

SUPREME COURT OF NOVA SCOTIA
FAMILY DIVISION

Citation: Lee v. Hebert, 2017 NSSC 331

Date: 2017-12-21

Docket: Halifax No. SFHDVRO-106237

Registry: Halifax

Between:

Mary Elizabeth Lee

Applicant

v.

Peter Robert Hebert

Respondent

---

LIBRARY HEADING

---

Judge: The Honourable Justice C. LouAnn Chiasson

Heard: October 4, 2017, in Halifax, Nova Scotia

Summary: Ms. Lee commenced a provisional application to deal with child support related to a minor child attending university. Her application requested a variation to the Consent Order of the parties issued on June 25, 2014. Mr. Hebert did not attorn to the jurisdiction of Supreme Court of Nova Scotia and the matter proceeded as a provisional hearing. Child Support will continue to be paid by Mr. Hebert in accordance with the Federal Child Support Guidelines. Mr. Hebert will pay the appropriate table amount of support and shall also contribute proportionally to the section 7 post-secondary expenses of the child

Key words: Family law, provisional hearing, child support, section 7 expenses, post-secondary expenses

Legislation: Divorce Act

THIS INFORMATION SHEET DOESN'T FORM PART OF THE COURT'S DECISION.
QUOTES MUST BE FROM THE DECISION, NOT THIS LIBRARY SHEET.