On October 28, 1985, Richard A. Russell filed a complaint charging unfair labor practices with the Public Employment Relations Commission. The complaint listed King County Fire District No. 24 as respondent but also contains allegations of misconduct by the complainant's union. Since the case docketing procedures of the Commission do not make provision for multiple respondents in unfair labor practice cases, Case No. 6212-U-86-1181 was docketed to deal with the allegations against the union. On March 12, 1986, the Executive Director issued a preliminary ruling on the two complaints commenting on the specific allegations of the complaints and pointing out where specific information or additional facts were necessary in order to state a cause of action within the jurisdiction of the Commission. The matter has been held in abeyance to enable the complainant to refile or amend the complaint supplying the required information. No amended complaint has been received. The Executive Director having considered the matter,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

The above-entitled matters are dismissed for lack of prosecution.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, this 25th day of April, 1986.

RELATIONS COMMISSION
