DELIVERED ORALLY FROM THE BENCH

RICHARD J.A. (for the Court):

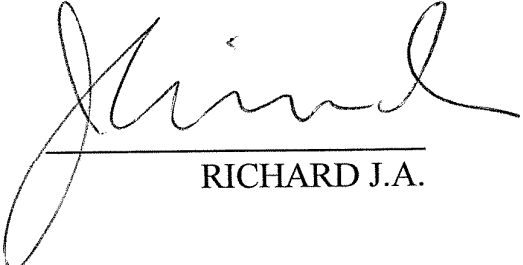

[1] The members of the panel have listened carefully to your submissions which you have made very ably this morning. We have considered those remarks that you have made and have also reviewed the trial record, and we are all of the view that you did receive a fair trial, and we fail to see any error in the conduct of the Judge at trial. Accordingly, we have no choice but to dismiss the appeal. For the record, the appeal is dismissed.

COSTIGAN J.A.:

[2] I wish to say that it is not necessary to call on Crown for this case, but I believe I speak for the other members of the panel when I say that the materials prepared by the Crown were very useful, well-balanced, and of great assistance to the Court. Thank you for taking the extra effort in this case.
