v.

Brian Vincent Barkhouse

Defendant

LIBRARY HEADING

Judge: The Honourable Justice Cindy A. Bourgeois

Heard: July 18, 2012 in Sydney, Nova Scotia

Subject: Civil Procedure Rules 55.04 and 55.11.

Summary: A motion was brought seeking to determine whether certain questions posed to an expert following receipt of a report, were appropriate, and if so, which party should bear the expense of the expert answering them.

Result: The questions were appropriate and fell within the areas contemplated in Rule 55.11(3). Further, it was determined that the party who filed the report should bear the cost of any legitimate questions arising therefrom.
