

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

BETWEEN:

CATHERINE AYALIK

Applicant
(Petitioner)

- and -

ROBERT AYALIK

Respondent
(Respondent)

MEMORANDUM

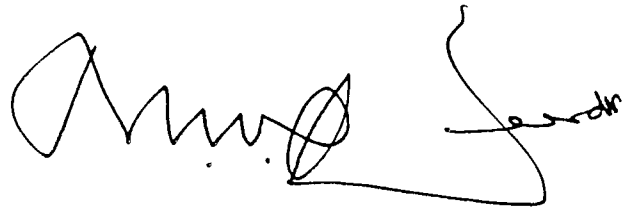

This matter came before me in Chambers at Yellowknife on February 6th 1995, when both parties were represented. Having heard counsel, and read the material, I adjourned the application for custody of the children of the marriage pending receipt of further affidavit material to enable me to better assess the situation from the standpoints of access as well as custody and, of course, child support.

2 The applicant filed her further affidavit on February 13th 1995 and an affidavit of service of that affidavit upon the solicitor for the respondent on February 23rd 1995, evidencing that service was made on February 17th 1995.

3 An order shall issue forthwith in the usual form granting interim sole custody of the two children to the applicant subject to reasonable access to them by the respondent, on reasonable notice to the applicant or as the parties may agree beforehand in writing, and always subject to any other order of this Court.

The order shall furthermore direct the respondent to pay to the applicant the monthly sum of $1,000.00 as child support for the two children commencing as of December 1st 1994 and continuing thereafter until further order, such payments to be made on or before the 1st day of each month.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'M.M. de Weerd', with a stylized flourish at the end.
