Publishers of this case please take note that Section 94(1) of the Children and Family Services Act applies and may require editing of this judgment or its heading before publication.

Section 94 provides:

94(1) No person shall publish or make a public information that has the effect of identifying a child who is a witness or a participant in a hearing or the subject of a proceeding pursuant to this Act, or a parent or a guardian, a foster parent or a relative of the child.

Judge: The Honourable Judge John D. Comeau, JFC

Heard: August 13, 2012 and August 23, 2012
at Shelburne, Nova Scotia

Issue: Disposition CFS Act

Summary: The Court considered the Minister's plan for permanent care and the plan of the Respondent mother's father for a Supervision Order in his favour. He had been joined as a party by consent and the Respondent mother agreed to his plan.

Result: Permanent care and custody ordered. The Respondent grandfather's plan was not reasonable, sound or well received. He was the person who had raised his daughter (mother of the child) and had contributed to her best interests in her parenting. She was transient, not responsible and had been given very little guidance by her father.
