constitute a waiver of his right to be notified of the subsequent delinquency prior to the tax sales, where the purchaser never recorded his deeds, record owner repurchased the properties, and no documentation, other than the grant of an easement, appeared of record which would have indicated purchaser's interest in the property. Brown v. Greig, 1987-NMCA-096, 106 N.M. 202, 740 P.2d 1186, cert. denied, 106 N.M. 174, 740 P.2d 1158.

Notice requirements in effect at time of sale apply. — A tax sale is controlled by the notice requirements in effect at the time of the sale, not by those in effect when the tax lien arose. Buescher v. Jaquez, 1983-NMSC-107, 101 N.M. 2, 677 P.2d 615.

Reasonable diligence to locate taxpayer contact information. — Where the state failed to contact the utility company that served the nonresident taxpayer's rural property, to red tag the taxpayer's property with a warning of the tax deficiency, and to access public records in the state where the taxpayer was known to reside; accessed only two internet websites that contained published telephone and address information when the state knew that the contact information listed under the taxpayer's name was unpublished; and although the taxpayer was a prominent businessman and property owner in his home state, failed to use internet websites that would produce information about the taxpayer, the state was not reasonably diligent in attempting to locate the reasonably ascertainable contact information of the deficient taxpayer before selling his property at auction in violation of due process. Gates v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dept., 2008-NMCA-023, 143 N.M. 446, 176 P.3d 1178.

Duty to seek correct address. — Subsection A requires the division (department) to send notice to delinquent taxpayers via certified mail, return receipt requested. This requirement implicitly requires the division (department) to send the notice to the correct address. The division (department) has an affirmative duty to seek out, by "diligent search and inquiry", the correct address of each property owner, and failure to do so may violate due process. Patrick v. Rice, 1991-NMCA-063, 112 N.M. 285, 814 P.2d 463, cert. denied, 112 N.M. 308, 815 P.2d 161.

Incorrect address does not invalidate sale. — The return of a notice of tax sale to the department indicating an incorrect address did not invalidate the tax sale. Cano v. Lovato, 1986-NMCA-043, 105 N.M. 522, 734 P.2d 762, cert. quashed, 105 N.M. 438, 733 P.2d 1321 (1987).

Incorrect address immaterial if notice received. — The incorrect address on the envelope is immaterial if the notice actually got to the right address. The statute does not turn on the technical accuracy of the address typed on the envelope, which is merely a delivery vehicle, but upon mailing the notice "to the address" shown on the latest tax schedule. Wine v. Neal, 1983-NMSC-087, 100 N.M. 431, 671 P.2d 1142.

Incorrect address immaterial if no challenge on those grounds. — There is no basis for voiding a tax sale merely because the proper address was not correctly printed on the notice envelope, where there is no challenge as to whether the notice actually reached the correct address. Wine v. Neal, 1983-NMSC-087, 100 N.M. 431, 671 P.2d 1142.

Intent of 1990 amendment to Subsection D. — Subsection D of this section, as amended in 1990, was intended to legislatively overrule the Supreme Court's decision in State ex rel. Klineline v. Blackhurst, 1988-NMSC-015, 106 N.M. 732, 749 P.2d 1111. Cordova v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-009, 136 N.M. 713, 104 P.3d 1104.

Receipt of notice of return receipt shall be deemed adequate notice as long as the notice of the tax sale was mailed in compliance with Subsection A of this section. Cordova v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-009, 136 N.M. 713, 104 P.3d 1104.

Failure to notify rendering sale invalid. — Tax sale was invalid since the owner had sent the county a change of address and the division's attempt to notify the owner of delinquent taxes and of the tax sale failed, due primarily to the county treasurer's initial failure to properly record the owner's new address. Chavez v. Sharvelle, 1988-NMCA-005, 106 N.M. 793, 750 P.2d 1119, cert. denied, 107 N.M. 16, 751 P.2d 700.

A tax sale may be invalidated and rescheduled if not conducted substantially in accordance with the tax code so long as the deed has not yet been issued and delivered to the purchaser. — Where, after a three-year period of nonpayment of delinquent property taxes by the owner of a ten-acre parcel of land located in Santa Fe county, the taxation and revenue department (department) placed the property up for sale at public auction, and where the department complied with the notice requirements of 7-38-66 and 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978, but on the day before the auction, a department employee mistakenly notified the department personnel charged with preparing the next day's auction that the taxes on the parcel at issue had been paid and that the parcel should be removed from the list of properties for sale, and where, on the day of the auction, certain potential bidders left the auction after they were notified that the property would not be sold that day, and where the parcel was placed on a list of properties removed from the auction for a short period of time, but was returned to the auction list after the county treasurer's office informed the department that payment of delinquent taxes had not been made, and where the property was then sold to purchaser, the sole bidder, for the minimum price of $17,100, the amount of taxes, penalty, interest and costs owed to the state, and where, two days after the tax sale, the department invalidated the tax sale for not substantially complying with the requirements of the tax code after learning from a potential bidder that she had left the auction in reliance on the department's announcement and subsequent assurances that the parcel would not be sold on the day of the auction, and where purchaser filed a petition for writ of mandamus in district court, asking the court to order the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel, the district erred in entering a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the department to issue a tax deed, because the parcel was not sold substantially in compliance with the public auction requirement of the tax code when the property was sold without recognizing the property owner's interest and right to receive any amount generated at public auction in excess of the debt to the state, and by announcing at the outset of the auction that the parcel would not be sold that day, the department essentially negated the prior notice to potential purchasers required by 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978 and undermined the legislature's purpose in requiring a public auction to increase the sale price. Dearborn v. Clarke, 2024-NMCA-002.

Validity of sale not affected by failure to deliver notice. — Since party did not receive the notices required by former 72-8-30, 1953 Comp., to be mailed to him by the tax commission at least 30 days (now 20) prior to the actual sale, if such notice was mailed, it was specifically provided in that section that the fact that the notice was not delivered to the addressee would not affect the validity of any subsequent sale. Bailey v. Barranca, 1971-NMSC-074, 83 N.M. 90, 488 P.2d 725.

Effect of failure of notice. — A tax sale will not be invalidated under the curative act for failure to give, or of the taxpayer to receive, notice of taxes due or that redemption time is about to expire. Bailey v. Barranca, 1971-NMSC-074, 83 N.M. 90, 488 P.2d 725; Worman v. Echo Ridge Homes Coop., 1982-NMSC-081, 98 N.M. 237, 647 P.2d 870.

Failure to give notice does not constitute constructive fraud. — Failure to give notice of a tax sale of land or the failure of taxpayer to receive such notice, standing alone, does not constitute constructive fraud invalidating the tax sale. Lamb v. Manley, 1954-NMSC-046, 58 N.M. 292, 270 P.2d 706; Worman v. Echo Ridge Homes Coop., 1982-NMSC-081, 98 N.M. 237, 647 P.2d 870.

The failure to send notice of a delinquent tax sale to the record owner, and to red tag the land, does not amount to constructive fraud. Worman v. Echo Ridge Homes Coop., 1982-NMSC-081, 98 N.M. 237, 647 P.2d 870.

85 C.J.S. Taxation § 1101 et seq.

7-38-67. Real property sale requirements.

A. Real property shall not be sold for delinquent taxes before the expiration of three years from the first date shown on the tax delinquency list on which the taxes on the real property became delinquent.

B. Notice of the sale shall be published in a local newspaper within the county where the real property is located or, if there is no local county or municipal newspaper, then a newspaper published in a county contiguous to or near the county in which the real property is located, at least once a week for the three weeks immediately preceding the week of the sale. For more generalized notice, the department may choose to publish notice of the sale also in a newspaper not published within the county and of more general circulation. The notice shall state the time and place of the sale and shall include a description of the real property sufficient to permit its identification and location by potential purchasers.

C. Real property shall be sold at public auction either by the department or an auctioneer hired by the department. The auction shall be held in the county where the real property is located at a time and place designated by the department.

D. If the real property can be divided so as to enable the department to sell only part of it and pay all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs, the department may, with the consent of the owner, sell only a part of the real property.

E. Before the sale, the department shall determine a minimum sale price for the real property. In determining the minimum price, the department shall consider the value of the property owner's interest in the real property, the amount of all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest for which it is being sold and the costs. The minimum price shall not be less than the total of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs. Real property shall not be sold for less than the minimum price unless no offer met the minimum price when it was offered at an earlier public auction or the property is sold in accordance with the provisions of Subsection H of this section. A sale properly made under the authority of and in accordance with the requirements of this section constitutes full payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest that are a lien against the property at the time of sale, and the sale extinguishes the lien.

F. Payment shall be made in full by the close of the public auction before an offer may be deemed accepted by the department.

G. Real property not offered for sale may be offered for sale at a later sale, but the requirements of this section and Section 7-38-66 NMSA 1978 shall be met in connection with each sale.

H. The board of trustees of a community land grant-merced governed pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 49, Article 1 NMSA 1978 or by statutes specific to the named land grant-merced shall be allowed to match the highest bid at a public auction, which shall entitle the board of trustees to purchase the property for the amount bid if:

- (1) the property is situated within the boundaries of that land grant-merced as shown in the United States patent to the grant;
- (2) the bid covers all past taxes, penalties, interest and costs due on the property; and
- (3) the land becomes part of the common lands of the land grant-merced.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-67, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 107; 1974, ch. 92, § 24; 1982, ch. 28, § 24; 1983, ch. 215, § 5; 1995, ch. 12, § 12; 2001, ch. 253, § 3; 2001, ch. 254, § 3; 2005, ch. 211, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For laws relating to land grant-merced, see 49-1-1 to 49-1-22 NMSA 1978.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, in Subsection E, provided that real property shall not be sold for less than the minimum price unless no offer met the minimum price when the property is sold in accordance with Subsection H and added Subsection H to provide that the board of trustees shall be allowed to match the highest bid at a public auction and purchase the property for the amount bid if the property is within a land grant-merced, the bid covers all past taxes, penalties, interest and costs and the land becomes part of the common lands of the land grant-merced.

The 2001 amendment, effective June 15, 2001, in Subsection B, substituted "local newspaper" for "newspaper of general circulation", added "or, if there is no local county or municipal newspaper, then a newspaper published in a county contiguous to or near the county in which the real property is located", and added the second sentence.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "department" for "division" throughout the section and substituted "costs" for "expenses of the sale" in Subsection D and in two places in Subsection E.

Notice by publication inadequate for mortgagee. — Notice by publication, in compliance with this section, does not provide a mortgagee of real property with constitutionally adequate notice of a proceeding to sell the mortgaged property for nonpayment of taxes. Macaron v. Assocs. Capital Servs. Corp., 1987-NMCA-005, 105 N.M. 380, 733 P.2d 11.

Owner's interest. — Subsection E of this section requires the department to "consider" both the owner's interest and the amount of delinquent taxes, penalties, and costs, but then the department is directed to set the minimum price as not less than the total of the delinquent taxes, penalties, and costs. Thus, the legislature does not appear to have required any definite amount representing the owner's interest as part of the minimum sale price. Cochrell v. Mitchell, 2003-NMCA-094, 134 N.M. 180, 75 P.3d 396.

A tax sale may be invalidated and rescheduled if not conducted substantially in accordance with the tax code so long as the deed has not yet been issued and delivered to the purchaser. — Where, after a three-year period of nonpayment of delinquent property taxes by the owner of a ten-acre parcel of land located in Santa Fe county, the taxation and revenue department (department) placed the property up for sale at public auction, and where the department complied with the notice requirements of 7-38-66 and 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978, but on the day before the auction, a department employee mistakenly notified the department personnel charged with preparing the next day's auction that the taxes on the parcel at issue had been paid and that the parcel should be removed from the list of properties for sale, and where, on the day of the auction, certain potential bidders left the auction after they were notified that the property would not be sold that day, and where the parcel was placed on a list of properties removed from the auction for a short period of time, but was returned to the auction list after the county treasurer's office informed the department that payment of delinquent taxes had not been made, and where the property was then sold to purchaser, the sole bidder, for the minimum price of $17,100, the amount of taxes, penalty, interest and costs owed to the state, and where, two days after the tax sale, the department invalidated the tax sale for not substantially complying with the requirements of the tax code after learning from a potential bidder that she had left the auction in reliance on the department's announcement and subsequent assurances that the parcel would not be sold on the day of the auction, and where purchaser filed a petition for writ of mandamus in district court, asking the court to order the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel, the district erred in entering a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the department to issue a tax deed, because the parcel was not sold substantially in compliance with the public auction requirement of the tax code when the property was sold without recognizing the property owner's interest and right to receive any amount generated at public auction in excess of the debt to the state, and by announcing at the outset of the auction that the parcel would not be sold that day, the department essentially negated the prior notice to potential purchasers required by 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978 and undermined the legislature's purpose in requiring a public auction to increase the sale price. Dearborn v. Clarke, 2024-NMCA-002.

The department is not required to execute and deliver a deed if the property was not sold in substantial compliance with the tax code. — Where, after a three-year period of nonpayment of delinquent property taxes by the owner of a ten-acre parcel of land located in Santa Fe county, the taxation and revenue department (department) placed the property up for sale at public auction, and where the property was sold to purchaser, the sole bidder, for the minimum price of $17,100, the amount of taxes, penalty, interest and costs owed to the state, and where, two days after the tax sale, the department invalidated the tax sale for not substantially complying with the requirements of the tax code after learning from a potential bidder that she had left the auction in reliance on the department's announcement and subsequent assurances that the parcel would not be sold that day, and where purchaser filed a petition for writ of mandamus in district court, asking the court to order the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel, and where the district court entered a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel of land, finding that even assuming the sale was not conducted substantially in accordance with the tax code, the department had a mandatory duty under the plain language of 7-38-70(A) NMSA 1978 to issue and deliver a tax deed to petitioner upon receiving payment for the property and that the department lacked the authority to invalidate the sale once payment was received, the district court erred in entering a peremptory writ of mandamus, because the legislature intended that the department's authority to invalidate a substantially flawed tax sale to continue until the department has reviewed the conduct of the sale and determined that a valid tax deed can be issued. Dearborn v. Clarke, 2024-NMCA-002.

7-38-67.1. Sale of abandoned real property; notice of sale; requirements.

- A. Abandoned real property may be sold by special sale.

B. Notice of the sale shall be published in a local newspaper within the county where the abandoned real property is located, or in a newspaper published in a county contiguous to or near the county in which the abandoned real property is located, the week immediately preceding the week of the sale. In cases where abandoned real property is offered for sale via an online platform pursuant to Subsection D of this section, the notice of the sale shall be published in a local newspaper within the county where the abandoned real property is located, or in a newspaper published in a county contiguous to or near the county in which the abandoned real property is located, the week immediately preceding the week of the beginning of the continuous online sale. Online sales notices pursuant to this section shall also be published on the property tax division's website. The notice shall:

- (1) state the time and place of the sale;
- (2) if the sale is made via an online sale pursuant to Subsection D of this section, state the date and time the sale will begin and expire and the property tax division's website where the property being sold will be listed;
- (3) include the name of the subdivision in which the abandoned real property is located;
- (4) state the total minimum bid; and
- (5) provide the phone number of the property tax division and the web address where interested buyers may obtain copies of the list of properties to be sold.

C. Abandoned real property may be sold at public auction either by the department or an auctioneer hired by the department. The auction shall be held in the county where the abandoned real property is located at a time and place designated by the department.

D. Abandoned real property may be offered for sale via an online platform on the property tax division's website, and notice shall be given pursuant to Subsection B of this section. The sales of abandoned real property listed on the property tax division's website may be continuous until December 31 of the tax year in which the abandoned real property is offered for sale. For subsequent tax years, notice shall be given pursuant to Subsection B of this section before the abandoned real property listed on the property tax division's website can be reoffered for sale.

E. Before the sale, the department shall determine a minimum sale price for the abandoned real property. In determining the minimum price, the department shall consider the amount of all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs for which the abandoned real property is being sold. If the department determines the total amount due is in excess of the sale price that could reasonably be made through public auction, the property tax division may offer the abandoned real property for less than the total amount of delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs due.

F. A sale properly made under the authority of and in accordance with the requirements of this section constitutes full payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest that are a lien pursuant to Section 7-38-48 NMSA 1978 against the abandoned real property at the time of sale, and the sale extinguishes the lien.

G. Payment shall be made in full by the close of the public auction before an offer may be deemed accepted by the department. For abandoned real property sold via an online platform pursuant to Subsection D of this section, payment shall be made in full within one business day of the bid being accepted by the department before an offer may be deemed accepted by the department. Receipt of a bid from a buyer by the department is not acceptance of the bid by the department. The department shall notify the buyer whose bid is accepted by the department, and the one business day payment requirement begins at the time the buyer received notice of acceptance to the buyer whose bid was accepted by the department. Notice of acceptance of a bid sent to a buyer by the department may be sent via email. Failure of a buyer whose bid was accepted by the department and to whom notice was sent by the department to pay the full sales price within one business day invalidates the sale and the property can be reoffered for sale unless the buyer receives an extension to make payment from the department. Requests for time extensions and approvals of time extensions can be made via email.

H. The board of trustees of a community land grant-merced governed pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 49, Article 1 NMSA 1978, or by statutes specific to the named land grant-merced, shall be allowed to exercise the right of first offer to purchase the abandoned real property if:

(1) the abandoned real property offered for sale is situated within the boundaries of that land grant-merced as shown in the United States patent to the grant;

(2) the offer covers all taxes, penalties, interest and costs due on the abandoned real property unless the minimum sales price is reduced below total amounts owed pursuant to Subsection E of this section; and

(3) the land becomes part of the common lands of the land grant-merced.

I. In the event that there is a competing interest in the abandoned real property by prior landholders, such as land grant owners, pueblos or nontaxable entities, the secretary shall determine who has the prevailing right of first offer.

J. The time requirements of this section are subject to the provisions of Section 7-38-83 NMSA 1978.

K. As used in this section, "right of first offer" means the department is obliged to undergo exclusive good faith negotiations with the rights holder before offering abandoned real property for sale to the public.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-38-67.1, enacted by Laws 2018, ch. 50, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2018, ch. 50 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 16, 2018, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

7-38-68. Installment agreements.

A. The division may enter into an installment agreement for the payment of all delinquent property taxes, penalties, interest and costs due with respect to either real property or a manufactured home with the owner of the real property or manufactured home whose taxes have become delinquent and whose account for all or part of the delinquent taxes has been transferred for collection to the division. Execution of an installment agreement under this section by a property owner is an irrevocable admission of liability for all taxes that are the subject of the agreement. The installment agreement shall be in writing and shall not extend for a period of more than thirty-six months. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance during the period of the installment agreement. The rate of interest shall be one percent a month, and no other interest on that portion of the principal representing unpaid taxes shall accrue while an installment agreement is in effect. The division shall not enter into an installment agreement with a property owner on or after the date of the initial sale of real property or manufactured home for delinquent taxes whether or not the real property or manufactured home is sold and a deed issued as a result of that sale. The division shall promulgate regulations establishing requirements for a minimum down payment and substantially equal monthly payments for installment agreements.

B. An installment agreement prevents any further action to collect the delinquent taxes stated in the agreement as long as the terms of the agreement are met.

C. The division may proceed under the Property Tax Code to collect the property taxes, penalties, interest and costs due and unpaid if:

- (1) installment payments are not made on or before the dates specified in the agreement;
- (2) the property owner fails to pay other property taxes when required; or
- (3) any other condition contained in the agreement is not met.

D. For the purpose of computing the time when real property or a manufactured home may be sold for delinquent taxes, the date of original delinquency shall be used when the delinquent taxes have been the subject of an installment agreement that was subsequently breached by the property owner.

E. If an owner of real property or a manufactured home enters into an installment agreement and subsequently breaches the agreement under this section, the division shall not enter into another installment agreement with that property owner for the payment of the delinquent taxes that were the subject of the installment agreement.

F. Alphabetically indexed and serially numbered records of installment agreements must be kept in the office of the director and made available for public inspection.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-68, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 108; 1985, ch. 109, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

7-38-69. Distribution of amounts collected under installment agreements.

Amounts collected under installment agreements entered into by the department that represent delinquent taxes shall be remitted to the county treasurer of the county to which the net taxable value of the property is allocated for distribution to the governmental units. Amounts collected that represent penalties, interest and costs shall be retained by the department in accordance with Section 7-38-71 NMSA 1978. Money collected shall be remitted at the times and in the manner required by regulations of the department of finance and administration. When the department has received payment in full of delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs paid under an installment agreement, the department shall notify the county treasurer of that fact, and the county treasurer shall make an entry on the property tax schedule indicating that the delinquent property taxes, penalties and interest have been paid.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-69, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 109; 1985, ch. 109, § 11; 1990, ch. 22, § 9; 1995, ch. 12, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted the language beginning "interest and costs" for "and interest shall be retained by the department for use, subject to appropriation by the legislature, in the administration of the Property Tax Code" at the end of the second sentence, deleted the former third sentence which read "Amounts collected that represent costs shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund", and inserted "and costs" near the beginning of the fourth sentence.

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, substituted "department" for "division" in the first sentence, rewrote the second sentence which read "Amounts collected that represent penalties and interests shall be remitted to the appropriate county treasurer for deposit in the county general fund" and, in the final sentence, substituted "department has received" for "county treasurer has received" and "the department shall notify the county treasurer of that fact and the county treasurer shall make an entry" for "he shall make an entry".

7-38-70. Issuance of deeds as result of sale of real property for delinquent taxes; effect of deeds; limitation of action to challenge conveyance.

A. Upon receiving payment for real property sold for delinquent taxes, the division shall execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser.

B. If the real property was sold substantially in accordance with the Property Tax Code, the deed conveys all of the former property owner's interest in the real property as of the date the state's lien for real property taxes arose in accordance with the Property Tax Code, subject only to perfected interests in the real property existing before the date the property tax lien arose.

C. After two years from the date of sale, neither the former real property owner shown on the property tax schedule as the delinquent taxpayer nor anyone claiming through him may bring an action challenging the conveyance.

D. Subject to the limitation of Subsection C of this section, in all controversies and suits involving title to real property held under a deed from the state issued under this section, any person claiming title adverse to that acquired by the deed from the state must prove, in order to defeat the title, that:

(1) the real property was not subject to taxation for the tax years for which the delinquent taxes for which it was sold were imposed;

(2) the division failed to mail the notice required under Section 7-38-66 NMSA 1978 or to receive any required return receipt;

(3) he, or the person through whom he claims, had title to the real property at the time of the sale and had paid all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs prior to the sale as provided in Subsection E of Section 7-38-66 NMSA 1978; or

(4) he, or the person through whom he claims, had entered into an installment agreement to pay all delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs prior to the sale as provided in Section 7-38-68 NMSA 1978 and that all payments due were made timely.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-70, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 110; 1982, ch. 28, § 25.

ANNOTATIONS

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS.

Suing to quiet title within two years of tax sale. — Section 42-6-1 NMSA 1978, which provides that "Title may be quieted against the owner or holder of any mortgage, claim of lien or other encumbrance, where the owner or holder of such mortgage, lien or encumbrance has permitted [the encumbrance] to become barred by the statute of limitations," does not bar a plaintiff from initiating a suit to quiet title to clear a cloud against the title within the two-year period following a tax sale, provided in Subsection D of this section. Bentz v. Peterson, 1988-NMCA-071, 107 N.M. 597, 762 P.2d 259.

Time of delivery of deed. — This section does not mandate immediate delivery of the deed at the time of sale; thus, a deed delivered one month after the tax sale was issued pursuant to statutory authority, and the sale and deed could not be invalidated on the basis of a claimed jurisdictional defect. Cano v. Lovato, 1986-NMCA-043, 105 N.M. 522, 734 P.2d 762, cert. quashed, 105 N.M. 438, 733 P.2d 1321.

Applicability of recording act. — Section 14-9-3 NMSA 1978, relating to effect of unrecorded instruments applies to tax deeds. Cano v. Lovato, 1986-NMCA-043, 105 N.M. 522, 734 P.2d 762, cert. quashed, 105 N.M. 438, 733 P.2d 1321.

Grantees in quitclaim deed from purchaser of property sold for taxes would take subject to all defects therein of which they knew, or which an examination of the record would disclose. State ex rel. State Tax Comm'n v. Garcia, 1967-NMSC-098, 77 N.M. 703, 427 P.2d 230.

Purpose of statutes on tax deeds is to give a measure of certainty and security to tax titles. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Original owner's right to purchase. — Former statutory language gave the original owner of the land the preferential right to purchase the property upon the payment of the full amount of taxes, penalties, interest and costs for which the property was sold by the tax sale proceedings. The purpose of the legislature was to grant a preference to the original property owner to become reinvested of his property upon payment of taxes, penalties, interest and costs. Trujillo v. Montano, 1958-NMSC-079, 64 N.M. 259, 327 P.2d 326 (decided under prior law).

Power of treasurer (department) to execute tax deed is not exhausted until a deed is made in compliance with law. Brown v. Gurley, 1954-NMSC-025, 58 N.M. 153, 267 P.2d 134.

The assessment of property for taxation is one of the essential steps leading up to a sale for taxes. If an assessment is void, it follows inevitably that the sale based upon such assessment is likewise void. Baltzley v. Lujan, 1949-NMSC-065, 53 N.M. 502, 212 P.2d 417.

II. CHALLENGES TO TAX SALE.

A. GENERALLY.

Grounds for challenge to tax sale are generally strictly limited to the grounds set forth in Subsection D of this section, but there could be such a degree of noncompliance with other required procedures that a tax sale could be voided on grounds other than those of that subsection. Cochrell v. Mitchell, 2003-NMCA-094, 134 N.M. 180, 75 P.3d 396.

Substantial compliance. — Subsection B means that a trial court is empowered to review the sale procedures, but not for the purpose of requiring letter-perfect compliance with each requirement of the statutes. Cochrell v. Mitchell, 2003-NMCA-094, 134 N.M. 180, 75 P.3d 396.

A reading of the entirety of this section, together with the cases, indicates that the substantial compliance language of Subsection B of this section must overlay all the other statutes that comprise the Property Tax Code. Cochrell v. Mitchell, 2003-NMCA-094, 134 N.M. 180, 75 P.3d 396.

This section is "curative" statute that stringently limits the grounds upon which a successful attack upon a tax deed issued by the state may be made. It also limits the time for bringing such action. Bailey v. Barranca, 1971-NMSC-074, 83 N.M. 90, 488 P.2d 725.

Tax deed prima facie valid. — Since tax deeds attacked were signed by the proper officials, they were prima facie valid unless some departure from statutory mandates, which made the conveyance a nullity and void, was established. The burden in this respect was on the state in order to overcome the prima facie effect granted the deeds by former 72-8-43, 1953 Comp. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Tax titles subject to attack for failure of procedure. — While the title received from the state is a new and paramount title in fee simple absolute, tax titles are commonly subject to attack for failure to comply with statutory procedures in the assessment and collection of taxes, in the sale of properties because of failure to pay taxes and in the redemption from tax sale. State ex rel. State Tax Comm'n v. Garcia, 1967-NMSC-098, 77 N.M. 703, 427 P.2d 230.

B. STANDING.

Appellants without color of title have no standing to contest deed. — Since appellants could show no color of title, they did not have title to the land at the time of the sale and were not the owners of the land sold for taxes and, therefore, could not claim fraud nor contest appellee's tax deed under provisions of former version of this section. Griego v. Roybal, 1970-NMSC-021, 81 N.M. 202, 465 P.2d 85.

Mere possession of land is not such substantial right as would constitute "title" required by this section. Griego v. Roybal, 1970-NMSC-021, 81 N.M. 202, 465 P.2d 85.

State in no better position than other stranger. — The state is in no better position to avoid its deeds or to claim deprivation of rights guaranteed by statute to the prior owner than would be some other stranger to the right. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

State has no standing to assert rights of owners. — The rights preserved in the statutes are rights of "owners" as that term is interpreted, and the state cannot bring itself within the protection of those statutes. Unless the conveyances were void and a nullity, the state has no standing to assert rights given by statute to "owners" or "persons entitled to redeem." First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

C. PARTICULAR GROUNDS.

Fraud as grounds for challenge of tax deed. — Prior to 1973, constructive fraud by the officer selling property was a statutory ground for attacking a tax deed but in 1973, the legislature amended the Property Tax Code, omitting fraud by tax officials from the list of statutory grounds for attacking a tax deed. Cordova v. N.M. Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 2005-NMCA-009, 136 N.M. 713, 104 P.3d 1104.

Fraud by county treasurer avoids tax title. — Fraud on the part of the county treasurer, either actual or constructive, will suffice to avoid a tax title and save property from forfeiture. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060.

Constitutional and statutory notice requirements applicable to Subsection C. — The legislature did not intend to apply Subsection C when the state fails to comply with the notice requirements of Section 7-38-66 NMSA 1978 and federal and state constitutional due process requirements. Hoffman v. State, Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 1994-NMCA-032, 117 N.M. 263, 871 P.2d 27.

Notice of tax sale constitutionally inadequate. — The notice of a tax sale was constitutionally inadequate under both the United States and New Mexico Constitutions, since the notice was mailed only to the taxpayer's old address, the notice was returned with a stamp indicating that the forwarding address had expired, and the new location of the taxpayer was reasonably ascertainable since she had submitted a change of address to the county assessor. Hoffman v. State, Taxation & Revenue Dep't., 1994-NMCA-032, 117 N.M. 263, 871 P.2d 27.

Clear evidence necessary to set aside tax deed for fraud. — One seeking to set aside a tax title on the ground of fraud, actual or constructive, in giving out erroneous information, has the burden of establishing such fact by clear and convincing evidence, a mere preponderance will not suffice. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060; Gallegos v. Quinlan, 1980-NMSC-065, 94 N.M. 405, 611 P.2d 1099.

Tax deed obtained by fraud may be attacked without regard to statute of limitations. Gallegos v. Quinlan, 1980-NMSC-065, 94 N.M. 405, 611 P.2d 1099.

Payment of taxes under erroneous assessment good defense to sale. — When the owner of land who in good faith paid taxes under an erroneous assessment, thinking and intending the payment to cover the tax on his land, such payment constituted a good defense against the sale and tax deed based upon a second assessment of the same land with a proper description. Trujillo v. Montano, 1958-NMSC-079, 64 N.M. 259, 327 P.2d 326.

III. TITLE.

A. GENERALLY.

Former vendor's interest transferred. — Under Subsection B, all of the former vendor's interests in the real property were conveyed to the defendants by the tax deed because the vendor is a "former property owner." Thus, the vendor's legal title to the property was conveyed to the defendants because legal title is clearly an interest in real property. Further, the vendor lost its reversionary interest in the property because it lost legal title to the land. Southwest Land Inv., Inc. v. Hubbard, 1993-NMSC-072, 116 N.M. 742, 867 P.2d 412.

Former vendor's perfected interest does not survive. — The Property Tax Code states that "all of the former property owner's interest in the real property" is conveyed. The legislature did not limit the word "all". The second phrase states that the tax deed is accepted "subject only to perfected interests in the real property." The legislature chose to use the same language in both the first and second clauses. Reading these clauses together and giving them their plain meaning, the vendor's perfected security interest in the property did not survive the conveyance by the tax deed. The vendor was an owner under the code and its perfected security interest was an interest "in the real property." Even though the interest may have been perfected, because the interest was "in the real property" and because the vendor was an owner, the interest was conveyed along with all of the vendor's other interests in the property. Southwest Land Inv., Inc. v. Hubbard, 1993-NMSC-072, 116 N.M. 742, 867 P.2d 412.

The department is not required to execute and deliver a deed if the property was not sold in substantial compliance with the tax code. — Where, after a three-year period of nonpayment of delinquent property taxes by the owner of a ten-acre parcel of land located in Santa Fe county, the taxation and revenue department (department) placed the property up for sale at public auction, and where the property was sold to purchaser, the sole bidder, for the minimum price of $17,100, the amount of taxes, penalty, interest and costs owed to the state, and where, two days after the tax sale, the department invalidated the tax sale for not substantially complying with the requirements of the tax code after learning from a potential bidder that she had left the auction in reliance on the department's announcement and subsequent assurances that the parcel would not be sold that day, and where purchaser filed a petition for writ of mandamus in district court, asking the court to order the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel, and where the district court entered a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel of land, finding that even assuming the sale was not conducted substantially in accordance with the tax code, the department had a mandatory duty under the plain language of 7-38-70(A) NMSA 1978 to issue and deliver a tax deed to petitioner upon receiving payment for the property and that the department lacked the authority to invalidate the sale once payment was received, the district court erred in entering a peremptory writ of mandamus, because the legislature intended that the department's authority to invalidate a substantially flawed tax sale to continue until the department has reviewed the conduct of the sale and determined that a valid tax deed can be issued. Dearborn v. Clarke, 2024-NMCA-002.

Effect of multiple tax sale certificates. — Although a tax sale certificate to which the deed in question could be traced was issued at a time when the state already had title pursuant to an earlier certificate and tax deed, the state's conveyance to the property owner was nonetheless valid. Deeds from the state do not purport to convey interests acquired by the state under any particular tax deed, regardless of certain tax sale certificates or deeds that are referenced in the conveyance. A deed from the state is a conveyance of its interest in land, not its interest in a particular tax deed or tax sale certificate. Johnson v. Rodgers, 1991-NMSC-059, 112 N.M. 137, 812 P.2d 791.

Tax deed subject to subsequent lien under "betterment" statute. — To subject a tax deed to operation of a subsequent lien under the "betterment" statute, Section 42-4-18 NMSA 1978, is not in conflict with Subsection B of this section, governing the issuance and effect of tax deeds - to preclude such a lien would foreclose an avenue of security for those performing services upon the property and allow unjust enrichment. Cano v. Lovato, 1986-NMCA-043, 105 N.M. 522, 734 P.2d 762, cert. quashed, 105 N.M. 438, 733 P.2d 1321.

Mortgagees cannot extinguish mortgage by tax deed. — When a tax deed grantee is the previous owner of the property, his mortgage is not extinguished. In re Bouma, 32 Bankr., 619 (Bank. D.N.M. 1983).

Tax deed grants fee simple absolute. — Once land is sold by the state for delinquent taxes, the tax deed issued becomes a new and paramount title in fee simple absolute, striking down all previous titles and interests in the property. This is to ensure certainty and stability in tax titles, and to promote important social and economic objectives such as raising state revenues and promoting land improvement. Worman v. Echo Ridge Homes Coop., 1982-NMSC-081, 98 N.M. 237, 647 P.2d 870.

Perpetual grazing right extinguished by tax sale. — Alleged perpetual grazing right which arose either by express reservation in the deed or by prescription was extinguished by tax sale by the state. Huning v. Potts, 1977-NMSC-037, 90 N.M. 407, 564 P.2d 612.

Tax title is in nature of new and independent grant from the sovereign authority and is a new and paramount title in fee simple absolute, striking down all previous titles and interests in the property. Bailey v. Barranca, 1971-NMSC-074, 83 N.M. 90, 488 P.2d 725.

Fraudulent tax deed passes good title to bona fide purchaser. — A tax deed fraudulently obtained from the state is not void, but simply voidable, and there can be no cancellation when there has been a sale to a bona fide purchaser. State ex rel. State Tax Comm'n v. Garcia, 1967-NMSC-098, 77 N.M. 703, 427 P.2d 230.

Tenant may buy tax title. — A tenant who owes no duty to pay taxes for his landlord and who has not withheld rents due, or in some other manner lulled his landlord into tax delinquency, may, while in possession of the property, both buy a tax title and assert it. Gore v. Cone, 1955-NMSC-075, 60 N.M. 29, 287 P.2d 229.

B. PROPERTY DESCRIPTION.

The test of validity of a tax deed is whether the description is sufficient, aided by data furnished by it, to identify the property. The substitution of "NE" for "NW" resulted in the identification of an entirely different parcel of property than that which was intended to have been assessed. Ambiguity may not be resolved by reference to the description of the property in the assessment rolls of prior and subsequent years. Brylinski v. Cooper, 1981-NMSC-028, 95 N.M. 580, 624 P.2d 522.

Property conveyed. — Lands underlying a dam and reservoir and which are budgeted with severed easements for the maintenance and operation of the dam, were not covered by an assessment describing the estate as improvements. The lands were not sold for delinquent taxes and the tax deed, upon which plaintiff based its title, does not cover them. Rio Costilla Coop. Livestock Ass'n v. W.S. Ranch Co., 1970-NMSC-020, 81 N.M. 353, 467 P.2d 19.

The rules regarding sufficiency of descriptions in deeds are applicable to tax deeds. Hughes v. Meem, 1962-NMSC-039, 70 N.M. 122, 371 P.2d 235.

Sale not affected by error in survey number. — When the tax deed issued to the plaintiff described the land as being located in homestead entry survey 370, instead of 378, the error was so manifestly clerical that the validity of the sale could not be affected by it. Trujillo v. Montano, 1958-NMSC-079, 64 N.M. 259, 327 P.2d 326.

IV. REDEMPTION.

Tax deed issued before period of redemption has expired is void. First Nat'l Bank v. State, 1967-NMSC-097, 77 N.M. 695, 427 P.2d 225.

Contention plaintiff prevented right of redemption unfounded. — Plaintiff's contention that he was prevented from exercising his right of redemption on property sold to state for delinquent taxes by fraud of county tax assessor is unfounded where fraud is based on assessor's refusal to alter the description on tax rolls in the absence of a court order. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060.

Adverse possession protected by redemption. — The right to acquire title by adverse possession is capable of protection by means of redemption from a tax sale. Morris v. Ross, 1954-NMSC-063, 58 N.M. 379, 271 P.2d 823.

Effect of redemption will not be a transfer of the inchoate title of the purchaser at tax sale but will be to extinguish the tax sale; and, as to all other persons who might have had a right to redeem, the redemption is in their interest and, consequently, they are not adversely affected. Morris v. Ross, 1954-NMSC-063, 58 N.M. 379, 271 P.2d 823.

Failure of notice to redeem. — The failure of the treasurer to send notice that the property had been sold for taxes and of the tax commission to advise of the sale and of the preferential right of redemption or repurchase were at most irregularities which were covered by the curative provisions of this article. Brown v. Gurley, 1954-NMSC-025, 58 N.M. 153, 267 P.2d 134 (decided under prior law).

7-38-71. Distribution of amounts received from sale of property.

A. Money received by the department from the sale of real or personal property for delinquent property taxes shall be deposited in a suspense fund and distributed as follows:

(1) first, that portion equal to the costs shall be retained by the department for use, subject to appropriation by the legislature, in administration of the Property Tax Code;

(2) second, that portion equal to the penalties and interest due shall be retained by the department for use, subject to appropriation by the legislature, by the department in administration of the Property Tax Code;

(3) third, that portion equal to the delinquent taxes due shall be remitted by the department to the appropriate county treasurer for distribution by the treasurer to the governmental units in accordance with the law and the regulations of the department of finance and administration; and

(4) the balance shall be paid to the former owner of the property sold or to any other person designated by order directed to the department by a court of competent jurisdiction, provided that the department may first apply all or any portion of the balance to be paid against the amount of any property tax, including any penalty and interest related thereto, owed by the person to whom the balance would otherwise be paid.

B. As a condition precedent to payment of the balance of the sale amount received to the former owner of the property, the department may require any person claiming to be entitled to that payment to present sufficient evidence of proof of former ownership of the property to the department. The department shall adopt regulations providing for the procedures to be followed by persons claiming sale proceeds as former owners in those instances where conflicting claims exist or the department requires proof of ownership.

C. If no person claims the balance of sale proceeds, whether the property was sold under the provisions of the Property Tax Code or prior law, as the former owner of the property within two years of the date of the sale and after a reasonable search to determine the former owner is made by the department and no former owner is found, the balance of the sale proceeds shall be considered abandoned property and deposited in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act [Chapter 7, Article 8A NMSA 1978].

D. If the balance of proceeds from the sale after paying a higher priority claim under Subsection A of this section is insufficient to pay all of the next priority claim, then the complete balance shall be applied to that next priority claim as partial payment.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, rewrote Paragraph A(1) which read "first, that portion equal to the expenses of seizure and sale shall be retained by the department and these amounts are appropriated to the department for use in administration of the Property Tax Code" and made stylistic changes in Paragraph A(2).

The 1990 amendment, effective May 16, 1990, in Subsection A, rewrote Paragraph (2) which read "second, that portion equal to the penalties and interests due shall be remitted by the department, to the appropriate county treasurer for deposit in the county general fund" and added the proviso at the end of Paragraph (4) and, in Subsection C, substituted "Uniform Unclaimed Property Act" for "Uniform Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act".

A tax sale may be invalidated and rescheduled if not conducted substantially in accordance with the tax code so long as the deed has not yet been issued and delivered to the purchaser. — Where, after a three-year period of nonpayment of delinquent property taxes by the owner of a ten-acre parcel of land located in Santa Fe county, the taxation and revenue department (department) placed the property up for sale at public auction, and where the department complied with the notice requirements of 7-38-66 and 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978, but on the day before the auction, a department employee mistakenly notified the department personnel charged with preparing the next day's auction that the taxes on the parcel at issue had been paid and that the parcel should be removed from the list of properties for sale, and where, on the day of the auction, certain potential bidders left the auction after they were notified that the property would not be sold that day, and where the parcel was placed on a list of properties removed from the auction for a short period of time, but was returned to the auction list after the county treasurer's office informed the department that payment of delinquent taxes had not been made, and where the property was then sold to purchaser, the sole bidder, for the minimum price of $17,100, the amount of taxes, penalty, interest and costs owed to the state, and where, two days after the tax sale, the department invalidated the tax sale for not substantially complying with the requirements of the tax code after learning from a potential bidder that she had left the auction in reliance on the department's announcement and subsequent assurances that the parcel would not be sold on the day of the auction, and where purchaser filed a petition for writ of mandamus in district court, asking the court to order the department to issue a tax deed for the parcel, the district erred in entering a peremptory writ of mandamus ordering the department to issue a tax deed, because the parcel was not sold substantially in compliance with the public auction requirement of the tax code when the property was sold without recognizing the property owner's interest and right to receive any amount generated at public auction in excess of the debt to the state, and by announcing at the outset of the auction that the parcel would not be sold that day, the department essentially negated the prior notice to potential purchasers required by 7-38-67(B) NMSA 1978 and undermined the legislature's purpose in requiring a public auction to increase the sale price. Dearborn v. Clarke, 2024-NMCA-002.

7-38-72. Notation on property tax schedule by county treasurer when property sold for delinquent taxes.

When the county treasurer receives written notification from the division of the sale of property for delinquent taxes, he shall make an entry on the property tax schedule indicating that the delinquent property taxes, penalties and interest are no longer a lien against the property.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-72, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 112; 1982, ch. 28, § 27.

7-38-73. Department of finance and administration to promulgate regulations regarding accounting for and distribution of property taxes collected.

The department of finance and administration is authorized and directed to promulgate regulations covering the receipt of, accounting for and distribution of amounts received under the Property Tax Code by county treasurers as taxes. The department of finance and administration may provide in these regulations for the withholding of amounts of taxes to which the state is entitled to distribution in those instances when delinquent property taxes are paid to the department, but the regulations shall require that withheld taxes must be credited and shown as paid by the county treasurer on the property tax schedule.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-73, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 113.

7-38-74. Officers and employees engaged in the administration of the property tax prohibited from buying property sold for delinquent property taxes; penalties for violation; sales of real property in violation declared void.

A. Officers or employees of the state or of any of its political subdivisions engaged in the administration of the property tax may not, directly or indirectly, acquire an interest in, buy or profit from any property sold by the department for delinquent taxes except that an officer or employee may purchase property sold for delinquent taxes if he is the owner of the property and was the owner of the property at the time the taxes became delinquent.

B. Any officer or employee violating this section is guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned for not less than one year nor more than five years, or both. He shall also be automatically removed from office or have his employment terminated upon conviction.

C. A real property sale in violation of this section is void.

7-38-75. Exception to property tax due date.

When, because of provisions of the Property Tax Code, a property tax bill is required or authorized to be prepared and mailed or delivered on or by a date other than the date specified in Section 7-38-36 NMSA 1978, the due date of the property taxes involved shall be the date the property tax bill was mailed or delivered.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-75, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 115; 1974, ch. 92, § 25.

7-38-76. Property subject to property taxation but omitted from property tax schedules in prior years.

A. Subject to the limitations contained in the Property Tax Code and except as provided in Subsection B of this section, county assessors, treasurers and the department have the authority and the duty to enter in the valuation records, list on the property tax schedules, bill for and collect the taxes for all tax years on property that was subject to property taxation but was omitted from property tax schedules and for which taxes have not been paid but would be due except for the omission. Property tax bills shall be prepared and mailed by the county treasurers within thirty days of the date the omitted property is listed on the property tax schedule, and all taxes on omitted property shall be due the date the property tax bill is mailed.

B. Except for taxes due in the current tax year and the immediately preceding tax year, the current owner of the real estate is not liable for a property tax bill mailed pursuant to Subsection A of this section if:

(1) the omitted property is improvements that were placed on the real estate;
and

(2) the current owner was not the owner at the time the improvements were omitted and had no actual notice that the improvements were omitted.

C. Nothing in this section relieves the owner of the property at the time the improvements were omitted from being personally liable for the taxes due pursuant to Section 7-38-47 NMSA 1978.

D. The department shall promulgate regulations for the procedures to be followed and the records to be maintained in the administration and collection of taxes on omitted property. The department of finance and administration shall promulgate regulations covering the receipt of, accounting for and distribution of taxes on omitted property.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-76, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 116; 1974, ch. 92, § 26; 2003, ch. 95, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, inserted "and except as provided in Subsection B of this section" following "Property Tax Code" in Subsection A; added present Subsections B and C and redesignated former Subsection B as Subsection D.

7-38-77. Authority to make changes in property tax schedule after its delivery to the county treasurer.

A. After delivery of the property tax schedule to the county treasurer, the amounts shown on the schedule as taxes due and other information on the schedule shall not be changed except:

(1) by the county treasurer to correct obvious errors in the mathematical computation of taxes;

(2) by the county treasurer to correct obvious errors by the county assessor in:

(a) the name or address of the property owner or other persons shown on the schedule;

(b) the description of the property subject to property taxation, even if the correction results in a change in the amount shown on the schedule as taxes due;

(c) the data entry of the value, classification, allocation of value and limitation on increases in value pursuant to Sections 7-36-21.2 and 7-36-21.3 NMSA 1978 of property subject to property taxation by the county assessor; or

(d) the application of eligible, documented and qualified exemptions;

(3) by the county treasurer to cancel multiple valuations for property taxation purposes of the same property in a single tax year, but only if:

(a) a taxpayer presents tax receipts showing the payment of taxes by the taxpayer for any year in which multiple valuations for property taxation purposes are claimed to have been made;

(b) a taxpayer presents evidence of ownership of the property, satisfactory to the treasurer, as of January 1 of the year in which multiple valuations for property taxation purposes are claimed to have been made; and

(c) there is no dispute concerning ownership of the property called to the attention of the treasurer, and the treasurer has no actual knowledge of any dispute concerning ownership of the property;

(4) by the county treasurer, to correct the tax schedule so that it no longer contains personal property that is deemed to be unlocatable, unidentifiable or uncollectable, after thorough research with verification by the county assessor or appraiser, with notification to the department and the county clerk;

(5) as a result of a protest, including a claim for refund, in accordance with the Property Tax Code, of values, classification, allocations of values determined for property taxation purposes or a denial of a claim for an exemption;

(6) by the department or the order of a court as a result of any proceeding by the department to collect delinquent property taxes under the Property Tax Code;

(7) by a court order entered in an action commenced by a property owner under Section 7-38-78 NMSA 1978;

(8) by the department as authorized under Section 7-38-79 NMSA 1978;

(9) by the department of finance and administration as authorized under Section 7-38-77.1 NMSA 1978; or

(10) as specifically otherwise authorized in the Property Tax Code.

B. As used in this section, "obvious errors" does not include the method used to determine the valuation for, or a difference of opinion in the value of, the property subject to property taxation.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-77, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 117; 1974, ch. 92, § 27; 1981, ch. 37, § 79; 1995, ch. 65, § 1; 2000, ch. 32, § 1; 2015, ch. 39, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, designated authority to the county treasurer to correct certain obvious errors in the property tax schedule; designated the previously undesignated introductory sentence as Subsection A; designated former Subsection A as Paragraph (1) of Subsection A, and after "obvious", deleted "clerical"; deleted former Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection A; added the language of former Paragraph (3) of Subsection A to Paragraph (1); added a new Paragraph (2) of Subsection A; redesignated former Subsection B as Paragraph (3) of Subsection A, redesignated former Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of Subsection B as Subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Subsection A, respectively; in Subsection A(3)(a), after "taxes by", deleted "him" and added "the taxpayer"; in Subparagraph A(3)(c), after "and", deleted "he" and added "the treasurer"; redesignated former Subsections C, D, E, F, G, H and I as Paragraphs (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) and (10) of Subsection A, respectively; and added a new Subsection B.

Applicability. — Laws 2015, ch. 39, § 3 provided that the provisions of Laws 2015, ch. 39, § 1 apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, added present Subsection C and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "department" for "division" in Subsections D and F, added Subsection G, redesignated former Subsection G as Subsection H, and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection F.

Treasurer authorized to make corrections. — The treasurer is authorized, upon finding any property upon which taxes have become delinquent to be erroneously described or omitted from tax rolls, to correct any errors of description. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060.

Inadequacy of description. — If the description on the assessment rolls for any one of the years involved was sufficient, any inadequacy of description in any other of the years would be immaterial. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060.

Such as failure to say whether township was north or south is not fatal since all townships are north and all ranges east in Santa Fe county. Trujillo v. Dimas, 1956-NMSC-043, 61 N.M. 235, 297 P.2d 1060.

7-38-77.1. Changes in property tax schedule ordered by the department of finance and administration.

After the delivery of the property tax schedule to the county treasurer for any tax year, the department of finance and administration may order the county treasurer to make changes in the property tax schedule in connection with any property listed on the schedule if the department of finance and administration determines that an error was made in the certification of the tax rates.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-38-77.1, enacted by Laws 1995, ch. 65, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

7-38-78. Action by property owner in district court to change property tax schedule.

A. After the delivery of the property tax schedule to the county treasurer for a particular tax year, a property owner may bring an action in the district court requesting a change in the property tax schedule in connection with any property listed on the schedule for property taxation in which the owner claims an interest. The action shall be brought in the district court for the county for which the property tax schedule in question was prepared.

B. Actions brought under this section may not directly challenge the value, classification, allocations of value determined for property taxation purposes, denial of any exemption claimed or method used to determine the valuation for the property subject to property taxation. Actions brought under this section shall be founded on one or more of the following grounds:

(1) errors in the name or address of the property owner or other person shown on the schedule;

(2) errors in the description of the property for property taxation purposes, even if the correction results in a change in the amount shown on the schedule as taxes due;

(3) errors in the computation of taxes;

(4) errors in the property tax schedule relating to the payment or nonpayment of taxes;

(5) multiple valuations for property taxation purposes for a single tax year of the same property on the property tax schedule; or

(6) errors in the rate of tax set for any governmental unit in which the owner's property is located.

C. Actions brought under this section shall name the county treasurer as defendant. An action brought under Paragraph (6) of Subsection B of this section, shall also name the secretary of finance and administration as a defendant.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-78, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 118; 1974, ch. 92, § 28; 1981, ch. 37, § 80; 2015, ch. 39, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, amended the grounds for which a property owner may request a change to a property tax schedule; in the introductory paragraph of Subsection B, after "purposes", deleted "or", after "claimed", deleted "and must" and added "or method used to determine the valuation for the property subject to property taxation. Actions brought under this section shall"; in Paragraph (2) of Subsection B, after "purposes", added "even if the correction results in a change in the amount shown on the schedule as taxes due"; and in Subsection C, after "defendant.", deleted "and, if the" and added "An", and after "action", deleted "is".

Applicability. — Laws 2015, ch. 39, § 3 provided that the provisions of Laws 2015, ch. 39, § 2 apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

General statute of limitations applicable. — Because this section does not contain a time limit for filing the request for a change in the property tax schedule, the general statute of limitations of four years pursuant to Section 37-1-4 NMSA 1978 applies. Fed. Express Corp. v. Abeyta, 2004-NMCA-011, 135 N.M. 37, 84 P.3d 85, cert. granted, 2004-NMCERT-001, 135 N.M. 160, 85 P.3d 802.

When taxpayer makes computational errors in documents submitted to enable the taxing authorities to determine valuation, it is a case of error in valuation, and not computation, and therefore the sixty-day limit applies. Fed. Express Corp. v. Abeyta, 2004-NMCA-011, 135 N.M. 37, 84 P.3d 85, cert. granted, 2004-NMCERT-001, 135 N.M. 160, 85 P.3d 802.

Because taxpayer's claim was for refund based on incorrect allocation of the value of its property for tax purposes, its remedy was pursuant to Section 7-38-40 NMSA 1978, not this section. Fed. Express Corp. v. Abeyta, 2004-NMCA-011, 135 N.M. 37, 84 P.3d 85, cert. granted, 2004-NMCERT-001, 135 N.M. 160, 85 P.3d 802.

Authorized district court action limited to changes in property tax schedule and does not apply to refunds. Lovelace Ctr. for Health Sciences v. Beach, 1980-NMCA-004, 93 N.M. 793, 606 P.2d 203.

7-38-79. Changes in property tax schedule ordered by the division; action by the division in district court to enforce ordered changes.

A. After the delivery of the property tax schedule to the county treasurer but before the tax bill is mailed for a particular tax year, the division may order the county assessor or county treasurer, or both, to make changes in the property tax schedule in connection with any property listed on the schedule if any of the following actions have been taken in a manner that is not in compliance with the provisions of law or applicable regulations of the division:

- (1) an unprotested determination of value for property taxation purposes;
- (2) an unprotested allocation of values to governmental units;
- (3) an unprotested determination of classification; or
- (4) the application of the tax rates.

B. After the delivery of the property tax schedule to the county treasurer for a particular tax year, the division may order the county assessor or county treasurer, or both, to make changes in the property tax schedule in connection with any property listed on the schedule:

(1) for any of the reasons for which a county treasurer could change the property tax schedule under Section 7-38-77 NMSA 1978; or

(2) for any of the reasons for which a district court could order changes in the property tax schedule at the request of a property owner under Section 7-38-78 NMSA 1978 except for the reason specified in Paragraph (6) of Subsection B of that section.

C. Any action taken by the division under this section shall be by written order of the director. Copies of the order shall be mailed by certified mail to the property owner, the county assessor and the county treasurer.

D. If the county assessor or county treasurer refuses to make any changes ordered by the division under this section, the division may bring an action to enforce its order in the district court for the county involved.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-79, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 119; 1981, ch. 37, § 81.

7-38-80. Changes in property tax schedules as result of treasurer's action, department order or court order; collection of any additional property taxes due as result; refund of property taxes paid erroneously.

A. If, as a result of actions authorized under Sections 7-38-77 through 7-38-79 NMSA 1978, the county assessor or county treasurer makes changes in the property tax schedule that result in an increase in the tax liability of the property owner and, if a tax bill has already been mailed to the property owner for collection of the taxes on the property in question for the tax year involved, then an additional tax bill shall be prepared and mailed by the county treasurer to the property owner. The date the supplemental tax bill is mailed shall be used for determining the due dates for the collection of any additional property taxes.

B. If, as a result of actions authorized under Sections 7-38-77 through 7-38-79 NMSA 1978, the county assessor or county treasurer makes changes in the property tax schedule that result in a decrease in the property tax liability of the property owner and, if the property taxes on the property for the tax year involved have already been paid, then a refund of any excess property taxes paid shall be made to the property owner. Refunds under this section shall be made by the county treasurer in accordance with regulations of the department of finance and administration.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-80, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 120.

7-38-81. Limitation on actions for collection of property taxes; presumption of payment of property taxes after ten years.

A. Property may not be sold and proceedings may not be initiated for the collection of property taxes that have been delinquent for more than ten years.

B. Property that has not been included on a property tax schedule may not be subjected to the imposition of property taxes for more than ten tax years immediately preceding the date of its entry on the property tax schedule.

C. Property taxes that have been delinquent for more than ten years, together with any penalties and interest, are presumed to have been paid. The county treasurer shall indicate on the property tax schedule that all such property taxes and any penalties and interest have been "presumed paid by act of the legislature."

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-81, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 121.

7-38-81.1. Limitation on actions for collection of any levy or assessment in the form of property taxes; presumption of payment after ten years.

A. Property may not be sold and proceedings may not be initiated for the collection of any levy or assessment in the form of property taxes levied or assessed under the provisions of Sections 73-14-1 through 73-18-43 NMSA 1978 that have been delinquent for more than ten years.

B. Property that has not been included on a property tax schedule or a levy or assessment schedule may not be subjected to the imposition of any levy or assessment in the form of property taxes levied or assessed under the provisions of Sections 73-14-1 through 73-18-43 NMSA 1978 for more than ten tax years immediately preceding the date of its entry on the property tax schedule or levy or assessment schedule.

C. Any levy or assessment in the form of property taxes levied or assessed under the provisions of Sections 73-14-1 through 73-18-43 NMSA 1978 that has been delinquent for more than ten years, together with any penalties and interest, is presumed to have been paid. The county treasurer or appropriate conservancy district officer shall indicate on the property tax schedule or levy or assessment schedule that all such levies or assessments in the form of property taxes and any penalties and interest have been "presumed paid by act of the legislature".

D. The county treasurer may correct the tax schedule so that it no longer contains personal property that is deemed to be unlocatable, unidentifiable or uncollectable, after thorough research with verification by the county assessor or appraiser, with notification to the department and the county clerk.

History: Laws 1983, ch. 109, § 1; 2000, ch. 32, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2000 amendment, effective July 1, 2000, added Subsection D.

7-38-82. Duty of persons responsible for administration of property tax to ascertain the names of owners of property; use of term "unknown owner" prohibited except in certain cases; validity of procedures when name of owner is incorrect or unknown.

A. It is the duty of all persons charged with the administration and collection of the property tax to make diligent search and inquiry to determine the correct name and address of the owner of property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes and the imposition of the property tax.

B. The use of the term "unknown owner" in valuation records is prohibited except in those instances where diligent search and inquiry fail to result in the determination of the name of the owner of property.

C. Proceedings for the collection of delinquent property taxes are valid as to property sold for delinquent taxes even though the property owner's name or address shown on the valuation records was incorrect or the property was shown on the valuation records as owned by an "unknown owner."

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-82, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 122.

ANNOTATIONS

Duty of department. — The division (department) has an affirmative duty to seek out, by "diligent search and inquiry", the correct address of each property owner, and failure to do so may violate due process. Patrick v. Rice, 1991-NMCA-063, 112 N.M. 285, 814 P.2d 463, cert. denied, 112 N.M. 308, 815 P.2d 161.

Failure to notify of tax sale. — Since county tax officials and the property tax division were placed on notice that notices to a taxpayer were returned as undeliverable, but they did not check the estate tax records on file in the division's office, which would have indicated that the taxpayer had died and that a personal representative of the decedent's estate had been appointed, along with sufficient information whereby the name and address of the representative were readily ascertainable, the failure of the division to notify the representative invalidated the subsequent tax sale. Fulton v. Cornelius, 1988-NMCA-057, 107 N.M. 362, 758 P.2d 312.

7-38-83. Timeliness.

A. When the last day for performing an act falls on Saturday, Sunday or a legal state or national holiday, the performance of the act is timely if performed on the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal state or national holiday.

B. All acts required or permitted to be done by mail are timely if postmarked on the required date.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-83, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 123.

7-38-84. Notices; mailing.

A. Any notice that is required to be made to a property owner by the Property Tax Code is effective if mailed by regular first class mail to the property owner's last address or to the address of any person other than the owner to whom the tax bill is to be sent as shown by the valuation records unless the provisions of that code require a different method of notification or mailing, in which case the notice is effective if given in accordance with the provisions of that code.

B. If a property owner notifies, in writing or by electronic mail, the county assessor or the county treasurer that the property owner wants to receive notices pursuant to the Property Tax Code by electronic mail rather than by regular first class mail, the county assessor or the county treasurer may thereafter provide such notices to the property owner using an electronic mail address provided by the property owner; provided that the notice is consistent with the requirements of the Electronic Authentication of Documents Act [14-15-1 to 14-15-6 NMSA 1978] and the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act [Chapter 14, Article 16 NMSA 1978]. A property owner's request to receive notices by electronic mail shall be effective until revoked in writing or by electronic mail to the county assessor and the county treasurer. Wherever the Property Tax Code requires a method of notification or mailing done only by the county assessor or county treasurer, other than by regular first class mail, the notice is effective if given in accordance with the provisions of that code.

C. An electronic mail address provided by a property owner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a valuation record pursuant to Section 7-38-19 NMSA 1978 and shall be retained by the county assessor as a confidential record that is not subject to inspection pursuant to the Inspection of Public Records Act [Chapter 14, Article 2 NMSA 1978].

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-84, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 124; 1974, ch. 92, § 29; 2015, ch. 2, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, provided property owners the option of receiving notices under this section via electronic mail rather than by first class mail, set forth the election procedure, and provided that electronic mail addresses be retained by the county assessor as confidential records; designated the previously undesignated paragraph as Subsection A, and after "the provisions of", deleted "the" and added "that" in two places; and added Subsections B and C.

7-38-85. Extension of deadlines; general provision.

The director may extend any deadline in the Property Tax Code for a period of time not in excess of six months. However, this section does not permit the extension of deadlines for an individual property owner nor does it permit successive extensions of a deadline for a cumulative period of more than six months. Extensions may be made applicable to one or more counties. Extension of deadlines authorized by this section shall be made by written order of the director and notice of the extension shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in the state to which the extension applies once each week for a period of three weeks immediately succeeding the week in which the deadline being extended occurs. When more than one deadline is extended under this section, the notice required to be published may include all extensions, and publication need only be made for the three weeks immediately succeeding the week in which the first deadline being extended occurs.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-85, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 125; 1979, ch. 59, § 1.

7-38-86. Extension of deadlines at request of property owners.

The director may extend the time by which reports are required to be filed under Subsection A of Section 7-38-8 NMSA 1978 at the written request of the property owner. The request must be received by the department prior to the date by which the required report must be made. Extensions granted under this section shall be by written order of the director and shall be for a period of not more than thirty days. The director shall not grant more than one extension in a tax year for a property owner in respect to the same property.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-86, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 126.

7-38-87. Administrative regulations; promulgation; general provisions.

A. Except for regulations promulgated by the department, regulations authorized or directed to be promulgated under the Property Tax Code may be promulgated by the authorized governmental agency without prior notice or hearing and shall become effective when filed in accordance with the State Rules Act [Chapter 14, Article 4 NMSA 1978].

B. All regulations promulgated under the Property Tax Code shall be applied prospectively only unless there is a statement in the regulation that it is to have retroactive effect and a statement of the extent of any retroactive effect.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-87, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 127; 1974, ch. 92, § 30; 1982, ch. 28, § 28; 1991, ch. 166, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, in Subsection A, added the exception at the beginning and deleted "except for those regulations required to be promulgated by the division under the provisions of Section 7-38-88 NMSA 1978" at the end.

7-38-88. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1991, ch. 166, § 14 repealed 7-38-88 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 128, relating to procedures for adopting, amending or repealing certain department regulations, effective June 14, 1991. For provisions of former section, see the 1990 NMSA 1978 on NMOneSource.com.

7-38-89. Validity of certain regulations; judicial review.

A. Any person who is or may be adversely affected by the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation promulgated by an authorized governmental agency other than the department under Section 7-38-87 NMSA 1978 may appeal that action to the court of appeals. All appeals shall be on the record made at the hearing and must be perfected by filing a notice of appeal in the court of appeals within thirty days after the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation is filed pursuant to law.

B. The notice of appeal required to be filed under this section shall include a concise statement of the facts upon which jurisdiction is based, the grounds upon which relief is sought and the relief requested. The notice shall also include a statement that arrangements have been made with the governmental agency for preparation of the record to support his appeal to the court and to provide the governmental agency with a copy. Costs of appeal, including cost of the record, may be charged against the parties by order of the court of appeals in its discretion.

C. Copies of the notice of appeal shall be served upon the governmental agency and proof of service shall be filed with the court in the manner and within the time prescribed by the rules of appellate procedure.

D. The filing of a notice of appeal does not stay the effective date of the action appealed from, but the governmental agency may grant, or the court may order, a stay upon appropriate terms.

E. Within thirty days after the service of the notice of appeal or within such greater time as the court may allow, the governmental agency shall file in the court the original or a certified copy of the record of the proceedings appealed from. The record shall consist of:

- (1) the entire proceedings;
- (2) portions of the proceedings to which the governmental agency and the appellant stipulate; or
- (3) a statement of the case agreed to by the governmental agency and the appellant.

F. If the record is to be of the entire proceedings or portions of the proceedings, it shall be a verbatim written transcript or, if permitted by the court of appeals, it may be an electronic recording. It shall also include copies of documentary evidence admitted at the hearing or during those portions of the hearing that are stipulated to as the record.

G. In any proceeding for judicial review of the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation, the court may set aside the action or remand the case to the governmental agency for further proceedings only if it determines that the action is:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion;

- (2) not supported by substantial evidence in the record taken as a whole; or
- (3) otherwise not in accordance with law.

H. If the court determines that the action appealed is free from the errors specified under Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection G of this section, it shall affirm the action.

History: 1953 Comp., § 72-31-89, enacted by Laws 1973, ch. 258, § 129; 1982, ch. 28, § 29; 1983, ch. 215, § 7; 1991, ch. 166, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For jurisdiction of court of appeals, see N.M. Const., art. VI, § 29.

For special statutory proceedings, see Rule 12-601 NMRA.

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, substituted "governmental agency" for "division" throughout the section; inserted "promulgated by an authorized governmental agency other than the department" and substituted "7-38-87" for "7-38-88" in the first sentence in Subsection A; and rewrote Subsection C which read "Copies of the notice of appeal shall be served personally or by certified mail upon the division no later than ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal and proof of service shall be filed with the court within twenty days after the filing of a notice of appeal."

ARTICLE 39

Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax

7-39-1. Short title.

Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-1, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-2. Definitions.

As used in the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act:

A. "average price" means for any mineral the average price for the appropriate period determined from published price data in the manner specified by regulation;

B. "copper mineral property" means all mineral property and property held in connection with mineral property when seventy-five percent or more, by either weight or value, of the salable mineral produced from or by the mineral property is copper;

C. "copper production ad valorem tax" means the tax imposed by the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act;

D. "department" means, unless the context requires otherwise, the taxation and revenue department, the secretary of taxation and revenue or any employee of the department exercising authority lawfully delegated to that employee by the secretary;

E. "new copper mineral property" means either a copper mineral property that began operations on a commercial basis within the three-year period immediately preceding the tax year for which value is being determined or a copper mineral property that was valued and taxed under the Property Tax Code [Chapter 7, Articles 35 through 38 NMSA 1978] for any tax year subsequent to the 1990 property tax year within the three-year period immediately preceding the tax year for which value is being determined;

F. "produced" means the altered form, character or condition of a mineral that is the product of a particular process;

G. "taxable value" means the value of property determined by applying the tax ratio to the valuation of the copper mineral property determined for purposes of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act;

H. "tax ratio" means the percentage established under the Property Tax Code that is applied to the value of property determined for property taxation purposes to derive taxable value, as that term is defined in the Property Tax Code; and

I. "value of salable copper and other minerals" means:

(1) for new copper mineral properties, the sum, for copper and each other mineral produced, of the product of the salable amount of the mineral produced during the interval beginning with the month in which operations on a commercial basis began or recommenced and ending with the last month of production preceding the tax year for which valuation is being determined; multiplied by the normalization factor which is a fraction, the numerator of which is twelve and the denominator of which is the number of months within the interval beginning with the month in which operations on a commercial basis began or recommenced and ending with the last month of production preceding the tax year for which valuation is being determined; further multiplied by the average price for the interval beginning with the month in which operations on a commercial basis began or recommenced and ending with the last month of production preceding the tax year for which valuation is being determined; and

(2) for all other copper mineral properties the sum, for copper and each other mineral produced, of the product of the quotient of the salable amount of the mineral produced during the three calendar years immediately preceding the year for which valuation is being determined divided by three; multiplied by the average price for the three-year period.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-2, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-3. Application of act.

The provisions of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act apply to the valuation of all productive copper mineral property.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-3, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-4. Valuation of copper mineral property.

A. The valuation for purposes of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act of copper mineral property of the following types shall be determined annually, except as provided otherwise in Subsection B, C or D of this section, as follows:

(1) the value of any mine and all real property and personal property held or used for the mining of ore from the mine:

(a) any part of which is mined for processing in a concentrator shall be thirty percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals contained in concentrate produced from the ore produced from the mine; or

(b) which is mined solely for solvent extraction or electrowinning shall be twenty percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals produced through solvent extraction or electrowinning from the ore produced from the mine;

(2) the value of a concentrator and all real property and personal property held or used in connection with the concentrator shall be twenty-five percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals contained in concentrate produced in the concentrator;

(3) the value of a precipitation plant and all real property and personal property held or used in connection with the precipitation plant shall be twenty-five percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals contained in precipitate produced in the precipitation plant;

(4) the value of the solvent extraction or electrowinning plant and all real property and personal property held or used in connection with the solvent extraction or electrowinning plant shall be one hundred thirty-five percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals produced through the solvent extraction or electrowinning process, less four times the value of property determined for the same tax year under Subparagraph (b) of Paragraph (1) of this subsection; and

(5) the value of a smelter and all real property and personal property held or used in connection with the smelter shall be twenty-one percent of the value of salable copper and other minerals produced in the smelter.

B. A property, which has been valued in accordance with the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act in any preceding year and which is permanently shut down on or before January 1 of any year for which a valuation is to be made under the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act, is no longer subject to the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act and is subject instead to the provisions of the Property Tax Code [Chapter 7, Articles 35 through 38 NMSA 1978].

C. A copper mineral property from which no copper or other minerals were mined or processed during a period of at least twelve months immediately prior to the beginning of the tax year for which valuation is being determined is not subject to the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act and is subject instead to the provisions of the Property Tax Code.

D. This subsection applies only to copper mineral properties with respect to which the owner, as part of the annual report to the department, declares for the tax year for which valuation is being determined or has declared for any prior tax year that a copper mineral property will remain in operation for a period less than four years and will not be replaced or reconstructed:

(1) the valuation of a copper mineral property subject to this subsection shall be the value determined under Subsection A of this section for that property multiplied by:

(a) twenty-five percent for properties with an anticipated operating period of less than one year as of the beginning of the tax year for which valuation is being determined;

(b) forty-five percent for properties with an anticipated operating period of at least one year but less than two years as of the beginning of the tax year for which valuation is being determined;

(c) sixty percent for properties with an anticipated operating period of at least two years but less than three years as of the beginning of the tax year for which valuation is being determined; and

(d) seventy-five percent for properties with an anticipated operating period of at least three years but less than four years as of the beginning of the tax year for which valuation is being determined; and

(2) if the owner declared in a prior annual report that the copper mineral property would remain in operation for a period less than four years and the owner, in the annual report for the tax year for which valuation is being determined, does not declare that the property will remain in operation for a period less than four years, declares that permanent shutdown is not anticipated within four years or declares that permanent shutdown is anticipated in a year subsequent to the year declared in the prior tax year, there shall be added to the property's valuation determined under Subsection A of this section or Paragraph (1) of this subsection, as appropriate, one hundred percent of:

(a) if the owner fails to make a declaration or declares that the property will remain in operation for a period of at least four years, the difference between the valuation for the property determined solely under Subsection A of this section for each prior tax year in which the owner had declared the property would remain in operation for a period less than four years and the respective valuations in those prior tax years determined under this subsection; or

(b) if the year of anticipated permanent shutdown declared in the prior tax year annual report is earlier than that in the subsequent annual report, the difference between the valuation for the prior tax year determined under this subsection using the later date of anticipated permanent shutdown and the valuation for that prior tax year determined under this subsection in that prior tax year; and

(3) when value is added pursuant to Paragraph (2) of this subsection to the valuation otherwise determined for the copper mineral property, the property owner shall pay interest at the rate determined under Section 7-1-67 NMSA 1978 on the additional taxes due and penalty at the rate determined under Subsection A of Section 7-1-69 NMSA 1978. The interest and penalty shall be measured from the dates that the taxes were due to have been paid for the tax year from which the additional valuation derived.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-4, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-5. Annual report of value.

Each tax year the owner of a copper mineral property shall report to the department on the forms and in the manner prescribed by the department the value, for purposes of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act, of each copper mineral property owned and the taxing jurisdictions in which each property is located. The report shall also contain a declaration of the year in which the owner expects the copper mineral property to be permanently shut down if permanent shutdown is expected within four years. A declaration shall be made in each annual report subsequent to an annual report in which such a declaration is first made for the copper mineral property. The report shall be submitted on or before March 31 of the tax year for which value is being determined. The report required by this subsection may be referred to as the "annual report".

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-5, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-6. Notification to department of finance and administration and counties.

By August 1 of each year, the department shall prepare and send to the department of finance and administration schedules of the taxable value and taxing jurisdictions of each copper mineral property. The taxable values shown on the schedules shall be used by the department of finance and administration in setting property tax rates. A copy of the schedule for the county shall be sent to the assessors of the respective counties in which copper mineral property is located, who shall accept the schedules as the assessment of copper mineral property required under the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-6, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 13.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-7. Determination of taxable values for taxing districts.

To determine for any purpose the total taxable value of property required to be taxed under the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act for any taxing jurisdiction for any year after 1990, the taxable value of copper mineral property for the taxing jurisdiction entered upon the schedules prepared under the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act for the tax year preceding the determination shall be used.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-7, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 14.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-8. Ad valorem tax levied.

An ad valorem tax is levied upon the owner of each copper mineral property that is not subject to valuation and taxation under the provisions of the Property Tax Code [Chapter 7, Articles 35 through 38 NMSA 1978]. The amount of the tax shall be equal to the product of the taxable value determined for each copper mineral property owned multiplied by the rate certified to the department by the department of finance and administration for nonresidential property under the provisions of Sections 7-37-7 and 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978 for the taxing jurisdictions in which the copper mineral property is located.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-8, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 15.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-9. Notification of tax rate; due date.

A. On or before November 1 of each tax year the department shall notify the owner or operator of each copper mineral property, to which the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act applies, of the tax rates that have been established for the taxing jurisdictions in which the copper mineral property is located, the taxable value of the copper mineral property and the amount of the copper production ad valorem tax due.

B. The copper production ad valorem tax is payable in two equal installments due on December 10 of the year for which tax is assessed and on May 10 of the following year. Payment shall be made to the department. No demand for payment of the copper production ad valorem tax is necessary.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-9, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 16.

ANNOTATIONS

7-39-10. Monthly report to department of finance and administration; remittances to state and county treasurers; state and county treasurers may distribute funds.

A. By the last day of each month, the department shall prepare and certify a report to the secretary of finance and administration. The report shall be for the preceding month and shall show the amount of copper production ad valorem tax distributed to the copper production tax fund, the amount due the state and each taxing district imposing a tax and any other information required by the secretary of finance and administration. The secretary of finance and administration shall forthwith remit the appropriate amounts from the copper production tax fund to the state treasurer and the county treasurers who shall make the appropriate distribution, except as provided in Subsection B of this section.

B. If the board of county commissioners notifies the secretary of finance and administration that the county elects not to distribute the proceeds of the copper production ad valorem tax due to the municipalities and school districts in the county, the secretary of finance and administration shall pay amounts due directly to municipalities and school districts within the county.

History: 1978 Comp., § 7-39-10, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 17.

ANNOTATIONS

Nonseverability. — Laws 1990, ch. 125, § 19 provides that the provisions of the Copper Production Ad Valorem Tax Act [Chapter 7, Article 39 NMSA 1978] and the corresponding amendments made in that act to the Property Tax Code [Articles 35 to 38 of Chapter 7 NMSA 1978] are not severable.

History: Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 2; 2021, ch. 65, § 34.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, defined "self-insured group" and revised the definition of "taxpayer", as used in the Insurance Premium Tax Act; added new Subsection J and redesignated former Subsections J through N as Subsections K through O, respectively; and in Subsection N, added Paragraph N(7).

7-40-3. Imposition and rate of tax; denomination of "premium tax", "health insurance premium surtax" and "self-insured group tax".

A. The tax imposed pursuant to this subsection may be referred to as the "premium tax". The premium tax is imposed at a rate of three and three-thousandths percent of the gross premiums and membership and policy fees received or written by a taxpayer or, with respect to a taxpayer that is an insured that procures, continues or renews insurance with a nonadmitted insurer, paid by the taxpayer, on insurance or contracts covering risks within the state during the preceding calendar year. The premium tax shall not be imposed on self-insured groups or on return premiums, dividends paid or credited to policyholders or contract holders and premiums received for reinsurance on New Mexico risks.

B. For a taxpayer that is an insurer lawfully organized pursuant to the laws of the Republic of Mexico, the premium tax shall apply solely to the taxpayer's gross premium receipts from insurance policies issued by the taxpayer in New Mexico that cover residents of New Mexico or property or risks principally domiciled or located in New Mexico.

C. With respect to a taxpayer that is a property bondsman, "gross premiums" shall be considered any consideration received as security or surety for a bail bond in connection with a judicial proceeding.

D. The premium tax provided in Subsection A of this section is imposed on the gross premiums received of a surplus lines broker, less return premiums, on surplus lines insurance where New Mexico is the home state of the insured transacted under the surplus lines broker's license, as reported by the surplus lines broker to the department on forms and in the manner prescribed by the department. For purposes of this subsection, "gross premiums" shall include any additional amount charged the insured, including policy fees, risk purchasing group fees and inspection fees; but "premiums" shall not include any additional amount charged the insured for local, state or federal taxes; regulatory authority fees; or examination fees, if any. For a surplus lines policy issued to an insured whose home state is New Mexico and where only a portion of the risk is located in New Mexico, the entire premium tax shall be paid in accordance with this section.

E. In addition to the premium tax, except as provided in Subsection F of this section, a health insurance premium surtax is imposed at a rate of three and seventy-five hundredths percent of the gross health insurance premiums and membership and policy fees received by the taxpayer on hospital and medical expense incurred insurance or contracts; nonprofit health care plan contracts, excluding dental or vision only contracts; and health maintenance organization subscriber contracts covering health risks within this state during the preceding calendar year. The surtax shall not apply to return health insurance premiums, dividends paid or credited to policyholders or contract holders and health insurance premiums received for reinsurance on New Mexico risks. The surtax imposed pursuant to this subsection may be referred to as the "health insurance premium surtax".

F. If an act of the United States congress is signed into law that imposes the annual fee on health insurance providers pursuant to Section 9010 of the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, or that imposes a substantially similar fee on the same class of taxpayers, the rate of the health insurance premium surtax shall be decreased at a rate equal to the rate of the annual fee imposed; provided that the rate of the health insurance premium surtax shall not be less than one percent. A reduction in the health insurance premium surtax pursuant to this subsection shall go into effect on the later of the effective date of the imposition of the federal annual fee or ninety days after the congressional act imposing the federal annual fee is signed into law.

G. A tax is imposed at a rate of nine-tenths percent on the net premiums, as defined in the Group Self-Insurance Act, received or written by a self-insured group within the state during the preceding calendar year. The tax imposed pursuant to this subsection may be referred to as the "self-insured group tax".

History: Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 3; 2021, ch. 65, § 35; 2021, ch. 136, § 2; 2023, ch. 85, § 21.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, clarified that the insurance premium tax applies to insurers who procure or renew insurance with a non-admitted insurer; and in Subsection A, after "received or written by a taxpayer", added "or, with respect to a taxpayer that is an insured that procures, continues or renews insurance with a nonadmitted insurer, paid by the taxpayer".

2021 Amendments. — Laws 2021, ch. 136, § 2, effective January 1, 2022, increased the health insurance premium surtax, and provided for a reduction in the surtax if congress imposes the annual fee on health insurance providers pursuant to the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act or imposes a substantially similar fee on the same class of taxpayers; in Subsection E, after "premium tax", added "except as provided in Subsection F of this section", and after "imposed at a rate of", deleted "one" and added "three and seventy-five hundredths"; and added Subsection F.

Laws 2021, ch. 65, § 35, effective July 1, 2021, imposed a self-insured group tax, and made conforming amendments; in Subsection A, after "written by a taxpayer", deleted "as reported by March 1 of each year to the department in the appropriate schedule, as determined by the department, of the taxpayer's annual financial statement", after the next occurrence of "The", added "premium", and after "shall not be imposed on", added "self-insured groups or on"; and added Subsection F.

7-40-4. Reciprocity provision.

A. When by or pursuant to the laws of any other state or foreign country or province, any taxes, in the aggregate, are or would be imposed upon New Mexico insurers doing business or that might seek to do business in such state, country or province, or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers or upon brokers or adjusters, which are in excess of such taxes, in the aggregate, directly imposed upon similar insurers, or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers, or upon brokers, or upon adjusters, of such other state, country or province under the statutes of this state, so long as such laws of such other state, country or province continue in force or are so applied, the same taxes, in the aggregate, may be imposed by the secretary upon the insurers, or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers, or upon brokers of such other state, country or province, doing business or seeking to do business in New Mexico. Any tax imposed by any city, county or other political subdivision or agency of such other state, country or province on New Mexico insurers or their agents, representatives, brokers or adjusters shall be deemed to be imposed by such state, country or province within the meaning of this section.

B. This section does not apply as to:

- (1) personal income taxes;
- (2) ad valorem taxes on real or personal property; or
- (3) special purpose obligations or assessments, or assessments under insurance guaranty fund laws, imposed by another state in connection with particular kinds of insurance, except that assessment of insurers for financing of public safety, health and protection purposes is not exempt under this subsection. Except that deductions from premium taxes or other taxes otherwise payable, allowed on account of real or personal property taxes paid shall be taken into consideration by the secretary in determining propriety and extent of reciprocity action under this section.

C. For purposes of this section, domicile of an alien insurer, other than Canadian insurer, shall be that state designated by the insurer in writing filed with the secretary at time of authorization in this state or within six months after the effective date of the New Mexico Insurance Code [Chapter 59A NMSA 1978, except for Articles 30A and 42A], whichever date is the later, and may be any one of the following states:

- (1) that in which the insurer was first authorized to transact insurance;
- (2) that in which is located the insurer's principal place of business in the United States; or
- (3) that in which is held the largest deposit of trusteed assets of the insurer for protection of its policyholders in the United States.

D. If the insurer makes no such designation, its domicile shall be deemed to be that state in which is located its principal place of business in the United States.

E. The domicile of a Canadian insurer shall be Canada and the province of Canada in which its head office is located.

Effective dates. — Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 32 made Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 4 effective January 1, 2020.

7-40-5. Exemptions.

Exempted from the taxes imposed pursuant to the Insurance Premium Tax Act are:

A. premiums attributable to insurance or contracts purchased by the state or a political subdivision for the state's or political subdivision's active or retired employees;

B. payments received by a health maintenance organization from the federal secretary of health and human services pursuant to a risk-sharing contract issued under the provisions of 42 U.S.C. Section 1395mm(g);

C. any business transacted pursuant to the provisions of the Service Contract Regulation Act [Chapter 59A, Article 58 NMSA 1978];

D. the premiums from each policy or plan issued or offered pursuant to the Minimum Healthcare Protection Act [Chapter 59A, Article 23B NMSA 1978] during the first three years of the issuance of the master policy or individual policy; and

E. the money collected and placed in trust pursuant to Section 59A-49-6 NMSA 1978.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 32 made Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 5 effective January 1, 2020.

7-40-6. Credit; medical insurance pool assessments.

The assessment for any New Mexico medical insurance pool member pursuant to Section 59A-54-10 NMSA 1978 shall be allowed as a fifty percent credit on the tax return for that member and a seventy-five percent credit on the tax return for that member for the assessments attributable to pool policyholders that receive premiums, in whole or in part, through the federal Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency Act of 1990, the Ted R. Montoya hemophilia program at the university of New Mexico health sciences center, the children's medical services bureau of the public health division of the department of health or other program receiving state funding or assistance. That portion of credit that exceeds a member's premium tax liability in the taxable period in which the credit is claimed shall not be refunded and shall not be carried forward to subsequent taxable periods.

History: Laws 2018, ch. 57, § 6; 2023, ch. 85, § 22.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Ryan White CARE Act, see 42 U.S.C.A. Sections 300ff-11 et seq.

The 2023 amendment, effective July 1, 2023, provided that the portion of credit for assessments contributed to the New Mexico medical insurance pool that exceeds a member's premium tax liability shall not be refunded and shall not be carried forward to subsequent taxable periods; and made certain technical amendments; after "Ryan White", deleted "CARE" and added "Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency", after "Act", added "of 1990", and added "That portion of credit that exceeds a member's premium tax liability in the taxable period in which the credit is claimed shall not be refunded and shall not be carried forward to subsequent taxable periods."

7-40-7. Date payment due.

A. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section, for each calendar quarter, an estimated payment of the premium tax and the health insurance premium surtax shall be made on April 15, July 15, October 15 and the following January 15. The estimated payments shall be equal to at least one-fourth of the payment made during the previous calendar year or one-fifth of the actual payment due for the current calendar year, whichever is greater. The final adjustment for payments due for the prior year shall be made with the return filed on April 15, at which time all taxes for that year are due.

B. Within sixty days after expiration of a calendar quarter, a surplus lines broker shall pay the premium tax due on surplus lines insurance where New Mexico is the home state of the insured transacted under the surplus lines broker's license during such calendar quarter, as reported to the department.

C. For each calendar quarter, an estimated payment of the self-insured group tax shall be made on April 15, July 15, October 15 and the following January 15. The estimated payments shall be equal to at least one-fourth of the payment made during the previous calendar year. The final adjustment for payments due for the prior year shall be made with the return filed on April 15, at which time all taxes for that year are due.

7-41-4. Health care quality surcharge; rate calculation; date payment due.

A. A surcharge is imposed on each health care facility. The surcharge shall be per day for each non-medicare bed day. The rate of the surcharge shall be annually calculated by the human services department [health care authority department] pursuant to Subsection B of this section.

B. No later than sixty days following the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act and by June 1 of each year thereafter, the human services department [health care authority department] shall calculate the rate of the surcharge to be paid by each health care facility during the subsequent fiscal year and shall notify the taxation and revenue department and each such health care facility of the applicable rates. In calculating the rates, the human services department [health care authority department] shall:

(1) set a uniform rate per non-medicare day in health care facilities not to exceed the maximum allowed by federal law governing the approval of the state medicaid plan or any waiver from that plan;

(2) structure the rates for each skilled nursing facility and intermediate care facility so that the total estimated revenue received in the subsequent fiscal year from all those facilities will equal six percent of the net revenue received in the aggregate by those health care facilities in the previous calendar year; and

(3) structure the rates for each intermediate care facility for individuals with intellectual disabilities so that the total estimated revenue received in the subsequent fiscal year from all those facilities will equal six percent of the net revenue received in the aggregate by all those facilities in the previous calendar year.

C. If the rate of net revenue provided in Paragraph (2) or (3) of Subsection B of this section exceeds the maximum percentage of net revenue for all health care facilities allowed by Section 1903(w)(4) of the federal Social Security Act, as that section may be amended or renumbered, the rate of the health care quality surcharge shall be reduced to a percentage that will equal, but not exceed, the maximum percentage allowed by that federal law.

D. If the rate of net revenue provided in Paragraph (3) of Subsection B of this section results in medicaid fee-for-service and medicaid managed care reimbursement rates that exceed the upper payment limits allowed by Section 1902(a)(30)(A) of the federal Social Security Act, as that section may be amended or renumbered, the rate of the health care quality surcharge shall be reduced to a percentage that will result in reimbursement rates that equal, but do not exceed, those limits.

E. No later than thirty days following the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act, a health care facility shall report to the human services department [health care authority department] the number of resident days provided by the health care facility, broken down by payer, and the net revenue earned by the health care facility for each of the most recent four calendar quarters available. On each January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 thereafter, a health care facility shall report to the human services department [health care authority department] the number of resident days provided by the health care facility, broken down by payer, and the net revenue earned by the health care facility for the calendar quarter prior to the previous quarter.

F. The surcharge imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "health care quality surcharge". Health care quality surcharge payments are due quarterly by the twenty-fifth day of the month subsequent to the end of each calendar quarter based upon the non-medicare bed days reported on the most recently filed calendar quarter report required pursuant to Subsection E of this section. Initial health care quality surcharge payments shall be based upon the non-medicare bed days reported on the most recently filed calendar quarter report required pursuant to Subsection E of this section closest to the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act.

7-41-6. Health care facility fund; disability health care facility fund.

A. The "health care facility fund" and the "disability health care facility fund" are created in the state treasury. The funds consist of appropriations, distributions, transfers, gifts, grants, donations and bequests made to the funds and income from the investment of the funds. The funds shall be administered by the human services department [health care authority department], and money in the funds is subject to appropriation by the legislature to the human services department [health care authority department] to carry out the purposes provided in this section. Money in the funds shall be disbursed on warrants signed by the secretary of finance and administration pursuant to vouchers signed by the secretary of human services or the secretary's authorized representative. Any balance remaining in the funds at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund.

B. At least eighty percent of the money in the health care facility fund shall be used for the following purposes and in the following order of priority for skilled nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities:

(1) to increase per diem rates to those facilities for the medicaid share of the health care quality surcharge as a pass-through, medicaid-allowable cost;

(2) to annually increase, on a per diem basis, as provided by rule promulgated by the human services department [health care authority department], each facility's respective medicaid fee-for-service and medicaid managed care reimbursement rates above those in effect upon the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act and in subsequent years thereafter by at least the rate of nursing home inflation for the rate year as published on behalf of the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services; and

(3) to provide financial incentives in the form of supplemental payments, paid no less frequently than quarterly, based upon performance data to improve the quality of skilled nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities.

C. The disability health care facility fund shall be used for the following purposes and in the following order of priority for intermediate care facilities for individuals with intellectual disabilities:

(1) to increase per diem rates to those facilities for the medicaid share of the health care quality surcharge as a pass-through, medicaid-allowable cost; and

(2) to increase each facility's respective medicaid fee-for-service reimbursement rates above those in effect on the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act.

D. No more than twenty percent of the money in the health care facility fund may be used by the human services department [health care authority department] to administer the state medicaid program for purposes other than those provided in Subsection B of this section.

E. The initial health care quality surcharge payment by health care facilities for the first calendar quarter ending after the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act shall be made twenty-five days after the date the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services approve the authorization sought by the secretary of human services pursuant to Section 11 of this 2019 act.

F. The initial quarterly supplemental payments to health care facilities made pursuant to Subsection B of this section for the first calendar quarter ending after the effective date of the Health Care Quality Surcharge Act shall be made thirty days after the date the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services approve the authorization sought by the secretary of human services pursuant to Section 11 of this 2019 act. The initial per diem payments to health care facilities made pursuant to Subsections B and C of this section shall be made thirty days after the date the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services approve the authorization sought by the secretary of human services pursuant to Section 11 of this 2019 act.

G. Subsequent health care quality surcharge payments by health care facilities will be made twenty-five days after the end of each calendar quarter for that calendar quarter. Subsequent supplemental payments made to health care facilities pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall be made thirty days after the end of each calendar quarter for that calendar quarter.

7-42-3. Cannabis excise tax.

A. An excise tax is imposed on a cannabis retailer that sells cannabis products in this state. The tax imposed by this section may be referred to as the "cannabis excise tax".

B. The rate of the cannabis excise tax shall be at the following rates and shall be applied to the price paid for a cannabis product:

(1) prior to July 1, 2025, twelve percent;

- (2) beginning July 1, 2025 and prior to July 1, 2026, thirteen percent;
- (3) beginning July 1, 2026 and prior to July 1, 2027, fourteen percent;
- (4) beginning July 1, 2027 and prior to July 1, 2028, fifteen percent;
- (5) beginning July 1, 2028 and prior to July 1, 2029, sixteen percent;
- (6) beginning July 1, 2029 and prior to July 1, 2030, seventeen percent; and
- (7) beginning July 1, 2030, eighteen percent.

C. The cannabis excise tax shall not apply to retail sales of medical cannabis products sold to a qualified patient or a primary caregiver who presents a registry identification card issued pursuant to the Lynn and Erin Compassionate Use Act [Chapter 26, Article 2B NMSA 1978] or a reciprocal participant who presents similar proof from another state, the District of Columbia or a territory or commonwealth of the United States at the time of the sale.

History: Laws 2021 (1st S.S.), ch. 4, § 45.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2021 (1st S.S.), ch. 4 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 29, 2021, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

7-42-4. Date payment due; reporting location instructions.

A. The cannabis excise tax is to be paid on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable sale occurs.

B. The reporting location for reporting the sale of cannabis products shall be at the following locations:

(1) if the cannabis product is received by the purchaser at the New Mexico location of the cannabis retailer, the location of the cannabis retailer;

(2) if the cannabis product is not received by the purchaser at a location of the cannabis retailer, the location indicated by instructions for delivery to the purchaser, or the purchaser's donee, when known to the cannabis retailer;

(3) if Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection do not apply, the location indicated by an address for the purchaser available from the business records of the cannabis retailer that are maintained in the ordinary course of business; provided that use of the address does not constitute bad faith;

(4) if Paragraphs (1) through (3) of this subsection do not apply, the location for the purchaser obtained during consummation of the sale, including the address of a purchaser's payment instrument if no other address is available; provided that use of this address does not constitute bad faith; or

(5) if Paragraphs (1) through (4) of this subsection do not apply, including a circumstance in which the cannabis retailer is without sufficient information to apply those standards, the location from which the cannabis product is shipped or transmitted.

History: Laws 2021 (1st S.S.), ch. 4, § 46; 2023, ch. 85, § 23.
